SENATE APPROVES ENTRY WORLD COURT

TEN THOUSAND CARS OF WHEAT HELD UP ON PRAIRIES; ELEVATORS FULL

United States Decides to Take Part in World Court and Move Begins Force Country into League

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—After sitting long past the usual hour for adjournment time, the United States Senate ratified the resolution authorizing the United States to be a party to the world court. The discussion was long and sometimes acrimonious. The proponents of the scheme urged that it was necessary if the United States was to exert her influence to the full that she get away from the insular idea and take a more active interest in world affairs.

Supporters of the League of Nations have already served notice that they intend to follow up the entrance of the country into the world court by a campaign to force the country into the League of Nations.

While the action of the Senate in passing the resolution was expected, it was with great satisfaction the result was received by those who have been urging the adoption of a broader international policy for the country.

The newspapers of the country today look on it as one of the big events in United States history.

MISTAKEN IDEA OF STORMS TRAVELLING

Circular Motion of Wind Results in Comparatively Slow Advance

It was reported yesterday in despatches from the south that a storm a thousand miles distant was coming in this direction. Many local people began to figure that as the wind was probably blowing 70 miles an hour it would not take long to reach this place. What they did not figure on was the circular motion of a storm. While the wind might be blowing seventy miles an hour or more the storm might be advancing quite slowly, and would probably exhaust itself before reaching here, it is stated by those likely to know.

Ignorance Regarding Western Rates Claim.

There is still a great deal of ignorance in the country in regard to the western route for grain. People still imagine that the west is looking for an advantage which is not their due. Even an Alberta University professor comes out with some such statement in an address at Saskatoon. Professor D. A. McGibbon says that the Pacific coast is asking for special favors, which it is not. All the coast asks is that it be given an even break with the eastern route. "No favors for any" is our motto.

If the railways must have higher rates on export grain, we have no objection to their charging it, but let them charge the same rate to Port Arthur as they do to Vancouver or Prince Rupert. To do so is only justice and Professor McGibbon might as well read up on the question of rates before delivering himself on the subject.

Only Good Feeling Between Legislators.

When R. H. Pooley, leader of the Conservatives, was married the other day, one of those who telegraphed congratulations was Premier Oliver who sent the good wishes of the cabinet. Opposed in party and politics yet these men, through close association, get to know each other well and to respect each other. Often it is found that political opponents become close friends. It is only among the more ignorant that political opposition is allowed to become a matter of personal enmity. The telegram of the Premier was timely and tends to keep up good feeling between the leaders of British Columbia political activity.

Was Mr. Pooley Disloyal To Country?

Was R. H. Pooley disloyal to the country by going to the United States to get a wife? There must have been plenty of fine women in Canada who would have made good helpmates for the Conservative leader. Why choose a foreigner?

Of course Mr. Pooley's friends would flock around him and declare that it was not disloyalty, this act of his. They would say that an American girl is just as well suited to be the wife of a man who may be premier of the province as is a Canadian. And they are right. We really take no exception to his action. As we have now annexed this young lady, it is possible we may annex some more and perhaps finally annex the whole country. Who knows? It would be a good thing for the United States to be annexed to Canada for then she would have all the prestige of a place in the British Empire.

Prince Rupert Must Be The Active Party.

In connection with the Cow Bay settlement, Alderman Casey is right in saying that Prince Rupert must be the active mover. To have adopted Alderman Stephens' original motion to throw the matter back on the Provincial Government would have been like a slap in the face and would undoubtedly have set the settlement back some time. The reasonable attitude to have taken would have been to have taken the matter up with Ottawa and to have notified the member for the district that this was being done and that as soon as a definite arrangement could be made there the negotiations would be continued. The difficulty with Alderman Stephens is that he lets his political leanings influence his actions, unconsciously, perhaps, but none the less certainly.

Gyro Club Accepts Offer of Prince Rupert Players' Club

The Gyro Club at its luncheon yesterday accepted with appreciation an offer from the Prince Rupert Players' Club whereby the Gyro playground fund will receive the bulk of the proceeds from the play "Wedding Bells" which is to be put on for two nights early in March. The offer of the Players' Club, presented to the Gyros by W. H. P. Fleming, the secretary, is that the playground fund shall receive the entire proceeds over and above $100 which will be used by the Players' Club for the carrying on of its activities.

It was installation meeting of the Gyros and a good deal of enthusiasm was displayed for 1926 prospects. The new officers were installed by Milton Gonzales, past president, and E. A. Mann made a clever inaugural address.

S. K. Campbell sang vocal solos and W. Balagno played violin sections, Charles Balagno being accompanist.

Guests of the club were Robert Mann, Percy Tinker, D. G. Stewart and W. H. P. Fleming.

The 1926 officers of the Gyro Club are:

Past president—R. F. McNaughton.

President—S. W. Taylor.

Secretary—W. Cruikshank.

Treasurer—Howard White.

Directors—Ald. Jos. Greer, Leo Waugh, C. C. Mills and F. E. Robertson.

EASTERNERS AWAKEN IMPORTANCE OF WEST

Lady Byng Reminds Women that Unless They Have Seen More than East They Do Not Know

(Ottawa Citizen)
Lady Byng's declaration to nearly four hundred Ottawa women on Saturday that "no one has any right to speak with authority of Canada who has only seen the East" is one with a great deal of force and truth in it. After all, what do they know of Canada, who only Eastern Canada know? To paraphrase a well-known couplet. And how can one presume to speak authoritatively of a country of which one has seen but a small fraction?

If more people in the East were given the opportunity of seeing the West, the path of national progress would be made much easier. There are millions of good Canadians who have never gone beyond the borders of their own province or the neighboring province. To these, "the West" is a hazy conception, built upon preconceived ideas which frequently have no authentic relation to reality.

It is true to say that the Easterner who travels from one end of Canada to the other for the first time returns invariably with a new conception of the nation to which he belongs. He is a better Canadian for it. There is nothing like first hand acquaintance to remove acquired notions that are wrong. He comes back, too, with a friendlier feeling towards the Westerner, because he has had an opportunity to discuss, however briefly, the Westerner's problem and see the sort of work he is doing towards relation to reality.

REVIEW GIVEN HOSPITAL WORK

127 Births and 39 Deaths During 1925 According to Annual Report of Lady Superintendent

With 33 patients in the institution at the opening of the year, 831 patients were admitted to the Prince Rupert General Hospital during 1925 and 127 babies were born according to the report of Miss Jean Harrison, R.N., lady superintendent, presented at the annual meeting of the association last night. Of the total patients, 585 were discharged cured, 304 improved, six not treated (sent to specialists), 39 died and three babies were stillborn.

Miss Harrison's report stated that a survey of the hospital's activities for the year showed that progress had been made both in the number of patients treated and in the type of service rendered. The men's ward had been particularly active and especially so during the past four months. The need for further accommodation for chronic patients was making itself felt and would doubtless demand consideration in the near future.

The employment of a trained bacteriologist in the pathological laboratory had greatly increased the hospital's facilities for giving scientific care to the patients. This might be seen from the fact that 768 examinations were made in this department between May 13 and December 31.

The X-ray department, under Mr. Birch, had been quite active, 181 photographs having been taken during the year.

Better Service

The fitting up of the children's ward had made it possible to segregate the children who previously had to be cared for in the adult wards. At the same time it gave additional facilities for the caring for the little ones. This again made for better hospital service to the community.

The "Ladies" Auxiliary, Miss Harrison's report stated, had been a useful and generous ally during the year and the present good condition of the hospital supply was in a large measure due to the efforts of the members of the Auxiliary.

Several changes had taken place on the nursing staff during the year, five graduates including Miss McCaul, the lady superintendent, having resigned, others being appointed to fill the vacancies. One pupil nurse had resigned, one had graduated and three probationers were admitted, leaving the present staff as follows:

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

Coroner's Jury Investigates Fatal Accident at Elevator on Tuesday Afternoon

That Hector Queenerville died as a result of injuries sustained on Tuesday afternoon at the Prince Rupert elevator due to a fall occasioned by a derrick boom buckling while it was being used in putting the grain shutes in place on the wharf was the verdict reached by the coroner's jury which investigated the case in an inquest before Coroner Norman A. Watt yesterday afternoon. The fatality was deemed to be accidental, the coroner expressing the belief that the boom, while fully adequate for the work for which it was intended, had been put to undue strain by deceased in work which he was attempting to perform.

Witnesses were A. D. McDougall, foreman of the work on which deceased was engaged, and Henry Oastler and Samuel Preston, fellow workers. They witnessed the accident and went into its circumstances in detail. Dr. L. W. Kergin, who attended deceased, testified that he had sustained a fracture at the base of the skull with probable extensive injuries to the brain. He did not regain consciousness after the accident.

The jury comprised J. H. Thompson (foreman), John Bulger, W. Sherman Jr., J. A. Smith, Thomas McMeekin and S. King.

THE LOST WORLD IS A REAL THRILLER

School text books say that the last of the dinosaurs became extinct at least 10,000,000 years ago. Yet on the picture screen these fearsome creatures of the Reptilian Age actually come to life—with a reality that makes one tremble for the safety of Bessie Love, Lewis Stone, Wallace Beery, Lloyd Hughes and the other film adventurers who find the huge creatures still alive in an unexplored area of South America.

The amazement that these reptiles instill is equalled only by the curiosity as to how the producers were able to do it. This picture might be described as the one photoplay of universal appeal. Every class of movie patron will find a super-thrill in it.

For those who like romance we have Lewis Stone and Lloyd Hughes struggling for the heart of Bessie Love, and at the same time trying to prevent her from being gobblled up by hungry man-eating dinosaurs.

The producers say it took over seven years to produce this motion picture. That is not surprising.

For those who like spectacles this movie contains what might be termed the most spectacular event the earth has seen in 15,000,000 years. A volcano sets fire to a forest representing thousands of acres. Scores of prehistoric monsters, such as the triceratops, diplodocus, allosaurus and megalosaurus flee into an immense lake, while the human actors try to keep out of their paths.

The producers say it took over seven years to produce this motion picture. That is not surprising.

LADIES' AUXILIARY OF HOSPITAL RAISED $1,057 DURING YEAR

Appeal Made by President Campbell For Ladies to Rally to Organization

During the year 1925 the sum of $1,057.10 was raised by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital according to the report of that organization presented at the annual meeting of the Association last night by Mrs. Frank Dibb, the president. The sum of $500 had been voted to the children's ward, $371 had been expended in adding to the bedding and other equipment of the hospital, $25 had been devoted to Christmas cheer and $134.20 had been spent in raising money. There was a balance of $25.60 on hand.

In speaking of affairs of the Ladies' Auxiliary, President S. K. Campbell said it was an organization of invaluable assistance to the hospital and it was with deep concern that he had read in the Daily News that, through lack of general interest, it was facing disbandment. He appealed to the ladies of Prince Rupert to rally to this splendid opportunity for public service.
