LONDON, May 8.—The government announced this afternoon that the strike situation was the same as yesterday with transportation improving and no negotiations for peace. A survey of the whole country showed food stocks normal and mailing satisfactory. Volunteer workers in the London area reached the hundred thousand mark and wherever labor's line of defence struck in dependency of union orders, volunteers rapidly filled the gaps.

Reports indicate that all provincial points are quiet while

Lord Grey Says Alternatives

shevism Not Freedom

FATAL TO LIBERTY

When Freedom to Strike Allows Under Either Alternative Systems of Government

LONDON, May 8.—In a message printed in the British Gazette, Lord Oxford and Assistant Secretary of State condemns the strike movement and says that while settlement is earnestly desired, the social weapon which has been so intractably drawn must first be sheathed.

Viscount Grey

Viscount Grey, who was secretary of state for foreign af-airs at the outbreak of war, said the general strike raised the issue in which the question of miners' wages is submerged. The issue is now not what wages shall be, but whether democratic parliamentary government is to be overthrown. It was this operatic government that was won and by this can it be maintained. The alternatives are either factiousness. Neither of them is a free press, free speech, freedom of action, not even freedom to strike.

INQUIRIES ARE COMING HERE

President of Board of Trade Reports Improvement in Outside Interest

At the meeting of the board of trade last evening President Olof Hanson announced that more interest in regard to Prince Rupert had been received of late years in regard to opportunities at this port. These had to do with lumber manufacturing and shipping and they indicated a healthy condition.
Matters of inquiry of a routine nature are answered by the secretary in consultation with the president.

The board has endorsed the proposals of the farm proposal which came recently from

SUDDEN DEATH OF THIRZA FOX

Thirza Fox, aged 17, expired suddenly about 10.30 this morning at the home of Mrs. Isaac Lear, 925 Borden Street, where she was employed as a domestic servant.

The girl had attended to her regular morning duties about the house and with the children and, before 10 o'clock, while seated at breakfast, she left the table and went upstairs to her room. About fifteen minutes later, Mrs. W. J. Scherk, mother of Mrs. Lear, went upstairs and found the girl lying on the bed breathing heavily and apparently suffering. Asked what was the trouble, she put her hand to her head and asked for a handkerchief with which to dry her mouth. A doctor was called but, before he arrived, the girl was dead.

Funeral arrangements are in the hands of Hayner Bros. and an inquiry will be held by the coroner.

Thirza Fox, who was within a week or so of her seventeenth birthday, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Fox.
Her father, who was at one time a Hudson Bay factor in the Peace River country where the dead girl was born, died here about a year ago. Three sisters—Margaret Fox, employed by Mr. and Mrs.
Max Heibroner; Isabel, employed by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Evans, and Minnie, who goes to school—survive as well as a brother, Dick Fox, who is employed by the B. and N. department of the Canadian National Railway.

TENDERS FOR MAIL SERVICE

Wishes of Board of Trade to be Carried Out by Government at Ottawa

A letter from Deputy minister Ohara of the trade and commerce department read at the meeting of the Board of Trade last evening with President Olof Hanson in the chair, stated that tenders for mail service next year to Queen Charlotte Islands would be called by the department in accordance with the wish of the Prince Rupert Board providing for more frequent services than at present required.
He differed from the local board, however, in regard to the accommodation required. The Canadian National steamer last year carried 11,608 tons of freight and 2,875 passengers.
In calling for tenders they must provide accommodation for 200 tons of freight on the steamer and he also suggested that passenger accommodation should be larger.

Fred Stork Defends Building of Elevator Here and Talks Budget in Commons Speech

Tells of Benefits to Fishermen From Reduction of Tolls and Duties and Old Age Pensions of Government.

OTTAWA, May 8.—Fred Stork, member for Skeena, in a speech on the budget in the House of Commons yesterday defended the construction of the Prince Rupert elevator, which he said was essential for the transportation of grain to the Orient.
Vessels carrying grain would, on their return, carry to the Canadian shores the silks and wealth of the Oriental countries.

Attacking the opposition, Mr. Stork said the Conservative amendment to the budget was "one of the weakest submitted to the House in the last 35 years." The opposition had suggested that the government was weak, yet the present administration had won all recent by-elections and strengthened its position in the House and throughout the country.

Increased Markets

Since 1921, Mr. Stork said, the Mackenzie King government had increased Canada's markets through trade treaties which it had entered into. He wondered if the Conservative board of strategy "had anything to do with closing automobile plants after the reduction of the tariff on motor cars was announced in the budget speech. These plants closed their doors on the Friday for political reasons but opened them up again the following

Premier Oliver's Mission is Subject of Inquiry in Commons by Conservative of Vancouver

OTTAWA, May 8.—In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon L. J. Ladner, Conservative member for Vancouver South, asked the government if any representations had been made to it by Premier Oliver of British Columbia, who is now in Ottawa, regarding reduction or equalization of the freight rates as they affected that province.

Premier Mackenzie King said that so far Mr. Oliver had not mentioned the subject to him, but he would inquire of his colleagues if such representations had been made.

Premier Oliver came here to take up the matter of railway lands with the government. The freight rates matter has been fully discussed with the government by the Premier in the past and the matter is now before the Police Commission In Fighting for Its Life Obtains Legal Advice

Being advised by City Solicitor E. F. Jones that it had no recourse from the decision made by the city council to transfer the policing of the city from municipal to provincial control and that its power as a body would be transferred to the superintendent of provincial police on the coming into effect of the agreement with the provincial police, the police commission at a specially called meeting yesterday afternoon decided to supplement Mr. Jones' opinion with outside legal advice by obtaining an opinion from L. W. Patmore.

In opening the meeting, Mayor Newton stated that it had been called because there seemed to be a good deal of uncertainty both on the part of the public and the police commission itself as to where the commission stood with respect to the change that had been decided upon by the council which it was proposed to carry into effect by serving notice on the city police force that its services would not be required after the end of this month.
The meeting was being called so that it might be ascertained as to whether the action of the council nullified the police commission and whether or not the police commission would continue to act under the changed condition.

No Status

Reading from the Police and Prisoners Act, which provides for the transfer of police authority from municipal to provincial hands, City Solicitor Jones informed the commission that it would have no status after the transfer of authority came into effect. The municipal council was empowered to enter into an agreement with the superintendent of provincial police to take over the policing of the city. The superintendent would then take over the power now held by the police commission to maintain and order the force and the duties of the police commission would cease to exist. It would be necessary, however, to keep a police commission elected in case, at any time, the agreement with the superintendent should be terminated and the city should again take over its own policing.

Not Convinced

Commissioner Montgomery stated that he would not be convinced that the police commission was relieved of its obligation until he had received further legal advice to confirm that of Mr. Jones or otherwise. There followed some discussion between Commissioner Montgomery and Mr. Jones as to the power of the police commission to even expend money to obtain such advice. There was apparently some conflict of opinion on the question.

Commissioner Frizzell inquired as to the difference of cost that would be involved in making the proposed change. He thought the police commission

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—

bottom of the hill and telescoped another car there, severely injuring five people and causing lesser injuries to scores of others.

The runaway car hit a truck before crashing into the second car. This stopped its plunge somewhat but it was again going at breakneck speed when it crashed at the foot of the hill.

The Automobile Industry has never had 35% protection---only 14 1/2%

The duty on the finished motor car has significance only when considered in relation to the duties applicable upon the parts and materials which it is necessary for Canadian manufacturers to import.

Certain parts are themselves dutiable at 35 per cent. A great many parts and materials are dutiable at rates in excess of 20 per cent.

These figures reveal the facts:

Canadian manufacturers made and sold in Canada, during 1925, 84,000 motor cars whose wholesale value was	$67,500,000
If these 84,000 cars had not been made in Canada, but had been imported from the United States at prices which, after payment of 35 per cent duty, would have represented a wholesale value in Canada of $67,500,000 the duty collected would have been	$17,000,000
After deducting all drawbacks, Canadian Manufacturers in 1925 actually paid in customs duties on parts and materials used in the cars made and sold in Canada	$10,000,000
Their actual protection therefore was only	$ 7,000,000
Thus a protection of 35 per cent is actually a protection of only $7,000,000 against $17,000,000, leaving a NET protection of 7-17 of 35 per cent, or less than	14 1/2 per cent
Under the proposed Customs tariff, the majority of Canadian-made cars will have no protection whatsoever!
