Two Suspects in Police Court 40 Minutes After Getting Away With Motor Van LONDON, Dec. 2 .- A motor van was reported stolen in London at 5.50 p.m. Two men were arrested three miles away at 6.10 p.m. on a charge of having stolen the van. The pair of suspects were in police court at 6.20 p.m. charged with the theft. This, in brief, is the story of one of the smartest arrests of suspected motor thieves ever made in this country, and most of the credit goes to three constables on duty at New Cross Gate, S.E., on the night of the theft.
