VESSEL OFF ROCKS TODAY

Boxer Was Floated From White-cliff Island at 11.30 This Morning

BEING TOWED HERE Will be Dry Docked For Survey and Probably Temporary Repairs

The United States government auxiliary schooner Boxer, Capt. Whittam, after having been stranded on a reef at Whitecliff Island since early last Saturday morning, was floated on the high tide at 11.30 this morning and is due to arrive here in tow between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon for dry docking.

The vessel will be surveyed here and it is probable that at least temporary repairs will be made at the dry dock. If she proceeds from here to Seward, it will be necessary to reload railway ties and coal for the Alaska railway that were lightered off the vessel by the Rupert Marine Products tug M.T. 3, which brought one scowload in on Tuesday and which will arrive this afternoon with another.

As a result of her contact with the reef, the forefoot of the Boxer has been damaged, and it is probable that her hull, of wooden construction, has also been strained. Survey will establish the exact extent of the damage.

The American government vessels Unalga and Cygan, which have been standing by and assisting the Boxer, will arrive in port with her.

Under the proposal the valuation of the entire system is to be left to three arbitrators. An initial cash payment of $2,000,000 is to be made with $1,900,000 annually until payment is completed. No estimate has yet been made of the total price to be paid.

Nine Dollar Rate for Alberta Coal for Use Province of Ontario

OTTAWA, March 11.—An agreement on a tentative rate of $9 per ton for hauling coal from Alberta to Eastern Canada was reached at a conference between Sir Henry Thornton and Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, and others representing the federal members from Alberta.

The establishment of the new rate is subject to the approval of the provincial governments interested.

As a by-product of the business, the Canadian National Railways agreed some time ago to deliver a certain quantity of Alberta coal in Ontario at $7 a ton. This was partly to help out the coal miners of Alberta and also to provide Ontario with fuel during the Anthracite coal strike in Pennsylvania.

The rate now tentatively established is a very low one and is subject to the provinces paying a portion of the estimated loss.

GOES TO JAIL FOR ASSAULT

Man Demanded His Children at School but was Refused and Fight Then Began

PUPILS TOOK PART

Magistrate Says Teachers Must be Protected Especially in Remote Districts

WINNIPEG, Mar. 11.—Slaying that female teachers, especially in remote districts, would have to be protected, and exemplary punishment given woman beaters for whom he expressed a profound contempt, Magistrate Noble in provincial police court passed sentence of two months in jail on Clifford Barry, Ashern farmer, convicted of assault on Miss L. M. Testley, teacher of the Barnwald school. On the charge of creating a disturbance in a public school Barry was given suspended sentence.

Violent Temper

His worship said a great deal of public interest had been shown in the case, and for this reason the matter could not be dealt with as an ordinary assault. Teachers were public servants, and must be protected. In this case the evidence showed that the complainant had a violent temper, but she was not on trial, and all he could do was to decide whether Barry had broken the law. He found that he had. Accused, he said, knew Miss Testley was of an excitable disposition, yet in spite of this fact he had gone to the school looking for trouble. He must understand that teachers are in charge during school hours, and even if classes were sometimes kept going after the usual closing time he had no right to go in the school and take away his children without the teacher's permission.

Sadie Devlin's Evidence

According to evidence given by Sadie Devlin, Winnipeg girl who went to Ashern as "lady's companion" for Miss Testley, Barry had come to the school February 1 a few minutes before closing time. He had asked for his children and was told by the teacher school had not yet been dismissed. He told the teacher, she said, that it was long after 3, and he wanted the youngsters. Then the mix-up started.

Miss Testley went out in the lobby and asked Barry to go. "You can't have your children. The flag is still flying and school is in session," she said. Barry laughed in her face.

"Get out," said the teacher. "Put me out," challenge! Barry.

Then came the fight.

Grabbed by Throat

The teacher was grabbed by the throat and struck on the chest. She was pushed on the woodpile, and then for good measure thrown against the walls of the porch. Miss Testley, although a bit winded by the rather rough handling, returned to the fray. While some of her pupils gave Barry a poke in the nose, others more playful grabbed the ends of his moustache, and she in her turn gave him a lusty blow on the shoulder with the business end of a broom. His face was scratched till the blood ran down. Someone's nails did deadly work. Witness, however, could not say who did the scratching.

To E. Browne-Wilkinson, defence counsel, witness said she did not get along very well with her companion. She had stayed with her for over six weeks, and during that time there had been a number of squabbles. On two occasions Miss Testley had threatened to knock out witness' brains with a billet of wood. She was greatly relieved, she said.

WAS NEARLY CRAZY FROM HEADACHES

Miss K. Brill, 579 Redwood Ave., Winnipeg, Man., writes:—"I was troubled with such severe headaches that some times I was nearly crazy with them.

One day a friend told me about, and advised me to use when her mother insisted she come back to Winnipeg.

Harry's Evidence

Barry, who took the stand in his own defence, said he had gone to the school at 4:20 as shown by his watch. He had set his timepiece by the station clock the previous Saturday. The clock in the school showed 4:02 when he got there. He had knocked at the door and had never gone inside the schoolroom but remained in the lobby. He had asked for his children, who lived three-quarters of a mile from the school, and was going to drive them home as he returned from his trip with a load of straw. The teacher, he said, got very excited. She stamped her feet, clapped her hands and tried to shoo him away. He had only laughed. "Are you going to put me out?" he inquired very mildly. She said that she was.

Scratched His Face

"Then she grabbed me, your worship, and scratched my face. And at the same time she asked her pupils to help her. She put her arm around my neck, while some of the children piled right on top of me. It was then to protect myself that I pushed her away. I didn't touch her at all until she scratched my face," came out in a torrent of words. His worship looked sceptical, but made no remark.

BOUGHT WELL IN EASTERN CENTRES SAYS RUPERT MAN

A. W. Lipsin, of the Acme Importers, returned to the city yesterday after a two month buying trip in the Eastern cities. During his visit east, Mr. Lipsin also visited relatives in Cleveland and Detroit.

Business conditions in Edmonton, Winnipeg, Toronto, and Montreal are rather slow in picking up and Mr. Lipsin found that Vancouver showed greater signs of immediate prosperity.

Resulting from the dullness in the east, Mr. Lipsin was well looked after by the manufacturers there and he was able to do his buying very advantageously.

PREPARING NOW FOR A GARDEN

Suggestions Made as to Varieties of Vegetables to be Grown.

This is the season for gardening. Every fine day now will see local people digging and preparing the soil for the crop.

The experimental station at Invermere, B.C., has sent out the following suggestions as to varieties of vegetables to be grown in the province as follows:

Potatoes, Carrots and Beets—Potatoes—For earliest planting Early Ohio, Early Rose and Irish Cobbler are recommended.

Carrots—For main crop nothing is better than a good strain of Chantenay. For early work Early Horn may be used.

Beets—Nothing surpasses Detroit Dark Red, and here it is ready to use as soon as frosty weather comes, and has a much better color.

Turnips—For earliest use favor White Milan. This is followed by Golden Wonder.

NIGHT CLUBS OF NEW YORK

Soon as Police go After Them They Move to Other Quarters in City

ARE COLORFUL PLACES

Nude Dances Are Taboo But Last Verses of Songs With Kick Given For Price

NEW YORK, March 11.—How the night clubs of New York live, and who lives in them, is revealed as a result of Police Commissioner McLaughlin's drive to close certain objectionable classes of them.

The question, "What is a Night Club," as applied to the objectionable kind, has been largely a secret of those initiates with much spending money.

The Commissioner has sought to enforce fire hazard regulations to close some of them. They have responded by "stripping down" their equipment and making it mobile.

Colorful Places—Tucked away here and there beneath the bright folds of the "Roarin' Forties," there is nothing "clubby" about these colorful little places.

Escorts Squirm—One enterprising manager has two sets of menus, one with and one without prices. The menus without prices are handed the ladies, and they order, blissfully ignorant of why their escorts squirm around so.

Breakfast Dance—Faced with the necessity of being always one jump ahead of the police, the clubs have adopted the breakfast dance.

Her Nerves Were "All Broken Up"—Mrs. David Gallagher, 37 Lyndhurst Ave., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "My nerves were all broken up and I could not sleep at night, and I would have to get out of bed and walk the floor for hours at a time."

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient.

Every manager of a household—every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare—should make a habit of reading the ads.

Read the advertisements in order to buy wisely tomorrow, the latest wrinkle evolved by night club sponsors for the relief of the "tired business man," is the breakfast dance.

The breakfast dance, strangely enough, starts at about five or six in the afternoon. For two or three hours it follows rather conventional lines while at some places objected to by the Police Commissioner those participating go through a process called "getting oiled."

Other night club songs are such as "Florida You Owe a Lot to Me." When the final stage is reached patrons sometimes roll up dollar bills and bombard the orchestra across a tiny dance floor.

In some clubs where elaborate bars are found in the upper stories of barn-like buildings, a general pilgrimage higher up takes place at about three a.m. having partaken of a "night cap" the uninitiated manoeuvre downstairs again and depart.

The "regulars," however, steer some distance down the street or around the corner, and the revel continues until about eight a.m. The management of one club prides itself upon closing promptly at eight a.m., giving its patrons cold showers, and "shipping them off to work as fresh as the dawn."

Some of the night clubs have added another line, "Never turn

Victoria Lecturer Tells of Visit to Former Penal Settlement and Tells Its History

VICTORIA, Mar. 11. — The tragic associations of Norfolk Island, for a period a penal settlement from New South Wales, were graphically described by the Rev. W. W. Bolton in a lecture he gave at Memorial Hall. This island was one of the places Dr. Bolton visited in the course of his six years' travelling about the South Seas, and from which he returned only last September.

vict settlements were established were McQuarrie and Port Arthur, and Dr. Bolton told enough about the shameful treatment of the prisoners to explain the horror with which Queen Victoria heard the story and the reasons for the instant measures which she instituted for the abolishment of the institution. So dreadful were the sufferings of the miserable condemned men at that time that rather than face the prospect of exile on this "Island of Despair" the convicts frequently drew lots among themselves to decide which of them should undertake the horrifying business of killing his comrades in order to remove them from their fate.

BAPTISTS HAVE A CONTROVERSY

Cannot Agree as to Interpretation of Book of Jonah so Say Unpleasant Things

CHURCH MAY SPLIT Said to be Conflict Between Ignorance and Education Going on Now

TORONTO, March 11. — "To me it is tragic that this sublime document—the book of Jonah—a truly divine protest against narrow-mindedness, small-heartedness and bigotry, and a glorious plea for the recognition of the forgiving love and redeeming grace of God, should become a cause of such unhappy controversy."

Is the Baptist denomination of Ontario and Quebec going to split over Jonah and his whale? Not if the McMaster University authorities can bring the Baptist people to an acceptance of the view that it is possible for a professor to be an evangelical Christian, and loyal to Christ and the Bible, and at the same time interpret the Book of Jonah as "a divinely inspired prophetic sermon in the form of a parable or allegory."

Professor Marshall, while admitting that he interprets the Book of Jonah allegorically, denies emphatically that he ever said to anyone that anyone who interpreted the book literally was an "uneducated fool."

Dr. Marshall's statement in part is: "It is being circulated that in my opinion a man who does not believe in the literal interpretation of the Book of Jonah is an uneducated fool. No such statement has ever escaped my lips. I have never said and never should say such a thing, for it is not my practice to speak harshly of the beliefs of other people."

Many Oppose Science "Many of the critics of McMaster are opposed to science; opposed to Biblical and theological scholarship that is in complete harmony with the fundamentals of the Christian faith; and opposed to that free, reverent inquiry which is the birth-right of every institution that dignifies itself with the name 'university.'"

"That is why in my address to the alumni at Ottawa a few weeks ago I described the conflict as being, in the last analysis, a conflict between ignorance and education." Chancellor Whidden in his article in the Canadian Baptist quotes the views of Dr. R. S. McArthur, who held to the historical view of Jonah. In 1898 he wrote as follows: "It is extremely foolish for any man to say that if Jonah goes, Jesus goes, and the Bible goes, and Christianity goes. I venture to affirm that our faith in Jesus Christ and in a divine revelation, does not rest on the interpretation which we give to the Book of Jonah, or to any other book of the Old Testament."

CANADA RULED BY CORPORATIONS WHO DEFY RAILWAY BOARD ORDER DECLARES EDMONTON NEWSPAPER.

The railways are charging rates from one to three cents a hundred pounds more than the board order allows. The loss to Alberta farmers is a matter of vital concern, as it means the loss of many hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly. But the loss that the Dominion of Canada is suffering by virtue of a breakdown of part of its judicial power cannot be measured in mere dollars and cents.
