CANADA'S PLACE IN THE BRITISH EMPIRE

BIG BAY LUMBER COMPANY PREPARED TO PROCEED WITH ERECTION OF MILL

Position of Canada in the Empire Is Being Discussed Today in the House of Commons on Resolution

OTTAWA, March 23.—There is a big fight on here in the House of Commons between the Imperialists and anti-imperialists over the question of participation in Empire wars. It was precipitated by a resolution introduced by J. S. Woodsworth, labor member for Winnipeg, which declares that Canada refuses to accept any responsibility for complications arising from the foreign policy of the United Kingdom.

ALBERTA WILL FOLLOW OLIVER

Is Considering Hours of Labor Bill Similar to that B.C. Government

EDMONTON, Mar. 23.—The Alberta Government is passing a nine hour day bill with the proviso that it may by order in council be changed to an eight hour day measure any time after the beginning of next year. The bill is patterned somewhat after the bill passed by the British Columbia Legislature at the instance of Premier Oliver, which was studied by the framers of the Alberta measure before tackling the question.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, March 23.—The Wilkins' Arctic expedition will be delayed three weeks pending repairs being made to the planes both of which were put temporarily out of business last week, one on Thursday and the other Friday. PRICES HIGHER HALIBUT TODAY

Number of Fishing Boats Overdue and Lenten Demand Forces Price Up

Most of the fish that are coming in from the halibut banks are being sold at Prince Rupert, according to advices received here. There has been no apparent slackening in the sales at this port consequent on efforts to change the routing of the fish by Alaskan interests. The fishermen take their products to the place where they think they get the best price and the best treatment.

Just now there are thirty to forty fishing boats overdue, the bad weather on the banks being responsible for the delay. This combined with the Lenten demand in the east has forced the price of halibut up until today it reached as high as 22 cents for American and nineteen for Canadian with 8 and 6 for seconds. The demand should hold good all this week and then the Easter season will probably put a temporary crimp in the market and prices are liable to drop considerably.

ANOTHER BOAT COMES TO DOCK

Canadian Observer Will be Here at End of Week for Annual Overhaul and Tank Conversion

With work on the Canadian Coaster to be completed by that time, C.G.M.M. freighter Canadian Observer, Capt. McKay, of the Ocean Falls-California paper carrying service, will arrive at the local dry dock on Saturday or Sunday next. The vessel will be here two or three weeks and will undergo annual overhaul as well as conversion of her ballast tanks to carry oil instead of water.

REPAIRS TO BOXER AT DOCK FINISHED

American Government Schooner Reloading Cargo and Will Continue Her Voyage to Seward

Having spent a week in the local dry dock having repairs made following her recent stranding on White Cliff Island, the American government auxiliary schooner Boxer was taken off the pontoons this morning and is now reloading the railway ties that were lightered from her before she was released from the docks. The vessel will then proceed on her interrupted voyage from Everett to Seward.

Mrs. R. F. McNaughton sailed last evening on the Prince Rupert for the south accompanying Mr. McNaughton who, in his official capacity as C.N.R. district passenger agent, is going to Victoria with the Great West Life Assurance party.

GRAYVENS IN BERMUDA—Above photo shows the Earl of Grayven and his wife, shortly after they reached Bermuda from Halifax, N.S. There is still a warrant out for the earl's arrest in the United States. On the voyage down he broke his leg. But as it was the wooden leg, replacing the one he lost in the war, it was quickly repaired by the ship's carpenter.

EDMONTON, March 23.—Very close to five hundred immigrants have arrived here and already all are either working on farms or looking for locations to start farming for themselves. A good many of them had money but those who had not much were quickly found positions. This is the advance guard of the immigrant host that is expected in the district this year.

Big Bay Lumber Company's Mill Will Operate at Least Ten Months of Every Year

It is the intention of the Big Bay Lumber Co. to establish at Seal Cove in this city a good sized sawmill which will operate at least ten months a year and, just as soon as satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Co. Ltd. with regard to the lease and with the city of Prince Rupert with respect to the matter of taxes, preparations for the erection of the plant will start, states George McAfee, manager of the Georgetown mill, and one of the principals in Big Bay Lumber Co., who is a visitor in the city today. The company expects to be doing business at the new site, at least in handling lumber, during the coming season and construction work on the new mill will probably start this summer. Considerable time will be required to clear up the debris of the fire that wiped out the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills but an early start will likely be made on this work.

Tide Turning

Toward Canada.

The tide is turning towards Canada and people from the United States will be coming here in large numbers this year, according to the vice-president of the Canadian National Railways who is in charge of the immigration department of the line. Farmers from the other side are looking for new locations and Canada is beckoning to them. Every year a number of land seekers come from across the boundary but this year more than ever will buy farms in this country or take up homesteads.

British Columbia has had its American invasions and we are always glad to see them come. We want good Americans as citizens for they are adapted to life in the west. British Columbia is getting a good many now. That is what is making Vancouver prosperous.

Always Will Be An Interchange.

There will always be a number of Canadians leave this country for the states. The interchange from one country to the other will be more or less continuous but not constant. Some times it will be more rapid than others. When our country is prosperous the trend will be in that direction and nothing in the world will stop it. We are such near neighbors that we cannot live our lives wholly apart. Naturally we are one but politically we are separated by an imaginary line which is easily crossed.

Just now it seems as if it was to be Canada's turn. The tide of progress is setting this way and the people will come.

Talk Of Quota Is Much Too Prevalent.

The suggestion that there be a quota established against all but British countries is foolish just now. We want population. Our waste places need filling and when there are people in need of farm homes it would be almost criminal to deny them the land. If we fill these lands with a white population the Oriental menace will disappear but as long as the country is not inhabited there is a great temptation to the people across the Pacific to use them. We cannot act the part of the dog in the manger. Either we must fill up the vacant lands or allow those who wish to come in, and that will be Orientals.

Power Will Be Next Proposition.

The next big thing for Prince Rupert to tackle will be the matter of securing an adequate supply of power for all purposes. When the elevator is operating and the new Big Bay lumber mill is completed and using electric power and all the other demands are being supplied there will be no power left to offer new industries. The question will then arise as to what steps shall be taken.

If it is found possible to induce some big concern to come here and develop a hydro-electric power at the Estall River such as could supply the whole neighborhood, Prince Rupert would do well to offer every encouragement to the scheme. Unfortunately the experiences of the past have made people with money doubtful about coming here to spend it. However, just now people are turning their attention to this centre and it is not at all improbable that some concern may be induced to locate here. At any rate it would be worth while trying to get them interested.

RUPERT BEING MENTIONED IN LONDON TIMES

The London Times trade supplement has a special item on Prince Rupert from its special correspondent at Edmonton which follows:

"Prince Rupert, British Columbia's northerly port, and possessor of one of the finest deep water harbors in the world, is anxious to handle a part of the prairie wheat crop.

"The Prince Rupert board of trade has appealed for the co-operation of various inland boards of trade in its projected campaign to divert some of the prairie wheat to the northern tidewater outlet. The elevator there can store 1,250,000 bushels of wheat, and Prince Rupert is the nearest port in British Columbia to the Liverpool market.

"Prince Rupert was formerly the terminus of the G.T.P. Ry. across Canada. It passed under Canadian National Railways control when the latter concern took over the old railway, and there is a possibility it may become a very busy port in the near future, should the Peace River rail outlet be via Prince Rupert instead of via Vancouver.

LITERARY SOCIETY OF UNITED CHURCH MEETS

Several Interesting Topics Discussed Mostly of Historical Nature

There was a very interesting meeting last evening of the Literary and Athletic Society recently organized at the United Church. An address was given by W. G. Walford on Prince Rupert, the man after whom this city is named, and also a short account of the manner of naming the city was included.

Miss Haddock gave an interesting reading "The Corn Flower."

Rev. G. G. Hacker gave a short sketch of Drake's expedition as far north as Oregon. This was the first of a series of addresses on the history of the Pacific Coast. The next will be on the Russian expedition under Behring.

The evening concluded with an indoor baseball match in the gymnasium in which Jim Thompson's Sluggers competed with Art Lancaster's Runners. Unfortunately the score-keeper became so interested in the game that he forgot to keep score and the game was declared a draw.

CHALLENGE OF TODAY

First of Series of Lectures Given at Corner Club Last Night

Last night the Parlor of the Baptist Church was well filled to hear Rev. E. G. Turner open a series of four lectures on "The Challenge of Today."

Under the caption "The Challenging Principle," the speaker in an eloquent and lucid manner showed that the underlying principle that advanced civilization was reverence for personality. Quoting the great minds of the past ages he showed that they taught this principle to be the secret of all progress and moral development. Reverence for personality was also one of the basic principles of Christianity fully exemplified in the life of its founder.

During the evening Miss Elizabeth McLeod delighted the audience with a Scottish character song, Mrs. R. Walker accompanying.

Next Monday the second of the series will be presented, "The Challenge of New External Conditions" being the subject.

An engine and two coaches having been provided for their use, the Great West Life Assurance party, which visited the city yesterday afternoon, was given the opportunity of visiting the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. plant at Seal Cove, where fish handling operations were in progress, and the Canadian Government Merchant Marine dock where work on several vessels was under way.

At the Cold Storage plant the party was met by T. H. Johnson, manager, and extended every courtesy. At the dry dock, similar courtesies were extended by A. E. Bazett-Jones, chief engineer. Other local persons who assisted with the reception to the visitors were Mayor Newton, W. H. Tohey, C.N.R. superintendent, R. F. McNaughton, district passenger agent, W. O. Fulton, acting president of the board of trade, and S. K. Campbell, David Thomson, G. P. Tinker and J. Field Strang.

NELLIE McCLUNG GIVES ADDRESS TO GYROS AT EDMONTON THIS WEEK

EDMONTON, March 23.—That the Gyro Club take a stand with regard to the elevation of public morals, was urged by Mrs. Nellie L. McClung, M.L.A., in an address to local Gyros at their weekly luncheon this week.

"We need a new standard of morality, to keep pace with modern scientific development," Mrs. McClung declared, "and one of the things most urgently required is a higher understanding of social responsibility, particularly toward the rising generation."

There was a danger in these days of ease and comfort of people becoming softened and losing altogether the fine pioneer spirit that has built up the west. An awakening of public sentiment was needed.

Mrs. McClung's address was well received by the members, who extended her hearty thanks.

MILLION STILL FOR MAKING SAMAGON IN UKRAINE ARE TAKEN

Opposition to Vodka Monopoly is Shown Throughout Soviet Russia

MOSCOW, March 22.—War has been declared by Russian moon-shiners on the government vodka monopoly. Since the government decided to manufacture and sell forty per cent vodka to the public, the state authorities have confiscated tens of thousands of illicit stills in the villages, and the peasantry seems more determined than ever to combat the government's "legal" vodka with their own home-brew, Russian home-brew is called "samagon." It can be made and sold at one-half the government price for vodka.

The samagon moon-shiners are operating throughout Russia. In the Ukraine alone more than 1,000,000 illicit stills have been confiscated.

Chief Burnett said that in some cases mothers go out to a theatre or go shopping, leaving an infant at home sleeping. Complaint against Louis (Kid) Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., world's featherweight champion, of failure to fulfill a contract to fight Kid Roy, Canadian champion, in Montreal, November 3, 1925, was filed last week with the state athletic commission of New York by the Montreal boxing commission. Chairman Fairley ordered Kaplan and his two managers, Dennis McMahon and "Scolly" Monteith, to answer the charges at a meeting to be held today. All three were served with summonses.

FENCING IS PART OF JAPANESE EDUCATION

TOKYO, March 23.—In Japan all school boys over the age of fifteen are taught the use of the sword and many of the youngsters turn out to be great fencers. When winter training started in the Peer's school among the first to don the masks and gloves were the Princes Kuni and Asaka. Fencing exercises also are underway in the majority of the public schools. No Japanese youth is considered properly educated until he is master of the sword.

HORSE RACING IS ON CARDS NEAR EL PASO

EL PASO, Texas, March 23.—Saturday, April 24, has been set for the revival of horse racing at the Juarez race track, across the border from here, after a ten year suspension, because of chaotic conditions resulting from internal strife in Mexico. A thirty day meeting will be held by the Juarez Jockey Club, to be followed next winter by a meeting lasting 100 days.

POP-EYED PROSPECTORS WILD OVER GOLD SAYS COLONEL J. K. CORNWALL

Mushroom Town Springing up at Hudson With all Marks of Stampede Settlement

EDMONTON, March 23.—"Pop-eyed prospectors are running wild in this section of Manitoba," says Col. J. K. Cornwall in writing to the Bulletin from Hudson station from where Red Lake gold rushers are piling north into the wilderness.

The only man in the little wayside station who is unperturbed is the fur post manager; he stands at the post door with his hands in his pockets, smoking a long pipe. Gold is away over his head," says Colonel Cornwall.

Airplanes are carrying prospectors in at the rate of a dollar a pound; two passengers at a time are taken to Red Lake, there being no reduction for fat men as formerly. It costs 50 cents to have a letter delivered and papers are selling at the diggings for two dollars each. Freight rates are only limited by the blue sky.

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE SCHEME

People of North Dakota are Returning to Sanity Says Paper

A few years ago, when the people of North Dakota were led to believe that they had been started on the high road to heaven by the Non-partisan League, there were agitators at work in Western Canada who endeavored to get the people of the Western provinces to follow the example of their American neighbors says the Financial Post.

Very fortunately indeed for Canada the hard-headed leaders of the farmers' organizations in this country were not misled by alluring propaganda and the plans of the radicals never found general endorsement.

To-day North Dakota is recovering from a period of near-disaster. The "New Day" planned by the Non-partisan League, proved nothing but an illusion. The people of North Dakota are now looking for a "New Day" in which there will be prosperity, with the co-operation of that Big Business which was so much despised during the period in which socialistic ideas held sway.

Paternal Illusion While in Canada, fortunately, the example of North Dakota was not followed, radical ideas of finance and business secured a certain hold in parts of the country and had their influence on legislation. Nor have these influences entirely departed.

There is still an illusion that paternalism in the form of government loans will provide a short cut to prosperity. For this reason it may be timely to review what has occurred in North Dakota. Conditions in that state are thoroughly analyzed by William S. Neal in the following article in the Nation's Business.

Any man, who in 1919 had told the sturdy hard-working farmer of North Dakota that their "New Day," program was an illusion, that the farmers themselves would in six years welcome back "Big Business" would have been laughed out of the state or locked up as a dangerous fanatic.

Foreign Program The Nonpartisan League which fostered and promised this "New Day" was a farmer-laborer coalition. A program foreign to the time honored conception of the function of government and business was announced.

The term "New Day" pleased its originators. It expressed their thought and purpose. The state would slay the dragon, "Big Business." The state would itself become "Big Business," with banks, flour mills, packing plants and what not. The sky was the limit.

Nearly a decade has passed since the Non-partisan League came into power, North Dakota is again looking forward to a "New Day" in which co-operation and good will are substituted for boycott and hatred, and sanity will prevail in government deliberation.

VANCOUVER REAL ESTATE ACTIVE

Not Since Boom of 1910 Has There Been Such Marked Activity in Southern B.C.

VANCOUVER, March 23.—Not since the so-called boom days of 1910-12 has there been such marked activity in realty circles as has been shown during the last couple of weeks throughout Greater Vancouver generally, according to leading realty operators, who in some cases have had to increase their staffs in order to cope with the numerous transfers and sales being made. Proof of this increased activity is found in the fact that there were no fewer than 85 conveyances and 22 agreements of sale registered at the provincial court house on Wednesday, which constitutes a record for any one day so far.

Every business day for weeks past has seen a big list of transfers put through. While no particularly high individual deals have gone through lately, daily the aggregate of sales has been high, according to the registry office returns, those for last Wednesday running close to $300,000. This realty activity, especially in connection with the transfer of so much suburban property, evidently intended for homesteads, is believed to presage a vast amount of building activity in the near future.

Continued sales are being made by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company of sites in the new or third Shaughnessy Heights section of Point Grey. One of the blocks has been re-subdivided, making about 190 to be disposed of altogether, and of these close to 90 have been sold. The company has realized approximately $250,000 on the lots already sold, and it is expected that this sum will be considerably augmented by sales in the near future. Many new owners of the property in the district are planning to build homes immediately.

AMERICANS FOR THIS COUNTRY

More Will Come This Year Says W. D. Robb, Vice-president of the Canadian National

WINNIPEG, March 23.—Prospects for an increase over the success even of last year in the sale of Canadian farm lands to United States farmers is predicted by W. D. Robb, vice-president in charge of colonization and other departments of the Canadian National Railways, who spent the day in the city en route from Montreal.

Mr. Robb is accompanied by Dr. W. J. Black, director of colonization, agriculture and natural resources for the system and they have just been visiting the Chicago and St. Paul land agencies of the Canadian National Railways.

In commenting on this movement from across the line, Mr. Robb stated that farmers from the United States make excellent settlers for western Canada, inasmuch as they are so thoroughly familiar with farming conditions in the west.

During their brief stay in Winnipeg, Mr. Robb and Dr. Black were attending a meeting of the Canadian National Land Settlement Association of which Mr. Robb is president, as well as going over matters in connection with the disposal of lands owned by the C.N.R.

The expeditions will continue their researches and explorations during 1926, the government having allotted $1,500,000 for this purpose.

MARRIAGE SHORT LIVED RUSSIA UNDER SOVIET

LENINGRAD, March 23.—The government has published statistics which show that the average duration of marriages in Leningrad is only four years, there being 237 divorces each year for every 4,000 marriages. This condition is explained by the ease and small expense with which divorces can be obtained under the new Soviet civil code.

Carney, representative of the company, has promised to place a definite undertaking before the council within thirty days' time.

ALBERTA ELK BEING KILLED

Indians Slaughtering Them in the Mountain Country of the West

EDMONTON, March 23.—Indian hunters are systematically slaughtering off the remaining bands of elk in the mountain country west of the Alberta settlement line. The spring elk hunt is in full force in the Brazeau region according to residents of Nordegg and Rocky Mountain House who are visitors in the city.

The Brazeau country is one of the great game reserves of Alberta and Canada, and in the particular region where the Indians hunt there are no game guardians to check their movements, though the territory is well served with pack trails used by the forest rangers.

Exterminating Herds

Each Indian is killing off from four to six elk this spring for his family food supply, and so good is the hunting that various other Indians from the Moreley reserve come up each spring and once having tasted the delights of the Brazeau game paradise remain and lend their aid in exterminating the remaining bands of elk.

One Hundred Hunters

In all about 100 hunters range the country westward of Nordegg and Rocky Mountain House. They live almost entirely of meat, few of them running trap lines. Horses are used and there are permanent Indian hunting camps west of Nordegg. Most of the natives are of the Stony tribe.

Elk hides are superior to the moose for moosehides and other native wear, hence the desire of the Indians to obtain them. Moose are shot in the fall, but the regular hunt in the spring is always for elk, which are subject to a permanent close season. The number of animals in the Brazeau country is usually kept up to the average by bands which stray out of the Banff and Jasper parks, so that in addition to depleting the Brazeau country the active hunters are performing the same operation for the strictly preserved national parks.

It is stated that the hunting is done entirely by the Indians.

SILVER FOX FURS ARE FAVORITES IN LONDON

LONDON, March 23.—Silver fox furs have ousted red fox from favor in fashionable Mayfair this season. White fox is also popular, being dyed in shades of beige, champagne and gray to match street suitings.

Now that silver foxes are bred in many places on the continent, prices are more reasonable, although farmed pelt is never so perfect as "wild" fur. Other popular furs are stone marten and baron marten, and an entirely new fur named Peschaniky, resembling mink.

MURDER CASE IS GRUESOME

Woman Brutally Beaten and Then Scalded to Death at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, March 23.—Police are working today to untangle one of the most gruesome murder cases in the history of Winnipeg. The victim, Annie Cardno, was brutally beaten and then scalded to death.

For a number of years the woman shared a home with Dan Proskiw, Heaton Street, Winnipeg, and it was there that the terrible scene was enacted. The woman was about 50 years old.

Dan Proskiw, suspected of the crime, is in custody at the central police station. In the meantime he is held as a "material witness" in the case. Proskiw is about the same age as the murdered woman.

As she lay prostrate, possibly insensible, on the floor, boiling water from a gallon kettle, which was found empty in the kitchen, had evidently been poured over her head, for when the police reached the scene they found her lying on her back, her face and scalp parboiled, part of the scalp, in fact, having become detached from the skull, hanging by the side of her head.

Proskiw was arraigned before Magistrate Sir Hugh John Macdonald this morning and was remanded for a week.

BIRTH CONTROL CONFERENCE

International Event to Take Place at Geneva Next August

NEW YORK, March 23.—A call for the seventh international conference on birth control at Geneva next August, has been issued by Dr. C. E. Little, president of the University of Michigan and of the International Birth Control League.

At this meeting, it was explained by Dr. Little, scientists from various countries will assemble to discuss the problems involved and a permanent bureau will be established to co-ordinate the birth control movements in those countries now actively interested in the government. The conference will meet on August 25, 26 and 27, just prior to the seventh assembly of the League of Nations.

"I believe," Dr. Little said, "that the movement for birth control is making progress. The thinking public is discussing the question and the younger generation enjoys a more active social consciousness than did its parents. They are more interested in the well-being of their own children."

Dr. Little intimated that it appeared to him unfortunate that all believers in birth control should be herded into one unit in the public consciousness. He spoke of his organization as representative of the most conservative element in the movement. He believes the world ready at this time only for the dissemination of knowledge among the so-called "medical" cases, where direct injury is threatened to children.

LATEST SCHEME FOR GETTING MONEY FROM THE UNSUSPECTING

Man Allowed Woman to Knock Him Down With Car and Then Demanded Money

EDMONTON, March 23.—What looked like an attempt at sharp practice was reported to the city police here. A lady returning home was driving her auto north on Jasper, shortly before midnight, when she saw two men standing on the sidewalk at the corner of 106th Avenue, near the curb. As she approached she heard the remark: "It is a woman and she is alone."

Just then one of the men stepped out from the sidewalk in front of the car, apparently with the purpose of being struck by the auto, and after he had collided with the fender, fell to the pavement. She stopped to inquire of the damage and then came threats that the case would be reported to the police and action taken, if a settlement was not made.
