PROGRESSIVES HAVE UNITED THEIR FORCES

DECISION IN NORTH VANCOUVER MURDER APPEAL IS EXPECTED TODAY

Farmer Members Decide on Common Policy; will Act Together in House

OTTAWA, Jan. 6.—The members of the Progressive Party, those of the so called "Ginger Group" included, will present a united front when Parliament meets. A common basis for action was arrived at in a caucus yesterday according to H. E. Spencer, member for Battle River and newly elected chief whip of the party. Consequently members of the third party will act together on questions of importance during the session.

Interest now centres on what the Conservative party will do after the opening of the House of Commons tomorrow. An important caucus of the party will, it is expected, be held today or tomorrow. So far as is known, the line of political strategy to be followed by the Tories has not yet been indefinitely decided upon.

COUNTERFEIT PLOT BARED

International Ring Believed Broken up as Result of New York Arrests

ELIZABETH, N.J., Jan. 5.—Elizabeth police were informed that the arrest of seven alleged international counterfeiters in New York had been made as a result of the apprehension here of Frank Weinger on similar charges. Federal agents said the arrests and three additional ones, which they hoped to make soon, would dispose of a band of counterfeiters, the operations of which extended throughout Canada and the United States. It was said that instead of printing presses, the counterfeiters employed a photo-engraving process.

DRIVER GETS BATH OF OIL

Accident Occurred This Morning in City Hall Lane

An accident, which fortunately was not attended with serious consequences, befell the city oil wagon, driven by Charles Roberts, this morning while backing into the lane with a load of some two hundred gallons of crude oil for replenishing the City Hall heater supply. The driver was having some difficulty in backing into the awkward piece of lane, which has a slight up-grade and is rough surfaced, when the front wheels and bogey of the wagon buckled precipitating the driver underneath the hind feet of the team and tipping a portion of the contents of the wagon over the street. The driver and team came in for a good crude oil bath. The horses plunged quite a bit but fortunately Roberts was able to scramble out without being injured. Buckets, shovels and barrels were quickly requisitioned in an effort to save the oil left in the upturned tank, only some 20 gallons being lost.

Later

OTTAWA, Jan. 6.—At a conference today, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen and other prominent members of the Conservative party approved of an amendment to the speech from the throne calling for a vote of confidence in the government. The likelihood is that the amendment will be moved by Mr. Meighen early next week. It is unlikely that opposition will develop to the nomination of Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux as speaker.

Concentrator to be Placed on Toric Property at Alice Arm This Spring, Manager States

Just as soon as it is possible to work in the spring a concentrator will be installed at the Toric Mine by the Consolidated Homestake Mining and Development Co., and it is expected to have the mine producing regularly before the summer is over, according to A. C. H. Gerhardt, mining engineer, who is in charge of operations for the company at Alice Arm.

The program for the season, according to Mr. Gerhardt, is to install a 50 ton concentrating plant just as soon as they can get it on the ground. The barrel amalgamation will win 63 per cent of the values and a table concentrator will take care of 25 per cent, which will give good returns on all work done.

Mill tests by Falkenberg of Seattle from sample chippings taken from 630 feet of cross-cuttings in the ore give .68 ounces of gold, 18.2 ounces of silver and 3 per cent of lead. The average width of the ore is 70 feet from the hanging wall to the footwall and the amount of ore already developed amounts to 470,000 tons.

The cost of milling and mining is $5.20 a ton and if the ore averages $12 a ton it will give a handsome profit.

The property is three-quarters of a mile from the head of the Dolly Varden Railway and the concentrates will be brought down that line on speeders, which are at present being used for bringing in supplies.

Just now only one shift a day is being worked at the mine but the machinery for the plant is ordered and according to present plans the mine should be shipping in August.

OFFICIALS HERE TO INVESTIGATE FIRE AT MILL ON MONDAY

Assistant Provincial Fire Marshal A. A. Macdonald arrived from Vancouver on the Prince Rupert this morning. His visit here is in connection with the recent fire at the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills' plant, Seal Cove.

P. G. Shallerross, fire insurance adjuster, and J. Ward Bell, director of the Prince Rupert Mills are expected to arrive in the city on Saturday in connection with the same matter.

Court Spends Whole Day Dealing with Evidence Regarding Action of Dogs in "Sonny" White Case

VICTORIA, Jan. 6.—Decision in the appeal for a new trial for Charles Henry ("Sonny") White, half breed, convicted and sentenced to be hanged on January 14 for the murder of Frank Rosso, North Vancouver Italian storekeeper, is expected this afternoon. The appeal was argued all day Tuesday concerning evidence respecting the action of bloodhounds used in the effort to trace the murderer. Defence counsel argued that the evidence given by Constable Campbell, owner of the dogs, really an interpretation by him of the actions of the dogs, was hazardous testimony and that the judge erred in admitting it.

COPPER CITY CONCENTRATOR

Seattle Interests Plan Big Developments on Thornhill Mountain

A concentrating outfit has been brought from Seattle by O. P. Brown, representing interests of that city, to be placed on the Golden Lady property on Thornhill Mountain near Copper City, on the opposite side of the Skeena River from Terrace, according to John Couture, well known Terrace prospector, who is a visitor in the city today. Surveys are now being made for a tram from the property to the government road, a distance of about three or four miles. There is already a good deal of gold ore on the dump and prospects for future development are very bright.

Mr. Couture will return on tonight's train to Terrace after having spent a couple of weeks visiting at Alice Arm with his cousins, the Beadlin Brothers. Mr. Couture found the outlook bright from a mining standpoint at Alice Arm. There is an interesting rumor going the rounds there now that a new company is to be formed to take over and operate the Dolly Varden mine.

A New Day In Farming.

Farming may have been a hit and miss proposition in former days, but that time is gone.

The twentieth century is remarkable as the age of mechanical power and science. Farming, along with many other occupations, has been put upon a new plane.

Farming is today a science. The laws of cause and effect are being recognized in agriculture as never before.

Luck has no place in modern farming. There is a reason—sometimes many reasons—for everything.

Success in agriculture is not due to chance or even weather. The largest factor in success or failure is the man himself.

At one time it was said that if a man couldn't do anything else, he could always farm. Such a statement is rarely heard now. Good health, experience, hard work, intelligence plus a willingness to keep step with new methods and take advantage of the mistakes, successes and experiments of others, are the chief contributing factors to success in farming.

If we look back upon farming in other days and countries we find that the difference between peasantry and self-respecting rural manhood is education, slowly acquired through the ages.

Here in America it is recognized that the successful educated farmer is the highest type of citizen the country can boast—a real producer, and collectively, the stability of our national and economic structure.

It is because of these facts that rural fathers and mothers are more insistent than ever that their sons and daughters shall be educated, not to become instructors in their turn in unadvised numbers, but to become better men and women, better farmers and farmers' wives, better home-makers and happier people.—Farm and Home.

Relation of Economic And Social Structure.

One aspect of the complexity of modern, economic life is the close relationship between the problem of ownership and the problem involved in the modern idea of the family, says the Royal Bank of Canada's monthly letter. The decreasing size of the family unit is producing economic consequences which are only now beginning to be recognized.

Among the outstanding examples of the process of financial adjustment which is aiding society to meet this change in the family unit, we might mention the great increases in the volume of savings, the tremendous volume of endowment insurance, and both nationwide and private company "old age pension" plans. But the movement is of such major importance that those developments take care of only a limited proportion of the individuals concerned.

LOCAL GIRL IN ELECTION NEXT WEEK

Miss Louie Fisher Seen to Advantage in Program at Empress Theatre

The variety concert in the Empress theatre last night, featuring Miss Louie Fisher of this city in elocutionary and dancing numbers as well as several vaudeville turns, proved a very entertaining affair. The local girl, who was ably assisted by Lipton McCutcheon of Burns Lake, displayed a distinct aptitude at her work and carried out a program of some length and variety with ability and confidence.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

ONE of the things that doesn't get you very far is looking for humor in a government blue book.

A HEN is about the only thing that can sit quiet and produce profits.

WHAT has become of all the heroic citizens who used to scramble for public office at this time of the year?

GIVING beefsteaks to a cow is about as senseless as giving rubber heels to a mermaid.

NOW the manufacturers are making transparent rubber boots for women. How the girls do hate to hide those tie striders.

THERE'S one good point about this bobbed hair stunt—nothing can be deducted from the stray hair on a man's coat lapel provided the color is similar.

BUT still we pity the people who used to get a living making hair nets.

THERE was once a man who threw his corkscrew into the lighted furnace and then woke up.

Mayor Newton Announces he is Candidate in Field for Mayorality

Mayor Newton and Ald. McErdie are both definitely in the field for mayorality honors. There are but five more days to enter nominations which will close at 2 o'clock next Monday afternoon, the election taking place on the Thursday following.

It is not expected there will be any scarcity of candidates for the five seats at the council board. Ald. Perry, Ald. Larsen, Ald. Stephens and Ald. Smith, the retiring candidates, will all likely seek re-election. Joe Greer and W. D. Vance are spoken of as likely aldermanic candidates and A. H. McPherson has announced himself.

There is little talk as yet of candidates for the two vacancies on the school board and the police commission.

From Winter's Bite To Summer's Glow

President's Palace and new Plaza at Havana.

The insouciance of a fly on a floor, gazing at a blue piece of a gilded brown color, so marked are the indentations shadowing the island's precipitous sides—all jags and points.

The little town on the island is hidden with an African shyness, among palm trees. Some fine buildings, church and government, offset the mile upon mile of negroes' wooden habitations that persist until the foot hills of the island's watershed backbone; from below, so solemn in its existence; from above, so impracticable in its crenellations, gullies and rifts. Through the crazy interior splash threading streams and frothy torrents over rocky shelves often garlanded with greenery and rare fronds.

To the north-west where the mountain turbulence subsides, the serried ranks of the sugar-cane are massed as far as the eye can see, and banana trees grow in the rich red loam. Ginger roots, the sprouting pineapple, and tobacco are cultivated; but the real heat of the sun aiding and abetting native independence, breeds theft and petty larceny. So sugar is the island's staple industry. Permission to visit a sugar mill can be obtained. Nor should the experience be missed. The bundles of sugar cane, loaded with sap, are run up an endless sliding band, to be crushed in a mangle, the stems coming out in dry shreds, the rich juices flowing away to the circulators, large drum containers and copper kettles that boil it. Then vases, revolving internally, whisk the juice at high velocity thus crystallizing it to the consistency seen in bowls at the breakfast table.

A by-product of the process, once thrown away, now as important as its parent industry, is the well-known West Indies rum. Down grassy slopes by the northern shore where a sea of crystal blue cleanses a strip of shining sand, bathers swim for hours, unwilling to leave the pleasant warmth of the water for the slightly cooler outside air. Leaving New York on January 28 for the West Indies the Canadian Pacific Liner Montroyal makes fifteen ports of call before returning thirty days later. The Montroyal makes a second trip to the West Indies, taking in different ports, leaving New York March 1 and returning March 30. Shore excursions are arranged for ports where interesting sights may be taken in.

She slips out of New York harbor and the Statue of Liberty fades into the wintry mists behind her. It is the good ship Montroyal of the Canadian Pacific Line on her first trip of the season to the West Indies and it is midwinter with all the harshness of that time of year apparent. Ice gusts and cold snow falling into the water where ice is floating. In every way the prospect is uninviting and the passengers are below decks in the warmth of well-lighted, gay salons and cabins. A little over twenty-four hours of sailing elapses, and what a change! We are back in the good old summer time. Small islands pass and reefs so close on either hand that a golf ball thrown from the deck might waken the dormitory of lazy gulls. In the distance there develops like a smoke pall, an immense range of mountains, and it is sunrise over a calm sea steeped in the glories of color almost beyond imagination, while the air is so warm that the lightest of summer clothing is de rigueur. The landfall grows, as it were, and stands smiling at us. Gliding smoothly along, one feels minute, with

Banff Stages Big Winter Classic

A world-championship Dog Derby to the "Top of the World and Back" will be run for the first time in the history of dog-mushing at the Banff Winter Carnival this year, according to plans now being made by the Carnival committee under President Standish.

The Banff Winter Carnival, which has now become one of the big Canadian winter classics, will extend over two weeks this year, from February 3 to the 17th.

Another feature of this year's events will be the ski-jumping contests over the new, enlarged hill, which will be participated in by Nels Nelson, the Canadian Pacific Railway brakeman who holds the world's championship in both the amateur and professional classes.

To enable the winter visitors to Banff to see something of the scenery, Bill Potts, famous Rocky Mountain guide, will bring in twenty horses to be used to pull ski-jorers and tobogganers to scenic points in the surrounding mountains.

Other features of the ice carnival will be the ladies' hockey championships and skating contests for all classes; swimming contests in the famous hot sulphur pools; ski and ski-joring races and the packing and saddle contests by the famous Rocky Mountain guides of West Canada. Dog teams will be used to taxi the visitors instead of the familiar Banff summer automobile. These teams will be provided by the Brewster Transport Company. The city of Calgary having this year discontinued their own carnival to join forces with the Banff classic. It is expected that the coming Banff Carnival will be the largest in the history of the Rockies.

Is Your Back The Weak Point

Then get your kidneys right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Very few people are in perfect health. There is a weak spot somewhere. When you get tired or your system gets a little run down you feel the effects at your weak spot.

If your weak spot is your back, then you may suspect that your kidneys are not in perfect order. The back aches or is weak and sore; you may have headaches; there will be dryness of the skin, pains in the limbs and disorders of the bladder.

The quickest way to regulate the kidneys is by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are bound to be effective because they arouse the action of the kidneys, liver and bowels and thereby ensure the elimination of poisons from the system.

NEW CHURCH TO BE ERECTED IN JUNEAU

Presbyterians to Have New Edifice to Replace that Destroyed by Fire

JUNEAU, Jan. 6.—The Presbyterian Church building which was virtually destroyed by fire recently will be torn down as soon as the matter of insurance is adjusted and steps will be taken by the Boards of the Church toward the erection of a new building as soon as practicable. This announcement was made following a meeting of the Board of Trustees and the Board of Elders of the church.

The Board have advised the Mission Board of the Presbyterian Churches of North America, at New York, of the disaster to church and stated the need for assistance in erecting a new building. It is expected a reply will be received very shortly.

A meeting of the members of the congregation and the friends of the church will be called very soon to consider the matter of the erection of a new building.

BREWING DECLARED MOST PROFITABLE GERMAN BUSINESS

BERLIN, Jan. 5.—The breweries fared the best financially among Germany's industrial enterprises during the year just past, according to an analysis of the dividends declared thus far. The brewery dividends averaged 12 per cent, with a maximum of 20, which is unusual in an admittedly poor business year. The average dividend for the banks was eight per cent, and for the street railways, six.

FIGUREHEAD OF PRINCE CHARLES IN JUNK PILE

VANCOUVER, Jan. 5. — Probably the only ship's figurehead now lying along the Vancouver waterfront looks likely to be destroyed to make prosiac lumber, unless a purchaser should come along. The figurehead belonged to the St. Margaret, a Scotch vessel which was sold to the C.G.M. and renamed the Prince Charles. But in the coast service, the St. Charles had no use for a figurehead of St. Margaret and it was taken off.

Splendid in gold scroll work, enamel and silvered touchings, the figurehead lies among the junk on the C.G.M. dock.

J. E. Miller and T. Mason of the customs inspection service are here in connection with their work and expect to remain a week or two in the city.

CELEBRATION AT KITWANGA

Five Hundred Natives Gather There For Impressive Opening of New Church Hall

At least five hundred natives from all surrounding villages gathered at the native village of Kitwanga on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week for the occasion of the opening of the new Church of England hall according to Archdeacon G. A. Rix who himself returned from there on this morning's train. Almost continuous evangelistic meetings were held and the proceedings were enlivened by the presence of native bands and the really remarkable singing of the choirs from the various villages. Feasts were provided daily at the head chief's house, as many as 150 guests sitting down at times. The whole village was decorated with arches upon which were scriptural texts and flags were to be seen everywhere. The new hall itself was finely decorated with evergreens, flowers and flags.

The proceedings were under the supervision of Rev. T. D. Proctor of Hazelton who is doing exceptionally good work among the natives of his district as well as among the white people. The dedication of the hall was carried out along the most dramatic lines. Archdeacon Rix performing this ceremony and afterwards giving the dedicatory address. The natives of Kitwanga and Mr. Proctor, Archdeacon Rix declares, are to be congratulated on having completed and practically paid for the fine hall which would cost, if contracted for, at least $3,000. It is a commodious building and well built, capable of seating about five hundred people.

KILLING OF JAS. DONALD

Gladys Gale and Ruby Dolan Are Women Involved in Stewart Shooting Case

(Portland Canal News)
"The finding of this jury is that James N. Donald came to his death by a gunshot wound, evidently inflicted by a .32-calibre automatic pistol in the hands of one of the two women present in the kitchen of the house in question, and known as Gladys Gale and Ruby Dolan."

"Such was the finding of the coroner's jury called for the purpose of investigating the death of 'Jimmy' Donald, one of the district's oldtime and best known miners, who was found shot and killed at about 4 o'clock on the morning of January 1.

Coroner H. A. Williams presided at the inquest with a jury composed of W. S. Orr, foreman; G. C. Andrew, S. G. Lawrence, Sid Fraser, Frank Bowler and W. H. Watson.

Dr. Carson of Premier who had made the post mortem examination, testified that death had been almost instantaneous as the result of a gunshot wound on the right side of the abdomen.

Officer Finds Body

Constable Islip stated that shortly after returning home from the New Year's Eve dance Charlie Bibeau arrived with word that a man had been shot in a house on 2nd street. Constable Islip immediately sent Mrs. Islip for Dr. Williams, while he went with Mr. Bibeau. He found the deceased lying on his back on the floor of the kitchen, dead, with his arms stretched above his head. Both Gladys Gale and Ruby Dolan were present, and he asked them how it had happened. They both replied that they had nothing to say. Seeing no gun he asked for it but received no information.

Dr. Williams then arrived, and while he was examining the body,

Her Liver Was Bad And She Felt Tired and Depressed

Mrs. M. Siefert, Grosvenor, Sask., writes:—"I was greatly disturbed with pains in my liver, and felt tired and depressed most of the time. One day I read about and the next time I went to town I bought four vials of them.

I have used them regularly, and after two months "I feel like an entirely different woman."

Now, I always recommend them to any of my friends who are troubled as I was."

There's only one "Laxa-Liver Pill", and that's the one put up, for the past 32 years, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Constable Islip made an examination of the room, finding a .32-calibre automatic cartridge. He then took charge of the women and removed them to the jail. Returning to the house he made a complete search, finding a .32-calibre automatic pistol put away among a pile of folded clothes in a cupboard. He also made a complete search outside in the freshly fallen snow, but secured no evidence.

Pistol in Her Hand

Charlie Bibeau gave evidence to the effect that he lived near the residence of Gladys Gale, and that about 4 o'clock on the morning mentioned she called him from her porch. Going over he entered the house and followed her down the hall toward the kitchen. On the way she said to him that she wanted him to go and get Constable Islip at once. On arriving at the kitchen, the door being open he saw a man lying on his back on the floor, and Ruby Dolan in the room with a pistol in her hand resembling, as near as he could say, the one found in the house by Constable Islip.

Gladys Gale was then called but would say nothing except on the advice of a lawyer other than that she had not shot James Donald, though she was in the room at the time. She admitted that there were three people in the kitchen, herself, Ruby Dolan and James Donald.

Ruby Dolan took much the same stand as regards saying nothing except on the advice of a lawyer; she admitted, however, being in the house at the time.

Was Scotchman

Deceased was about 43 years of age and was born in Forfarshire, Scotland. He came to this district in 1910, and was employed as a miner at the Portland Canal mine, where he was injured in an accident that caused the death of two other men. He left here about 1912, returning in 1920. He has relatives living in New Westminster and Tacoma, also at Knowhead, Scotland. Having done considerable prospecting in this district he at one time was interested in the Joker property in the Salmon basin, and had other property from time to time in the district.

ALICE ARM

Up to the present time, this has been the warmest winter ever known here. Little snow is on the hills around Anyox and Alice Arm, and practically none at tide water level. On Christmas Day it was raining high up on the hills and the New Year was ushered in with a deluge of rain.

The ore shipment of 46 tons made a few weeks ago by J. Fiva and associates from the Wolf property, has given gratifying results. The ore was shipped to Trail smelter and composed four tons of high grade and twenty tons of second grade ore. Returns of values have been received and are as follows: high-grade, 306 ozs. silver and 85.56 gold per ton. Second grade, 71 ozs. silver and 86.00 gold per ton. The lead value of the shipment was $11. These values are dry weight. The whole shipment averaged $100 per ton. These values are very encouraging especially when it is taken into consideration that the ore was taken from the surface and was badly oxidized.

To a lot of people the recent rains are valueless but the Granby Co. looks at it from a different angle. A nice honest-to-goodness downpour relieves the management of considerable worry. It also enriches the company's exchequer for as long as water is available in the big dam for hydro-electric power. It means a saving of $1,000 per day, for that is what it costs to operate the steam plant.

The Kitsault River Mining & Development Co., at its annual meeting last week, elected officers as follows: President, A. F. Smith; vice-president, J. Fivaz; directors, T. W. Falconer, Oscar Flint and John Strombeck; secretary, A. D. Yorke. The year's program of the company includes plans for continued development on the Silver Tip claim.

The Man Who Talked at Random

HE sat in the window-corner of the Pullman's smoking compartment, and breathed fatly and uttered large opinions in a suety voice. It grew late, as so often it does; and he put the quietus on a discussion with the ponderous statement:

"I don't read advertisements. They have no effect on me at all. I'd never miss them if they stopped printing 'em."

Then he glanced at his advertised watch and sought his lower birth.

In the morning the ad-skeptic contorted himself out of his advertised pyjamas into his advertised underwear, drew on his advertised socks, adjusted them with his advertised garters, got into his advertised clothes, laced his advertised shoes and added himself to the congestion in the wash-room.

There he shaved with an advertised razor, using advertised shaving cream; brushed his teeth with an advertised toothbrush and advertised dental cream, washed with advertised soap, and brushed his hair with an advertised brush. Battoning his advertised collar on an advertised button, he neatly knotted his advertised tie, gave his advertised suspenders a tug or two, and finished dressing.

Let us leave him there, this man who never reads advertisements!

Everything worth using is advertised. Everything that isn't, rarely is.

D. Taper of Pacific, returned to Terrace on Monday to continue his high school studies after having spent the holidays at the home of his parents.

After having been closed down for a short time pending instructions from the president and managing director, S. P. When operations were suspended the main drift, which is in more than 600 feet, had penetrated a large body of fine ore which will be further developed.

Frederick Benson, a well known Indian resident of this district who has trapped around Mazidiin Lake for many winters, this week brought in the tail of a sockeye salmon to which was attached an aluminum tag labeled "2710 B.C." He caught the fish in November at the Meziadin river fish ladder.

On Monday last John Stewart received a wire advising him of the death of his brother Andrew at the family residence in Victoria. The late Mr. Stewart was the eldest of the family which gave to this town its name. For many years he was financially

CANADIAN BIRTH RATE IS FALLING

Decline Since 1921 Noted in English Speaking Provinces—Cities Show Decrease

OTTAWA, Jan. 6.—In the last four years the birth rate in Canada (not including Quebec) has dropped from 26.5 per thousand of population to 22.1 per thousand. A return to the Bureau of Statistics, to which vital statistics for Quebec Province were not available, shows that the decline in the natural increase of population has been steady since 1921, if figures for the month of June, 1925, can be taken as an indication. June last is the most recent month for which figures are available.

Statistics by districts are available for only cities of 30,000 or over. Of thirteen cities thus tabulated, only two had an increase in births in June last as compared with June, 1921. These two were St. John, N.B., and Windsor, Ont., which had each a slight increase. Toronto had a decrease of 200 births in the four-year span; Winnipeg a decrease of 163; Regina was forty-one less.

Of the thirteen cities mentioned, Victoria, B.C., had the lowest number of births in June 1924 with fifty-seven. This is sixteen births less than in June, 1921. Toronto was the highest with 960. None of the cities of Quebec Province are included in the tabulation.

The Slight Cold Of To-day May Be Serious To-morrow

On the first appearance of a cough or cold, do not neglect it, but get rid of it at once before it has a chance to grow worse and becomes settled on the lungs, for once it does become deep-seated you are going to have a lot of trouble in getting rid of it.

Our advice to you is that on the first sign of a cough or cold you should procure a bottle of

as by its timely use you may save yourself many years of suffering from some serious bronchial or lung troubles.

'Dr. Wood's' has been on the market for the past 37 years; so you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy; put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Caron, 18, of no address, had to be protected from an infuriated mob by two constables, but not before he had been well man-handled.

The hold-up occurred in the Simkover's boot shop, St. Lawrence Boulevard. Before leaving one of the gunmen fired two shots into the ceiling. The shots were heard by several citizens who were passing the store at the time, and when Simkover rushed out shouting for aid some fifty citizens gave chase to the two bandits. Caron was caught, and when the constable started to take him to the station the mob started to beat the prisoner with their fists and sticks. With the aid of another constable and a taxi driver, the officer finally got his prisoner to the station.

It is stated the company has taken the option for 30 days to expire January 31 and, if negotiations are then satisfactorily concluded, will purchase the vessel to be used in transporting passengers and freight between New Westminster and Chilliwack.

FRISCO TO HAVE NEW SKYSCRAPER

Thirty Storey Building is to be Erected on Montgomery Street

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—In 1848 Adolph Gustave Russ was 20 years old and poor. Like all the others here then he was desirous of making a fortune so he wrote the Spanish government asking a land grant.

In this casual way he came into possession of much of the land on which San Francisco's financial district later grew. Lots that belonged to him on Montgomery Street have been leased from the family for 99 years by a corporation as the base for an office building with eight acres of floor space, exclusive of a garage on the mezzanine floor for the tenants. It will be 30 stories high, the tallest building in California and the largest on the Pacific coast.

WOMEN CEASE TO SEW AT HOME

Famous British Cotton Concern is Noticing Effect

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 6.—(Canadian Press Despatch)—Women are forsaking the practice of sewing at home, according to Mr. W. H. Coats, head of the famous cotton firm, who proceeded to explain that the company's power to earn more money was affected by circumstances outside their control.

Nevertheless the firm made over four millions profit last year, and has declared a dividend of 15 per cent with 2 1/2 per cent bonus.

The Australian government has recently imposed a tariff on sewing cotton, which causes Coats serious concern. The report that the Russian market had been re-opened to the firm was incorrect.

SECRECY SURROUNDS FILMING OF MYSTERY PLAY AT HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Jan. 6.—For the first time in the history of moving pictures a feature film is being made here without announcing the name of any of the players appearing in it or any of the production details.

The feature is a mystery play, and its future success on the screen, producers believe, demand absolute secrecy as to its making. Rigid rules were issued barring visitors, including those of other studios, from the sets, and requiring that all actors and actresses refrain from revealing their characters.

Only the producers and directors know the identity of the cast or where the sequences are being filmed.
