Premier and Minister Defend Imperial Conference Speaking Before Banquet in Their Honor

Nothing done to take away rights of provinces or individuals--distinguished visitors might mind their own business suggested

TORONTO, February 4.—"Nothing was done at the Imperial Conference which would take away from any province or any person any rights enjoyed under the British North America Act," Premier King emphatically stated last night at a banquet given in his honor and that of the members of the cabinet. "Nor would any attempt of the kind have been countenanced for one moment by either Mr. Lapointe or myself, least of all in this the diamond jubilee year of confederation," the Premier declared. Mr. King left the subject of defence for discussion in parliament, saying that to talk of it then would involve more of his time than he cared to take or was at his disposal.

CHURCHILL NOT AFRAID OF CHINA

MANCHESTER, Feb. 4.—Britain is prepared to the utmost limit to gratify the national feelings of the Chinese people but British lives and property must be protected from mob violence, the Chancellor of the Exchequer Churchill declared in a speech here today. He said, however, that he did not believe there was any ground for anxiety regarding the situation in China. He expressed his belief that firmness, coupled with patience and forbearance, would greatly ameliorate conditions. He compared the foreign minister of the Cantonese government with Secretary Cook of the Miners' Confederation and leader in the recent coal strike. "Last year," the chancellor of the exchequer said, "we had Cook. This year we have Chen. Both seem to draw their inspiration from the same source. They teach the same doctrine and seem to be pursuing the same objects."

IS ATTACKED BY BUFFALO

MAN NAMED FERGUSON ASSAILED AND INJURED BY ONE BETWEEN FORTS FITZGERALD AND SMITH
EDMONTON, Feb. 4.—Harried and harassed by hungry huskies, a band of buffalo attacked one Ferguson, a trapper, near Smith portage, between Forts Fitzgerald and Smith, recently, and injured the trapper, said Micky Ryan, famous Northland musher and mailman, who arrived in the city from the north after making a quick 6-day run over the 300 miles between Smith and McMurray with his crack dog team. He was accompanied by his father, John Ryan, who is returning to his home in Indiana, and Miss M. L. Loutit and Miss Jenny Fraser, of Chipewyan.
This is the only instance that he has heard of this winter where the buffalo have attacked anyone, said Micky. The trapper was musing down the portage trail when his dogs wended the herd. They became unmanageable and attacked the buffalo, who turned upon the trapper as he rushed forward to try and call off his huskies. He was gored in the arm by a big bull and hurled into the bushes on one side of the trail. The band then retired. His injuries were not serious.
This is a band of some 50 buffalo which were brought up from the park at Wainwright during the summer. Up to now they have made their headquarters in the thick bush near Micky Ryan's headquarters camp at the portage and appear to be quite tame, having been accustomed to the frequent sight of humans while in the park.

Vancouver Province Says All Fishing Boats Built by Japs; Not So at This Port, However

VANCOUVER, February 4.—Japanese boat yards at Vancouver, Prince Rupert, Vancouver Island and Steveston, according to reports, says the Vancouver Province, have recently obtained contracts to build more than two dozen halibut and seine boats for fishing companies on the coast. "Yards operated by white men," the newspaper states, "have not obtained one contract it is said. Japanese, paying lower wages and working longer hours, have been able to underbid white men. One case is reported where a white yard tendered $12,000 and the Japanese price was nearly $3,000 less. The Japanese are good builders of small boats and, with their work in lumbering and fishing being gradually restricted, they are taking up this occupation."

Legislation for Remodelling of Liquor Act is Brought In by Attorney General, Victoria

VICTORIA, February 4.—Legislation proposing the remodelling of the British Columbia system of liquor control was introduced in the legislature yesterday by Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney general. Beside making the Liquor Control Board responsible directly to the legislature instead of to the government, the new law would give the board power to appoint every member of its staff and to make whatever regulations it seemed necessary without referring them to the government. It would also provide for the liquor stores in Vancouver and Victoria remaining open after 8 o'clock on week nights, that any person under 21 years of age and no person whose liquor permit had been suspended is to be allowed to enter a beer parlor is guilty of an offence.

Economic Condition of Province is Improved During Liberal Regime

VICTORIA, February 4.—Improvement in the economic condition of British Columbia has been no haphazard development but has been the result of the well ordered policies of the Oliver government, declared Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, continuing the budget debate in the legislature on Thursday. That policy, the minister said, had been developed on three lines: first, the setting of its financial house in order; second, providing for the social welfare of the people to a greater extent than any other province had done, and, third, the development of the province's natural resources.

IS HUDSON BAY RAILWAY WISE?

The large expenditure proposed by the minister of railways to examine Hudson Straits as an outlet to the Atlantic Ocean from the partly completed Hudson Bay Railway brings the whole project prominently into the limelight again. Manitoba is pretty solid for this road and it would be the province that would almost exclusively benefit. It is very doubtful, however, if the three western provinces, especially British Columbia, see much wisdom in the project. Here is what the Edmonton Journal Conservative, says about it:

There are insistent reports from Ottawa that the terminal of the Hudson Bay Railway will be changed from Nelson to Churchill. The feeling has been growing that a serious mistake was made in choosing the former port and that, in spite of the large outlay that has already been made there, it should be abandoned. At the time the British engineer, Frederick Palmer, was commissioned to investigate conditions at Nelson, it was stated that it would not be part of his duty to recommend for or against the retention of that terminal. But if he finds that it is impossible to establish one of a proper character at that point or that a very much larger expenditure than has been contemplated will be necessary to secure that result, the government would not be justified in proceeding with the present plans.

A member of the cabinet, Mr. Motherwell, a strong believer in the possibilities of the H.B.R., has expressed the view that Nelson should never have been selected. One would think that all who are anxious to have the enterprise succeed would be in favor of whatever terminal was found the most suitable by the best expert opinion available, and that they would be glad to have Mr. Palmer inquire into the respective merits of the two ports. But the Manitoba Free Press is constantly reiterating the cry that on no consideration should there be any alteration in the program.

In an article this week headed "Port Nelson Without Delay," that newspaper declares that if steel does not reach that point before the end of the present year the government "will be regarded as having broken faith with the people of western Canada and must be prepared to take the consequences." If it is wavering, this is said to be due to "lack of knowledge of the situation," though just what the lack is the Free Press does not explain. It adds that the administration "has no mandate to instruct Mr. Palmer or anyone else to choose between the two ports" and that "the decision to go ahead with Port Nelson has long since been endorsed by the people of Canada."

This is all nonsense. The great majority of Canadians, it is quite clear, are very doubtful as to the wisdom of the whole H.B.R. project. They certainly have not and will not endorse the spending of further large sums at Nelson if Mr. Malmer's report is of a character adverse to that terminal. Objection has often been taken to the practice of representing "the people of western Canada" as demanding the carrying out of the policy that it favors. Over probably the larger part of the western provinces there is no demand for the completion of the railway, let alone for construction to Nelson at any cost.

SPRING IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER.

Spring, most beautiful of all seasons, is just around the corner. Soon the air will be scented with the redolent fragrance of the trees and flowers. The birds will be returning from their southern homes, filled with new life and new energies and preparing for their summer sojourn. Their songs of greeting will be heard from every direction. The trees will be bursting into bloom for the glorious months to come.

Spring is the time when all nature is busy and it is a time in every person's life when he is glad that he can see it and be in it as well. Human beings soon will be breathing in the very spirit of the vernal season radiated by all the animal and plant life around them.

It is in the springtime that mankind realizes most how little he understands nature and her phenomena. And it is in this season that many men, women and children awaken to an insatiable desire to learn the secrets of the great out-of-doors. Thoreau differed from millions of others only in the degree of his nature-loving. Nature in her new dress soon will be luring people out of their snug homes into the open. Some will respond with fishing rods, others with flower baskets, others with cameras and still others with walking sticks. But all will answer the same call.

When spring is just around the corner humanity experiences that same thrill of happy but anxious anticipation which children feel on Christmas eve and the day before the last day of school.

DOCTOR KERGIN TELLS OF TRIP

GAVE INTERESTING ADDRESS BEFORE ROTARY CLUB ABOUT JAUNT TO CALIFORNIA

Members of the Rotary Club and visitors listened with a great deal of interest yesterday to Rotarian W. T. Kergin's account of his recent motor trip from Vancouver to California on which he was accompanied by Mrs. Kergin, his mother, Mrs. W. H. Kergin, and his daughter Margaret. Interspersed with numerous anecdotes in regard to the motor traffic in the southern republic and complimentary references to the excellent highways which he found everywhere, the doctor described the several cities visited and detailed his impressions of the various localities. He had found it to be a very good time for a trip of this nature as the roads were excellent with very little snow anywhere although the road at one place was 4,500 feet above sea level. In California the weather was fine and sunny with the thermometer not recording excessive heat or cold.

After a short stay in San Francisco, Dr. Kergin motored to Los Angeles down the coast route and while there had seen several former local people. From Los Angeles they proceeded down the famous Imperial Valley which was a desert until irrigation had made it possible to grow immense crops. The irrigation of this valley was accomplished by bringing water back from Mexico and at present there was a proposition before Congress for the construction of a dam for further irrigation in this immense area. Cotton was being harvested in the valley and he had learned of very extensive returns to those interested in the enterprise.

From San Diego, they continued to Tia Juana and there met James McNulty, who seemed to be enjoying his winter vacation. Coming back up the coast to San Diego they stopped at the beautiful Spanish Mission and the doctor was impressed with the vision of the missionaries who had located there and endeavored to teach the youth not only the Spanish language but to educate them in various trades. Fresno was then visited and the usual fine weather prevailed there which permitted the trip to be enjoyed to the fullest extent.

VISITED ROTARY CLUBS

The doctor gave a few impressions of the various Rotary clubs he had visited. In almost every instance he had listened to very interesting and wonderful addresses by outstanding men. At Vancouver an address was given by Professor Weir of the University of British Columbia. Marshall Brinman, editor of a local paper, had delivered one of the finest addresses to the Portland Club which the doctor had listened to for some time. The subject under review for the day was "Business Ethics" and the speaker stressed the point that there seemed to be a partial falling in the work which the churches were expected to do so that it seemed incumbent upon business men to inculcate the spirit of Rotary in the business life of the community today.

Los Angeles Rotary Club had a membership of about three hundred and the address of the day was given by Cameron Beck of Wall Street, New York. The address did not deal with finance but with the problems and importance of improving the condition of the American boy. The speaker was on leave of absence and was addressing clubs and schools in California. Riverside Club had many interesting and novel ways of raising money for club purposes and it seemed to the doctor that all the American clubs were very strong on some measure of fining or otherwise penalizing members for the purpose of adding to their exchequer. One of the liveliest towns visited was Bakersfield, 130 miles north of Los Angeles, a place of about 60,000 people, situated in the centre of the oil district. The club was smaller than some and welcomed visitors in the accustomed gracious manner. Here, the speaker was a bank man and gave an address on the assumption by the American Bank of trusteeship for estates. A hospitable club at Centralia, Washington, listened to an address by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

IMPRESSIONS GAINED

Referring to various impressions gained on the trip, the doctor spoke very appreciatively of the welcome accorded the tourist and the excellent services rendered. He had found it necessary to stop en route for minor services at garages some of which were far removed from the cities. Not in one instance had he been overcharged and in every case the motto "Service with a Smile" seemed to be lived up to. The courtesy shown him had been very generous and he had reflected on whether the general public was not overtaking the motto of Rotary.

Another noteworthy thing to the mind of the speaker was the wonderful facilities provided by a motor car. It had become common-place to many but the experiences of such a trip served to emphasize the part played by the motor car in the life of the country. There seemed to be a certain individuality about every community, just as each individual had a different personality. No two places seemed to be the same according to the doctor who gave this as his concluding impression.

In closing, the speaker spoke of the wonderful public spirit in the various communities and forecasted wonderful development in Prince Rupert if that spirit was cultivated here. Nothing would stop growth here if there was unity and no lines of cleavage and the doctor was very optimistic as to the outlook for the future.

WERE MARRIED LAST EVENING

MISS FLORENCE JOY BECOMES BRIDE OF G. ANDERSON AT CEREMONY IN PARENTS' HOME

A pretty and interesting wedding took place at 7.30 last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Joy, 549 Ninth Avenue West, when Miss Florence Joy was united in marriage to G. Anderson of Ireland, the ceremony being performed by Archdeacon G. A. Rix.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of pale orchid georgette decorated with diamond and silver effects and silver metallic hat with footwear to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. The bridesmaids were Miss Alita Johnson and Miss Marjorie Joy who wore pretty costumes of mauve taffeta and peach crape with silver bandeau respectively and carried appropriate bouquets.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Jack Joy, and the groom was attended by William Love. The groom's gifts to the bridesmaids were an onyx ring and brooch and to the groomsmen, a set of cuff links.

Following the marriage ceremony, a reception was held where numerous and costly gifts were displayed. The bride's mother wore a gown of crushed violet crepe with back satin and corsage of pink carnations and freesias. In the midst of relatives and friends, the toast to the bride was proposed by Archdeacon Rix, the groom responding suitably. The occasion was further celebrated with a dance in the I.O.D.E. Hall.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for Australia where they will take up their residence. The bride's going away costume was a dress of rose corded satin and hat to match with French velour coat trimmed with opossum fur.

Congratulations and best wishes of many friends will be extended to the happy couple. The bride is particularly well-known, having resided here since early girlhood. She has been a member of the municipal telephone department staff for the past few years. The groom, who is a brother of Mrs. R. J. McCarthy, Fifth Avenue East, came out from the Old Country a year or so ago.

Zam-Buk

SAVES DOCTORS' BILLS

ECZEMA ENDED
Madame A. Lariviere of Fall River, Mass., suffered with eczema for three years, and had treatment from several doctors, all of whom gave up the case. "Finally," she says, "I went to a specialist, which cost me another $20, but I was no better."
"A friend advised me to try Zam-Buk, which I did, and for which I have ever since been thankful. I very soon felt some relief, and perseverance with Zam-Buk completely rid me of the disease."

SEVERE CUT HEALED
Mr. C. Oakley of Saskatoon, who sustained a terrible cut on his leg, says: "Had I known of Zam-Buk when the accident occurred, I could have saved myself a $40 doctor's bill! A doctor sewed up the cut and attended me for five weeks, but the wound did not heal, and he advised me to go into a hospital."
"I objected, however, and used Zam-Buk instead, and in two weeks' time was back at work."

SAVED OPERATION
"Father developed a painful sore on his face," writes Miss N. Lewis of Silver Lake, Oregon. "Numerous remedies and treatment from several doctors failed to heal it, and the doctor advised an operation. Someone advised him to first try Zam-Buk. A few applications brought relief, and continued use of Zam-Buk entirely healed the sore, saving father from an operation."
Zam-Buk is best for eczema, ringworm, soft chlamy, boils, pimples, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, bruises, burns and scalds. All dealers sell boxes.

IN NERVOUS DISORDERS-- Free The Nerves

In cases of nervous disorders it is but logical that all effort should be directed to secure a proper co-ordination of the nervous system. If you know of the science of Chiropractic you will unhesitatingly add that Chiropractic best achieves this result.

For the science of Chiropractic deals directly with the nervous system. The Chiropractor knows that most disease is due to pressure upon nerves by spinal bones, and he removes this pressure by Chiropractic spinal adjustments.

In the case of nervous disorders adjustments go directly to the source of the trouble, and it is a rare case of this type indeed which cannot be benefited by adjustments.

A case in point—
"After the sudden death of my husband, I found myself a nervous wreck. For two years I had not slept more than two or three hours out of each twenty-four. The loss of sleep brought nervous indigestion and many physical ills. I could not discuss my business affairs with my attorney without 'going to pieces' and could not attend to them at all. I was desperate when a good friend suggested Chiropractic. After the first adjustment I slept 14 hours without awakening. I took about forty adjustments, but before I finished I was a new woman, sleeping all night, eating anything I wanted and attending to my business affairs without the least obstacle."—Mrs. Mary Miles Baker, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2115-L.

ELEVATORS AT HEAD OF LAKES PLUGGED

WINNIPEG, Feb. 4.—Elevators at the lake heads are virtually plugged, with 48,800,000 bushels in the bins besides stocks afloat in freighters being used as auxiliary elevators, and a complete tie-up in the eastbound movement is a matter of days, according to information received today. The all-rail movement of roughly 200 cars per day is the only source of relief for the congestion. The Canadian National Railway declared restrictions in force ten days ago which have not been lifted, and grain cars under load for the terminals run into thousands on Canadian Pacific tracks, it is learned.

The firm grip that sports have taken on the German people is lauded in the official report which says that between 15 and 20 per cent of the population between the ages of 14 and 50 participates in athletics. The figures do not include students in public schools or universities. Approximately one of every seven inhabitants, including men, women and children, is an active member of an athletic club. The German Turners alone have a membership of 1,500,000. The sport clubs which are united under the supervision of the Olympic games committee, number more than 1,000,000 athletes.

RUPERT AND GEORGE HAVE FAIR TROUBLES; SMITHERS IS LUCKY

Smithers may well feel proud of the steady progress made with its fall fair and will share in the hope that this event will soon be established as the one big celebration in all of Central British Columbia, says the Smithers Interior News. The work has been heavy, the struggle hard at times, but Smithers faces the future with a prospect very bright in comparison with our neighbors at Prince Rupert and Prince George. Last year Prince Rupert went behind something like $2,000 in staging its fair and at a meeting held last week the attendance was divided between carrying on or dropping the fair. This is to be decided at a later meeting, and until then no officers are to be elected. At Prince George the fair also suffered reverses. Mr. Johnson, the president, expressed the opinion that Prince George was too small to stage a stampede on the scale carried out last year and which was responsible for the $1,500 deficit chalked up. Both Prince Rupert and Prince George are planning a fair on a greatly reduced scale if at all. Smithers is setting the stage for an enlargement made possible by building from the ground up.

SUBSTITUTE FOR LIQUOR NEEDED

UNUSUAL REMARKS MADE BY FORMER LOCAL PASTOR AT PRAYER MEETING IN NELSON

NELSON, Feb. 4.—Rev. James Youngson, Rev. E. G. Turner and Mrs. M. Gibbs, spoke on various phases of the temperance question, at a prayer-meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, held in the First Baptist Church here, when the addresses of the two ministers were notable for the fact that they demanded a positive substitute for the social offices performed by liquor, if it was to be done away with.

Mrs. Gibbs, president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, said liquor seemed to her "the most insidious evil in the world," for it appealed particularly to youth, and sapped vitality, strength and will power. "The end is not always destruction," said Mrs. Gibbs, but it was often enough to make women fear for their children. The present agitation in Nelson was in order that the women might make the way safer from evil and temptation for their children.

SOUL IN DANGER
Taking the scientific phase, nature abhors a vacuum," as the basis of his address, Mr. Youngson stated that a human soul, "if tenantless, is in deadly danger, and an empty heart is a standing invitation to evil."

"You are endeavoring to better the society in which you live. You, it may be, prosecute that effect to take from man the resources of the saloon. What is he going to do with his evenings?" he asked.

That he would do something better was the argument, according to the speaker, and it was a "good argument,—but have you something better to give him? If not, you have exposed him to a deadly danger—a vacuum."

He instanced the criminal given "hard labor for the good of his soul," but an outcast thereafter, owing to a vacuum having been created in his life.

Christianity was not incapable of dealing with the problem, said Mr. Youngson. Christianity could fill it.

"I want to see liquor done away with," Mr. Turner asserted, "but I don't want my enthusiasm to take me where my wisdom can't."

The Women's Christian Temperance Union was trying to do away with something—"What is it going to put in its place?" Mr. Turner asked. Men must be led out of the saloon into something better, "but by a different program."

Some people charged the church with "trying to sell to the heathen what we can't put over in our own land. I feel that a great spiritual renaissance is coming. India is not moving Christward—but India is not moving churchward, not Christianityward, not western civilizationward. She has no use for the articles of our faith. She detests it. She wants Christ. We can't lead by the creeds or credal statements, but we can lead by Him. A great responsibility is ours. May God guide and help us," Mr. Turner concluded.

A resolution forwarded in November of the British Columbia Prohibition convention at Vancouver and favoring the formation of a Prohibition party for political purposes, was read at the meeting but no action was taken.

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful.

Every manager of a household—every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare—should make a habit of reading the ads.

Read the advertisements in order to buy wisely

PLANS ALASKA PLANE SERVICE

BESIDE PASSENGER AND MAIL CARRYING BETWEEN SOUTHERN CITIES, HUBBARD CONTEMPLATES NORTHERN PROJECT

VICTORIA, Feb. 4.—According to advices received from Seattle, construction of airplanes for service over the air mail route between Chicago and San Francisco is well under way and machines will be ready for service July 1. The Boeing Airplane Company, of which C. E. Egtvot, of Seattle, is vice-president, and with which is associated Pilot Eddie Hubbard, pioneer air mail carrier between Victoria and Seattle, was granted a contract by Postmaster-General New yesterday to carry mail over the new route. Passengers and express will be handled in addition to the mail.

How important this new contract is to Victoria will be readily seen. With the establishment of the Pacific Coast air mail route, connecting Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle with Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, the transcontinental time for mail delivery to New York was cut considerably. With the establishment of the express service from San Francisco to Chicago, special mail will be delivered in even shorter time.

ALASKA SERVICE
Apart from this new development Pilot Eddie Hubbard is contemplating the construction of three passenger planes, of the enclosed type, for using in trips to Alaska and services between Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver. It is planned by Eddie Hubbard to establish a daily passenger and mail service between Victoria and Seattle.

In a letter to Mayor J. Carl Pendray, Deputy Minister of Defence G. J. Desbarats suggests a public air harbor for Victoria. Mr. Desbarats extends to the city the services of an officer of the Royal Canadian Air Force, if it wants to look into the situation. This offer is

MORE IMMIGRATION IS PROMISED FOR WEST

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—Largely improved prospects for increased immigration during the coming year from Great Britain and from the United States are reported by W. J. Egan, Deputy Minister of Immigration and Colonization, who has just returned from a tour of inspection of the principal offices of the department in the United States and who has also received what he regards as highly encouraging news from representatives in the British Isles.

During his visit to the United States, Mr. Egan said he found promise of an increased movement to farms in Western Canada from the middle and northwestern states, activity being particularly noticeable in Nebraska and adjoining states.

Another movement to develop is that of tobacco growers from Virginia and North and South Carolina to Western Ontario. A considerable number of these are expected to come in the spring.
