FIRST CASE OF SABOTAGE IS REPORTED

TALK OF STRIKE ENDING BUT NOTHING TANGIBLE ON WHICH TO BASE IT

First Case of Sabotage in Strike Was Reported Today That Flying Scotchman Wrecked Yesterday

leged important defections among railwaymen but main body of strikers remain out; nothing tangible toward settlement

LONDON, May 11.—The first case of serious sabotage of the general strike began was reported today. The famous "Flying Scotchman," ordinarily the fastest train in Great Britain, coming from Edinburgh to London with 400 passengers aboard, was wrecked yesterday at Crumlington, a mining district near Newcastle.

A misplaced rail, which the authorities believe was deliberately pulled up, caused the wreck. An engine and two coaches went over and, but for the fact of the train moving slowly at the time, there might have been serious casualties. As it was, one person was injured.

ACCIDENTS ON RAILWAYS FROM STRIKE CAUSES

Trains Met Disaster and Four Persons Were Killed Yesterday in England

LONDON, May 11.—The first serious railway accidents since the beginning of the strike occurred Monday, causing four deaths and serious injury to 20 others.

Near Edinburgh a passenger train managed by a volunteer collided with a freight train. Three were killed and a number hurt.

Another accident occurred at a bridge when one person was killed and several persons injured.

STRIKE SHOWN TO BE ILLEGAL

Attorney General in Chancery Declares Those Inciting It Not Protected Under Laws

LONDON, May 11.—A general strike is illegal, Mr. Justice Astle declared in the chancery division today, and those inciting or participating in it are not protected under the laws. An injunction was brought against the leaders of the sailors' and firemen's unions restraining them from calling on the men to refuse orders from the general headquarters of the union.

AUTO TARIFF IS TO STAND

Change Will be Made in Reduction of Duties as Announced by Finance Minister

OTTAWA, May 11.—There will be no general changes in the automobile tariff from those announced in the budget speech, declared Finance Minister Robb at the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. While some amendments will be added to clarify the administration of the proposals, there will be no change as to principal.

Privy Council

King George held a privy council at Buckingham Palace this morning but whether for the purpose of ratification of further emergency measures was not disclosed.

A government spokesman, outlining the situation beginning the eighth day of the strike said there had been important defections among the railwaymen but that the main body of strikers remained out. The whole country was quiet, he added, and transportation services were steadily expanding and measures for the protection of volunteers were proving adequate.

Although numerous reports of a possible settlement of the strike were heard, nothing tangible has been brought forth as yet. Sir Herbert Samuel, chairman of the royal coal commission, returned from Egypt and stated that they have had unofficial conferences with the miners and owners. While there have been as yet no general outbreaks or disturbances, much bitterness is being evinced by strikers, who resent the military character of the government's precautions in protecting food convoys and continued recruiting of special constables.

Conscientious Objectors

As during the war, the general strike produced "conscientious objectors," numerous strikers refusing to ride on trains operated by volunteers. Also they refuse to eat food cooked by strike breakers.

VANCOUVER, May 11.—Premier Oliver arrived last night from Ottawa where he has been urging the claims of British Columbia for recognition in the matter of unalienated lands in the railway belt for railway purposes.

Mr. Oliver said he refused to believe any suggestion that the Federal department of Justice would not entertain the claims of the Province. He declared that he had not given up hope eventually of winning his point and intimated that the fight of B.C. for compensation was far from ended. "The situation is not better than it was and it is no worse than it was," was the way he summed up the result of his trip.

Possibility of Strike Ending Soon is Mentioned by Leader of Miners Organization in London Interview

LONDON, May 11.—Indications of an easing in the general strike deadlock became more pronounced this afternoon. A. J. Cook, head of the miners' organization, declared that peace is possible at any moment on terms that will give security to the miners. Numerous persons have been approaching the leaders of the miners, he asserted, with a view to settling the deadlock.

At the same time the government spokesman informed the newspapers that "without being unduly optimistic, I think we may say the tide has turned. There is a tendency all over the country for the strikers to drift back."

Union officials deny this, saying the solidarity of the men is being maintained.

Losing Battle Of Old Against New.

The old has always fought a losing battle against the new. At one time those who dared tell the truth were burned at the stake and whole sects or groups were put to the sword. The world is divided into those who are willing to keep pace with modern developments and those who cling to the old. Oom Paul Kruger, president of the Transvaal Republic, until the day of his death, insisted that the earth was flat. But it was not.

A new group has arisen to fight for the old as against the new. This group is known as the "Bible Crusaders of America." They are the Bryanites of that country who are waving their tiny arms against the incoming tide and asking it to go back. They say they are out in defense of Christ and the Bible. Happily their campaign will arouse people to think out things for themselves and by drawing attention to a great scientific fact will possibly forward the cause of real education. Here is a circular they are sending out:

Fundamentalist Campaign In States And Canada.

The Bible Crusaders of America, having completed two great campaigns in Florida and Mississippi against the teaching of evolution in the public schools, both of which were highly successful, are now launching a nation-wide campaign to reach into every state and Canada and to combine as allies, fundamentalist laymen in the Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and other denominations into one great offensive and defensive alliance.

George F. Washburn of Boston, and Clearwater, Florida, will be the Commanding General of this great campaign. He has associated with him, distinguished educators, editors, clergymen and statesmen whose influence extends into the United States Congress and into the King's Council of Canada.

This sensational crusade is amply financed and has an official weekly magazine, known as "The Crusaders' Champion." The object of this denominational alliance is to combine the orthodox press, pulpit and educational institutions into one powerful federation, in defense of Christ and the Bible, and to drive evolution from the public schools of America.

Says Are Conspiracies And Intrigues.

In commenting on this newest Crusade, General Washburn said, "When the truth is told about the conspiracies and intrigues of modernists in high places, as it will be, and certain revelations are made concerning institutions that are fountain heads of obscenity, there will be an uprising of the Christian people of this country, that will shake the nation. We proved our statements in our former campaigns and we will do so in this one."

"Protestantism is breaking down in America as in Continental Europe, and to avoid this here, the battle of the ages is now on between Christianity and Evolution to save the day. There will be startling revelations which will shock the people, and the break is sure to come between the Christian and Evolutionist, members of the same church, and, if inevitable, why not now?"

"The church of God cannot continue half pagan, half Christian. One or the other must go down."

General Washburn also said: "The great power, when united, of this vast Fundamentalist army can be estimated, when it is known that they easily outnumber, in America alone, all the armies of the World War, and these men will stand like Spartans as 'defenders of the faith' to the end. Men will fight better and longer for their religion than for their politics or anything else."

SHERIFF WAS PIONEER OF
THE COUNTY

Appointed to Atlin at the Same Time Judge Young Was Sent North

The death of the oldest member of the civil service in Prince Rupert district and probably the oldest in the entire province of British Columbia, John Shirley, sheriff of Prince Rupert county, which took place early yesterday afternoon in the Prince Rupert General Hospital where he had been a patient for the past several years, has removed one of the oldest pioneers of this city and one of its most esteemed citizens. He was 82 years of age.

Through so many summers and winters, many of them filled with hardship and adventure, passed since first he saw the light of day back in Ontario, Sheriff Shirley seemed to have been treated very kindly by Father Time and up to a short time before his death he still executed his official duties in Prince Rupert with the vigor and despatch of one far younger in years. Indeed, those who came in contact with him would have placed his years at least twenty less than the actual 82.

Born on February 29, 1844, on the farm of his father in Montagu township, six miles from Smith's Falls, Ont., Sheriff Shirley was the fifth of a family of ten. His father, John Shirley, was a native of Wexford, Ireland, and came to Canada at the age of six years. That was over 120 years ago, and the homestead near Ottawa at that time was indeed a pioneer one set in the primeval woods.

Jane Kidd, mother of Sheriff Shirley, also came from Wexford, Ireland, at the age of nine and settled with her family near Smith's Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Sr. died over thirty years ago within ten months of each other.

Brothers Living

Three of Sheriff Shirley's brothers are still living—two older and one younger. The older ones are William, who is in the United States, and Thomas, who still lives on the old homestead at Smith's Falls and is the grandfather of the fourth generation on the same farm. The younger brother, Isaac, lives at Metcalfe, Ont. The other members of the family, all of whom lived to a ripe old age, have now passed away. The last to die was George M. Shirley, younger brother of the sheriff and with whom he shared all of the adventures and experiences in the West, who passed away in Prince Rupert on February 14, 1923.

Sheriff Shirley left the old home at an early age to attend school in Toronto and 62 years ago with his brother, George, arrived in Western Ontario. In 1882 the brothers came to Manitoba and it was in Brandon where John Shirley had his schooling as a sheriff, being deputy there for five years. Going to Calgary in 1887, the Sheriff engaged in office work and remained there for nine years. In the meantime, his brother George had gone to the United States and married, his wife dying not long afterwards.

Went to Yukon

Rejoined by his brother, Sheriff Shirley, responding to the wild lure of gold, left Calgary bound for the Yukon and in January 1897 sailed for the north on the old steamer Willapa which was making a special run with an overflow of gold seekers from the steamer Tees. Leaving the ship at Wrangell, the brothers went up the Slikine River and over the Ashcroft-Teslin trail into Atlin. The several hundred mile trip overland from Wrangell to Atlin was fraught with many delays and it took over twelve months, dog team being the principal mode of travel. However, they arrived safely at Atlin in March, 1899.

For a couple of years Sheriff Shirley mined with his brother but this was not altogether successful although, like many others, they spent much money. He then went into the wood and water business with dogs and made good at this. In 1902 Mr. Shirley received the appointment of deputy sheriff, the head office then being Vancouver. In April 1905, with the creation of the separate county of Atlin he was named sheriff on the same day that F. McB. Young was made county court judge. When the administrative headquarters of Atlin district was brought to Prince Rupert, Sheriff Shirley also moved here arriving in January 1910. He was a resident of the city ever since.

First Trip Out

Four years ago last fall, Sheriff Shirley went to Vancouver to give evidence in the Engineer Mine case and this was his first and last visit south in 27 years.

Sheriff Shirley was the only member of his family who never married.

The funeral will take place next Saturday afternoon from St. Andrew's Cathedral with Archdeacon G. A. Rix officiating. The late Sheriff Shirley was an active member of St. Andrew's Anglican Church, having been a sidesman for many years.

ZAM-BUK

is based on a
2000 Year-old Secret

JUST as Nature has given to man the instinct to rub his hurts, so in her wonderful storehouse of herbs she provides the ideal substance to rub with. The Gladiators of Ancient Rome knew this secret. Their precious herbal balms had magic healing powers.

After 2000 years, the secret of natural healing has been rediscovered. In Zam-Buk we have to-day the identical skin-growing property of the ancient costly balms, with the additional purity and refinement which only modern scientific skill can bring.

Directly Zam-Buk is smeared on a jagged wound or obstinate sore, an extraordinary regeneration of the tissues begins. All pain and itching dies away, inflammation is allayed, poisonous influences which hinder healing are neutralized, and there is a speedy growth of new skin.

Zam-Buk is "the handy skin doctor" in a million homes because it is so quickly soothing and effective. Zam-Buk's absolute reliability comes from its pure herbal character and entire freedom from animal fats.

If you have a wound, sore or an ulcer that defies ordinary ointments, or if you suffer from a fiery eruption about the neck—Zam-Buk is the friend you need. This great soothes and heals; it is also unequalled for cuts, burns, scalds, bad legs, ringworm, poisoned sores, children's scalp troubles and for general dermatological use.

DEATH RESULT NATURAL CAUSE

Inquest on Late Thirza Fox Indicates That She Suffered From Cardiac Affection

That deceased came to her death from natural causes was the verdict returned at noon today by the coroner's jury that sat at the inquest into the death of Thirza Fox, the 17-year old girl who died suddenly on Saturday morning last.

J. R. Tannock, coroner, presided at the inquest and the witnesses were Dr. J. P. Cade, Dr. C. A. Egger, Mrs. Isaac Lear, Mrs. W. J. Seherk, Carl Barnes and Sergeant McGlinchy.

Dr. Cade, who performed a post-mortem examination, testified that the right lung was in a pleuritic condition and gave his opinion that there was a cardiac affection due to influenza giving rise to an embolus which might have caused almost immediate death.

The jury consisted of A. W. Edge, foreman, G. A. Bryant, George Hill, M. McArthur, Dan Jabour and L. Murray Fuller.

VESSELS CARRYING GRAIN FROM HEAD OF LAKES RAPIDLY

WINNIPEG, May 11.—Grain in store at the head of the Lakes is being moved rapidly eastward, 67 boats carrying 14,792,000 bushels having been cleared the twin cities from Tuesday to Saturday of last week. The Canadian National Railways, during that period unloaded 1417 cars and grain in country elevators along their lines, since the lifting of loading restrictions, will be transferred to Fort William and Port Arthur for shipment by boat to eastern markets. On Saturday 631 cars were moved from prairie points, leaving in store 15,800,000 bushels, as compared with approximately 3,000,000 at the same date last year. Some grain is still moving west to export via Vancouver. Loading for the season totalled to May 7, 137,802 cars, 187,343,000 bushels, the figures for the corresponding period of the previous season being 75,687 cars and 115,054,000.

PREPARING FOR SHRINERS HERE

City is Putting on Gala Appearance for Ceremonial and Attendant Festivities this Week.

Preparations are now nearing completion for the ceremonial of Gizeh Temple of the Mystic Shrine and attendant festivities that will take place in Prince Rupert on Thursday and Friday. Three arches have been erected—that of the city at the corner of Third Avenue and Fulton Street, the Shriners' on Third Avenue at Fifth Street and that of the railway company at the foot of the overhead vehicular approach to the wharf. Suitable adornments and inscriptions are being placed on the arches.

At the Exhibition Hall, local members of the Shrine have been busy day and night getting the big auditorium ready for certain of the ceremonial exercises and the Shrine Ball that it to be held on Friday night. There has been a great deal of decorating going on in the Fair Building and, by the appointed time, it will present a more gala appearance than it has ever done before.

The big party of Shriners will reach here aboard the steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. D. Donald, shortly before noon on Thursday and they will remain here until midnight Friday night. It will be one of the most spectacular and important excursions that has ever visited Prince Rupert. Some forty candidates are to be initiated into the Shrine here and already initiates from district points are reaching the city. Quite a number of those who will "travel over the burning sands," however, will be local citizens.

TARIFF UNDER FIRE IN U.S. BLOCK SALE U.S. VESSELS DOLLAR LINE

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 11.— (By Canadian Press).— For one reason and another, largely political, there has been prolonged delay in forcing a real test of the flexible tariff law in the Supreme Court of the United States.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 11.— (By Canadian Press).— Belief here is that as a result of the investigation which has been ordered by the Senate Commerce committee into the proposed sale of the American-Oriental Mail Line to the Dollar Line, this sale will be blocked.
