JOHN OLIVER DEFENDS OLD AGE PENSIONS

CONSERVATIVE SPEAKER WOULD REMOVE ALL FOREIGN BORN VOTERS' NAMES

Premier Oliver Defends Old Age Pensions Bill and Urges its Adoption

NORTH VANCOUVER, Aug. 31.—"Conservatives who now criticize the terms of the Old Age Pensions Bill made no effort when the bill was before Parliament to amend it in particulars they now claim objectionable," declared Premier Oliver here last night. In his opinion the bill as presented to Parliament was workable.

"I believe better progress will be made toward making effective the principles of old age pensions by the adoption of this bill than by waiting until you can obtain a plan satisfactory in all details to the provinces," said the provincial premier.

ADJOURNED TO NOV. 9

Ramsay Macdonald Tried to Get Earlier Session, But Was Re-fused by Churchill.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The government motion that when Parliament adjourns this evening it rise until November 9 was adopted today. Ramsay Macdonald, leader of the labor party, moved to amend the date until September 7 in view of Thursday's meeting of miners' delegates, after which, he said, the government might be able to get the two sides together.

Winston Churchill replied that the government was perfectly free to summon parliament at any time if conditions warranted it.

Some disorder occurred yesterday during a speech of the Home Secretary, when he declared the whole of the mining districts were quiet and orderly.

Jack Jones, a Laborite, continually interrupted and was suspended. cries of "imported police" and "you are trying to starve better men than yourselves," came from Jones, ending with "You're a contemptible lot," before he finally disappeared from the chamber.

Conservative Would Not Allow Foreign Born Canadians Vote Meighen Made no Protest

Speaking on the same platform with Hon. Arthur Meighen, Hon. R. J. Marion, Hon. E. B. Ryckman and Hon. J. D. Chaplin, all members of the Conservative Government, George Wright, Conservative candidate for Lennox, Ontario, said:

"I do not care where a man or woman comes from into Canada; if they come from other than the British Isles they have no right to the ballot during the lifetime of the generation they represent."

Neither of the ministers dissented from the policy laid down by this prominent Conservative.

Players Badly Beaten up in Fracas at Lacrosse Match in Which Ocean Falls Lost Series

WINNIPEG, Aug. 31.—The lacrosse game in which Ocean Falls lost to the Winnipeg Tigers yesterday ended amid confusion and with spectators and players crowding the field and engaging in a miniature riot. With fifteen seconds playing time left, the two teams began an argument over some rough play and sticks and fists were used freely.

Frank Frederickson, the referee, rang the bell to stop the game and the crowd mistook the signal for the end of the game. They surged into the field and participated in the dispute.

Frederickson was beset by a group of players and had to be rescued by the police. All the players of both teams were badly battered in the fracas.

When quiet was restored, an effort was made to continue the play but the Ocean Falls team refused to continue and the game was awarded to the locals.

The game was rough and strenuous from the start and ended in a score of 8 to 6, making a total against Ocean Falls of 43 to 12.

Big Crowd is Expected From Ketchikan to Attend the Fair Boxers and Vaudeville Troupe

At least two hundred Ketchikan people will visit Prince Rupert during Fair Week, bringing with them a baseball team and vaudeville troupe, stated David Thomson, Fair manager, on his return yesterday from Ketchikan, where he made arrangements for the big excursion to this city. The excursion has the backing of the Moose, Elks and Eagles of Ketchikan and the people in the Alaskan town are very enthusiastic about the trip and are taking considerable pain to make it a success, particularly with regard to the vaudeville troupe, which will give a performance here.

Mr. Thomson, while at Ketchikan, secured Joe Manila, the Filipino boxer there, to come to Prince Rupert to meet Charlie Belanger of Vancouver in a six-round bout on the evening of Thursday, September 16 in the Exhibition building. Preliminaries will be as follows: Jack Burns of Aberdeen, Wash., vs. Dido Gurvich of Prince Rupert; Young Alberto of San Francisco vs. Henry Nelson of Prince Rupert; Jack Hughes of Prince Rupert vs. Micky Cashing of Port Essington.

Midnight Frolic

The boxing will be followed by the midnight frolic by the Ketchikan vaudeville troupe, which will be held in the Westholme Theatre. This frolic was a great success in Ketchikan, filling a theatre there two nights running.

The Ketchikan visitors will spend three days in Prince Rupert, the C. N. R. steamer Prince Charles having been engaged to bring them here and take them home again. The vessel will leave here on Wednesday night for Ketchikan and will sail from there at 7 o'clock Thursday morning with the excursionists aboard. The ship will arrive here about 2.30 in the afternoon of Thursday and at 10 o'clock Saturday night will leave here taking the visitors home to Ketchikan.

FISH LANDINGS 2,995,700 LBS.

Considerable Decrease This Month as Compared With August of Last Year.

Halibut landings at this port during the month of August totalled 2,995,700 pounds, this being a considerable decrease compared with August 1925 when the total was 4,060,000 pounds. The weather for fishing was quite favorable during the month and the decrease in landings here is accounted for through the catches being more evenly distributed at various points along the coast.

STUDENTS ARE BEHEADED CHINA

Also Well Known Labor Leader And Others Are Condemned to Death.

HANOW, Aug. 31.—Marshal Wu Pei Fu personally directing the defense of the allied forces fighting against Canton rebels, caused eight students to be headed for blowing up a bridge near the city and seriously delaying the progress of sending reinforcements to the front. Chin Let Ling, well known Shanghai labor leader, was also beheaded and many others condemned.

In my view the whole of this western movement should be directed to the port of Vancouver; and all public monies expended upon the Pacific coast should be expended there. There never was a more grossly flagrant instance of expenditure of public monies for purely political purposes than the building of the elevator at Prince Rupert by the Liberal government.

Liberals Are Expecting to Win.

Liberals are expecting to win. They are very confident and they also expect to get a sufficient majority to ensure a stable government, something which the people have been asking for. A vote given for the Conservatives is a vote against stable government.

Maritime Provinces
Coming Into Line.

Down in the far eastern provinces last year the Liberals were badly disorganized and the result was that a number of former Liberal seats went Conservative. Now they are getting to work again and the result is expected to be a very considerable gain in the number of Liberal candidates elected.

The letter published yesterday is one of many received here which seem to indicate how things are going down there. What is needed here is for the west to do its part in order to secure such a solid majority that there will be no more election for a number of years. The workers are beginning to realize that they have very little to hope from Conservatives and the only way to get such things as old age pensions is by returning Liberal members in every riding possible.

Foreign Born Residents
And the Vote.

The tendency of the autocrats of the Conservative party is shown in the statement made by George Wright, Conservative candidate of Lennox, Ontario, who speaking on the same platform with Premier Meighen and with three other ministers of the crown, neither of whom took exception to his remarks, urged that no foreign born people of Canada be allowed to vote. Here are the words as quoted in the newspapers:

Act in Good Faith
With All Canadians.

The person who comes to Canada from any European country is under the constitution of Canada given equal rights with either British who come here or with Canadian born. We invited them to come and help develop our waste lands, our mines, our fisheries and to help reap the harvest of lumber from the forests. We promised them citizenship if they came and then this Conservative politician would strike off these privileges at one blow. And Meighen, by his silence, assents. That is the Conservative view. The Liberal view is to give every man who comes here a right to take part in the Government of the country with which he has allied himself.

What would Prince Rupert be without the Scandinavian fishermen? Shall we say to these people, "You were not born in the British Isles, therefore you cannot vote?" It was done once but it must not be done again. The men who are the real workers, who bring wealth to the port and who take part in all its activities have just as much right to vote as any of us.

ELECTION NOTES

Gossip About Matters Political in Connection With present Campaign.

J. C. Brady is working hard and worrying a lot, but not making much progress, according to all reports that come to hand.

Manson would have come to the coast, but it is expected that Cariboo will be added to the Liberal gains at this election, and Mr. Manson is giving as much time as possible to aid Mr. Graham there.

Ten to one that Stork's majority will not be more than half a thousand is the only bet the Conservatives have so far offered or accepted, so far as can be discovered.

Not a single Conservative speaker in this province has so far dared to discuss Mr. Meighen's imperial relations policy. That policy would oblige Canada to hold an election in order to find out whether this country should take part in a war in which the Empire had become involved.

Three months would elapse before a verdict could be given. Then the Conservative leader and his supporters call all Liberals traitors!

The Conservative Party of Canada is pledged to abolish the British preference unless Great Britain will undertake to tax her own people. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier extended this concession to the Motherland in 1897 he did it without any conditions whatsoever. Canada now sells Great Britain more than $500,000,000 worth of goods a year and buys only $163,000,000. If he could have his way Mr. Meighen would disturb this excellent trading arrangement.

Mr. Meighen and his supporters have attacked the budget. They call it a fake and a sham. Listen to this: Recently in Ottawa, a gentleman was asked how he was going to vote on September 14. "For the Liberals," was his reply. "Why?" he was promptly asked. "Because the Liberals reduced my income tax from $124 to $38—that's why," he responded. He knows a good thing when he sees it.

After it had digested the full text of the Robb budget The Vancouver Daily Province said, "it is winning golden opinions everywhere." This is the budget which the Conservative party attacked tooth and nail in the House of Commons. The same Vancouver newspaper said the Australian treaty was "one of the solid achievements of the King Government." This is the treaty which the Conservatives attacked in the House of Commons and have been attacking ever since. But it is one of the best bargains of this kind that British Columbia has ever had.

When the Meighen Government went out of office in 1921 this country's adverse trade balance with the rest of the world amounted to no less a sum than $30,000,000. At the end of the fiscal year of 1925-1926 the Dominion's favorable balance of trade with the rest of the world amounted to more than $400,000,000.

The first seven months of this year show that the net earnings of the Canadian National Railways are more than they were for the corresponding 7 months of 1925 by $11,869,711.25, or an increase of 209.44 per cent. In these figures is reflected the growth of the Dominion's business through the operation of the King Government's trade extending policies.

Vancouver's bank clearings and building activity this year have broken all records. Yet it is not twelve months since H. H. Stevens was telling the people in Eastern Canada that conditions in his own city were so bad economically that businessmen were packing up their goods and chattels and going to Seattle. But he did not say that in Vancouver.

The stories published about the success of the Brady meetings are proved to be fiction like the stories told by W. J. Bowser in the rink the other night.

The Liberal cause has been much aided by some of the campaign material being published on behalf of J. C. Brady. It is so weak that it does the Conservative cause more harm than good.

The defining of the school boundaries is agitating the school board. There is a request for the opening of a second room in Seal Cove school, but owing to the few pupils in that district, the board finds it difficult to see how it can economically comply with the request.

VISCOUNT GREY URGES WALKING AND CYCLING

Says Tendency is to Neglect Cultivation of Body and Mind

EPSOM, Aug. 31.—"Keep your legs" was the advice Viscount Grey of Fallodon recently gave to the boys of Epsom College. He warned them against giving up walking and riding bicycles because the means of communication have been so much improved, and said even a middle-aged man is better for walking twenty miles a day or riding fifty on a wheel.

Viscount Grey is doubtful whether all the modern mechanical contrivances which have become part of everyday life are of benefit to humanity, and warned his audience against neglecting their minds and bodies because mechanical genius has devised so many means of amusing persons without requiring them to make any effort on their own behalf.

"Walking or cycling and studying natural history at the same time were suggested by Viscount Grey as the best means of physical and mental recreation.

CHAMBER OF MINES IS FORMED AT SMITHERS

B. C. Prospectors' Association Merges With New Organization

SMITHERS, Aug. 31.—A general meeting of the Omineca branch of the B.C. Chamber of Mines was held in the Municipal Offices at Smithers.

Joseph S. Kelly, the president of the former organization, the Omineca branch of the B.C.
Prospectors' Association, was in Smithers and attended the meeting. He formally turned over to the new organization the funds of the old and in a short speech urged all prospectors to get behind the movement to further the mining industry. He expressed his opinion that under the auspices under which it is working that the branch Chamber of Mines could do much more for the industry than could be done in any other way. Mr.
Kelly also told of recent developments in the Portland Canal district where he has spent the last year.

The meeting gave Mr. Kelly a hearty vote of thanks and he was made the first honorary member of the branch.

Communications from C.
Price-Green, commissioner of natural resources of the Canadian National Railways, were read to the meeting. These outlined the work being done by that department towards the ultimate aim of getting a smelter established somewhere along this line of railway. In the course of getting first-hand information on this Mr. Price-Green is coming back from Montreal in September. He will be accompanied by R. C. Lett of Edmonton who has charge of this branch of the railway company's work throughout this district. They will probably be in Smithers from September 7 to 9 and will inspect the Richfield Mine near Topley and other properties in the Bulkley Valley district.

On the last night of their stay here Mr. Price-Green and Mr. Lett will be the guests of honor at an informal dinner to be held by the Chamber of Mines in the Bulkley Hotel at Smithers. The main purpose of this dinner will be to get together those in the district interested in mining development and discuss with the visitors ways and means of furthering the industry.

DEBT FUNDING IS DISCUSSED

Senate Is Waiting Action by France Before Passing Measure

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 31.—(By John Snare, Canadian Press Correspondent).—Whether the French debt settlement is ratified will depend largely on the action of France. Should the French government ratify the settlement, the Senate of the United States, after a struggle, is likely to ratify it also.

But there will be no move in Washington toward ratification until the French government has acted on the settlement favorably.

House Acted

The House last spring, under pressure from the President and Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, passed a resolution of ratification. The Senate, however, did not act. Many House leaders felt it was a mistake for the House to take action in advance of action by the French. They predicted at the time that it would be interpreted in France, or by elements in France, as meaning the United States was eager for the settlement to go through and as meaning the settlement was to the advantage of the United States. This is exactly what has come about, despite the fact even those who are supporting the settlement here are doing it not on the theory it is a just settlement to United States taxpayers but on the theory it is better to make some adjustment and try to remove controversy.

In view of the Clemenceau attack and other developments abroad, both in France and elsewhere, the opposition to the French settlement has increased. Nevertheless it is probable that if France ratifies the settlement a majority of the Senate, under pressure from the White House, will vote for it.

May Rescind

If the French government rejects the settlement, then it is probable a move will be begun in the House to rescind its action. The effect of this would be to leave a settlement to the indefinite future. It would probably mean that no serious attempt would be made in this administration to effect a settlement unless on the initiative of France. Meantime, there is no doubt the administration would frown on loans of private funds to that country.

VICTORIA CHILDREN CLIMB MOUNTAIN

Patsy and Billy Agnew Reach Peak of Mt. Edith Cavell at Jasper Park

JASPER, Aug. 30.—Unknown in the annals of Canadian Mountain climbing is thefeat of two little children of Victoria, B.C., who, taking advantage of the favorable conditions that prevailed this year climbed Mount Edith Cavell, one of the highest peaks in the Canadian Rockies.

They are Patsy and Billy, aged 10 and 12, children of Mrs. A.
W. Agnew. Leaving Jasper Park Lodge with two Swiss guides in the morning of August 29, they made a base camp on the edge of the mountain where they slept until the start was made at 5:30 the next morning. The children, each carrying their own pack, showed remarkable nerve and skill on the more difficult parts of the ascent and climbed steadily until the peak was reached. Here they rested for an hour before the descent was made. They returned to the lodge the same evening appearing quite fresh upon their arrival.

ASPHYXIATED HERSELF AND FOUR CHILDREN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—
Mrs. Otto Fuller today asphyxiated herself and four children, ranging in age from two to ten years.
One child was saved by neighbors. The fact that the husband was out of work is supposed to have been the cause of the tragedy.

FOREST SURVEY NOW GOING ON

F. D. Mulholland Tells About Babine Reserve and What Action Is Being Planned.

The object of creating provincial forests is that future logging operations in them may be carefully regulated so as to keep the areas permanently productive, stated F. D. Mulholland, assistant forester in charge of provincial forests and forest surveys, who was in the city yesterday on his way from the Babine provincial forest to the Queen Charlotte Islands. Mr. Mulholland has been spending a good deal of time this season in the Babine provincial forest which covers some 2,000 square miles north of the Canadian National Railway between Smithers and Fraser Lake and which is this season being surveyed.

While cutting merchantable timber in these provincial forests will be permitted, Mr. Mulholland said, the area must be left in a condition favorable for the reproduction of commercial species. Too rapid cutting must also be prevented or there would sooner or later be no more native timber to cut and a long lapse of time would have to elapse before the next crop was ready. Obviously, there would be a disastrous effect on the timber industries of such a district.

Annual Supply

Under ideal conditions in a regulated forest only an amount equivalent to the annual growth should be utilized each year, said Mr. Mulholland. Thus such an area could supply a given amount annually. As a business proposition such forests were more valuable and were worth more expense on protection than areas which could produce little commercial timber. One of the objects of the surveys being made was to ascertain what improvements were necessary to safeguard the forests from fire.

In Babine Forest

As a first step in the case of Babine forest, the survey was being made in order to ascertain the amount of native timber and what it was suitable for, the amount and age of the young stands and when they would be ready for cutting and, generally, the production capacity of the forest. At the same time an examination was being made of the soil and agricultural possibilities so that areas suitable for development as farming land might be kept outside the reserve and made available for that purpose.

Although much of the Babine forest had been burned in the past, Mr. Mulholland said there was still a very large quantity of timber left which was suitable for ties, small sawlogs and pulp. So far as the survey had gone it appeared to be a productive forest area. Tie timber grew in seven years on the better sites and the forest could produce an immense amount of pulp timber. There were many extensive areas of young trees well on their way to a size which would make them commercially valuable.

Very Valuable

"The province and particularly the people of the Bulkley Valley," declared Mr. Mulholland, "have a very valuable property in this forest and it is to be hoped that damage by fire which has been so great in the past may be reduced to a minimum insofar as care by the residents can bring about this result."

"This is just the place for me," said the humorist at the shore. "For here whene'er I crack a joke The breakers simply roar."

"This is just the place for me," said the artist at the bank. "For here whene'er I draw some cash No one can call it rank."

SONS OF CANADA TO ENTER FINAL

Defeated Grand Terminals By 2 to 1 at Baseball—Play-offs Start This Week.

In one of the best games of the season, the Native Sons of Canada defeated the Grand Terminals last evening by a score of 2 to 1, the Sons thus earning the right to enter into the post-season play-off with the Gyro Club for the championship of the city. The first of these playoffs, which will be to the best three out of five games, will take place on Thursday night of this week with possibly a double-header on Sunday.

There was a big crowd of fans at last night's game and their attendance was fully rewarded with the quality of play that was displayed. Pitching honors were about divided though Lohbie for the Terminals had more strikeouts to his credit than Lambie. The Sons had it over the Terminals in the infield, however, this being a contributing factor to their victory.

A two-hitter was the biggest hit of the game which went seven innings. The Sons scored in the third and fourth innings while the Terminals' lone tally came in the fifth.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 17 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner or the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be obtained for five years, and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land $12 per acre and second-class, $8 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding $60 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under the Grazing Commission. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partly free, permits are available for settlers, occupiers and travellers up to ten head.

PURE BEER
THE TRUTH ABOUT PURE BEER
IN the past several years the public has been told many things about beer, yet it is not surprising that many people should not know what beer really is, for the merits of pure beer have been almost entirely neglected by controversialists.

Pure beer is a scientifically made malt solution, derived from malted barley and flavored with hops. In this malted condition the grain is much more nourishing than in its natural state and the beer has many beneficial activities when taken as a beverage.

The Alice Arm publicity booklet that is now being distributed was printed locally, the work doing great credit to the Herald printing office where it was turned out for the Alice Arm Chamber of Mines.

All Nerves!

All nerves! What a common expression! In this busy era with the problems of home management, club activities, and even political affairs crowding her day, how often the housewife complains of nervousness, headache, backache and general fatigue.

These symptoms of illness are often due to strained eye muscles and nerves which can be relieved by properly fitted glasses.
