Irish Election Seems Uncertain so far With No Party Controlling

DUBLIN, June 13 .- What will be the final outcome of the elections for the Dail in the Free State is not at all certain. The government will not get a majority and the only way to carry on the government seems to be by a coalition.

So far the count is complete in 108 out of 152 constituencies. The latest returns this afternoon from the long-drawn out method of balloting by proportional representation with the move------*able ballot is as follows:

Typical of these northern reports received is the following from Blackfoot subdivision covering the area from Highgate, Saskatchewan, Vermilion, Alberta: "There is an abundance of moisture in the ground and wheat is growing rapidly. BEATTY SAYS GOOD TIMES ARE COMING

PRESIDENT OF C.P.R. NEVER SAW THINGS BETTER THAN THEY ARE IN ALBERTA TODAY

EDMONTON, June 13 .- "There never was any doubt about the courage of the West and of Alberta, and now the West has something to back up that courage. I never saw any country anywhere that looked better than the country we passed through between Calgary and Edmonton, and I believe Alberta faces another big year." declared President E. W. Beatty of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who, with D. C. Coleman, vice-president of Western lines, with headquarters in Winnipeg. and General Superintendent J. M. Cameron of Calgary, was in Edmonton. President Beatty made it plain that he considers Canada is facing prosperous times again, and that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company is prepared to do its share to bring about development and assist in that state of prosperity being reached.

CAN ABSORB IMMIGRANTS "Our colonization and development organization in Canada and overseas is doing everything in its power to encourage immigration to this country, as we are firmly convinced that with its latest resources it can absorb an almost unlimited number of immigrants during the next twenty years," he declared when speaking on immigration.

TAKING STOCK OF PEACE RIVER

The Alberta Government is taking stock of the Peace River country with a view to be in a position to provide exact information in regard to the district in connection with proposed railway building. This information will be available to the Dominion Government and also to private companies.

Possibly the Provincial Government might do the same for the part that lies within this province, the crop output this year, the number of settlers actually in the country, and the possibilities of development in case a railway is built. The information can be gathered by the government more easily than by anyone else.

Ideal parents are those who train their children to be independent of them. Look at the birds and cats and take a lesson from them.

COST OF LIVING HAS FALLEN

The Canadian price level has dropped very considerably during the past year, according to official information being given out by the government and through the banks. This of course affects tin of the University of Manitoba, dethe cost of living. The price level, the Royal Bank explains, is very similar in Canada to that in the United States.

While this is true there seems to be a distinct revival in business, according to bank reports and also according to President Beatty of the C.P.R. This is all very satisfactory and it seems as if the country was in for a period of prosperity.

If all the recommendations of the Smithers Convention were acted upon at once, the provincial debt of the province would be doubled before Christmas and the transportation companies ruined, declared a sceptic when he read the account of the Associated Board of Trade doings in Saturday's News.

CONVENTION AT SMITHERS

The convention of the Associated Boards of Trade at Smithers last week brought to light how immense are the demands of the whole country from their governments and how impossible it is to supply them. Each district has its pet scheme and considers it the only the colonial Office at the same time. one of importance in the country. The delegates to Smithers seem to have arrived each prepared to advance that scheme and the convention endorsed it. If the convention had had the raising and spending of the money of course it would have acted quite differently. That is the difficulty with all bodies that have no responsi- Monday. However, it is a good thing to air these views and we all want & California Collegians Glee Club to see the roads built and the other work done as part of the building up of this great territory through which the Canadian National Railway runs and the adjacent territory up and down the coast.

Passing resolution is about the easiest thing in the world to do when there is no financial interest at stake.

PREMIER OLIVER AND PREMIERSHIP

While there may be doubt as to when Premier Oliver is likely to retire there can be little doubt about the ability of the government to carry on through another session or two of the Legislature. There are plenty of good men who are capable of carrying on the affairs of the province. The difficulty, if any, is that the present cabinet is an all-star aggregation and there is no one man outstanding as to be the general choice of the Legislature. However, when a choice is made, the new Premier will be accepted and followed loyally. In WHISTLING SOLOIST the meantime the Premier is reported to be regaining his strength and will probably carry on much as usual during the next sitting of the House.

Someone wants to know what is an anti-climax. Here is one: "Canada is the greatest country in the world, British Columbia the greatest province, Prince Rupert the greatest city, and I am the greatest man."

CANADIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION SWAPS IDEAS ON THE MAKINGS OF CANADA

TORONTO, June 13 .- With the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation in sight, interest atached to the annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association held here recently, and the agenda disclosed a conscious regard for the constitutional signposts of Canadian his-

Thus, beginning the series of historial papers. Prof. D. C. Harvey, University of British Columbia, outlined the part which early efforts for union among the Maritime provinces played in helping to bring about Confederation. "The Maritimes, honest dupes of their own enthusiasm as much as misled by promises from Canadian statesmen, and disappointed with the realities of Confederation, put their faith in England as sure to enforce 'fair play".' but like other minorities before them, they found that Imperial governments, like God, are on the side of the big battalions." he said. He concluded with a plea that the promises depression now prevalent in the Maritime provinces. Professor Harvey's paper provoked a lively discussion.

REVIVAL OF IDEAS Professor F. J. Underhill, of the University of Saskatchewan, who took as adian Radical Opinion in the Decade Before Confederation," devoted himself analysis of George Brown's "Globe." His thesis was that the present progressive movement on the prairies represents an unconscious revival of the ideas of two generations ago, when Upper Canada was still the "frontier," and the "intelligent yeomanry" of what is now Ontario fought the battle of the "plain people" against the big business and especially the railway octopus of Montreal. With the industrialization of Ontario since Confederation, the ideas of Brown have withered at the roots. "No good Torontonians of the present generation," the speaker said, "could possibly read the 'Globe' of the '50's and '60's without a shudder." Judge Howay, of New Westminster, B.C., in his paper described at length the financial situation in British Columbia which led to the federation of that province with the nascent Dominion, and illustrated the petty and sordid motives which dominated at least some of the advocates of union.

In his paper, Professor Chester Marscribed the original position of the Northwest territories under the government at Ottawa as subject to an unsympathetic imperial power. Without condoning the insurrections by Riel, he affirmed that no one except Riel combined popular support on the prairies with the opportunity to protest, and described him as the predestined victim of a great idea, viz., the extension of free local government to the vast expanses of the west. In the discussion which followed Professor Martin's paper. W. L. Grant asked whether the attitude of disapproval by the Colonial Office, with which the original proposals for Canadian Federation met, was prompted by the indiscrete and unwise provisions suggested in a memorandum proposing a union in South Africa, presented to

SPORT CHAT

Both football and baseball have now struck their season's stride and, with the usual opening season rough spots polished off, fans of both sports should now settle down to enjoyment of first class competition. The baseball series between the Gyro Club and the Native Sons of Canada is becoming perhaps of more interest than a two team league usually commands and the three-team football league is doing well. With weather improving, there should be some record crowds climb Acropolis Hill now.

The Prince Rupert Tennis Club has decided to hold the annual club tournament on the Acropolis Hill courts on Sunday next. There will be the usual card of events including men's and women's singles and doubles and men's doubles. Keen interest is being manifested already and there should be some good competition. The introduction of new blood will tend to enliven things and all that is wanted is some good weather like what has been prevailing lately. ERECT CHURCH

FUNDS BEING SUBSCRIBED FROM PEOPLE ALL OVER WORLD FOR THIS OBJECT

JASPER, Alta., June 13.—Out of the memorial service to Edith Cavell, which day to the Fourth of August at the foot of the glacier of the Angel, Mount Edith Cavell, Jasper National Park, has grown a proposal to perpetuate in more useful way the memory of the! martyr of the Great War. These proposals, which from time to time have been advanced by visitors to Jasper Park Lodge, many of them from Great Britain and the United States, have now taken definite form and an appeal is being launched this summer for funds | 1 for the building of a church in Jasper to be known as the Edith Cavell Memorial Church.

The design has been submitted by A. M. Calderon, architect of Edmonton, and both it and the site have been endorsed by the minister of the interior, Hon. Charles Stewart and J. B. Harken commissioner of Dominion parks, while the leaders of all religious denomina-tions, including His Grace Archbishop THANKSGIVING O'Leary, in whose arch-diocese Jasper lies, and the Right Rev. Bishop H. A. Gray of Edmonton (Anglican) have given their approval to the plan.

The funds for the erection of the edifice will be secured from voluntary subscriptions given largely by visitors to the park and the international character of the support which the plan is e- GOVERNOR, PREMIER AND OFFICIALS pected to receive is indicated by the source from which assistance has already come, some of the more prominent subscribers being: His Honor Joseph Buffington, Judge of the U.S. Federal Court, Philadelphia; Julian Burdick, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, Rushmore, Plainfield, N.J.; F. W. Alexander, Seattle; J. C. Clapper, Minneapolis; F. Thompson, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Wallace Reinhart, Minneapolis; W. G.
