Loss Totals $750,000
as Grain Warehouse
Lakehead Consumed

Much valuable machinery and 200,000 bushels of wheat went up in smoke at Peterson elevator yesterday

PORT WILLIAM, December 18.—Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed the warehouse of the N. M. Patterson Co.'s elevator "O," the loss being estimated at approximately $750,000. Much valuable machinery and 200,000 bushels of wheat were destroyed. All the grain stocks in the building will be a total loss. Flames shooting 250 feet above the roof of the frame structure made the fire one of the most spectacular in the history of Fort William.

OTTAWA, Dec. 18.—Seasonal tariff on fruit, vegetables and nursery stock entering Canada was proposed and opposed in a two day hearing which ended yesterday before the tariff advisory board.

Growers in British Columbia and Ontario were the principal supporters of the application for a tariff which is chiefly aimed to exclude United States products between June and February when Canadian produce is in good condition and is available for the home market.

EMBARGO PLACED ON GRAIN GOING EAST

Word has been received from Calgary to the effect that an embargo has been placed on grain eastward from Winnipeg, and that from December 9 none would pass except under permit, a ruling that is in force westward through the ports of Vancouver and Prince Rupert. This means that the eastern ports are closed, the storage elevators being nearly to capacity. If so, the only outlet for western wheat crop is the Pacific ports, it is said.

JUDGMENT AGAINST GOSSE-MILLERD CO.

LITIGATION OVER SAWMILL AT NAMU
COMES TO CLOSE WITH ASSES-
MENT OF $19,460

Concluding a five day trial in Supreme Court, a Vancouver jury on Monday afternoon returned a verdict for $19,460 against Gosse-Millerd Limited. The award was in favor of Andrew Charles Devine, his wife, and Devine Spruce Company Limited, which they own. They were defendants to a claim by Gosse-Millerd Limited for $2817, which was admitted; and trial proceeded on defendants' counterclaim for damages, totalling a sum in the neighborhood of $70,000.

Judgment was entered by Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald. The litigation resulted from a lease by Gosse-Millerd Limited of a sawmill adjoining its cannery at Namu to Devine Spruce Company Limited, and Mr. and Mrs. Devine in March, 1925. They alleged that Richard Gosse, superintendent of Gosse-Millerd's northern canneries, had represented to them that they would have the benefit of a contract with Clayton Logging Company for 2,000,000 feet of spruce logs at a favorable price.

After taking over the mill they said that they learned that this contract had been previously cancelled.

Devine, who operated the mill, alleged that, deprived of cheap spruce logs, he could not carry on at a profit, and he estimated profits of $2,000 a month. He further contended that officers of Gosse-Millerd Limited hampered his operations to such an extent that he was compelled to shut down.

Mr. and Mrs. Devine and the company which they owned alleged that Gosse-Millerd Limited had been guilty of misrepresentation, breach of contract, and that its officers had intended defendants' financial ruin.

These allegations were denied by witnesses for Gosse-Millerd Limited, and their officers testified that they sought to help Devine.

Gosse-Millerd Limited will appeal to the Court of Appeal.

Once a Year York County Council
Chambers Give a Change From Soporific Speeches

TORONTO, Dec. 18.—(By Canadian Press).—Once a Year York county council chambers are given a change from the solemn — and rather soporific — speeches of the learned, and dignified young lads and lassies, winners in their own townships of the public speaking contests for school pupils vie with each other for the championship of the county.

It was no easy task for them to mount the dais and give, from memory a five minute speech. "It doesn't give me any pleasure—I'm willing to admit," said the winner, 11-year-old Norma Armstrong, of Woodbridge, Ont.

W. S. Henry, well known Smithers broker, sailed last night on the Prince Rupert and will spend two or three months visiting in Vancouver and Victoria. His trip will probably extend as far south as Mexico.

LOS ANGELES, December 18.—Kenneth Ormiston, fugitive radio man of the Almee Semple McPherson mystery, returned here late last night in the same manner he departed without notifying the police. 11

OTTAWA, Dec. 18.—The Board of Railway Commissioners, investigating the freight rates with a view to a downward revision in Western Canada, adjourned yesterday until after the Christmas vacation and it was announced would reconvene on January 11.

W. H. Scott, traffic manager of the Associated Growers of British Columbia, was yesterday's witness. He gave evidence to show that the revenue to the railways on eastbound Okanagan traffic in the last completed year had been $288,000 of which $35,000 was profit.

Railway counsel asked Scott if he thought such profit was not reasonable. Witness pointed out that there was a minimum cost in handling haulage and declared that, under present conditions, the growers were being rapidly driven out of business.

BIG STRUGGLE IN ENGLAND OVER.

The severest industrial struggle that England has known for a long time is over, and now that the coal strike is virtually at an end the country is in a position to estimate the gains and losses of the fight.

Unfortunately it is easier to appraise the losses than the gains, and none of the parties concerned can look back with any real feeling of satisfaction at the outcome. The mineowners have achieved their main purpose; they have broken the power of the Miners' Federation for a long time to come and abolished the system of a national agreement which they always contended the industry economically could not bear. But in achieving that result they have sustained great losses and have inflicted even heavier losses on the employers in other industries.

In exactly the same way the Miners' Federation has brought the other great trades unions to the brink of disaster. It will be years before their financial losses resulting from unemployment can be made good.

MINERS' LEADERSHIP WAS RESPONSIBLE.

The leadership of the miners has been deplorable from the point of view of political and industrial strategy, and if the handling of the dispute had been entrusted to some of the big men in the other unions, like Mr. Thomas, a settlement would have been reached long ago. The loyalty of the bulk of the miners to their leaders throughout the struggle has been wonderful and it is a pity that such loyalty was not rewarded by better leadership.

The mineowners, on their side, seem to have made no adequate attempt to bring their case and their proposals before the men, and it seems to be the fact that it is only quite recently that in many areas the men were made aware of the terms which they could secure.

GOVERNMENT NOT COVERED WITH GLORY.

The Government has not covered itself with glory, and at various periods during the struggle there have been distinct signs of divided counsels. Mr. Churchill, on several occasions, has seemed inclined to go further than some of his colleagues and to have been held back by them from venturing too far.

The whole struggle indeed is a melancholy story. The redeeming feature is the exceptional orderliness of the strikers. There have been incidents here and there and a certain amount of intimidation, but on the whole the majority of miners have simply tightened their belts and held on grimly and quietly. Happily, with the end of the strike there are distinct signs of a general trade revival, and if that revival comes about some of the losses will speedily be made good.

CANADIANS SUPERIOR IN FARMING INDUSTRY.

Canadians accept it as a matter of course that wheat from this country should win grand championships at international fairs. It is only occasionally that an American slips under the wire a winner; just often enough to spur Canadians on to keener competition. Choosing the wheat champion is usually a question of picking the Canadian with the best wheat.

Superiority of Canadian wheat for milling purposes has long been recognized. It is not without its unpleasant note, for American flour mills are kept busy milling our hard wheat or mixing it in the milling, with their own.

Superiority of Canadian wheat is frankly admitted by the Food Research Institute of California in its newest wheat study. It says: "In a word, American importation of Canadian wheat for domestic consumption over a tariff duty rests fundamentally upon the qualitative superiority of Canadian wheats over most American export surplus of high grade milling wheats, which the United States spring wheats and the fact that Canada regularly produces a large does not."

MANY MILLIONS WERE PAID OUT WARRANT PLAN

PARTICULARS OF ESTIMATES TABLED IN HOUSE OF COMMONS FOR YEAR

OTTAWA, Dec. 18.—The estimates for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1927, tabled in the House of Commons late Friday afternoon, totalled $191,000,000, which amount appeared in the estimates of the last parliament and were not passed.

INTERIM SUPPLY

The estimates tabled were of particular interest because they contained the details of interim supply and the money spent by governor-general's warrants. The sudden dissolution of parliament last summer made it necessary for the government in power to provide for the government services by royal warrant instead of by parliamentary approval. Consequently $79,758,000 was spent by warrant to provide for the services which had been mentioned in the unpassed estimates. There were also certain grants authorized by royal warrants for purposes not specifically mentioned in the estimates which were before parliament last session. These items were shown in the statement tabled by the Hon. J. A. Robb, minister of finance. They include:

- $40,500 for unemployment relief.
- $82,000 for the expenses of the commission investigating the customs and excise department.
- $1,232, for expenses in connection with the visit of Queen Marie of Rumania.
- $25,000 for the expenses of the Canadian delegates of the Imperial Conference.
- $17,943 for transportation of Alberta coal to Ontario.
- $10,000 for the reception to the governor-general.
- Other prominent items included the removal of the wreck of S.S. Canadian Recruit, $75,000; $41,000 toward the construction of the Halifax elevator and $549,000 on various harbors and rivers throughout the Dominion. In all $863,884 was spent by governor-general's warrants for items not included in the main estimates of the last parliament. The total spent by governor-general's warrants for all purposes since parliament was dissolved early in the summer was $80,621,000.

KING FERDINAND MAY BE MOVED TO PARIS

Radium Treatment at Curie Institute is Suggested for Rumanian Monarch

BUCHAREST, Dec. 18.—Discussion of the advisability of removing King Ferdinand to Paris for radium treatment at the Curie Institute has been resumed in government circles here.

When Professor Regaud of the Paris Pasteur Institute came to Bucharest a few days ago he proposed the sick king be taken to Paris. The Government however, then was not willing. Professor Regaud has now returned to Paris and, it is understood, is discussing with the Curie Institute arrangements for the treatment of the king, who has been variously reported as suffering from an intestinal ailment and cancer. Radium is extensively used in cancer cases. Official circles are absolutely silent on the question of the removal of the king to Paris.

VETERAN BRITISH RAILWAY MAN TO RETIRE NEW YEAR

LONDON, Dec. 18.—(By Canadian Press)—A veteran of the railway world of England will retire in the New Year. In the person of H. G. Burgess, general manager of the London, Midland and Scottish Railway. He commenced his railway career in the service of the Dublin and South-Eastern Company as a junior clerk in 1873. In 1878 he took up a post with the London and North-Western Railway, and he was connected with the service of the latter company until the amalgamation in January, 1923. During the war Mr. Burgess was appointed by the Government Director-General of Transport, Shipping Controller, and Coal Controller in Ireland. He was appointed a Privy Councillor in 1922.

Ex-Alderman A. E. Barrow of this city is now Lance-Corporal in an engineering battalion in France.

Leo Waugh and Miss Agnes McDonald were recently married in Vancouver and are now in Portland.

A bill to provide for the creation of a reserve fund for the city was introduced last evening and will be voted on by the people at the next election.

In the current issue of the "Sunset Magazine" appears a long article entitled "The Halibut War." The story deals with the struggle that brought the halibut industry to Prince Rupert.

ARTISTS FROM CANADA SCORE U.S. SUCCESS

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Dec. 18.—(By Canadian Press)—Three young Canadian artists scored pronounced individual successes this week singing leading roles with the Rochester Opera Company in its performances of the Leoncavallo opera, "Pagliacci." They are Ethel Codd of Vancouver, Reginald Halliley of Winnipeg and Allan Burt of Toronto. Miss Codd sang the principal soprano role of Nedda; Mr. Halliley the featured baritone part of Tonio and Mr. Burt the role of Silvio. Vladimir Rosing, well known in Canada through his concert tours directed the performances with Eugene Goossens, the famous British Composer-conductor conducting.

All three were enthusiastically praised by the Rochester critics. Writing in the Rochester Times-Union of Miss Codd's performance A. J. Warner said: "Her voice showed itself to be an organ of dramatic and brilliant quality which is used with intelligence and musical feeling. Miss Codd sang with variety and beauty of tone and gave a performance that was marked by compelling histrionic beauty and lyric charm." "Reginald Halliley," wrote S. B. Sabin in the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, "gave an admirable performance of Tonio; of course he can sing the role splendidly and he plays it, too, which helps greatly in its dramatic value. Allan Burt's Silvio is good enough for any 'Pagliacci' cast."

Miss Codd is now rehearsing the role of Micaela in "Carmen" which she will sing at Rochester February 7, with Mary Garden in the title role.

PARADISE FOR THE SMUGGLER

AUSTRALIAN PAPER GIVES SOME ADVICE TO MACKENZIE KING GOVERNMENT

Though the Canadian Liberals are back in office as a result of the general election, they will have to go in for a pretty drastic house-cleaning in order to remain there, says the Sydney (Australia) Bulletin in an article entitled "The Smuggler's Paradise." Mackenzie King fell some months ago in consequence of the investigations of a Parliamentary committee into charges of corruption in the Customs, and the stench of what was disclosed was so loud that even Liberal organs like the Toronto Globe raised an outcry. While the election was on, sufficient feeling was aroused against Governor-General Byng, who had recalled the Conservatives to office, albeit they were without a majority, to cover up the scandal; but now the war cries have died down, Mackenzie King will have to show that he means to root out the official crooks and smugglers, or the independent group may swing to the other side again. They still hold the balance of power. All reports show that smuggling has grown to enormous dimensions in Canada. Its prosperity dates from the time the neighboring republic went dry, but from bootlegging it extended to other things. The smugglers discovered that there was no point in going back across the boundary with empty cars. There were large profits to be made from return cargoes of silks, cigarettes, laces, rubber goods, and other commodities against which Canada had built up a tariff wall. Soon the shops that dealt in illicit goods became as numerous as "fences" in Pittsburg. Legitimate traders formed a protective association which induced the government to appoint the committee aforesaid. In the course of four months the committee examined hundreds of witnesses and exposed a mass of corruption that made the average Canadian taxpayer's hair stand on end. There was evidence of highly-placed officials having taken bribes, of bosom friends of ministers being involved in the smuggling industry, and of politicians working like bees to get serious offenders off when they were convicted. But the disclosures did not damage the Liberal party in the constituencies, because it came out that the frauds which had robbed Canada of millions of dollars were begun when the Conservatives were in power, and that some Conservatives were just as ready as some Liberals to wink at corruption when there were powerful interests to placate.

Besides, the Byng incident was skillfully exploited by the Liberals to the detriment of their opponents, who were pictured as anti-nationalists, Anglo-manics even. But the smuggling industry is now so firmly rooted that if the Mackenzie King government has the will and energy to tackle it there will be a protracted fight ahead. One of its difficulties will be the French-Canadian element. It is hard to convince Pierre Cautek that smuggling is a crime. The international boundary between Quebec and the Yankee states of Vermont and New Hampshire has been the chief scene of smuggling enterprise. Canada's main trouble is that it lives next door to a

Messrs. The H. M. Kipp Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.
Gentlemen—
I received the SUPER-TEN yesterday and put it together last night, listening at about 1 a.m. this morning, and hooked it up right away.
The very first station I tuned in was KFI, Los Angeles, with the smoothness and volume of any of the closer stations on the Loud Speaker. I held this station until it signed off, and then I tried for KGW, Portland, Ore. This station came in even better than KFI and was so clear that people speaking in low tones between the numbers in the studio could be plainly heard. After this station signed off I caught the closing of several other Pacific Time stations, just missing the full letters. Last night all these stations came through as clear and loud as any average 300 mile station. One certainly does not lose any of the wonderful qualities of the SUPER-TEN by building same from the kit.
Yours very truly,
"W. C."

PRINCE RUPERT DEFEATS ANYOX

FIRST INTERTOWN GAME RESULTS IN VICTORY FOR LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

ELKS BEATEN

Prince Rupert High School, 27; Anyox High School, 18. Bankers, 15; Grotto, 32. Adanacs, 2; Maple Leafs, 22. Elks, 38; Grand Terminals, 42. Before a fairly good crowd whose sympathies were good naturedly divided, the local high school basketball team won from Anyox High School in the Exhibition Hall last night by a score of 27 to 18. The visitors seemed to be lost in the big building and only at times gave evidence of that team play which threatened their opponents. It was then that little Yoshi Katsuyama, who seemed to be all over the floor at once, spoiled numerous attempts at team play which certainly must have disheartened the visitors. The game was not one sided and perhaps the result reflects only the state of mind of the players for Anyox thought they could have done better and Rupert did better than expected. The game tonight, however, will perhaps result differently, for Anyox have in MacLachlan and MacDonald two players who will be a lot of watching and the whole team knows how to play basketball if they once get started.

THREE OTHER GAMES

There were three other games played for the fans and by far the most interesting was the Senior match between the Elks and Grand Terminals, the Elks meeting their first defeat of the season. Neither teams was up to strength and the Elks suffered further by Balfour's retirement early in the game on account of an accident. Throughout the game play was even and when time was called the teams were tied with 34 points each. At the end of the first overtime period the score was again tied at 38 each. In the final period however, the Terminals were able to add four while the Elks only gained two.

The individual scoring was as follows:

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

Bankers—E. Walters 2, F. Smith, R. Mortimer 8, G. Hill, W. Donald 2, R. Egerton 3. Total 15.

Grotto—W. Murray 4, J. Sim 6, C. Ratchford, W. Wrathall 14, D. Gurvich 6, F. Fraser 2. Total 32.

R. Smith, referee.

LADIES LEAGUE

Adanacs—C. Mitchell 2, E. Dalby, V. Smith, A. Minzogh, W. Dyer. Total 2. Maple Leafs—M. Graham 2, M. Harvey 6, L. Lowe 4, C. Harvey 9, H. Grant, I. H. Sim, M. Thompson. Total 22.

R. Skinner referee.

INTER-TOWN

Anyox—Asimus 4, J. Barclay, MacLachlan 7, MacDonald 7, Clay, A. Barclay. Total 18.

Prince Rupert—S. Gurvich 11, Y. Katsuyama 4, R. Stalker 6, D. Stalker 6, R. Irvine, H. MacDonald. Total 27.

R. B. Skinner referee.

SENIOR LEAGUE

Elks—E. Smith 6, D. Balfour, Geo. Mitchell 1, M. Budenich 9, R. Smith 22, George Hill, H. MacDonald. Total 38.

Terminals—W. Wrathall 7, J. Sim 7, C. Thompson 5, E. Underwood 1, J. McNulty 22. Total 42.

Lee Dell referee.

LEAGUE TABLES

The league standing to date are as follows:

Table with columns for League, W, D, L, Pts. Rows include Senior League (Elks, Terminals, Native Sons), Intermediate League (Grotto, Bankers, Maple Leafs, Adanacs), Ladies' League (Maple Leafs, Adanacs), and Junior League (Colts, Stars, Tuxis Boys).

XMAS TURKEY WON BY WILLIAM BRASS

A Christmas turkey was offered as a prize at the rifle shoot last evening and was won by W. Brass with a score of 94. Other scores were as follows:

Table with columns for Name and Score. Rows include B. Davidson (92), R. Wilson (89), M. M. Lamb (89), W. Howarth (88), F. Russel (84), A. Wylie (81), Dr. J. A. West (80), H. B. Eastman (77), M. Bussanich (74).

SPORT CHAT

J. C. Kelly, a Prince George bowling enthusiast, has given concrete evidence of his interest in the "roarin' game" by presenting a handsome silver cup for competition among curlers of the district as far east as Jasper, west as far as curlers can be found and south to Quesnel. The terms of the trophy call for the appointment of trustees to consist of the city solicitor, president of the Prince George Curling Club and the managers of the three Prince

On the face of the cup is an engraving of a caribou, and on the face of the base is a relief showing a number of players engaged with the game. At either corner of the base are figures of players in the act of delivering stones.

After long debate, and despite much opposition, the Lawn Tennis association of England, at its annual meeting, passed a resolution for submission to the International Lawn Tennis Federation, forbidding lawn tennis players to write for or to be interviewed by newspapers in connection with any competition in which they are taking part. Lord Desborough, the retiring chairman of the association, in supporting the resolution, said the proposal was due to the fact that the association found that players were making too much money out of tennis.

DANCE LAST NIGHT HONOR BASKETBALL TEAM FROM ANYOX

The visiting basketball players from Anyox were entertained at a dance last evening after the game in the IODE hall. The local high school students and their friends were hosts and the evening passed off very pleasantly. The music for the dance program was furnished by an orchestra composed of Kenny Rood, R. Arthur and Miss Jean Currie. The visitors will again meet the local boys tonight at the Exhibition building and there will be an exhibition game between two girls teams from the local High School. Tomorrow on the Cardena the players will return home and it is expected that at least one team from the local High School will go north on December 26 for a series of games in the smelter town. The gymnasium at Anyox has been considerably enlarged this year and so far there have been no league games played. After the New Year it is expected that everything will be in readiness for the regular fixture, when it is hoped to have at least one ladies team go from here for a series of games.

SKIDEGATE

A very successful dance was held at the Dufferin Pattullo schoolhouse last week-end, splendid music being furnished by the Skidegate orchestra. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKenzie, Gordon Jolliffe, Capt. George Newberry (Queen Charlotte City), Miss Jean Haan, Miss Doris Richardson, Mr. and Capt. P. Hanson, Ross Morrison and Capt. Jack Hann returned from the south on the last boat. They were engaged in sealing around Vancouver Island and reported the fishing very poor there. They were glad to get back to The Sunny Isles of Sitka Spruce.

Bob Dunlop of Queen Charlotte City has erected a beautiful monument over the grave of the late G. Pinkerton who was drowned in this vicinity recently. The inscription reads: On these Isles of Sitka Spruce, Loggers' friendship never severs. One of the best has been laid to rest. But his memory will last forever.

There has been a big run of lemon soles on Skidegate bar. Everyone has been getting plenty of fish these days.

Capt. George Leary, while out hunting at the head of the long arm of Skidegate Inlet, found a fresh humpback salmon dead on the beach. Its presence there furnishes a puzzle for the fishermen here to solve.

HERMAN TRELLE WILL VISIT IN CALIFORNIA

Wheat and Oats King to Take His Wife For Jantzen—Then to Work Again

CHICAGO, Dec. 18. — (By Canadian Press)—Miriam Price Ellis, while in this city interviewed Herman Trelle of Lake Saskatchewan, Alberta, who won at the International Show here all the world can offer in the way of championships in both wheat and oats.

"What are your plans now," he was asked. "My wife and I are going down to Los Angeles to spend Christmas with our people, then I am coming back to get to work on this seed business," he replied. "We have never been off the farm since we started there. Then I have to build a home." The first of the year he was settled in what was known as the Lake Saskatchewan district, he was burnt out. Since then he and his wife have lived in a lean-to on the woodshed, but they have trees and shrubs planted where the permanent home is to be, and that home could not be elsewhere than the Peace River country. Trelle grows all his own flower seeds.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS

Boat building concerns are busy---deer hunting season now closed---Littlehorn's earthquaky reverberations

Waterfront boat building concerns are by this time pretty well booked up with contracts for new boats and repairs to old ones. The McLean shop, for instance, already holds contracts for the construction of four rather large vessels—a sixty foot halibut boat for Chris Houmuller, the hull framework of which is now erected; another halibut boat almost as large for John Wick, and two seine boat packers for the Gosse Packing Co. With these boats to be finished by spring and two or three further contracts pending as well as the usual repair demands, the McLean establishment will be a busy place indeed for the next few months.

The Japanese shops in Cow Bay also have a full program of work lined up and, from the looks of things, there is liable to be some jobs going begging in two or three months time because it will be impossible to find a place to have them done.

The local halibut boat Kaien is among the vessels now in Cow Bay having repair work done.

Alex. McDonald and Rod Morrison, aboard the former's boat, Hector, took advantage of the closing days of the deer season this week to replenish the family meat supply. On Sunday Rod got his and on Wednesday Alex bagged one. Their artillery activities were across and up the harbor.

There were a few birds brought in over the week-end, Jack Lindsay's party as usual, proving one of the successful ones.

Charlie Starr came all the way from Seattle to get a feathery one and his efforts were not unrewarded for on Wednesday he and Claude Kirkendall journeyed across the harbor and brought down a fine honker. To complete the bag a first-class mallard was brought home. Charlie returned to Seattle yesterday to complete his holiday, being due back again about the end of February.

George Bryant and Roy Nicholls were out aboard the Haria Saturday afternoon attempting to bag the odd goose at Metlakatla bar.

SHEP'S NEW STOVE

Shep Thomson has been baking, frying, broiling and roasting this week as he never did before. Alex McRae was shopping a few days ago and found him a fine new cook stove. Hence, all these culinary activities on the part of Shep who has found that he can even boil water without burning it on the new nickel-plated and white enameled piece of hardware.

Shep had his fettle tested out in the westerly gale last week and, though a dozen lines were broken and half as many boats adrift in about as long as it takes to tell about it, the situation was so capably handled that nary a bit of damage was done.

Having on board a party of travelling men, the little power cruiser Kiteaukt came in from Vancouver Thursday afternoon and tied up at the Prince Rupert Boat House.

Alex Saint was in conference with the provincial police authorities this week. It appears that Alex is imploring the aid of his old pals in Alex Manson's army in a battle against some troublesome crabs that are annoying some of the more acquisitive members of the waterfront community.

George Nickerson, the fishermen's friend, is claimed to be taking another covetous look toward the mayoralty throne. If George puts the alleged thought into action and resolves to liquidate Sam Newton's mortgage, we would advise him to capitalize high.

Jimmy Thomas, who went down the coast during the fall to engage in chum packing, now has the Viner tied up at Victoria where he will spend a couple of months giving his parliamentary friends some advice free gratis without charge.

Laurie Lambly, popular skipper of the P. R. B. H. 23, has decided that Cap Swanson doesn't need him on the payroll for a little while and has joined the dry dock staff for the winter months.

NEWINGTON BACK

Lighthouse tender Newington returned to local headquarters on Tuesday morning after a two weeks' jaunt down the coast as far as Egg Island taking Christmas cheer to the various light-houses. Capt. Harry Ormiston reported some sloppy weather while away but the only thing that gave any cause for alarm was when Deckhand George Murray tried a high dive stunt in Gunboat Pass. He was fished out safely, however, and his matches weren't even wet.

The Newington went out Thursday morning to Triple and Green Island lights and returned to port today.

Olof Ouse came in to port this week bringing some of the timber he doesn't need in his mayoralty platform at home. Jack Donnelly went to Porcher during the week to open the new City Hall formerly known as the Mug-Up.

Motorship Lillehorn, Capt. Dan McKinnon, arrived in port on Sunday and, after discharging 500 tons of coal at the Albert & McCaffery wharf moved down to the elevator and loaded 500 tons of wheat screenings for Seattle delivery.

Residents of the Cow Bay vicinity thought an earthquake was in progress when the Lillehorn's winches started to do their stuff. Windows rattled and dishes were shaken off their shelves with the concussion. The next time the vessel comes, nearby householders will hope she won't have so long to stay. It's a darn nuisance to say nothing of disturbing the baby's soundest slumbers.

Pacific (Coyle) Navigation Co.'s tug B. D. M. is due in port with two scow-loads of lumber for Albert & McCaffery.

CLAUDE KETCHUM BETTER

Capt. Claude Ketchum made his appearance again on the waterfront this week after having been confined to his home for ten days or so with a dose of mumps.

R. M. P. power tug M. T. 3, Capt. Reg Green, made a trip to Georgetown yesterday. The vessel took out an empty scow and provisions and returned with two scow-loads of lumber for transshipment over the Canadian Na-

John Wick, owner and skipper of the halibut boat Johanna, on which repair work has started following a recent gasoline explosion, is on a business trip to Vancouver.

Doc Cade may be able to stand chloroform but he can't take the gas nor does Dave Stuart find John D.'s sweet fumes half as fragrant as Mr. Tuckett condenses down in Cuba. Speaking seriously, however, these two hearty hunters had just about as close a squeak last Sunday as they would wish to have every time they go out in chase of "mowtech." Coming up the coast that day, both got a touch of gas in Dave's cruiser and high wind and fresh air were, they found, the things they liked nothing else but. However, they made port all right somewhat distressed and out of sorts and were soon put to rights with Shep's gentle care.

Graham Spry, national secretary of Canadian Clubs, left on this morning's train for Edmonton enroute to his headquarters in Ottawa after having spent several days in the city. Mr. Spry found the men's Canadian Club here in a state of inactivity but was pleased to see that the women had formed a strong and active organization. He dined last night with the executive of the local club.

HOME SECRETARY VISITS PRISONS

Joyson-Hicks Relates Dialogue Between Himself and Convict

LONDON, Dec. 18.—One of the duties of a Home Secretary is to visit the prisons, in order to inspect the methods of discipline and to receive at first hand any possible complaints from the inmates—either those on the staff or those undergoing imprisonment.

Sir William Joyson Hicks has just related the following dialogue between himself and a man who had spent forty years in prison:

Home Secretary: Hm! Forty years. Quite a long experience. Any complaints?
Prisoner: No.

Home Secretary: Food all right?
Prisoner: Yes. None too rich, of course.

Home Secretary: I'm glad you find things so comfortable. Are you sure there is nothing wrong?
Prisoner: Well, look here Gov'nor, if you are asking for a complaint, take this one. The prison library is rotten. There isn't a single book on German philosophy in it.

"Our policy is to treat prisoners humanely, without pampering them," says Sir William. "Indeed, we are increasing the discipline and are also increasing the amount of work done in prisons."

UNIQUE TOKEN MADAME FAHEY

SINGING IN WOODS, SHE WAS PRESENTED RECENTLY WITH TREE BY TORONTO ADMIRERS

TORONTO, Dec. 17.—Manor Road residents are quite accustomed to hearing sweet strains of song at any hour of the day—sometimes in the evening and at once recognize the liquid tones as the voice of their gifted neighbor, Madame Lugin Fahey, formerly of Victoria.

Nearby is a wood, where at times the singer enjoys going off by herself among the trees she so loves, and singing song after song there. They come spontaneously to her, with hardly an effort to recall them. So has indeed a repertoire of quite two hundred songs every one of which she can sing at will, remembering with ease both words and music. It has been remarked that on the concert platform Madame Fahey never uses either notes or words.

One day this fall she wandered to her favorite wooded glen, and here, by a little stream, gave an impromptu recital to the sky, trees and grass, for not a soul was insight. Her voice of great volume always sounds exceptionally well outdoors, where it meets with no obstructions to impede it.

On this occasion, after giving a number of songs for her own pleasure, she was greatly surprised to hear an outburst of clapping. Suddenly the wood was peopled, it seemed, for a number of young people—who appeared to be students—came forward and thanked the singer for the delightful concert she had given them. One then handed her a young tree, saying, "As we have no flowers to offer as a tribute, will you accept this instead?"

With laughter the singer did so. Then one of the party, armed with a camera, took a snapshot of her in the act of accepting the tree, asking her if he might sent it to her. It arrived a few days later, with a letter expressing the sincere thanks of them all for the great treat she had given them.
