HORRIBLE MURDER AT PORT ESSINGTON

CELEBRATION YESTERDAY PROVED SUCCESSFUL ESPECIALLY EVENING EVENT

Horrible Murder of Teacher at Port Essington on Sunday One of Most Brutal Known in North

Miss Loretta Ghisholm, aged 24, school teacher at Port Essington, on Sunday last, fell victim to one of the most atrocious murder attacks ever recorded in the history of this district. Attempt having been apparently made to outrage the young woman, she was brutally beaten. The back of her head was crushed, her jaw and nose broken, chest crushed causing internal injuries and moss had been packed down her throat, mouth, apparently to silence her outcries.

About 9.30 on Sunday morning, the young woman left the house where she was boarding for a walk. She stated that she would be back in about an hour in time for breakfast before going to church. When she failed to return alarm was felt and search parties were instituted about noon. The searching continued throughout the afternoon, evening and night until about six o'clock yesterday morning when the shocking discovery was made. Off the sawmill trail and about a mile and a half from the town, the body was found lying in the bush.

Yesterday morning, the headquarters of the provincial police here was communicated with and a party of officers headed by Inspector Spiller proceeded to Port Essington. The body was brought to the city last night, also an Indian suspected of having been involved in the crime. Chief A. McNeill was left at Port Essington to continue investigations.

An inquest will be held before Deputy Coroner J. R. Tannock as soon as full evidence to be presented in connection with the case has been assembled. The remains are in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers.

Miss Ghisholm had been teaching three years, the first at Tatalrose, south of Francois Lake, the second at Wisteria on Ootsa Lake, and the present year at Port Essington. Her parents live at Eburne where sisters also live. Following her first year of teaching, she took a year at the university and secured her first class certificate.

Speaking of Miss Ghisholm this morning, Inspector Fraser said she was a teacher of ability and high character—"a real lady." Naturally he was much distressed over the horrible crime and on hearing of it he proceeded at once to get in touch with friends of his in Vancouver who would communicate the sad news to the parents.

Last night the news of the horror spread rapidly in the city and today is the chief topic of conversation in and around the city.

More Police Going
Inspector Spiller stated this morning that additional police were being sent to Port Essington to aid in the search for the murderer of Miss Ghisholm. So far as can be gathered unofficially, little progress has so far been made owing to the difficult conditions obtaining at the scene.

There are living permanently at Port Essington about eighty Indians and a number of Japanese and whites and the work on the canneries in preparation for the opening of the season is just beginning. As the season advances the number of Indians and others increases.

G. R. Bancroft of The Pacific, Manitoba, who has been at Stewart in connection with the Sebakwe Mines Ltd., arrived in the city on the Cardena this morning and will proceed East by tomorrow's train.

May Queen Was Crowned Amid Appropriate Ceremonies at the Exhibition Hall Last Evening

A large crowd of 1,400 adults and children paid admission to the exhibition hall last evening to attend the May festival and jilney that brought the Victoria Day celebration under the auspices of the Fair Board and the Elks' Lodge to a fitting conclusion. Featuring the evening's proceedings were the coronation ceremonies and maypole dancing, the program having been under the capable direction of Mrs. David Thomson whose efforts were fully rewarded in the success that attended the event.

First came the crowning of Miss May Ness as Queen of the May, the scene taking place on the raised platform which had been beautifully decorated, the setting being indeed charming.

The crowning was performed by Miss Myra Kinslor, last year's queen. The maids of honor were Misses Oral Ross and Linnea Hanson while dainty indeed were little Gerry Mann, trainbearer; Betty Brown, crown bearer; Ellen Moore, sceptre bearer, and Margaret Fritz, standard bearer. The costumes were of the Cape Greenaway style and lent much to the color of the ceremonies.

The pretty Maypole Dance then took place, this again reflecting credit on the skill of Mrs. Thomson. The little girls taking part were Ann Kirkendall, Audrey Parkin, Nancy Brown, Edith Kerigin, Muriel Walker, Beatrice Berner, Jean Scott, Elizabeth Wilson, Maxine Heilbronner, Myrtle Ross, Mary Evans, Enid Morris, Edna Ireland, Dorothy Fraser, Hilda Murray, Peggy Smith, Nelda Hilditch and Lucille Brooksbank. Miss Agnes Donaldson was accompanist. After the dance, each of the little girls participating was presented with a box of chocolates by the Queen.

Other items on the program, which would have been a good deal more extensive had it not been for illness among those who were to have taken part, were an Irish Jig by Miss Elizabeth MacLeod and a Sailor's Hornpipe by Miss Edna Ireland, both of which were particularly well executed with Mrs. R. P. Ponder accompanying.

In connection with the general arrangements for the program, Mrs. Thomson was given invaluable assistance by Miss S. A. Mills.

Prizes won on the sports' field during the afternoon were presented by the Queen and then the jilney dance started and was in full swing until 1 o'clock in the morning, music being by Arthur's Orchestra.

W. D. Vance, president of the Fair Board, was chairman of the evening's proceedings and was assisted by members of the Fair Board and Elks' Lodge generally.

He was captivated Sunday by the beautiful scenery of Jasper Park Lodge golf course, to which he came Sunday morning to play nine holes but at which he remained to play twenty-seven. All his private engagements were placed aside following the morning round so that he might cover the full course during the afternoon and when he left for the special train which is carrying him East on his last official trip through Canada, he cast a last longing look towards the beautiful home green and remarked that it had been one of the most enjoyable days of his life and the course one of the finest he had ever seen. He even ventured the prediction that within a year or two the course would rival the best in the world.

Loan Society Was Badly Needed.

On Saturday a business announcement in this paper told of the opening of a loan and savings society here. A loan society was badly needed in the city for the purpose of financing new buildings for those who are unable to pay the whole cost at the time of erection.

Some years ago a small loan society was formed in the city and it was kept busy. The only difficulty was the restricted amount of money it had to loan. There was a clamor for its services. Dozens of applications had to be turned down because of the inability of the company to meet the demand.

Something over a year ago it was decided to dissolve this company and most of the capital has been returned to the investors as well as a good rate of interest from the time the company was formed. Those who controlled it wanted their money back so it was wound up.

During the last year or two with the developing of the city into a greater degree of permanence, mortgage loans have been easier to get and today there is little difficulty in securing money for building on a small scale. With the elevator to commence operations in a big way this coming fall, however, a great deal of money is likely to be needed and the new organization will meet this demand, it is hoped. It is another step in the development of the city indicating permanence.

Beware Of All Bubble Growth.

It is well to beware of bubble growth. When a city grows too fast it is sure to get a setback. When a person seems to be getting rich quickly, look out for a downfall. The wires on Saturday brought word of a young man who quickly became rich in the real estate business. He was looked on as a millionaire but suddenly the bubble burst and it was found that while he had assets amounting to a million and a quarter dollars his debts were four and a quarter millions. Things are not always what they seem.

Rain And Snow On Prairies Welcome.

At this time of year rain and snow on the prairies in moderate quantities are always welcome. At the week end there was both rain and snow. In some parts of Manitoba the country was covered by seven inches of the white mantle. This would be particularly welcome to the farmers. As it thawed the moisture would soak into the ground instead of running off as in a heavy rain and the crops would benefit.

It is early yet to prophesy what the crops will be. The fall of rain and snow almost everywhere on the prairies at the week end make it sure that there will be moisture sufficient to grow good straw. The rest is in the lap of the gods. All that we know now is that the prospects are good. But they usually are at this time of year.

Attractions Here Of Great Outdoors.

Visitors to Prince Rupert almost all comment on the wonderful opportunities there are here for outdoor life away from the city. Those who have boats can find so many and varied points of interest to which they may betake themselves. Also there are splendid fishing grounds for trout that would make any southerner envious. For those who have no power launch, there are row boats available with which they can reach enough beaches to keep up an almost constant variation throughout the summer season. Salt Lake Park, too, is always there and it is one of the beauty spots of the neighborhood and the ferry runs every five days.

The harbor and the surrounding beach accommodations are among the great attractions of Prince Rupert.

CONCERT TROUP IS HEARD HERE

Notable Entertainment is Being Offered at Westholme Theatre This Week

Something new in the way of entertainment is being offered patrons of the Westholme Theatre for the first of this week. A high class concert troupe, headed by Walter Bates, well known Canadian tenor, opened a three-night stand last night before a large audience which was delighted with the performance. The troupe will repeat tonight and tomorrow.

Besides Mr. Bates, the party consists of Miss Edith Pickells, English soprano; Miss Jane Suggden, American contralto, and Basil Roberts, well known bass.

Their repertoire consists of glees, ballads and operatic favorites with old favorite numbers and popular modern ones pleasingly combined. It is an entertainment that lovers of vocal music will fully enjoy.

PICTURE WARNING TO APARTMENT DWELLERS

Reginald Denny Plays Role of Woman Hater in "I'll Show You the Town"

As a warning to all persons who dwell in flats or apartment houses, "I'll Show You the Town," the Universal-Jewel feature comes to the Westholme Theatre for Thursday only.

Professor Dupree, as played by Reginald Denny, is an avowed hater of women and of the wild life--so called. In his flat, in the heart of a great metropolis, he has locked himself up to concentrate on his dissertation on "Apartment House Life in Ancient Rome."

The book might have been written and published and Professor Dupree might have become a famous author or a political economist or something of the kind--but alas! the sympathetic professor, when he had moved bag and baggage into his comfy flat, had not taken into consideration his neighbors. Most of the laughs in "I'll Show You the Town" are furnished by the extremely funny relationship between Denny and his neighbors, who, with great ingenuity, prevent him from carrying out the completion of his great work.

Billie Bonner, played by Neely Edwards, a high-powered automobile salesman, is Dupree's neighbor on the one side, and "The Greens" on the other. Between the two Dupree becomes involved in a series of precarious situations. Denny is supported by a notable cast.

VALENTINO AGAIN APPEARS ON SCREEN

Romantic Star Seen in Three Guises in "The Eagle," New Film Play

Rudolph Valentino will make his first screen appearance in some time in "The Eagle," a glamorous picture of Russia before the revolution, which will be shown at the end of the week. This is the star's first production since he aligned himself with United Artists Corporation.

Valentino appears in three distinct guises in this fast moving action story, which is also filled with comedy. He is seen first as a Cossack lieutenant, garbed in dashing uniform, then as the mysterious bandit, known as the Eagle because of his swift and marauding movements. While a bandit he masquerades as a French tutor and enters the home of his mortal enemy. In "The Eagle" the star is

PRESBYTERIAN SALE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

All Articles Were Quickly Disposed of and Tea and Palmistry Well Patronized

The sale held by the ladies' aid of the Presbyterian Church at the St. Andrew's Rooms Saturday afternoon was in every sense highly satisfactory. A constant crowd of visitors quickly cleared all saleable goods and kept the ladies very busy at the tea tables. The palmistry rooms were also well patronized.

The financial results of the afternoon delighted all concerned. The following ladies attended the various stalls: Tea—Mrs. D. G. Stewart and Mrs. Christie, joint conveners, assisted by Mesdames Massie, Millar, Vance, McMeekin and A. C. Clark, cashier.

Home Cooking—Mrs. J. G. Steen and Mrs. D. McD. Hunter. Candy—Mrs. McNaughton and Mrs. Starr.

Ice Cream—Mrs. W. Wilson Murray. Palmistry—Mrs. J. Bremner and Mrs. J. Clark.

Mrs. J. Simpson, president of the ladies' aid, warmly welcomed everyone.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Mary, Capt. T. Cliffe, southbound from Alaska ports to Vancouver, will arrive in port tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock, sailing for the south at 8.

The Anglican mission boat Northern Cross carried to Port Simpson yesterday for the annual celebration a number of local people who went to join in the festivities. Canon W. F. Rushbrook was in charge of the party.

MAYOR TAYLOR GIVEN REBUKE

In Speaking of Elevator Lease, Vancouver Province Says "Larger Outlook" Expected

PROTESTS AND SCHEMING

Prince Rupert's Prosperity Should be Rejoiced at Instead of Protested

The Vancouver Province editorially repudiates the protest of Mayor Taylor at the leasing of the Prince Rupert elevator to the Wheat Pool. The following strong leading article appeared in the southern paper last Thursday:

A week or so ago, someone addressed a letter to "The Mayor of British Columbia," and it was delivered to Mayor Taylor at the Vancouver City Hall. On Wednesday, Mayor Taylor despatched a telegram to Premier King at Ottawa, protesting against the leasing of the Prince Rupert elevator to the Wheat Pool and referring to the lease as a piece of "rank discrimination against Vancouver."

As president and one of the moving spirits in the Western Canada Unity and Development League, Mayor Taylor has an excellent opportunity of acting as "mayor of British Columbia," but in filing a protest because of the possibility that a portion of the westward tide of grain may be diverted to Prince Rupert, he is not playing up to the demands of his role. We had expected a larger outlook from Mayor Taylor.

The fight for equitable freight rates, which has had the effect of largely increasing the flow of grain to the Pacific Coast was, it is true, initiated by the Vancouver Board of Trade. But it has been carried on by the Government of British Columbia, at the cost of the entire people of the province, and for the benefit of the province, not by any means for the sole benefit of Vancouver.

All Ports Equal

That is one reason why Vancouver is at once out of court when it protests against the enjoyment by other British Columbia communities of the advantages of the westward grain trade. In the matter of right, we stand in no better position than Prince Rupert or New Westminster or Port Mann or North Vancouver or Victoria or Port Coquitlam. It is selfish on our part, too, and foolish as well, to put any stumbling-block in the way of the development of our sister communities. We should rather rejoice in their prosperity, first, in a neighborly way because it is their prosperity, and then because their good will inevitably be reflected in our own larger business. Vancouver is wise in exerting all her power to encourage the flow of grain to this coast but she can much better afford to allow a portion of this grain to slip off to other British Columbia ports than she can afford to retaliate and antagonize these ports by selfish protests and scheming.

Coming back to Prince Rupert, why should not the elevator be leased to the Wheat Pool? Operated by the Pool, which can direct shipments there, it may handle considerable wheat, particularly cargoes to the Orient. Operated by the government it will handle little grain or none. It is true that, under the lease, the government is responsible for the carrying charges, which will amount to $111,000 a year. But it would still be responsible for these if the elevator stood idle, and there would be no benefit to anyone. Vancouver has reason to know how difficult it is to turn trade from old channels, even when there are advantages in following a new route. Prince Rupert will not find it easy to develop a grain export business and a little help and encouragement at the outset will not hurt her. The lease is only for two years, and when it is ended, if government operation seems more desirable than a renewal, it can be undertaken.

Vancouver Elevators

The Wheat Pool, it is known, has been endeavoring to secure the lease of one of the government elevators at Vancouver and the Board of Trade and the Grain Exchange have lodged objections. There is one phase of the situation which has not been sufficiently emphasized. The government elevators in Vancouver operate under a decided advantage. They pay no taxes to the city. The independent elevators pay taxes. If the Pool leases one of the Vancouver elevators, it should be on the distinct understanding that it should contribute the full tax on the property to the city treasury. If the elevator is to be operated as a private concern, it has no right to escape taxation. To follow any other course would be unfair both to the city and to the Pool's competitors.

RECEPTION GIVEN BRIDE AT TERRACE

Mr. and Mrs. P. Paterson Guests of Honor at Event in Progress Hall

TERRACE, May 25.—Mr. and Mrs. P. Paterson (nee Miss Alice McDougall) arrived from the south on Friday to spend a short honeymoon at the bride's summer home "Kenjoekaty," Terrace. They were accorded a glad welcome on Friday evening when Mrs. D. D. Munro, Mrs. O. Von Hees and Mrs. J. Morse Hatt, were joint hostesses at a delightful dancing party and social evening held in their honor in Progress Hall. Abundance of spring flowers and crepe paper decorations gave the hall a very homelike appearance.

About thirty couples thoroughly enjoyed dancing, while card tables had been prepared for any not wishing to dance. During the evening, vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Haney and Rev. W. Allen which were much enjoyed, while Miss Kerr delighted all present with several violin solos.

During the evening the hostesses served delicious refreshments and dancing continued until an early hour. The many friends of the bride welcomed the opportunity of meeting Mr. Paterson and of offering congratulations and best wishes.

After a short time spent here Mr. and Mrs. Paterson will return to Vancouver. Later Mr. Paterson goes to the interior of B.C. to do research work for the Ottawa Government during the summer and Mrs. Paterson is planning to return to Terrace with friends for a part of the holidays.

Hemorrhoids
Or piles are quickly relieved by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

It is a serious matter to have piles and one person in four has them at one time or another. The annoyance and distress is great. It is difficult to obtain lasting relief. So much so that your physician may tell you that a surgical operation is necessary. That is unless he is familiar with Dr. Chase's Ointment for many doctors recommend this treatment to their patients.

For nearly half a century Dr. Chase's Ointment has been the never failing relief for itching, bleeding and protruding piles. It is now very generally known by the medical profession, and the public generally, as the standard treatment for this torturing ailment.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

A man cannot love a woman unless he respects her, but look at the kind of men the women love.

Once upon a time there was a man who was always talking in public and he was never sore with the newspapers for misreporting him. It was a fairy tale.

Jake says it's hard to make lawns in Prince Rupert. There is not enough rain.

A heroine is a woman who has had a serious operation which almost killed her. The fact that the operation was the result of a mis-spent life does not affect the question.

There once was a man— Name him if you can— Who went out fishing; (Now I know you are wishing). But he never caught a fish Which I know is what you wish.

What we are all thinking about is the prospect for fine weather tomorrow and Monday.

Ah, the 24th of May Is the time we all feel gay, And we want the weather fine, So we'll all forget to whine; And enjoy ourselves, you bet, Without getting cold and wet.

IT was a blessing that war didn't break out over the holiday week-end with all our soldier boys absent at Terrace.

A MAN is a true optimist who can sing about it ain't a goin' to rain no more with the rain-drops trickling down his back collar stud.

THE definition of a real gentleman is a man who does not have to wind an alarm clock at night.

A FISHING party is rightly termed a band of hope.

IT was a henpecked husband who greased his hair so that the missiles aimed by his wife would glance from the dome of his head.

TO the youngster on his first bicycle all the world travels on wheels.

APRIL showers in May, March winds in April, summer winds in February, hot weather in January—it sure is a funny world.

IF you must knock, get a job as a mail carrier. Knocking at doors does not destroy the human outlook on life.

GIVING the news when the telegraph wires are down is about as hopeless a job as employing the harbor with a teaspoon.

EDDIE Mann stated in his speech at the graduation exercises on Friday night that he had not had an uninterrupted conversation during twelve years of married life. After listening to that brilliant speech of Eddie's all I can say is that his wife must be a whirl-wind orator.

SOME genius has suggested that everybody take a holiday when the sun shines. He is evidently making money fast and is keen on abolishing all holidays.

IT'S an old saying laugh and grow fat—but look at the hyena

A GOOD way to make money is to get a job at the government mint.

WE like to see, with martial tread, The boys go down the street. Its plain that from their harmony They'd sooner play than eat.

CAPITAL CASE JURY HARD TO ORGANIZE

RALEIGH, N.C., May 25.—Increasing opposition to capital punishment was clearly reflected here when 11 of 25 prospective jurors had to be rejected because they stated in open court they were opposed to the electric chair. This incident is expected to give impetus to an already well defined and growing movement to ask the 1927 legislature to abolish capital punishment in this state.

Mrs. Duckers and Miss Duckers of New York came north on the Gardena this week to Port Simpson where they will visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. William Sager.

"Imaginary" Rheumatism Caused by Illfitting Shoes

MANY, many times physicians have diagnosed what appears to be rheumatism, as really being pains arising from the effects of Fallen Arches.

When the foot arches begin to break down, the pain is often ascribed to a sprain or rheumatism. Pain occurs along the inside of the foot, in the heel, also the calf of the leg, and is often located in the knee or hip joints.

This condition brings on general muscular weakness—the ligaments are strained, interfering with proper nourishment of the foot. The circulation becomes poor—attendant symptoms appear—numbness, cold, and at times, undue perspiration. To prevent and cure this condition the foot must be given support, combined with the utmost freedom of movement.

Arch Defender Shoes give support to the scaphoid bone where needed, while allowing full flexibility and freedom to the muscular structure of the foot.

If you value your health—join the thousands who have banished foot trouble. Get a pair today.
