England Expects Canada to Have Self-Government Says Mr. Mackenzie King

King of England began to choose between the parties it would not remain strong as it is today

GALGARY, Aug. 17.—England expects Canada to take its measure of self-government within the Empire, but unless relationship of the Governor General to the Prime Minister Great Britain, Canada's position is no better than that of a colony, Mackenzie King told an audience here last night. "Suppose the King of England began to choose between parties, how long do you think the throne would remain as strong as it is today?" he asked. It was the action of the commons which determined the ministry that would advise the crown, "that is British constitutional practice and the minute you begin to depart from those rules the British Empire will begin to suffer a shock. The Empire will last as long as constitutional practice is carried on throughout the Dominions," said Mr. King.

MEIGHEN AND AGE PENSIONS

Premier Defends Senate in Killing the Bill Passed by the Commons Last Session.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Aug. 17.— Repudiating reports that the Conservatives had animosity against the returned soldiers, Premier Meighen addressed a gathering here yesterday afternoon.

He said he had read the reports of speeches of Mackenzie King in Quebec and he did not think it sounded well for him now to try to paint the Conservatives as unfair to soldiers and himself as the guardian of soldiers' rights and British institutions in Canada.

Mr. Meighen said the King politics was beneath contempt and despicable to the last degree. Last year the Liberals had stolen many thousands of votes by spreading a rumor that the Conservatives proposed to amalgamate the Canadian National with the C.P.R.

Mr. Meighen made light of the King Government's old age pensions bill and said the Senate had defeated it because they found it a sham. "We will introduce an old age pensions measure," said he, "but we will get the provinces together and get them to agree to something we can put into law and not have the measure stand there as a dead letter."

KILLED THREE MEN IN FATAL QUARREL

MERCED, Calif., Aug. 17.— Two men were found dead and another dying with the body riddled with bullets near Briceburg, Mariposa county, after Paul Baran, 51 years of age, a miner, surrendered to the sheriff saying he had killed three men in a quarrel over a mining claim.

Duke Harris Has What He Thinks Is Real Mine at Hastings Arm Near Anyox Close to Tidewater

Duke Harris, the well known Hazelton mining man, has bidden a mining property on Hastings Arm, thirteen miles from Anyox, which he thinks will become a real mine. It is a silver-lead proposition with lead predominating, and surface assays, Mr. Harris says, show wonderful values.

The property was discovered by Charles Clay, an old prospector of that district, who is over 70 years old. It is 4,400 feet above tidewater and until a trail is cut is difficult to reach, although it is only a mile and a quarter from deep anchorage.

Mr. Harris believes that he has the making of a real mine, but admits that until some work is done on it, there is no telling what it might be. He says he has not seen anything that seems so good at first sight and he will get to work at once and prove it. Should it prove of value it will be easy to run an aerial tramway to it and get the ore out at small expense. Its great height is its drawback, but that is not very important. Lead is in great demand just now and this may prove to be a producer before long. Mr. Harris says he has been looking for a real mine for years and this looks very much like one. He has it on a working bond with cash payment and royalties.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE announces this week the appointment of Smith Asa Nickerson, of Prince Rupert, to be sheriff of the county in place of the late John Shirley. The appointment dates from August 4.

Fraser Valley Agricultural Exhibit Will Show What Is Being Done in Southern B.C.

Will Be Great Educational Feature of Value to Country Visitors to Prince Rupert Fair.

A letter was laid before the Fair Board at last night's meeting from D. E. Mackenzie, manager of the Provincial Exhibition, New Westminster, confirming his telegram booking space for the Fraser Valley agricultural display.

The display is to be in charge of Tom Reid, reeve, and Claire Lemax, clerk of the Municipality of Surrey. Mr. Reid, who is a genuine British Columbia development enthusiast, has interested himself in the project as a means of advertising the great wealth and variety of agricultural products in the Fraser Valley. This feature will be of unlimited educational value to the people of the north. Mr. Lemax is an expert in the staging of such exhibits.

In his letter, Mr. Mackenzie pointed out that the price of $700 for staging the exhibit was much under what it would cost in the ordinary way. The New Westminster exhibition board pay out a total of $2,400 in prize money and allow each exhibitor the sum of $250 in addition for the staging of these exhibits, and then the exhibitors are on the ground.

It will, therefore, be seen that the staging of this display in the north is not a money making venture on the part of the exhibitors, but simply a desire to help the agricultural development of the province of British Columbia through this medium.

Both Mr. Reid and Mr. Lemax will take the time to come here and give the staging of the display their personal attention.

Claire Lemax met the Hon. Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Barrow, in the south and mentioned to him the fact that he was coming up here to stage this special display. Mr. Barrow expressed himself as very pleased indeed and was very much interested.

The New Westminster exhibit will be on a par with the many famous district agricultural exhibits unequalled in the entire Dominion of Canada as staged at the New Westminster fair each year and will be a representation of the agricultural development and progress of the famous Fraser Valley, the oldest farming district in British Columbia.

The space required for this special exhibit will be 400 feet, clear of corners, and will be 16 feet wide.

Arrangements for this interesting feature were made with D. E. Mackenzie, manager of the provincial exhibition at New Westminster, who is taking a great deal of trouble with this exhibit in spite of the fact that he is extremely busy with his own exhibition.

Meighen Meeting Not Very Satisfactory.

Now that the dust and excitement of the visit of Premier Meighen is over and people have time to look back at it with a little perspective, they are realizing that it was not any too satisfactory from a Conservative standpoint. Even with all the glamour of the premiership with him and also with the excitement of a political campaign he was not able to fill the overflow hall. At the theatre meeting the enthusiasm was nothing like what would be expected for a winning party and Mr. Meighen must have felt it somewhat of a wet blanket when the three cheers for him was not followed by a tiger.

While the meeting was all that could be expected in a Liberal stronghold, it was nothing to make the Conservative leaders over-confident as to the outcome of the contest.

Related Repentance on Many Subjects.

Mr. Meighen waved aside with his hand the idea that Prince Rupert had not received or would not receive proper attention from his party. He did not try to explain away Sir Henry Drayton, the present acting premier, or any other Conservatives who had fought tooth and nail against money being spent here. He did not even deny the Bury attack recently in Edmonton, which was made by one of his faithful followers. Now he says that Prince Rupert is a better place than he thought and, with a supercilious smile remarked that he did not think it would be a bad place in which to live.

Mr. Meighen also showed a hurried repentance in the matter of fish traps, although no word has yet been received that the operations authorized by them ceased on Monday morning, as promised by one of the speakers.

The only constructive proposal made by the premier was to raise the tax on products coming into this country from foreign countries. This, one of the speakers admitted, would likely raise the price to the local consumers, although he intimated that in time this might right itself.

Tried to Fasten Customs Crimes on Mackenzie King.

Mr. Meighen tried to fasten the customs irregularities on Mackenzie King. These were largely the work of appointees of the Conservative regime and the committee of investigation was created by Premier King for the purpose of making a clean-up. H. B. Stevens, who was a member of the committee, forstalled action by the Government by making charges in the House of Commons and in that way tried to fasten the guilt on the Government, but without success. His chief is now backing him up on every platform.

J. C. Brady Did Not Make Good Showing

J. C. Brady as a public speaker has been familiar in this city and district but on the political platform he was not a complete success. Even his supporters will admit that he was not what they expected. His personal references too were extremely unfortunate and did him harm. Declamation is not what people want in public life. They want facts discussed without oratorical flourishes. If Mr. Brady would talk to the people and tell them what he really thinks he can do at Ottawa if sent there instead of shouting platitudes he would make a much better impression. However, that is Mr. Brady's business and not ours. If he thinks that is what the people want, he will doubtless continue.

We do not think the House of Commons would listen to Mr. Brady's outbursts. He would quickly empty the House and would not even have an opportunity to make an impression there.

Mr. Brady condemned the issuing of fish traps, which was the act of the party which he endorses. That was the most interesting thing in his whole address.

REPORT CROPS AS IMPROVING

Bank of Montreal Says Recent Rains Have Made Conditions
Much Better.

Rains almost general throughout the prairie provinces, with cooler weather, have improved prospects for the later crops during the past week, says the Bank of Montreal crop report. Cutting has commenced in nearly all districts. In the province of Quebec recent rains have proved beneficial to the crops. In Ontario conditions continue satisfactory. Wheat harvesting is in full swing. Some sprouting in the stock is reported, but threshing yields are better than expected. In the Maritime provinces crops continue to make good progress under excellent weather conditions. Haying is practically completed and farmers on the whole are well satisfied. In British Columbia the prolonged drought is badly affecting all crops with consequent reduction in the estimated yields. Details follow:

Alberta

Western Area — Recent rains have improved conditions generally in Alberta and average yield is now anticipated. Scattered hail has done small damage. Northeast area — Fairly general rains have been beneficial. Average yields are expected, except in certain localities. Southern area — Harvesting fairly general. Results disappointing as previously forecast. Only the best lands will produce anything and these crops will be light.

Saskatchewan

Northern Area — Crops, with exception of the earliest grains, have benefited from rains and cooler weather. The crop is patchy with yield promising fair to average throughout. Southern area — Wheat cutting under way. Yields on summerfallow vary from fair to good, but are poor on stubble, with the southeast better than the southwest. Recent rains have helped coarse grains. There is considerable hail damage over widely scattered areas, including the Regina district.

Manitoba

Favorable weather has prevailed and indications are that a good average crop will be harvested. Cutting general except in the north.

Province of Quebec

The harvesting of hay is not yet completed. That harvested is a fair yield of excellent quality. Early vegetables are good in quality and yield. Later varieties promise well. Berries and small fruits are plentiful. Apples and plums are of good appearance, but the yield is expected to be slightly below average. Corn has greatly improved and prospects in some localities now are for a fair crop. Pastures are average, but should be improved by the recent rains.

Province of Ontario

Considerable threshing has taken place in the western part of the province. Grain is yielding from 35 to 50 bushels per acre. Some cutting of barley and oats has been done. Both crops are heavy. Corn is steadily improving and needs another month of growing weather to ensure an average crop. Turnips in many sections are a failure but other root crops are good, especially potatoes. The tobacco crop has greatly improved from recent rains. Small fruits are plentiful. Early apples are good but winter varieties are light. Pastures are exceptionally good.

Maritime Provinces

In New Brunswick there is a fair yield of hay and the crop is of good quality. Potatoes are doing well though somewhat late. In Nova Scotia there is an average yield of hay with quality fair to good. Apples are below average in quantity, but shaping well. In Prince Edward Island hay is an average yield of good quality. Apples fair. Grass pasture excellent.

British Columbia

Grains are ripening too quickly, resulting in light weight. Potatoes and roots are suffering from lack of moisture and the prospective yield is heavily reduced. Apricots, peaches, plums, and prunes are somewhat above the average. Apples are now reduced to an average crop with prospect of a further decrease should the drought continue. Heavy average crop. Pasturage fair to good.

Duke Harris arrived on yesterday afternoon's train from Hazelton on a business visit.

THE MAN IN THE MOON says:

Judging from the number of human seals and mermaids seen at the swimming gala on Sunday it is on the cards that Prince Rupert will produce some provincial champions in the near future.

It was no Conservative who asked in the theatre on Saturday night: "When do the pictures come on?"

Meighen is some speaker. Of that there is no doubt; But the question I would like to ask,

Is — what's it all about?

Leon's got a lot to learn. In this political game; The way the hecklers rattled him. Made Leon rather tame.

When it comes to pose dramatic, And a speech that's quite erratic, With Martin Harvey poses on the stage; And statements not all pointed, But just a bit disjointed, We'll hand the palm to J.C. on this page.

One would judge that Meighen's motto is "keep cool."

Someone rightly said that Premier Meighen reminded him of a super-salesman selling Conservative ideas in payment for the people's votes. Just what his salesmanship will amount to will be seen on election night.

It might be a good idea to plant a flypaper on the chair of some speakers. They'd then have difficulty in getting up on their feet.

TALK OF UNITING

Under Present Conditions Co-operation is Only Possible Method of Government.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The future of parties was discussed at the Liberal Summer School at Oxford recently by Ramsay Muir. He said they saw everywhere faith in representative government and representative government itself breaking down. He attributed this to the wide-spread feeling that, despite all the paraphernalia of election, parliament did not effectively represent the real minds of nations.

There might be 5,000 or more Liberals in every constituency and not a single Liberal might be elected to the House of Commons. He regarded it as a formidable factor which must have a profound psychological influence that 60 per cent of the electors were aware that they had not voted for anybody who sat at Westminster.

His conviction was that the two-party system had disappeared forever. They were going to have at least three, and probably more than three parties in the new period. If that were so, they must be prepared for something in the nature of combinations and alliances between parties. It was all important that such alliances should be made upon as honest a basis as possible. He did not believe anything in the nature of effective agreement between two parties would be workable or honest until some system of proportional representation was achieved.

(Toronto Globe)

The joy-ride of the Margaret, heralded far and wide as a tidbit of scandal involving two former cabinet ministers, did not take place.

The unsavory incidents related as occurring during a wobbly cruise on the St. Lawrence had no existence.

The 3,600 bottles of beer and 20 cases of whiskey alleged to have accompanied the joy-riders were the creation of a distorted imagination.

The story which Mr. A. J. Doucet and other political campaigners told on the public platform about Hon. Mr. Lapointe and Hon. Mr. Bureau was pure calumny.

In a three hours' hearing Chief Justice Lemieux received evidence relating to the mast of the whole contemptible conspiracy against these public men—a slander which has grown from whisperings in the corridors of parliament, told with a wink and a toss of the thumb, in the dying days of the last session, and carried to the hustings with all the gusto and bravado of a dare-devil pirate.

George Woodland, manager of the Imperial Oil Company here, who left with Mrs. Woodland and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Parker to drive through from Smithers to Vancouver, returned from Prince George, arriving home yesterday. He had a business call to come home. He reports the roads in excellent condition all the way and south from Prince George thirty miles, which was as far as he went.

BIG PICTURE COMING END OF NEXT WEEK AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

A big English picture "Ypres" is to be shown for three days next week, August 26, 27 and 29, in the Westholme Theatre.

"Ypres" tells the story of Ypres simply, yet graphically it is not like the usual war pictures that have come over the border. The impression all the time is of reality. So cleverly have the actual war scenes been worked in with studio-made scenes (in which all the performers are returned soldiers) that it all seems to have been filmed actually at the front.

The producers have kept to the main events in the Battles of Ypres, bringing in deeds of individual heroism only when they were thought to have exercised an influence on the issue. There are scenes of humor, too; the "Tommies" in their improvised bath-tubs, the letters from home, the predicament of a stout fellow who was trying to carry food to his comrades through a mud-filled trench.

ALBERTA WHITE FISH PRICE MOUNTS UP IN MARKET AT CHICAGO

EDMONTON, Aug. 17.—Chicago fish dealers are finding Alberta whitefish so popular that they are buying great quantities of this kind of fish, boosting local prices to 17½ cents a pound, an increase of five cents in one week.

"Whitefish prices in Edmonton will never be as low as they were," stated one local fish dealer Saturday morning. "Chicago dealers are buying all they can get their hands on, and so the prices went up. We have to buy at higher prices or the Chicago people will outbid us and get the fish."

For years Alberta has been trying to tell the Eastern States of the wonderful eating qualities of this fish in an endeavor to make a market for it. So sudden did the dealers in the East realize that the fish would sell well, that the prices went sky-rocketting.

ARTHUR T. BAILEY STRUCK BY ROCK

Arthur T. Bailey, who has been employed at the Sunnyside Cannery for the past several months, suffered injury to his arm and shoulder as the result of a rock blast as he was lading from a gasboat at the Prince Rupert Boathouse wharf yesterday afternoon. A blast was exploded as the boat was pulling toward the wharf, and a piece of rock struck Mr. Bailey on the arm causing serious bruises and necessitating medical attention. Had the piece of rock struck Mr. Bailey a few inches higher, serious injury would have been occasioned. Mr. Bailey has returned to the city for the winter.

LIMERICK CONTEST CLOSES THIS WEEK

Last Chance For Those Who Wish to Support Party and Win Cash Prizes.

The limerick contest will close at the end of this week and those who wish to support their party by voicing their sentiments in verse should do so at once and also at the same time possibly win the cash prizes of five and three dollars. As before mentioned, the political bias of the contributors will not be considered but simply the cleverness of the verses. Following are from those submitted.

The Sons of Canada obtained their two runs in the third innings while the Gyros got one run in the second inning, one in the third, two in the fourth and one more in the sixth.

Gordon acted as umpire for balls and strikes and Loblick took care of the bases.

DISMISSAL OF ALL RETURNING OFFICERS WAS PARTIZAN ACT

Victoria Times—Why did Mr. Meighen dismiss nearly all of the old returning officers and appoint new ones? Those Canadians who were looking forward to seeing the political issues of their country conducted on a decent plane will probably want an answer to this as well as many other questions before September 14.

It will be remembered that a year ago the Parliament of Canada revised the Elections Act in a way calculated to obtain a freer expression of the will of the people. One of the amendments approved provided that the ridings should be furnished with returning officers so that these officials would be familiar with the duties assigned to them in advance of the calling of the election. Although the term of office was set at one year, it was understood at the time that most of them would be continued from year to year, and that the position would be of a permanent character. Independent members of the Commons warmly supported the reform; but Mr. Meighen objected to it on the ground that it would enable the Liberals to shorten the period of the election campaign by fifteen days. But his objections were swamped in committee.

More than 200 out of 245 returning officers have been dismissed in spite of the fact that

mission has given its unqualified approval to the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight title battle and has authorized Tex Rickard to go ahead with all arrangements to
