LACK OF INTEREST IN CIVIC AFFAIRS.

Labor plans on getting organized again for the forthcoming civic election. The local Trades & Labor Council has been about the only body active in municipal affairs during the past few years and the result of the council's efforts has been apparent each time.

Other organizations that might well interest themselves in city affairs have been idle during these past few years. In fact, there has been an attitude of indifference throughout the community.

PRINCE RUPERT WOULD LIKE TO HEAR EMMA GOLDMAN.

If suitable arrangements can be made, Emma Goldman, famous nihilist, will come to Prince Rupert to lecture on conditions in Russia as they impressed her on a recent visit to that country.

BENEFIT OF WESTERN OUTLET.

With a flock of grain vessels frozen in at Fort William and a hundred more boats ice-bound in the St. Mary's River, navigation on the great lakes is about over for the season.

On the grain lying in the elevators at the lake-head and at Montreal, that in boats tied up for the winter, and that stored in interior elevators and farmers' granaries waiting for spring, carrying charges will have to be paid for upwards of half a year.

Whoever does the paying immediately, all these items of expense are added together and deducted from the price the grower should otherwise get for his grain. As a matter of fact they have been computed in advance, and have correspondingly depressed the prices paid at prairie points during recent weeks.

The harbors at Vancouver and Prince Rupert do not freeze. They are open all winter, and the grain movement can proceed without interruption from natural causes.

A scarcity of ships at the Pacific ports has this year deprived the farmers of Alberta of the opportunity to forward their grain westward as rapidly as they desired. It was even necessary at one time to put an embargo on westward shipment.

The situation is thus reversed, to the advantage of the Alberta grower. The Manitoba and Saskatchewan growers have sold their grain in face of an impending blockade of traffic.

ANGLICANS AND FARMERS LEAD

BY RELIGIOUS DENOMINATION AND OCCUPATION THESE ARE MOST NUMEROUS IN NEW ONTARIO HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

MANY LAWYERS

Sixteen of the Legal Profession, Two Clergymen and Many Merchants Among Those Elected

TORONTO, Dec. 13.—A survey of the successful candidates in the Ontario General Election of December 1 shows a new Legislature representative of many various interests, organizations and activities of the province.

In point of religious denomination, the new house will be outstanding on the score of the number of Anglicans, no fewer than 33 being elected to Queen's Park.

The religious classification would be incomplete without mentioning there will be two clergymen in the new Legislature, Rev. W. G. Martin, United Church, returned by the electors of Brantford, and Rev. A. C. Calder, Anglican, elected in West Kent.

FROM 23 TO 12

The youngest member of the 17th legislature will be Farquhar R. Oliver, U.F.O., elected in South Grey, Mr. Oliver, who is a nephew of Premier Oliver of British Columbia, is 23 years of age.

There are many other categories that arise in such an analysis. For instance of the full strength of the House, 72 members were born and educated in the province for the welfare of which they are now about to legislate.

On the score of education 27 of the members have the advantage of university training, most of them being graduates of Toronto University.

When the Grand Trunk Pacific, in 1920, became part of the Canadian National system George McNicholl was continued in his position as assistant general freight and passenger agent.

FORMER LOCAL MAN SUBJECT OF INTERESTING BIOGRAPHY IN WESTERN TRIBUNE

In the course of a series of biographies entitled "Builders of Western Progress" the Western Tribune, published in Vancouver by J. S. Cowper, carries the following about G. A. McNicholl, C.N.R. general passenger agent.

George McNicholl has never known but one employer in all his life. Born and educated in the public schools at Montreal he went as a youngster in 1899 into the office of the Grand Trunk Railway at Montreal.

Private secretaries to railway executives are safe bets for further promotion. They never become private secretaries without having exhibited qualities of diligence, courtesy and that elusive quality of service that stamps the man destined for bigger things.

MR. MacNAIR GIVES HIS EVIDENCE

FINDS "FRUIT-A-TIVES" BEST CORRECTIVE FOR CONSTIPATION

MR. S. MacNAIR.

Mr. S. MacNair of New Mills, N.B., is one of the thousands who owe much to "Fruit-a-tives". Full of gratitude he writes the simple truth as follows: "I can honestly say that 'Fruit-a-tives' are the best intestinal regulator I have ever used."

to the general manager he was selected to be chief clerk to the Third vice-president of the newly organized Grand Trunk Pacific. After that came further promotion to be private secretary to the vice-president and general manager of the road.

In 1910, when the Prince Rupert townsite was put on the market George McNicholl occupied the position of superintendent of construction and purchasing agent. After the road was completed and opened he was appointed commissioner of colonization and industries at the Pacific terminal of the G.T.P.

Mr. McNicholl has only one hobby and that is railroading. He enjoys his work. If you were to ask him for a recipe for success he would probably tell you to start young, pick out a good employer, and serve him to the limit of your loyalty and powers.

Her Little Boy Caught Cold While Out Playing

Mrs. F. Cade, Elmwood, Man., writes: "My little boy caught cold while out playing in the snow. He coughed incessantly all that night and the next day, and nothing I gave him seemed to relieve him. When my husband came home he brought a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup."

with him. After the second dose my boy was greatly relieved and after the third dose he went to sleep and slept the whole night through without any coughing. I am never without it in the house, and whenever any of the children get the slightest cold it's the first thing I give them."

NURSES ARE VERY SCARCE

SERVICE FUND IN MEMORY OF QUEEN ALEXANDRA WILL HELP TO COVER DEFICIENCY

LONDON, Dec. 3. — (By Canadian Press).—Considerable progress has now been made with the scheme for a national memorial to Queen Alexandra, the first anniversary of whose death fell on November 20 last.

The consideration of the character of the visible memorial has been delegated by the King to a special committee consisting of the Duke of Portland, Lord Crawford and Balcarras, Lord Howe, Lord Knutsford, Sir Harold Boulton, Sir Henry Streetfield, Sir Lionel Kralie, Lady Kenmore and Lady Haig.

Many parts of the country are lamentably short of efficient nurses and 3,000 additional appointments are required to provide a really adequate nursing service. It is the purpose of the memorial to Queen Alexandra to cover this deficiency, as far as the fund will permit.

The Duke of Portland, in a statement on the position of the fund, says it had been generously supported not only by all classes of the community in England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland, and in the Empire generally but also by the British residents in all parts of the world.

Sir Harold Boulton, the chairman of the Memorial Committee says Scotland has set an example by endeavoring to raise 7d. per head of the population and has already succeeded in obtaining half the amount. If England and Wales contribute at the very low rate of a penny a head the sum raised would be about £320,000.

"So you're spending the evening alone?" "Yes, my wife ran over to the neighbor's for a minute."

MISS GOLDMAN NO BOLSHEVIK

SOCIALIST LECTURER IS MAKING GOOD IMPRESSION IN CANADA

TORONTO, Dec. 13.—(By Canadian Press).—No hint of anarchy or Bolshevism flavored the remarks of Emma Goldman during her lecture on "Henry Ibsen," given here recently. The militant revolutionist, who a few years ago was deported from the United States on account of her violent Socialist tendencies, assumed the role of the distinguished lecturer, and sketched with skill and power the life and works of the great Norwegian author and playwright.

None could gainsay the courage and earnestness of Miss Goldman's appeal as an advocate of social reform. Although hampered by a slight foreign accent, Miss Goldman possesses a thorough knowledge of English.

"COWBOY AND COUNTESS" IS ORIGINAL STORY

Plot of Tonight's Picture is Natural and Story Runs Along Swiftly and Smoothly

"The Cowboy and the Countess," the original story of a troupe of cowboys on an exhibition tour of Europe with Buck Jones starring in the title role will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight and Tuesday.

Besides having a very original plot, the story is full of action and thrills and moves along swiftly, smoothly and naturally. The scenic effects are wonderful, particularly those showing the gorgeous backgrounds in Belgravia.

The plot of the story is woven around the love affair between Jerry Whipple of the Boot Jack Ranch and Elsa Ver-laine, who traces her ancestry centuries back into the nobility of Belgravia. Jerry meets Elsa while she is touring the United States with her father, and after saving her life promptly falls in love with her.

When she returns to her own country he follows at the head of a band of cowboys billed to give exhibitions of riding and roping in all of the big cities of Europe. The trip proves highly successful financially. The experiences of the cowboys are such as to bring forth gales of laughter, even while they thrill with their dare-devil stunts on horseback.

The end is as unexpected as it is thrilling, for a series of unforeseen events come up to complicate an already complicated situation for Jerry. But he solves his problems in the most satisfactory manner.

FILM PLAY WARNS HEEDLESS FATHERS

"High Steppers" Sounds Note of Caution to Heads of Pleasure-Led Families

The danger to which the modern family is exposed when the head of the family is too occupied making money to interfere with his family's diversions is set forth in "The High Steppers," to be shown at the Westholme Theatre Wednesday and Thursday. This is an Edwin Carewe production for First National, featuring Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes.

The story of the film is based on Sir Philip Gibbs' novel, "Heirs Apparent." In this tale it is brought out how a father's carelessness in regard to the pleasures pursued by his wife and children drives the family to the brink of ruin. It is saved only by the sudden waking up of the son, whose love for a sensible girl opens his eyes.

Lloyd Hughes is cast as the son, Mary Astor plays opposite him as the girl who preferred stepping on firm ground to high stepping to furious jazz tunes. Others in the cast are Rita Car-cowe, Alec Francis, Edward Davis, John Stepping, Clarissa Selwynne and Dolores del Rio.

REAL CHARACTER APPEARS IN FLESH IN "KEEPER OF BEES"

For the first time in the history of motion pictures, so far as is known, the character created by a great novelist may be seen in the flesh, just as she was when her personality inspired Gene Stratton-Porter to write her into a novel. Or rather, she may be seen on the screen—not in the flesh. For Gene Stratton Monroe, eleven year old grand-daughter of the famous author, is appearing in "The Keeper of the Bees" in the part which the late Mrs. Porter wrote around her—the "Little Scout." It was the hoydenish, tom-boy, lovable personality of little Miss Monroe which originally caused "The Keeper of the Bees" to be written; and literally millions of readers who followed this fascinating tale in McCall's Magazine may now know just what the "Little Scout" looked like and compare her with the mental pictures they have drawn of her. "The Keeper of the Bees" comes to the Westholme Theatre at the week-end. It is brilliantly cast, directed by Leo Meehan with the distinction which characterized "The Girl of the Limberlost"; and more than admirers faithfully to the spirit and letter of the original story.

GINGER GROUP TO FUNCTION AGAIN WINNIPEG, Dec. 13.—The Ottawa correspondent of the Manitoba Free Press says: "With the arrival in Ottawa of some of the former 'ginger' group in the house of commons, it has become clear that that particular organization in parliament will be at work again. First of all, eleven members from Alberta, who were elected under the aegis of the United Farmers of Alberta, are determined to constitute a group of their own in the house, and it is probable that Henry E. Spencer will be their whip or secretary. That group wants no entangling alliances with other unattached Progressives but will co-operate with them at all times when required. It also is clear that the Progressives in the west are not disposed to sit with the government."

QUEEN MARY AS SANTA LONDON, Dec. 11.—Queen Mary chose some very orthodox Christmas presents for her royal grandchildren. Princess Mary's elder son will get a magnificent toy yacht, more than 24 inches in length and with picturesque white sails. Princess Elizabeth will have a big white, woolly doll with very pink cheeks and most up-to-date red, Russian boots. The little Princess will also receive a very gorgeous nursery cushion with animal figures embroidered on it. The presents are the work of disabled soldiers and sailors.
