STEVENS EMULATES CUSTOMS OFFICIALS

C.P.R. PRESIDENT CONFOUNDS PESSIMISTIC TORIES BY HIS STATEMENT

Stevens Used Canadian Coat of Arms Promote Oil Stock in States

MacKenzie King Comes Back at Meighen's Minister of Customs in Regard to Bogus Company which was Promoted

SEAFORTH, Ont., Sept. 10.—Speaking here last night, MacKenzie King referred to the letters of H. H. Stevens concerning a certain oil company. "On Wednesday night," Mr. King stated, Meighen had said that customs officials had helped American thieves to make fortunes. Stevens has made quite a name for himself as the searcher of documents, but we find some of the documents have come to light.

The former Premier referred to a letter by Stevens on House of Commons note paper signed by him as member of parliament. The letter, said Mr. King, was written to get money from the people for an oil company. "It has been found that the company was a complete fraud and what is generally known as a company of American sharks and, by the looks of it, one or two Canadian sharks."

The Liberal leader asked Premier Meighen and Mr. Stevens what right did the present minister of customs use the coat of arms of Canada to promote oil stocks in the United States.

TYPICAL FALSEHOOD OF CONSERVATIVES NIPPED IN THE BUD

In a circular letter addressed to individual electors in the Skeena electoral district, J. C. Brady, the Conservative candidate, who is opposing Fred Stork, sends out over his own signature a typical falsehood when he says:

"May I appeal to you not to be misled by the glaring headlines which may appear against my candidature from time to time in the heavily subsidized Liberal organ known in this city as the Prince Rupert Daily News."

The Daily News is not subsidized and never has been. It sells advertising space to Liberals and Conservatives alike and at the same rate. It is not getting and never had had a subsidy from anyone.

AFFAIR WAS BIG SUCCESS

Catholic Women's League of Canada Holds Supper, Card Party and Dance

The success of the supper, card party and dance held by the Catholic Women's League of Canada in the Catholic Hall last night was so far beyond expectation and the crowd in attendance so large that it was necessary to make extra arrangements for their accommodation.

The affair was for the purpose of celebrating the opening of the new kitchen installed in the hall by the league as one of its first efforts since organization three months ago. Incidentally, the financial returns from the event were very gratifying.

M. P. McGaffery presided at the supper tables which were laden with all manner of tempting dainties. There was community singing and the program of the evening was contributed to with vocal solos by Miss McNeil and Mrs. Tupper, dancing by Miss Elizabeth McLeod and addresses by Mr. McGaffery, Father McGrath and Mayor S. M. Newton. Mrs. E. P. Kenny and Miss E. V. M. Hilshey were the piano accompanists for the evening.

Winners at cards were as follows: Bridge, Mrs. J. G. Steen and W. G. Hughes; whist, Miss Huldah Graham and H. Lee; Charles Balagno and Miss Irene Morrison furnished music for the dance and Frank Fortune was master of ceremonies with W. Hearst and Mrs. P. Byrne presiding at the door.

The ladies in charge of the event were Mrs. D. W. Morrissey, Mrs. Carrall, Mrs. Kinkade, Mrs. W. Gratton, Mrs. H. F. Glassey, Mrs. J. C. Gavigan and Mrs. J. H. Hilditch. Young ladies assisting in serving were Misses Jean Stalker, Ethel Astle, Irene Bourassa, Agnes Gratton, Mary Astori, Pulmira Astori, Margaret Palmer, Virginia Riel, Campbell, Grace Curtin, Lorna MacLaren and Comadina.

The local branch of the Catholic Women's League now has a membership of 93, the organization being connected with the main league of Canada which has 50,000 members. The objects of the league are to promote the welfare of the sick, immigration and charity work irrespective of religious belief.

Mr. Beatty said British Columbia was notable for the improvement in the general conditions. "Vancouver," he said, "is flourishing and it is without question one of the busiest cities in the whole of Canada."

JUDGE SCORES A LITIGANT

Objects to Receiving Letters From People Interested in a Case Before Court.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 10.—Referring to letters which he said were attempts to improperly influence his decision in litigation pending in connection with the Lightning rock Gold Mine, Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald yesterday in the Supreme Court told Charles Unverzagt unless they ceased "there will be an application to commit you for contempt of court."

"For the last two or three months I have been bombarded with epistles of this kind. I receive them continually and I have no doubt they emanate from you," said the judge.

Unverzagt was in court in connection with an application for a proposed sale or lease of his holdings in Cariboo.

DROVE ENGINE ON WILD RIDE

Crazy Man Stole Locomotive and Travelled as Long as Steam Kept Up.

RESPONSIBLE FOR WRECK Is Sent to Asylum After Being Caught By Police Who Chased Him in Car.

MERRITT, Sept. 10.—Because he "just goes crazy" when he spies a locomotive, J. F. Downing, who told the provincial police he believed himself an engineer responsible for a railroad wreck in which four were killed in New Jersey several years ago, recently piloted an engine and went on a wild ride towards Nicola, north-east of Merritt, which ended only when he was unable to keep steam up in the boiler.

After an exciting chase by an automobile, Corp. Badman reached the stalled locomotive, took Downing into custody and brought him here where he was committed for incarceration in an asylum.

Shortly before his escapade with the locomotive, Downing broke the locks of his cell and escaped from the jail here where he had been serving a thirty day sentence after he was found guilty on a liquor charge.

F. A. Winnington, Bishop of London, Thursday afternoon officiated at the laying of the foundation stone of the new Anglican Cathedral here.

Glorious autumn weather favored the ceremony.

The Canadian prelates present included the Bishops of Columbia, Cariboo, Kootenay, Ottawa, Yukon, the Archbishop of New Westminster, The U. S. DAILY EDITION Friday, Sept. 10, 1926.

Falsehood Policy Injures the Party.

It seems a pity that the once proud and reputable party led by such a great man as Sir John A. Macdonald should be dragged in the mud by petty politicians as is being done at this election. One of the latest moves is by means of falsehood to try to discredit what is said by the Daily News, because the paper happens to differ in its views from that of the candidate. It is particularly obnoxious because Mr. Brady, following the lead of H. H. Stevens of Vancouver and some others of the party, is out as the champion of purity in politics.

Mr. Brady in a letter to some of the electors says this paper is "heavily subsidized." Perhaps he does not know any better, but it is his duty to be sure of the facts. If his other statements are as unreliable as this one they are nothing but mis-statements from beginning to end. The Daily News is a commercial venture and sells its advertising space to any who wish to buy, irrespective of party affiliation. Conservatives buy it as well as Liberals and have done so at a number of elections. Both pay the same rate and are treated in that regard exactly alike. No subsidy has ever been received.

Give Both Sides of the Question.

The Daily News, as is well known here, gives both sides of the question. It publishes daily despatches giving the utterances of Premier Meighen as well as those of Mackenzie King, whereas the Tory organ gives only the one side.

When there is a Conservative meeting the Daily News gives the fullest possible report, whereas the Tory organ gives the briefest synopsis of Liberal meetings. Conservatives here have always complimented this paper on its fairness in its news reports. Then comes along a candidate for office who seems determined to try to win at any price and by making a false statement of fact tries to influence the voters. Such policy cannot succeed.

Has Mr. Brady tried to influence its own organ to give both sides of the questions at issue and to treat all alike?

Fish Trap Question Much Discussed.

The Conservative politicians are making desperate efforts to distort the fish trap issue. They are trying to put a false aspect of it before the electors just as the candidate put a falsehood forward in his circular letter. They are trying to make out that Stork is playing a game on both sides, whereas they know well that it is their own people who are playing the game and trying to fool the fishermen. They know that the fishermen have the power to turn the election one way or the other and they are making desperate efforts to fool them. However, the fishermen have a good deal of common sense, something that is often lacking in the men who are doing the campaigning. They have known for some time who was on their side and they know today that directly the Meighen Government came into power the trap licenses were issued and remained in force until the end of the season. Then an order was given to dismantle them even though the work of dismantling had already commenced.

We are saying this today to warn the fishermen that money is being spent freely and the best possible brains are being purchased to lay before them a plausible story that it is thought will influence them. We do not think they will succeed but it will not be for the want of trying.

Brady is Claiming to Have Done Much.

In his circular letter, Mr. Brady claims to have already done much for the people of Skeena district, particularly in this fish trap matter, when he knows it was a member of his committee that put the fish trap matter before Premier Meighen and said it was useless to run a candidate here if the traps were allowed to remain. It was under pressure that Mr. Meighen ordered their withdrawal. Mr. Brady is the political pawn on the chessboard in which the big interests are working their game and trying to bring about a change. Let this party go back to power with a working majority and the fish trap will again be used, for Premier Meighen stated an investigation would be made before action would be taken. We all know how a Tory investigation will end.

Pity Personalities Should Be Introduced.

It is a pity that personalities have to be introduced into this campaign, but it is the Conservative move. They were the ones to start the campaign of slander and they have kept it up. It was they who started the use of poison gas in this war and if they have to suffer a little from the poison it will only be right.

PUBLICITY FOR ELECTION NEWS

Colonel Biggar Urges Returning Officers and Deputies to Co-operate With Press

OTTAWA, Sept. 9.—In reply to a request that he should assist the Canadian Press in securing as promptly as possible complete and accurate returns of the vote on election day, O. M. Biggar, K.C., the chief electoral officer, said:

"The returns do not reach me till long after polling day and even returning officers only receive them by mail; they may not have them for several days after the poll. Every election officer, and particularly every deputy returning officer and poll clerk, should, however, do whatever he can to furnish as early in the evening as possible to Canadian Press agencies, newspapers and their accredited representatives, accurate statements of the result of the vote at every polling station.

"On the completion of the count at a polling station, the deputy is required to complete several statements of the result. One of these is transmitted to the returning officer in the ballot boxes and constitutes the primary official record of the vote at the poll in question, but the deputy retains a duplicate in his own possession. Similar statements are at the same time furnished to each of the candidates' agents at the poll and sent by mail direct to each of the candidates personally.

Immediately upon these statements being completed, the information they contain is published properly, and every deputy and poll clerk, as well as every candidates' agent, should do what lies in his power to notify the figures to the press and to the candidates' organizations with the least possible delay."

VERY LITTLE BETTING ON THIS ELECTION IS REPORTED TO DATE

One Wager of $500 Was Covered Yesterday by Conservatives

So far there seems to have been very little betting on the general election results. Yesterday a local Liberal put up $500 as a wager that Premier Meighen would not have more than 116 supporters in the next house. This bet was taken by a local Conservative.

Another small bet taken was that Fred Stork would have a majority at Stewart. So far as known Conservatives have refused to back their candidate to win but have been willing to bet that Stork would not have more than 500 majority.

THE MAN IN THE MOON says:

Mr. Brady dangled a fish trap from a burnished political rod And whispered in voice like a preacher: "These fishermen bite like a cod."

But the fishermen jeered at his antics, They gave him a fisherman's laugh, For they looked where the hook was all baited, And they saw, too, a fisherman's gaff.

The difficulty with some political speakers is that there is no dividing line between their imagination and their information.

Only four days to go before election and may they go quickly, Maria.

It seems too bad that the Tory troops should be so badly stuck in the mud.

A Tory Tale

She was young and she was flappable, And the henna was clearly false, She declared she could not fox trot But could do a stately waltz.

The Tories declare the Progressives are false. If they had supported Meighen they would have been trusty and true.

Before the election everybody thought John Oliver a hero fighting for low freight rates for the east but now we know by Tory jugglery that the freight rates were not high, never have been high, and never will be high, but that Oliver is a bad old man for supporting Mackenzie King.

I never knew just what a bad man Fred Stork was until the Tory imported orators told us how the Liberals were deceiving the public.

Just "ill Tuesday, friends, and then it'll be all over except the Liberal cheering.

The Conservatives are going to win. They have everything except the votes.

The campaign reminds me of the old definition of a Liberal-Conservative. He is like a mule with neither pride of ancestry or hope for posterity.

TERRACE WILL VOTE LIBERAL

Hon. T. D. Pattullo Discusses Outstanding Questions There, Including Log Export.

CONFIDENT OF MAJORITY

Colonel McMorde returned from Terrace yesterday, whence he had accompanied Hon. T. D. Pattullo, who addressed the electors at that point. The Colonel says Mr. Pattullo had a first rate meeting and he is assured that Fred Stork will get a majority at that place.

One of the features of Mr. Pattullo's speech was the log export which has come in for some criticism. Mr. Pattullo showed that the United States had a duty on Canadian logs entering that country, but no duty on lumber or shingles. Large quantities of Canadian lumber was shipped to the other side and ninety per cent of the shingles. If this market were closed it would play havoc with the lumber and shingle industry on this side, and the surest way to get that market closed was to put an embargo on the few logs that were sent across the line.

At present the export of logs was prohibited from lands controlled by the provincial government, but on crown granted lands the owners had a right to export them if they wished.

The minister also dealt with the other outstanding questions of the day and the audience gave him a good hearing and showed much interest in the questions discussed.

ARE NOT ABLE SPEAK ENGLISH

Pupils Enter Public School Without Rudimentary Knowledge of Language.

At the school board meeting last night it was reported by Miss Mills, principal of Borden Street school, that five new pupils in the receiving class could not speak a word of English and this made it most difficult for the receiving teacher, who already had an overcrowded class. These children were born and brought up in Prince Rupert.

It was explained by Chairman Rochester that there was nothing in the law which gave them the right to exclude such pupils, but they were advised by the inspector that the time which belonged to the class should not be devoted to teaching these pupils English. They would pick it up gradually from the other pupils.

Trustee Fulton thought they should have just the same attention as was devoted to the others, no more and no less.

Miss Mills reported that the receiving class was much too large, there being already fifty pupils registered with more to come. Twelve of these were from Westview. There was not sufficient seating accommodation for them and it was not fair to the teacher to ask her to take that many.

It was decided to further investigate and make plans for relieving the situation.

S. V. Cox sailed last night on the Prince George for Vancouver.

BARBECUE WAS GREAT EVENT

Telkwa Was Scene of Revel Monday When Annual Affair Held

CENTRE OF ATTRACTION

Horse Races and Cow-Boy Feats Entertain Crowd at Interior Centre

TELKWA, Sept. 10.—It can be said without contradiction that all roads in the Bulkley Valley led to Telkwa on Monday, when the annual barbecue was held there. The steady stream of autos coming from all directions brought in hundreds of people who were again treated to a big afternoon repete with excitement and entertainment.

The hour of commencement had been set for 11.45 a.m. and promptly on time the procession started for the Recreation Grounds, with the chuckwagon and the band in the lead, with the cow boys and girls decked out in all their finery and riding fiery ponies, with the jockeys and their race horses, the judges and officials and a long string of autos all filled with the throng of pleasure seekers. When the procession had completed the round of the race course, J. C. Brady, Conservative candidate gave the opening ceremonies, thanking the officials for the honor conferred on him.

Beef Taken Out

As soon as the Barbecue was declared open, the excitement commenced, the first rush being to the big pit oven, where Chef Henry A. Beck had put in seven full quarters of beef the evening before at 10 o'clock and which should now have been roasted to just the right stage. When the fire was raked off and the quarters of beef hoisted out, generous helpings of juicy meat were made up into sandwiches and handed out to the surging crowd. The smacking of lips and expressions of comment as the big sandwiches disappeared was sure evidence that barbecued beef is most assuredly a treat for kings.

With the inner man satisfied the program was away. Stampede Manager Geo. Murray with his cow boys headed for the corral and soon wild steers and bucking bronchos were turned loose in rapid succession each with a rider endeavoring to keep his seat, but not a few of which found a more or less soft landing spot on the grass or in the dust. Between times Frank Dorekrell and his assistants ran through a string of horse races full of exciting moments.

And going all the time were the midway attractions under the supervision of H. E. Taylor of Prince George. These included a jitney dance with music supplied by the Rainbow Orchestra of Crigary.

Winners of Contests

In the bucking contest the belt was won by Ari Edler of Chilco, tin, and Eric Strimbold of Tonley came first in the steer riding contest, but in riding horses with sursingle only, no prize was awarded as the riders all off the dust.

To entertain the crowd between supper time and the opening of the ball, the Indians of the district put on an entertainment consisting of war dances and choruses. This was done in costume and proved most interesting as well as amusing.

The final for the day was the ball held in the Community Hall at night and here again was all merriment as the huge crowd danced while the Rainbow Orchestra rendered the music.

There were about a dozen Prince Rupert people in attendance at the barbecue including George R. Tite, J. W. Scott, George Mitchell, Bill Smith and Eddie Smith.

BOARD IS PLEASED WITH NEW TEACHERS

At the school board meeting last night, Chairman Rochester spoke of the changes of staff which had taken place this year and particularly that in the High School where a new principal had been appointed. He considered the board very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Paddie and he felt sure the people of the city would be pleased at the results. Good teachers for the other grades had been secured, and he congratulated the board and the city on their good fortune in this respect.

VOTE LIBERAL SAYS SOLDIER

Son of Judge Martin Urges Return to Power of Mackenzie King Government.

VICTORIA, Sept. 10.—"I am going to show you why it is the duty of every Canadian citizen to vote for the Liberal party at the forthcoming election," said Carew Martin, candidate in the Victoria riding, son of Judge Martin, and a three wounded soldier.

Mr. Martin proceeded to trace the record of the Liberal administration, showing the economies of the Mackenzie King government, the industrial development under the Liberal regime, and the undoubted and undeniable slashing of the Dominion's taxes. All of these things, he said, had contributed towards the success of the Liberal government. These were the things which formed the nucleus of Liberals' arguments in fighting for return to power, for a return to a position where they could best serve the country, said Mr. Martin.

Reorganized Railroads

One of the first things which the Mackenzie King government had accomplished was the nationalization and reorganization of a great railroad system under Sir Henry Thornton, now the Canadian National Railways. This railroad system, said Mr. Martin, had been placed on a paying basis for the first time by the Liberal government. Now it was a railroad earning $50,000,000 profit a year. This was just one thing, but one great thing, which Mackenzie King's administration had made possible.

"The Tories are out to denationalize the Canadian National Railway system," charged H. H. Shandley at the same meeting. This was a fact, he said, brought about by influences in New York. Mr. Patinaude of Montreal, said the speaker, had convinced Mr. Meighen that denationalization of the Canadian National Railway was best for Canada. He, Mr. Patinaude, and New York influences, who had interests in the Canadian Pacific Railway were trying to get a strangle hold on the Canadian National to kill, terminate and do away with once and for all competition for their own road, said Mr. Shandley. This was the charge he laid.
