NAVY FOR INDIA LATEST IMPERIAL SCHEME

COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY INTO ALLEGED CUSTOMS IRREGULARITIES BEGINS

Indian Navy to Have Native Officers; Plan Announced by Viceroy

DELHI, Feb. 9.—Creation of a Royal Indian Navy as a combatant force and reconstruction of the Indian mercantile marine, were announced today by Lord Reading, the retiring viceroy.

Under the new plan Indians will be given commissions in the navy which will begin on a small scale and gradually develop.

The new scheme is another step in the nationalist movement which has been going on in India of recent years under which natives are trying to secure a greater share in the government of the country, and the country seeks to become less dependent on Great Britain, economically, industrially and politically.

JURY SYSTEM CRITICIZED

Attorney General Manson Comments on Paucity of Convictions Following Deaths

VANCOUVER, Feb. 9.—Strong criticism of the jury system coupled with the assertion that as attorney general he was convinced the time had come for a revision of the system, featured the address of Hon. A. M. Manson at the annual dinner of the Vancouver Auto Club here last night. Discussion of what he termed the appalling number of fatal auto accidents and the even more appalling paucity in the number of convictions following the accidents, led the attorney general to make the statement on the jury system.

ASSOCIATED BOARDS TRADE NOT SUCCESS

Will Close up if Conventions Not Better Attended Says Prince
George Former Mayor

PRINCE GEORGE, Feb. 9.—Ex-mayor Alward does not think much of the organization of the Associated Boards of Trade. In his report on the last convention he stated that out of about forty boards affiliated only seven were represented at the convention and doubt was expressed at the meeting as to whether the organization should be continued. The attitude was that one more convention would be called and if it was not better attended it would be the last.

Imperial Oil Co.'s tanker Imperial, Capt. Foote, arrived in port at 2 o'clock this morning from Teco and is discharging today at the company's local tanks.

PEACE RIVER PEOPLE SEEK COAST OUTLET

Negotiations Held up Pending
Decision Regarding E. D. &
B. C. Railway

GRAND PRAIRIE, Feb. 9.—At the last meeting of the Grande Prairie Board of Trade, the question of railway connection with the coast was discussed at some length. The question has been held in abeyance pending the decision in regard to control of the Edmonton, Dunvegan & B.C. Railway which is still operated by the C.P.R. although the lease has expired.

It was the feeling of the board that the people of the north country are entitled to know at the forthcoming session of the legislature who is to own or operate the north railways, and it is hoped that whichever railway secures the E. D. and B.C. will be required to give some definite assurance regarding its intention to provide an outlet westward.

Wants to Know Why Vancouver Omitted from Stevens Charges and Suggests Inquiry That City

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—Paul Mercier, Liberal member for Montreal, was unanimously elected chairman of the special committee to investigate irregularities in the customs department.

D. Donaghy of North Vancouver suggested that provision be made for the committee to sit in different parts of the country, among the places mentioned being Huntington, B.C.

Mr. Donaghy said he wondered why Mr. Stevens made no mention that there might be irregularities in Vancouver in the conduct of liquor exports. He thought the committee would not have completed its duties until it had investigated this. Perhaps the committee might go to Vancouver while the House was in recess.

Railways And Politics.

A correspondent yesterday wanted to know "once and for all" if the railways were in politics. Once and for all we would reply "Yes." They always have been and they always will be.

Naturally we know no more about this matter than does our correspondent. He has access to all the means of information that we have and possibly has more time to read than falls to the lot of a hard driven newspaperman. However, since he has brought up the question, this is the Daily News' opinion:

The Canadian National Railways, which are the ones to which it is presumed he refers, are the property of the people of Canada and the people of Canada have appointed Right Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King to do their business for them. He is to do all the public business and the railways is part of the public business, therefore the railways are in politics.

Position Of Sir Henry Thornton.

Possibly our correspondent is referring to the position of Sir Henry Thornton and the amount of freedom the head of the railways possesses working under the general direction in matters of policy of the Premier and his cabinet.

Sir Henry was appointed to manage the railways, just as the president of the C.P.R. is appointed by the shareholders, through their representatives. He is told to take charge and that he will be given a free hand. But, and there is the difficulty, but, the railways are not paying their way. Also they need money for development purposes and Sir Henry has to go to the shareholders for money, and when he goes he has to get the approval of the shareholders to make those expenditures.

If Sir Henry could speak out, he would probably tell us that he has wanted to do a great many things which the government would not stand for. He has wanted to spend money in order to increase the efficiency of the system, but it is for the government to say whether they can provide it or not. Also they must, as the most interested parties, have some say in the general policy to be followed. They have to answer to parliament for the operation of the line and the members of parliament have to answer to their constituents. So the line is bound to be in politics.

During the last election it was the opposition that continually attacked the railway policy of the government and even made personal attacks on Sir Henry Thornton, thus taking the railway into the political limelight. Yes, the railway was in politics during the election and always will be, whether it continues to be operated by the government or reverts to private ownership.

H. H. Stevens And The Government Ships.

In regard to the particular incident mentioned by our correspondent, the converting of the government ships into oil burners, Mr. Stevens made this a political question by bringing it up in the House of Commons and directly following his series of questions, which drew the attention of the government to the position of the coal industry on Vancouver Island, the contracts were withdrawn. We were quite justified in stating, when quoting the questions Mr. Stevens asked, that they caused the change of policy.

We are not saying that Mr. Stevens was wrong in what he did. Possibly he was right. We did not comment on it, but quoted from Hansard as an item of news. The importance of the coal industry on Vancouver Island is much more worthy of consideration than the giving of a few weeks' work to a few people at Prince Rupert in converting the ships. The probability is that until attention was drawn to the matter, the Vancouver Island situation never entered the minds of the people who ordered the change in the vessels. They had but one thing in view, and that was the cheap operation of the ships. The government had also to take into consideration the effect of the change on the coal industry of British Columbia where thousands of people are affected all the year round.

It is a good thing to discuss questions such as these and to get to the bottom of them. Hence we welcome the criticism of our correspondent.

BLACK WOLVES IN INTERIOR

Reports Come in from Trappers of Depredations of Band Prince George District

E. G. Miller who operates a trap line in the vicinity of Chief Lake, was in the city over the week-end, and brought in the story that a pack of black timber wolves have invaded the Chief Lake section, and are killing off the moose and other big game says the Prince George Citizen. While working over his trap line this winter he came across the tracks of a number of wolves, and some time later he saw a pack of six following a moose. When he got time he picked up the trail and came upon the death scene of a big bull moose.

From the manner in which the snow was trampled the moose had put up a great fight, but in the end the wolves brought him down, and the horns and a few bones were all that was left of him. Miller set a trap in the vicinity, and was rewarded by taking one of the pack, but the others apparently got wise and moved along. The skin of the animal taken in the trap measured eight feet from tip to tip, and Miller collected the government bounty of $15 upon it. Ordinarily a skin of the size would have brought $30, but the moose had reached this particular wolf a number of times, and injured it to such an extent that fifty per cent was knocked out of the value of the skin.

Mr. Miller says that since the wolves have moved out of his immediate vicinity they have been seen by a neighbor who is trapping on the Murch lake, about three miles to the south. This trapper was not able to catch up with the pack, as it was then following another moose. He asserts there were six or seven in the pack which he saw.

Comparative Stranger

Mr. Miller says the black timber wolf is a comparative stranger in this part of the country. They are fairly numerous in the vicinity of Maple Lake, but seldom work their way so far south. The chief damage they do is the killing of the moose and other big game, and if they cannot be done away with, even the half dozen which have been seen in the vicinity of Chief Lake will do a lot of damage before spring. The knowledge that the timber wolves are in the vicinity and that there are at least six or seven of them in the one pack which has been seen, should prove of interest to the hunters of Prince George. The wolves have been so long in the neighborhood they have apparently decided to stay while the game continues easy to kill, and it should not be difficult to come up on the pack. There is the government bounty of $15 per head, they are all full grown animals, and if they could be shot before the moose cut their hides up too much their skins should bring another $25 or $30 each. There is an opportunity in the situation for the hunters to save their big game and be paid for doing so. If the wolves are not driven out, more may make their way down into the district from the north, and the big game which escapes them will seek new-feeding grounds.

THE MUSIC that will greet you, will compel you to say to yourself, as have so many others:

such a thing had never happened,—were impossible—These famous Victor artists must themselves be somewhere in the room!"

A glorious invention! Voices, pianos, string tones in perfect harmony; crashing, orchestral sonorities,—all are exquisitely natural—but hear the program, and judge for yourself.

EDMONTON APPROVES TOURIST PAMPHLETS

Will Make Effort to get Jasper Tourists to Stop off in that City

EDMONTON, Feb. 9.—Approval of the proposal from the board of trade that the city make a grant to meet the cost of printing tourist pamphlets to give publicity to Edmonton was given by the civic finance committee, on the motion of Mayor Blatchford.

Secretary John Blue of the board of trade appeared before the committee and pointed out that the need of such publicity was shown in the letter that had been sent to council and referred to the committee.

Last year, so it was claimed, some 45,000 tourists had been taken through to Jasper by the C.N.R. and probably no more than 250 had stopped off at Edmonton. It is understood that the railway plans on taking 25,000 tourists here this season so it was felt that something should be done to get these tourists to make stopovers at Edmonton. If suitable pamphlets describing the city's attractions could be printed, these could be widely distributed in Canada and the United States at no cost to the city.

A Philadelphia man called up a bird store the other day and said: "Send me 30,000 cockroaches at once."

The old lady came out of a half-dozen as the train approached a station.

"Where are we, Bobby?" she asked.

"I don't know, grandma."

"But didn't the conductor call out something just now?"

"No, Grandma; he just stuck his head inside the door and sneezed."

"Bobby!" she exclaimed.

"Quick! Help me with these things! This is Oshkosh!"

The regular meeting of the Corner Club was held in the lecture room of the Baptist Church last evening. The speaker of the evening being Rev. E. G. Life was an adventure said the speaker of tremendous import, and should be directed intelligently and with determination along carefully planned lines. He urged his hearers to avoid the common error of going through life without a plan, aimlessly and carelessly. The address was inspiring throughout and at the conclusion the president P. H. Linzey expressed the thanks of the Club to the speaker.

Mrs. J. P. McMillan was the soloist of the evening, Mrs. R. Walker accompanying her on the piano. Refreshments were served at the close by the committee in charge. Next week's meeting will take the form of a valentine social.

Headaches and Biliousness Are quickly relieved by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

When you feel irritable, cranky and downhearted, you can easily blame the liver, for there is no organ in the human body which so quickly throws the system out of sorts as a torpid, sluggish liver. You do not need to be in the blues long, if you know about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for by their direct action on the liver they relieve promptly and prove lastingly beneficial. Once the liver is right the bowels function regularly and the whole digestive system resumes its work. You feel fine and take a delight in telling others of the merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This is why this favorite prescription of Dr. Chase is so popular and is found in every store where medicines are sold.

JACK MINER IS AFTER THE CROW

Declares Not Only Destroys Grain But Carries Disease in Eastern Province

Jack Miner, friend of birds, does not like the crow, and because he has been destroying them he has been drawing on himself heated criticism. He defends himself in an interview given in the Toronto Globe, which in part follows: Jack Miner today scratched another entry on his long crime sheet against the crow.

That wily bird, on trial before the court of public opinion of Ontario, now faces an even more serious charge than any preferred against him heretofore. It is a charge which may prompt his agriculturalist champions to "stop, look and listen" before again crossing—if they cross—the tracks of argument laid by the famous Kingsville bird authority in his campaign to reduce the "flying rats," if not to a point of extermination, to a state, at least, of 95 per cent depletion.

Dispensers of Hog Cholera "Hog cholera? Yes, I'll charge the crow with spreading that!" said Jack Miner to The Globe today, after careful perusal and consideration of the mass of newspaper comment on the crow-corn-borer controversy which had mounted up during his absence on a two weeks' lecture tour in the Middle States. "Why, I'd sooner have a hog direct from the quarantine pens to mix with my porkers than to allow crows to congregate in the same field with them. Yes, I said hog cholera! Thirty-five years ago, when the crow migrated out of Canada—disappearing early in October, and not being heard of again until February or March of the following year—everybody had hogs, but very little hog cholera. And if you look back over the history of the last 15 or 20 years, since the crow started to pest us the year round, you will find that cholera outbreaks in southwestern Ontario have been common to the fall season of the year. Why? Think.

The Way of the Vulture "Some farmer, unconsciously careless, allows a dead hog to lie in the field for a while, and when he goes to bury it he discovers that the flocks of crows, moving everywhere at this time of the year, have all but eaten it up. From one field to another, from one district to another, and from one country to another, these birds move. And the next thing we learn is that a general outbreak of cholera is reported and that thousands of porkers are being cremated or buried, while in large centres great numbers of people line up before soup kitchens trying to get something to eat. Is there any man so insane as to contradict my charge that the crow is a cholera spreader? Now, you judges, please weigh this instance of harm-doing against any good the crow may be doing in the case of the corn-borer and tell me how the scales read."

Don't Overlook the Leghorn That 99 per cent of crow marks in a corn field lead to ears of corn, was the contention raised by Mr. Miner, who, while admitting that the bird will eat the borer, and anything else through which he can get his bill, states emphatically his failure to see in the past where a crow has done any more good than an ordinary Leghorn chicken turned loose in the same field would have accomplished.

"I have tracked Mr. Crow very carefully in the last two years," said Mr. Miner, "and from evidence of his activities I have drawn the conclusion, that he is of no general help to the corn crop, but that rather he combines his force with the borer in destroying our grain."

MANY APPEALS BEFORE COURT

Sitting Again This Afternoon to Complete Work Left Over From Yesterday

The court of revision on the 1926 city assessment roll yesterday afternoon completed all the business before it with the exception of one appeal which was held over until this afternoon at the request of counsel. The court was not required to go at detail into the G.T.P. Development Co.'s assessments as the appeal placed by that company on all its holdings was merely of a formal nature to permit of any of its leaseholders applying for revision. The only appeal thus entered was that of the Somerville Cannery Co. on an assessment of $30 per front foot on 204.43 feet of Waterfront Block "I" on which its cannery stands. This valuation was allowed to stand after it was pointed out that it was fully equitable with other assessments in the vicinity. The only appeal not disposed of yesterday was that of M. W. McLeod on lots 9 and 10, block 22, section 1, the double corner at Fifth Street and dSecond Ave. from which the rock was removed by the city last year. An excessive valuation is claimed at $45,000 for the corner and Milton Gonzales is appearing for the appellant. Court convened again at 2.30 this afternoon to deal with this appeal.

The following appeals were disposed of by the court yesterday afternoon:

Dr. A. A. McIntyre, lots 5 and 6, block 22, section 1 (lots on which the Union Steamship Co. and Prince Rupert Insurance Agencies offices are located), reduced from $4,300 each to $4,300 each, the same as last year.

Armand De Bernis, lot 15, block 10, section 4 (northeast corner of Seventh Street and Second Avenue), reduced from $6,000 to $5,500.

Vivian Kennedy, lot 46, block 27, section 5 (junction of Fulton, Ninth and Comox), reduced from $700 to $600.

Regina Finkelstein, lots 7 and 8, block 46, section 5, stand at $120 each.

Mrs. Dora Stephens and J. H. Kelly, lot 11, block 16, section 5, stand at $900.

William Wilby, lot 21, block 4, section 5 (Agnew Place), stand at $750.

Mrs. Susan Pringle, subdivision of lots 23 and 24, block 6, section 5, stands at $665.

M. M. Stephens, lots 20, block 7, section 2, stand at $150.

M. M. Stephens, lots 27 and 28, block 16, section 2 stand at $50 and $65.

Mrs. Dora Stephens, lot 18, block 16, section 2, stand at $80.

Regina Finkelstein, lots 50 to 54, block 12, section 2, stand at $120, $140, $160, $200 and $240.

C. W. McArthur lots 1 and 2, block 3, section 6, reduced from $1,000 and $850 to $900 and $800.

M. M. Stevens, lot 8, block 10, section 7, stand at $170.

Armand De Bernis, lots 34 to 43, block 19, section 2, stand at $60 each.

William Wilby, lot 24, block 8, section 1, stand at $900.

Mailda G. Dugas, lots 41 and 42, block 26, section 6, stand at $550 and $700.

J. A. Lindsay, lot 22, block 23, section 1 (on which tenement just west of Empress Hotel stands), stands at $3,800.

H. M. Greene, lot 14, block 9, section 5, stands at $550.

Somerville Cannery Co., 204.43 in Waterfront Block "I" stands at $30 per front foot.

An Infallible Guard HEIMDAL, according to Celtic mythology, was the perfect sentinel. His hearing was so acute that he could hear the wool growing on a sheep's back His eyesight was so keen he could see everything that happened even though it occurred while he slept. Advertising, if you use it properly, is an infallible sentinel for you. It guards you against fraud and inferiority. It protects you against making unwise and unsatisfactory purchases. Merchants and manufacturers who advertise must give full value because they have good names to protect. The makers of well-known products and the stores that sell these products often value the names at millions of dollars. They cannot afford to jeopardize the worth of these names by selling any but good goods of full measure and fair price. So, you can bank on this. Advertised goods must be as advertised. That is why it pays to deal with advertisers and to buy advertised products.

MUST COMPETE IN BUTTER MARKET IS MINISTER'S OPINION VICTORIA, Feb. 9. — Canada cannot permanently prevent competition by Australian dairy-men in butter by tariff protection, Hon. E. D. Barrow, minister of agriculture, stated, when discussing the recent importation of butter from Australia. "Even if we shut out Australian butter from here with a high tariff Australia could still compete with us," Mr. Barrow affirmed. "The facts of the butter situation are somewhat peculiar and probably not widely understood. At present Canada is producing large quantities of butter which it cannot use. A big surplus is being exported from the prairies to Great Britain by way of Vancouver and the Pan-

TOURISTS MAKE BUSINESS FOR SOUTHERN CITY

Victoria Estimates Five Million Dollars Secured There Through Visitors VICTORIA, Feb. 9. — Just what benefit the tourist business is to any city is explained in the annual report of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau presented at the meeting of the directors here. The whole of Canada recognizes and bids for tourists' business, the report points out, and it is estimated that over $5,000,000 was left in Victoria by tourists last year. The report says: Tourist development is now recognized as a very valuable one throughout Canada. It is estimated that 355,000 people visited this city during the year 1925. If each of these visitors averaged $15 expenditure in this city it would mean that over five and a quarter million dollars of outside money was left here. One hotel in this city, which showed 50,000 registrations in 1924, had 65,000 registrations last year. One of the small restaurants in this city during the ninety days period of last year served 45,000 meals, most, or all, of which were to tourists.

Notable Examples The tourist industry made Switzerland and Florida, and is largely responsible for California's growth. Large Eastern Canadian organizations report the tourist business to be one of the great producers of wealth in Ontario. The tourist exchanges his money for scenery, food, shelter, pleasure and amusement, and it has been stated that the principal beneficiaries of tourist traffic are the hotels and restaurants, which is a great fallacy. FAMOUS DOGS GO TO QUEBEC

Taken East in Special Car on Canadian National from The Pas

WINNIPEG, Feb. 9.—Claimed by their drivers to be the fastest in the world, twenty-five northern Manitoba dogs occupied a special express car on Canada's National train number Two leaving here for the east. The famous dogs with their famous drivers, Emile St. Goddard, Shorty Russick and W. Grayson of The Pas will take part in the international Derby to be run at Quebec on February 18-19 and 20. St. Goddard's dogs broke the world record in the recent dog Derby at The Pas making 26 miles in two hours and 22 minutes as compared with the previous world record at 25 miles in the same time.

The teams which rested at the Canadian National Express stables over the week end to break the journey from northern Manitoba to Quebec, were the centre of much interest here. Groups of people visited the stables yesterday to get a glimpse of the world famous dogs. An invitation has been extended to drivers to give an exhibition of races at Toronto, and also to take their teams to the New England Derby in New Hampshire, following the Quebec races. Whether they will do this or not will be decided on the result of the next Derby.

GRAIN ROLLING FROM EDMONTON

Seventeen Million Bushels Shipped this Season from Alberta Capital to Vancouver

EDMONTON, Feb. 9.—Over 17,000,000 bushels of grain have been shipped from Edmonton to Vancouver this season, according to official figures of inspections that have been issued from the office of S. Thompson, dominant inspector. This constitutes a record and fully establishes this point as one of the big grain shipping centres of Canada. During January alone a total of 5,120,000 bushels were inspected here. Inclusive of shipments from the dominant elevator, the amount consigned to Vancouver over the C.N.R. was 5,613,100 bushels. During the last few days the movement has slackened somewhat, but it is expected to show a spurt shortly. On Tuesday there were 60 cars taken in at the dominant elevator while 57 cars were loaded for Vancouver. There is space there for 1,400,000 bushels or more, so the plant is in good shape for a rush now. Embargo was Lifted Recently the C.N.R. lifted the embargo on tough grain consigned to the Edmonton elevator, so this may speed up shipments. As has been the case for some time, only dried grain or straight grades are being moved to the coast under the permit system.

STUDY IN PRICES OF SHIPPING GRAIN FROM PRAIRIE TO SEABOARD

(Edmonton Bulletin) The first cargo of wheat to clear that port in a year left Halifax a few days ago. It comprised 260,000 bushels. If that wheat was grown in the Edmonton district, it cost 15.6 cents per bushel to take it to Fort William. The winter rate from that point to Liverpool is 33 cents per bushel. The total carrying charges from Edmonton to Liverpool would be 48.6 cents per bushel. Shipped westward, the rate to Vancouver would be 42.6 cents per bushel, and 22 cents per bushel from Vancouver to Liverpool; a total freightage of 34.6 cents per bushel.

The difference in saving of 44 cents per bushel in favor of the Pacific route. On a cargo of that size the growers in central Alberta would lose just $36,400 because the wheat went east instead of west. In a season of low prices, marketing via the eastern route would put the Alberta wheat grower on the road and his farm in the hands of the sheriff. In fact, it has done precisely that to a large number of them in years gone by. A chance to get 13 cents per bushel off the cost of marketing his grain in winter is something the Alberta farmer cannot ignore without inviting bankruptcy.

ALBERTA UNDER FIRE BY PAPER

Farmer Administration Roundly Scored on Charges of Condoning Offenses

The Farmer Government of Alberta seems to be much like many other politicians according to criticism of their actions made in a recent number of the Edmonton Bulletin which says: A jury, after a fair trial, has found Honorable George P. Smith not guilty of the charge of stealing $5,820 of the people's money. Mr. Smith is now a free man, without the slightest stain on his good name. But what can be said of the administration of justice in this province when decent citizens read the evidence brought out in this trial? The facts show that Premier Brownlee, as Attorney General, was made fully aware of a scandalous state of affairs months ago. He should have placed this information in the hands of his police officers, and promptly arrested all parties known to be implicated in the stealing of public funds. What did he do? He appointed a Royal Commission to investigate! To investigate what? He was already in possession of facts which under any other Attorney General would have been promptly acted upon as is his sworn duty. Facts Suppressed The Royal Commission was appointed to look into all the denials carried on by the King's Printer with the Estate Press Ltd. What do we find? In the case just closed it was brought out that information in the hands of the Attorney General which showed beyond all shadow of doubt that thefts of public

TONIGHT and Tomorrow Night, 7 and 9 p.m. CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "The Gold Rush" A dramatic comedy written and directed by himself. The one and only with the big shoes, the trick derby, the cane, baggy trousers, and funny, shuffling walk turns the hardships of every day life into hilarious fun and uproarious laughter. Under the Chaplin genius man's greed for gold turns to comedy, hardships of the Klondike seem funny, hunger pangs become the basis for comic antics, lovesickness rouses hilarity, blizzards cause shouts of glee, freezing cold brings the warmth of laughter, heartaches become rib-tickers, and miseries bring mirth. Everyone should see Charlie's latest and best. Ten big reels. Strong cast: Charlie Chaplin, Georgia Hale, Mack Swain, Tom Murray, Malcolm Waite, Henry Bergman, and many others.
