CLEANUP GOING ON TODAY IN TIA JUANA

VANCOUVER STOREKEEPER SHOT BY BANDIT WHO STOLE TWENTY DOLLARS

Murder Charge Against Seven Men Connection Outrage at Tia Juana

If found guilty culprits will face firing squad; cleanup commenced today on both sides of Mexican Boundary

TIA JUANA, Feb. 15.—On both sides the international boundary this morning moves were under way against the vice conditions here which were brought into prominence by the Pelet tragedy, which resulted yesterday in murder charges being presented in the Mexican courts against seven men held in connection with the attacks on the two Pelet girls. If found guilty the prosecution will ask that the seven face a firing squad.

Seventy-five per cent of the saloons are likely to close as result of orders from Governor Rodriguez placing them under $10,000 cash bonds and restricting the saloons to two streets.

All four members of the Pelet family, father, mother, and two girls, committed suicide by turning on the gas in their room because of shame at the two girls having been outraged here.

By the end of this week the 250,000 bushel terminal grain elevator at this port will be finally completed by the contractors, Carter-Halls-Adinger Co. Ltd. and, by the end of the month, it is expected that the plant will have been formally turned over by the contractor to the Department of Trade and Commerce. Before this takes place, C. D. Howe, head of C. D. Howe & Co. Ltd., the designing and supervising engineers, will arrive in the city and W. N. Chater, who has been engineer in charge throughout the carrying out of the contract, will remain here until he arrives.

PICTURES GONE IN BIG FIRE

Four Lives Lost in Effort to Save Works of Art When Mansion in Cheshire Burns

Election at Prince Albert Today Where Premier Mackenzie King is Being Opposed by Burgess

PRINCE ALBERT, Feb. 15.—Polling is taking place here in the election in which Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King is seeking election following his defeat at the general election in North York. All indications point to a heavy vote. The independent candidate, D. L. Burgess, who is opposing the Premier, has been active during the past two weeks and has been putting up a good fight, backed largely by Conservatives.

Reports at noon today stated that many voters had already appeared at the polls and that the country roads were in good shape and favorable to getting to be, it will be several days, probably, before the final returns are in.

Radical Proposals made by Reg. Hayward, M.P.P. of Victoria in Address to Women on Defectives

VICTORIA, Feb. 15.—Reginald Hayward, Conservative member for this city in the legislature, made some radical and rather sensational recommendations in an address to the Local Council of Women here. Following investigation into the condition of mental hospitals he came out as an advocate of birth control and compulsory sterilization of those unfit to reproduce. In his report, which had been carefully prepared in writing, in which he spoke of the overcrowding at the provincial mental hospitals.

"They (the subnormal) will continue to increase just so long as the subnormal type of patient is permitted to propagate his kind," said Mr. Hayward, leading up to his argument on behalf of sterilization of the subnormal and mentally defective of both sexes. The community was dotted over with many of both sexes who were subnormal, yet not institutional cases, men and women who were a source of serious danger to the community in that they married and raised families. Statistics showed beyond doubt that a large proportion of the children of such marriages possessed an even lower type of mentality than their parents. These children found their way into the mental asylums and prisons. They, in turn, also had families, and eventually the lowest type of idiot was produced, a growing burden to the taxpayer, a growing menace to civilization, a growing population whose lives were a misery to themselves and those around them.

Store Proprietor Was Murdered Last Night by Bandits Who Shot Him

VANCOUVER, Feb. 15.—John Bogres, 46 years of age, proprietor of a confectionery and soft drink store at 694 Gambie Street, was shot and almost instantly killed by an unknown bandit shortly after ten o'clock last night.

Two men entered the place and one of them covered a clerk named Dallas. The latter, thinking it was a practical joke, hesitated and Bogres behind the counter made a remark, whereupon the man with the gun turned and fired point blank, the bullet entering the man's left breast. The victim sank to the floor and died in a short time.

Meanwhile the second of the two men crouched behind the counter, opened the cash register, robbed it of about $20 and with his companion, left the store.

A number of people were attracted to the place by the shooting but the two bandits hurried past them and fled, followed by a number of men and by the police who had arrived. The pursuers kept in sight of the bandits as far as Hastings Street where they were lost sight of and escaped.

SPARRED TWO ROUNDS FELL TO FLOOR AND DIED IMMEDIATELY

TACOMA, Feb. 15.—Walter Jones, 19 years of age of Tacoma, well-known weight boxer died yesterday of heart trouble while working out in a gymnasium here in preparation for a coming bout. He sparred two rounds with another boxer and just as time was called he sank on the floor and died almost immediately.

MAKING ALASKA TIMBER LEASES BETTER ASSET

Elimination of Clause is Eliminating Possession of Timber on More Permanent Basis

JUNEAU, Feb. 15.—District Forester Flory announced here that the department of agriculture has eliminated the provisions in the Alaska Forest service that permitted the Secretary of Agriculture to cancel pulp timber contracts without the action being reviewed by the courts. This is regarded as an asset in the effort to establish an Alaskan pulp and paper manufacturing industry. One difficulty in the past has been the lack of permanency of the timber supply in view of the immense investment required in the industry.

CAPTAINS ARE REPRIMANDED

Union Skippers Also Praised for Energy and Coolness and Get Certificates Back

VICTORIA, Feb. 15.—Responsibility for the collision in a fog off Sechart on December 27 between two Union Steamship Company's vessels, the Lady Cynthia and the Cowichan, which resulted in the sinking of the latter, is divided equally between Captain Robert Wilson of the Cowichan and Capt. John Boden of the Lady Cynthia in a judgment handed down by Wreck Commissioner J. D. Macpherson of the marine court, which investigated the affair.

Although both masters are severely reprimanded in the judgment "they undoubtedly deserve greatest credit for the energy and coolness they both displayed after." Their certificates were both returned.

Taxes In Canada And Other Countries.

There's an organization back east that spends its time delving into statistics and sometimes it digs up some interesting things. Some of the members have been hearing politicians during election time tell how heavily Canada was taxed so they set to work and pretty soon they find out exactly how the matter stands.

According to the figures quoted, and there is no reason to believe them untrue, Canadian people pay in taxes, national, provincial and municipal, the sum of $66.11 a year each. This is less than they pay in the United States, Australia or Great Britain, three countries that are often quoted. People in United States pay $67.39 each, in Australia $69.68, and in Great Britain $97.12.

The difficulty with comparisons in taxation is that some countries collect most of theirs from national taxation, others from provincial or state taxation and again others from municipal taxation. It matters little which way as long as they have to pay. The only fair comparison is a total of all three.

It does not make out, however, to know that others have to pay more, but it does give us satisfaction to know that all the blue rain talk we have heard is purely piffle.

H. H. Stevens And Smuggling Charges.

Recently Hon. H. H. Stevens of Vancouver made some very wild charges against the customs department of the Dominion Government. He stated that the government was losing thirty million dollars a year from the admission of contraband. This is supposed to all come from the United States. The odd thing is that the total amount of customs duties paid on import of U.S. goods is seventy-five million dollars.

If any person believes that half the goods entering Canada from U.S. are smuggled in, he is indeed credulous. He would believe almost anything. There probably are bad customs officers but not any more in that branch of the public service than in any other.

Dividends Necessary In All Industrial Concerns.

People invest their money in the hope that they may secure dividends. That is the main purpose in all normal investments. If there were no prospective dividends, there would be no investment. It would be better to bury the money in the ground than to lend it and get no return.

Some companies pay high dividends but many pay none. Take the Granby Company as an example. It has paid no dividends for several years. While it is expected that dividend payments will be resumed soon, the loss arising from the lack of dividends for several years will probably never be made up.

Investigate Possibility Of Paying Dividends.

When investing money one of the first things to do is to investigate the possibility of the concern paying dividends. That is true of mining stocks, oil stocks or the more stable industrial concerns. Dividends are necessary to induce investment. If there is no probability of getting dividend returns, better keep the money in the bank. It is safer there.

The average small investor allows himself to be talked into some undertaking that can never pay dividends or where the possibility of payment is very remote. It is useless to warn these people. They will continue to do the same thing over and over again. They will put in money and lose it and then put more cash into other similar concerns. "Once a sucker, always a sucker," is almost an idiom of frenzied finance. All that is needed is a clever salesman and a scheme with plenty of "talking points" but without any shadow of real merit and the suckers bite. And the one great idea behind it all is the desire to get rich quick or to get something for nothing.

PREMIER STOCK PRICES LOW

Possible Explanation of Situation Given by Financial Post in a Recent Issue

Why does Premier Mines, Port-land Canal area, paying 32c a share, par value 81 yielding about 15 per cent., not sell higher? The above question is frequently asked. It is sent to The Financial Post almost weekly by subscribers from different parts of the country says that paper.

The answer has been hard to get but what is said to be the real explanation was recently communicated to The Post by a B.C. mining authority, in a position to know the facts. He says that Guggenheim interests with the support of other large interests in the company are able to control about 51 1/2 per cent of the stock. They do not want the shares to sell high. Premier has had a remarkable dividend record having paid something like 88,000,000 in five years and is now distributing 8 cents per share quarterly, 32 cents a year, involving a distribution of $400,000 each quarter. Recently the company increased its milling capacity from 150 to 400 tons and increased its power development by two thirds. The company has remarkable high grade ore bodies with a tremendous tonnage of low grade. Our informant says that if the proposition was handled as it might be the company could be distributing now $750,000 quarterly instead of $400,000 quarterly. Guggenheims own Tacoma smelter. They need a tremendous tonnage of flux for this smelter. Instead of bringing the milling capacity of the Premier up to the point where it would be capable of treating the tremendous low grade tonnage in the mine they have been shipping $6 and $7 ore from the mine at Portland Canal down the Pacific to the Tacoma smelter. When the haulage and smelter charges are paid there is little left for the mine.

Our informant also says that after a recent discovery that a high grade body on B.C. silver dipped into Premier was made, the stock never moved. If it had been any other proposition the stock would have doubled. Seemingly, though, the real reason for the cheapness of the shares is that Guggenheims never wanted the stock high, fearing that if there was a collapse at any time, it would injure their standing in British Columbia.

BARTHELMESS HERE TONIGHT IN COMEDY STORY SHORE LEAVE

"Shore Leave," the new Richard Barthelmess production which opens at the Westholme Theatre tonight is a delightful comedy novelty. The picture is based upon the Broadway stage hit by Hubert Osborne, and portrays the romance of a harem-scarem young sailor, "Bilge" Smith, and a little dressmaker, Connie Martin, of a small New England seacoast town.

Connie loses her heart at the chance meeting, but "Bilge," being a job on one of Uncle Sam's battleships, moves on with the battle fleet. Connie is unable to forget the young sailor and she starts out to find him. Connie's quest provides the story of "Shore Leave."

Aside from being a distinct film novelty, "Shore Leave" provides a remarkable comedy characterization for Dick. It has been pronounced one of his best performances, if not his best. This is saying a lot, when his fine characterizations, ranging from the mountain boy of "Tollable David" to the shell-shocked soldier of "The Enchanted Cottage," are considered. Here Barthelmess proves that he is a romantic comedian of striking attainments.

"Shore Leave," too, affords splendid opportunities for Dorothy Mackaill in the role of Connie Martin, which in the stage version was played by Frances Starr. Miss Mackaill does delightful work as Connie.

Many of the scenes of "Shore Leave" were filmed on board the United States Battleship Arkansas. The Navy Department gave Barthelmess its full co-operation in the making of "Shore Leave," it is said.

MELODRAMA HERE IN THE LIMITED MAIL MID-WEEK AT THEATRE

Story of Three Hoboes is Filled With Thrills and Tense Situations

The Melodrama, "Limited Mail" coming for the mid-week theatre showing tells the story of three hoboes and their subsequent fortunes. This is the story:

The Limited Mail is roaring through a storm in the Colorado mountains. As it sweeps down the curving roadbed, a terrific landslide catapults tons of dirt across the tracks. Three tramps, seeing the lights of the train high in the hills, know that the passengers face death unless the obstruction is removed. Working with frenzied haste they have the tracks cleared as the train is upon them.

Jim Fowler, the train mail clerk, invites the trio of hoboes aboard the train. One of the three proves to be Bob Snobson, son of wealthy New York parents, who have disowned him because of an affair with a flashy adventurer.

Falling in Love

Jim brings Bob with him to his home, and there they find that Jim's wife has died, leaving a baby boy, whom they name Bobbie. The two men agree to bring the youngster up. Bob gets a job as a freight engineer, and for four years enjoys hard work and primitive simplicity. He is falling in love with Caroline Dale, a pretty waitress at a railroad buffet, when the adventures, Jane Gordon, again crosses his path.

Jane's arrival sets him brooding over his misfortunes, so that one night when he is ordered to take out the Limited Mail, he misses a danger signal. The Mail crashes into another train; cars are telescoped and over turned; hundreds of passengers are injured. And Bob's closest friend, Jim Fowler, is killed.

Frenzy of Grief

Bob, taking little Bobbie with him, flees to the mountains in a frenzy of grief. There, in hiding, he watches the Limited Mail tear past on its routine trips. The train tragedy haunts him until he is near madness. Then one day he sees another of the great landslides which menace the train sweep over the tracks. He decides to swim the river to warn the engineer. Little Bobbie tries to follow him and is near drowning. It's a question of saving the kid he loves or saving the passengers. Bob saves the passengers. His heroism is rewarded by a full pardon for the train wreck he caused. One of the tramps of his hobo days has meanwhile saved little Bobbie. And Bob, finding that Caroline still loves him, marries her and sails on a European honeymoon, forgiven by his family.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IS MAKING NEW PICTURE

"The Circus" is to be Riotous Comedy Without Extreme Pathos

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 15.—Charlie Chaplin is making another picture. This time it is "The Circus." The comedian has been practising tight rope walking for some time so as to pull off one of the stunts with his big feet, hat and cane at a dizzy height from the ground. The picture he is making is said to be a riotous comedy without any note of extreme pathos. While it is a circus picture, Charlie is not the clown but a wandering shabby genteel adventurer.

HOCKEY NOSING OUT BOXING

New York May Look on Fistic Encounters as Secondary Sport in Future

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The possibility of professional hockey becoming the major winter attraction at Madison Square Garden and professional boxing relegated to the level of a subordinate activity next winter, is being discussed here.

At the recent meeting of the National Hockey League in Montreal the Garden exercised its option on a second franchise for this city, and will begin soon to organize a second sextette. It will be known as the Brooklyn Club, but it will make its home in the Garden along with the New York Americans.

Discussing the rivalry between hockey and boxing for public favor, the Telegram says: "If hockey turns out to be the success Colonel Hammond thinks it is going to be here boxing may become a subordinate activity in the Garden. It may be that only the biggest attractions will be handled, and then only once a month. The increasing financial demands of all the fighters who are worth while, and the increasing unwillingness of champions to do any fighting at all, have created a situation which is inimical to the best interests of boxing."

"It is an axiom in sport that in all professional activities those engaged in them sooner or later will kill the goose that lays the golden eggs. This has happened in boxing time and again. The situation in the ring game now points to a new threat against the well known goose's life."

"If hockey can draw an average of 10,000 at an average rate of 82 it will make more money through the winter than boxing. Incidentally, with two teams in New York, one in Boston and one in Pittsburgh, the United States will have four representatives in the League, and will match Canada in that respect."

WOMEN TAKE PART IN COMPETITIVE SPORTS

Half Million to be Spent by University of Toronto on Athletic Building for Girl Students

TORONTO, Feb. 15.—The Sporting Editor of The Globe writes: Prevalence of women's basketball, hockey, speed skating, swimming, track and field athletics, baseball, etc., competition of Canadian women's teams in track meets in England, the United States and next summer in Belgium, are quite enough to establish women's competitive sport. The progress of women's sports on an organized basis, as is seen in the Ontario Hockey Association for the fair sex, the women's basketball association and last, but not least, the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, national governing body, are significant enough.

Recognition in another and even more significant quarter was seen this week when the University of Toronto announced that $500,000 will be expended on a building for women's athletics. The new building will be erected on Devonshire Place. The appropriation of such a sum as half a million dollars for the purpose of gymnasium, swimming pool, sports executive offices, etc., indicates that the Blue and White attach a great deal of importance to sport for women, and believe that in building for the future it is providing for the inevitable expansion of women's sport activities.

BABE RUTH IS NOT YET GONE

Says They Tried to Bury Him Last Season but is Going to Fool 'em

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Babe Ruth, by his own admission more nymph-like than at any time in the past seven years of his turbulent career, not only looks forward to a smashing comeback this year in his familiar clouting role, but also is confident that he has many more years of active major league campaigning ahead of him.

"They tried to bury me last season," Ruth said today, "but I'm going to fool 'em. I've taken on a new lease of life by taking it off the waist line. "How much longer do I expect to stick in the big show? Six or seven years, anyway. I'll be going strong when I'm forty and I celebrated my thirty-second birthday February 7."

The Babe's appearance these days adds conviction to his words. He is ruddy and trim looking. He has lost all his excess weight. At 247, his present figure, he weighs less than at any time since 1918.

PROPORTIONAL SYSTEM OF VOTING IN CITIES

Attack Made Upon Moveable Vote Plan by Members of Edmonton Council

EDMONTON, Feb. 15.—An attack upon the P.R. system of voting now in use in Edmonton civic elections was staged in city council when Ald. Werner moved and Ald. Douglas seconded, that a charter amendment be secured to eliminate the system. Objection was taken by Labor aldermen to this expression by C.G.A. aldermen and it was allowed to stand as notice of motion.

That in a survey of 26 representative polls in the last contest, there were 314 rejected ballots, reported by City Clerk Cox. Of these 154 had been marked by crosses instead of numbers and 99 were perfectly blank.

Contrast in Views

"What about the educational value of P.R.?" was the query Ald. Findlay put to Ald. Werner who shot back, "What about the extra cost of this new toy?"

Under the old system sixty per cent of the electorate could be left unrepresented whereas the new system gave each element of the community its share maintained Ald. East. That a special meeting might be called to discuss the matter was proposed by Ald. Findlay.

"Let us have information," said Ald. Gibbs, "as to how many cities have adopted P.R. and as to how many have gone back to the prehistoric system."

"And as to how many cities have stayed by the old system?" added Ald. Douglas.

Wants Delay

Ald. Farnilo expressed his surprise at such an important amendment being sprung when the other charter amendments were down. Had there been a meeting the experts on P.R. might be called, and he mentioned John D. Hunt.

"If experts can't tell us how to work it why should we try?" challenged Ald. Werner. "When the inventors and boosters don't understand it, why should we?"

TERRACE WILL RAISE MONEY FOR ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT AT SCHOOL

Illustrated Lecture to be Given For Purpose; New Piano Proves Satisfactory

TERRACE, Feb. 15.—The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association was held in the school on Thursday evening last with a fair crowd in attendance and Pres. J. M. Hall in the chair. After routine business had been concluded considerable discussion took place as to the necessity of providing more athletic equipment for the use of the pupils, and as to ways and means of raising the necessary funds for the purpose. To help in this work Rev. J. H. Young volunteered to give an illustrated lecture some time in the near future, the proceeds to be used for athletic equipment.

It was also arranged to hold a sale of home cooking on Saturday, February 27, in aid of the piano fund.

After the business meeting was adjourned, Mrs. Otto Von Hees delighted those present with a number of piano selections. All expressed themselves very well pleased with the new piano, which has recently been bought by the Parent-Teachers' Association for the school. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The Day of Reckoning

IT IS A DAY YOU WILL NEVER SEE -- the day in which your thoughtfulness and foresight will be weighed and measured.

In that day your loved ones will listen in numbed silence to the solemn reading of your will.

Your wishes--your hopes--your dreams--are unavailing. Only your WILL remains.

The investments you have made--the promotions you are hoping for--the money you expect to save--by these you say "I hope to leave my family well protected".

Only Life Insurance can empower you to say "I WILL leave my loved ones protected when I go". Have you enough Life Insurance to make your wish into a will?

Grim facts are these--but facts which must be faced.

The Majestic Theatre was packed yesterday afternoon when members of the 102nd Battalion and the Irish Fusiliers put on a smoker. Much of the success was due to the personality of Major C. T. Huntingdon who presided.

KIPLING SEEN AT HIS HOME

Famous Author Lives in English Sussex Manor House Among Birds and Flowers

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Every, or nearly every morning in the winter there appears in the lanes of Burwash a sturdy man, whose skin has been tanned by sun and wind to the rich brown of the Sussex country folk he loves so well. His forehead is round and fairly high, his pale blue eyes and the brow above them give his expression a piercing appearance. For the rest his voice is firm and resonant, and his brown hair and stubby moustache are partially shot with grey. He wears a battered soft felt hat and a homespun suit of plus-fours. Generally he carries a stout stick, and the average stranger meeting him would guess that he is a Sussex farmer. That guess would be most inadequate, for this usually solitary figure is that of Rudyard Kipling, who lives in the old manor house, has land under cultivation but is, above everything else, one of the greatest of living story writers, and Poet of the British Empire; and who celebrated his sixtieth birthday on December 30 last.

There 25 Years

After Twenty-five years' residence at Burwash, Kipling has become so much a part of his agricultural back-ground that people passing him on the road take no notice of him. Kipling, like the weather-beaten house

The Real Cause Of Constipation Is A Bad Liver

Mrs. Jean Bocheir, Nelson, B.C., writes:—"For many years I have been troubled with my liver, and suffered terribly with constipation."

I HEARD ABOUT Milburn's

and have been greatly improved since I started to take them.

I cannot recommend them too highly to any one who is troubled with their liver."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are not a new and untried remedy. They have been on the market for the past 32 years; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

where he lives, has to be invisible.

This corner of Sussex has become Rudyard Kipling's spiritual possession. Here he stands upon ground that is essentially his own. To him the charm of the countryside is centuries deep. As he remarked, some years ago, "You know in Africa or America one has only to speed up and put the miles under, but here it is different—the dead, twelve coffin deep, clutch hold of my wheels at every turn—if I want petrol I must either pass the place where Sir John Lade lived or the garden where Jack Gade was killed. Sometimes I wonder that the very road does not bleed."

Bird a Blackguard
Not far from the village of Burwash is Kipling's fine Tudor mansion, called "Bateman's."

From the copses and the wild tangled depth of Kipling's old-world garden ring the numberless notes of birds. In the summer twilight the distant contralto of cuckoos, forming a continuous chain of sound, comes faintly from the woods. The song of the nightingale always draws Kipling from his study. He once said to a friend, "That bird is a blackguard with a gift of music in his throat that he can't control; a noisy, swash-buckling blackguard of the garden. He comes here every night and proceeds to abuse all his enemies for all he's worth. It's feathered profanity in a disguise of harmony, and he gets so worked up over it that he finally ends in an inarticulate gurgle."

duce children. The birth problems of the subnormal marriage must be controlled.

"And if it is to be controlled at all it must be by the State, by passing laws that will make it possible to cope with this particular matter," maintained the speaker. The Mental Hygiene Commission had in mind certain suggestions which it intended to make to the Government for birth control.

"We think the Government will have to consider birth control," said Mr. Hayward.

Some other countries had already tackled the problem and had adopted measures for birth control. California claimed that her insanity statistics had appreciably improved since the adoption of compulsory sterilization before marriage of the subnormal and mental defective class. But before any such measure could be successful here it would be necessary to have similar legislation in the neighboring provinces and states. Washington had taken measures to institute a system of compulsory health certificates before marriage in that state, but contracting parties had discovered that all they needed to do to evade the law was simply to slip across the border to Victoria and go before a minister here.

Birth Control Benefits
"The public will have to realize what a benefit it is to accrue both to the public and to the patient by the adoption of a birth control system for the subnormal who marry," said Mr. Hayward. "The people must be educated to a realization of what it would mean to the state if we could stop the propagation of insanity in our midst."
