CANTONESE ARMY NEAR SHANGHAI SIXTY-ONE PERSONS INDICTED BY GRAND JURY AT 'FRISCO

Japanese Sailors Are Landed Sunday; Foo Chow Being Sieged

SHANGHAI-NANKING RAILWAY MAY BE CUT OFF BY SOUTHERNERS — VAGUE AND CONFLICTING REPORTS RECEIVED FROM FIELD

SHANGHAI, March 7.—A force of 500 Japanese bluejackets landed in Shanghai on Sunday in readiness for any emergency. The city itself is quiet with chief interest centering on the fate of Foo Chow where Marshal Chang Tsung Chang arrived and is busy strengthening the position of the northern troops against the Cantonese who are steadily pressing on that city in the hope of cutting off the Shanghai-Nanking railway. Although military reports received from the field are vague and conflicting, some details strongly indicate that the resumption of the Cantonese pressure on Foo Chow has reached that city in a perilous position.

BOMB ATTEMPT 'FRISCO CHURCH

ONE MAN KILLED AND ONE INJURED BY CORDON OF POLICE SURROUNDING IMPROVISED EDIFICE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Police expressed two men attempting to bomb the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul early Sunday morning, shooting and killing one and wounding another. The latter was identified as Gelatin Eklund, aged 45, former janitor of San Jose, California. Several years ago he was arrested in Seattle as an I.W.W. agitator. The church, one of the most imposing in the city, had already been bombed four times since January 1926.

Police, stationed in and around the church, saw the two men place the bomb in a doorway and start to leave. The men failing to respond to the call to halt, the police opened fire while one slipped out the fuse on the bomb.

The dead man is unidentified.

REDS ACTIVE IN HONG KONG

ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO HAVE SEAMEN'S STRIKE PREPARATORY TO GENERAL STRIKE

HONG KONG, March 7.—Simultaneous with the agitation for a general strike at Shanghai, it is reported from Hong Kong that the Seamen's Union there was attempting to form a communist nucleus on every trading steamer arriving at Hong Kong with the object of creating a federation of labor unions preparatory to calling a seamen's strike on river steamers which, if successful, would lead to a general strike at Hong Kong.

AUSTRALIA DOES NOT WANT TO HAVE TOO MANY SPARROWS

PREMANTLE, Western Australia, March 7.—Australian officials, mindful of how English sparrows spread over the United States after a few were imported, are trying to avoid a similar experience. Several sparrows which escaped from the steamer Carinthia when it arrived here on a world tour are being hunted by men who have orders to shoot to kill.

Thus far the undesirable aliens are still at large. It is feared that the prolific birds in time might become a menace to crops.

ASSUME HANACO HAS BEEN LOST

NO TRACE SEEN OF BUSHBY TUG-BOAT SINCE SHE STRUCK FRIDAY NIGHT

CREW'S NARROW ESCAPE

CAPT. JIM MORRISON AND RALPH MOORE ADMIT ALL NIGHT IN MOUNTAINOUS SEAS

The power tug Hanaco, which struck Hodgson reef between Tuguel and Swamp Islands on Friday night while pulling a heavy lumber scow in a stiff southeaster, is believed to have gone down. Nothing was seen of her on Saturday or Sunday by searching boats. Capt. Jim Morrison and Ralph Moore had an arduous time of it following the stranding and, indeed, were fortunate in escaping with their lives.

Instead of making shore as was originally reported, the two men drifted all Friday night in mountainous seas. While Morrison attempted to row the small boat, Moore, who was a new hand, was forced to bale constantly to keep the little craft afloat. Finally they were picked up by Capt. Jack Cook in his boat, the Joy Bird.

Capt. Morrison joined the P.R.T. outside and came in with that vessel which brought in two scowloads of herring last night. He went out again with the boat to bring in more herring.

SCOW SIGHTED

The lumber scow from Big Bay, which broke adrift from the Hanaco, was sighted yesterday but, according to reports this morning, had not yet been picked up.

With George Bushby, head of the Rupert Marine Products Ltd., owning the Hanaco, and other officers of the company at Port Simpson, in connection with the bringing into the plant here of herring for reduction purposes, a heavy run being now on, there has been some difficulty in getting particulars of the loss of the Hanaco. In fact it is not yet definitely known that she is lost although it is believed so.

Built here some fifteen or sixteen years ago by Japanese who operated her at first, the Hanaco was later acquired by Capt. Robert Gammon who used her as a towboat and diving tender. A few years ago, she became the property of Frebourg and Jorgensen who used her as a halibut boat. Last year, the Bushby interests purchased the vessel and it has since been engaged in towing work. She was 50 feet long and was powered with a 40 h.p. Union engine.

BOOZE IS THE STUFF THAT MAKES NICARAGUAN TROOPS FIGHT IN GAUDY UNIFORMS

NEW YORK, March 7.—The way Nicaraguan forces are made to fight by their generals is to fill them up with liquor and tell them how wicked the other side is according to William Brooks, American aviator with the Nicaraguan forces, in a despatch to the New York Times.

"You never can tell when a battle will occur or won't in this war," continues Brooks. "Zero hours come when the general gets his mob drunk enough to fight and the general who knows best the men's capacity is the one who is likely to win the war."

"Nearly all the soldiers on both sides are conscripts and come dressed in all kinds of uniforms. At a recent review of a new army, one fellow wore a pink bathrobe and bedroom slippers and another, a full dress suit."

Consolidated Directors and Other Prominent Men Named in Conspiracy Indictments

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Meeting in extraordinary session, a federal Grand Jury on Saturday indicted sixty-one defendants, including Capt. Stone, and all members of the crew of the steamer Federal Ship which was seized by a coastguard cutter some three hundred miles off the coast last week, on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead Act and related laws and treaties. Bail for those named, most of whom are alleged to be concerned with half a score of rum running conspiracies, aggregate more than $1,200,000. Those indicted include Russell Whitelaw, George Morgan and Al McLennan, alleged directors of the Consolidated Exporters, F. R. Anderson, attorney representing that concern, and W. J. Murdock, representing the Federal Shipping Co.

When the Federal Ship's crew refused to continue to serve, government agents were stationed aboard the vessel which is riding at anchor in San Francisco Bay. The latter were forced to forage for themselves over the week-end with the aid of can-openers in the vessel's larders.

Most Heated Discussion of Already Warm Session May Occur at Victoria Today

VICTORIA, March 7.—What promises to be the most heated discussion of a session that already has not been lacking warmth will take place this afternoon and evening following the failure of the Legislature to conclude its sittings on Saturday. A strenuous fight by the opposition against the government's taxation bill which will be fought step by step through its remaining stages was foreshadowed in notices placed on the order paper seeking to amend the bill, especially Section 2 which deals with the taxing of profits.

Hon. Dr. J. D. McLean, minister of finance, announced on Saturday afternoon that the section referred to, while opposing the plan, they to, as a result of pressure brought to its features while the bill was being held bear upon the government, would not be made effective until after March, 1928. In keeping with this proposal, A. E. Munn, Liberal member for Lillooet, moved an amendment to that effect which was carried.

Dr. McLean said that the principle of the bill was simply to tax profits. It had been suggested to the delegation

PARTY OF FIRE CHIEFS COMING

WILL VISIT PRINCE RUPERT IN AUGUST WITH REAL ESTATE MEN AFTER CONVENTION IN PORTLAND

Fire chiefs from all over the North American continent, after attending the international convention at Portland, Oregon, on August 9 this year, will visit Prince Rupert in the course of a tour to Alaska. They will be here aboard the steamer Princess Charlotte on August 15, northbound, and again on August 20, southbound. The trip has been arranged by Jay W. Stevens of San Francisco, executive secretary of the Association and state fire marshal for California.

The fire chiefs had originally planned to charter a boat of their own but this was found to be impossible and it was decided to join the San Francisco Real Estate Board which had chartered the Princess Charlotte for the trip. The two parties, it is expected, will fill the steamer. There will be several hundred men and women from all parts of the United States and Canada.

Fire Chief D. H. McDonald of Prince Rupert has received an invitation to attend the convention and make the trip to Alaska. He is already formulating plans to receive the visitors.

MALAMUTES MADE LOSING RACE ACROSS UNINHABITED WASTES OF ALASKA TO SUMMON AID FOR DYING MASTER

INDIAN TELLS STORY

Trapper Dies in Lonely Cabin North of Circle City—Body was Found by Ginnis Solomon

CIRCLE CITY, Alaska, March 7.—How two malamute dogs made a losing race across the most uninhabited section of Northern Alaska to summon aid for their dying master has been revealed here. The story was related by Ginnis Solomon, an Indian, who lives one hundred miles north of Circle City.

Two dogs of Roy Felter, trapper, arrived at Solomon's lonely cabin early last Monday morning. Their feet were cut and bleeding from a long race over jagged ice and snow. Each bore a note from Felter. The notes were wet, faded and unreadable but Solomon started out for Felter's camp, feeling that the trapper was ill and needed aid. The stricken man was dead when Solomon arrived. From signs on his snowshoes it was indicated that he had started out for assistance but was overcome by weakness and returned to the cabin.

HERRING RUN STARTS WELL

FLOATING CANNERY LAUREL WHALEN HAS COMMENCED SALTING AT SEAL COVE AND BUSHBY IS REDUCING AT TUCKS INLET

There was no delay in getting the Millard Packing Co.'s floating cannery Laurel Whalen under operation. The barge arrived in port at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, in tow of the tug St. Faith, and started salting herring last night, twenty tons having come in for the company.

Manager C. Williams came up on the Laurel Whalen and is in charge of operations which started where the vessel is moored at the cannery near Seal Cove. It is understood that the cannery will also be operated again this season.

The herring run seems to be on in full swing now in the vicinity of Butler's Cove and near Port Simpson. Two scowloads came in last night for the Rupert Marine Products plant at Tucks Inlet which has started reduction operations.

CONSERVATIVE PARTY HAVING HARD TIME.

With its leader engaged in a better field and other things going awry, the Conservative party is apparently having some difficulty in getting its forces to work in anticipation of an impending provincial election. The Tory propagandists are being compelled to send stories to the party's organs about the date being set, the government being defeated, etc., when there is little indeed no foundation in fact for same. The outlook is not very promising for a party that not only has to deceive the public but deceive its own people to get them to rally to the cause.

USE OF LOG CARRYING BARGES ON COAST.

The total loss of the log-carrying barge Bingamon, which went ashore in Smith's Inlet off Queen Charlotte Sound recently, was a blow to this method of transportation, and at least a temporary inconvenience to the movement of timber. The use of these barges has proven a very effective and economical means of transport and, on the whole, has proven surer. Experiment therewith has demonstrated the absolute necessity of large and powerful towboats to handle the unwieldy hulks.

AN EXAMPLE OF JAP FECUNDITY.

The fecundity of the Orientals has often been referred to lately. The example of the Salt Spring Island Japanese woman who gave birth to twenty-three children in twenty-five years, thus creating what is believed to be a record for Canada, even exceeding the well known abilities of the French-Canadians along that line, will furnish a concrete example for those who argue the point.

One has only to read the birth lists, as published in certain of the Vancouver newspapers, to receive further enlightenment on the subject. Japanese births on some occasions take up half of the list.

ALWAYS CONFLICT OF OPINIONS.

The opinionated encounter many false opinions in the world, but always among their fellowmen. To entertain an opinion demands disbelief in the opinions of those who think otherwise. Perhaps the only reason there are two people who think alike in the world is because the production of different opinions has not kept pace with the growth in population.

This conflict of opinions is ever present. The more common demonstrations are afforded by politics, religion and the league of nations. Other examples are the picking of championship baseball teams, designation of movie actor and actress preferences and deciding whose "stuff" is pre-war bottled-in-bond and whose is cellar-made.

The hobby is a prolific source of difference of opinion. The physical culture crank ridicules the fiend for golf and the golfer scorns the hobby of the physical culture crank. The cross-word puzzle solver and the chess player each question the sanity of the other. Tennis is child's play in the opinion of the football player and the tennis player penalizes all of football for "unnecessary roughness." Everybody generously concedes his own opinion to be right.

Interesting Letter Sent by Sid Webb Tells of His Trip and Impressions of England

"While the government is wrestling with the Chinese problem, 'Ma' and 'Pa' and the kiddies in London are wrestling with the problem of which is the best amusement place to go to," says a breezy letter from Sid Webb, formerly of the Daily News staff, who is now in London, England, where he was called recently on account of the failing health of his father. Sid gained a name for himself as compounder of the "Waterfront Whiffs" in the Daily News for many years and this latest contribution from him is in his own happy manner and proves interesting reading. He tells of his trip

THAMES BY NIGHT

London via the river Thames. The channel crossing was uneventful, not even a channel swimmer in sight. We reached the Thames at night but the twinkling of thousands of lights on shore in addition to the flashes of many lighthouses passed was a grand scene and made up for the daylight beauties of the journey we might otherwise have enjoyed.

A number of the passengers were so excited that they remained on deck nearly all night but not "yours truly." I turned in about 1 a.m. and had a good sleep. We arrived at Surrey Docks early in the morning of January 26.

It is a splendid trip up the Thames and it is marvellous how the big ship was maneuvered, although, of course, at low speed.

After breakfast on the boat the British Immigration officials came aboard and "squinted" at our passports, and after the necessary preliminaries, our landing cards were officially stamped and we were free to set foot on the old sod. All the baggage had been piled in one long shed in alphabetical order to pass customs.

Personally, I had no trouble at all passing customs, and after bidding farewell to good travelling companions was soon in the swirl of London traffic making for the underground and home.

I found my aged father improving in health, in fact he is improving daily and we are able to go out everyday weather permitting.

We were down the west-end which is very different from war-time days. Regent Street has been entirely rebuilt, and looks very grand, while the store windows are wonders in themselves. Here one sees articles ranging in price from a few shillings to thousands of pounds in value. A pearl necklace in a jeweler's window was priced at 50,000 pounds sterling—in our money $250,000. I thought of buying two of them but as they only had one I did not buy at all. It sure seems strange to be back in the old war-time haunts and one misses their pals of those days.

Everywhere one looks there is building going on in London, especially in the cinema (movie) line, and such colossal places! London is fast being re-built.

LOOKING FOR FUN

While the government is wrestling with the Chinese problem, "Ma," and "Pa" and the kiddies are wrestling as to which is the best amusement place to go to. Troops were leaving for China when I landed, but everyone seemed to take it as a matter of course and things went on just the same, including the football games.

I have been to several large theatres since arriving. I was at the Capitol one night and saw a wonderful Russian film play. The theatre holds about 5,000 people and the stage is decorated with real flowers on which colored spotlights are thrown with wonderful effect, while the orchestra is superb.

Living in London has gone up, especially rents. Ea's are reasonable. One can get a good feed, enough for a lumber jack for a shilling (two bits). Clothing is no cheaper here than in Canada, while boats are cheaper.

The road traffic has grown enormously and motor buses stretch as far as one can see, while the underground railways have been extended all over the city. It's nothing to wait for five minutes, and longer to cross the streets in the city. It is really marvellous how the pedestrians get by at all.

The flu epidemic has been very bad over here and hundreds have died as a result, but it is abating gradually.

Its Uniformity Makes it Good For Baby!

ONE of the great advantages of Carnation Milk as a baby food is that its goodness never varies. No matter where you buy it or when you use it, baby's delicate digestion is never upset by a change in quality of purity.

Another advantage Carnation offers—the Carnation process of "homogenization" breaks up the fat globules and makes Carnation very easy to digest.

All the food value of milk is in Carnation, for Carnation is just pure, fresh milk evaporated to double richness and kept safe by sterilization. Consult your physician regarding a feeding formula for your baby. Also write us for baby feeding chart. Order several tins or a case of 48 tins from your grocer.

CARNATION CARAMEL TAPIOCA—One-third cup tapioca, 2 cups Carnation Milk diluted with 2 cups water, 2 small eggs, few grains salt, 1 cup light brown sugar, 1 cup broken nut meats. Add tapioca, salt and sugar to hot diluted milk; Cook in double boiler for 25 minutes or until tapioca is transparent. Beat eggs thoroughly and add slowly to tapioca, cooking for two minutes longer. Finally add nuts. Chill and serve with whipped cream. This serves eight.

FAREWELL TO REV. FRIZELL

The following lines of farewell were presented to Rev. J. R. Frizell, the new minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Prince Rupert, at a luncheon in the Picadilly Cafe, Vancouver, in his honor on the occasion of his departure from the pulpit of the Vancouver Heights Presbyterian Church in that city to come north:

The time has come, most reverend sir,
When you and me maun part,
And so we meet aroun' this board
To tell what's in oor heart.

You're goun awa to Rupert's land—
Awa ower hill and sea—
Awa frae friends that lo'e ye weel,
And aye your friends will be.

Of course you'll gatherither friends
Nae doot baith guid and true,
But ah, you'll miss the weel lo'ed "cloth"
O' Presbyterian blue.

The Maister's voice ye maun obey
For ye hae heard His ca'
You're young and youthful, straight and strong,
Sae ye maun haste awa.

With courage brave pit oot your hand,
Grip hard your trusty plough,
And let your furrows aye be straight,
With hert and soul a'low.

Preach aye the guid auld fashioned word,
In Presbyterian style,
Steer clear o' misty, modern ways,
For they will jist beguile.

The auld, auld story's guid enough;
Tell it with cheerful voice,
Haad up the Cross to aye and a'
That men's herts may rejoice.

A bit o' Browning now and then,
Or Shakespeare's noble lyre,
Will be like breezes in a calm,
And help to fan the fire.

But human wisdom canna reach
The temple o' the soul;
Mak' room for God, for only He
Can mak' the sinner whole.

We'll think o' ye when ye are gone
And, at the throne o' grace
Entreat the Father o' us a'
To turn to you His face.

And if ye in your daili prayer
Will wrap us roun' aboot,
We'll a' be ane afore the throne
As we gang in and oot.

Sae fare ye weel oor trusty friend,
God's blessin' on ye fa'
And—tak this word o' guid advice
Afore ye gang awa—

N'er think o' takin' ony step
Along the path o' life,
Until its sanctioned by your God,
Your conscience, and your wife.

AUTOMOBILES SMASH ON THIRD AVENUE

Considerable Damage When E. Large and J. Wilson Collided Saturday Night

An Oldsmobile sedan, driven by Ernie Large, and a Ford sedan, driven by J. Wilson, collided on Third Avenue Saturday night in front of Barrie's furniture store, both cars sustaining considerable damage. Large was proceeding east and Wilson coming west, and at the point where they met, there were cars parked on each side of the street. Wilson suffered minor injuries from the collision, while Large was unhurt, apart from a bad shaking up. Wrecking crews were soon on hand and the cars taken to the garages.

From casual observation it appeared that the larger car suffered the greater amount of damage, having the front end badly smashed up, including both wheels, spring, fenders and radiator. The Ford also suffered heavy damage to the front end although it did not seem to be as extensive as that suffered by the other vehicle.

PRESENTATION AND FAREWELL FOR REV. AND MRS. FRIZELL

Their Congregation in Vancouver Gave Them an Enthusiastic Send-off as They Left for Prince Rupert

On the eve of the departure from the southern city of Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Frizell for Prince Rupert, their congregation and friends in Vancouver met at the boat and presented them with a beautiful gold and silver flower basket and several other tokens of appreciation of their work and friendship. As the boat left the pier, the voices of the crowd rang out in the old familiar song: "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

ONLY AN ASSUMPTION
The Nechako Herald, published at Vanderhoof, has the following to say in explanation of a story it published recently as to an early provincial election:

"Concerning the press dispatch of Saturday last, which we and other newspapers published, concerning an early provincial election, it appears evident that it was an assumption based upon two important announcements made in the provincial legislature last week end by the ministers of Finance and Lands."

BRINGING UP FATHER

Shanghai Troops Guard Rich Prize from Southern Armies; Is Important Trade Centre

SHANGHAI, March 7.—Cantonese troops seeking to capture Shanghai menace a city built by British enterprise into one of the world's greatest trading centres. The city, rich headquarters of foreign interests in China, is well worth defence by the British regulars and troops of other nations now centred here, defenders who are concerned solely with the security of the city. Besides the threat of a Cantonese attack bringing the armies of the south into close contact, there is the menace of looting which might result if northern soldiers fled through the city after suffering a defeat at the hands of the Cantonese.

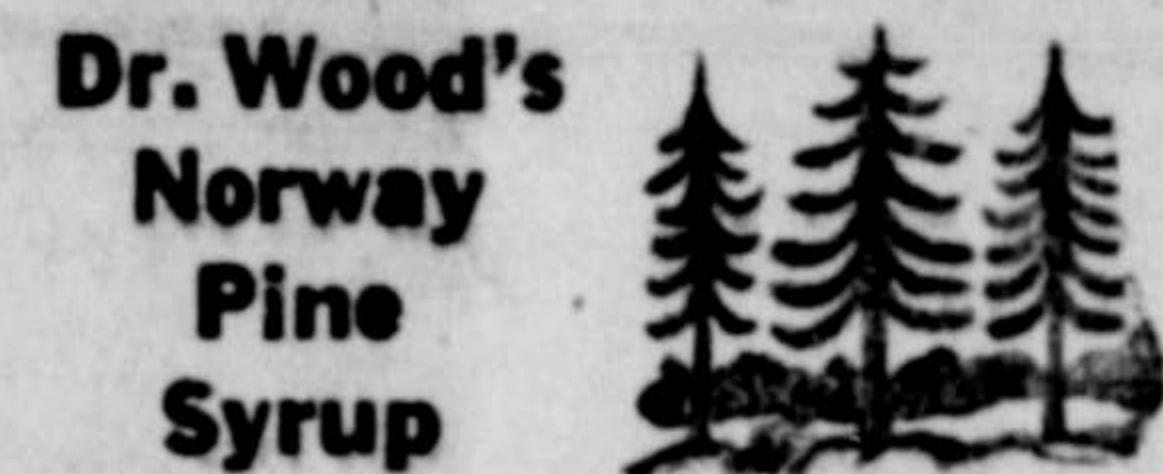

Shanghai does nearly half the foreign trade of China, yields China nearly half its customs revenue, and is the chief centre from which the economic influences which are shaping modern China radiate. It is China's chief port, one of the eight largest ports in the world. On approaching Shanghai from the sea the traveller first observes a wide stretch of yellow water and a green, flat coastline. Soon the water narrows and many junks, clumsy yet graceful, are to be seen. At Tungchow Creek the harbor limits in the Whangpoo River are reached. To the right a huge industrial area spreads out, mill upon mill, factory upon factory, engineering-works, power stations, shipbuilding yards, timber yards, cold storage plants, water works, and crowded wharves, and to the left oil tanks, more wharves, docks, and every variety of shipping.

On landing the traveller views a line of buildings which, collectively, form at once the most imposing and the most European water front east of Suez. Leaving the baggage examination shed he turns into the Nanking road, an epitome of modern China and its problems. Here side by side are East and West, old and new; traditions with centuries behind them, immaturities grotesque. There is an amazing variety of traffic, from the most ancient and creaking of wheelbarrows to the most up-to-date of motor-cars, while shops range from stuffy examples of domestic industry to enormous department stores brilliantly lighted at night by electric advertisements.

Personally, the traveller finds himself passing an essentially Anglo-Saxon race-course and recreation ground, and entering a super-suburbia, where there are big villas and jolly gardens, riding roads, country and golf clubs. Beyond lies open country, flat as a pancake, and, at this time of year, very brown and bare. There are three sections of Shanghai. The largest is the International Settlement, fronting on the Whangpoo River to the east. South of this, but back from the river, is the French Settlement, and east of the French Settlement, or between it and the Whangpoo, is the Old Chinese city. Open country bounds the narrow northern, broad western and fairly large southern limits of Shanghai. The Woosung-Shanghai-Hangchow railway line which above and below Shanghai is close to the Whangpoo, turns out to the Northern Station to enclose Shanghai between it and the river. A loop of this railway turns backward between the southern part of the city and the river, reaching the Shanghai south station, and along its route and at its junction with the main line are arsenals. The Soochow and Siccawei Creeks run westward from the Whangpoo River, dividing the city into three portions, the northern creek, or Soochow, cutting through the International Settlement. The boundary of the International Settlement encloses an area of 8 2-3 square miles. The French Settlement is of four square miles in extent. Both have overflowed their boundaries, principally of course to the west. A considerable number of foreigners live outside them, and roads policed by the settlement run out beyond Siccawei and Jessfield. The total foreign and Chinese population of the International and French-Chinese districts, is 1,136,300. Including residents outside the Settlement, the British population is in the neighborhood of 7,000. The personnel of the municipal administration is largely, if not mainly, British, and British trade and enterprise have been, and still are, the backbone of the place, which was in origin about as unpromising a piece of land as Britons overseas have ever been given to develop. In the Settlement today there are over 13,000 Japanese, about 2,000 Americans, 300 French, close on 3,000 Russians, and some 5,200 subjects of other foreign nations, the Chinese totalling about 810,200 of whom the majority are natives of Kiangsu and Chekiang provinces, some 51,000 being Cantonese. All these, have, of course, contributed very largely to the welfare and prosperity of Shanghai, the foundations of which, however, have been British administrative and commercial capacity. The preponderating foreign interests in the Settlement are British, the amount of British capital invested in land, buildings, plants, and manufactured stocks, municipal debentures and mortgages on Chinese property being no

Her Little Boy Caught Cold While Out Playing

Mrs. F. Cade, Elmwood, Man., writes: "My little boy caught cold while out playing in the snow. He coughed incessantly all that night and the next day, and nothing I gave him seemed to relieve him. When my husband came home he brought a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup with him. After the second dose my boy was greatly relieved and after the third dose he went to sleep and slept the whole night through without any coughing. I am never without it in the house, and whenever any of the children get the slightest cold it's the first thing I give them." Price 35c. a bottle, large size 60c.; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Concession and Settlement have separate Municipalities. The Treaty of Nanking, 1842, gives Britishers the right to live and trade at Shanghai. Into the area set aside for them, about 180 acres as it was then, other foreigners were from the first admitted. Judicial power over Chinese is vested in a special court just inaugurated. In addition Chinese ratepayers have just been given representation on the Settlement Council.

SPORT CHAT

Last week completed the schedule of games in the men's whist league and this week will finish the billiard league schedule with the Terminals having a good lead and only one more series to play.

Sporting events billed for the week are as follows:
Monday—Cribbage: Cold Storage vs. Sons of Canada; Moose vs. C. N. Mechanics; St. Andrew's vs. P. R. Hotel; C. N. Operating vs. Orange Lodge; Dry Dock vs. Canadian Legion; Knights of Columbus vs. Grotto.
Tuesday—Basketball: Junior League, Tuxis vs. Stars; Exhibition game, Maple Leafs vs. Colts; Intermediate league, Grotto vs. Bankers; Senior League, Terminals vs. Elks. Billiards: Moose vs. Gyros.
Friday—Basketball: Junior league, Colts vs. Tuxis; Intermediate league, Elks vs. Terminals; Ladies league, Adanacs vs. Maple Leafs; Senior league, Elks vs. Native Sons of Canada. Billiards: St. Andrew's vs. Grand Terminals.

Dr. Otto Peltzer, German running star, established what is claimed as a new indoor world's record for 1,000 metre, covering the distance in 2 minutes 31 7-10 seconds and defeating Schoemann of Breslau by eleven metres.

The fourth game in the Grotto-St. Andrew's billiard tournament was played on Saturday resulting in another victory for the Grotto. George Howe defeated S. D. Macdonald by 200 to 189. The Grotto have won the four games played so far. The fifth—Dr. West (Grotto) vs. W. E. Williscroft (St. Andrew's) is yet to be played. The total for the four games gives the Grotto 600 to 651 for the St. Andrew's team. Should the Grotto win the final game it would place them in the lead over the Terminals by a good margin.

They tell us the average life of a planet like the earth is one quadrillion (1,000,000,000,000) years. And we wonder what its bonded debt will be when the finish comes.

AGREEMENT OF MUCH BENEFIT

VICE-PRESIDENT OF CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS GIVES CREDIT TO HON. ROBERT FORKE

WINNIPEG, March 7.—Under the provisions of the new agreement reached between the immigration department of the government and the railways last September, it should be possible for the railway companies of Canada to show a large increase in immigration figures this year, said W. D. Robb, vice-president of colonization, natural resources and telegraphs of the Canadian National Railways who arrived in Winnipeg Sunday.

"Last year," stated Mr. Robb, "the number of immigrants handled by the railway companies totalled approximately 138,000. This year I look to see that figure increased to at least 175,000 and probably 200,000."

Mr. Robb explained that the new agreement which replaces the one which expired last fall, covers a period of five years, with a clause permitting cancellation upon one year's notice. Under the terms of this agreement the scope of the colonization departments of the railways is enlarged, particularly with reference to activities in the British Isles. Mr. Robb expected to see a much larger proportion of immigrants arrive from Great Britain than at any time since the first year of the war. He also stated that it would assist in securing settlers from the Scandinavian countries.

CREDIT DUE FORKE
"For all justice," stated Mr. Robb, "credit should be given to the Hon. Robert Forke, minister of immigration in the Liberal cabinet for what he has accomplished in the short time he has occupied the post. That the railways have been able to secure the new agreement is due largely to his efforts and to his evident desire to meet our representatives in a spirit of fairness. He has been very helpful and I am satisfied that now that we have a minister who can devote his whole attention to this important work, steady and encouraging progress will be made in populating the country with the right people. In fact, providing the present wave of general prosperity continues, I would not be surprised to see the annual immigration figures reach the 300,000 mark again."

"The Canadian National Railways do not favor an open door immigration policy," said Mr. Robb, "but, in common with the Canadian Pacific, we believe that, because of the far living character of our organizations, we are in a better position than any other agency to handle what number of immigrants can be employed and assimilated without injury to native born Canadians. Mr. Forke apparently agrees with us in this view and is permitting us a more reasonable degree of latitude in our work than has been the case heretofore and I am confident that the two companies, operating in this manner in as close cooperation as at present, can do much to bring desirable settlers to Canada and to establish them where they will do the country and themselves the most good."

"NOT COMING HERE"
Mr. Robb had intended to continue through to the Pacific coast and he had agreed to speak in Saskatoon, Yorkton, and several other places but, on his arrival in Winnipeg, he found that urgent business which had arisen during his absence, required his immediate return to Montreal and he will go east from Winnipeg as soon as his business here is finished.

"SUBWAY SADIE" IS NEW YORK STORY

Store Girl Gives up Life's Ambition for Her Loved One

Sadie Hermann, in "Subway Sadie," the picture at the Westholme Theatre tonight, employed in a big New York store, is ambitious to lift herself out of the ruck and escape from the morning alarm clock and two subway crushes a day. She wants to get ahead and her great goal is a trip to Paris. One night in a subway jam she is catapulted into the arms of Herbert McCarthy, subway guard. It is love at first sight for Herb and he asks her to meet him next evening at the Obelisk in Central Park. She won't promise, but she meets him and eventually Herb asks her to marry him.

Just at that time her boss announces that she is to be sent to Paris by the firm. Her life's ambition is to be realized, but she loves Herb, whom she has promised to marry. She gives up the marriage despite the fact that the wedding date has been set by Herb, and prepares for the trip abroad.

The day she is to sail she is rushing to the office with her bags and hears that there has been an accident. She thinks of Herb and wonders if he is hurt. When she reaches the subway entrance she learns Herb has been injured and is being rushed to the hospital. She rushes to the hospital and orders her cabman to take her baggage back to the fur store. She is giving up her trip to Paris. When she reaches Herb's bedside and sees him swathed in bandages it is too much and she tells him she has given up her life ambition and will stay with him.

Herb reminds her that it is the day set for their wedding and they agree to carry it out. Then Herb breaks the news that he is the son of a wealthy traction company owner abroad and tells her she not only is getting a husband but will have the Paris trip for her honeymoon.

Bessie Love and William Haines Are Captivating in Leading Roles

"Lovely Mary" comes to the Westholme Theatre on Tuesday night. Bessie Love, who seems destined to become one of the greatest whimsical character actresses of the screen, and William Haines, have the leading roles in the film, which was adapted from the story of the same name by Alice Hegan Rice, author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

"Lovey Mary" is a poor little slavey in an orphanage, affectionate, but with no one to love, when she is suddenly given the care of a baby left at the orphanage. She learns to love this child, who by the way is played by one of the cleverest children to flash across the screen since Jackie Coogan, and rather than let him go back to his disreputable mother, she kidnaps him from the orphanage and seeks refuge in Mrs. Wiggs' cabbage patch. Mrs. Wiggs' cabbage patch is essentially the background for a comedy but as the story unfolds there is an undercurrent of genuine pathos, too, that gives Bessie Love an extraordinary chance to show that as an emotional actress of the screen she is second to none. Nevertheless, the cabbage patch, its buildings, its inhabitants, its customs is genuinely funny and the laughs in the picture come fast and hearty. When the story is all told, the baby belongs to Lovey Mary but the straightening out of the different complications makes an absorbing narrative picture.

GLORIES OF WESTERN SCENERY IMPRESSIVE BACKGROUND OF FILM

New York critics, previewing the "Unknown Cavalier," Ken Maynard picture coming to the Westholme Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, declared the film had the most impressive backgrounds of any show this season.

RISKED LIVES

The story, from a popular novel by Kenneth Perkins, has its climax in Death Valley, famed all over the world as an inferno of heat and thirst, and although the picture was made in mid-summer, "Into the Valley of Death" rode the brave—not six hundred, but sixty—members of the Maynard company and staff. After risking their lives, the company was rewarded by obtaining some very unusual backgrounds and scenic "shots."

HUMAN DRAMA OF MODERN LIFE AND MORALS IS COMING

In "Padlocked" coming to Westholme Theatre at the end of the week, Edith Gilbert is the pretty and talented daughter of Henry Gilbert, a wealthy, Puritanical and bigoted reformer, whose chief aide in his repressive reforms is a designing spinster, Bette Galloway. When her father's narrow-mindedness finally leads to her mother's tragic death, the girl runs away from home to seek her fortune on Broadway. Through the kind offices of her theatrical boarding house room-mate, Edith gets a job as dancer in a smart cabaret. Here she attracts the attention of Monte Harmann, millionaire man-about-town. At the same time, Norman Van Pelt, a youthful society chap, falls genuinely in love with her.

At Harmann's instigation, Mrs. Alcott, a society woman with an unsavory past, takes Edith under her protective wing. It is she who warns Van Pelt that he is poaching on Harmann's preserves. Despite Edith's vehement denials of his base suspicions, the youth, in disgust, leaves for Europe to try and forget her. Back home, Gilbert has married Belle Galloway. Shocked to learn his daughter is a cabaret dancer, he and his new wife go to New York to force Edith to return home. She refuses, and Gilbert has her committed to a reformatory for incorrigible girls. After a stay in the Home that crushes her mentally and physically, Edith is paroled in the custody of Mrs. Alcott, through Harmann's influence. In the meantime, Gilbert discovers that his second wife is nothing but a scheming hypocrite. He is glad to pay her handsomely to get rid of her. Now at last he realizes the wrong he has done his daughter, and he seeks Edith out to devote the rest of his life to her in an effort to atone for his past treatment. They go abroad, and the story ends with Van Pelt's arrival and the happy reunion of the young lovers.

Nerves on Edge

When the nerves go wrong everything is wrong.

The whole human body including each and every organ is dependent on the nervous system for energy and direction.

When nerve force becomes exhausted the organs fail in their functions and the result is discomfort and pain.

Headache, neuritis, sciatic-rheumatism are often developed. But there is also restlessness, nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness and depression and discouragement.

To regain health and vigor the nervous system must be restored by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The use of narcotics and opiates only relieve pain at terrible expense to the nervous system. Lasting relief can only come by feeding the nerves. Your system has failed to do this and it is therefore necessary to employ Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to bring the nervous system back to normal.

FISHERMAN LIVED ON MUSSELS FOR FOURTEEN DAYS

SEWARD, Alaska, March 7.—After existing for two weeks on raw mussels picked from the rocks of the storm-swept island on which he was shipwrecked almost within sight of Seward, Alex. Larson, a fisherman, was rescued by the halibut boat Republic and was brought to Seward.

Driven to the verge of insanity by the ravages of hunger and cold, the marooned fisherman had decided to end his life in the pounding surf, when the Republic hove in sight, he said.

Larson's halibut boat was wrecked on the shore of the island on February 18 by the recent North Pacific tempest.

Physicians at the Seward Hospital to which he was brought believe that he will recover.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is not timberland, i.e. carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes, minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stampage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 440 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partly free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to ten head.
