B. C. KEELEY SAYS RUPERT WILL BE BUSY

MACKENZIE KING SEES VICTORY FOR LIBERALS AT FORTHCOMING ELECTION

Keeley Sees Busy Time Ahead of Prince Rupert Result Grain Shipping

Prophesying a busy season in Prince Rupert this autumn and saying the Canadian Government Merchant Marine would help to contribute to that, B. C. Keeley, Pacific Coast manager of that concern arrived this morning, accompanied by his wife and son, who will continue east tomorrow. It is understood that while in Ottawa and Montreal Mr. Keeley will take up the question of putting on a direct steamship service out of this port to the Orient, making their headquarters and shipping in conjunction with the railway. He has announced previously that he believes in such a policy and the present is the crucial time for putting it into effect.

Mr. Keeley says a number of their boats will be docking here. There is more work being done on the Canadian Prospector than was expected, all to the benefit of the drydock here.

Mr. Keeley is very cheerful in regard to local conditions. He looks forward to great developments in business as a result of the grain shipping. He says everything has been adjusted between the drydock here and the wheat pool in regard to lining the ships and there should now be nothing in the way of success.

EVEN MILES YET TO SWIM

In Water Ten Hours

French Side at Seven This Morning With Grim Determination to Win.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Gertrude Ederle, of New York, the girl swimmer, was about seven miles from the English side of the English Channel. She had been in the water about ten hours, having started her attempt at Griz Nea, on the French side, shortly after seven o'clock this morning. The wind had been kicking up a bad sea but it moderated slightly. Heavy rain was falling and conditions were far from favorable.

There was a sharp contrast to her grim determination when she walked into the channel this morning and her light hearted start last year.

RAILWAY MAKES GOOD SHOWING

Sir Henry Thornton Says Will be Improvement in Operating Results For Year

DRAYTON GIVES DENIALS

OTTAWA, Aug. 6.—The belief that the Canadian National Railway will show assured improvement in operating results this year over last coupled with the tremendous improvement made last year were contained in a statement issued today by Sir Henry Drayton, acting premier and acting minister of railways.

Sir Henry denies that the Conservative party are "in some way or another going to get rid of the National Railway—in some way or other going to hand them over, presumably to the Canadian Pacific."

Referring to prophesies that they would replace Sir Henry Thornton as president of the Canadian National or P. C. Larkin as high commissioner in London, Sir Henry Drayton said: "The suggestion is untrue and is made merely for the purpose of the election."

MURDER AND SUICIDE AT VANCOUVER

Father Killed Child and Then Strangled Himself is Belief of Police

WOMAN BEHEADED

VANCOUVER, Aug. 6.—While the police believe to be a case of murder and suicide was discovered early this morning at the home of Will Johnson, 40 years of age, at 104 Kamloops Street. Returning to her home, Mrs. Johnson discovered the bodies of her husband and young son Rudolph, 13 years of age. The boy's head had been smashed with an axe and the father's lifeless body was hanging from a bedpost. Both had been dead many hours.

The police believe the father first killed the boy and then strangled himself to death.

A blood-stained axe was found under the pillow on which the boy's head was resting and the rooms generally were in a state of disorder. The walls and floor and bedding were spattered with blood.

Medical examination showed that Johnson had been dead 24 hours and the son even longer. A friend of the family told the officers they had called at the home three times yesterday and received no reply.

Mrs. Johnson who worked out of town, told the authorities that her husband had been acting queerly for some time past and it was the result of his threats that she left home two weeks ago. It was on one of her visits to see her son that she discovered the tragedy.

Baseless Charges Against Ministers.

At the meeting of the investigating commission yesterday at Quebec, the counsel for the Meighen Government admitted that there was no ground for the charges against members of the Mackenzie King Government in regard to wild orgies aboard the Customs Steamer Margaret. No such orgies took place and such is admitted even by counsel acting for the body urging on the investigation. So vanishes into thin air another of the scandalous stories circulated for the purpose of trying to keep the Mackenzie King Government out of office.

New Settlers Are Cultivating the Land.

The report of the commissioner of immigration for the Canadian National Railways in regard to the cultivation of the land by new settlers as published yesterday made interesting reading. It has been charged by many people that immigration is useless and that people will not stay on the land even if put there. Here then is an official statement of fact in regard to recent immigrants. They are on the land and are cultivating it. Naturally some few will drop out and go to the cities, but so far they are making good.

Make Good Conditions And People Will Come.

One of the cries of the people opposed to immigration is that if conditions are made good enough for those who are here, others will come. It is a high sounding statement and must appeal to everyone. Yet it is not workable, because we make our own conditions. Governments can do little for us unless we are willing to help ourselves. We have seen instances of communities getting together and making conditions attractive and succeeding and we have seen governments try to help people and the more help they got, the more they wanted. They refused to help themselves.

The only sort of help that amounts to anything is self-help. Let us in Prince Rupert take this to heart a little and do something to help ourselves. Let us back our board of trade and other organizations and take part in the work of the community. The city councils have done good work for us on the roads and we can back them and forward the interests of the city at every point.

City is Securing Much Publicity.

Prince Rupert is securing much publicity throughout the continent and farther. Articles in regard to the elevator are appearing and the world is coming to a realization that this new port is destined to become an active factor in the trade of the world. Everything points that way and we are having the fact impressed upon us from the outside as well as at home.

We have suggested before and we suggest it again, that every person should be an advertising agent for the city and should help carry her fame to the ends of the earth. It is well not to forget this.

BARRIE TELLS OF HIS VISIT EAST RECENTLY

Thinks Toronto Fast Becoming Leading City in Canada Just as Vancouver is Growing

WORK OF UNITED CHURCH

An interesting account of his recent visit to Eastern Canada together with a short resume of the organization of the United Church which he represented at its recent general conference was given by Earl Barrie at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday. He told of being the youngest member of the United Church Council but representing the largest presbytery extending from Hazelton to the outer extremity of the Queen Charlotte Islands and from Alert Bay to the North Pole. The headquarters of this presbytery was in Prince Rupert. There were present 454 delegates of whom seven were women.

Toronto Overtaking Montreal

Telling of the places visited, Mr. Barrie said Toronto was fast becoming the leading city of Canada, overtaking Montreal just as Vancouver was overtaking Winnipeg. He told of going to the Union Station office to send a telegram to Prince Rupert and being told it would have to come by way of Vancouver. The elderly lady there said she knew there was no office at Prince Rupert because she had been there. Mr. Barrie sent the wire from another office.

However, Toronto was improving very rapidly. Harbor development was going on, an amusement centre was thronged even on Sundays when only the swimming pools were open and there was a new baseball stadium which had beneath the ground a lining of cork to make it dry quickly after showers.

Delinquent Boys

Mr. Barrie attended a Rotary luncheon at Peterboro where he found business terribly quiet. At the luncheon the speaker was the head of the Bowmanville institute for delinquent boys where the aim was to graduate good citizens. It was conducted like an English college. The boys were billeted in cottages with a man and woman in charge of about twenty boys.

A visit to Montreal was much enjoyed and much attention was given there to the churches.

United Church

Telling of the United Church gathering and organization, Mr. Barrie said the church was a unifying force leading the way toward unity of the other churches. It had 700,000 members, 2,000,000 people in the congregations, over a million children in Sunday schools and societies, 125,000 teachers and 65,000 students in the colleges. In addition there were 645 missionaries.

SHORTEST PARLIAMENT HISTORY OF DOMINION

Five Months and 26 Days Was Length of Life of That Which Recently Dissolved

OTTAWA, AUG. 6.—The present general election campaign throughout Canada follows the dissolution of the shortest parliament in the history of the Dominion. The actual life of Canada's Fifteenth Parliament, which was dissolved on July 2, 1926, was five months and 26 days. Although the last general elections were on October 29, 1925, the law officers of the House of Commons say that the actual existence of Parliament dates from the first day the speaker takes the chair, which was on January 7 of this year.

Previous to this the record for brevity in Canadian Parliaments was held by the second parliament after Confederation, which sat for one year and four months. The Twelfth Parliament, which was under the wartime government, established the record for longevity by carrying on for six years, holding seven sessions during this period.

The length of service of each parliament since Confederation follows:

- 1st—4 years, 9 months, 15 days
- 2nd—1 year, 4 months
- 3rd—4 years, 5 months, 25 days
- 4th—3 years, 5 months, 28 days
- 5th—4 years, 5 months, 16 days
- 6th—3 years, 9 months, 27 days
- 7th—5 years
- 8th—4 years, 2 months, 26 days
- 9th—3 years, 9 months, 26 days
- 10th—3 years, 9 months, 4 days
- 11th—2 years, 7 months, 28 days
- 12th—6 years
- 13th—3 years, 7 months, 7 days
- 14th—3 years, 8 months, 30 days
- 15th—5 months, 26 days.

First Witness

The first witness called was Robert Ross Duncan, employed as a deck hand on the Chief Zibassa at the time the robbery took place. Questioned by Milton Gonzales, for the prosecution, witness testified that he had been employed as a deck hand on the fish packer for about two weeks and that he knew accused. On the morning of July 23, between 8.30 and 8.40 o'clock, when going toward the Chief Zibassa he had met Capt. Hansen alongside the wood shed about 200 yards from the Cold Storage. He asked Capt. Hansen when they were going out and he replied that he did not know. Accused was going towards Hannan's store. He just spoke to accused when passing and then went aboard the boat.

Witness stated he had never been inside the captain's stateroom on the boat but had seen inside it. Witness identified a padlock and hasp produced in court as similar to one he had seen on the boat, and had seen Capt. Hansen putting a lock on the door of his stateroom, the door being closed. The witness did not know what was inside the stateroom and did not see any money or cash box inside. He had seen a cash box in the stateroom on the boat near the window, and the next morning had been in charge of the store.

Sacks and Lead

Witness was shown a sack and stated he had seen sacks of a similar nature aboard the boat, and also identified a piece of lead as similar to lead on the boat. When witness had first seen the lead it had been lying on deck and Capt. Hansen had told him to put it in the coal box on the starboard side, and the sacks were also near the coal box.

Witness had never had a key to the stateroom door and did not know of any other person aboard having a key other than the captain. On the morning of the robbery, Capt. Hansen had gone with him and the skipper of the Fredena, and the second engineer to have a cup of coffee. Witness did not see Capt. Hansen again until dinner time. The captain had had dinner with him (witness), the skipper of the Fredena, Tom Moorehouse, engineer of the Chief Zibassa, Frank Cameron and the cook. Capt. Hansen had gone up on deck about 1.15 p.m. Witness had also gone on deck to see what they were going to do, as Mr. Blance and a machinist from the Cold Storage were on deck, too. Capt. Hansen told him that he was going to fix the stove pipe and then he (witness) turned in. When he went below the cook was downstairs and Capt. Hansen was on deck. He did not learn of the robbery until about 7.30 o'clock that night. Witness did not know that Capt. Hansen had any money on board. When witness met Capt. Hansen walking towards Hannan's store the captain was walking with his hands in his pockets and his coat was hanging loose.

Cook Gives Evidence

John Visser, cook on the Chief Zibassa, was the next witness called. Witness stated he had been employed as cook on the boat on July 23. He had slept on the boat the night previous to the robbery and there had been no one else aboard to his knowledge. On the morning of July 23 he had got up about 7 o'clock and after making breakfast had gone up to the store

BRADY SPEAKS AT MEETING

Declares Mackenzie King Government in Collusion With Smugglers and Bootleggers.

Declaring that the Government of Mackenzie King was in collusion with smugglers and bootleggers and declaiming on the sins of the late Government and the merits of the present, J. C. Brady, Conservative candidate for this constituency, addressed a goodly gathering of the faithful at the committee rooms last night. He told of the success he had met with in the north and prophesied the defeat of Fred Stork and the success of the Conservatives in the Skeena riding. George Munro presided.

Mr. Brady went into some detail in regard to his trip to Atlin and mentioned the wonderful reception that had been given him by people who wanted a clean administration.

Turning to local issues, the speaker said there was nothing personal between himself and Fred Stork. Mr. Stork was supporting the Mackenzie King Government, whereas he was opposed to it. He had hoped it would be possible to tour the constituency with Mr. Stork appearing on the same platform with him and he hoped yet he would have the pleasure of meeting him to discuss the issues.

Mr. Brady said that Stork had been a consistent supporter of the Mackenzie King Government and as such must be responsible for any maladministration in Government affairs.

Customs Affair

The speaker then went into the details of the customs irregularities and spoke of the unanimous report of the committee of investigation consisting of four Liberals, four Conservatives and one Progressive. When the report was presented to the House and the question of censuring the Government arose, the Liberal members voted with the Government, but Agnes McPhail, who hitherto had consistently voted with the Government, opposed them, as did several others, with the result that a majority of ten against them was recorded.

The Government, he said, was in collusion with smugglers and bootleggers and he asked if any who took their responsibilities seriously would give a certificate of character to the Government by supporting their candidate.

In regard to the Daily News, Mr. Brady said that paper had paid him the compliment of saying he was an eloquent speaker. As there could be no eloquence except the principles supported were honorable, he was glad the News agreed that the principles for which they stood were of the highest.

HOSPITAL PICNIC AT SMITHERS WEDNESDAY

Event at Lake Kathryn Was Very Successful and Was Followed by Dance.

SMITHERS, Aug. 6.—Another huge success has been scored by the officers of the Bulkley Valley District Hospital and the annual picnic at Lake Kathryn was enjoyed by a large crowd of residents of town and district on Wednesday afternoon.

The swimming races and bathing were the chief items on the regular program of sports, with a ladies baseball game added for good measure. The married ladies are getting to be rather experts in the latter sport and in a game between the town and the C. N. R. teams exhibited their prowess to the picnickers. There was only time for five innings, with the town team victorious by a fair margin.

The day ended with a dance in the Town Hall, when good music, good eats and a good crowd gave a happy ending to the day's entertainment.

MINING EXPERT

VISITED SMITHERS; PLEASSED WITH ORE

SMITHERS, Aug. 6.—Representing the information bureau of the Dominion department of mines, Dr. F. J. Alcock, F.R.S.C., spent the past few days in Smithers and district, gathering data dealing with the lead and zinc resources of this section of B. C. With only limited time at his disposal Mr. Alcock could only visit a few of the mineral zones of the district, but the bodies of ore he has been able to inspect have proved a revelation to him. The ore now being mined at the Dulhine mines was an exceptional surprise and he stated the ruby silver and copper ore was the first he had ever seen.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Under the auspices of the local branch of the B. C. Chamber of Mines, Dr. Alcock addressed a public meeting on the mining question in general.

SMITHERS TO HAVE IMPERIAL OIL STN.

SMITHERS, Aug. 6.—That Smithers is to have an oil supply station was the welcome news brought to town by G. A. Woodland, of Prince Rupert, the district manager for the Imperial Oil Co. This is a matter that has been agitated for a number of years, but promises was all that has been obtained heretofore. Mr. Woodland has now, however, assured the local bodies that the work of installing the tanks is to be started in a few days.

In celebration of her seventeenth birthday, Miss Theodore Raabe entertained a number of girl friends at a party on Saturday evening. In addition to the dainty and bountiful supper games and contests were enjoyed by those present.

At the summer home of her parents at Lake Kathryn, Miss Linea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Hanson, entertained a number of her girl friends to a birthday party on Tuesday afternoon. Games and contests were greatly enjoyed by the girls, the swimming prize being won by Marjorie Blance of Prince Rupert and the tennis prize by Miss Marjorie Wagner. The games were followed by refreshments.

A community memorial service for the late Andrew McNaught was held in the Town Hall on Sunday evening and was very largely attended by the people of town and surrounding districts.

Andrew McNaught, who was drowned in the Bulkley River about four weeks ago was a member of the local Rebekahs, Oddfellows, G.W.V.A., and Native Sons of Canada, and his sister and brother members of these

FIFTH STRAIGHT GYRO BASEBALL WIN LAST NIGHT

The Gyro baseball team made its fifth straight win last night in defeating the Sons of Canada in a Senior League game last night by a decisive score of 12 runs to 3. The rooters for both teams were out in force and taking the game generally it was a good one although devoid of any spectacular or outstanding play. The Sons of Canada fell down in their fielding while the gyros were again up to their batting form. Good hit for the Gyros, made two nice hits, a three-bagger and a two-bag hit. Errors in fielding on the part of the Sons was the sole cause of the score being piled up against them.

The Sons got two runs in the fourth inning and one in the fifth. The Gyros got two runs in the first inning, one in the third, two in the fourth and 7 in the fifth.

Batteries.—Gyros: Schenkler and McKeown. Sons of Canada: Lambie and Balfour, and Menzies and Mitchell.

SMITHERS BASEBALL TEAM WERE VICTORS

Beat Burns Lake By Score of 7 to 4 in Return Game.

SMITHERS, Aug. 6.—The return game of baseball between Smithers and Burns Lake was played here on Sunday afternoon and was one of the best games staged here in a long time.

The play was close and snappy all through and with the exception of the sixth inning, when the locals put over three runs, the score was fairly even, ending 7 to 4 in favor of the home team. The lineups were:

Smithers—Arnold 2b, Lewis cf., Roberts p., Goodacre c., Warner 1b., Graham ss., Lewis lf., Mutch 3b., Finnerty rf.

Burns Lake—Steel 3b., Nolan p., Jensen c., Landson ss., Commons 2b., Partridge 1b., Atkinson rf., Campbell cf., McKenna lf.

The lakes team motored down and were accompanied by a good gang of rooters.

A Cabinet of Shadows

By R. J. DEACHMAN

The new cabinet of Mr. Meighen is no world beater. It fell on the public mind as flat as 2% beer at a bootlegger's picnic. The press comment was dry and cynical.

The Telegram of Toronto referred to Messrs. Chaplin and Ryckman as having strength only in their pockets and being marked by their ability to cough.

The Globe speaks of it as a disappointment. The Manitoba Free Press quotes Wellington's comment on some of his recruits:

"I do not know what the enemy will think of them, but they frighten me."

The Journal says it is not a cabinet of all the talents, a perfectly obvious remark, while the Montreal Star, which might be supposed to say something even if not commendatory, quietly devotes the space to an editorial upon the question "Rabies still serious."

The Average Man

The man of the street satisfies himself with comments of "shucks, bash," or the more expressive "bull." He is uninterested, at least, he is yet. They may tear the constitution to shreds and tatters if they choose, but what has that to do with the price of gasoline. Anyway has Arthur Meighen had a constructive thought during the whole session? He hadn't even a suggestion on the budget except that the changes should have been delayed or have come sooner. "Doc" Donnelly from Willow Bunch defined the Tory outfit one night on the floor of the House as a "sooner or later" opposition. Now as a government they are going into an election without a platform and with a cabinet mostly shadow, also shallow.

Of course this is not the real cabinet. Some point that out in hope, others in fear. If it's not real it's good camouflage. Certainly it can be characterized as inconspicuous — inconspicuous is its outstanding asset.

The Left Over

But this cabinet is as famous for what it leaves out as for what it takes in. Robt. Rogers has gone home with all the joy of an Ontario school boy sent to pick potato bugs when he wants to go fishing. In the first burst of enthusiasm, Robert went down to Montreal and sent back word that Quebec would send twenty-five Tories to Ottawa. Meighen, however, dropped him overboard. Then Bob went West. He landed in Winnipeg with no brass bands, bells or feathers. In the deep silence of his home-coming you could hear a firefly pass with his light out. What's the use of being a past minister of elections—what is life to a campaign fund expert when the door is closed. There is nothing left now to Robert for all his past services but a halo of hair and a tarnished name.

And G. B. N.

Then there is Nicholson. "Nick" always walks as if he carried a Bible under his arm. His hands are in front and he uses the one to wash the other and the laving process goes on continuously. Nicholson thinks he's the whole menagerie because he got mixed up in a nut story before the House and thought that coconuts and Brazil nuts and peanuts held a Ford car together instead of bolts and nuts. But Nicholson has an acquisitive disposition. They say he can pick up money from a timber limit so quickly that the chickadees clear out when they see him coming. They know there won't be a worm left after G. B. passes by. Now he's left out. If he was the Jeremiah of Canada before, what will he be now? My guess is that he will appoint himself a Prince of Walls. Then Foster (Dewitt) might have had a place in this cabinet as minister of agriculture and why not make Hanson, the disbarred lawyer of New Brunswick, a something or other in the twilight aggregation.

And the Ins

But consider those who are in, the outs will consider them—selves. We have a cabinet of millionaires — three or four of them. If this is proportional representation of millionaires in the cabinet, Canada has most of the world's wealth. It may not be a cabinet of all the talents, but it includes all the privileges. There is the member for West Calgary (duty on matches 25%), Dr. thirty-five-per-cent-on-motor cars Morand, without portfolio. Chaplin, heavy on motor parts, and Ryckman, guardian of general corporation interests. Then we have Patenaude! Last election he was the Mahomet who would not come to Meighen's mountain. Arthur was then full of the "Ready aye Ready" gospel and Patenaude was of the always-late-for-the-firing-line style of thought. Then Meighen went to Hamilton and said he would hold a war time election with himself as Chief Returning Officer before a shot was fired and Patenaude with true Tory enthusiasm kissed him on both cheeks while Meighen wept because he had no more cheeks to be kissed.

The Kindly Word

Of the others not much may be said. Mr. Black is a dear old soul crawling up to 80. He has been given the heaviest portfolio in the bunch, railways. Some of the Maritimers want to take the L.C.R. back into politics and patronage, and Mr. Black will be asked to step softly while it is being done. Drayton is left out. It is rumored that he will go as Ambassador of No-truck-and-trade to Washington. Religion had to be accounted for so there is a reasonable supply of Catholics, but the cabinet making was done so close to the 12th of July that the Orangemen were all busy and had small chance to slip in. George B. Jones gets Labor because he has never had anything to do with it in the past and the erudite Robertson who acted as executioner of the King's English on the fall tour of Mr. Meighen last year will not be in this cabinet because Meighen wants to forget the Winnipeg strike.

Of the others little may be said. There is Stevens the $200,000,000 a year customs man and Guthrie the grey phantom from Guelph, then Manion, who when he rises in the House whistles shrilly to show how brave he is and because of once having been a Grit fires both barrels at once just to show how keenly he desires to fill the other fellow full of shot. And a final word for the tail end of the cabinet: Dr. Tolmie. He is round and fat and comfortable and happy. If you were to pick out a human being out of the cabinet you might do worse than take the Doctor. But they are a lonesome looking bunch—a stop gap for oblivion—a coral growth that will yield up its life soon. Doubtless worse cabinets could be formed, but the toil would task a Hercules. However, it's a passing show and soon will come "Good Night."

MILL WILL BE BUILT ON TIME

No Delay to Take Place in Connection With Erection of Herb Next Summer at Seal Cove

The rebuilding of the mill at Seal Cove by the proprietors of the George town Mill will be proceeded with according to schedule, declared George McAfee yesterday to the Daily News. The timbers will be cut this winter at Georgetown and construction work will commence in the spring as previously announced. It will take next summer to get the buildings up and all arrangements made and the following winter during the shutdown period the transfer will be made so that the mill will be ready for active operation in the spring of 1928. This was the original intention and the terms of the lease of the site from the Canadian National Railways call for it.

Mr. McAfee said there had been a rumor around town that they were simply holding the site and did not intend to build. "You may tell the people there has been no change in our plans," he said. "A new mill cannot be built in a day. We have been clearing up at the Seal Cove site and still have more to do there. Already several thousand dollars has been spent. We are now going to get plans for the new mill drawn up and there will be no delay. Everything will be carried out as originally planned."

CAPT. HANSEN IS ON TRIAL

Cold Storage plant, on being called to the stand, said that he remembered Friday morning, July 23. On that morning he went to work at 8 o'clock. He worked in the boiler room and saw Capt. Hansen twice.

He noticed Capt. Hansen pass through the boiler room going toward the boat at about 8.30 a.m. On Capt. Hansen's passing through the boiler room he, witness, noticed that accused had something under his coat and was bulging between his shirt and his coat, but did not see what it was. Witness had not spoken to accused. He saw accused again about 9 o'clock when he came back from the boat and passed through the boiler room. Capt. Hansen then had a similar parcel and was holding it in the same position. The bulge of Capt. Hansen's clothing going to and from the boat was about the same in size. When Capt. Hansen was going out he (witness) asked him what he had on his hip. He had made the remark because accused looked kind of blue. Capt. Hansen did not answer but raised his right hand. The boiler room was the general passage to and from the boats. Witness had known accused during the time of his employment as fireman at the Cold Storage, and had no ill feeling toward him. Upon being questioned witness stated that he did not see all the people who passed through the boiler room and that it was possible for people to get to the boats by going around the boiler room and past the coal pile without being seen in the boiler room.

Mr. Patmore: "Why did you ask him, what have you got on your hip?"

Witness: "It was just a remark." Witness said that the bulge in Captain Hansen's coat was just over his left hip pocket and that accused had his arm over it. Witness could not remember anyone else passing through the boiler room that morning. The fact of Capt. Hansen lifting up his hand did not strike witness as anything peculiar.

Mr. Patmore: "Are you quite sure that the time he (Capt.

Hansen) lifted up his hand was when he was coming toward the boat or going from it?" Witness: "It was when he was coming from the boat." Witness had learned of the robbery of the Saturday morning, the day after the robbery. The fact of Capt. Hansen walking with the package came to him on the Saturday morning.

John Visser was again called to the stand and in reply to a question put by Mr. Patmore stated that he met the accused on the morning in question just in front of the little garage when he was walking with his hands in his pockets like he always did.

Frank Cameron Testified

Frank Cameron, second engineer on the Chief Zibassa, was the next witness called. He stated that on the morning of July 23 last he went to work about 11 o'clock. The boat was tied up alongside the steamer's beside the dredge. Upon going aboard he went into the fore-cabin. He had spoken to the accused about some compensation papers he wanted to get fixed up. He and Capt. Hansen had gone to Jack Maine's office on the dock to get the dates of when the accident happened to him (Cameron). He saw Mr. Darton that morning up in the office of the Cold Storage Company about 11.30 o'clock. Mr. Darton had had a conversation with accused, asking him to bring the money up to the office from the boat, and accused had said he would take it up right away. Witness then left the office with Capt. Hansen and went aboard the Zibassa. They both went down below to the small cabin behind the engine room where witness had changed his clothes.

While changing his clothes witness had again conversed with Capt. Hansen about the compensation matter. It was then about midday.

Capt. Hansen had told him that he was some money short and was going home to get it. He did not know what time Mr. Darton went to lunch but when the whistle blew for dinner time Capt. Hansen had said that he would take the money up to the office after lunch. He (accused) did not give any reasons as to why he would take the money up after 1 o'clock. Capt. Hansen had said that the whistle had gone and that it was no good taking the money up to Darton then as he (Darton) would be gone to lunch.

Cameron said that after lunch witness had gone up on deck and had left Capt. Hansen in the fore-cabin. Along with Capt. Hansen were Duncan, T. Moorehouse and the cook. About 20 minutes later he returned to the boat but at that time did not know where Capt. Hansen was. Witness was down in the engine room with T. Moorehouse until about 2 o'clock. Capt. Hansen then came aboard and called down for Moorehouse to go up on deck as he wanted him. Witness did not go up on deck. He had no key to the captain's stateroom and knew of no other member of the crew who had one. Witness did not know that the captain had money on the boat until Darton had asked accused to bring it up to the office. He did know where the captain kept the money and in reply to a question by Mr. Patmore said that it was customary for men to go into the captain's room to get paid off and it was quite common knowledge where the money was kept.

The case is proceeding this afternoon.
