ASSASSINATION OF SOVIET MINISTER

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS IN CHINA ARE PROCEEDING TODAY

CHARGES WERE UNTRUE SAYS COMMISSIONER

MR. JUSTICE MORRISON FINDS GOVERNMENT DID NO WRONG AS ASSERTED BY CARLOW

VICTORIA, June 7.—Mr. Justice Morrison, the commissioner who investigated the Frank B. Carlow charges against certain members of the Government and former members of the Legislature, handed down his findings today. He completely exonerated all the parties against whom the charges were made.

The commissioner in concluding his report says: "Notwithstanding the submissions of George Cowan, K.C., appearing on behalf of H. D. Twigg, M.P.P., who brought the charges before the Legislature that the question before me was to be confined to determining the truth or falsity of Carlow's declaration, I nevertheless considered two questions specifically submitted and find that on the evidence produced and in respect to matters brought before me the business of the province has not been improperly transacted by the government or the province or were improper government officials in their dealing with matters which form the subject matter of the inquiry."

INCIDENT AT PRESBYTERIAN GEN. ASSEMBLY

COMMISSIONER REV. J. V. LAUGHLAND OF ONTARIO REFUSES TO STAND FOR NATIONAL ANTHEM.

STRATFORD, June 7.—A commissioner to the Presbyterian General Assembly here refused to stand during the singing of the National Anthem after his proposal to the assembly that they sing "Stand up for Jesus" had been turned down. The incident occurred when the Governor General's appreciation of the Church's loyalty on the King's Birthday had been read.

Commissioner, Rev. J. V. Laughland of Stella, Ontario, explaining his attitude told the assembly after the incident that he took second place to no man in his loyalty to the church or country but continued: "I had no desire to show disrespect to your relations as citizens but I do believe we do wrong to express our allegiance to any form of Government, for the day may come when Christ's kingdom may dictate some other form of government. You may be subjects of Canada or of the United States but the church as an institution, has one king and one only—Christ."

VANCOUVER, June 7.—Discussion of many proposals for the disposition of the canteen funds at the opening session of the convention of the British Columbia command of the Canadian Legion resulted in an agreement not to endorse any suggestion for submission to the conference on the matter which will open here today.

Resolutions passed by the Legion requested the Dominion Government to implement its promises to give ex-service men preference in civil service appointments; urged the holding of an investigation to find means of restoring to veterans losses incurred in the loss of wartime checks from foreign countries on which they had paid adverse exchange; urged the Legion to employ disabled veterans in its salaried positions whenever possible.

SEES ROUTE TO TERRACE FROM RUPERT

JAMES McRAE HAD PROPOSAL TO MAKE REGARD TO HIGHWAY TO INTERIOR

James McRae of McRae Brothers, who was in the city for the week end returning to his ranch at Kitsumkalum yesterday morning, brought with him an interesting map showing a route for a road to Aiyansh by way of Kitsumkalum Lake and down the Naas River toward Prince Rupert. He thought this should be investigated before the final route was determined upon, as the mineral country to be opened up that way would be so much more important than along the Skeena River. Already there is a road to Kitsumkalum Lake.

United we stand, divided we fall.

POWER OF UNITY OF PURPOSE STRESSED

Unity of purpose was stressed by General Sir Archibald Macdonell in addressing the Anglican Cathedral congregation Sunday morning when he showed how the Canadian army corps developed and how that growth in unity of purpose enabled it to win battles against almost unbeatable armies.

Taking his address as a text, it would be easy to preach a sermon on how Prince Rupert might be imbued by a high and noble purpose and might make such progress as would astound the world.

The General told how the army officers thought in terms of platoons at first but gradually developed until all were of the Canadian army and for the Canadian army and pettiness departed.

In Prince Rupert we are divided into Conservative and Liberal, into Protestant and Catholic, into employers and employed, into optimists and pessimists. We are divided again into a number of national groups such as Scotch Canadians, Irish Canadians, Swedish Canadians, ad libitum. We have fraternal groups and social groups and there are divisions all along the line.

The problem of the day is not to eliminate these divisions but to subordinate them to the one great impulse, the building up of the city. If we think Prince Rupert first and the political, social or religious or nations group second, we shall be in a position to advance the interests of the city and to make its influence felt in the country.

It's one of the curious things in life that General Macdonell with the grey eyes should be named Archibald.

VARIATIONS IN WEATHER CONDITIONS

It's interesting to note the variations there are in the weather conditions in this north country. For instance Metlakatla does not get as much rain as Prince Rupert although it is only six or seven miles distant and the gardens there are a week or two earlier than in this city.

A short distance from the coast it gets dryer and colder and some places are afflicted with strong winds while others are not. At some points on the north coast of British Columbia the rainfall is over two hundred inches a year while in Prince Rupert it seldom goes over one hundred. One of the wet places is Surf Inlet on Princess Royal Island.

Only the weak and irresolute allow themselves to be influenced by weather conditions. The brave and strong delight in a battle with the elements.

If it is true that anticipation is better than realization so it is also worse when it is trouble that is anticipated.

FLYING HAS BECOME CRAZE

Flying has become a craze this year. Everybody wants to fly. Life in the air is becoming fashionable and it seems as if we shall all have to aviate before long. It is a wonderful movement, this new form of transportation and a great improvement over the old methods. It brings speed and smoothness. No right of way is needed and there is no expensive road to build. As soon as they eliminate the noise and reduce the expense of operating, everybody will be getting an air flivver and hopping off to Terrace at the week end for a game of golf or an apple or dish of fresh strawberries.

It's easier to state things than it is prove them. And after all the world does not demand proof. What it asks is not truth but mystery.

Why quarrel with the world? Utilize the good things you have and you will find that more are added as the need arises.

It was once said that misery likes company but it might be more near the truth to say that misery makes company and miserable company at that.

CITY COUNCIL AND RAILWAY

QUESTIONS ANSWERED AFTER FREE-FOR-ALL DEBATE AT MEETING LAST NIGHT

The city council became hopelessly tangled last night in a maze of debate centring around the question of an agreement with the railway company and the suggestion to tax improvements next year. The meeting was brought about by a recommendation from the finance committee that the council answer several questions put by the railway company in connection with their negotiations for a five year agreement for a fixed rate of taxation. The mayor and practically all the aldermen took part in the free-for-all with the final result that the questions were answered but not exactly as the committee recommended. The questions and answers were:

1—Does the city propose to waive claim for unexpired debenture taxes for the year 1922 to 1926 against the drydock?

Reply—That the council accept $10,000 as being the figure estimated as the amount owing for debenture taxes.

2—Does the proposal for liability for debenture taxes only on the drydock cover the period of five years or only during the unexpired term under bylaw 324?

Reply amended to read: Only for the unexpired term which would be the years 1928 and 1929.

3—If for five years, does the debenture levy apply to land only?

Answered by No. 2.

4—Is it the intention that the agreement become effective covering the current year's taxes or commencing with 1928?

Answer—The current year.

It was explained by the mayor that if they made an agreement with the railway the people were the arbiters as they would have to vote on it before it became effective.

A general discussion followed which strayed far from the subject and during which some of the aldermen expressed themselves strongly against taxing improvements and others seemed opposed to making an agreement. At the close the questions were taken up one by one and disposed of as above, it being pointed out that the council had already gone on record in favor of an agreement with the railway.

REUNION OF K. P. LODGE

PLEASANT PROCEEDINGS TAKE PLACE IN BOSTON HALL WITH GOOD PROGRAM OF SPEECHES, MUSIC, ETC.

Members of the order and friends—both men and women—in goodly number attended the reunion held last night in the Boston Hall by Skeena Lodge No. 45, Knights of Pythias. W. S. Fisher acted as chairman and there was an attractive program of music, songs and speeches and other features which was followed by dancing and cards.

The proceedings opened with the singing of the Buchanan version of "O Canada" after which the blessing was asked by Rev. T. D. Rinde. Before sitting down to the enjoyment of the festive board, the gathering stood silently for one minute in tribute to departed brethren. Throughout the dinner and in the course of the program, there was community singing with W. Vaughan Davies at the piano.

The first number on the program was a mock sermon by Miss E. M. Earle who was most entertaining. Then Miss Eleanor Moxley favored with a well-executed Irish jig and Miss E. Davies was in good voice with vocal solos, being accompanied by Miss Marjorie Lancaster. Miss Louise Fisher was in her usual good form with recitations and a fairy dance was delightfully done by Miss Annie Gilchrist who was accompanied by her sister, Miss Margaret Gilchrist. Miss Kathleen Bulger acquitted herself creditably with violin solos and Rev. T. D. Rinde was excellent in recitations. All numbers were enjoyed.

An outstanding feature of the program was the address of E. A. Wakefield, United States consul, on "International Fraternism." The consul opened in his usual humorous way before launching into the seriousness of his subject. Speaking generally, he told of the advantages that were to be derived in a personal way from membership in the various organizations. Then there was the international aspect which was being gradually developed to a point where, through meeting on common ground, better understandings were being obtained between the nations through the medium of the secret societies, the service clubs, returned soldiers' organizations, women's federations, etc. The speaker referred at some length to the flight across the Atlantic Ocean of Capt. Charles A. Lindbergh and the improved feelings it had apparently engendered between United States and France which were not unfriendly but between whom there had not seemed to exist much mutual enthusiasm. Lindbergh's visit under such circumstances had gone far to improve that feeling.

PRESENTATION OF JEWELS

The final part of the program was the presentation of veterans' jewels in the order of F. W. Hart and W. S. Fisher by M. L. Stepp, retiring chancellor commander. In making the presentation, Mr. Stepp recited the Pythian tradition of the friendship between Damon and Pythias. There were even today in the

A RED glare in the sky . . . the crackling roar of flames as they sweep from tree to tree . . . none but those who have been through it can fully sense the terror and suffering that a forest fire brings to Canada's hinterlands.

In a flash, a whole community may be made homeless . . . without shelter, without food, suffering frightful injuries or mourning for dear ones caught in the talons of the red demon.

Such catastrophes wring our hearts. Fires . . . mining disasters . . . disease epidemics . . . happily they occur but seldom. But when they come, they find the Red Cross organized to render prompt relief.

In every Province, the Red Cross is prepared for instant action in such emergencies . . . In the stricken area confusion reigns . . . In the nearest Red Cross headquarters, the machinery for prompt, efficient measures works quickly and smoothly, drawing on a Canada-wide organization for help if need be.

and Frontier Families of Canada.

"STILL SERVING"

Medical supplies are kept ready. Nurses and doctors can be quickly mobilized. Tents, blankets, field kitchens, oil stoves, iron beds, mattresses from the Government's military stores are at the instant disposal of the Red Cross. As fast as trains can travel, aid is rushed to the sufferers . . . no confusion or delay.

When the town of Bowden, Alberta, was partially destroyed by fire, the Red Cross furnished assistance for some 88 families made homeless. . . . Similar aid was given to the village of St. Joseph d'Alma, Quebec. In the disastrous forest fires that swept Northern Ontario in 1923, and in the Cochrane typhoid epidemic, the Red Cross played an efficient part . . . In these and scores of other cases the Red Cross relieved and succored thousands of sufferers.

By supporting the Red Cross, YOU make efficient relief measures possible. If disaster should strike any community, the RED CROSS is YOUR AGENT to give relief.

"God Save the King" was then sung and the gathering gave itself over to dancing and playing of cards until 1 o'clock. Fred Wesch was master of ceremonies and music was by Dave Ross, W. N. TO TRAIN DOMESTICS ON SCIENTIFIC LINES OBJECT OF SOCIETY

NEW YORK, June 3.—New York society leaders expect to train their own household employees and elevate domestic service to the dignity of a profession. Scientific Housekeeping Inc., a co-operative organization formed by a group of society matrons, every one of whom is listed in the Social Register, is the medium through which the effort will be made.

A test kitchen and training school will be maintained where all domestic workers will be required to qualify before they are declared eligible for service. Under the scheme each domestic employee will be "Miss" to her employers and members of the household. "We are convinced that the solution of the domestic problem lies in giving employees a recognized rank and standing with other workers," said Mrs. Richard Boardman, the president.

ROME IS PROPOSING TO ABOLISH HATS

ROME, June 7.—The abolition of the hat as a permanent part of the men's sartorial equipment is scheduled as the next step in Fascist Rome's return to ancient customs.

Almost coincident with the introduction in Paris of short pants and collarlessness, the press here has started a campaign for the reduction to the wearing of hats by men to a minimum, arguing the triple virtue of hygiene, greater comfort, and greater "Romanity."

On grounds of hygiene the eternal city's dress reformers maintain that wearing a hat is more dangerous than handshaking, which has been officially replaced by the microbeless "Roman salute," which consists of raising the right arm. Hair, they say, should be enough to cover Italian heads, hats being artificial, pampering the head and leading to colds and baldness.

LOVE IS—

(By Queenie B. Lister)

Love is—
A tiny, shiny house.
I know—I know.
Love is a tiny, viney house
With a broom—and a hoe.

Love is—
A dreamy, gleamy house
'Tis so!—'Tis so!
If a lass sees a hearth to sweep—
And a lad sees—a hoe.

Love is—
A tiny, shiny house
With wild ever-bloom
On a clean altar-shelf
In the front room.

PRINCE GOOD RIDER TODAY

IN SPITE OF CONTRARY OPINION HEIR TO BRITISH THRONE IS CLEVER HORSEMAN

MELTON MOWBRAY, Eng., June 7.—In spite of popular opinion to the contrary the Prince of Wales is a good rider. Although scarcely six years have passed since he made his debut in the hunting field he can more than hold his own in any company.

It was in November, 1921, that he underwent a strenuous and strict schooling under Captain George Drummond. The prince then owned but one horse, an aged black mare, said to be valued at only a few pounds. Today the royal stables at Craven Lodge, Melton Mowbray, contain some of the finest hunters in England.

"Passport Two," the prince's favorite, who figured in many steeplechase events last season, "Just an Idea," "Son and Heir," "March Maid," "Hard to Find," "Pikenvan," and "How's That," are among the fourteen animals.

Overlooking the stables is the prince's hunting flat, one of the plainest abodes in the hunting town. The walls of the staircase leading from the small entrance hall to the royal suite do not possess even a coat of plaster.

ASSESSOR WILL BE APPOINTED

COUNCIL SEEMS TO FAVOR E. S. ALLISON OF CITY HALL STAFF FOR POSITION

RECOMMENDATION REFUSED

The city council at its regular meeting last night, Mayor Newton presiding and all the aldermen being present, refused to accept the recommendation of the finance committee that J. C. McLennan be appointed assessor on the same terms as last year. Instead the matter was referred back to the committee for further consideration, it being mentioned that it was understood the consensus of opinion among the aldermen that E. S. Allison of the city hall staff should do the work.

The recommendation to appoint Mr. McLennan was signed by Aldermen Joe Greer and Alderman Percy Tinker.

Alderman W. J. Greer asked if any assistants to the assessor were to be appointed.

It was pointed out that the council had no right to appoint assistants but they might appoint advisors. The first thing to do was to appoint the assessor.

Alderman Stephens said they had talked the matter over and the consensus of opinion was that Mr. Allison should be the assessor. He was capable of doing the work and it would be somewhat in the nature of a promotion to a member of the staff. He moved that it be referred back to the committee for further consideration.

This was seconded by Ald. W. J. Greer and carried with no dissenters except the members of the committee.

WESTERN ROUTE FOR GRAIN IS CHEAPER THAN FORT WILLIAM

VICTORIA, June 7.—Alderman Cuthbert Holmes in advocating the establishment of an elevator here, said:

"How many people in this city know that it is cheaper to move grain from Calgary and Edmonton to Liverpool via Pacific Coast ports than through New York? Yet it is, and this is one of the big points in favor of the westward grain route under the All-Red system."

"Shipments of grain via the Atlantic seaboard are broken twice by transfers and pass outside of Canada in order to again enter a British port after journeying over United States lines. It means something to the shipper to know that his grain will arrive at its port of final destination unbroken in bulk load lots. Transfers mean expense and delay and afford little protection to the grower that their products will reach their final landing port unpolished with the introduction of poorer grades of grain."

ALBERTANS HONOR REVERED PIONEER

Bust Unveiled to Hon. Frank Oliver, Newspaperman and Statesman

EDMONTON, June 7.—With old timers and pioneers of Northern Alberta gathered around, and with men who came to Edmonton with Hon. Frank Oliver in the early '80's and who knew personally of the work and efforts of this pioneer publisher and statesman for Western Canada eulogizing those efforts, the Northern Alberta Pioneers and Old Timers' Association laid the corner stone of the bust of Hon. Frank Oliver, first newspaper owner in Edmonton, the unveiling of which is to be the Old Timers' contribution to the Confederation Jubilee Celebration.

To John A. McDougall, himself an outstanding pioneer of the West, fell the task of making the address of the afternoon, and to Murdoch McLeod, oldest old timer in the association, was given the honor of laying the corner stone.

Could Not Sleep Heart and Nerves Were So Bad

Mr. Geo. Meek, Windsor, Ont., writes:—"I suffered with my heart and nerves and could not sleep at night for months in my head. I managed to keep at my work somehow, until I began to have dizzy spells which got so bad I could not go to my work. I was afraid to go out any place, for very often I would stagger on my feet, and everything in front of me would turn black and fade away. While I was home sick a friend told me to take

I got four boxes and by the time I had used them the pains and noises in my head ceased and I was able to get a good night's rest. Although that was six years ago I have never been troubled with that complaint again."

TRAPPER LOST HORSES IN FAR NORTH AND IS MUSHING HIS WAY HOME

GRANDE PRAIRIE, June 7.—News of another near tragedy of the north is filtering through to this point by moccasin-telegraph, and steps are being taken to send assistance to T. Miller of Edson, a trapper, who is stranded and on foot somewhere between the Simonet River and Sturgeon Lake and Edson.

According to the meager reports coming through by Indians, Miller, who had a pack-horse outfit, lost all his horses some time ago when they were poisoned. He made his way to the Simonet and constructed a raft, but in rafting down the river was caught in the rapids and upset, losing his entire outfit, including $500 worth of furs, and all his grub-stake.

Miller himself was almost drowned but managed to make the bank on the wrong side of the river, and he is now endeavoring to make his way through the bush to Sturgeon Lake and Edson.

NEW TYPE OF AIR VESSEL

IS BIGGER THAN ANYTHING HITHERTO SEEN AND HAS WINGS, SAYS STORY

SEEMS INCREDIBLE

BOSTON, June 7.—A Boston Traveller copyright story says that Arnold Attwood, a one time famous aviator, who was reported killed on a flight in Japan several years ago, has been living for five years on a hilltop near Monson, Mass., perfecting plans for a giant transatlantic airplane. The Traveller quotes Attwood as describing the machine capacity as one hundred passengers and conforming to the "exact standards of aviation except as to internal structure details of which aeronautical engineers recognize it to have advanced a new idea, which will permit the building of huge wing structures hitherto considered impossible."

The new internal design permits departure from the present use of wood and fabric which are so inflammable and also permits passengers to be carried inside the structure, free from the inconvenience of the elements or even the noise of the engines.

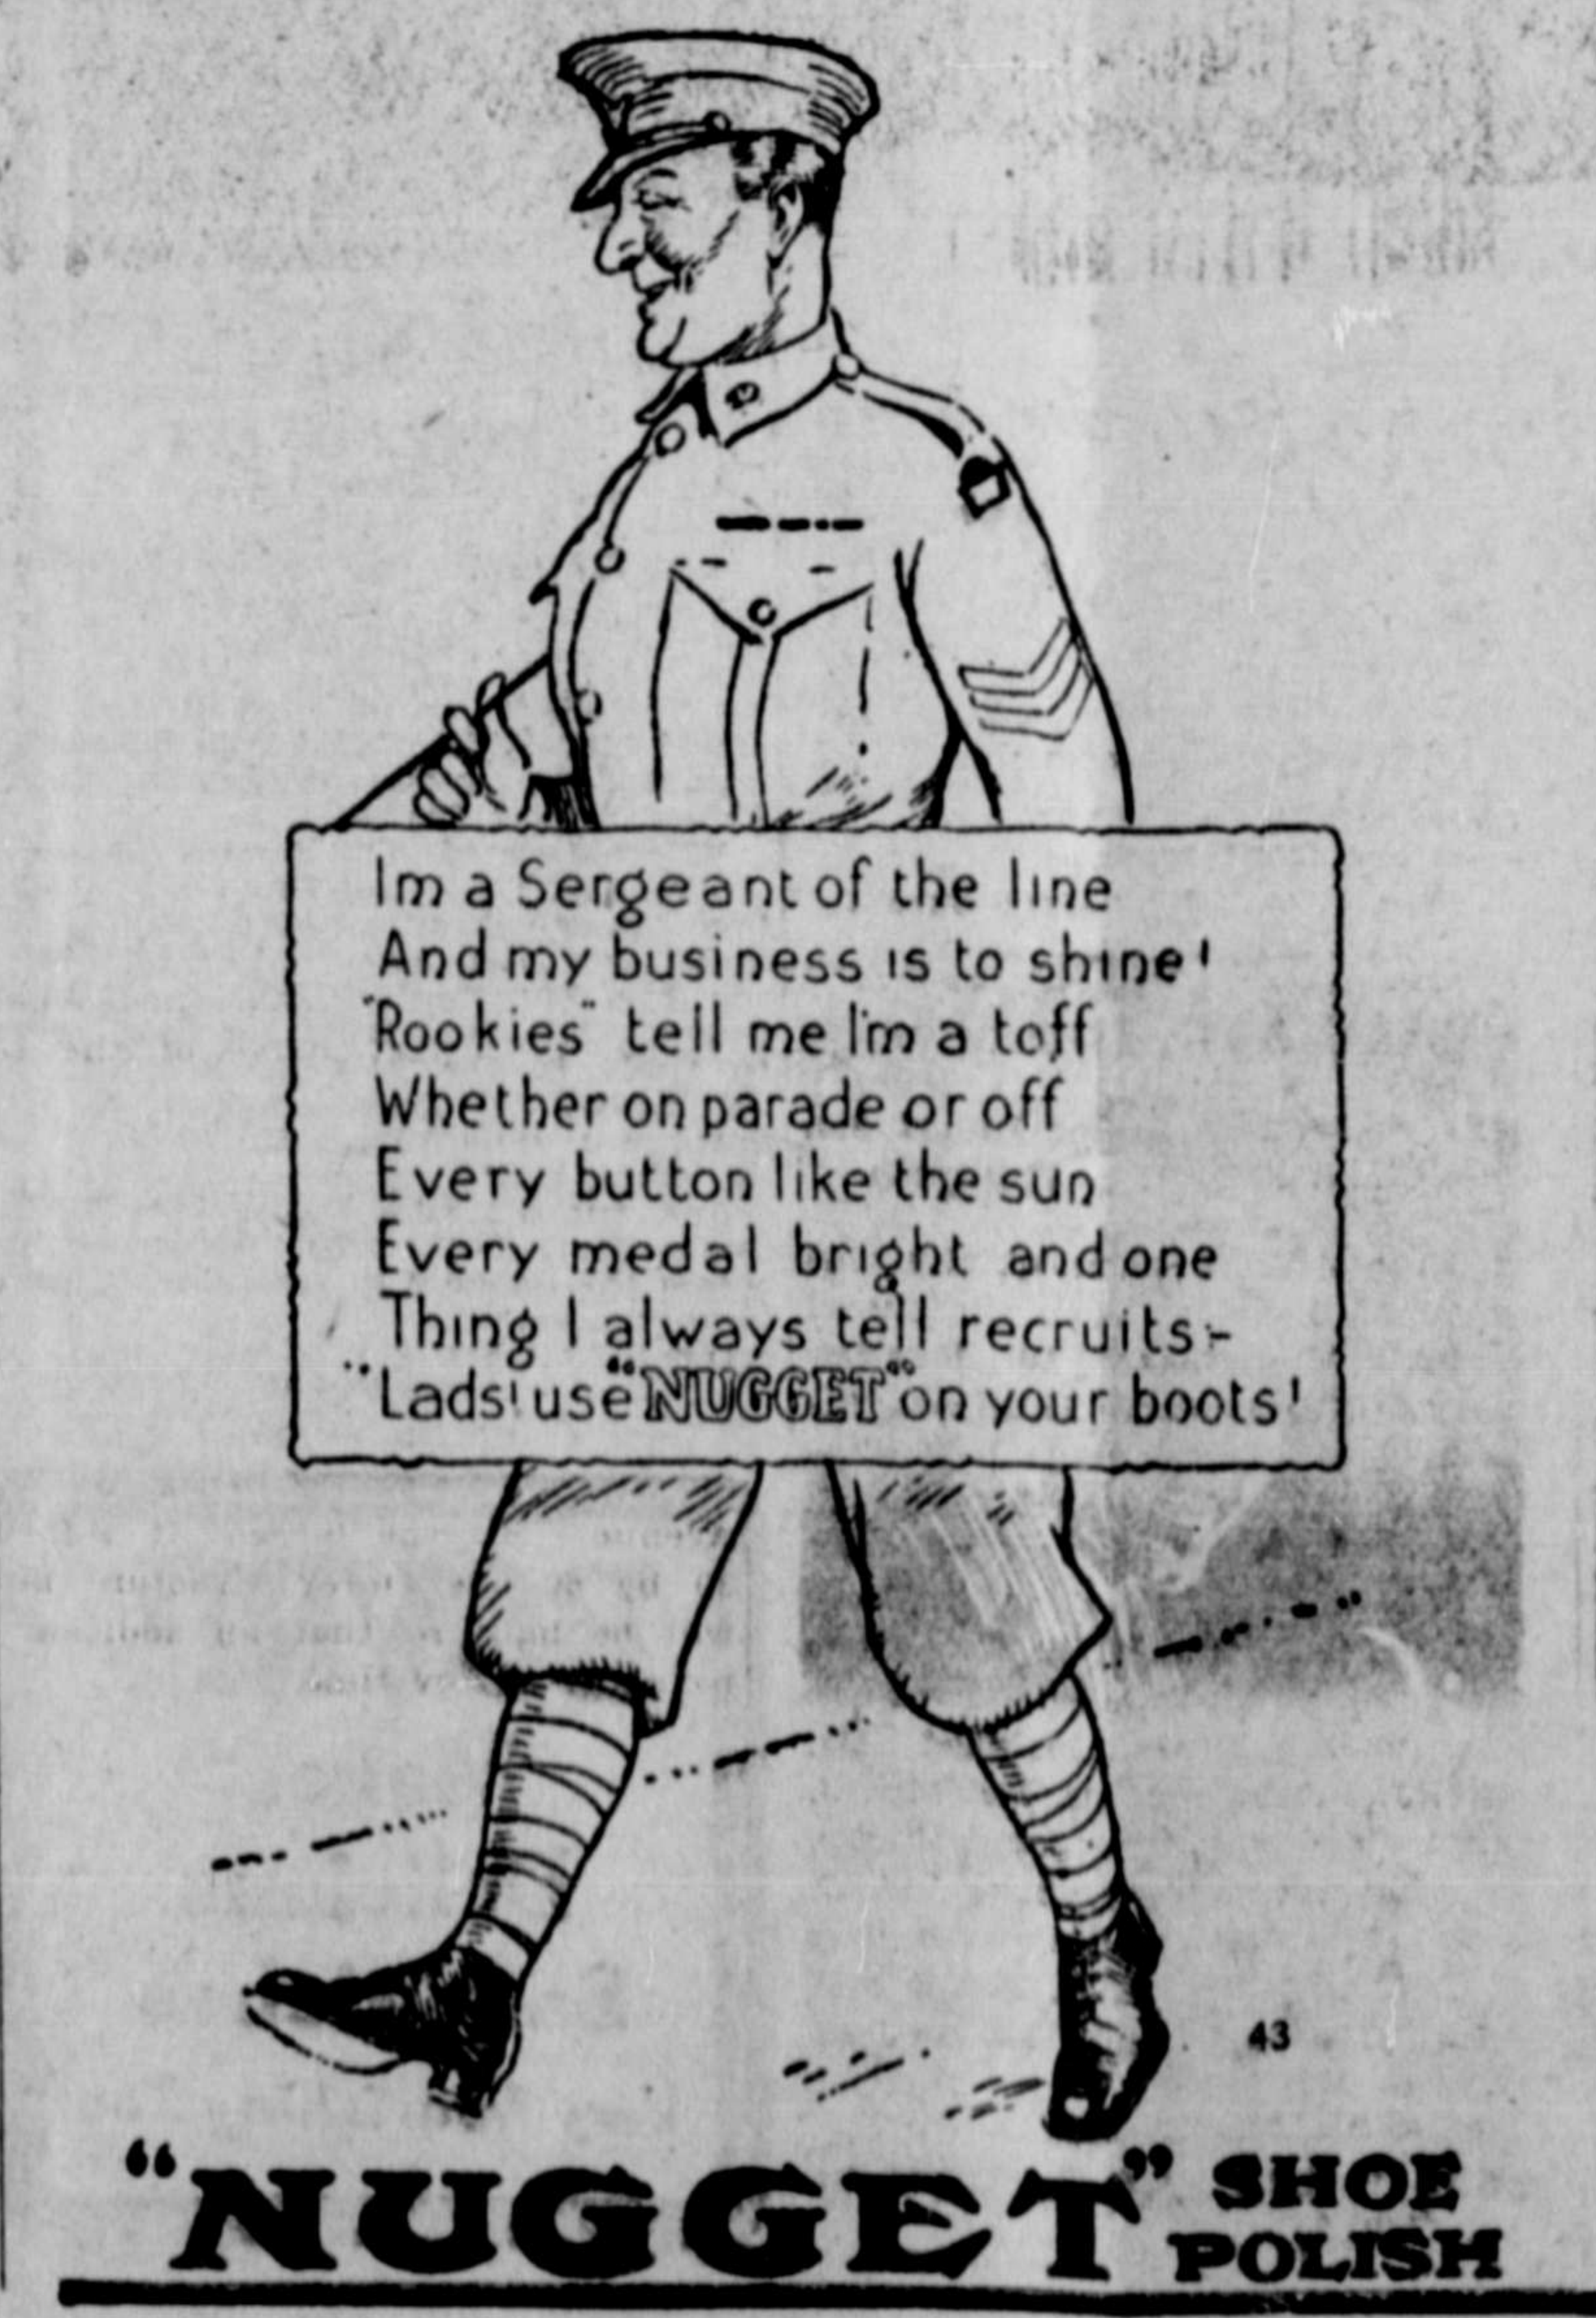

"The plane will be so much bigger than anything the public has ever seen that I feel the whole story to be incredible."

ALBERTA PLANS CELEBRATION

SIXTY COMMUNISTS TO TAKE PART IN BIG EVENT IN EASTERN PRAIRIE PROVINCE

EDMONTON, June 7.—About 60 communities, large and small, in various parts of the province have signified their intention of holding confederation jubilee celebrations. The north country is particularly well represented on the list, and a number of local events are scheduled from the Peace River and Grande Prairie districts. All the cities are preparing.

Literature has been sent out by the central committee in Edmonton to all the mayors, reeves and school teachers in the province, and it is assumed that some of the rural villages are arranging celebrations that have not yet reported. Secretary John D. Hunt says, however, that in order to facilitate the realization of the Ottawa committee's aim that every community in the Dominion should celebrate, he is prepared to supply further literature and information to anybody asking for it.

SAYS TRANSPLANTED BUFFALO ARE DOING WELL IN FAR NORTH

EDMONTON, June 7.—O. S. Finnie, director of the North West Territories, and Yukon branch of the department of the Interior, Ottawa, is a city visitor for a few days, having taken advantage of a game conference in Winnipeg, to run west as far as Edmonton, where active preparations are now under way for the commencement of the seasonal movement of Wainwright buffalo from the park there, to the Wood Buffalo preserve at Fort Smith on the Slave River. The transplanted buffalo have done splendidly, states Mr. Finnie, and the movement each season has been carried out with smoothness and dispatch, so that the handling of the animals has now become almost automatic in its functioning.

Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.
OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.
DON'T lose health, and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

DIDO GURVICH STARTS CAREER

KNOCKED HARRY ANDERSON OF VANCOUVER OUT IN THIRD ROUND LAST NIGHT—GOOD CARD OF PRELIMINARIES

"Battling" Dido Gurchich of Prince Rupert is the latest "white hope." His boxing career gave promise of being something more than a local affair when he knocked out Harry Anderson of Vancouver, formerly lightweight champion, last night in the third of a scheduled six-round bout at the Exhibition Hall. It was the local boy's fight all the way, Anderson seemingly not being able to get started. Gurchich who had the best of it, started out with a good left hand and his reach apparently bothered Anderson. The Vancouver boy went down for the count of six in the third and came back only to be knocked right through the ropes with a clean right-hander. This was the finishing touch for Anderson failed to get back in time.

In all six preliminaries, honors were

SPORT CHAT

Major league teams with the best pitching are the ones that are setting the most victorious pace in this stage of the pennant races. This was illustrated in the defeat of the New York Giants by the cellar-dwelling Cincinnati Reds at the week end, but one exception to the rule that tight pitching won was the victory on Sunday of the New York Yankees over Detroit. In this game, Babe Ruth made his seventh

CARS FLOCK INTO CANADA

DETROIT, Mich., June 7.—The open gates to Canada admit yearly to the Dominion more passenger automobiles from the United States than there are in the whole of Europe.

Last year 2,500,000 American motor cars were given entry permits, and within a single month of 1926 more than 500,000 tourists were admitted through a single port of entry—Niagara Falls.

Each year thousands of tourists from the United States go down the St. Lawrence River along the Canadian side of the Great Lakes to the head of Lake Superior, a journey of 2,000 miles.

Between 1919 and 1925 the number of motorists obtaining permits to enter Canada for 30 days rose from 59,000 to 481,000, while the number permitted to enter for a day increased from 177,000 to 1,945,000.

STAMPEDE FOR FAIR ASSURED

BIG ATTRACTION FOR THIS YEAR'S EXHIBITION, IT IS ESTIMATED, WILL COST $3,000.

Though it has not been carried as a formal motion, the Fair Board has practically decided to hold a stampede as the big feature of the 1927 Exhibition in September. It is the intention to keep the cost of the attraction within the $3,000 mark and it is hoped that considerable revenue may be derived therefrom. Most of the horses and men will come from the Williams Lake country and there will also be a party of cow girls. Exhibitions will consist of fancy and trick riding, broncho-busting, roping and all the features of such entertainment as well as horse racing.

The board conferred last night with Jack McNeil of Telkwa at the Acropolis Hill grounds on the question of building fences, corrals, etc., and it was estimated that $1,000 would cover the cost of such construction. This will be in addition to the $1300 that will have to be paid for bringing the attraction here and incidentals such as advertising, prizes, feed, etc.

Tomorrow J. P. Wheeler, field supervisor of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, will be here from Smithers and the board will confer with him with a view to obtaining further information.
