CUSTOMS COMMITTEE SUBMITS ITS REPORT

NOMINATIONS FILED IN ALBERTA FOR ELECTION TO BE HELD ON JUNE 28

Sweeping Reorganization with Dismissals and Suspensions is Urged in Document Filed Today

Former minister is castigated and deputy minister is recommended for retirement--clean-up of Montreal officials is also advised

WOULD PROSECUTE BISAILLON

Proceedings against twenty-seven firms for recovery of money owing crown is suggested--would call in Mounted Police

OTTAWA, June 18.—With sweeping recommendations of organization including dismissals and suspensions, the special committee of parliament investigating the customs department, following charges originally levelled by Hon. H. H. Stevens of Vancouver, submitted its report to the House of Commons this afternoon.

The report finds that Hon. Jacques Bureau, former minister of customs, failed to appreciate and properly discharge the responsibilities of his office and, as a result, there was lack of efficient, continuous and vigorous control of subordinates by the headquarters staff at Ottawa.

The report does not make any finding in regard to the responsibilities of Hon. G. H. Boivin, the present minister of customs. This is being left to the House where, it is understood, the Conservatives intend to move an amendment of censure.

The report recommends that regulations be made to prohibit the clearance of vessels carrying liquor cargoes sailing from Canadian to United States ports and also recommends a reduction in the ports of entry.

It is further recommended that the services of R. P. Clerk, inspector at the port of Montreal; A. E. Giroux, superintendent of customs and excise, Montreal; W. Duval, preventative officer at Montreal; John Landry, customs officer, Montreal; and E. B. Brownlee, collector at Montreal, be dispensed with; and that R. R. Farrow, deputy minister of customs; W. E. Weldon, collector at Montreal, and Henry McLaughlin, surveyor at Montreal, be retired.

The evidence of J. E. A. Bisallion, former chief preventative officer at Montreal, the report recommends, should be turned over to the Attorney General for action and twenty-seven firms named in the report should be proceeded against to recover money owing the crown.

A thorough reorganization of the preventative service is recommended and, pending this, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police should be detailed for patrol work on the border.

Cariboo is Excited Over Discovery of B. B. Boe—$300 Nugget

WILLIAMS LAKE, June 18.—Displaying a nugget valued at $300, weighing 18 ounces, beside a satchel full of smaller lumps of gold, B. B. Boe arrived here reporting the discovery of a new rich placer strike in the Cedar Creek district. There is considerable excitement here over what is expected to become the Cariboo district's newest stampede ground. Cedar Creek, in former years, was the scene of extensive gold mining operations.

EVANGELIST'S BODY FOUND?

Remains in Green Bathing Suit Found Near Coose Bay, Oregon, Yesterday Afternoon

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 18.—A body clad only in a green bathing suit was found on the beach north of Coos Bay on Thursday afternoon. The remains were in such a decomposed condition that it was impossible to determine the sex although the coroner expressed the opinion that the dead person was about 35 years of age. He is continuing his examinations under the belief that the body may possibly be that of Aimee Semple McPherson, the missing Los Angeles evangelist.

Jack Gogswell, member of the C.N.R. mail service, returned to the city on the steamer Catala this afternoon.

With All Resources at Its Door Smithers Will Become Large Centre

(By H. F. Pullen)

SMITHERS, June 18.—Smithers people say it is quiet just now and they intimate that times are not as good as they ought to be but everybody has a motor car and everybody seems to have money to spend, so times cannot be very bad. Outside the office of the Interior News I found two cars, one of which is used by Larry Warner, editor and proprietor of the Interior News, and the other by Mrs. Warner. It is the first time in my experience that I have ever heard of a newspaperman with two cars. Very few I have known had even one. Times must be good somewhere in the Bulkley Valley or Larry could not is bound to be a good town. It is within a stone's throw of Hudson Bay Mountain with its rich mineral prospects on one side and is the centre for the coming place. Today I visit it and find it much more substantial, much larger, much more progressive and putting on city airs. It has its modern facilities for education, its amusement and sport facilities, its municipal government, its fall fair association, its board of trade, its Huge Crowd Demonstrates in Moscow Against Note Regarding Money Sent Strikers.

MOSCOW, June 18.—A huge crowd with bands and bairns held a demonstration in the Red Square yesterday in protest against the British note concerning the transfer of Russian money to British strikers. The demonstrators shouted defiance to Britain and sang the revolutionary battle hymn. The federation of Soviet labor declares that it will not tolerate interference by the British government.

Mrs. Ashley and son arrived in the city on the Catala this afternoon to spend a holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Gray of the Somerville cannery staff.

Eight Great Columns of Women Will Enter London to Preach for Peace and Denounce Wars

LONDON, June 18.—Eight great columns of women, who have been marching for five weeks from various parts of the United Kingdom, are nearing London today. They comprise a body of Peace Pilgrims who have been stopping at villages and towns on the way to the capital delivering speeches on making war again impossible.

The eight columns will merge into four columns tomorrow morning and will enter London in that formation, the long march ending at Hyde Park where, from twenty-two platforms, speakers will denounce war and Rainy weather and muddy roads have failed to dampen the ardor of the marchers.

Christ Needed Here; Not In Himalayas.

Mrs. Anne Besant, president of the Theosophical Society, is quoted as having said in a recent address in England that "Christ is living in a physical body in the Himalaya mountains." With all due respect to Mrs. Besant and, without any suggestion of sacrilege whatever, it might be remarked that if "The Second Coming of Christ" is now upon the world that the Messiah is needed more among the so-called civilized nations of the earth today than he is in the wilds of the Himalaya Mountains. With the nations engaged above all other things in the pursuit of wealth and power and with so many of their peoples losing sight of the ordinary requirements of decency and morality in the quest for riches and pleasures, nothing short of the arrival of a Christ with all the predicted fire and destruction is necessary; it would seem, to bring many millions of people in the world today to their senses.

World Resuming Its Stability.

Discouraging as are many of the features of the present European situation, no fair appraisal fails to show the steady improvement which has characterized the years since the war. Politically and economically the world is more stable than in 1919 or 1921. International trade is steadily increasing in volume, its dollar value is greater than before the war, although the decreased purchasing power of gold is such that this does not mean that a proportionate volume of goods is now in motion. Even though the standard of living abroad is not yet at 1913 levels, yet the spectre of starvation no longer haunts the nations of Europe. Peaceful settlements of political difficulties, and commercial treaties encouraging international commerce are now the order of the day.

Dark features such as the losses of the United Kingdom entailed by the recent general strike, the long and acute period of depression in Germany, the revolution in Poland, the continual depreciation of French and Belgian money, the unsettled Italian situation, and the trade difficulties of the countries which formerly constituted Austria Hungary, may be combined to produce a most discouraging picture. To an unfortunate extent nationalistic pride is interfering with adjustments between nations, and party strife is preventing many countries from finding satisfactory solutions for their internal problems of taxation and budgeting.

Prosperity Becomes Less Of A Mirage.

Consideration of the actual trend of trade statistics presents evidence of greater improvement than might be anticipated after the discussion of such political events as those mentioned. The United States, for the moment, at least, is importing more goods than she is exporting. So long as the United States maintained an export surplus international financial balance was thrown more and more out of adjustment. The time must come when the United States imports a substantial amount more than she exports and the present trend of her trade figures may be considered quite favorable. The money of the United Kingdom, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Switzerland, Sweden, Russia, Holland and Germany have been stable for more than a year. Germany has accumulated gold reserves as large as those held in 1913. Although rehabilitation of European finance and industry is proving a longer task than was anticipated, economic adjustments are slowly being achieved, and the prospect of an eventual return to economic prosperity is becoming more of a probability and less of a mirage. — Royal Bank Monthly Letter.

chamber of mines, its fire brigade. In fact it has in a small way about everything that other places possess. Above all it has a number of progressive citizens who have vision enough to see greater things ahead and who are willing to pin their faith on the town by investing their money there.

Very soon Smithers will be on the provincial highway connecting with southern British Columbia by way of Prince George and will be one of the favorite resorts of tourists. The wonderful Hudson Bay Mountain is a thing of beauty and will become a joy for ever to those who are fond of fine scenery.

New Buildings

There is always building going on in Smithers. Today there is a fine business block being erected in the centre of the town by Olof Hanson for the use of the Royal Bank of Canada and for his own firm, the Hanson Tie and Timber Co. O'Neill and Wahl are just starting a new garage, the new provincial building was completed only this spring, and additions are being made to buildings already there as well as some new residences and additions to old ones. Everything along that line indicates a healthy advancement and when the grain begins to roll through to Prince Rupert there will be still greater advancement.

The Prince Rupert elevator will serve a double purpose to Smithers. It will increase the population directly through the additional number of trainmen, roundhouse employees and section men and it will give an impetus to the farmers to grow grain for which there will be a cash market and they will then have more money to spend in the town. More ties will be required and that will also benefit the place.

Low Taxes

Smithers is incorporated as a municipal village which gives it power to levy taxes for keeping up the streets and for other public purposes. Its affairs are managed by a commission of three with E. E. Orchard, chairman, and with him Commissioners J. Groat and Larry Warner. At present there is a tax levy of twelve mills on the dollar and in addition it is part of a school district in which the levy is 10.7 mills. As the assessment is kept as near as possible to the actual market value of the property, it may easily be seen that 22.7 is not a high mill rate for the people to pay. The fly in the ointment is that improvements are taxed at full value for school purposes and at forty percent of their value for other purposes. In Prince Rupert there is no tax of any kind on buildings.

Smithers has a high school and a four-roomed public school, Vernon Crockett, teacher of the high school is also principal of the public schools and associated with him are F. Randall, and Misses Marion Hannah, Anna Fetterly and Mary Fawcett. The clerk of the municipality is Fred Daleshaw, who is also an architect.

The hospital is in charge of Miss Baker and the chairman of the hospital board is Rev. George Turpin of the United Church. The board is supported by an active ladies' auxiliary.

Fire and Water

A volunteer fire brigade under chief J. S. Kennedy looks after the fire protection service. The water of the town is very good but the supply is an odd one. Beneath the town about fourteen feet below the surface is a strata of water-bearing sand and into this strata a pipe is driven with perforations at the end. These pipes are known as water points and through these the water is pumped. The water is protected from contamination by a superstructure of clay through which the points are driven. It will be seen that this system cannot be a permanent one and eventually a water supply will have to be brought in from the mountain or pumped from the lower land.

The board of trade is an active one with Charles Reid at its head and H. M. Matthews secretary. It has done a lot of useful work for the town and seems alive to its interests.

While formerly the fall fair was rather a small affair lasting only one day, it is now a three-day event and has permanent buildings and a half-mile race track on land owned by itself, occupying four blocks of the

TERMINALS ARE AGAIN BEATEN

Moose Win Dominion Day Cup
Football Game by 1 to Nil

There was a large crowd of spectators last night to witness the second game of Dominion Day cup ties between the Grand Terminals and the Moose. The Terminals had some leeway to make up, being defeated on Monday last by the Cold Storage but they lost again by a score of 1 to nil.

The Moose won the toss, and elected to kick uphill. Play was fast and interesting from the outset, and both goals were visited in turn. The shooting, however, left much to be desired, although Walters had bad luck with a deceiving shot which struck the post with Gathorn well beaten. After 25 minutes' play Sammy Currie initiated a nice movement which resulted in Baker scoring for the Moose at short range. The Terminals then forced a fruitless corner, and were pressing heavily when half-time was called with the Moose leading by a goal to nil.

Play after the breather continued to be fast and even. The first dangerous shot came from Paddy O'Donnell from 20 yards out, and Bill Murray headed clear from under the bar at the expense of a corner, which was cleared easily. Terminals forced another corner soon after but De Jong skied the ball over the bar from an easy position. This error was duplicated at the other end when Baker completely missed the ball in front of an open goal. The Moose held their lead to the end.

The Line-ups

G. Krause refereed and the linesmen were George Kelsey and A. Clapperton. The teams took the field as follows:

Moose—S. Gathorn; Skinner and W. Murray; Hunter, S. Currie and G. Mitchell; White, Russell, Baker, Hodgkinson and D. Gurvich.

Grand Terminals—S. Gurvich; G. Howe and H. Menzies; V. Menzies, O'Donnell and Stickney; Walters, De Jong, Dickens, W. Mitchell and Farquhar.

If the weather man hadn't acted up mean there would have been a wonderful exhibition of baseball yesterday afternoon at the Acropolis Hill grounds between the talented Rotarians and the brilliant Gyros but, as it happened, they only got one inning finished when it was unanimously decided to call it off and the crowd was presented with rain checks which will be honored next week if old Jup Pluvius doesn't interfere on the occasion of the visit to town of the Ketchikan Rotarians.

Here are the fellows that will meet against next week if they get dried out following yesterday's abortive contest:

SPORT CHAT

If the Gyros are to figure all in the contest for Senior baseball honors this year it will just about be necessary for them to capture tonight's game from the Grand Terminals. Losing again this evening they would be at a long handicap which would certainly be rather difficult to remove. The service club players have had a few bad breaks of luck in games already played but at that, their team would seem to need a little bolstering up and this will be effected through the arrival today of Chet Schlenker and Oliver Haveland, a pitcher and infielder, from Vancouver. The Grand Terminals will also be reinforced with Delcourt and Sloan.

Dan Lidstone, who participated actively in local baseball for several seasons past, is now located in Victoria and has been signed on with the United Commercial Travellers' team in that city. In a recent game between the Travellers and Chemainus, Dan was called into the box in the fifth inning and managed to save the game for his side. In five innings he was picked for four hits and breezed half a dozen opposing batsmen.

TENNIS DRAW.

The following games in the Prince Rupert Tennis Club tournament are scheduled for today: 5 p.m., Mrs. McMordie vs. Colonel McMordie; vs. Miss Riel and Marentette.

6:30 p.m., Balfour and Lambie vs. Cruickshank and Mackenzie.

6:30 p.m., Howard and Smith vs. Robertson and Marentette.

7:30 p.m., Miss Mitchell and Balfour vs. Miss Pepe Tremayne and Howard.

This matter was left in the hands of the executive to deal with.

Critical reports were made at the meeting of the evasion of the Eight Hour Day Act by employers of labor in the city. It was decided to draw the attention of the government authorities at Victoria to the matter.

A general discussion took place with regard to the hours of duty of the nurses at the hospital.

The deceased was born in Ontario 63 years ago, and lived in British Columbia for about 21 years, the last fifteen of which were spent prospecting and mining in the Bulkley Valley. The Mamie mine on Hudson's Bay mountain was the most outstanding of the various claims in which he was interested. This mine is now part of the Duthie Mines group and some very rich ore has been shipped from it.

AUTO DROPS THIRTY FEET

William Hayner and Ford Sedan
Went Over McBride Street
Last Night

An accident, which might have been attended with serious consequences, occurred last night at the corner of McBride Street and Fourth Ave. East, when a Ford Sedan car driven by W. Hayner, ran through the railing and toppled over on its side after dropping some thirty feet from the roadway, without injury to the driver but for a few minor scratches caused by broken glass.

The accident was caused through the king pin of the steering gear breaking and one of the front wheels coming off. The car was travelling towards Fifth Ave. East.

The car is practically a complete wreck. The front is smashed and the top is badly damaged.

FINE COMEDY-DRAMA IS WEEK-END FEATURE

Reginald Denny is Star in Fast and Laughable Entertainment Being Offered at Westholme Theatre

From title to fade-out the picture "Where Was I?" featuring Reginald Denny which is to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow is a fine, fast, laughable entertainment. It is said to be one of the best comedy-dramas that has been shown here in many months.

The story deals with the troubles of a young man who is trying to find out where he was in a certain date. His memory has failed and he must prove beyond a doubt where he was. All possibilities but one are exhausted. It is the chase for this that furnishes the many thrills and laughs with which the picture is replete. In the end even this possibility goes glimmering along with the others. But everything comes out right. It wouldn't be fair to tell just how.

Pauline Garon is the girl who claims that she married Denny on a certain date while Marian Nixon is the fiancee of Denny. Both do excellently acting. Lee Moran and Chester Conklin are the ones who furnish comedy relief capably and the other members of the cast perform well.

Encouraging Reports Reach
Smithers Regarding Frank
Taylor's Find

SMITHERS, June 18.—Encouraging reports come from Topley in regard to the recent ore discovery there by Frank Taylor, a well-known prospector of the district. A number of mining men have examined the outcrop and declare it looks like the making of a big mine. The outcrop is in a gully and was exposed through a forest fire burning the covering last year. It was discovered purely by accident as the men were crossing that way to make a short cut. Today a representative of the B.C. Silver people was on the ground and also the district mining engineer, neither of whom have yet expressed an opinion. Other mining men are enthusiastic over it. Many people have staked claims but only the first six have been recorded here so far. The property is only about a mile from the road and that across a jackpine flat.
