GREAT BRITAIN PREPARED TO GIVE IN REMODELLING OF GAME LAWS IS PROPOSED AT VICTORIA

Chamberlain Announces Government's Terms in Connection with China

Prepared to meet demands on various points and allow full autonomy as soon as possible---looking to future

BIRMINGHAM, January 31.—Sir Austen Chamberlain, secretary of foreign affairs, in a speech here Saturday night, declared that Great Britain was prepared for a change on all points desired by China—extra territoriality, tariff, quasi-independent status and concessions. On all these points, he contended, the present system was antiquated and unsuited for modern conditions and no longer afforded protection to British merchants. Sir Austen said that the proposals presented by Charge D'Affaires O'Malley to the Cantonese government included recognition of modern China, and law courts,

CATERING FROM LONG DISTANCE

SPECIAL TRAIN TOOK EATS AND DISHES TO LUMBERMEN HAVING LUNCHEON AT MILL NEAR WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Jan. 31.—Something new in long distance catering was undertaken in Winnipeg when the Western Lumbermen's Association, which was holding its annual convention here last night, was taken to a luncheon in the Manitoba Gypsum Mill, more than five miles from the heart of the city. There were two hundred and fifty guests present and the catering was undertaken by the Fort Garry Hotel. All the equipment and food had to be moved from the hotel to the mill and a train of three special cars was required for the purpose. The equipment included twenty-five hundred pieces of cutlery; three thousand pieces of china; three hundred and fifty pieces of linen; thirty-two long tables; three hundred chairs; an electric range; three twelve foot steam tables and three twelve foot steam plate warmers.

A special train was operated to and from the mill for the convenience of the guests.

INNERTON TO SAIL TONIGHT

GOOD TIME MADE WITH BRITISH SHIP AT ELEVATOR—KING JAMES AND YOGEN MARU WAITING

Good time is being made in loading the British ship Innerton at the elevator and it is expected the vessel will be able to clear tonight for the United Kingdom or continent with a cargo of some 9,000 tons of grain.

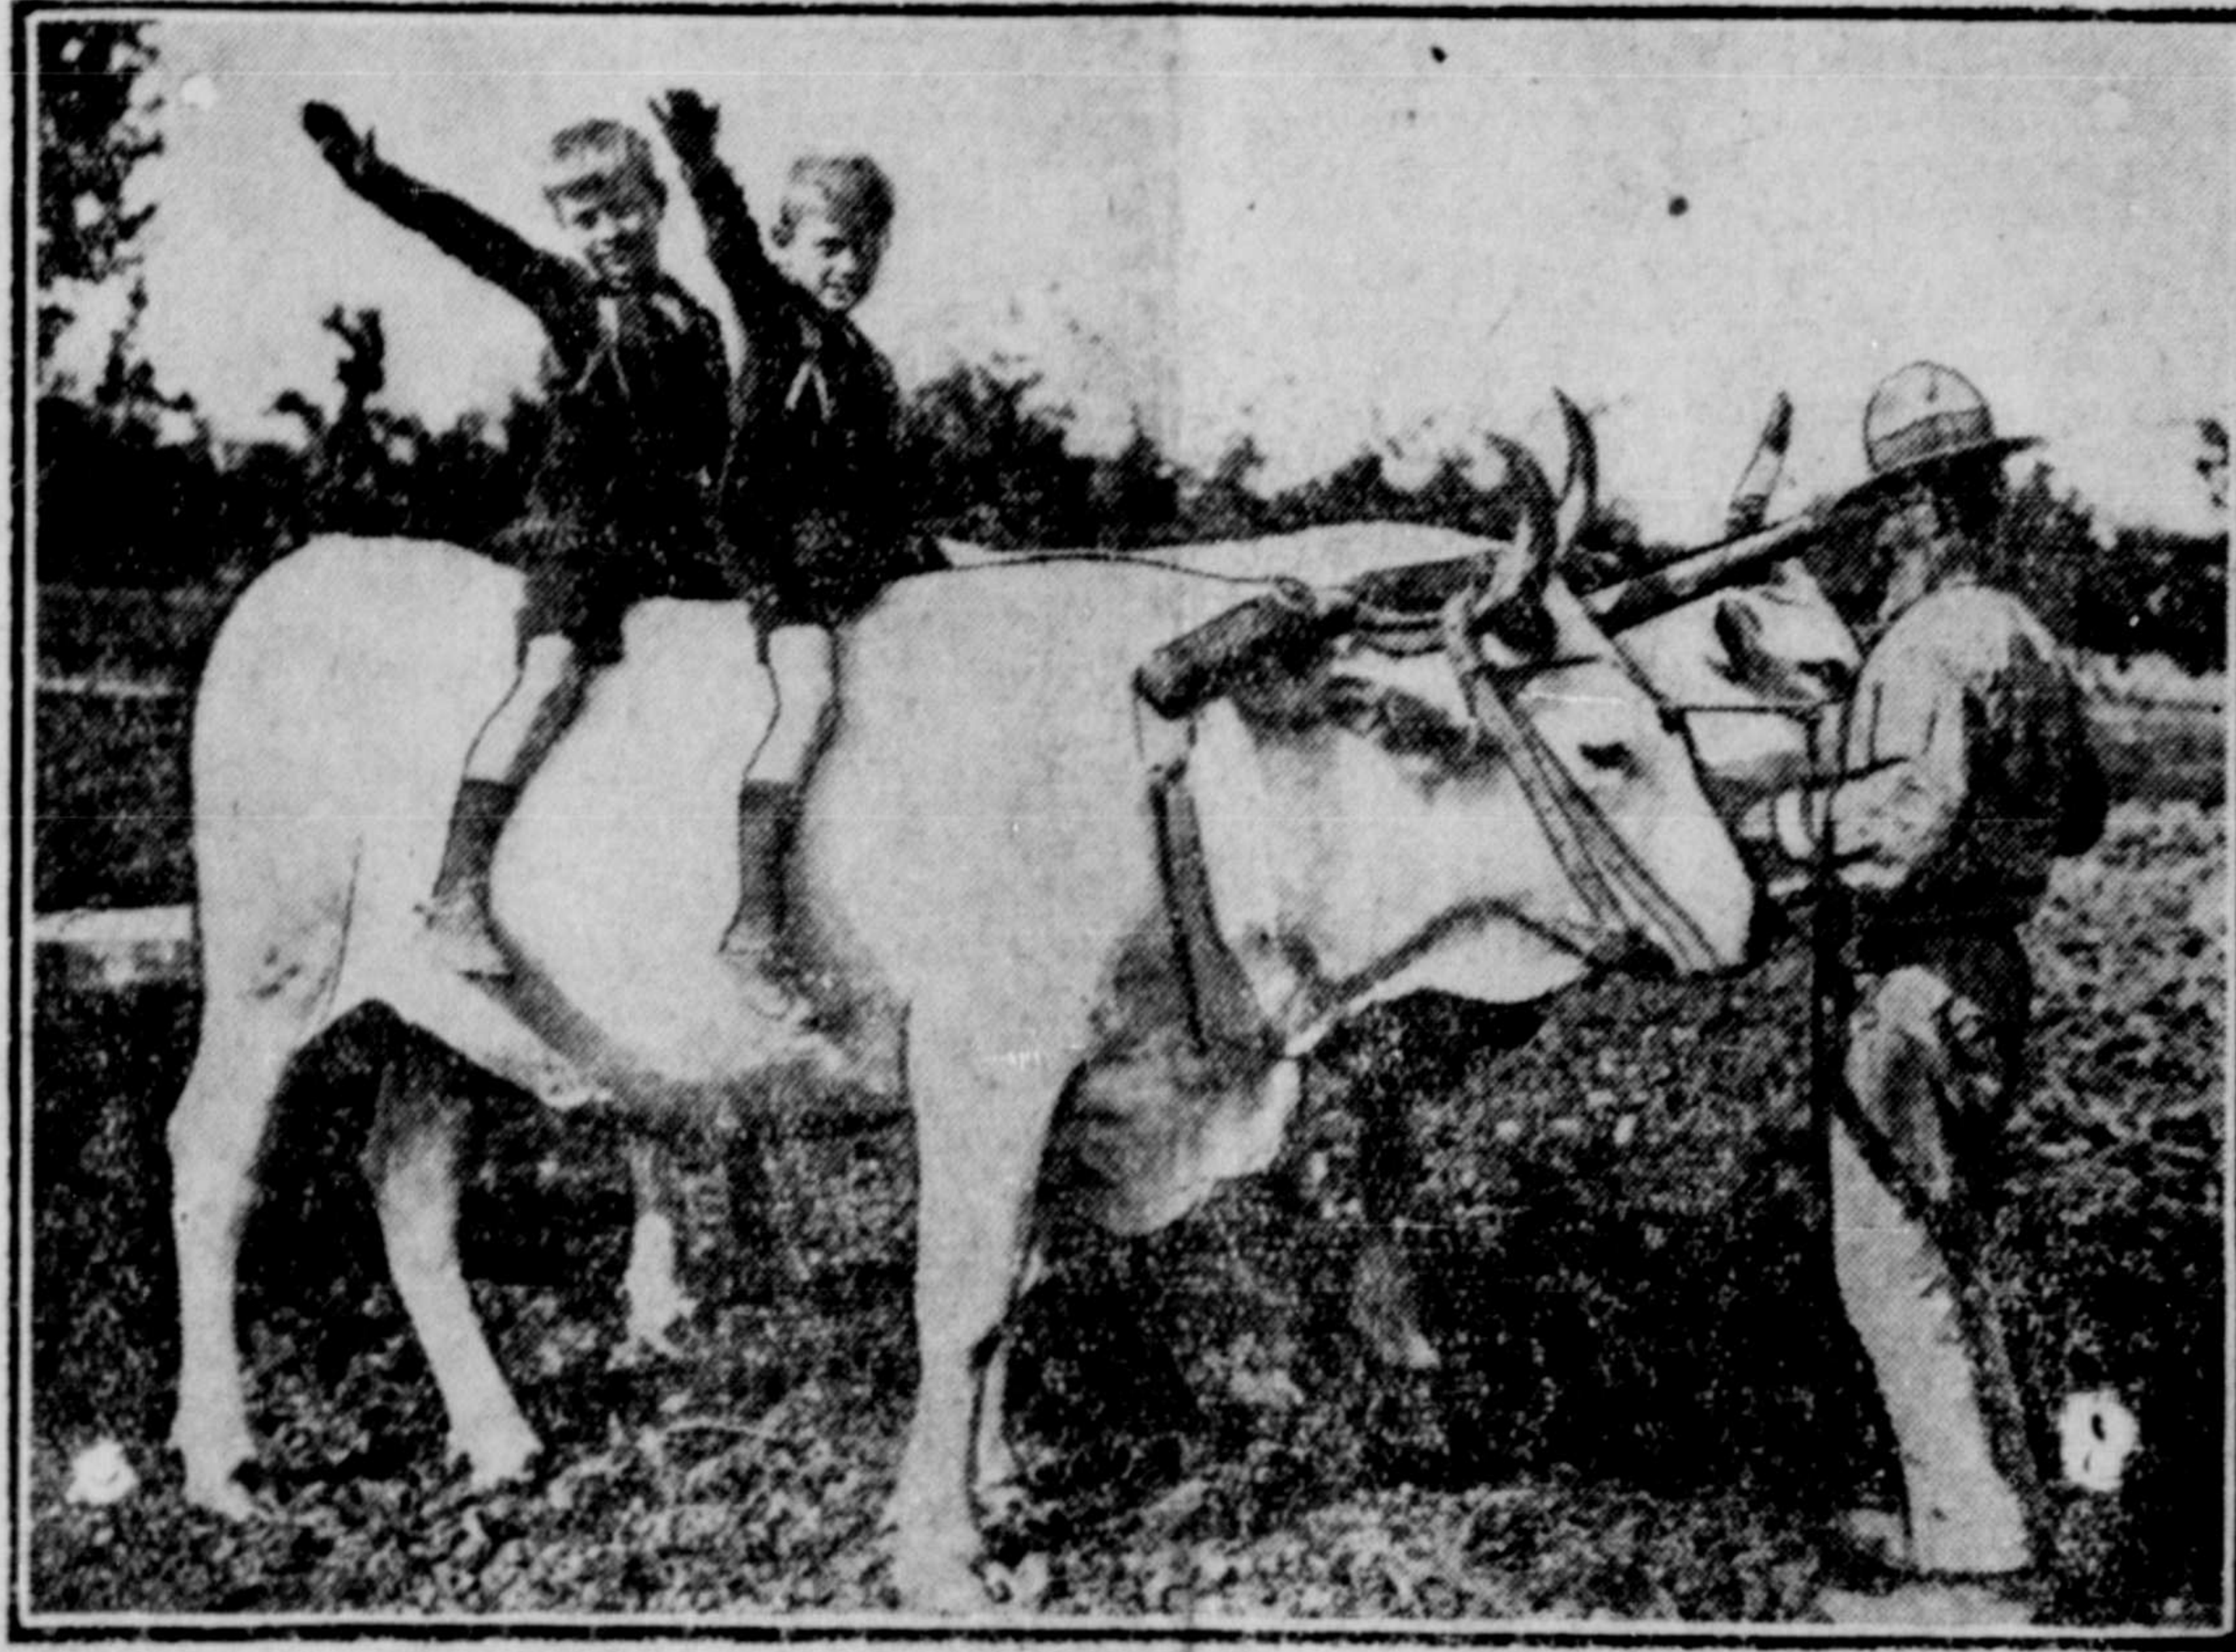

The big motorship King James moved into berth at the elevator yesterday morning and will commence loading for the United Kingdom or continent as soon as the Innerton is finished.

The Japanese freighter Yogen Maru will have finished lading at the ocean dock tonight and will be then waiting to load 7,000 tons of grain before proceeding to Vancouver to complete for the Orient with other commodities.

MAJOR-GENERAL McDOUGALL DIES

AS CANADIAN SOLDIER FOR MOST OF HIS LIFE—COMMANDED
TRAINING DIVISION

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Jan. 31.—Major-General James McDougall, who commanded the Canadian division at Shorncliffe, England, 1915-1916, died here on Sunday. He was born in Toronto in 1863 and joined the Canadian permanent force in 1885, serving in the South African and throughout the European war.

DECKER LAKE ORE IS RICH

TESTS GIVE TOTAL VALUE PER TON
OF $137.34—SILVER, GOLD, SUL-
PHUR, ZINC AND LEAD

Assays just received from Decker Lake Mine give some very satisfactory returns per ton, as follows: Silver 2 oz.; gold, 0.15; sulphur 23.3 per cent; zinc, 13.5 per cent; lead, 62 per cent. These have at present the following market value: Silver, 94c; gold, $3.25; zinc, $21.60; lead, $11.60; total, $137.34.

It is particularly gratifying to note that the gold values are increasing with depth. Former assays proving that richer ore will be only a matter of sinking a little lower. Since the above assay was taken richer ore has been discovered on the Golden Glory claim owned by Robert Gerow. Other holders who are sharing the above assays along the creek are Wm. Reid, Donald M. Gerow, Jack McLean, Geo. Culp, Emery Dotsch and many others have staked adjacent properties some of whom are undoubtedly on the main strike.

In 1913 a shipment of ore was made from the property, now owned by Wm. Reid and R. Gerow, and it is stated that good returns were obtained therefrom. The local partners, however, were left holding the sack and becoming disgusted they quit. Nature with a few slugs of rock and earth, while the war was raging in Europe, covered the old workings, and the mouth of the tunnel was only re-discovered and opened up again this summer. In the meantime Reid, Gerow, McLean, Culp and Dotsch had been prospecting for several years on other leads and the showings obtained in many places apparently transcended the values of the old workings. Last summer much activity was shown in tracing up the mineralized areas and much work was accomplished along the creek bed.—Burns Lake Observer.

ANNIVERSARY OF HER DEPORTATION FROM STATES CELEBRATED

Emma Goldman's Comrades Stage
Party in Toronto—Carried Her
To It

TORONTO, Jan. 31.—(By Canadian Press).—Many anniversaries are celebrated but a unique party was held in the city recently to mark the seventh anniversary of Emma Goldman's deportation from the United States. Her comrades carried her off to the party, almost by force, after she had given her lecture. It was a gay party, rather like a birthday, or even the first happy hour of a wedding reception, and had no tinge of regret that the guest of honor had lost her citizenship papers of the country to the south. After the dinner was over Emma Goldman was presented with a gold wrist watch from her "comrades," men and women who are in sympathy with her ideals and actions.

On her return from a trip to the west, Miss Goldman intends to give a lecture in this city on the topic, among others, of birth control. In conversation with a reporter she referred to the clinics operated by Dr. Marie Stopes in London. "They are more enlightened over there," she said. "Why the House of Lords itself voted in favor of birth control."

Germany has so many would-be film scenario writers that producers have appealed to the public to refrain from sending in manuscripts unless invited.

Stiffer Penalties for Shooting Accidents is Suggestion Made Board

VICTORIA, January 31.—Remodelling of the provincial game laws to make them more effective was discussed Saturday between the Game Board, members of the legislature, sportsmen and representatives of Farmers' Institutes. Among the chief suggestions was that for stricter penalties to deal with hunting accidents wherein human beings are shot in mistake for animals; sharper measure to make Orientals obey the laws and bag limits to meet local conditions.

Dr. H. C. Wrinch, member for Skeena, asked for greater consideration for the northern districts and M. B. Jackson, chairman of the Game Conservation Board, assured him that the board had a most kindly feeling toward the sportsmen of the north.

Attorney General Manson sympathized with Dr. Wrinch in the suggestion that the boundaries for game should follow the line of the mountain summits rather than an arbitrary line. There were difficulties, however, in regard to this plan as many sportsmen would be unable to follow the line governed by mountain heights.

GRAIN PROBE TO BE HELD

PROBLEM OF DAMP AND DRY
GRAIN AND OTHER MATTERS
TO BE INVESTIGATED

WINNIPEG, Jan. 31.—The National Research Council of Canada will direct a thorough investigation into the problem of tough and damp grain with the Dominion research laboratory here and three prairie universities co-operating. In addition to the investigation into tough and damp grain, an associate committee has mapped out a comprehensive program particularly with regard to wheat involving factors affecting milling, baking, the quality of commercial grading and certain disease problems.

Guthrie Says That Canada Made No Gain at Imperial Conference; Nothing She Had Not Previously

MONTREAL, January 31.—Canada has not yet achieved equality of status with Great Britain because of the decisions of the last Imperial Conference, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, leader of the Conservative party in the House of Commons, told an audience at the People's Forum here on Sunday night. Mr. Guthrie based his contention on the assumption that Canada could not have equality of status with Great Britain unless it also had equality of burdens and responsibilities, particularly in the matter of Empire defence. His statement, he made clear, was not meant to define his personal attitude toward participation in Imperial defence but was uttered rather in answer to those commentators on the report of the Imperial Conference who contended that, with the adoption of its provisions, Canada would achieve equality of status.

CANADIAN DINNER FOR PREMIER COATES IN MIDDLE OF PACIFIC

WINNIPEG, Jan. 31.—Somewhere between Honolulu and the Fiji Islands Right Hon. J. G. Coates, Premier of New Zealand, his wife and the members of his party, who recently passed through the dominion over the Canadian National Railways, will enjoy an all Albertan dinner. Buffalo steaks, wild ducks, prairie chicken, partridge, moose, venison and buffalo tongues in sufficient quantities to provide several meals were presented to the visiting Premier by A. S. Duclos of Edmonton, when the party passed through there recently. "Some of it was used on the train but, at the request of Mr. Coates, some has been saved and was placed in refrigerators on board the ship to be served when the ship is in mid-Pacific.

In making this request to C. K. Howard, general tourist agent of the Canadian National Railways who accompanied the party, Mr. Coates said: "I want to preserve not only the memory but the taste of Canada as long as I can. It is a delightful country and my visit has been exceptionally pleasant."

GRANBY COMPANY CLAIMS EXEMPT LAND BEFORE COURT OF RE- VISION HERE

Contending that their smelter and other milling facilities and the land at Anxox upon which they stand should be exempt from taxation, the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co. is appealing its assessment before the provincial court of revision which is in session in the city with John Dybavon as judge. This is the most important appeal before the court which sat again this afternoon and was adjourned until Wednesday. S. W. Taylor is appearing for the Granby Co. while C. W. Homer, assessor, defends the valuations which are imposed by himself.

VANCOUVER GENERAL HOSPITAL

Many local friends will be grieved to learn of the death which took place on Sunday at the Vancouver Hospital of Mrs. J. M. Hockin, wife of J. M. Hockin, district representative of McLennan & McFeely. Mr. Hockin received the shocking news of his wife's demise at Anxox where he has been on business. He boarded the steamer Camosun there today and will proceed south to attend the funeral.

The late Mrs. Hockin resided here in the Waldron Apartments for two or three years up to recently when she went south. She became ill there and was admitted to hospital where an operation was performed last week. She was born in Prince Edward Island and came to Vancouver several years ago. Her maiden name was Mary Buchanan and, among the relatives surviving, is a brother who is a druggist in New Westminster.

WORK AND INITIATIVE IS NEEDED NOW.

When the pioneers came into this land they asked no government aid. They knew that they must fell the forests and build houses before they could have farms and homes. It required initiative, industry and vision to foresee fields of growing grain and comfortable homes where the primeval forest held sway. But strong men with the love of land born in them did not hesitate to tackle the job. Each did for himself so far as he was able and asked no odds. Only when the task was too great for one alone was co-operation sought and help then was asked only that it might be given in turn. When difficulties beset them they solved the problems themselves. They were self-reliant because they knew that on themselves depended success. Villages grew and became cities in response to conditions that demanded them. Whatever progress was made was due to the efforts of individuals working alone or in co-operation with others. Our forefathers had no delusions about work. They knew that nothing is accomplished without effort.

We appear to have gone far from the ideas of the pioneers. Too many people believe that there are shorter cuts to accomplishment than hard work coupled with good judgment. This, that and the other interest wants the government to do something. It is true that government can give encouragement to industry but the people themselves must act to gain the advantage of whatever inducements are offered. There is an element that believes that plenty of money would relieve the situation. Russia has more money than any land on earth, yet the people are starving. Too many people appear to have lost initiative and want help.

We need to return to fundamentals. Instead of looking to the lawmaker, Canadians need look to themselves for accomplishments. We need a return of the initiative of our forefathers who did not know much about appealing to the government when they had troubles but did know a lot about how to work.

SHOCKING CHARACTER OF PRESENT CRIME.

Thoughtful people must be struck—and saddened—by the current news dealing with crime. For a time the compelling fact was more increase in the number of criminal acts. Later events are tending to show that the character of the deeds of violence is changing in a manner that cannot but startle the balanced mind. In recent crime news there is evidence of a degeneration which must astound. Crime is something more than a simple violation of the legal code when it descends into such depths. We who have long prided ourselves upon the fancied difference between the people of our country and those of other nations have been given something to think about that is worth while.

The criminal brutality demonstrated by proofs of degeneracy hitherto foreign to our records cannot be blinked at. Whether we have touched the right causes may be matter for doubt. But there is not the least question that we are swinging far from our old mental landmarks. But in making a brief survey of the differences between the new and the old-fashioned psychology, the discriminating observer sees much more than a mere difference in the degrading character of the acts of the criminal-minded. He sees a startling change in mentality everywhere. If among the changes he notes a cold-blooded indifference to old standards of the value of human life, he may set that down as merely incidental. For he has only to plot out his observations to see that mental operations are different among all men and women—and even children.

PLANS TO MARK BOYHOOD HOMES GREAT PREMIERS

PREMIER KING EXPRESSES SYMPATHY WITH SCHEME PROMOTED BY A. R. DAVIES TO HONOR MACDONALD AND LAURIER

TORONTO, Jan. 31.—(By Canadian Press).—For 16 years and to four different prime ministers of Canada, Allan Ross Davies, now of Toronto, has continued to promote his plan for marking the boyhood homes of two noted Canadian statesmen—Sir John Macdonald at Adolphustown, Ont., and Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Arthabaska, Que. Changes of governments, the emergencies of the great war, and various other conditions have tended to interfere with government support of the enterprise but Mr. Davies has now been heartened by the receipt of the following letter from Premier Mackenzie King's private secretary under date of January 5:

"The Prime Minister has read with interest your letters of December 15 and December 30, as to marking the sites of the boyhood homes of Sir John Macdonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier in some appropriate manner. He has noted particularly your references to your long continued efforts to secure action to this end. He has instructed me to say that he has much personal sympathy with the idea of preserving these sites and marking them in a suitable manner. As a first step he has asked the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada to consider and report upon the question, and in this connection has forwarded to them copies of your recent correspondence."

SIR WILFRID APPROVED

Agitating for suitable marking of the Macdonald and Laurier boyhood homes, Mr. Davies started with Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself. Mr. Davies' recital of his long-continued efforts in this connection is interesting. He says:

"Whenever Sir John Macdonald became reminiscent in his public addresses he invariably referred to his boyhood home in Adolphustown, on Hay Bay—a long, narrow arm of the Bay of Quinte where, he would gravely state, he located his parents after bringing them from Scotland in 1820, when he was five years old. In his later years he visited the site with Lady Macdonald and told her wonderful tales about his exploits at the old home and in the neighborhood where he attended school. The stone foundation of the burned house still remains, but the half-acre plot long ago became a part of the 1200 acre farm of the Platt estate and was practically forgotten. I bought the Macdonald plot in 1911, and then wrote Premier Laurier my first and only letter, requesting his government to make a small grant to properly mark the site. I suggested that a future generation would probably do the same with his boyhood home at Arthabaska.

A gracious reply came back immediately, commending the patriotic idea and expressing the highest veneration for his illustrious predecessor. But the Laurier government soon after fell. Then Premier Borden was besieged on the scheme but the war was upon us before his favorable promises were put into execution. Premier Meighen next warmly expressed his approval and particularly pointed out that the Macdonald and Laurier boyhood homes should be marked at the same time, and in a manner worthy of these great statesmen.

FOR JUBILEE CELEBRATION

"Again the scene changed and when Premier King recently returned home from the Imperial Conference with a diamond jubilee Confederation celebration in his mind for this year, I thought it a fitting opportunity to write him a letter and of course, it was concerning the marking of the Macdonald and Laurier boyhood homes."

Mr. Davies says he is highly pleased to find that "Premier King is in hearty accord with his predecessors in this matter, and has already taken the initial step towards carrying out so long neglected and worthy a Federal government obligation." Mr. Davies expresses the hope that "provision for the necessary funds be made in the estimates so that no time may be lost in beginning work in the spring, in order that the memorials may be ready for unveiling by the Prince of Wales on, or about the first of July."

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

JANUARY 31, 1917
The Trades and Labor Council at its regular meeting last night passed a resolution opposing conscription of man power without also conscription of basic industries.

Harry Weber and Chas. Olson, who went to Winnipeg to join the overseas Viking battalion, were unsuccessful in passing the examinations and have returned to the city.

M. McInnis, purchasing agent for the Granby Consolidated Company, is a visitor in the city.

While the temperature here dropped during the night to four below zero, word from upriver indicates that it was much colder in the interior, the thermometer registering 28 below at Terrace and 54 below at Endako.

WHY CANADA DOES NOT GROW.

Editor, Daily News.
Talking with one of the businessmen here at Massett, as to why Graham Island was not being more rapidly settled up, this businessman, to my great astonishment, condemned the Island from a settlement standpoint.

He meant that the country was no good for settlement, that the now-existing settlers produced nothing and that it was better for me to return to my home country; and that, all in spite of the fact (which I learned later) that this same merchant has been himself very prosperous during the sixteen years, that he has been living here, and stated that he had no intentions of leaving the place.

Further, this same businessman, having some official jobs, is in a position to influence settlers to come here or not to come here, if he feels so inclined.

It certainly strikes a stranger, as a very singular fact, to hear a district knocked, especially coming from the lips of one that has been enabled to reach the highest prosperity in this particular district.

At the same time this island and its future prospects are very alluring to myself and many others, who have had the privilege of visiting it. The island shows promising hopes of advancing, if stimulated with needed assistance, as there are several governments roads under construction and the government must have been spending several thousand dollars yearly in constructing and improving roads through the district.

But as a prospective settler, I feel well pleased to see that such foresight on the part of the government is being carried out, in advance for the coming settlers, to reach the many suitable places awaiting the sturdy and willing immigrants.

Canada is calling for immigrants, but if official people do to others like one of them did to me, it will last a very long time, before Canada is settled up.
J. de BRUYN.

NO ROOM FOR KNOCKERS.

Editor, Daily News.
Why knock? I am a man of various and wide experience in trolling and cruising and why anybody should knock this district on this great and glorious Pacific Coast and along the grand and enticing British Columbia is more than I can understand.

These islands are one of the outstanding points that seem destined by nature to be a cheerful spot for man and his posterity, more especially for the white man with his exploratory mood. This district of Massett, with its continuous sandy beach stretching for miles upon miles without a break, is destined for great expansion. The advent of the exploring white man finds great resources in a measure receiving the finished touch of civilization while an influx of settlers, from many quarters of the globe, is anxious to take over the land.

The fishing industry with its canneries and other activities along the beautiful land-locked waters of Massett Inlet is hard to surpass. Alongside the townsite of Massett one finds a nicely sheltered and picturesque bay which is the home of refuge for the local power launches, many visiting ones coming in summer to share in the rich spoils during the salmon trolling season when many make up as high as $25 per day. The great feature of this bay is the possibility of it being dredged out for a naval base or a boat building site.

There are also rumors that a large lumber company is soon to start the construction of a sawmill at the outlet of this bay.

One may find numerous and encouraging possibilities here for various branches of the fur farming industries. There are immense stands of timber to attract the lumber man. We have wonderful prospects which some of our local people do not seem to realize.

She Tripped and Fell

A child at play trips and falls. There follows a ten years' period of acute and intermittent ill-health, which no one connects with that fall, until a chiropractor gets the case.

Only the chiropractor can know how often a fall, an accident, or a sudden violent jar has preceded years of illness, the actual and direct cause being unsuspected while continued treatment of symptoms is in progress.

The spine is the foundation of our frame, and must absorb the shock of every accident. If one of its little bones be moved out of line every so slightly as a result, there will be nerve pressure and ill-health must follow.

This cause should be suspected in every case of unexplained illness—a visit to the chiropractor will establish the facts.

"Our 14 year old daughter had a severe fall when 4 years old. Since then she has never been free from headaches and pain and weakness in back and limbs. She could not play like other children for she would always stumble and fall. Five years ago she had an attack of appendicitis which frequently recurred. Anemia then developed, and for two years she has been infected with boils. When an unusually severe attack of appendicitis occurred four months ago it was said her only hope was an operation. Fearing this, we turned her over to a chiropractor. She was better after the second adjustment, improved steadily thereafter and gained better than a pound a week under his care. Her troubles have practically all disappeared and she now feels better than ever before."—C. C. Hanvelt, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2106-G.

AIR CLEARED IN BILLIARD ASS'N.

OUTSTANDING POINTS CLEARED AT MEETING LAST NIGHT—SEVERAL POSTPONED GAMES ALLOWED

Billiard League matters were given a thorough discussion at a special meeting of the Association last night in the City Hall. Certain matters upon which there had been disagreement were settled and as a result, the air has been cleared and the activities of the league should be off to a good start again. Fred Pyle, president of the Association, presided with W. H. Long, secretary, keeping the records.

In the matter of the Moose vs. Terminals tournament of last Tuesday, in which four games were not played owing to differences among the players, it was decided that these four games, to be played this week would be allowed. Owing to the resignation of Don Brown, George McMoyle was assigned to the Moose team as first man and Joe Brown was appointed captain. Charlie Balagoo will now be first man on the Terminals in place of P. O'Donnell who, with Don Brown, has resigned from his team and the league.

A postponed game in the Grotto-Gyro tournament of Friday last between J. Andrews and W. J. Nelson was also allowed.

The Association decided that, owing to the shortage of players, all postponed games in future would be left in the hands of the executive as to whether they should be allowed or disallowed.

The Children Will Catch Cold

Mothers should never neglect the first sign of a cold or cough where their children are concerned, for if they do some serious lung trouble is liable to follow.

Mrs. R. T. Hubby, 1022 Barrington St., Halifax, N.S., writes:—"The children are continually getting colds, but I have no trouble with them, for just as soon as they begin to cough I give them a dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup which breaks up the cold within a day or so. I get great results out of it and would not be without it for anything. I can highly recommend it to any one."

TERRACE MAN ON PRAIRIES

GEORGE LITTLE, BACK FROM STOCK BUYING TRIP, REPORTS CONDITIONS MUCH IMPROVED

TERRACE, Jan. 31.—George Little returned on Friday from Olds, Alberta, with six heavy horses for use in the lumber industry here. He also brought a number of hogs and a quantity of grain.

Mr. Little experienced severely cold weather while on the prairies, the thermometer registering 40 below zero practically all the time he was there. He found conditions much more prosperous than when he visited the same district two years ago. At that time many of the settlers were anxious to sell out while now there was no talk of selling. In some parts much grain was left standing in the fields and the farmers were shipping in hogs from Saskatchewan to use up the frozen grain, one man at Olds having just brought in three hundred hogs. Prices, naturally, were high. Mr. Little found heavy horses very scarce, the reason given being that there was no demand for them in the cities now that motors were being used almost entirely, and heavy horses were not being raised to any extent.

Mr. Little's horses arrived here in splendid condition and were shod and put to work immediately.

FAMOUS DOG AND TONIGHT'S PICTURE

"A Hero of the Big Snows," will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight. Rinty's mate, Nanette, makes her appearance in this new Warner production, and the cast of humans includes Alice Calhoun, Don Alvarado, Leo Willis and Mary Jane Milliken.

The story, by Ewart Adamson, has the Canadian woods as its locale, and deals with a young wastrel, Ed Nolan, who saves Rin-Tin-Tin from the brutality of a trapper. Rinty strikes up a friendship with a dog belonging to Mary Mallory, a pretty and plucky Canadian girl, and Ed finds the girl a good influence in his unhappy existence.

When Mary's baby sister falls ill and she starts out in a severe snowstorm for the doctor, Rinty aids her, and, in a thrilling fight with a wolf pack, brings the girl safely to her destination.

Rinty had been suspected of injuring the child, but in reality had rescued her from the attack of a wolf. His loyalty and bravery vindicates him of the suspicion, he saves the child, and brings together the two young lovers, after a series of thrilling incidents and encounters with a starving pack of wolves.

This is said to be the most exciting as well as most beautiful of Rin-Tin-Tin's pictures.

BUCK JONES IS BOTH AGGRESSIVE AND GENTLE

Cowboy Star Gets Chance to Show His Versatility in His Picture "The Gentle Cyclone"

Theatre patrons who admired Buck Jones in "Lazybones" and enjoyed his quaint conception of the indolent, irresponsible but lovable "Lazybones," will find many traces of the same fine character sketching in his newest Fox picture, "The Gentle Cyclone," which comes to the Westholme Theatre on Tuesday night.

Buck, of course, is the "cyclone" and despite the suggestion of gentleness in the title of the picture, Mr. Jones at times is as vigorous and tornadic as his fondest fan could wish. In fact, in many of the scenes of "The Gentle Cyclone" Buck swings a pair of very lusty and decisive fists.

The role presents Mr. Jones in fine contrasts, for at times he is as gentle and apparently as harmless as the title suggests. Again, he is the wild-riding, fear-defying Buck Jones of many a valiant western picture.

"The Gentle Cyclone" has been made under the direction of W. S. Van Dyke, who has piloted Mr. Jones through many of his best western stories. The cast has been selected with care, and a picture with fine entertainment value has been produced.

The deputy lord mayor of Prague arose in his box during the performance of an opera at Prague, waved his hand and dropped dead. That seems to be just about the height of dramatic criticism.

BARTHELMESS PLAYS SWASHBUCKLING HERO

Cuts Dashing Figure in Fast-Moving Story Which Contains Numerous Thrilling Episodes

The term, "The Period of the Regency," which is used in connection with "The Amateur Gentleman," starring Richard Barthelmess, coming to the Westholme Theatre at the week-end is one not often heard in literature and many people are curious as to its significance.

It gets its name from that period between 1810 and 1820, when George the Third went insane and his brother became Prince Regent.

The costumes are of the Beau Brummell period, and in the story as told in the Barthelmess film, the hero, Barnabas Beverly Barty, was the first to introduce wide trousers among the social lights of London.

Barthelmess' good looks and fine physique stand him in excellent stead in this colorful drama. He cuts an even more dashing figure, if that is possible, as Barnabas Beverly Barty than he does as Lieutenant Ranson in "Ranson's Folly," which was released before the completion of "The Amateur Gentleman."

The picture hurries along at a fast clip and is full of exciting incidents. Two of the most exciting are a fist fight which Barty wages against his father, the ex-heavyweight champ of England, and a thrilling steeplechase.

The steeple chase shows him actually jockeying. This was one of the most dangerous exploits in the film and Dick suffered a fall from which he narrowly escaped grave injury.

WOMAN-HATER CHANGES OPINION IN "MANTRAP"

Love Drama of Northland Coming to Westholme Theatre at Middle of Week

In "Mantrap," which is the picturization of Sinclair Lewis' latest novel, and which film is to be shown at the Westholme Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, Percy Marmont plays the role of a young bachelor-lawyer whose practice is confined to obtaining divorces. He becomes tired of the hollowness of life, and of listening to the grievances, real and fancied, of those who seek separations from their husbands.

All women weary him. So he accepts the invitation of Mr. Woodbury, manufacturer of "Twinkle-Toe Hosiery," who has adjoining offices, to go camping in the Canadian woods. He wants to get entirely away from women.

Woodbury is a noisy, vulgar, know-it-all camper—a "super-Babbitt," at large in the woods. Marmont quickly breaks away from him, and takes refuge with Joe Easter who runs a trading post.

Of course, he meets a woman—Clara Bow. And Marmont looks very good to her. At least, he forms a diversion, someone to flirt with. And before Marmont knows it, he is right in the middle of one of the most unusual situations which has ever been put on the screen.

It is said to be one replete with drama, humor and thrills, climaxing in a big forest fire which imperils all three leading characters.

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful.

Every manager of a household---every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare---should make a habit of reading the ads.

freighting across to Vera Cruz, Mexico, spending two or three months riding through that country by train. From Mexico, Miss Walker returned by way of Texas and hiked across the Arizona desert to Los Angeles. Thence walking to Seattle, she took boat to Fairbanks, Alaska, then coming back through Fairbanks to Juneau. She came from Ketchikan to Prince Rupert on Friday. Of the forty thousand miles, she has already covered, Miss Walker estimates that she has walked close to ten thousand miles of which 4,000 miles was in Alaska.

Miss Walker will spend a week here before proceeding to Vancouver, then returning to Oakland whence she will sail for Honolulu. Then she will go to Australia, Europe, the Orient, South Africa and South America and back to the United States. Miss Walker is allowing herself five years to finish her hike provided there are no undue delays. She is working her way to pay for transportation by boat or railway wherever the use of such is necessary.

Miss Walker has already covered Canada, United States and Alaska. By profession she is a stenographer. She has a moving picture outfit which she uses wherever she goes. On Wednesday and Thursday nights she will appear at the Westholme Theatre in person exhibiting her films and giving a talk upon her travels from capital to capital in North America. She is a robust "bachelor maid" as she describes herself. She is seen on the city streets and in her hiking costume arouses considerable comment. She carries a book bearing the signatures of the various mayors in cities and governors in states she visits. This book is also signed by the president of the United States and Secretaries Hughes, Mellon and Weeks, also Governor "Ma" Ferguson of Texas as well as Premiers of Ontario and other eastern provinces.

She will call on Mayor Newton this afternoon.

Nerves at High Tension

The Result of Keen Competition and the Struggle for Supremacy

This is the age of hurry. The hurry at breakfast, the hurry to work, the hurry at lunch, the hurry home and the hurry out to evening engagements.

There is no time for rest or sleep. No time for the nerves to renew their vigor. The spirit of hurry is everywhere and few can escape its influence.

As a result of this constant nervous strain you find yourself irritable and nervous.

Heart disturbances are among the early indications of an over-taxed system. There is headache, stomach troubles, brain fog and neuralgic pains.

If you could only get away from it all for a rest. Some have solved the exhausted nervous system and now rejoice in good health and strength. They were just as rundown as you are but persisted in this treatment until their vigor and energy was thoroughly restored. There is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to build up the rundown nervous system.

PRAIRIES NOT TREELESS NOW

GOVERNMENT'S ACTIVITY IN SUPPLYING SEEDLINGS HELPS TO MAKE PRAIRIE HOMES COSY—SHADED RETREATS

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—(By Canadian Press.)—The treeless prairie is becoming only a name. The greater appearance of the prairie in many sections is gradually changing. There are cosy farm houses, set amid well-planned shelter-belts, surrounded by gardens containing bush and fruit trees.

This is an outcome of the activity of the Department of the Interior in supplying settlers with little trees and seedlings. Last year the Department sent out 5,500,000 little trees for distribution among the 3,590 farm homes in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. And the distribution for 1927 will be the biggest yet. Nearly eight million seedlings and cuttings are ready for packing to meet the 6,200 applications which have been approved. Since the work began 25 years ago more than 87,500,000 trees have been sent out.

ARTISTIC TOUCH

The resulting plantations are not part of a wood-lot scheme. The trees are usually set in strips or shelter-beds around the farm buildings, but a new idea is gained of the extent of the work when it is learned that the 1926 plantations covered a little over 2,000 acres and that the total plantings since the inauguration of the scheme exceeded in extent 32,000 acres. The plantations, form but a patch in the immensity of the Canadian West but they have given an artistic touch to 80,390 farm homes and to many a rural school ground in the prairie provinces.

The aim of the Department, it is intimated, has been to give farmers a start so that once a plantation is established the seeds and cuttings from it can be used to begin other shelter-beds. It has been demonstrated that by breaking the force of high winds and by conserving moisture, shelter-beds increase the production of the farm. But they return a dividend a hundred-fold greater in the increased comfort and enjoyment afforded by them to the farmer and the household.

Though the steamer on which he arrived from the south was late, Rt. Rev. A. U. DePue, archbishop of Westminster and Metropolitan of British Columbia, was able to be on hand at St. Andrew's Cathedral in time last night to hold confirmation services. The archbishop has been suffering from a slight illness lately and, instead of visiting other points in the district at this time, as had been intended, he will return to Vancouver tomorrow evening.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Kergin and Miss Margaret Kergin returned to the city last evening after a holiday trip to California. Mrs. W. H. Kergin is remaining in the south for a time to visit with relatives.

They sat on the porch at midnight. Their lips were tightly pressed. The old man gave a signal. And the bulldog did the rest.
