CLOSE GAMES FEATURED FIRST PROGRAM IN EXHIBITION HALL LAST NIGHT

The 1926-27 basketball season was successfully opened with four well contested matches last night in the Exhibition Hall. There was a large attendance to witness the opening encounters in the various leagues and the standard of play set up augurs well for what is to follow as the season advances.

Results of the various games were as follows:

Senior League-Grand Terminals, 20. · Native Sons of Canada, 23. Intermediate League: - Grotto, 31; Grand Terminals, 26. Ladies' League. - Adanacs, 8; Maple Leafs, 16.

BELIEVES EACH PART OF EMPIRE SHOULD DO ITS PART IN RELATION TO DEFENCE

LONDON, Nov. 3 .- Premier Bruce of difference in a person's Australia in an interview with the press here said:

We have some new "In the last fifteen years we have heauties in solid gold al been developing a new conception of $5.00 to $10.00. One nice Dominion status and have recognized pair is white gold set with now for a long time that inside the Empire there is the principle establish-of absolute independence on all comestic questions, with the right of consultation on all matters of common ; concern. If there still remains anything in which any of the self-governing parts of the Empire have not absolute freedom and independence 1 domestic affairs, it is right that we should consider what legal and practical steps to take to give that independ-
