DECLARE DISSOLUTION UNCONSTITUTIONAL

HON. T. D. PATTULLO ENTHUSES OVER DISTRICT WHICH RECENTLY VISITED

Mackenzie King Declares That Parliament is Not Legally and Constitutionally Dissolved Yet

Charges Conservative Ministers with not being able to face House after violation of privileges condemned by Commons

OTTAWA, July 5.—Declaring that "the serious question arises as to whether Parliament has been legally and constitutionally dissolved seeing there was no prorogation, notwithstanding that both houses of Parliament were in session and His Excellency, the Governor General, was present at the capital at the time," Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King last night issued a statement on the constitutional question.

Commenting that the only notice that Parliament was dissolved was a letter to the speaker from the under-secretary of state and that "senators and members of the House of Commons were informed by messengers and page boys that their presence was no longer required," Mr. King adds: "This method of assuming to dissolve Parliament is quite contrary to constitutional usage and law."

MAY ABANDON CONFERENCE

Imperial Gathering Will Probably Not Take Place This Coming October.

ELECTIONS INTERFERE

Canada Expected to be Represented by First Minister at Important Occasion.

LONDON, July 5.—The Canadian Press learned on the highest authority that the imperial conference set for October will certainly be abandoned if Canada is unable to send representatives owing to the nearness of the general election which is expected to take place in September.

"In view of the Canadian elections taking place in September, a slight delay in the meeting of the imperial conference is not inconceivable," says the Daily Telegraph, "although it is hoped to avoid it. But in view of the prominent part hitherto taken by Canadian statesmen in the discussion on British foreign policies, it is considered essential that Canada should be authoritatively represented by her leading minister or ministers in October."

OTTAWA, July 5.—No official communications regarding the abandonment of the conference have been so far exchanged, it is learned, but it is assumed that if the conditions are such that the Premier is unable to attend, the conference will be either postponed or abandoned.

FOUR ACRES MINE FELL IN

Seven People Killed and Eight Injured at Wilkesbarre Saturday

KILKESBARRE, July 5.—Seven people were killed and eight injured, some seriously, when the roof fell in a coal mine near here late Saturday. The fall occurred about 700 feet beneath the surface over an area of approximately four acres. Large quantities of gas released made rescue work difficult.

CALIFORNIA QUAKE.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 5.—Three earthquakes, all of brief duration, were felt here last Saturday. No damage is reported as a result.

PATTULLO SEES DANGER AHEAD

He Urges People Not to Put Themselves Under Control of Interests

MOMENTOUS EVENTS

Easterners Seeking to Control Destinies of Country Says Minister

Speaking of the Ottawa situation to-day, Hon. T. D. Pattullo said: "Some momentous events have been taking place in Ottawa. Just how far reaching they may be only time can tell, here is a great deal more involved than just who is in and who is out."

The approaching election will be tenaciously fought. It will be well for the people to speak with no uncertain sound to break an unhealthy deadlock.

Ever since Confederation a few powerful eastern interests have sought to control and largely have controlled the destinies of the country. These interests for some time have been losing their grip to such an extent that they have not hesitated to resort to extreme measures to force the people of Canada to their will.

Gloom and Pessimism

For years through an extreme propaganda of gloom and pessimism they have endeavored to frighten the popular mind into acquiescence in their selfish plans. "Rule or ruin" is their motto. The recent reduction in the automobile tariff showed the extent to which they will go. Factories closed down and threats of remaining closed were made to influence public opinion in their behalf. It was all part of a stage play to frighten the people of Canada into submission to continued economic servitude.

This country should be governed for the good of the people as a whole and it is to be hoped that the people will not be misled either by specious argument or threatening attitude.

Time to Speak

This is a time for the people to speak for all the people and not merely for a few of the people.

HALIBUT ARRIVALS

Giant Garden Cactus, which was found in the desert reaches of Lower California, and is estimated to be over 150 years old. The huge size of the plant may be judged in comparison with the men and the motor car at its foot.

Minister of Lands Sees Great Development and Future Prospects Good

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, returned at the weekend from Stewart and Anyox and leaves for Queen Charlotte Islands tonight. Speaking of his trip, the minister said: "I am very doubtful whether the people of British Columbia as a whole and, indeed, the people of Prince Rupert, appreciate the empire wealth which is situated in this portion of British Columbia. I motored from Hazelton to Prince George and if this territory were located in the Province of Ontario or any other populous country it would be the home of scores of thousands of happy and prosperous people. The difficulty today is finding a market. Nevertheless the country is going steadily forward and marked progress is being made."

"I was through this country before the railway was completed and I have been through it many times since, and every visit sees new development. The years of effort are bringing results and best of all the people themselves realize that they are getting on a solid and permanent basis."

"It will not be very long until the various pieces of road between Hazelton and Terrace are connected and then one can motor from Terrace to Mexico."

Benefit to Rupert

"Interior development is of great benefit to Rupert and development of industry in Rupert will be of great benefit to the interior in the way of providing a steady market."

"What is needed in Rupert more than anything else is power. We must have power to encourage establishment of industries here. No one is likely, under present conditions, to undertake power development unless an available market is in sight. Port development, through shipping, export of wheat and the establishment of an Oriental steamship service would create opportunity for markets which would induce power development for the establishment of industries in Prince Rupert with its advantageous and strategic position for rail and water transportation. All we have to do is to keep on striving and eventually, with the solid foundation that is being laid, development will speed up in a way that will astonish us."

Mining Expansion

"It is gratifying that mining is each year expanding and the north takes second place to nowhere on earth in mineral resources."

CANADIAN NATIONAL ANNUAL TOUR PARTY IS DUE ON SATURDAY

McNaughton, district passenger agent, Prince Rupert, who will go East tomorrow morning.

"I am going home to rest," said Amundsen. "Forty-one years ago at the age of 15 I knew what I wanted to do during my life. I wanted to see both poles. I have seen them. My job is done. There are no more places to discover. There will be no more lectures. I may never see America again."

The "Filling In" Problem.

Those who travel the agricultural portions of Canada are often puzzled to explain the presence of large areas of unoccupied lands around most of our old-settled communities. The Federal Immigration Department regards the colonization of these scattered areas as its major problem and so it is. Such lands are generally well served with transportation, educational and other facilities. Their settlement would materially ease the burden of those already in occupation in various ways and could give rise to no new public liability for the extension of services. Careful study might well be devoted to the settlement of these areas in the interest primarily of the communities tributary to them.

Problem in Human Labor.

An examination of these lands would at once reveal the fact that nine-tenths of them are below par in quality. They are heavily treed, are low lying, stony or have thin soil or exhibit other undesirable features. They are, in fact, culis or what is generally termed "sub-marginal." These lands present a problem in human labor. Most of them are sub-marginal only until reclaimed by hard pioneering effort when they will graduate into the class of more or less productive lands. But their reclamation involves clearing, digging out stones, drainage or similar uninviting and time consuming labor, unproductive for the time being.

Government and Community Effort.

The ownership of such lands has generally passed from the crown and is in the hands of all sorts of companies, individuals and municipalities. Here is an opportunity for community effort and the various provincial governments might well take the lead in a movement towards a general "stock-taking" of these undeveloped resources, by promoting the formation of "Land Settlement Committees" in the smaller towns with the special object of colonizing these lands, and making them productive. They would generally be available at a very low price and on long terms of payment.

Problem of Farm Labor.

Such lands, in small areas, would appeal with special force to the farm labor class of limited means and the European peasantry. Their development would be slow and laborious, but the new settler and his family would be available for work on the farms in the neighborhood during the busy seasons and could thus add to his income and incidentally help to solve the agricultural labor problem which has always been acute in Canada. Until we promote the colonization of agricultural labor in our settled districts our progress is going to be severely curtailed. An organize movement such as this would be helpful all around.

"talker" follows her preachments and elopes with a youth who turns out to be a rogue.

A series of thrilling episodes are the result, but happiness finally rescues the girl, and the husband is enabled to silence his wife with that most withering of all phrases: "I told you so."

"COHENS AND KELLYS" IS PATHETIC DRAMA RIMMED WITH MIRTH

Famous Comedy is to be Shown at Westholme Theatre at End of This Week.

If life was made for laughter, whoever attends the Westholme Theatre while "The Cohens and Kellys," a Universal-Jewel, is the feature, will live a complete life during the run of this picture.

"The Cohens and Kellys," is life jammed with wholesome human touches of pathos and comedy. It is not a farce comedy, but it is drama of the relations between the Irishman and the Jew told with an eye always on the comic possibilities of the tale.

The Irish policeman who opens his heart to the Jewish family is played by Charlie Murray, whose most recent roles have been as a character comedian. Teamed with him in furnishing much of the comedy is Kate Price, a real Irish lady from Ireland, while on the other end of the balance are Vera Gordon, the famous hit of "Humoresque," and George Sidney, a stage actor of 32 years experience. These two Jewish players contribute their quota of laughs.

Playing a rather wistful part devoid of comedy, Olive Hasbrouck, as a romantic lead gives a performance of dramatic depth that immediately brands her as one of the new school of girls that contribute the stars of tomorrow. Jason Robards does well with his role and Nat Carr is a new find for a villain.

Two boys, Bobby Gordon and Mickey Bennett, give clever performances. The story is from Aaron Hoffman's famous stage play, "Two Blocks Away."

ANOTHER STRINGER STORY IS FILMED

"Womanhandled," Offering at the Westholme Theatre is Sequel to "Manhandled."

The west as it is and as it is generally supposed to be, are both shown in an interesting picture, "Womanhandled," which is opening a two day's run at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

The picture, from the story by Arthur Stringer, which ran in the Saturday evening Post, is an answer to "Manhandled" by the same author.

"Womanhandled"

Dix has the role of a millionaire's son whom every cutie on Broadway knows and chases. Richard doesn't mind being chased a bit. He's a well known spender at the night clubs, always accompanied by a bevy of chorus girls, till one day in the park he meets Esther Ralston. He has just jumped into a lake and pulled out a drowning little boy. Esther thinks Richard's great and asks him if he's one of those big, rugged fellows from the open spaces. Eager to make a hit, Richard lies. He says he's a Westerner. But a couple of days later Esther learns the truth. Richard, in love with her now, offers to go West for six months and actually become what he was pretending to be.

He goes to his uncle's ranch in Texas. But it turns out to be a 1926-model outfit with all modern improvements. The cowboys ride Fords. There's electricity, tiled bathrooms, valets and a golf course. Richard spends his time playing golf. After six months he is starting east again when an "Artists and Models" company hops off the train he is boarding and at the same time a telegram comes from Esther that she will arrive at the ranch in the next hour.

Dick rushes back to the ranch, gets the trick cowboys to put on claps and mount horses. He meets Esther with his "cowboys" and a covered wagon. On the way to the ranch he fights Indians of his own invention. He pulls a fake lynching. In the midst of it Esther spots the "Artists and Models" girls and learns Dick is faking.

She starts away at top speed in the covered wagon. Dick pulls a real rescue. There is a final thrill—and a happy ending.

MID-WEEK PICTURE HAS GREAT CAST

Anna J. Nilsson and Lewis Stone Are Leading Actors in "The Talker."

An imposing array of favorites form the cast of "The Talker," which is coming on Wednesday and Thursday to the Westholme Theatre.

In the featured roles are Anna Q. Nilsson, as beautiful and as gorgeously costumed as ever; and the polished and immaculate Lewis S. Stone. These two were last seen here together in "Inex from Hollywood."

And in lesser roles are seen Shirley Mason, Ian Keith, Tully Marshall and others almost equally as well known.

The story is from Marion Fairfax's stage hit of the same title, and while it unfolds a rapid succession of tense love scenes and thrills, finds its basis in the prosaic figure of a woman who hates housework and likes to talk.

She is one of those ultra-modern women who believes in the freedom of sex, and she defies her husband to curb her.

The plot ascends tensely dramatic heights when the young and unsophisticated sister of the

For a Perfect Cup of Coffee

CARNATION'S the ideal milk for an ideal cup of coffee. With its creamy-delicate taste it brings out the rich perfection of the aroma. And it adds that golden-brown color which coffee-lovers want.

No wonder Carnation is so good. It's pure, fresh milk made doubly-rich by evaporation. Then sealed up and sterilized for safe-keeping. It is creamy-rich—yet by adding a trifle more than an equal volume of water, takes the place of ordinary milk.

Carnation quality is the one reason why more Carnation Milk is used than any other kind.

Order from your grocer today several cans or a case of 48 cans.

CARNATION DOUGHNUTS.—Two-thirds cup sugar, 1 1/2 tsp. butter, 2 eggs, 3 tbsp. Carnation Milk diluted with 6 tbsp. water, 5 tsp. baking powder, 3/4 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. cinnamon, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg, 4 cups bread flour, lard or compound for frying. Cream the butter and sugar, then add the beaten eggs and cream until light and fluffy. Sift the baking powder, salt and spices with the measured flour and add them, with the diluted milk, to the creamed mixture. Combine quickly, stirring with a fork as one would stir biscuit. Toss one-third of the mixture on a slightly-floured board and knead just enough to obtain a smooth surface. Pat or roll out to one-third inch thickness. Cut with a doughnut cutter. Handle as little as possible to keep the dough soft. Fry in deep, hot fat having a temperature of 360° to 370° F., or hot enough to brown a one-inch cube of bread in sixty seconds. The time required for cooking is from one and one-half to two minutes, depending upon the size of the doughnut. Drain on soft paper and, if preferred, roll in confectioner's sugar.

Pacific Milk Keeps Well

Pacific Milk keeps so well in warm weather that quite often some woman writes to ask what is done to the fresh milk. Sometimes they ask what we put in to keep the milk sweet. Pacific Milk is pure—absolutely. Nothing is added. It keeps, because our factories are so wholesomely clean. However, you should treat it like fresh milk once the can is opened.

A collection for the Boys' Band netted $38.60. Digby Island was thronged with crowds of men, women and children from before noon until late yesterday evening, and everyone seemed reluctant to leave such a good time behind them. ## SPORT CHAT

With the special events in connection with the Dominion Day celebration now over, local players and fans will settle down to the local league engagements until Fair Week when the next inter-town games will be played. Tomorrow night the third game in the Mobeley Cup or city championship football series will be played and, on Friday evening, there will be the match between Scotland and Canada for the benefit of the Boys' Band. On Wednesday evening, the Naval Reserve and High School are scheduled to meet in the Intermediate Football League.

The schedule for the second half of the baseball season will be issued this week. It will also make provision for a number of games from the first half of the season which, for various reasons, had to be postponed. The locals may have been outclassed by the Alaskans in the series with Ketchikan but interest in the doings of the three league teams, all of which are still very much in the running, will continue undiminished and by the time the season's schedule is completed the locals should be in shape to give a better account of themselves in any games which may be arranged for them with outside teams during Fair Week.

The following teams have been chosen by the Prince Rupert Football League to play a benefit match next Friday evening in aid of the Boys' Band. The teams will be designated Scotland and Canada respectively.
Scotland—A. Murray, A. Haig, J. Harris, A. McDonald, S. Currie, N. O'Donald (captain), J.

Johnson, Macindewar, S. Erskine, W. Mitchell, J. Farquhar, Spare, Hunter.
Canada—R. Howe, R. B. Skinner, H. Menzies, Geo. Hill, Vic Menzies (captain), Geo. Mitchell, B. Walters, A. Dickens, D. Lamb, Percy Tinker, J. Norrington, Spares, Sims and Wilson.
A. Clapperton and S. Hemmons will act as linesmen.

ALPINE AT JASPER PARK

Northern Peaks of Rocky Mountains are Attracting Attention

MONTREAL, July 5.—Bound for Jasper Park Lodge in the Canadian Rockies where he will join Howard Palmer, noted American Alpinist, for a climb trip in to "The Whirlpool" group of peaks in Jasper National Park, Dr. J. W. A. Hickson of Montreal, president of the Alpine Club of Canada, has left Montreal for Canadian National Railways. Dr. Hickson and Mr. Palmer hope to return to the Alpine Club Camp which is being held at the end of this month by a new pass which has probably not yet been crossed by Alpinists and join the members of the Alpine Club in the Tenquing Pass Valley where this year's camp is being held.

The Whirlpool group, where Dr. Hickson and Mr. Palmer will climb before going in to this year's camp, is a group of peaks traversed by the Continental Divide between Fortress Lake and Pass and Athabasca Pass. The latter is practically unexplored. Only two peaks in the territory are known to have been climbed and in the group are many peaks which as yet bear no official names being known only by colloquial or suggested designations. Fortress Mountain and Mount Serenity are the two already conquered. Many of the peaks in the district are more than 10,000 feet in height and they present a difficult task for any Alpinist to attempt.

Mr. Palmer has already left New York for Jasper and, on the arrival of Dr. Hickson there, the climbers will outfit and start at once for the Whirlpool area where they expect to spend a couple of weeks before crossing the pass to the Tenquing. Indications are that this year's Alpine club camp will witness record registration of climbers from all parts of Canada and the United States as well as other countries. The holding of the 1924 camp at the base of Mount Robson attracted attention to the northern end of the Rockies and selection of the Tenquing Valley area for this year's camp was hailed with satisfaction by members everywhere. This year's main camp is being located almost at the summit of the Tenquing pass territory.

The chief attempts will probably be directed towards the climbing of peaks of the Ramaparts, a jagged range which include Mount Gekie, 10,854 feet, which was climbed two years ago after several unsuccessful attempts had been made.

Qualifying climbs have been arranged by which tyros will gain their membership in the club on an active basis.

Edmonton and Prince Rupert Closely Bound Together by Mutual Interests in Business

By H. F. PULLEN

Edmonton and Prince Rupert will be closely associated in the grain trade in the near future. The capital of Alberta bears all the evidences of present prosperity and future greatness. It is a growing city and being the centre of a rapidly developing rich grain growing country, and the trade centre for the immense northern country as well as the export and import distribution point for the west, it is city, one among the great cities of the continent.

And this is the city that is bound up with the future of Prince Rupert. Mayor Blatchford, with whom I talked when I visited it the other day, declared that the prosperity of Edmonton was closely associated with the ports on the Pacific Coast. Personally, he did not speak of either Prince Rupert or Vancouver. His aim was to help get business going west as the western route spelt greater prosperity for the farmers and prosperity for the farmers meant prosperity for Edmonton. He believed that the interests of Vancouver and Prince Rupert were one and both can help in the development of the western prairies.

Mayor Blatchford strongly urged the building of highways to both Vancouver and Prince Rupert by way of Prince George. He said that closer communication both by road and rail would benefit both the coast and the interior. He hoped the British Columbia government would realize this and do their part in carrying out the big projects.

Increase in Business
According to John Blue, secretary of the Edmonton Board of Trade, the grain business of the city has increased by leaps and bounds. Only three years ago the amount of grain inspected in the city was 6,500 bushels, the following year it was 16,000 bushels and the crop year just ended saw 22,470 bushels inspected. This was largely the result of the building of the elevator in the city and Mr. Blue thinks Prince Rupert business will grow correspondingly with the operation of the elevator at the port and it will also affect considerably the business of Edmonton.

On the farms within a radius of 60 miles of Edmonton Mr. Blue estimates the crop will average thirty bushels to the acre this year and from forty to forty-five million bushels will be harvested if nothing untoward happens. This is an immense thing for Edmonton and should benefit Pacific ports. This is the nourishment on which Edmonton feeds, the nourishment which is steadily building up a great city on sure foundations.

City to be Admired
It was my first visit to Edmonton and I liked the city well. I drove all over it, admired its fine residences, public buildings and scenic effects. It has a population today of about 68,000, all workers. Edmonton has no room for idlers. It welcomes tourists, but does not vie with Victoria as the home for those who wish to end their days in peace after a strenuous life. However, it has much to offer in the way of amusement its golf links are the envy of all prairie centres.
Manufacturing and other industries are welcomed to Alberta's capital but all the law allows in the way of welcome is to give them a fixed assessment for a term of years on their property. The city has much vacant property, the total area being 27,000 acres. Those who laid out the city must have had a vision of the future and have believed in its progress. Sometimes we think Prince Rupert is too big for its population, but when we next get the idea, just think of Edmonton.

Settling Country
Edmonton Board of Trade is spending much money this year in inducing farm settlers to take up land in the district. Beautiful booklets have been printed, setting forth the attractions of the neighborhood and picturing its advantages. They believe that to have a good town you must have a good country around it, something which we sometimes forget. It is the district "where opportunity beckons" and this is set forth on the cover of the booklets.
The people of Edmonton are strong for their city. Mayor Blatchford leads the way. He said to me: "This year we shall have the greatest crop in history and all of it should find its way to the Pacific Coast ports. That is the natural outlet. Think what such a crop means to the city and what an advantage it is to us to have it marketed in the most advantageous manner possible. Our hope lies on the Pacific. John Oliver has fought a good fight for British Columbia on the freight rates question, but I am ashamed of the manner in which the Alberta government has lagged behind in this matter. Edmonton has done its part and so has Saskatoon, but the government of this province has only just awakened to the situation."

Everybody Pleased
Others of the people were equally enthusiastic. Bank managers and newspapermen and others are all pleased with the prospect. I called on F. W. Doherty, manager of the Royal Bank and formerly of this city. I met the editors of the newspapers, the natural resources commissioner, R. C. W. Lett, and a number of others and they all saw visions of future growth and prosperity and were pleased with existing conditions.
I was reminded of a few members of the old brigade in Prince Rupert when I called on Jno. McNeill, head of a big taxi and transfer business. I asked him what there was to see in Edmonton and he assured me there was nothing. They had nothing to show. Yet I rode for two hours in one of his nice sedan cars and saw new and interesting things all the time, thanks to a good and interesting driver. Possibly Mr. McNeill has never seen his own city.
Prince Rupert can well afford to co-operate with Edmonton in every possible way. Their destinies are bound up one with the other and once the proper freight rates are established we shall undoubtedly do an important import and export trade with that city.

THE MAN IN THE MOON says:
THERE'S one great thing in favor of colored pop and that is one cannot see what's at the bottom.
I WONDER if the Ketchikan baseball team taught Maggie how to wield a rolling pin.
IT'S nice to think a few of the home boys will get a lesson or two in the game at Ketchikan.
THE number of tummy aches suffered by the kiddies on Dominion Day testified to the fact that they enjoyed themselves.
I WOULD suggest that the fair board get in touch with the Native Sons and find out how they got the good weather for their celebration.
ALL single men should be forced to serve as baseball umpires before getting married. They'd then understand what keeping their temper meant.
WHEN in doubt ask the provincial police.
MOST women evidently believe the paint slogan "Save the surface and you save all."
IF catering does it, the Maple Leaf basketball team should have no trouble in finding husbands a little later on.
DID you ever hear the story of the man who was so slow that he got knocked down and run over by a funeral?
FOR inconsistency it would be hard to beat the Progressives at Ottawa.
One of the things we never hear about is the invention of a tool for tightening up loose tongues.
IF dancing is such a health giver, why doesn't sister show a little more pep around the kitchen the morning after?
IT would look as though the election is going to be hotter than the summer weather.
IF a man's got enough pep to do the daily dozen these mornings, then he doesn't need to do 'em.
WHEN the party invitation comes along the woman wonders what she'll wear and the man wonders how he can get out of going.

THERE'S only one thing worse than an old needle on a gramophone record and that's an old needle on the seat of a chair.
A BARBER in the States has refused to bob women's hair. He must have a jealous wife.
A HIKER has recently traveled on foot from New York to Pittsburgh only drinking water. But who in thunder wants to be a cross country hiker?
THE man who sold his car because the doctor told him to get rid of his worries did a wise thing.
LITTLE Bo-Peep, she lost her shiek, And didn't know where to find him; So she wrote him a note, Which got the shiek's goat, Now he's left Bo-Peep behind him.
JACK and Jill went down the hill. To get a bottle of Grow; But on the way back Their pride got a crack, They fell into the arms of a Pro.
IN the old country they have an automatic machine at the railway depots for making change. A machine like that would be popular at the local depot.
IF we, as citizens, are half as nice as some visitors tell us we are then we should be wearing municipal medals.
A WOMAN scorned is not half as bad as a woman corned.
WHY not put Jake up as the Conservative standard bearer in the forthcoming election?
WITH the fair and elections in September we should have a busy fall.
A WINE in time feels fine.

TOASTS at a banquet would be alright if the coffee at the bottom of the cup would only keep hot.
IF the modern girl should scramble over a barbed wire fence she'd have nothing on Eve.
Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., formerly of this city and now member of the legislature for the Islands, was a speaker at the Victoria Conservative picnic at Brentwood on Dominion Day.

WILKINS PARTY HAD QUARRELS

Leaders of Detroit Arctic Expedition Had Differences in North

SEATTLE, July 5.—Lieut. Carl B. Eielson of the Detroit Arctic expedition, said here that disagreements between Captain George Hubert Wilkins, the leader, and Major Thomas G. Lanphier, unofficial army observer with the party, characterized the undertaking.

The first quarrel occurred at Fairbanks, Alaska, Eielson said. The second was at Point Barrow. The third will be at Detroit, the aviator predicted, when Lanphier appears before the Detroit Aviation Society, which sponsored the expedition to seek command of another attempt to explore the Arctic wastes.

The party left Detroit last winter and made four flights from Fairbanks to Point Barrow. One trip of 150 miles was made north of Barrow. The purpose of the undertaking was to find and chart land in the Arctic. None was found.
