Business of All to Work Together for New Europe Says Austen Chamberlain

LONDON, May 20.—Sir Austen Chamberlain, foreign secretary, paid a tribute to France at a luncheon of the United Associations in the Hotel Victoria here. In proposing the toast of "France," he said that it was the business of all to work together, to affirm the new foundations of a new Europe, and by cordiality, by our confidence, by our assurance one in the other to make possible reconciliation and pacification. In diplomacy as in the House of Commons they often found it difficult to see in due proportion the events of the current hour. Just at present they had all been somewhat perturbed and agitated by diplomatic negotiations which had been going on in other quarters. No doubt new treaties required to be watched; no doubt the world had become so narrow that we could no longer say that what happened here or there could be no concern of ours. But we should make a great mistake if we regarded those negotiations with any jealousy or suspicion.

Writer in First City News Says Open Market Here Means Prosperity in Alaskan Port

The First City News, a little weekly paper supporting the candidacy of Dan Sutherland as delegate for Alaska in the House of Representatives has this to say about the relationships between Prince Rupert and Ketchikan:
After all is said and done, everybody knows that Dan Sutherland will be re-elected to Congress next November. He will be our next delegate to Congress. "Johnny Walker" Troy and Ed. G. Morrissey and certain of the Commercial Clubs of Juneau and Ketchikan may rave, but even they know that we speak the truth.

A leading business man spoke to us wishing that real co-operation could be had between the business interests of Ketchikan and Mr. Sutherland. The answer is that this co-operation can be easily had.

PROTEST MADE AT SCHEDULE

Service From This Port to Islands Subject of Strong Representations to Keeley

A meeting of the council of the board of trade met yesterday afternoon in the city hall and discussed the recently published schedule of the steamship service between this city and Queen Charlotte Islands. Following the meeting a telegram was sent to B. C. Keeley, superintendent of the B.C. coast service, emphatically protesting against the service as being of little use to local merchants. It gave no opportunity for out of town people to bank here or for local merchants to fill orders.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR TOURISTS IN CANADA

Better Gardening Than Ever Before.

Prince Rupert has better gardens and more of them than ever before and each year should see an increase in the number. While it cannot be said that gardening is as easy here as in the south, it is productive of good results if engaged in with good judgment and persistency.

In the first place a gardener here must not expect to raise everything just the same here as in Victoria, for instance. Conditions are different. Roses of the hardier varieties should be chosen and so should a great many other flowers. By careful propagation, however, it will be found that very good showings can be made.

Making A Lawn Is Matter of Mowing.

Making a lawn is very largely a matter of persistent use of the lawn mower. Take a piece of fairly dry musk and use the lawn mower on it and in a few years there will be a lawn.

It is to be expected that a great many people will take exception to this statement. They will tell what difficult work it was for them to get their lawns. Of course the correct thing is to thoroughly dig and fertilize the land and sow plenty of seed. No other method will get as good results. The difficulty is that a great many people think that will produce a lawn whereas it is the mowing that brings the results. If a lawn is cut two or three times a week at this time of year it will soon look like velvet. Rolling helps and so does fertilizing but the one thing necessary above everything else is persistent use of the lawn mower.

City Never Looked Better Than Today.

Prince Rupert never looked brighter and more prosperous than it does today. The buildings with a few exceptions have been painted and give a visitor the idea that the residents are awake and on the job. The windows of the shops look bright and are well decorated. Some of the merchants here take a lot of trouble with their shop windows and use them wholly for display of their goods. Others stick cards and foreign advertising matter in their windows and then expect to sell their goods.

Putting a card advertisement in the window spoils the whole effect just as a stuffer spoils the effect of a letter. It is impossible to do two things at once. A merchant cannot advertise his own goods and some other at the same time with any chance of success. A bright window card absorbs the attention of the passer and the goods are not noticed.

The wise merchant is he who devotes a lot of time to his window, for it is the best advertising he can get. It ranks just ahead of newspaper advertising. The staterly merchant is he who listens to the request of any tea meeting or dance that comes along and clutters his window with cards and similar foreign matter.

If the window is worth anything it is worth attending to. If it is kept only to give away, it might as well be abolished.

Finally the bright window, devoted wholly to display of goods is a good indication to visitors that the merchants are alive and have faith in the goods they offer.

Used After Shaving Keeps the Skin Soft

Mr. W. C. Dunford, 119-A Danforth Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes "Having been affected with a tender neck and irritation after shaving for the last three years, I am now using Dr. Chase's Ointment and getting wonderful results."

THE habit of applying Dr. Chase's Ointment after shaving has been acquired by many men who previously experienced much discomfort on account of tenderness of the skin.

It is remarkably effective in making the skin soft and smooth and prevents and relieves irritation, eczema and Barber's itch.

Former Librarian Sees Only Sixth of Column in Big Canadian Edition
MAKES SUGGESTIONS

(By Vi Mortimer)
It certainly is true that one never knows what the mail man will bring. Usually he produces the greatest surprises in the world.

Today one of them was a lone bundle of papers. It bore a familiar, honest, brown wrapping that reminded me of the paper an English aunt sent, "To those dears out in that wild country." No doubt many of us have received such evidences of sympathy.

With haste I opened it only to exclaim, "What newspaper firm in Boston thinks this one copy will be sufficient for me to become a subscriber." Not caring to be "rushed" the paper was laid aside.

All Canada Supplement

A chance remark as to the popularity of the paper impelled me later in the day to inspect it, and I opened my eyes wide, self-fledged myself in the chair as the heading "All Canada Supplement" came into view.

Most everyone has sympathized with the chief character of Haley's "Man without a country," and in so doing they will be lenient with one who holds dear the "New garden of Canada," as Talbot calls British Columbia.

Instantly I was all interest and felt thrilled as it became apparent that three of the four sections of this 64 page issue dealt with Canada. Someone knowing my nationality had sent the paper and mentally I thanked them for their kindness.

The pages rustled, everyone in the neighborhood must have remarked, "Someone is going to have burned vegetables for dinner." It is a tragic fact that when reading intently one's sense of smell, time and duty become completely obliterated. A prayer for the young man whose "fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," etc., should be, "Let her never forget her duty, the hour of meals and how to use all her senses, yea, even the sense of detecting the carbonization of the vegetables of the earth." My husband missed out on that prayer.

Share of Glory

In tiny Maple Leaf shaped pictures were shown—the Smelter at Trail; "Metropolis of the West," Vancouver; Rocky Mountains, Alberta, Montreal, "meeting place of trade routes and ocean lines," so on went the review of the important places of Canada. Each province had its share of glory and publicity. Hon. John Oliver wielded his pen in praise of British Columbia.

Of the "Gateways of Canada," Bliss Carmen wrote very glowingly. It was a first page item and to make it beautiful it was garnished with bits of poetry. He says: "Among my films of memory, the collection of Canadian imprints begins with St. Johns and its harbour, and the St. John River Valley, in the days of wooden ships and ends with Vancouver and Victoria in these days of iron steam tramps and mammoth ocean liners."

It is hoped that Mr. Carmen will visit the one "Gateway of Canada" of which he makes no mention. Will someone please send a picture of this "Gateway" to Mr. Carmen before he writes another front page article for a paper that is sent all over the world. His cousin C. G. D. Roberts could tell him of it.

Forgot Prince Rupert

Oh, well just another case of, "they forgot Prince Rupert." Half a minute, that statement is erroneous, one sixth of a column bore a note from that city of the north, the outlet for the great Peace River district. Three-fourths of a column was devoted to the Little Theatre of Vancouver, B.C., to say nothing of the whole page articles exploiting the value, beauty and achievement of Victoria, Vancouver and Vancouver Island.

Was it bitterness in my soul that brought out the irony of the statement about, "As the Dominion's nearest harbor to the Orient, it holds an important geographical position. It is at the terminus of the Canadian National lines and stands alone

On the floor is the Kashmir pattern—a beautiful Chinese design in mulberry, gold and royal blue. It is Congoleum Rug No. 562.

"Weren't you clever to choose a Congoleum Rug?"

What a pleasure it is to usher your guest into a room that is the perfection of dainty charm! With a Congoleum Gold Seal Art-Rug on the floor you have gone far toward that ideal—and at such reasonable cost.

This young housewife has made her Gold Seal Rug the basis for the color scheme of the room. Unfortunately it is impossible to show you in a newspaper how the colors of the rug blend with the wall, curtains and other furnishings of this up-to-date room.

Whatever room in the house needs livening up—there's a Congoleum Rug to help you do it. You can choose from rich Oriental patterns in deep mellow shades and from beautiful floral effects in delicate colors.

Congoleum Rugs are so practical and labor-saving—two important features that modern Canadian women insist upon. Since they are waterproof and dustproof, you can keep them immaculate with the simplest kind of cleaning. And these rugs cling tight to the floor without a single fastening of any kind.

Sizes range from small handy mats to nine by fifteen foot room-size rugs.

Always Look for the Gold Seal

Don't take it for granted that just any labor-saving floor-covering is Congoleum. All genuine Congoleum bears the Gold Seal pasted on the face of the pattern. This Gold Seal, as shown above, has stood for years in the minds of millions of women as a positive assurance of superior quality and proved value. It reads and means, "Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back."

You owe it to yourself to see Congoleum Rugs—they are the biggest floor-covering value in all Canada. Your dealer will be glad to show them to you.

Put Forth Claim

To anyone reading the item, especially one with an American turn of mind, I wonder what they would think? Ten to one it would be, "That little burg reminds me of Los Angeles, trying to claim things that maybe it hasn't got. Imagine it putting forth the claim to being the largest halibut fishing port in the world and is the center of important salmon fisheries."

Call it the "City of the Totem Pole." A library pamphlet was put into my hands the other day from one of the Eastern Libraries, Davenport, Iowa, or some such place. It bore a picture of the Totem Pole, situated on Second Avenue, so well known to us all. Beside it stood a group of tourists. Let us hope they were not the kind in tweed knickers, carrying a black leather vanity case, "hiking" on the S.S. Prince George, you know. That small article gave more local atmosphere and would arouse more interest than all the sixth of a column in the Boston paper.

Attract Interest

Here in this town a family lived in an old abode house many years ago. The history of the place was learned and the host of the well known Mission Inn realized that he had something that would attract interest. He spared no effort in advertising what he had. Good sound publicity he gave the place, wrapping the shroud of early California history about it. The Inn is said to stand on the site of an old Spanish Mission and Father Sierrro himself is supposed to have come here. Practically on nothing is woven an elaborate

City of Sunsets

What have we in Prince Rupert that would "talk?" A column on Victoria is headed the "City of Roses." Why not for our city the heading "City of Sunsets?" Those sunsets I can see them yet, when the heavens flare crimson and the islands of the west stand inky black on the horizon. The sun has set for me on the Atlantic, on the desert regions of Southern California, on the downs of England, yet it goes into the smoky atmosphere of the city of Vancouver and yet again beyond the Golden Gate to San Francisco. Each respective picture lacks the quality of the Prince Rupert sunsets.

Call it the "City of the Totem Pole." A library pamphlet was put into my hands the other day from one of the Eastern Libraries, Davenport, Iowa, or some such place. It bore a picture of the Totem Pole, situated on Second Avenue, so well known to us all. Beside it stood a group of tourists. Let us hope they were not the kind in tweed knickers, carrying a black leather vanity case, "hiking" on the S.S. Prince George, you know. That small article gave more local atmosphere and would arouse more interest than all the sixth of a column in the Boston paper.

Opportunity

There was an opportunity for an excellent account of Prince Rupert. An account that would bring out the local setting, give a vision of our mountains, of the vast reaches of cool evergreen clad hills, of the glistening arm of the sea that wanders around the island, of the northern lights and of the joy after a rain. Then too a word about the Indians, the totems, the places tourists can see and for the men information about the hunting and fishing grounds. Yes, the north country is to be the play ground for all nations. Naturally there would be a good note with all the commercial assets, touching the fishing, lumbering, interior mining, the elevator and all.

With all this to tell, the two paragraphs in the Boston paper just put forth a small claim for publicity and even that was doubtful. Vancouver and Victoria saw fit to have real live articles with arresting headings, clever views and exact information.

In a few years that highway through the interior of the Province is to be completed and already I have been asked if goes to Prince Rupert. People are planning to drive their cars up that way. Vancouver knows they will come in increasing numbers and so they did their best to attract attention to Vancouver.

On to Rupert

That highway is to go on to Prince Rupert and it seems that in view of the future years and the coming tourists we should let it be known just how much there is to offer.

INCriminating

A clergyman gave out the hymn, "I Love to Steal Away," and the deacon who led the singing began, "I love to steal—" but found he had pitched the note too high. Again he began, "I love to steal—" but this time it was too low. Once more he tried, "I love to steal—" and again the pitch was wrong. After the third failure the minister said, "Observing our brother's propensities, let us pray."—Western Christian Advocate.

Evitt, Mrs. G. A. Clothier, Mrs. A. R. Nichols, and Mr. A. E. Wright. Tees were cut by Mrs. G. A. Woodland assisted by Misses Alice Pillsbury, Audrey Bushby, Muriel Miller and Lillian Cross. Mrs. J. Carrall most capably supervised the refreshments.

During the afternoon several beautiful solos were rendered by Mrs. Donald Ross, and Miss Adeline Advant with Mrs. R. P. Ponder accompanying in a very pleasing manner.

A great many ladies availed themselves of the opportunity of calling to meet the bride and present their good wishes.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE FOOTBALL MATCH AT ACROPOLIS GROUNDS

High School Won Opening Game Against Wymacks But Play Was Very Close

The opening game of the Intermediate League was played last night resulting in victory for the High School over the Wymacks, the latter representing the United Church young men's club. The game was well contested and showed that in the other matches which are to follow there is likely to be a strong bid for supremacy. The score of three goals to one does not give the relative strength of the teams. Two of the winners' goals were scored in the first half, the first on a penalty kick when one of the Wymack players tumbled his head for a moment and the second was a queer mix-up at the goal.

Mining Report for Year Shows
Increase in Production of B.C.
Mines Except in Few Instances

VICTORIA, May 20.—The value of the mineral production in British Columbia in 1925 established a new high mark in the history of the province with a total output of $61,492,242 as compared with $48,704,604 in 1924, an increase of no less than 26.2 per cent.

The final and revised figures for 1925 are now available and the annual report covering the whole mining situation in the province, and setting forth the remarkable progress being made, will shortly be issued.

Commenting upon the showing made Hon. William Sloan, provincial secretary and minister of mines, expressed his utmost satisfaction at the rapid advance made to the industry, which, in 1925, produced an output, the greatest in the history of mining in the province. Mr. Sloan pointed to the satisfactory increases which have been made yearly in the last ten years, and expressed the view that the present rate of progress the value of B.C.'s mineral production will shortly touch the hundred million mark.

Direction of Galloway
The annual report of the department will prove of exceptional interest to those engaged in the industry which is at present attracting so much attention, not alone in the province but throughout the country and abroad. The report has been compiled under the direction of John D. Galloway, provincial mineralogist, and George Wilkinson, chief inspector of mines.

According to the revised and official figures the quantity and value of the mineral production ley, and the remainder from the treatment of cuxtons ores and concentrates. The increased production of copper was due to increases from the Granby Company's mine, mill and smelter, at Anyox, and the Britannia Company Copper's mine, at Britannia Beach, and to the commencement of operations in August at the Albenby Copper Company's mine and mill, near Princeton. Offsetting these increases, there was a decrease in copper output from the Rossland mines of the Consolidated Company.

Active in Development
Referring to the gold output, Mr. Sloan points out that while the production of placer-gold in 1925 was less than in 1924, the year was a very active one in placer development and testing of low-grade deposits of gravel. An interesting feature of the year's placer mining was the successful operation of the Kalfue Copper Development Company's dredge near Barkerville, in the Cariboo district, which made an output of gold valued at $95,066. Lode-gold shows a decrease of $785,266, as compared with 1924. This is accounted for by the decreased production from the Rossland mines, which were non-productive during most of the year.

Coal Increase
Net coal production for 1925, Mr. Sloan points out, showed a substantial increase over 1924, an increase amounting to 388,296 long tons. The increase in output was from the Crow's Nest district, where over three times as much coal was produced as in the preceding year. The mines in this district were closed during a large part of 1924 owing to labor troubles, and the output was very much less than normal. Amicable arrangements have now been made with labor, lost markets have been regained, and the industry is in a healthy condition in the Crow's Nest district. The 1925 production of coke showed the considerable increase of 44,570 tons as compared with the 1924 output. A decrease in production occurred in 1925 in the Nicola-Princeton district and a very slight decrease in the Vancouver Island coal producing district. Competition from foreign crude oil is still keenly felt by the Vancouver Island mines.

A slightly decreased output of building materials was made in 1925, as compared with the preceding year, but it is believed that there was nearly as much building and construction as in 1924.

Metal Prices.
Higher metal prices had a most important bearing on the value of the mineral production of B.C. in 1925, stated Mr. Sloan. The prices were higher in 1925 for silver, copper and zinc than in the preceding year, but slightly lower for lead; the decrease in the average lead price, as shown in the report, is owing to the London price being used instead of the New York price, which was taken in 1924.

Copper Higher
The prices of silver, lead and zinc are now excellent and it is expected that the present average level of prices will be well maintained in the future. During 1925 the average price of copper was a little more than a cent a pound, higher than in 1924. The present 14-cent level for copper is expected to be maintained and this price is good enough to gradually stimulate copper production in British Columbia. Costs of mining, including wages and supplies, have been pretty well stabilized during the last two years, so that with good metal prices and reasonable costs the future for metal mining in British Columbia is most favorable and the industry will undoubtedly have a prosperous year in 1926, said honorable Mr. Sloan.

It is interesting to note, went on the Minister of Mines, that the mining industry of B.C. has steadily increased with but few yearly setbacks. Thirty years ago (in 1895) the province produced minerals to the value of $5,643,042, and ten years ago (in 1915) the production was less than half that of 1925, being $29,147,508.

Dividends Paid
The following table shows the dividends declared by Companies engaged in the mining industry in the Province, during 1925:
Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. of Canada, Ltd. $3,238,054
Premier Gold Mining Company 1,600,375
Howe Sound Copper Co. 467,189

Good Reserves
The above amount $6,319,808 shown as distributed in 1925 by no means represents the total of net profit earned during that year. In nearly all cases substantial sums are set aside from profits to the credit of surplus and reserve accounts. In the case of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company and the Premier Gold Mining Company, net profits were very largely in excess of dividend requirements. The first-named Company's net profits in 1925 aggregating after payment of $2,474,769 in taxes, $10,780,637. Profits accruing to private companies and individual mining enterprises, as a rule are not given publicity as dividends, as is the case with the large companies, so that no record of these profits, which in the aggregate are considerable, is available.

of fish oils, meal and fertilizer, owned and controlled chiefly by Peter Rorvik and George Macdonald, both formerly of Prince Rupert, announce that they have contracted at good prices for the entire output of their plant at Toquart on the west coast of Vancouver Island. They have installed a $50,000 plant to handle pilehead and dogfish and have made provision to handle 4,000 tons of pilehead and 3,000 tons of dogfish, which will keep the plant running until March 1. The oil is shipped to the United States and the better grade of meal is put up in small packages and sold as edible food, the bulk going to China and Japan. Capt. Rorvik reports that salmon fishing has been very poor there this year so far, the prices running around 12 and 14 cents.

IF you feel pugilistic and do not want to have somebody strike back, just strike an attitude.
THE most unlikely person is the one with a superiority complex.
AN eloquent editor in the berry belt pays the following glowing tribute to the strawberry shortcake: "Made by a woman who knows how, baked to a golden shade and swamped with crushed berries, the light and flaky cake becomes a veritable island of delight, a little continent of bliss surrounded by a sea of pink deliciousness scented with an aroma the gods provide."

TINKLE, tinkle, little bell There's the telephone, oh hell, Wonder who is ringing now Making such a wretched row? There it's ringing louder still. Bet it's someone wants his bill. "Hello, who the deuce are you?" Mamie, oh yes, how d'you do? Thought you were the grocer man Come and see me if you can."

SOME people are successful because their friends in the Old Country persistently refuse to send them money.
WOMEN are to blame when a couple do not get along well. What could have been expected when they agreed to marry such a man?

JAPANESE SLUM TERRIBLE PLACE

Veritable Den of Filth in Which Life Has no Purpose and Odors are Vile

Sadness, without strength for tears, squalor too general to permit comparisons which might excite a desire for improvement, misery born dumbly—the sadness, squalor and misery seen in the slum quarter of Nipponi is a revelation of one phase of the modern civilization which claims Tokyo, says the Japan Advertiser.

In the Nipponi slum district from 2,500 to 3,000 persons, representing approximately 700 families, inhabit a veritable den of filth.

Life no longer holds purpose for these creatures, denuded by misfortune; their only effort is to hold body and soul together for a little longer in the vile odors, dampness and dismal light in which they exist.

A most pathetic spectacle there is decrepit old men and women in rags lying on the mats motionless either from fatigue or because of being invalids. Their heads are so near the doors that passers-by would be able to touch a head on each side of the path at the same time.

With this situation as the background, the Airindan Nipponi settlement was established on February 1, 1920, under the auspices of the Federation of the Tokyo Social Work of Methodist Churches supported by the Canadian Methodist Mission, Airindan.

WHEAT IS WELL UP IN ALBERTA

Nothing Has Happened Yet to Interfere with Growth and Prospects Good

Wheat seeding has been practically completed over the greater part of central Alberta under the most favorable conditions, according to information supplied to over 80 special correspondents for the Edmonton Journal.

Reports from many districts indicate that all the wheat has been in the ground for some time and that a great deal of it is making a splendid showing while in a few localities the finish of seeding has been delayed until the present week.

In the great majority of cases the seed bed is reported to be in excellent condition and the growth is rapid as a result of timely local showers. In a number of other districts, however, further rains are needed to offset the effects of drying winds during the past week or two.

Increase in Acreage
One of the most encouraging features of the reports is the almost general increase in acreage under crop in 1926. Very few districts show less than 10 per cent increase this year and in some cases this is as high as 50 per cent. This is accounted for largely by the acreage of new breaking which is seeded this year and by the considerable area of land being brought under cultivation in this part of the province by new settlers.

Very Little Damage
Practically no damage is reported as yet to the grain which is showing well above ground. In one or two instances slight frosts have occurred and in the southeast corner of the area covered by the reports, grasshoppers and wireworms have made their appearance but active steps are being taken to control these pests.

NOTHING DISCREDITS STATEMENTS OF BIBLE

No Reason Why Ancient Writers Should Tell Anything but Truth, says Speaker

EDMONTON, Jan. 20.—Nothing has been found by the archaeologists to date that has discredited a single statement of fact in the Bible, Dr. M. G. Kyle, president of Xenia Seminary, declared in an address to the Kiwanis club at a luncheon. Nothing of this nature, he prophesied, further, would ever be found.

"Why should the ancients have falsified their documents?" Dr. Kyle asked, in discussing the trustworthiness of ancient writings. They were not, he pointed out, catering to a sensation-loving public, but were commissioned by the kings to set down the truths as they found them.

Dr. Kyle in the course of this address cited numerous instances of where writings once considered expressive merely of a myth were later, through the findings of archaeologists, proven to be historical records. Homer's works, once believed to be merely romance, for instance, now were known to be founded upon history. The theory of the Babylonian origin of Semetic culture had been dispelled and the existence of the Hittite nation determined through archaeological explorations.

Dr. Kyle's whole address proved interesting, and he was heartily thanked by the club.

EDUCATIONAL AND HISTORICAL TOUR

The Canadian National Railways will operate a forty-three day Personally Conducted Educational Tour to Europe this Summer, sailing via the S.S. "Athenia" from Montreal, July 9, direct to Glasgow. Proceeding from there, the party will visit different points of interest in Scotland, England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland and France, also an opportunity to visit the Battlefields. Returning to England, will sail from Liverpool on S.S. "Aurania" August 13, for Montreal. Considering the number of points visited, the accommodation provided, and entertainment offered, this is one of the lowest priced Tours ever operated by Europe.

Full particulars, reservations, etc., from any Agent, C.N. Railways, or R. F. McNaughton, District Passenger Agent, Prince Rupert.

TIMBER SALE X 8061.

Sealed Tenders will be received by the District Forester, not later than noon on the 22nd day of June, 1926, for the purchase of Licence X8061, south shore Smith Inlet, to cut 180,000 feet board measure of Cedar, Spruce, Hemlock, Balsam and Yellow Cedar sawlogs.

Two 12 years will be allowed for removal of timber.

Further particulars of the Chief Forester, Victoria, or the District Forester, Prince Rupert, B.C.

"Imaginary" Rheumatism Caused by Illfitting Shoes

MANY, many times physicians have diagnosed what appears to be rheumatism, as really being pains arising from the effects of Fallen Arches.

When the foot arches begin to break down, the pain is often ascribed to a sprain or rheumatism. Pain occurs along the inside of the foot, in the heel, also the calf of the leg, and is often located in the knee or hip joints.

This condition brings on general muscular weakness—the ligaments are strained, interfering with proper nourishment of the foot. The circulation becomes poor—attendant symptoms appear—numbness, cold, and at times, undue perspiration. To prevent and cure this condition the foot must be given support, combined with the utmost freedom of movement.

Arch Defender Shoes give support to the scaphoid bone when needed, while allowing full flexibility and freedom to the muscular structure of the foot.

If you value your health—join the thousands who have banished foot trouble. Get a pair today.
