Woodworth Takes Over Fox Interest in Patterson Mine Option

J. B. Woodworth of Thorley Park and W. C. Fox, of Toronto, recently bonded the Patterson Group of goldquartz claims on Porcher Island, at Prince Rupert, says the Mining and Industrial Record. Mr. Woodworth has now taken over the entire interest of Mr. Fox in the option and is arranging for the active development of the property. It is proposed to mine around 20 to 25 tons a day and ship to the Granby Company's smelter at Anyox. There are five veins, on two of which considerable development has been done. Several shipments of ore have already been made from the property, and all gave high returns in gold. The average value is around $60 a ton. The geology is very similar to that of the Surf Inlet Mine on Princess Royal Island. There are five veins on the property, which is likely to become an important gold producer.

CHOICE OF YOUNG PEOPLE

The young people of the United Church have chosen Ralph Connor as the novelist who has made the greatest imprint on the character of Canadians individually and as a nation. Over 100,-000 took part in the vote. Pauline Johnson is chosen as the greatest poet and John Redpath Dougall the greatest editor.

Dr. Charles Gordon who writes under the name of Ralph Connor and who is also moderately well known as a Presbyterian clergyman who has since joined the United Church of Canada and who education. for many years preached at St. Stephen's, Winnipeg, to a congregation of intellectuals, including many of the professors of the University of Manitoba, generally uses religious themes for his books and he glorifies the Scottish Highlanders of Ontario. He always introduces a fist fight or a shinty match or some other physical with a view of re-establishing the oyster Steen's Ltd. ..... 5.00 struggle in which the passions of men are aroused and the hero wins. Also he rather glorifies the influence of the Presbyterian clergy.

It's a number of years ago that a famous writer mentioned how law was a scheme for protecting the parasite and prolonging the life of the rogue, but we are only just beginning to realize that it may be true.

Tennyson said he was a part of all he had met but out west here we should hate to be able to say the same.

Idleness is dangerous and yet a lot of us court

DR. DOUGALL, OF THE WITNESS

Dr. Dougall, editor of the Witness, is an example of a man who like Frank Oliver of Edmonton, has made good while being a financial failure. The Daily Witness, over the destinies of which he pre- Island. sided, went under. It could not survive the changing conditions and mode of thought of the younger generation. Yet Dr. Dougall has kept on the weekly paper and made it a power in the land, through its strong leading articles. One of his associates writing of him is reported to have said:

"He has been carrying the heavy end of the load with an equanimity, grace and courage that would do credit to a man half as follows: his age. He will be eighty-six on August 17. His forward look, prowess and production are the wonder of all who know him. His cold morning shower and his three-mile walk to business are ample such amendments as may be deemed ted themselves so well that the large evidence of his physical robustness. The Witness editorial pages testify that his mind is alert and clear, his sympathies are wide and keen, his spirit is strong and adventurous. With all his eighty-six for medicinal purposes. years, he is living for the rising generation who have, through the voice of young people's organizations, so honored him."

Diogenes went around with a lantern on a dark night looking for an honest man but failed to find him. He probably was moving along the circumference of the circle while truth lay hiding at the centre.

Joy comes from expression and perfect happiness from making others happy.

Great men are often the product of their stenographers.

WISE DECISION OF COUNCIL

The City Council has decided to meet fortnightly instead of weekly as in the past. This is a forward movement strongly to be commended. It indicates an absence of a desire to continually play politics as has been done in some councils in the past. There is the sale of liquors?" absolutely no reason why aldermen should meet every week unless there is some unusual work goin on and special meeting can always be called if found necessary. Under this plan there will be less disposition to be always in the public eye than under the weekly meeting plan.

This is the time of year when everyone likes a change. Some people go out of Prince Rupert and others come in.

The objection to living in the city is that it is not there considered good form to borrow your neighbor's silverware.

The children are leading. They are using the Weir version of "O Canada," so all Canada will soon use it.

PANTS PATCH

HOLLYWOOD, June 29.-How a stitch in time helped to win $1,000 is the tale of Mrs. Edna Hagney, petite wife of Frank Hagney, who won the recent skiff race across the Catalina Channel over practically the same 25-mile course made famous by George Young, who won the Wm. Wrigley swimming prize of $25,000. Like Betsy Ross, Mrs. Hagney sewed before the battle. But this time wasn't a flag, but a patch on the seat of hubby's trousers. "Frank built a special boat with sliding seat," Mrs. Hagney explained. "but the race committee ruled there must be no sliding seats. So just before the race I sewed a leather patch on the seat of Frank's trousers, and he put on some of that famous channel grease which the swimmers used. You should have seen him slide."

Her husband's pants are now on exhibition at a Hollywood athletic club. and Mrs. Hagney is in possession of of the $1,000 check her husband won. Rowing is only a side-line with Hagney; his regular business is playing villains in the films.

End of Steel at Mile 350 Where Bridge Being · Built Over Limestone River

WINNIPEG, June 29-More than eleven hundred workmen, with ten work trains and a full complement of equipment are being used this year in the rehabilitation and construction work on the Hudson Bay Railway, it was announced by officers of the construction department of the Canadian National Railways which has the work in hand. The end ! of steel is now at the Limestone River. Mile 350. In addition to reconditioning the track which was in existence prior to the present work being started in the spring of 1926, eighteen miles of new track has also been laid. By the end of the present year it is expected work will be finished on the Limestone River bridge and the line extended to a point some miles beyond this crossing. RECONDITIONING

When the work of reconditioning th Hudson Bay Railway was begun in 1926. the line was being operated as far Mile 214. Track was laid to Mile 332 air of "Tommy Atkins" (another wellbut before any work on the extension could be made, the part already built had hummed the tune to Sullivan. Last winter the work of building the at Mile 350 was proceeded with and by TROUT FRY PLACED at Mile 350 was proceeded with and by April 24 of this year the substructure and trestle approaches were completed. A steam shovel will cut into the pit in the near future to ballast the 18 miles of line between Mile 332 (the forme: end of steel) and Mile 350 to permit delivery of steel to the bridge site for the erection of the superstructure the bridge over the Limestone.

Disposing of Manuscript Brings to Mind Story of Famous Kipling Verses

LONDON, June 29-(Canadian Press) -The original manuscript of Kipling's Absent-minded Beggar,"-a song which the days of the South African War had a rage which was not equalled that aroused by "Tipperary" in the Great War-has been sold here at auction for £340. The manuscript also bears the music, written and signed by Sir Arthur Sullivan.

How the "Absent-minded Beggar" came to be written is an interesting story. The Daily Mail, which incidentally offered Kipling £10,000 to act as its war correspondent in South Africa. an offer which was declined, wanted a song to further its appeal for funds to assist the families of Reservists and others serving in the South African War. The Mail commissioned Kipling to write the same, at a fee of £250, and also secured Sullivan to set it to music for a fee of one hundred guineas.

DOGGERELL LINES According to the late Kennedy Jones. who was Northcliffe's right-hand man or many years on the Mail, when Kipling produced his verses there was an office consultation as to whether they should be used for the purpose intended or merely printed as a topical war item. Kennedy Jones compared the utter doggerell of these lines with "Recessional," which was inspired by the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria However, the Mail decided to go ahead. but at once found themselves in another difficulty. Sullivan had the "Absent-Minded Beggar" before him for several days, and then came to the Mail office with the confession that he was completely at a loss for rythm or metre for such verses. He begged to be excused

So has it been as far only with the changing times from the dark ages when human life was the stake, through its largely commercial FOR SALE. - FOUR CYLINDER, aspects now, to probably finer stages in the future. New games are devised, new types of sport developed, but they always have been and always will be elementarily based on the physical skill of the players and the enthusiastic approbation of the spectators As man's day is divided into one third for work, one third for sleep and one third for recreation, whatever that recreation may be, and, as the more physically active of these recreations, what are known as athletics, are a great factor in the development of a virile and robust nation, they form a matter of mportance, perhaps more importance than many people are willing to attach to them, in the life of the country.

Canada has always been an athleth ation, fond of its sports. So it oday and so it must always needs be if its people are to prosper. It is country that has developed great mer in the way, of athletic prowess as well as in intellectual attainments and inentive a achievements. Despite the country's brief age, Canada's sports an athletes have made a great name nemselves. Canada was, indeed mother country, of two of the greatest forms of sport-namely lacrosse and hockey, as fine and skill requiring as any type of athletics extant. Then too she has produced great players not only in her own national games but in such adopted sports as football, baseball tennis and golf to say nothing of swimming, track and field work, etc. JASPER, Alberta, June 21 .- Following It is pleasing to note that Canadians the success attained within the past few have been keener for the amateur than years of placing fish fry in the lakes the professional sports. Edmonton Paper Sees Increase in Amount Shipped to Pacific Gratification is being freely expressed by Vancouver newspapers over the fact rminal elevator at that port this year, as that implies a large increase in the export of wheat through Vancouver next winter and in season following.

Edmonton may also find cause for encouragement in the announcement. Of the wheat which goes out through Vancouver, the greater part goes there by way of Edmonton. This city is so situated that it must be the great collecting centre for grain from the western prairie country which goes to the Pa-

Railways radiate from Edmonton into the great wheat belt, south, east and north, like spokes from the hub of a wheel, while the easy grades on the National through Jasper Pass make the handling of the traffic to the ocean ter-

The Wheat Pool recently took under lease one of the large elevators at Vancouver, and has also the elevator Prince Rupert under lease. Next season it will have three of these large terminals on the Pacific through which retary of the Prince Rupert Foard of to pour grain from Alberta and western Saskatchewan.

Rentals and interest charges on these elevators can only be paid by sending grain through them. The inference is that the Pool expects to ship twice or three times as much grain westward next winter as it shipped last.
