EXHIBITION OPENING THIS EVENING WITH WHOLLY NEW GENERAL SCHEME

Fair Opens Tonight at Exhibition Hall With Everything in Place

At 7.30 this evening Prince Rupert's fourteenth annual exhibition will be formally opened by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands. Intense activities have been going on at the Fair building for the past few days and by the time scheduled for opening tonight everything will be in readiness for the raising of the curtain on an exhibition that, in many respects, will probably surpass anything of its kind in the history of the city. The building was finally laid off last night, the work being in progress until an early hour this morning.

NURSE IS LOST IN MOUNTAINS

Out to Hike From Hope to Princeton Over Mountains

VANCOUVER, Sept. 14.—With only a map drawn from memory by a friend to guide her, Mary Warburton, 55 years of age, a graduate nurse, who came here three years ago from England, is believed to have met with some fatal accident when she wandered from the path while attempting a four-day hike over the mountain trail between Hope and Princeton.

Mrs. James Loft, a sister of Miss Warburton, who resides in Vancouver, stated that the nurse left the city last month with only a penknife, a frying pan, a coffee pot, light blanket, ground sheet and four days' food as equipment for the trip, according to a report from Hope where she left the train on which she set out from Vancouver.

Tracks have been found indicating she evidently mistook the route east of there.

FINAL SPEECH OF W. L. M. KING

Sees Victory Tonight and Will Deal With Stevens Incident.

PEMBROKE, Sept. 14.—"It is becoming increasingly evident that we will witness the return to power of the Liberal party with a very large majority," said Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, here last night. Mr. King addressed four mass meetings in Ottawa before closing the campaign.

"Meighen's chances are gone completely," Mr. King said, adding that all who were not Conservatives were the same and that it was majorities which made government and controlled parliaments. He predicted a solid Liberal Saskatchewan and from the Maritimes he forecasted there would be a considerable number of Liberals returned. Ontario, he said, would also return to the Liberal fold.

Referring to the denial of Hon. H. H. Stevens in regard to the "oil letter" and the claim of forgery, Mr. King asked "if the letter was a forgery, do you think Stevens would have waited until Saturday before replying?" Mr. King promised, if the Liberals were returned to power, that they would ask for a judicial inquiry into the whole business and give Stevens the chance of proving it was a forgery.

KING ISSUED A STATEMENT

Declares Meighen Position is Far Different From That of Laurier.

PEMBROKE, Ont., Sept. 14.—Mackenzie King last night issued the following statement to the Canadian Press:

"I have stated up to a fortnight ago that the Governor General's warrants to an amount exceeding $51,000,000 were issued under the direction of Mr. Meighen, the monies being employed in a variety of ways throughout Canada during the present political campaign. Mr. Meighen sought to justify his actions, stating when Sir Wilfrid Laurier dissolved Parliament in 1911 the Governor General's warrants were issued then as now to carry on pending the period of the general election and reassembling of Parliament.

"In respect to this comparison I would point out in the first instance Laurier's Government employed at the time it went to the country the confidence of Parliament. It never was defeated. Meighen's Government, on the other hand, never enjoyed the confidence of Parliament."

Heavier Vote is Being Taken In Federal Election Locally Than Last Year: 650 at Noon

There had been 650 votes polled at 12.30 today in the local federal election contest. This exceeds the total of last year's election at a similar hour when 606 votes had been registered but is short of the 745 votes at noon in the 1921 election. There was a steady movement of voters toward the polls this morning and it is still continuing this afternoon. The probability is that the votes cast in the city at this election will exceed the total of 2,228 last October and the 2,156 in 1921. The polls close at 6 o'clock this evening and, within an hour, it is expected the local count will be completed. Before 10 o'clock, unless the voting is very close, it will probably be known which candidate has won.

John Flewin, as returning officer, is presiding at this the largest polling centre in Skeena riding. His assistants are as follows:

Deputy Returning Officers—G. P. Tinker, George Hill, W. Gilchrist, J. J. Gillis, George T. Lane, A. Mackenzie, D. C. Stuart, J. O. Williamson, W. H. McCullum and H. R. Love.

Poll Clerks—R. E. Benson, H. Cherry, F. Aldridge, Ernest Cunliffe, C. V. Evitt, John Gawthorne, M. Collison, J. A. Morris, F. J. Fuller and James Hampton.

The Liberal scrutineers are H. F. Fraser, Neil Macdonald, Frank Fortune, Dave Milne, Eugene Sabourin, James Krievsky, Egerton Ireland, John Currie, L. A. Astori, Malcolm McLeod, Alex McRae and J. T. Ballinger, while the Conservative representatives are W. J. Sloan, J. W. Scott, J. Square-chuck, George Davis, J. Keays, Hugh Fraser, David Wilton, W. H. Sherman, C. V. Evitt and W. H. Waldorf.

Fair Opens Tonight, So Let Us All Go.

The Fall Fair, under the new management, with new ideas and a new layout, opens tonight and it is said to be something worth a visit from everyone. This is a local institution, one that is deserving of the support of every citizen and doubtless the people will be there. They usually are on such occasions.

The fair comes only once a year and it is supported by all the citizens. It is one of those community events which gives us an opportunity to get together in the interests of the city and neighborhood.

Make Visitors Welcome to City.

There will this week be many visitors in the city. This gives an opportunity to welcome them. Many people will keep open house during the week and others will try to extend little courtesies to those who come here from the neighboring towns or from the country. To do this tends to make Prince Rupert popular.

Visitors who are staying for a few days find life rather dull here unless they are entertained by their friends and made to feel that someone takes an interest in them. For the sake of the city let us do our part in extending the right hand of fellowship to the visitors this week.

Make the Most of What We Have Here.

The success of any community depends very largely on the ability to make the most of what it has. So it is with Prince Rupert. At present there is a big tourist business offering here each summer. It lasts but a short time, but it comes at a season when the town is apt to be otherwise quiet. If we could use greater effort to capitalize our tourist business we should doubtless succeed.

The first thing to do is to impress the railway company with the desirability of arranging for stopovers for the passengers who come this way. The ticket agents throughout the country arrange stopover plans for the tourists at Jasper, but Prince Rupert is omitted. What seems to be needed is a conference with railway officials to try to get at the bottom of the failure and find out just what steps should be taken here in order to get that business. Then when the cause of failure has been ascertained let everyone get busy and change it. We have much here for tourists and why not capitalize it as is done in other places.

Proper Celebration of Canadian Anniversary.

A movement has been started throughout Canada to have a proper celebration of the diamond jubilee of the founding of the Canadian nation properly celebrated. The impetus has come from Ontario, but there is no reason why we should not fall in line and do our part. Canada is the country of our nativity or our adoption. We are all Canadians together and if the country is good enough for a home it should be good enough for us to take a pride in and to make great.

GOOD MEETING MEN NEEDED IN HEAR LIBERALS CANADA TODAY

Hon. T. D. Pattullo and Fred Stork are Chief Speakers in Theatre

There were three speakers at the meeting held in the Liberal interests in the Westholme Theatre last evening, Thomas Reid, reeve of Surrey, Fred Stork, and Hon. T. D. Pattullo. Mr. Reid spoke briefly but well. Fred Stork outlined at some length some of the main features of the Liberal policy and Hon. T. D. Pattullo gave a splendid address in which he aroused much enthusiasm. There was a large and responsive audience. S. E. Parker presided.

Mr. Reid touched on several subjects but did not elaborate them.

Fred Stork

Mr. Stork went back to the early days of Prince Rupert and touched on some matters of interest in connection therewith. He spoke of the customs investigation and of the efforts of Liberals to clean up. He explained that most of the trouble had to do with the distilleries but there were no distillers in the Liberal party. They were all Tories. The investigation which the Liberals wanted was now going on, conducted by a judge of the supreme court and would be carried, not only to Montreal but to Vancouver, Windsor and other points if Liberals got into power.

He dealt with a number of other political matters and mentioned incidentally that everyone except Fred Stork seemed to have secured the elevator for Prince Rupert.

Mr. Stork said the electors would now be the ones to choose. If they fell he had served them faithfully he asked for support.

Minister of Lands

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, spoke of the Conservative policy of high tariff, brick for brick which was formerly theirs. Now that had been changed to a moderate tariff.

Taking up the question of the export of raw materials, Mr. Pattullo showed that Canada exported only five per cent more raw materials than the United States and most of Canada's exports were field crops, whereas those of the United States were raw cotton and tobacco leaf and similar materials used in manufacturing.

In the matter of log export Mr. Pattullo said lumber and shingles went to the U.S. free of duty; but the States put a duty on Canadian logs. Most of the logs exported were taken to Japan. These were cut from crown granted timber. The timber cut from provincial lands could not be exported except under special permit. If Canada put an embargo on raw logs it would be a good excuse for the United States to place the duty on lumber and shingles which would ruin the Canadian timber industries. "No man can live to himself alone," declared Mr. Pattullo. Every nation exports a certain amount of raw material. Conditions here were healthier than in United States. To place the Conservatives in power now would be like placing Satan in charge of heaven to improve its moral atmosphere.

Mr. Pattullo spoke of the powerful interests that were behind the Conservative party. He mentioned the revolutionary manner in which the Meighen government had seized office in which the supremacy of parliament had been flouted. He said he could not under present conditions conceive of any person voting anything but Liberal.

JASPER, Sept. 11.—"Man power is Canada's great need and once that demand is satisfied the Dominion will be one of the great and prosperous countries of the world," said St. Nihal Singh, student of economics and a writer well known to readers of serious reviews in the English language, who has been in this country for a period of two months gathering material for a volume dealing with the achievements and the aspirations of Canada, previous to his departure from Jasper Park Lodge. Continuing his journey to the Pacific Coast he uttered the foregoing observation as a result of recent experiences.

"I was first in Canada nineteen years ago," said Mr. Singh, "and I now find a change in attitude towards the important problem of population with a disposition to a more open door. That is what is needed, an open door with, of course, proper restrictions to see that the right people come in and go to the land. I find that those in authority and those of influence now see the importance of admitting people from the continent of Europe who are agriculturists. These peoples generally are hard workers and men who work hard will truly build up the land and make the country prosperous."

Mr. Singh paid a tribute to the colonization department of the Canadian National Railways in obtaining such a good type of settlers.

While gathering material for his forthcoming volume, Mr. Singh uses the camera freely and is a photographer of professional ability. The scenic beauties of Jasper stirred him but, he sadly confessed, "I am afraid I have wasted much film and I despair of catching the fading sunset as it glows on the snows of Mount Edith Cavell."

BRINGING UP FATHER

JUNIOR SOCCER STARTS AGAIN

Interesting Games Are Anticipated Before Season Ends.

With the re-opening of the schools after the summer vacation, the Junior Football League once again resumes operations. A very interesting series is assured before the schedule can be completed.

The outstanding feature of the series so far was the defeat of the Booth team by Borden, in a replayed fixture. As Booth had not been beaten since June, 1925, this was a feather in the cap of the Bordenites.

All teams will have changes in their line-ups. Many of the senior players are now no longer available and new ones will get their chance.

The improvement in the standard of play by the boys calls forth much favorable comment by their elders and warrants a bigger attendance at the games. All who are interested in the development of clean, manly sports should give the boys their support and they will find themselves well repaid by the hard fought games the boys put up.

The league committee is meeting on Wednesday evening and the schedule for the remaining games will be drawn up and published immediately after.

Standing of Teams table with columns P, W, L, D, Pts. Rows for Booth, Borden, High.

Lieut. Commander Jones, Royal Canadian Naval Reserve staff officer, arrived from Ottawa on Sunday afternoon's train and, after paying a visit of inspection to the local detachment, sailed for Vancouver.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

Yes, this is election day. So election bets we'll pay. By midnight tonight, We'll know who is right. And who for five years will sway over the Fair since the election is over.

The smoke is clearing and pretty soon we shall return to normal, thank the powers that be.

If anyone says elections after tonight, just prod him one in the region of the solar plexus.

Let's just listen for the whistle of the first grain train. It will be like sweet music to our ears.

Any more puns on the name of the Liberal candidate are taboo after this.

Whoever is beaten tonight, let us be good losers. We can't both win.

Jake says he likes elections because it gives him a chance to win some money.

The moment a man gets the idea that the girls are all after him, he is on the road to becoming a confirmed bachelor.

The happy man is the one who can make money faster than he women of his household can spend it.

The poor are always with us. They are mostly poor prunes.

Some people have an election complex, but they had better get it aside for a few years now.

The objection to easy money is that the other fellow always gets it.

Some of the election would be. He said that the settlers of the interior looked to this port as their salvation and declared that the Conservative party stood for the development of Prince Rupert. Here as elsewhere there was a need of protection from foreign competition. The candidate also pledged himself to support such an estimate as that for the building of a fishermen's float here.

Questionnaires

Mr. Brady then proceeded to answer questionnaires that had been submitted by the Trades and Labor Council. He would be opposed to the Senate interfering with the desires of the people. A friend of labor, he would be in favor of peaceful picketing. The repeal of the 1919 amendments to the Immigration Act and Criminal Code he said would come as a matter of course. The people knew where the Conservative party stood with regard to Old Age Pensions.

As for the abolition of appeals to the privy council, Mr. Brady expressed confidence that in time was coming when Canada would not have to take such recourse with regard to legal affairs. He would hail the day with gladness when he could register his children as "Canadian." As for a national flag, Mr. Brady declared that the Union Jack should always form a part of the Canadian flag. As for appropriations from the government for the development of Canadian art, literature, music and science, Mr. Brady said that was "the dream of my life." He would be in favor of having the word "Canadian" on legal documents where it seemed appropriate.

CONSERVATIVES' FINAL MEETING

Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., Rev. E. G. Turner, Mrs. A. J. Peterson and J. C. Brady Speakers Last Night

The Conservatives had another good campaign meeting last night at the Auditorium to hear Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., M.L.A., Rev. E. G. Turner, Mrs. A. J. Peterson, and J. C. Brady, the candidate for Skeena, give their final charge to the electorate. The chair was occupied by J. H. Thompson and the Boys Band, under Bandmaster Wilson, had been engaged to lend further enthusiasm to the proceedings. The Conservative campaign in Skeena was thus brought to a close in as lavish a manner as it had been conducted throughout.

Col. Peck, in opening his address, directed an attack against the Daily News and, in speaking of his war record, declared that he had been done honor by the entire press of Canada except one paper in his home town where he should have had the most reason for expecting honor to be done him. The Colonel referred to his parliamentary record declaring that he had been responsible for the breaking of the canneries combine. He also took credit for the policy of the exclusion of Orientals from the salmon fisheries which he said had been instituted in the last year that he was member before Fred Stork was elected. The Colonel declared that Capt. Nicholson and Col. Cunningham had been enemies of the town and that he (Col. Peck) had had the satisfaction of seeing them "down and out."

Real Issue. The Colonel diminished the importance of the constitutional question and said that the great moral issue was the customs scandal. The people of Canada would not shirk their responsibilities at this election and the Conservative party was in the full stride of victory. Rev. E. G. Turner referred to his series of sermons last winter on "The Man Who Did It." He stood for cleanliness in civic administration and also in national affairs. That was why he was supporting the Conservative party at this election. The Liberals had employed "repulsive and disgusting" tactics in this campaign he said.

Mrs. A. J. Peterson said that she would be "an everlasting disgrace" if the Liberal party was returned to power. The women she said were against Canada being given away to a foreign country.

J. S. Brady said that the people of the district were generally dissatisfied with conditions as they existed and they were looking to the Conservative party for relief. Everywhere he had been given a great welcome and found people in accord with his sentiments. He had the utmost confidence as to what the out-

ABOUT WOMEN THEIR DOINGS

Will Forgive Enemies

"I die as a Christian, thanking all those who have been good to me, and pardoning those who have done me evil and slandered me so greatly."

These words are from the British will of the Dowager Princess of Monaco, who was Miss Marie Alice Heine, of New Orleans, which disposes of $150,000 worth of property in Great Britain.

The dowager princess was the second wife of the late Prince Albert I, of Monaco, and was divorced by him in 1902. She was married to the duke de Richelieu before her marriage to Prince Albert of Monaco.

Housekeeping a "Hobby"

Housekeeping is the latest hobby of British girls. Mrs. D. Cottingham Taylor, director of the Institute of Housekeeping and Domestic Science, says most of this talk about the modern girl caring only for pleasure is rot.

"It is true that a conspicuous few women give the impression that modern women is highly frivolous," she said, "but you may be assured there never was a time that modern woman is highly frivolous in the home and its problems."

Lady Oxford a Sheik

Lady Oxford—better known to the general public as Margot Asquith—was one of the most completely disguised dancers at the costume ball given by Mrs. Harry Brown, the American hostess, one of the most brilliant social events of the London season. Lady Oxford was dressed as a sheik and wore a thick black beard which was better than a mask.

Defends South Sea Girls

Beautiful half-caste girls do not run around in a very few clothes, harming young Englishmen down on the Gold Coast.

Princess Marie Louise, cousin of King George, says the play, "White Cargo," is a "cruel libel, utterly false and untrue." The Princess recently visited the Gold Coast and letters about her trip which she wrote to her sister, Princess Helena Victoria, have just been published.

When Mary Clare played the role of Tondeleyo in the first London production of "White Cargo" the censorship forced her to extend her costume very materially, but even in the more se-date apparel she won great favor and the play ran for nearly two years.

"Maidens" Change Name

The largest girls' organization in Japan, The Maidens' Society, which is semi-official and whose purpose is entirely patriotic, is preparing to change its name to the Young Women's Association. The society has a membership of 150,000, with 13,000 local bodies.

Exchange Bars Women

The Paris Stock Exchange remains barred to women although so many these days are taking a direct interest in its operations. There was a time when they were admitted to the gallery, but in 1893, when anarchists were placing bombs in all sorts of places, the Stockholders' Association passed a regulation that no woman should be admitted, as it was feared that one might introduce a bomb, concealed in her clothing.

The regulation remains in force although the danger would seem to have been minimized if not entirely removed by women's clothing of today.

BARGAINS IN FOUR PIECE SUITS FOR BOYS

Montreal Importers Have Received Large Shipment of Special Values for Fall.

BOYS' HARD WEARING CLOTHING

Four piece suits are the latest for the boys — coat, waistcoat, long pants and knickers. And the Montreal Importers have them in a large variety of patterns. They have just arrived from the east and are all marked at Montreal prices. Most mothers know how the boys' pants wear. They wear faster than the coat or waistcoat. With a pair of long pants in addition to the knickers, these suits will remain dressy and smart until the coat shows signs of wear also. That's the great advantage with these four piece suits. And how the boys like to have a crease down their trousers! Just like their fathers.

These smart suits come in sizes to fit boys from 8 to 16 years. They are in nice Cheviots in blue, gray and drab in a variety of patterns and all in the latest styles. And the price is 89.95 per suit! This is only one specimen of our Montreal prices.

Now, mothers, here is a chance to get some change back out of a $20 bill and at the same time have an extra suit for your boy, that will wear and wear, and have him dressed as well as clothed. There never has been value like this offered in Prince Rupert before and while the selection is full and the range complete, it will pay you to look these over.—Adv't.

WAS DRUNK BUT NOT MURDERER

Coroner and Doctor Went to Babine Lake and Exhumed Child's Body

SMITHERS, Sept. 14.—Peculiar circumstances surrounding the death of an Indian child on one of the Indian rancheries at the head of Babine Lake called for an investigation and a party of guardians of law and order made the trip to the far away village returning to Smithers Saturday morning after satisfying themselves that no evil deed had been done.

The alleged murder was of a four months old infant, the father of whom, Sebastine Jim, had been imbibing too freely of the white man's firewater and became abusive and rough with his family. The child died soon after and the police were advised that death might not have been natural.

In the interests of justice Coroner S. H. Hoskins, accompanied by Dr. Geo. Paine of Telkwa, Sergt. Service of the Provincial Police, and Corp. Bryce and a constable of the R.C.M.P., made the trip of investigation. The prisoner Sebastine Jim, who was being held on the charge of drunkenness was also taken along. The expedition went overland from Topley horse-back, taking four days for the round trip.

The village where the child was buried has a population of about 350 but in about five minutes after their arrival, the police were exhuming the body and after a thorough post mortem examination, death was found to have been caused by natural causes, no evidence of violence being found.

Sebastine was brought back to Smithers and on Saturday morning was tried on the charge of drunkenness. He was found guilty and fined $50.00.
