CHARLES HUNTER IS DEAD TODAY

PIONEER RESIDENT OF PRINCE RUPERT WAS IN EARLY DAYS PROMINENTLY CHAMPION OF LABOR

In the death of Charles Hunter, which occurred in the Prince Rupert General Hospital at 5.20 o'clock this morning, came the passing of a well known and picturesque pioneer of this city and district. The late Mr. Hunter came to Prince Rupert during the days of railway construction and, in those times, was a prominent champion of the laboring men. Of high education, he denied being a Socialist but strongly upheld the principles of industrial Unionism and, in the early days, often took the platform in support of those who claimed to be the champions of Labor.

VANCOUVER, Feb. 21.—Engulfed by a snow avalanche on Little Goat Mountain on Saturday, E. A. Agur, aged 29, lost his life while his companion, R. C. Johnston, suffered only slight injuries. The men were proceeding to the chalet on Grouse Mountain when the slide overtook them. The search on Saturday for the body of Agur proved fruitless and it now believed that the thaw of snow must be awaited before it can be recovered.

GEORGE YOUNG HOME UPSETS PLANS BY REFUSING TO ATTEND CIVIC BANQUET, WHERE ERSTWHILE PAL INVITED

TORONTO, Feb. 21.—O. J. Brooks, Toronto financier and automobile manufacturer, deposited a certified check for $25,000 with the Royal Trust Co. here on Saturday with a view to securing for Toronto a swimming marathon proposed by Wrigley, backer of the recent Santa Catalina swim, for $50,000. Wrigley will be behind George Young, winner at Santa Catalina, to the extent of $25,000 in the forthcoming race. Brooks stipulates that the race, open to swimmers of the world, shall be held in Lake Ontario from Youngstown, New York, to Toronto next Labor Day during the Canadian National Exposition here. The distance of the proposed course is approximately 31 miles.

Cheering crowds greeted Young on his return here on Saturday from California, the streets being lined throughout the route of a five-mile parade to the City Hall where a civic reception was given the youth. A hitch developed, however, in the plans when Young refused to attend a luncheon in his honor to which his erstwhile pal, Bill Hastings, had also been invited. The luncheon proceeded nevertheless, without the presence of the guest of honor though it was marked by absence of speeches.

PRINCE GEORGE SEEKING TITLE

HOCKEY TEAM LEAVES FOR SOUTH TO PARTICIPATE IN CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY-OFFS

PRINCE GEORGE, Feb. 21.—The members of the Prince George hockey team have departed for Salmon Arm, to play in the play-offs of the intermediate championship for British Columbia. In these games the decision will go to the team scoring the greater number of goals in the two contests, and the winning team will go to Kamloops and play the winner of the Kamloops-Merritt series. The Kamloops game will be decisive and the winning team will go to Revelstoke.

The local team is composed of Terry Johnson, C. C. Ternan, Jack Johnson, Walter Nehring, Robert Nehring, Dick Cogless, C. Taylor and James Douglas. The boys started away this year with much better prospects than they had when they entered the play-offs last season. They have had a number of good matches during the season, and had good workouts with the Jasper team, turning the visitors back on each occasion with scores of 7-0 and 7-2. While all of the teams were handicapped more or less last season by the lack of ice, the disadvantage was more marked in the case of the Prince George team than with any of the others. Another advantage which the locals will enjoy this season is the experience of having participated in the play-offs last year. It was their first showing in fast company, and they learned what was required of them. With the exception of Rick Corless and C. Taylor all members of the present team were in the play-offs in 1926.

LOCAL ELEVATOR IS NEARLY FULL AGAIN

Will be Filling off in Incoming Grain Till More Boats in—100 Carloads on Way

With 400 carloads of grain now enroute to the Prince Rupert elevator from the prairies, the local plant will be pretty well filled again and there will probably be a falling off in the movement of incoming grain until further ships have arrived to take some of it away. It is not expected there will be a ship here until March 6, about which date the Japanese vessel, Yayo Maru, is due. The Yonsei Maru and several others will probably follow in March.

The fire department answered a call on Saturday afternoon to the rear of the F. G. Dawson Co., Ltd. warehouse on the waterfront where grass had become ignited. The blaze was extinguished with no damage.

FAMILY PARTIES SETTLERS COME

IMMIGRANT MOVEMENT FROM BRITAIN TO CANADA IS ON INCREASE

MONTREAL, Feb. 21.—During the spring season, a total of forty-three sailings of special parties of settlers from English, Scottish and Irish ports to Halifax and Quebec have been organized by overseas officials of the Department of Colonization, Agriculture and Natural Resources, Canadian National Railways, and each party will proceed to Canada in charge of an experienced representative of the system.

The first sailing under this arrangement will take place on March 4, while the final sailing under this particular schedule will take place on June 1. These sailings will be from the ports of Liverpool, Southampton, Glasgow, Belfast, Londonderry and Cobh (Queenstown). Between March 4 and April 9, there will be 22 sailings to Halifax by steamers of the White Star, Cunard and Anchor-Donaldson lines, from April 14 to June 1, 21 sailings are scheduled to Quebec and Montreal. The Regina, from Liverpool, and the Arabic, from Southampton, will begin this schedule on March 4. The first sailing for Quebec and Montreal is that of the Alaunia on April 14 from Liverpool and the Doris will sail from that port for Quebec and Montreal two days later.

A considerable proportion of the settlers who will travel to Canada in these special parties will consist of families experienced in farm work, female household workers, single men experienced in agriculture and some inexperienced men, all of whom are eligible for the reduced rate of two pounds to the port of arrival. Reports from the other side indicate that applications under this rate have been coming in quite freely from all classes, and it is anticipated that the movement of families towards Canada will be on a larger scale than during the two past years.

RAILWAY STOCK HAS COLLAPSED

BIG BREAK MAKES HEAVY SELLING LOSSES ON NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE TODAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Prices of railroad shares which have been rising steadily for several weeks on the strength of merger rumors broke wide open today on heavy selling losses ranging from two to ten points.

George Fraser, formerly in the employ of the G. W. Nickerson Co., here, was an arrival from the south on the Princess Mary this afternoon.

FIRST HALIBUT OF SEASON IS LANDED

The first fresh halibut of the season reached the city yesterday when Paul Wick brought in 285 pounds which he sold for 15 cents per pound to a local provision store. The fish was caught in Hecate Straits. Up to noon today none of the larger boats had returned and, while there may be some in this afternoon or tomorrow, it is not expected that the landings will be large for a few days on account of the rough weather which has been prevailing on the banks. Some of the Canadian boats fishing in Hecate Straits and on the west coast of the Queen Charlottes are due in very shortly.

GREAT HARVEST OF ICE THIS SEASON AT LAKE KATHLYN

Ice harvesting operations on Lake Kathlyn closed down this week after the most successful season since the local plant started says the Okanagan Herald. The steady cold weather this winter and the light snow fall and the lack of thaws resulted in exceptionally clear ice that attained a thickness of 27 inches and gave each block a weight of about 900 pounds. Charlie Wilson, the ice man, had a crew of about nineteen at work and in addition to filling the three big houses at Kathlyn with 1400 tons each he had the contract to supply the C.N.R. with ice from Prince Rupert to McBride. In all about 12,000 tons were harvested and this from an area of only 12 acres. There are about 1000 acres in Lake Kathlyn which would mean that a million tons of ice could have been taken from the lake this winter, which is some ice. The plant at Lake Kathlyn is up-to-date in the matter of handling ice. When loading into cars the crew averaged 20 cars a day.

SCANDAL AND STILL MORE SCANDAL.

The Conservatives have started another scandal which promises to be just such another "mare's nest" as they have been stirring up during recent months. This time they have found a man—not even in British Columbia but exiled in Seattle—who has been willing to make a sworn statement that the minister of public works had negotiated for some liquor profits for himself. The matter bears all the earmarks of being just such an affair as General McRae was responsible for a few years ago and, if care is not taken to keep it under the protection of the House, some Tory is liable to get himself into a similar box as General McRae did and from which he only extricated himself from with good hard cash.

Apparently it is just another example of the same old Tory tactics. Having nothing constructive to offer and so far unable to nail anything on their political opponents, they regale themselves with a halo of purity and innocence while, behind the scenes, they perform vile, iniquitous acts that result in such amazing revelations as this their latest. The party makes no attempt to prove its own merit. Its whole effort is to pick the other fellow's faults and, if they cannot be found, to manufacture some for him. Such tactics are not only despicable but dangerous and are more than apt to rebound to the disadvantage of those who employ them. What is more, they are costly to the people and an inconvenience to the legislators against whom they are so unfairly directed.

SHOULD RESPECT PUBLIC MEN.

Canadians are not hero-worshippers. The names of men who have made Canada what it is today are not held in as high reverence and esteem as would be justified by a former sense of gratitude and honor. Baldwin, Lafontaine, Simcoe, Howe, Macdonald and Laurier, do not mean to Canadians what Washington, Lincoln, Grant, Hamilton and Franklin mean to Americans.

Reasons for our indifference to records of achievement are not entirely lacking. One is the necessity of dividing such small time as the students in our schools have for the study of history between Canadian and British history, with sampling of French and United States history. Emphasis has been upon Cromwell, William III, Pitt, Nelson and Wellington, rather than upon our own statesmen. Another reason is, perhaps, our feeling that Americans have overdone the adulation of names, causing us to lean backwards.

The history of a people should be one of the treasures of its thought. That thought should find time for such reflection upon the work of those who have gone before as will give us a proper respect and admiration for their work.

Equally, we are lacking in a proper feeling of gratitude towards our public men of today. We do not all sneer or defame, though most of us "hint a fault" even when we "hesitate dislike." Our national habit of lampooning every man who enters public life not only prevents us from enjoying the inspiration of hero worship, but it makes it more difficult for us to continue to conscript the highest type of men.

Obsequiousness, we do not want; but a proper appreciation of public service we do need.

BRITISH COLUMBIA IS CANADA'S FLORIDA.

British Columbia, already the Florida of Canada in climate and attractions as a winter play-ground, has taken a further step to strengthen its claim to the title, says the Financial Post of Toronto, a Conservative publication. It is greatly reducing its succession duty charges, in an attempt to encourage men of wealth to retire to British Columbia as they give up active work. Florida, it will be recalled, entirely abolished state inheritance taxes with a similar motive, and found the move of substantial benefit in attracting capital and new residents.

British Columbia is reducing all death taxes one-third. It is raising exemptions. It is exempting insurance up to $50,000 when payable to a near relative. In addition, it is taking a further step in eliminating the double taxation that has been a serious bar to the recruiting of new capital. When ever succession duties have been properly paid in any other province of Canada, the same property will not be taxed in the coast province.

All these changes are bound to serve their avowed purpose of making British Columbia an attractive place for wealthy men to live. The $400,000 annual loss in revenue that is anticipated is virtually certain to be more than made up by the increased prosperity of the province from a larger number of citizens and a larger amount of capital within its borders. In time, it would not be surprising, if the lower rates produced even larger income than at present received.

HOOT GIBSON FILM IS COMING TONIGHT

Peter B. Kyne Story is "The Buckaroo Kid"—Tale of Nevada and San Francisco

In the picture "The Buckaroo Kid" at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow, starring Hoot Gibson, Ed. Harley as a boy of 15, alone in the world, is befriended by a Nevada rancher, who gives the boy a home and an education and when he is grown, sends him to San Francisco to talk with Henry Radigan, a wealthy banker, about a job as manager of Radigan's ranch. Radigan believing him too young refuses to consider him, so Ed goes to the ranch and takes charge anyway. He quickly whips the ranch into shape, but a month later, is paid an angry visit by Radigan, who has just heard of his daring action. Many eventful days follow. Harley inherits the ranch of his patron Mr. Mulford, is caught in a financial hole and fails in his attempt to borrow money because of the interference of Radigan. He has threatened the apoplectic old banker that he will "cut off his ears" if Radigan ever interferes in his business affairs because of the row over the ranch, and sets out seriously to do it when he is dissuaded by Lyra Radigan, daughter of the rancher, who forces her father to lend Harley the necessary money, then marries the fiery young Lochinvar.

DOLORES COSTELLO IN SCREEN TRIUMPH

Story Concerns Lovely Orphan Girl Who Was Brought up on Desolate Isle

"Bride of the Storm" comes on Wednesday to the Westholme Theatre.

The story concerns a lovely orphaned girl (Dolores Costello), who has been brought up by three Dutchmen, owners of a lighthouse near where she and her mother had been shipwrecked. In order to win her huge fortune, the scheming old grandfather (Tyronne Power) plans to carry her to his idiot grandson Hans (Otto Mattieson). His own son Piet (Sheldon Lewis), decides he wants to marry the girl himself, and Faith's life is made up of horrible quarrels.

Finally, when they have sent for a justice to marry Faith to Hans to definitely settle matters, Faith meets a handsome young American Naval officer, Dick Wayne (John Harron), who has come to mend a broken cable. Dick falls in love with Faith and after a series of thrilling fights and daring rescues, the three cruel Dutchmen are killed and the girl taken to her native Maryland and to happiness.

"Bride of the Storm," is the screen version of "Maryland, My Maryland," written by James Francis Dwyer. Dolores Costello is the star. Her beauty, personality, charm and sheer dramatic power make her one of the most important stars of the screen.

WRITER PLAYS PART OF WHITE SAVAGE AS HOAX ON RIVAL

Danny Terry, wild animal writing expert for a scientific magazine, goes to the Mariposa Islands and plays the part of a white savage to put over a hoax on a rival magazine that has representatives accompanying Professor Atwater who is searching for lost white savages. He is found and brought back to New York and placed on exhibition at a jungle ball which Mrs. Atwater gives to celebrate the announcement of the betrothal of her daughter to Howard Kipp.

At the ball Terry's editor appears and tries to expose the hoax but Terry has fallen in love with Ysabel and refuses to expose her father. To save exposure he escapes from the cage and runs out the window with the guests in pursuit. At the ball Ysabel has discovered her fiancé with another girl so breaks her engagement. She rushes after Terry and tells him she knows he is a fake. But Terry grabs her in his arms and carries her with him to a log cabin on a neighboring estate. There he tells her how he loves her, and she shows that it is not in vain but tells him to wait until he has escaped. Terry finds a razor in the cabin, shaves off his beard and when the pursuers arrive he is lying on the floor and Ysabel has her hair down and clothing disarranged as though they had been battling with the Savage.

They tell the crowd the savage went through the window and as the crowd goes on with the hunt they smile and embrace and the picture ends with Terry and Ysabel finding their real happiness. Such is the story of "The Savage" coming to the Westholme Theatre on Thursday.

Romantic Comedy-Drama is Dorothy Gish's Latest and Effective Vehicle

Dorothy Gish is the star in the romantic comedy-drama "Nell Gwyn," based on the life of Nell Gwyn, favorite of Charles II during the Restoration which is coming to the Westholme Theatre at the week-end.

Nell Gwyn, who charmed the heart of a king and a nation, comes to life on the screen, in what is said to be the best English production yet filmed. It has life, it has sparkle and freshness, and the general production values are of an order comparable with those in the best Hollywood product.

28-DAY MONTH COMES UP AGAIN

DETERMINED EFFORTS HOPE TO RESULT IN DEFINITE ACTION AT GENEVA THIS YEAR

GENEVA, Feb. 21.—Determined efforts to bring about a reform of the calendar with a 28-day month have been taken with the view of definite action at Geneva in August.

In 16 capitals of northern Europe steps already have been taken to show the advantages of the fixed calendar idea. There are opponents of the plan but no organized effort has yet appeared.

Under the proposed plan of reform all months would have 28 days, the first day of the month always falling on Sunday and the last on Saturday. If the year remained the same length an extra month would be introduced, leaving one day over and two in leap year. Thirteen months would look like this:

ANY MONTH
Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.	Sat.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28

seems fairly evident throughout. The picture can scarcely be imagined without Dorothy Gish, so neatly does the role fit her and she the role.

Miss Gish is truly magnificent in the role. She literally "has everything." A well chosen cast surrounds her. Juliette Compton is excellent as Nell's rival for the king's affections.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

FEBRUARY 21, 1917.

D. G. Stewart was elected president of the hospital board at a meeting of the directors last night.

The police commission, at its meeting yesterday, discussed a circular letter from the Attorney General's department dealing with the enforcement of the law.

Over 100,000 pounds of halibut was sold yesterday at prices slightly over thirteen cents per pound.

George D. Tye returned to the city this morning from Victoria where he was called on account of the death of his father.

Frank Dowling, in charge of the weather bureau, does not see much chance of a change in the weather in the immediate future. The thermometer registered 9 above during the morning.

Mrs. R. S. Sergeant and sister, Miss A. M. Barbeau, returned from a trip south this morning.

Lieut. Gordon, of the Irish Fusiliers, returned last evening from up river where he has been recruiting.

The House committee of the hospital board has been asked to investigate the question of the nursing staff working long hours and report to the next meeting of the board.

Times haven't changed much. Back in pioneer days the pedestrian had to dodge the deadly rattler, also.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Bad indigestion and poverty to the point of starvation were recognized as equal evils as far back as the time of Rabbin Burns. Of what use is money or food, if the stomach fails in its duty?

HEALTH
turns the Clock Backward
Chiropractic corrects the cause of Disease in the opposite named organs.

The healthy person does not realize that he should not even realize that he has a stomach. Digestion of wholesome, normal food should be automatic. But it cannot be if the stomach is receiving less than its full supply of vital energy.

When the stomach fails in its functions, two courses of relief are available—you can reduce the quantity and variety of your food to fit its subnormal capacity—or, you can have the cause removed by spinal adjustments which restore the flow of vital energy to full capacity. Which is best?

"I EAT MOST ANYTHING." "I have suffered from a bad form of stomach trouble for as long as I can remember—at least ten years. I can't remember my food even when a school-boy and have also been suffering a great deal from bladder and kidney trouble. I commenced to take adjustments taking 36 adjustments in all. Now, three months later my stomach is in good condition, and I can eat most anything I like without it hurting me. My severe bladder and kidney symptoms have also disappeared, and I feel fine." — Archie Preston, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2073-N.

Purity Proved - by Analysis

THE finest malted grains and hops brewed with the most scientific care in five modern plants go to make the pure beer consumed by the people of British Columbia.

HERE is an extract from the last analysis of Amalgamated Brewing beer made by the firm of McDonald and McDonald, analytical chemists of Vancouver:

"All three samples had a sparkling brightness and a substantial foam remaining on the glass for a considerable time. Each had a refreshing aroma and an agreeably bitter hop taste. The analysis shows conclusively that all three samples are pure and wholesome beverages. The high Extract, low Acidity, high Nitrogenous Matter, substantial Ash and Phosphoric Acid contents are absolute evidence of the good, wholesome quality of these beers, proving them to be pure Malt Beverages. The analysis of these samples of beer is very similar to that of the best European varieties."

INDIAN AGENT IS WELCOMED

HAPPY ADDRESS OF WELCOME PRESENTED TO REV. J. GILLET AT SKIDEGATE

SKIDEGATE, Feb. 21.—Rev. J. Gillett of Massett, the new Indian Agent for the Queen Charlotte Islands, has been given a great reception everywhere, both by whites and natives. On arriving recently at Skidegate Mission, Mr. Gillett was met by the village council and the following address of welcome was read to him by H. E. Green, secretary of the council:

"We, the councillors of Skidegate Mission, wish to welcome you to our village. As our new Indian Agent, it is our most sincere wish that you may be the means of assisting us in every beneficial way to lift us to a higher standard of civilization in Christianity and all that will make us morally better.

"We realize that we are most fortunate in having you appointed as our agent for we are aware of your life in the past as a missionary and we feel sure that you will fulfill all that we may expect of you in your capacity as Indian Agent. We can see that you are interested in the Indian people since you have resigned the ministry to accept the position of Indian Agent. We feel justified in saying that we will at all time work hand in hand with you, fulfilling your dictation to us, as councillors, in every way.

"It is needless for us to say that we are a law-abiding people, reputed to be among the further advanced on the coast. We have the honor to welcome you both on behalf of ourselves as councillors and on behalf of our people.

"Yours faithfully,
"JAMES McKAY,
"W. H. RUSS,
"T. D. CROSBY,
"HENRY YOUNG,
"H. E. GREEN,

HAZELTON HOME IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Charleston Place, Across Road from Hospital, Was Wiped Out Friday Morning

NEW HAZELTON, Feb. 21.—Just before eleven o'clock Friday morning the old Charleston home just across the road from the Hazelton Hospital was destroyed by fire. It was a complete loss, including practically all the contents as well. Since last summer the house and part of the farm was leased by Clyde Hunt and he and Mrs. Hunt have been living here since. When Mrs. Hunt put on the fire for dinner the chimney took fire unknown to either Mrs. Hunt or Mr. Hunt, sr., who was visiting there. The fire was noticed at the hospital and word was phoned to Mr. Hunt down town. He got a car and a lot of men and hurried out, but by the time they arrived the whole place was in flames and there was nothing they could do except watch the surrounding buildings. About all that was saved out of the wreck was a gramophone and some chairs. Very little, if any of their clothing was saved. Mr. Hunt carried some insurance on his household goods, but not enough as matters stand at present.

The Charleston place is one of the oldest buildings in the district. It was built over twenty years ago and for years was headquarters for the Charlerton and Barrett pack train. Since then it has been occupied by a number of people, including the Harris boys during the big mining activity on the American Boy mine. Last summer, Mr. Larkworthy, who has had control of the place for a number of years, had the foundations renewed and the house put in shape.

Enjoyable Social Evening on Thursday—Cards, Refreshments and Dancing

TERRACE, Feb. 21.—The local assembly of Native Sons was again host on Thursday evening in the club rooms, their guests on that occasion being the members of the St. Andrew's Society.

After the serving of refreshment dancing was enjoyed to music furnished by J. McLaren and S. Kirkaldy. Appreciation of the evening's entertainment was voiced by W. S. Anderson, president of St. Andrew's Society.

This was the second of a series of social evenings being arranged by the Native Sons for the purpose of fostering good fellowship and sociality among the different fraternal societies of the town.

Never Let a Cold Get a Start. Vapors Check a Cold Overnight

There are many ways to treat a cold but only one DIRECT way—with vapors that can be inhaled.

Vapors penetrate immediately into every corner of the air passages and lungs, soothing and healing with every breath.

Vicks is so remarkably successful in treating cold troubles because it acts like a "vapor lamp in salve form." When rubbed over throat and chest the body heat releases vapors of Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thyme and Turpentine. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin like a poultice or plaster.

This double, direct action often checks the worst cold overnight.

SKIDEGATE RUMOR

Editor, Daily News. It is reported around here that the Powell River Co. is talking over the Sitka Spruce Mills at Queen Charlotte City. We hope this is true as it is time Skidegate Inlet had a concern in here that could finance its own way and not leave a string of bad debts behind it.

We wonder if our Conservative friend, Pooley of Esquimalt, would object to this deal. We are sure that gentleman is out of his element as a M.L.A. for British Columbia. He should be in the funny papers.

"We hope you'll bring the trees their leaves And set our pulses throbbin', And bring the joys that winter goes Around robin!"

Reliable Crist Watch

This watch is guaranteed reliable at a moderate price. This is accomplished by new automatic machinery which makes every piece so exactly to a standard that fifty watches can be taken apart and the parts all mixed up in a heap and when again put together into watches, they will run the same as before.

The price is only $15.00 for gold filled cases and $22.50 for the same watch in solid gold cases.

As, of course, have watches much lower than this but we specially recommend these.

CORRECT REPORT OF PARLIAMENT

CANADIAN NEWS ORGANIZATION
COMPLIMENTED BY PUBLISHER OF ONTARIO PAPER

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Press Gallery in the Dominion Parliament at Ottawa was the subject of an interesting address to the Kiwanis Club by Arthur Ford, recently managing editor of the London Free Press, who was a member of the Gallery for 10 years.

Mr. Ford gave a resume of the history of the struggle through the centuries for the right to report parliamentary proceedings and publish such reports. In striking contrast, he told of conditions as they now obtain at Ottawa and in the British House of Commons and of the marked improvement in press reports, from the standpoint of fairness, during the past decade or two. Mr. Ford spoke in commendatory terms of the work of the Canadian Press at Ottawa. He said while the reports sent out by the Canadian Press representatives may be colorless, to an extent and lack the spice and sparkle of reports of a more partisan nature, he assured his listeners that the Canadian Press reports are fair and unbiased and that what actually happens in the House of Parliament are reported. Mr. Ford said he also believed that the newspapers of today are fairer in every way politically than they were in the older days. They are still partisan, but they view politics from a broader aspect.

Amusing incidents from his long sojourn in Ottawa and the many interesting friends made, were mentioned by Mr. Ford. Hon. Fernand Rinfret, the secretary of state in the King Government, was an associate in the Ottawa Press Gallery with Mr. Ford. He spoke

GRANT MAHOOD REMINISCENT

PREDICTS IN INTERVIEW WITH FINANCIAL POST, THAT PREMIER MOUNTAIN WILL PRODUCE FOUR BIG MINES

TELLS OF EARLY DAYS

Interesting tales of the ups and downs, the might have beens, and what really did happen, in the making of Portland Canal, B.C., a mining camp, were told by Grant Mahood, Portland Canal pioneer, who is now in the east in connection with some of his interests says the Financial Post.

Portland Canal was first found in 1896, when some of the Yukon rushers tried to get in that way over the mountains. It died quickly and came to life again in 1908 and boomed in 1910. It was a real estate not a mining boom. Sir Donald Mann and other interests had been induced to build a railway into Groundhog coal fields, and this started the boom. Messrs. Gillet and McDonald got the contract to build the railway docks and Mr. Mahood was sent up to do the job. Portland Canal has been the scene of his activities ever since.

Mr. Mahood was not long in the camp before he hit into a partnership with O. B. Bush to deal in mines and about the first thing they did was to purchase seven claims from two prospectors, Morrison and Logan. Later they purchased additional claims from another prospector, Dillworth. These claims are now the main holdings of Premier Gold Mines, the sensational precious metal producer of the coast province. Later they acquired additional claims up the same mountain owning what is now B.C. Silver and National Mines, two impressive looking operations which they disposed of. Today Mr. Mahood controls the fourth property on the mountain, and it takes in the summit, the Extenuate. He is satisfied that it will make a fourth sensational mine, but makes a point that it is only a prospect yet but has attractive showings.

HARD TO GET CAPITAL

It was a hard job in the early days of the camp to interest capital. They had several make attempts to find a mine on Premier Surface showings were not attractive. R. K. Neill took over the property in 1917 for $115,000 paying nothing down, and was about ready to quit when he broke into $500 ore. That made Premier. Also it made many millionaires.

Messrs. Mahood and Bush tried hard to put over a little development syndicate on B.C. Silver, $8 per cent, of which is now owned by Premier and the bulk of the remainder in London. They failed. Mr. Mahood says that the stock they offered at 3 1/2¢ a share in Vancouver would be worth $50,000 a share today, if the deal had gone through, and the mine is not yet producing. One of the disappointed Vancouver men later bought 50,000 shares at 25¢ a share and he has retired.

PREMIER IN GOOD SHAPE

Premier, which cost Neill $115,000, is in better shape today than a year ago, said Mr. Mahood. The recent break in the market for the stock he attributes to stock switchers who got a lot of holders to exchange Premier for shares in a small copper operation up near the Yukon boundary. This threw a lot of Premier on the market. He says that in the past year Premier made some excellent discoveries and today has five years blocked out and broken ore ahead of the mill. He considers Premier the best stock for a hold over B.C. Silver, as Premier owns 38 per cent interest in B.C. Silver.

MUCH LIKE PORCUPINE

The formation of the camp is much the same as Porcupine. Greenstone with porphyry intrusions and it is along the contacts that the ore is found. In some places rich, narrow stringers are found in the porphyry, but generally the values are in the greenstones.

Mr. Mahood says Extenuate Mines is being opened up by an adit or tunnel driven into the mountain side. Going in 800 feet will put them 400-ft. under an attractive surface showing. This is a well defined vein opened for 2,100 feet and 825 feet of this, running 10 to 20 feet wide, give assays $1.50 to $18, no blanks. He thought it would average $14. Driving the tunnel in, they found a narrow shoot in the footwall and this has widened out to 22 inches of good ore with the tunnel in 115 feet. This, he thinks, will make

PICTURESQUE CLOSING OF JASPER CARNIVAL

Court Ball Was Gay and Regal Scene— Many Prizes Were Presented

JASPER, Alberta, Feb. 21.—With a court ball which was attended by more than two hundred couples, the third and most successful winter carnival in the history of Jasper came to a close. It was a gay scene, impregnated with the spirit of gaiety which reigned during the progress of the carnival.

In the centre of the ballroom, on a brightly decorated dais, Miss Margaret Buckham, the winsome queen of the carnival, sat enthroned in the coronation chair, with her maids and matrons of honor, pages and other ladies of her court grouped about her, while round and about the throne glided and swayed the dancers. Supper, over which the queen presided, was served in an adjoining room at midnight.

Before the dancing, the presentation of prizes won during the carnival took place, the Queen officiating.

A special medal was presented to Marion McCarthy, champion speed skater of Alberta for the exhibitions he volunteered and the part he took in making the carnival a success.

Presentations were also made to the Queen and her court. They were: Queen, Miss Margaret Buckham; maid of honor, Miss Cottam; lady in waiting, Mrs. D. Kinset; pages, Miss Hines and Butler.

Her Little Boy Caught Cold While Out Playing with him. After the second dose my boy was greatly relieved and after the third dose he went to sleep and slept the whole night through without any coughing. I am never without it in the house, and whenever any of the children get the slightest cold it's the first thing I give them.”

FISH MEAL AS FOOD FOR HOGS

IS SATISFACTORY SUBSTITUTE FOR SKIM MILK SAYS EXPERIMENTAL FARM NOTE

High grade, wholesome, edible fish meal has become a popular feed for poultry in British Columbia, where it is being manufactured in considerable quantities says an Experimental Farm note. Its chief advantage over the higher grade beef scraps is that the price is lower and some poultrymen prefer it even at equal cost. It contains from 60 to 70 per cent protein, while some brands run as high as 16 per cent fat. A high fat content is objectionable, as it must be fed sparingly to laying stock, and it will not keep so well as a fish meal with less fat.

At the Dominion Experimental Farm, Agassiz, B.C., fish meal has recently been tested as a supplement to a grain ration for hogs in comparison with skim milk. Eight uniform lots of five hogs each were started on the trial in June when they were ten weeks old. Pen No. 1 received skim milk and grain until finished in October, during which time it gained 705 pounds. Pen No. 2, without skim milk but with seven per cent fish meal added to the same grain ration, gained 767 pounds in the same period. Another pen fed skim milk for a month, then changed to fish meal, gained 775 pounds; another pen fed milk for two months and changed to fish meal gained 786 pounds, and still another fed milk for three months and then fish meal gained 710 pounds. Hogs fed identically the same as the above lots with milk for these same periods and finished on grain without the fish meal in all cases made less gains.

Although the fish meal fed hogs produced greater gains, the rations without the fish meal were the more economical. This was charging the fish meal at $70.00 per ton, the grain at $34.00 per ton and the milk at twenty-five cents per cwt. The pork made from the fish meal fed hogs was of good quality.

While this is the result of only one year's experimental work, nevertheless the results are fairly comparable with results obtained in feeding fish meal on other Experimental Farms and Stations, and therefore fairly reliable. One point that should not be lost sight of is that skim milk formed a material part of the ration for some of the lots that showed the most gain with fish meal.

FIRST PARADE OF SEA CADETS

THIRTY-THREE BOYS MUSTERED FOR INITIAL TURN-OUT SATURDAY AFTER-NOON

The first parade of the newly formed Sea Cadets Corps in Prince Rupert took place on Saturday afternoon when 33 boys mustered. W. Bremner and R. Parker were taken on the roll. The cadets were lined up by instructor Dawes and were later addressed by Lieut. R. Blance who will be in charge of the troop. Lieut. Blance gave the boys an idea of what the training would consist of and spoke of trips which he proposed making with them when the weather was favorable. It would perhaps be possible to arrange for a summer camp as well and the boys would be given instruction in swimming as well as receive instruction in the first principles of navigation. Lieut. Commander R. P. Ponder, officer commanding the local detachment, the R.C.N.V.R., gave a talk on the discipline which would govern the cadets and also outlined the objects of the cadet corps. The boys were then measured for their uniforms, which will arrive a short time and, later, one third of the number paid a visit to the medical officer for examination. The remainder of the cadets will attend for medical examination today and tomorrow. Another parade will be held tonight.
