LONDON, October 25 .- Parliament reassembled today for the purpose sanctioning a continuation of the government's emergency powers to deal with the coal strike. The dispute, which is bringing torpor to the whole country and its trades and industries, will again be debated.

The coal shortage is being aggravated by the extremely cold weather and the public is now feeling the pinch of the scarcity and costliness of fuel. This Loss of Langley Timber Products Co. . H.M S. Valerian and British freighter Eastway lost with many on board---Curlew heures in rescue

HAMILTON, Bermuda, October 25 .- The loss of the sloop H.M.S. Valerian and the British freighter Eastway with a total of about one hundred lives, damage to many buildings and an unprecendented loss in the harbor and local shipping constitute the toll of the West Indian hurricane which swept over Bermude on Friday.

Nineteen men are the sole survivors of the Valerian crew of which 84 officers and men perished. Capt. Osher and one other officer of the vessel were saved. One seaman said that the Valerian turned turtle and the life rafts were the only means of safety. The survivors were picked up by H.M.S. Capetown after being adrift for 24 hours.

The Valerian was returning from an aid those who were stricken in the hurricane of a month ago, it being the second trip on that mission. H.M.S. Curlew, returning from the West Indies, also answered the Valerian's call for help, but no trace could be found

IMPROVEMENT IN RUPERT'S SPIRIT.

It's the spirit that counts. There has been a wonderful improvement the morale of Prince Rupert people during the past two weeks. It is possible that residents of this city and investors in it are more hopeful and optimistic than they ever were before, even in the boom days before the war.

And what has done it?

Nothing more than the arrival of a tramp freighter to load a cargo of Mr. Baldwin himself will be filmed makwheat for the world's markets. Even when the elevator was built, even when it ing a speech very shortly, and it was leased to the wheat pool, even when they were told ships were coming, many people clung to what was Prince Rupert's pet saying: "It is a white elephant have these records made of all the leadand will never be used." But how sudden has been the transformation of spirit. ing ministers and other prominent Tory No matter whether or not they are any better off financially than they were a politicians. year ago, no matter whether or not the weather is any better or not, no matter whether or not they have made or may make a nickel directly from the movement of grain through this port, everybody is feeling better about things.

And well may everybody in Prince Rupert feel better. There may be no higher wages for the populace at large and real estate values may not-probably The electors would be able at the meetnever will-come back to what they used to be. In many cases there may be no ing both to see and to hear big men in concrete reason for the better feeling other than the knowledge that Prince Ru- a way that has been quite impossible pert is now on the eve of long promised commercial developments and that the before, city is soon going to be a place well worth living in, a place imbued with progress and prosperity, self-containing and no longer to be mocked at as being "a dead hole five hundred miles from nowhere."

INTERIOR 18 FEELING BETTER.

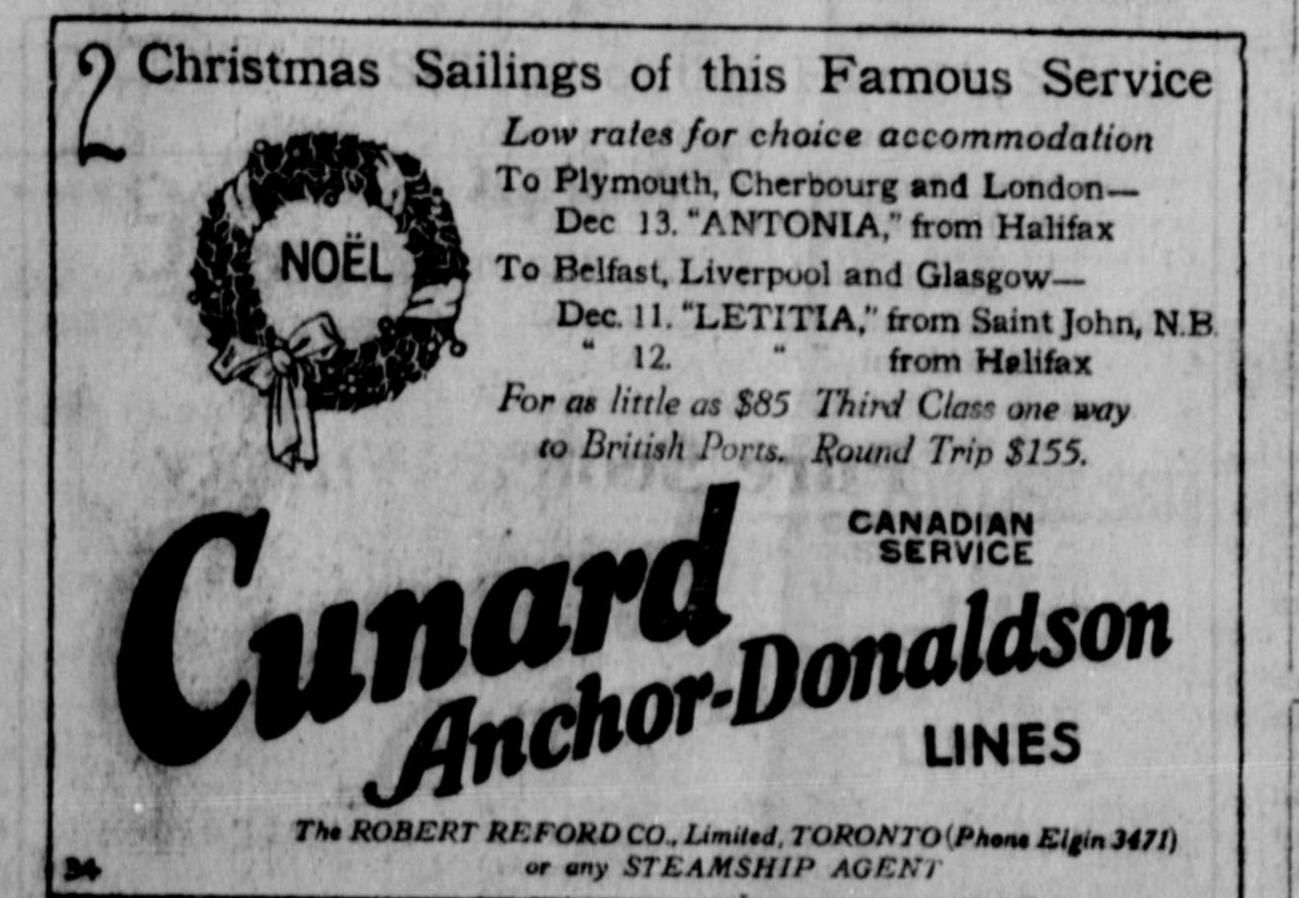

Interior points are also experiencing a rise in spirits since grain started moving over the line to Prince Rupert. There is the prospect of increased railway business through the enlarging of staff and crews. More business will also arise through more maintenance being required to the road with more traffic running over it. But, apart from the material point of view, conditions will be generally improved in the smaller interior communities in just such a proportion as they become improved in the terminus and district centre.

ALL TOGETHER FOR EMPIRE GOOD.

It is most gratifying to note the spirit of accord that prevails at the conference in London where Premiers of all Dominions of the Empire are now gathered. Greatly do their political views differ, some are Liberals and some are Conservatives, some are Socialistically inclined and others Nationalistic in their leanings, but all are working together for the betterment of the British Empire. Is there any better proof of the continued solidarity and unity of the various sections and parts of Empire? Is there any better refutation for the sometimes expressed opinion that some are drifting apart?

RED HUCKLEBERRY VALUABLE FRUIT.

At the recent Prince Rupert Exhibition there was an exhibit from the local Domestic Science School, showing the cuinary value of the red huskleberry. This excellent fruit goes to waste by the ton all round here and is not valued as it should be possibly because it is as common and plentiful as salal. Although Marguerite Clayton, John Patrick and my turn would be improved if one were worth the trouble of picking, while in the north it frequently attains the size of a small cherry and loads the bushes in the same way as red currants cover a the fruitful bush. The fruit is excellent for canning and jelly-making, and to many play, "Please Help Emily" by H. M. palates is preferable to the black huckleberry or blueberry, its near relation.

Bebe's role is that of a naive country girl who comes to Palm Beach to visit her wealthy aunts, and becomes is being made at Grasse, home involved in a series of screamingly French perfumes. funny and wildly thrilling adventures. Much of the fun and excitement springs from her involuntary efforts to operate a speed boat-speedboat racing being the principal outdoor sport indulged in by the social elect. The sensational manner in which she wins the big boat race is the outstanding highspot in the film.

The spectacular wrecking of a handcar by a speeding Florida train, Bebe's fight with the bootleggers, her laughable experiences with the sheriff and her humorous antics among the society folk are other highlights worth mentioning. An appealing little romance in which Bebe and Larry Gray are the principals runs through the story. Gray is the sporting sciety millionaire with

The sale of Beer by the glass Vindicated

THE Government Control of beer sales to the 9 people of British Columbia in licensed premises has been vindicated by the orderly manner in which these premises are conducted.

These quiet and comfortable establishments prove that the open and above-board sale of pure beer has in great measure ended the evils attending the illicit sale of strong drink. They have proved that the self respect and good behavior of the people of British Columbia are more to be depended on than the opinions of those who wish to prevent the people from having any beer at all.

You may find citizens enjoying a healthful and invigorating glass of beer in the quiet and ease that the well-to-do have in their clubs. Licensed premises in the colder winter months are more than ever the working man's club, where he finds the company and comfort that is his right.

The supervision and regulation of licensed premises by the Government is a guarantee that the excellent conditions under which beer is sold shall continue. Efficient Government Inspectors see not only that such licensed premises are operated in a strictly sanitary manner. They look for a high standard of conduct.

The purity and wholesomeness of all beers served-supplied by the Amalgamated Breweries of British Columbia-is guaranteed by the frequent and strict analyses to which they are subjected by the Government. In the present administration of Beer Parlors the interests of the public are completely protected.

HIS APPOINTMENT AS CANADA'S RE-PRESENTATIVE AT WASHINGTON WAS HAPPY

The Spectator, London, recently published a letter to the editor:

May I be allowed as an old friend and a warm admirer of Vincent Massey to say something about him and his new appointment to the readers of the Spectator? He deserves their close attention, as a patriotic Canadian, as an Imperialist of the best type, as a believer in a permanent understanding between all who speak the English tongue, as an advocate of the University spirit, as a potent element in social and political life, and finally as one who deserves the poignant, if old-fashioned, description of "a scholar and a gentleman."

His appointment by Mackenzie King the new Canadian Prime Minister, to be the diplomatic representative of the Dominion at Washington is a happy event, judged not only by the personality and record of the man appointed, but also as being a new departure in the development of the British Commonwealth of Nations. It signalizes, not a weakening, but a strengthening of the ties that bind the nations of the Empire.

That Vincent Massey will exercise an "Union" such as we know at Oxford and Cambridge and a College of Athletics. or so longer than Wolsey "Great Hall" its Lecture Rooms and Common Rooms. and its Theatre, all go to make it princely home for the undergraduates that flock to Toronto. It only remains to be said, and it is by no means an unimportant item, that Mrs. Massey, the daughter of Sir George Parkin, one Canada's chief inspirers in the Imperial tradition, is certain to prove in the future, as in the past, the best of helpers in the good cause served by Mr. Vincent Massey.

Thus all the omens seem favorable That Mr. Massey will have a prosperous tenure of office at Washington and set a good tradition is the hope and sure belief of all his friends. He certainly will deserve success. No more can be said of any man.

The same is true of Willima L. Paul. who has been in the legislature a couple of terms and who has promised his native tribesmen that he would wipe out the traps. He will not wipe them out. He knows it, and he knows that if he did there would be little fish packed and consequently no money for schools. Ketchikan alone gets money from some seven or eight canneries to help pay expenses and then from the Territorial treasury which gets practically all of its money from the fisheries it gets some 75 per cent of the cost of its schools.

The Paul ticket today, including Eutherland, stands for giving every aged native in the country a pension. This will mean that the schools must suffer and that the old-timers must suffer. The Sutherland-Paul ticket stands for

MISS DORIS PATTULLO, DAUGHTER OF MINISTER OF LANDS, WEDS CLIFFORD STUART COLLISON

A wedding of much interest in Prince Rupert owing to the fact that the bride lived in Prince Rupert for many years We have some new during early girlhood, took place in beauties in solid gold at Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, last $5,00 to $10,00. One nice Wednesday evening, when Miss Lillian pair is white gold set with Doris Pattullo, only daughter of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands and Another pair at $15.00 member of the legislature for Prince Rupert, and Mrs. Pattullo, became the bride of Clofford Stuart Collison, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Collison, The Uplands, Victoria.

A profusion of pink and white chrysanthemums and dahlias covering the choir screens and flanked on either side by graceful palms, together with an archway of pink and white chrysanthemums, comprised the unusually beautiful floral setting for the wedding The church was filled with a large congregation to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Very Rev Cecil S. Quainton, Dean of Columbia. Mr. Pattullo gave away his daughter, who looked a picture of radiant lovenes in her exquisite gown of white georgette heavily encursted with silver and irridescent paillettes all over the long waisted sleeveless bodice, while on the full skirt with its scalloped hemline similar paillettes traced a conventional design. Her filmy veil of tulls and Carrickmacross lace was arranged in cap fashion, with a bandeau of Carrickmacross lace outlined in orange blossom buds and tiny pearls to hold are making many throats sore, hoarse and irritated.

A chill gives the opening to bronchitis, and to the dangerous germs of many other respiratory diseases.

The quickest and best remedy is in the real breathe-able Peps tablets which, as they dissolve on the tongue, give off medicinal fumes that pass with the breath into the furthest recesses of the lungs. Peps carry healing and health wherever they go.

They put a speedy end to pain and irritation and soothe and heal inner recesses which gargles and ordinary throat tablets never touch.

Carry a few of these silver-jacketed Peps tablets loose in the pocket. Take one whenever the first sign of 'throatiness' appears. A Peps in the mouth every hour or so, filters the air you breathe and protects against infection dangers.

EPIC STORY

Trapper and Family Were Picking Berries When Animal Arrived

an enraged she-bear-both in defence of their offspring-is told by Jules La-Flamme, half-breed trapper from the headwaters of the Porcupine river.

Accompanied by his 17-year-old HILLY Fall temperatures squaw, Jules set out from his cabin one day in the early fall to gather berries before the snow got too deep. The girl carried her baby in a packsack on her back, and her only weapon was an axe which she wore in her belt. Proceeding up a deep coulee in which snow from an earlier storm still lay on the ground, the pair separated; Jules to hunt for a good place to run his line and discover patches of berries, and the girl to pick them.

POKED AXE IN HOLE

At the base of a monster spruce, the wife found a big hole. Hanging the child from a protecting branch, she poked the axe-handle down into hole

She soon found out. With a loud "Woof!" a big black bear emerged from the hole followed by a pair of cubs. Its small, piggish eyes blazin; with hate, the enraged mother of the cubs advanced on the frightened mother of the babe, which swung on the tree a few feet from the bear.

With a piercing scream for aid from her man, the dauntless girl faced the with menacing growls., Jules, catching wards its parent, uttering plaintive moans, while the blood gushed out of

With desperate bravery, the squaw heaved up her axe. Measuring her distrapper ran up and caught her faint-

NEW LEADER?

VANCOUVER M.P. BEING URGED TO CONTEST PROVINCIAL LEADER-SHIP WITH BOWSER AT KAMLOOPS

VICTORIA, Oct. 25.-Every corner of British Columbia will be represented when the Conservative party holds its long-delayed convention in Kamloops on November 23.—With almost 500 delegates present the accommodation of the southern interior city will be severely taxed.

Leon J. Ladner, member of the House of Commons for Vancouver South, is the latest, possibility for the leadership Those who are opposed to W. J. Bowser are talking about Mr. Ladner now as offering some hope. Mr. Ladner's name apparently is advanced after other prospective candidates to oppose Mr. Bowser have disappeared from the political landscape.

NO FIGHT WANTED

Whether Dr. Tolmie will decide to fight Mr. Bowser's return in open convention is not clear yet. So far, it is understood, the Victoria member of Parliament has given his supporters here no definite answer to their inthat there would be no fight, but they cannot give the Doctor any such assur-

At the moment it appears certain that if Mr. Bowser is opposed by any one, including Dr. Tolmie, there will be a fight which will be exceedingly interesting to spectators. If Dr. Tolmie dropped his Federal seat and then were defeated in a convention he would be completely out of luck, his friends admit. And the fact that the opening of the Victoria seat would almost certainly result in the return of the constituency to the Liberal Party makes it hard for the Doctor to abandon his present position out of loyalty to his Party.

MAY SIT IN HOUSE If the Kamloops convention chooses Mr. Bowser, Dr. Tolmie or Mr. Ladner the new leader may take his seat in tha Legislature during the coming session IN PROBATE.
