LARGE MAJORITY FOR MINISTER OF LABOR

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF CITY DISCUSSED PRIOR TO SETTLING TAX RATE

Civic Finances Engage Attention of Council

Tax rate will be 43 mills or more, the amount depending on system of payment for surfacing streets adopted by city fathers

Whether the tax rate this year is to be 43 mills or some higher amount will depend largely on the attitude of the council tonight when it assembles once more to wrestle with the financial problems of the city. At the special meeting called for the purpose last night, Alderman Gasey announced that the estimates had been pruned to the bone, that garbage collection was to be made a charge against those getting the service and that it was recommended that the surfacing of the down town streets with asphalt at a cost of $10,000 and the surfacing of residential streets with tarvia at a cost of $18,000 be financed by a five year loan. This with the cutting down of some expenditures and the total elimination of others would enable them to finance with a levy of 43 mills.

AUTO TARIFF IS DISCUSSED

Substantial Reduction Advocated and Debate in Commons Lasts Until About Midnight

OTTAWA, March 30.—An all day debate in the House of Commons yesterday on the resolution advocating a "substantial reduction in the customs tariff on automobiles and motor trucks" concluded shortly before midnight on a motion for adjournment. The resolution which did not reach a vote was introduced by G. G. Cote, Progressive member for McLeod.

BIG INCREASE IN INDUSTRIES

LIBERALS ARE ELATED OVER THE VICTORY

Minister of Labor Lost Out In Only Seven Out of 82 Sub-divisions

NOW DOWN TO BUSINESS

OTTAWA, March 30.—Liberals here in the West Middlesex riding and throughout the East are highly elated over the fact that the minister of labor was elected by such a large majority. He carried practically every subdivision in the constituency, even in those where it was expected the Conservative candidate would get good leads. In 82 subdivisions, the new minister was at the bottom of the poll in only seven. This is considered to be a wonderful record in view of the strenuous opposition put up by Hon. Arthur Meighen and his lieutenants on behalf of T. A. Elliott, the defeated candidate.

The opinion here is that now it is made clear the people are behind the present administration business will be allowed to proceed more expeditiously. As a matter of fact the people in this part of the country did not favor the policy of obstruction carried out by the Conservative opposition and the leaders are beginning to find that out. The result has been better progress with public business of late.

ORGANIZED LABOR AND IMMIGRATION TO BE DISCUSSED

OTTAWA, Mar. 30.—Tom Moore, president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, announced yesterday that a conference of labor organizations would be held on May 18, to decide the attitude of organized labor toward migration between countries. It is not decided yet whether a Canadian representative will attend.

Native Sons Urge Policing City by Provincial Authorities and Uniting Utilities and Works

Memorial Presented to City Council Last Night in Regard to Present Financial Crisis in Civic Affairs

The Native Sons organization last night tendered some advice to the city in the form of a memorial suggesting methods for helping to overcome the financial difficulties with which the city fathers are at present wrestling. One suggestion was that to avoid the unnecessary police duplication, the policing of the city should be taken over by the provincial department and another was that to avoid the employment of two high salaried officials the utilities and public works department should be combined under one head. The memorial follows:

Whereas the Native Sons of Canada, Prince Rupert Assembly view with alarm the announcement of the chairman of the finance committee at last week's council meeting wherein he stated that the probable mill rate in the city of Prince Rupert would be fifty-seven mills or more;

And whereas at the present time there is in our city a great overlapping of police bodies by the Provincial, Dominion and Indian and city forces, and in the opinion of this assembly amalgamation of the forces or policing under the provincial force would result in a great saving;

And whereas in the past, expenses incurred in the maintenance of the city have been capitalized, thereby causing a serious menace to the city's financial standing and in the opinion of this assembly is one of the chief reasons for the deplorable condition of the city financial condition at the present time;

And whereas the utilities and public works departments have heretofore been operating under separate heads and it appears that the present city engineer is also an electrical engineer;

And whereas in the opinion of this assembly the duties of the public works and utilities departments should be combined and under the control and management of the city engineer, thereby increasing the efficiency of the departments and from coordination a suitable saving could be made thereby.

Therefore be it resolved that the council be urged to:

1. Carry on with the greatest economy consistent with the absolute needs of the city.

2. Enter into negotiations with the provincial government for the policing of the city by their police force.

3. To curtail capitalization of expenses formerly chargeable to maintenance to a minimum.

4. Combine the department of public works and utilities department under the supervision and control of the city engineer.

Tonight members of the Ratepayers' Association will meet the council and state their views on how the problem may be solved.

Minister of Labor Elected by Large Majority Over His Opponent in West Middlesex

Hon. J. C. Elliott (Liberal) ..... 6520

T. A. Elliott (Conservative) ..... 3839

STRATHROY, Ont., March 30.—Hon. J. C. Elliott, minister of labor in the Mackenzie King cabinet, was elected yesterday by a large majority in West Middlesex, defeating T. A. Elliott, Conservative, by a majority of 2681. The vote was a large one and keen interest was taken in the result, it being understood that the outcome of this poll would indicate political opinion in regard to the action of the present government in retaining office in face of the fact that Liberals were a minority party in the House and were kept in power only by the support of the Progressives and other independent groups.

British Settlers Coming To Canada.

A few of the earlier arrivals among the settlers coming to Canada happened to be from other than British countries and immediately there was an outcry from politicians that the country was to be swamped with foreigners of a low type. Now we have an arrival of four thousand of which five-sixths are British and of course nothing is said.

Why all this fuss? What is there about the British that is so much better than their neighbors? Why is it necessary for settlers to come from the British Isles when the people of those islands mostly come from Germanic stock? After the first generation it is practically impossible to tell them apart. As long as we are getting a good class of white people it seems unreasonable to worry because they happen not to speak the English language on arrival. They soon learn it.

Good Thing To Have Local Shipyard Busy.

This spring has seen a marked improvement in business at the local shipyard. The drydock has been busy a good deal of the time and a lot of repair work has been carried out here since the plant has been taken over by the Canadian Government Merchant Marine. The result has been decidedly beneficial to this city and it is to be hoped the good work will continue. We take great pleasure in commanding the work of the department in at least realizing that it is desirable to keep the government plant busy with government work.

Must Marry At Once Or Vacate Apartments.

There is an apartment in London occupied mostly by wealthy bachelors, who have been served with notice that they must either marry or leave. Evictions will follow if the order is not obeyed.

Here is a wonderful example. This Englishman believes in marriage, likes children and will not encourage young men in avoiding their marital duties. They may remain single but they may not use his apartments if they do. He will turn them out and populate the place with better, more useful and happier people, he says.

There are a lot of bachelors in Prince Rupert and a worthy lot they are, usually, but think how much better they would be if they were married. Think how much better their living conditions would be if they had wives to look after them and how much happier if they had children of their own.

Bachelors are often useful people, because if there were no bachelors, there would be no weddings. The difficulty with some of them is that they are hard to please and as a result they become confirmed bachelors. The condition of single cussedness becomes chronic.

Council Divided On Taxation Question.

The city council last night was divided on the question of taxation. There is a sum of $28,000 set down in the proposed estimates of which $10,000 is for resurfacing the business section of the city with bituminous asphalt and the other the covering of the residential streets with tarvia. Both works are needed but how are they to be paid for? The chairman of the finance committee recommends that the money be borrowed and paid back over a period of five years. Another part of the council is wholly opposed to that method.

So far as the asphalting of the downtown streets is concerned it will be a great saving in upkeep during the next few years and should last more than the term of the loan. The tarvia is different. It does not last more than two or three years and perhaps not that without patching. To float five year bonds for it would seem to be a mistake.

Keeping Down Of Estimates Necessary.

The members of the city council have been faced with the absolute necessity of keeping down the civic estimates. The tax rate has been steadily advancing owing to the improvement work on the streets which was an absolute necessity and which has given good results.

Every year there are numerous calls on the treasury. The city is asked to aid a large number of worthy enterprises, but unfortunately none of the aldermen can do what they would like. They are up against the unpleasant fact that the limit of taxation has been reached and they must go very slow in voting the people's money.

WALES ISLAND SALMON TRAPS

More Argument Submitted by Vancouver Newspaper Regarding Same

In regard to an application for the right to operate fish traps by the Canadian Fishing Company at Wales Island on which it is claimed assurance was given by government officials and large expenditures made, the Vancouver Star says:

When any reputable industry such as fishing or placer mining or logging, is made dependent upon the issuance of an annual license from the government, whether Dominion or Provincial, and especially where a heavy initial expenditure is necessary, then the renewal of such license should be a matter of course so long as regulations have been complied with by the licensees. Otherwise there can be no security for capital invested in any Canadian industry of this class.

The Morning Star referred yesterday in this connection to the case of the Canadian Fishing Company. This company invested over $60,000 in building a salmon trap, or rather three separate traps at points indicated and approved on the official assurance from the Department of Marine and Fisheries that a license would be issued for their operation. They were operated for one season; and then the Department refused to renew the license, giving as a reason that it was conducting an investigation by tagging a certain number of salmon and then letting them loose to see if they were caught by American traps, and with a special view to finding out if the fishermen who caught salmon by trolling were being injured by the catch of the traps. So, while this investigation is going on, the investment made by the Canadian company in good faith on official assurance of the Canadian government goes for nothing.

Meanwhile, the three Canadian traps being closed by the Canadian government, there remain the thirteen American traps catching the same fish in the same waters without check or hindrance.

Complete explanation should be made by the Department of Marine and Fisheries. On the face of it there would appear to be an adjustment necessary.

CHALLENGE OF TODAY

Rev. E. G. Turner Lectures to Corner Club on Interesting Topic

A large gathering assembled last night at the Baptist Church parlor to hear Rev. E. G. Turner deliver a lecture on "The Challenge of New External Conditions." The speaker displayed mastery of a subject that captivated the attention and interest of the audience from start to finish. Mention was made of the phenomenal development and growth in every sphere of human activity and research during the present generation which far exceeded the total of preceding ages. The New Conditions existing as a result of this rapid progress presented a challenge to the young people of today, said the speaker.

The problems of today were summarily dealt with as pertaining to wealth, world wide commerce, immigration and racial differences.

"The Challenge of the New Inner World of Thought" is to be the subject of Mr. Turner's lecture next Monday evening.

MARKED DECLINE IN ART OF CONVERSATION

(Victoria Colonist)

The decline in the art of conversation is perhaps due to the dogmatism of the age and to the pursuit by people of the doctrine of self-determination which has been so much interpreted to mean exactly what the words imply. In the art practised in its higher forms there must be mutual sympathy and reverence. It is the absence of these which has caused conversational power to decline. The people who talk best are those who read well, but those who are best read as often as not do not wish to subject their thoughts to the intolerance of ignorance.

March 30, 1916.

At a public meeting in the Empress Theatre last night at which Mayor M. P. McCaffery presided and for which R. Moore acted as secretary a resolution was passed asking the G.T.P., Railway Co. and the government to put the new dry dock here to use as soon as possible in manufacturing munitions and building ships. Among the speakers at the meeting were Ex-Mayor Newton, T. D. Pattullo, Alderman Casey, Ald. Beyersdorf, D. W. Morrissey, W. G. C. McLean, V. A. Cole, and A. J. Prudhomme.

The suggestion was made that Mayor McCaffery should proceed to Ottawa to back up the resolution. The meeting also passed a resolution asking that the salmon monopoly be broken.

The problems of today were summarily dealt with as pertaining to wealth, world wide commerce, immigration and racial differences.

DEPARTMENT STORES AND PETTY FRAUDS

TORONTO, March 29.—Commenting in Women's Court on a case of fraud extending over a length of time, where conviction was registered, Magistrate Patterson said: "Department stores have evidently come to the end of their very long patience. As an old employee of the department store the accused had knowledge of good ways of defrauding it. She had obtained goods under about 100 names, only two or three of which were even in the directory." The stores maintain that allowing convicted people to go on condition that they do not enter these establishments again means that this special kind of crime is too easily attempted.

The monthly magazine "Resources," formerly published here by Weston Coyne, and for several years allowed to lapse, has been revived by Rose, Cowan & Latta and the first number under the new management with Sid Webb as chief pen pusher appeared on the street today. It is a publication that is quite worth while from the point of view of Prince Rupert and the surrounding district. It is well written, nicely illustrated and the typography is excellent.

In this number the editorials are interesting and on live subjects. There is an article on "Prince Rupert, Gateway to Northland's Paradise," "Government Grain Elevator," "The Handlogger," "A Survey of Mining Development in N.B.C." "Usk, Great Mining and Lumbering Centre," "Telkwa or the Meeting of the Waters," "Vanderhoof," "Jasper National Park," and "The Crows' Nest of Northern B.C." not forgetting Nautical Nips and other features.

COUGARS GREAT HOCKEY TEAM

One of Greatest Records Ever Compiled by Them Says Sport Writer

One of the greatest records ever compiled by a hockey club in the history of the game stands to the credit of the Victoria Cougars, who are speeding eastward to meet the winners of the National Hockey League championship in the world's series says Archie Wills sports writer for the Victoria Times.

The Cougars are going East to defend the Stanley Cup, which last Spring they took from the Canadiens in the world's series in Victoria. They earned the right to once again represent the West in the blue ribbon contest by defeating Edmonton in the finals for the Western Hockey League championship.

Travel 30,000 Miles

During the last twelve months the Victoria Cougars have travelled 30,000 miles, played twelve different major league clubs, participated in an exhibition tour and, with the forthcoming games in the East, will have participated in two world's series purses.

Add to this the fact that the Victoria Cougars did not lose one game in the play-offs either last year or this year and dropped but one game in the world's series last Spring, and the East will get some idea of what kind of a club Lester Patrick is taking with him to defend the Stanley Cup.

Despite the heaviest kind of casualties the Cougars repeated this year. Defensively they proved themselves almost unbeatable. When beset with injuries the club showed its mettle and gameness by holding other clubs to draws and never going under by more than a goal or two.

Came on Rapidly

Half-way through the season the Cougars were one jump from the bottom. From that moment they came on strongly losing but three of their remaining fifteen games and gaining a place in the play-off. They nosed out Saskatoon in the semi-final for the championship and then took Edmonton's number without losing a game in either series. In the play-offs last year Victoria eliminated both Saskatoon and Calgary without losing a game.

Prior to the start of the present season Lester Patrick, chief of the Cougars, arranged an exhibition tour of the East, playing the Montreal Canadiens, Montreal Maroons, Ottawa Senators, New York and Toronto St. Pats, five of the National League clubs. That tour took them 9,000 miles.

Prairie Tours

During the regular playing season in the West the Cougars had to make two complete trips of the prairies and a third trip as far as Calgary, as well as four jaunts to Portland and another quartette to Vancouver. This ran up to a total mileage of close to 12,000 miles.

Now the Cougars are away on another transcontinental hike, which will take them 8,000 miles before they return home.

In that time the Cougars, in addition to travelling 30,000 miles, a record for any club in one year, have engaged in two world's series and an exhibition tour, the first real big one of its kind ever attempted. They picked up considerable extra money as a result of their exploits on the glazed surface.

To date this season the Cougars have played forty-one games. They opened with seven exhibition games in the East, had thirty league games and four play-off fixtures. The world's series holds at least three more games for them. It may even go to the limit of five games; which would give the Cougars a great record for one season's work.

the most important coaching addition to a major league team since the close of the 1925 race, however, has been the acquisition of Kid Gleason, former White Sox pilot, by the Athletics. Gleason, energetic, aggressive and relentless as a driver, is expected to aid Connie Mack in developing the winning punch for a young and ambitious team which was unsteady at crucial periods of the American League race a year ago.

SPORT CHAT

A growing tendency on the part of baseball pilots to share their managerial burdens with former stars of the diamond finds no less than a half dozen erstwhile major league leaders in an advisory role as first lieutenants in the National and American circuits this year. The national league leads in the establishment of "strategy boards" with five former managers as assistant pilots or coaches. The New York Giants will have two famous leaders of by-gone days to assist John McGraw, provided Hughey Jennings, former Detroit pilot, recovers from illness which resulted in his removal to a sanatorium this winter. In addition, the club has added the late Christy Mathewson's battery mate of two decades ago, Roger Bresnahan, who laid aside his New York catching mask to become manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, then go to Toledo.

Fred Clark, former Pittsburgh pilot, to whose wise counsel was attributed a measure of Pirate success in winning the National League and world series honors last year, will continue as one of Manager McKechnie's Counsellors. Bill Kilifer, former pilot of the Cubs, will assist Rogers Hornsby in the drive of the St. Louis Cardinals.

To his 1925 board of strategy, which last year included Zach Wheat, assistant manager, and Jacques Fournier, first baseman, Manager Wilbert Robinson of Brooklyn, has added iron man Joe McGinnity, Giant pitching star of the past, and the veteran shortstop, Rabbit Maranville, who for a few weeks last year held the reins of the skidding Chicago Cubs. George Gibson, successor to Maranville as Cub leader for a brief period last year, remains on the 1926 Wrigley payroll as a scout.

Fred Merkle, former Giant first sacker and later international League manager, this year will assist Miller Huggins in rebuilding the Yankees, while a familiar figure at the park of the Chicago White Sox will be an old Indian mound star of the Philadelphia Athletics, Chief Bender. ## WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION BEING FORMED SEAL COVE

Advice Given How to do it and Not to Imitate Soldierly Stride of Anglo Saxon

CONSTANTINOPLE. March 30. Turkish women are exhorted by the Constantinople daily, "The Republic," not to adopt amidst all their new western practices, the Anglo-Saxon woman's "soldierly stride." The sheet devoted to women, a recent innovation of this newspaper, lays down the following rules as to the proper method of walking for the lady-like:

"Do not drag your feet, but slide them gently along the pavement. Do not waddle from side to side or move your shoulders or swing your arms. Take short, dainty steps—a long stride is unladylike in woman—and above all, don't rush. Keep your eyes on a high point directly ahead of you and appear to see nothing."

Avoid Strolling

Although the older generation of Turkish women is not likely to infringe upon any of these precepts, the majority of younger women have declared open war on the traditional Oriental method of strolling languorously through life. One of the most startling manifestations is the cross country race now being organized by the girls' section of the Galata Swiss Sports' Club of Constantinople. It will be the first event of the kind for Moslem girls in the history of Turkey.

SAANICH ALSO HAS MILL RATE PROBLEM

Question of Taxing Improvements is Discussed and Tie of Council Results

VICTORIA, March 30.— Reeve Macneil and councillors of the inner wards of Saanich will go before the people during the next two or three weeks to discuss the question of improvement taxation. This course was adopted by the Saanich Council when a vote on improvement taxation was delayed, as it was practically known beforehand that there would be a tie vote.

The same was the case with voting road appropriations, with the result that the entire question was left over to the next meeting.

Saanich is in a position where it has only $28,000 available for road work at the present mill rate, as compared with $54,387 last year. Unless the mill rate is advanced three mills or improvement taxation is enforced, last year's appropriation cannot be voted. While the councillors from the inner wards are willing to vote for smaller appropriations to cut down expenses, it was the general opinion that

PAY OF NURSES IS CUT IN EDMONTON

Probationers to Serve Six Months Without Pay and Then Ten Dollars a Month

EDMONTON, March 30.— Reduction of nurses' salaries and elimination of sick pay for all members of the staff—such were two of the main decisions of the city hospital board at a meeting here. Both questions were strongly opposed by labor members who gave notice of motion that reconsideration would be asked at the next meeting. As previously reported, the wage cuts will not be effective until next year.

Under the motion by R. Sladden, which was passed, probationers will not receive pay for the first six months, while for the next six months they will be paid $10 per month. The rate for the second and third years will be $12 per month with board and lodging. At present, probationers receive $14 per month for the first year, $15 per month for the second year and $20 per month for the third year.
