Conference of Premiers Closed Last Night With Consideration Large Number Important Subjects

Subsidies, pensions, water power rights, blue sky legislation, taxation, marketing and lash for prisoners reviewed

OTTAWA, November 11.—Federal subsidies, old age pensions, water power rights, blue sky legislation, taxation, Alberta and Nova Scotia coal development and the imposition of the lash for narcotic offenders by amending the criminal code were considered by the premiers of the Dominion late yesterday prior to closing the conference.

For the Dominion government Hon. J. A. Robb presented a statement in regard to federal subsidies and the financial problems of the Dominion and the provinces. "The whole question we feel must be given thorough scrutiny before a commitment of any nature can be given. In light of the representations made by the conference, we will carefully consider the problems," he said.

With respect to old age pensions the inclination of the majority of the provinces is to have the federal government make its contribution without involving the provinces. British Columbia though, characterized the federal act as a "real boon."

On the question of taxation, Hon. A. M. Manson of B.C. advocated that the whole question should be made one of general inquiry so that the ship of state could be trimmed, not at one end but from end to end.

Fourteen sessions of the conference have been held in seven days and during that time all items on the agenda, constitutional, financial and provincial were fully reviewed. There was a free interchange of views, provincial and Dominion expressed in some forty subjects and in many instances the Federal Government promised to take cognizance of the attitude of the provinces.

"At the end of last night's session the conference closed.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 11.—Litigation in the suit brought by the Davis Log rafting Company and the Davis Ocean Log Rafting and Towing Co. of Portland, which claimed damages for alleged infringement of Canadian patents to construct Davis rafts, has been closed. William E. Cathels and Charles Sorenzen of Victoria were the defendants.

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—Logging operators have abandoned the appeal from the judgment of Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald in favor of the Davis Company which enjoined Cathels and Sorenzen from infringing plaintiff's patents and ordered defendant to pay damages for infringement. Cathels and Sorenzen have agreed to pay royalties for the use of the patents.

A similar settlement has been effected of the action against the Blueband Navigation Company by the Davis Com-

SHIPPING CAR LOAD OF ORE

Mine Near Kalum Lake Has Thirty Tons on Dump Awaiting Snow

A good-sized party of local members of the craft plant making a trip north next week when G. A. Woodland, district deputy grand master A.F. & A.M., proceeds to Anyox to pay his official visit to Enoch Lodge of the smelter town. The trip will be made on the steamer Prince George leaving here Wednesday night and Stewart will be the first port of call. Anyox will be reached about 6 o'clock Thursday evening and arrangements have been made to hold the boat until 12:30 midnight when the meeting will be over. Return to Prince Rupert will be made early Friday morning.

The present cost of producing the high grade is $20 a ton for mining, $20 for getting it to the railway and approximately $15 a ton for freight to Trail. This makes a total of $35 a ton, leaving a net profit on the operation of about $10 a ton.

With more modern methods of mining and better transportation these costs could be very materially reduced.

CROSS OF SACRIFICE UNVEILED WASHINGTON BY COL. RALSTON PRESENCE OF VAST CONCOURSE

WASHINGTON, November 11.—In the presence of a vast concourse thronging the enclosure near the tomb of the American unknown soldier in Arlington cemetery, a gathering representing the civil and official life of the two great nations of North America paid the tribute of Canada to the citizens of the United States who died in the Canadian army when the cross of sacrifice, the gift of the Canadian people, was unveiled by Colonel Hon. J. L. Ralston.

"Through days to come may the two nations never forget the spirit of this moment or lose sight of the glory of this cross, our reward, pledge of brotherhood, and symbol of the fellowship of the faithful even unto death," Colonel Ralston said.

Dr. King also took part and later laid a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier.

CANADA IS CELEBRATING SACRIFICE OF THOSE WHO DIED IN THE GREAT WAR

Prime Minister and Cabinet and Premiers of Provinces Join Service at Ottawa and Currie at Toronto

OTTAWA, November 11.—Nine years ago today saw Canadian soldiers fighting the last battle of the war, delivering the Belgian city of Mons from the German army. At Ottawa this afternoon a ceremony took place in Victory Tower when Premier Mackenzie King and members of his cabinet, premiers of the nine provinces and other notable figures including Hon. William Phillips, American minister to Canada, assembled in the memorial chamber. Following a brief service the premier and Mr. Phillips each laid a wreath on the altar.

The Governor-General is to be the leading figure at a ceremony this evening at the temporary cenotaph on Parliament Hill.

Throughout Canada today solemn ceremonies of praise and thanksgiving were carried out in shrines dedicated to the memory of the war dead in front of cenotaphs, whose presence is a constant witness to the sacrifice made. Canadians everywhere interrupted their labors at 11 o'clock for two minutes silence and remembrance of the nation's sixty thousand dead and those who still carry the marks and scars of service.

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—Premier MacLean will be tendered a public reception upon his return from Ottawa, and the executive of the B.C. Liberal Association is planning a grand rally, states Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, president of the association.

The executive also plans a meeting to consider the inter-provincial situation arising out of the Ottawa Conference, the date to be determined after consulting the premier.

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—That Canada might ever keep before it the glory of sacrifice was the aspiration voiced today by General Sir Arthur Currie in delivering the address at the cenotaph here. Only by sacrifice for the right could the individual or country become great, Sir Arthur said, and so the sacrifice of the country's youth shone through the gloom of an awful night of war like a star apart, a guide for ever to Canada when her honor is in the balance and an invisible witness to the sovereignty of the spirit.

TERRACE FAIR IS OFF UNLESS PEOPLE SHOW MORE INTEREST

Almost Endless Procession Files Past Cenotaph and Marches to Abbey

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The King and Royal Family paid homage to the war dead at the cenotaph in Whitehall today. For two minutes after Big Ben sounded eleven, the city was like a great cathedral.

From the balcony of the government building Queen Mary joined in the singing of "O God Our Help in Ages Past," which opened the service conducted by the Bishop of London.

Then the King, the Prince of Wales, and the Duke of York each placed a wreath at the base of the cenotaph, starting a seemingly endless procession past the monument. The marchers continued to the grave of the unknown soldier in Westminster Abbey.

Arrangements were made whereby the books of the association are to be held by Mrs. O. T. Sundal until such time as the public may show their interest by reorganizing.

NEW COLD WEATHER RECORD FOR SEASON

Thermometer Dropped to 22 Degrees Above Zero This Morning and Prospect is for Continuation of Snap

The thermometer sunk to a further new low level record for the season when 22 above zero, or ten degrees of frost, was registered about 6 o'clock this morning at the Digby Island meteorological station. At 8 o'clock, the official reading was 24 above zero. With the wind in the north and the barometer high and rising steadily, the prospect this morning was for a continuation of the fine weather cold snap. Some amateur weather experts predict it may last a week yet.

Victor Brownlee Favors Development of Peace River by Government

VANCOUVER, Nov. 11.—An Ottawa public despatch to the Sun quotes Premier MacLean as saying: "We have a railway which we would like to dispose of, provided we get a fair price and we are not concerned to whom it goes. In the present scheme we are simply awaiting results of the present negotiation between General Sutton and the Federal Government."

Premier Brownlee is quoted to favor public rather than private development of the Peace River. "If it is a good thing for a private concern to finish this work, it ought to be good for public development too."

This afternoon's train from the East, due at 3:30, is reported to be on time.

TWO BOYS ARE SENTENCED TO HANG JANUARY

Jury Finds McKenzie and Burgess Guilty of Murder on Train Last July

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 11.—John Mackenzie, 18, years of age, and George Burgess, 18, were found guilty in the assize court of the murder of Otto Bosch, who died from injuries received when riding the rails beneath a C.P.R. freight train near Ruby Creek on July 22. They were sentenced by Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald to hang on January 27.

In the case of Burgess the verdict added a plea for leniency and a strong recommendation to mercy for McKenzie.

Bosch died from injuries received when he and another youth were attacked by Burgess and McKenzie while stealing a ride. Robbery was said to be the motive.

RATTENBURY SUES BOARD

Seeks Redress for Loss of Lands Which Have Reverted to Crown Under Scheme

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—There is cause for action in Rattenbury's B.C. land settlement suit and the Board can be sued without petition of right first being secured. Mr. Justice Morrison ruled. The point whether the Land Settlement is ultra vires of the trial judge is left for the trial judge to decide.

F. M. Rattenbury of Victoria was ordered to sell 200,000 acres of land in the Skeena Valley under the Land Settlement Act or improve it over a period of six years to the extent of $12.50 an acre.

Rattenbury claimed that he was not in a position to pay for the improvements or the penalty tax and the land was forfeited to the Crown. He is now suing the Board.

MACLEAN WANTS SELL RAILWAY

Senate Dying Natural Death

The Toronto Globe takes up the question of the usefulness or otherwise of the Canadian Senate, saying:

If the members of the Interprovincial Conference in session at Ottawa this week wish to take up Senate reform seriously they need not lack advice. Unfortunately, there is an air of doubt in the public mind as to the serious purpose of public men on this question. There have been too many promises and too little performance. An indignant Prime Minister who finds a Senate majority opposed to him becomes strangely softened as the Senate veers to his side in course of time.

A few days ago a member of the Senate from Ontario passed away, and The Chesley Enterprise was moved to comment pointedly with the opening remark that nobody had ever heard of anything useful this Senator had done. His practice, according to The Enterprise, was like that of the other members: to "sign his name in the attendance register and then disappear for the balance of the day."

The Enterprise adds: "As a matter of fact there are ninety-four out of the ninety-six Senators dead, but they haven't been buried or cremated. The only two actually alive are Dandurand, who takes such a prominent part in the proceedings of the League of Nations, and Sir George E. Foster, who gives the public information by his addresses and letters in the press."

These are strong words, but how much are they an exaggeration? The Senate meets on the opening day of the session, passes the Address in a half-hour or so next day, and then adjourns for a few weeks. Its working days are exceedingly few compared with those of the Commons. Some of the days spent by the Commons may see little accomplished, but the Senate does not give even the appearance of trying to render the service expected of it.

The Senators should be seized with a greater desire to do something constructive. They are seldom heard of unless they start a spasm of obstruction. Their life membership and their irresponsibility deprive them of any just right permanently to obstruct the legislation of the Commons. Canada should, first of all, adopt the system of Britain, and provide that a bill passed at three consecutive sessions of the Commons should become law regardless of the Senate. Even Nova Scotia passed such a law to curb its Legislative Council, in which members' terms are limited to ten years. Ottawa cannot afford to do less.

EASTERN VIEW OF B.C.

The same paper looks across to the Pacific coast and sees British Columbia and remarks:

British Columbia will not have a general election as a result of the change of premiers. Hon. J. D. MacLean, the new head of the government, following the death of Hon. John Oliver, told a Victoria audience that the province is thriving and that there is no need to go to the people, as he proposes to continue the Oliver policies.

These policies have been highly beneficial to the coast province, according to the story told by Dr. MacLean. The early years of the war, when the boom conditions of 1912 had passed and left their mark, were exceedingly trying for British Columbia. The Liberal Government which came into office in 1916 found bread lines in operation, a deficit of $12,000,000 in four years, sinking funds $600,000 in arrears, and provincial credit impaired.

The prime minister said one of the first acts of the new government was to balance the budget and restore the sinking funds. Agriculture has been encouraged, capital attracted to the province, and taxation reduced. A formidable list of new investments of capital was cited. Production in the major industries has also steadily increased. "There never has been a time in the history of this province when capital was investing here as it is at the present time," said Dr. MacLean.

The coast province has experienced depression, but that is passing. It still has its P.G.E. Railway, a pioneer line which traverses a broad interior territory which as yet supplies little traffic. Efforts to sell the road have not proved successful. Production in the four major industries—lumbering, agriculture, mining and fishing—is rising, and the province is now third in the Dominion in manufacturing. A great port at Vancouver is in the making, and as the prairies grow in population traffic via Pacific coast points in outgoing wheat and incoming goods will increase, and benefit British Columbia.

LIVING COSTS SLIGHTLY UP

Price of Beef Likely to be Higher but Plenty of Other Meats on Market

EGGS STILL SCARCE

Canned Tomatoes up and Other Canned Goods may Follow in Same Direction

This week's survey of the local stores indicates little change in prices for the last ten days. The staple foodstuffs such as flour, sugar, butter and tea remain steady in price with tea very firm. One thing seems certain so far as it is possible to forecast and that is both canned vegetables and beef products will be higher this winter which will make the family soup pot cost a little more. Canned tomatoes are already up owing to the short pack this year, the total pack being less than 30 per cent of normal. There is a firming up in all lines of other canned vegetables owing to the same reason.

Eggs—the big ones—are still very scarce although pullet eggs are coming in plentifully. But beef will be higher this winter than it has been since 1920. Four or five years ago, beef prices were away down and the farmers got such a low price that they went in for other things and have not been raising cattle for the market in the same numbers. And the effect of this will be felt this year. This is shown by Chicago figures, for there a year ago they were slaughtering 22,000 head daily. The last month the daily average has been 10,000 only. This same scarcity is reflected in the export figures of beef products which are forty million pounds less for the first nine months of 1927 than they were for 1926.

One consolation is that mutton, lamb and pork supplies are plentiful and prices of these ought not to rise very much unless in sympathy with beef.

Apples are still coming in great variety. Nonesuch, Northern Spies, York Imperials, Ontario, Jonathans and Yellow Newton Pippins all being seen. Florida grapefruit which has been off the market, is now again on sale.

SCHOOL REPORT FOR OCTOBER

No Sickness Among Pupils and Wants of Teachers Few This Month

At the meeting of the school board last night the principals all reported the general health of the pupils excellent. Reports were submitted as follows:

Booth School—Total attendance 422, boys 233, girls 189, average percentage 95.47; percentage in division 4, 98.62; savings of pupils banked $134.38.

Borden Street—Total attendance 327, boys 167, girls 160, average percentage 95.06, highest in one class 97.31.

Seal Cove—Total attendance 60, boys 29, girls 31, average percentage 96.3.

Westview—Total attendance 23, boys 11, girls 12, average percentage 90.5.

High School—Total attendance 161, boys 66, girls 95, average percentage 94.7.

For Booth School Miss Mercer asked that a drinking fountain be installed outside the school building for the use of the boys. The feasibility of this will be investigated.

For Borden Street Miss Mills asked a supply of electric light fuses and globes which will be supplied.

For Seal Cove Miss Lizney reported two troughs causing trouble and this will be attended to at once.

For Westview Miss Hellwell asked for a school grant toward the purchase of a piano, having been offered one for $200. She strongly urged that something be done but the matter was left in abeyance, no money being available.

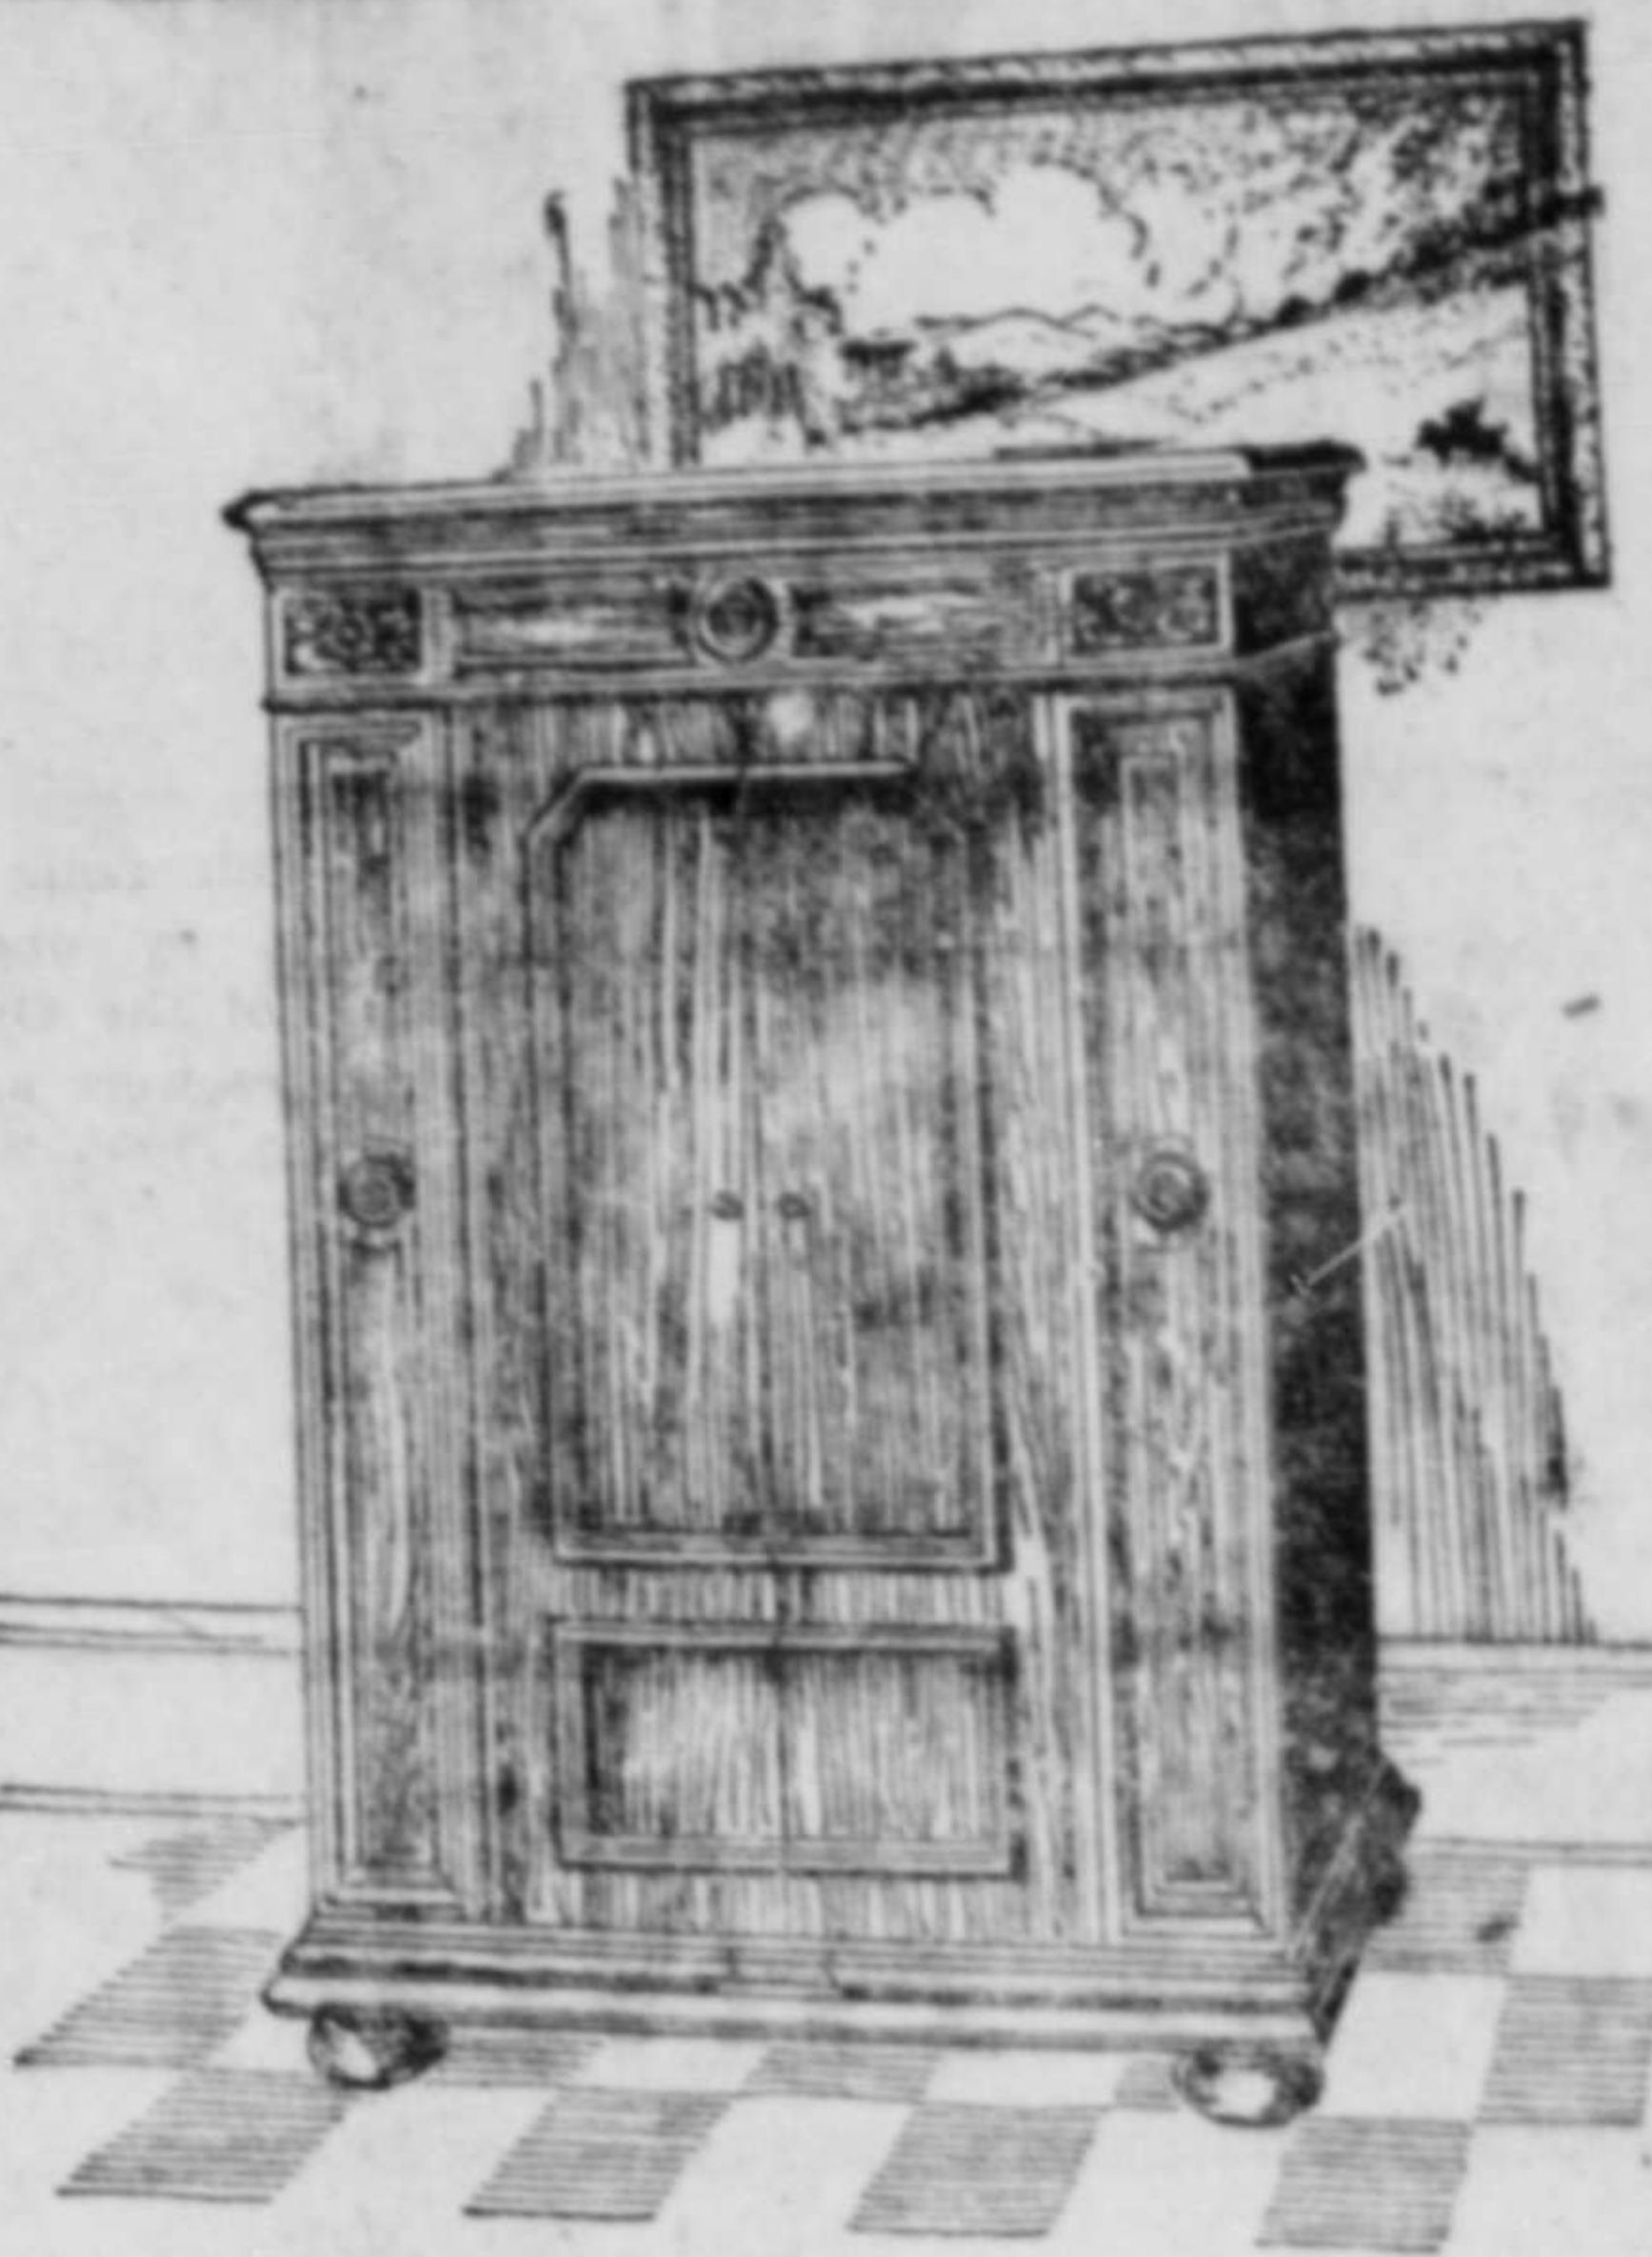

For the High School Principal Pedde explained that three part time students in the commercial classes had brought the average attendance for the month low. The house system for sports had proved successful and a team of boys and another of girls had entered in the city intermediate basketball league. There had been two intermediate house debates under the literary and debating society and also papers on literary subjects.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Hon. Sir Frank Barnard, the bride was charming in a gown of georgette in the new shade of Biska, softly draped, an untrimmed except for a collar of nutriss from which a scarf-like end of the georgette fell in graceful folds. She wore a becoming hat of black moher trimmed with pleated tulle and lace and brilliant ornament, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. There were no bridal attendants, and Daisy Morkill acted as groomsman to her brother.

Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most excusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

ROTARY TOLD ABOUT MINES

Hyder Banker Addresses Club on Portland Canal Country and Its Possibilities

J. A. Hall addressed the Rotary Club at their 15th annual meeting yesterday afternoon on the Portland Canal district and its mining possibilities. Mr. Hall is a Hyder banker who is just moving from Hyder to Vancouver to deal in Portland Canal properties. He has been in close touch with the situation at the mines for a number of years and his address proved very interesting.

Mr. Hall said that on the American side they had only one mine so far, the Riverside, but there were a large number of good looking properties that would be developed. The mill at the Riverside was closed just now but more ore would be developed and work would continue.

Speaking of the different properties active in the district Mr. Hall touched on the Premier, which was still paying 32 per cent dividends divided into eight per cent quarterly, $6,000,000 gross having been taken out so far.

The entrance of the Consolidated into the district caused elation and other big companies were looking over the ground with a view to entering the field. The George property was being drilled and showings were very good and they believed the Big Missouri would be the biggest mine in the district. The Woodbine adjoining the Premier had developed a lot of ore.

In regard to Dunwell, there was a report that new ore had been discovered and that the mill would not shut down. There was more ore and of better value.

The Porter Idaho and Prosperity came in for remarks.

Mr. Hall said the people of the district felt they had just turned the corner and that a number of big mines would be opened up. It was no poor man's country as it took capital and time to make a mine there. It had been said that Portland Canal was the most likely looking mining country in the world today except perhaps the Rand. Prince Rupert, he felt sure, would benefit from the development of the district. It was a young man's country, there being no other like it.

Mr. Hall touched lightly on his hydro-electric scheme for the mines of the district and said they would proceed as soon as the demand was great enough.

EXAMINATION FOR ENTRANCE TO HIGH SCHOOL DISCUSSED

There was considerable discussion at the school board meeting last night on the subject of high school entrance examinations but it was finally decided to defer action until after discussing the matter with the teachers at their meeting on November 15. Chairman Rochester was strongly in favor of all students taking the examination and Trustee McMeekin also seemed to favor it. Trustee Gilchrist spoke rather as if he preferred the present system of promotion by recommendation of the teacher.

The matter came up on the reading of a letter from Superintendent S. J. Willis, who asked the board if they wished all students to take the examinations.

NO THOROUGHFARE IN BOOTH SCHOOL GROUNDS

Board Decides to Check Habit of People
Passing That Way

At the regular meeting of the school board last night, H. B. Rochester in the chair, it was decided not to give permission to the city to erect two lights on the Booth School grounds as there was no thoroughfare through the grounds and the route was dangerous at night and annoying to the school in the day time. Notices will be put up informing the public that there is no thoroughfare that way.

There was considerable discussion over the subject, and it was pointed out that it would be cheaper for the city to put in a temporary walk on Fifth Avenue than to erect poles on the school grounds.

For "Goodness" Sake

beware of any baking powder that contains alum. It is apt to give your cakes, biscuits, etc., a bitter taste. Besides that, health authorities do not consider alum to be good for the health. Far better to use the old, reliable—

Magic Baking Powder It contains no alum

We could reduce the cost by using alum, but we would then be lowering the quality. The only ingredients in Magic Baking Powder are the finest grades of phosphate, starch and soda, expertly blended. "Magic" gives you best results and is truly wholesome. Refuse all substitutes—even if you are offered "free" crockery as an extra inducement.

song or even a verse of a song repeated.

HE sang and then he listened long And wondered if he really might Return and sing another song His final chance that night.

He heard the audience clap its hands His friends tried hard to make it last And when they gave a vigorous cheer Out front he came, the die was cast.

The audience groaned and gently swore They did not want again to hear, But spite of angry looks and tired He sang and they refrained to jeer.

I WONDER how many local performers realize that an audience sometimes cheers just to let the singer know they are glad he has stopped.

ARRANGED QUICK.

A mother called her little daughter to her. "Just imagine, dear," she said. "Aunt Mary has a new baby, and now mamma is the baby's aunt, papa is the baby's uncle, and you are her little cousin."

"Well," said the astonished little girl, "wasn't that all arranged quick?"—Boston Transcript.

HIS HONOR FOOLZ.

We know well enough what he meant, but what the new country Magistrate actually said in his address was: "So long as I am on the bench you can rely upon me always tampering with justice and mercy."—Boston Transcript.
