ST. JOHN'S, Newfid., May 16 .-Fortune Bay poking into the south shore of Newfoundland it is hoped may have proved a refuge for the Whitebird and the French trans-Atlantic flyers Nungesser and Coll. Word has been received from Ocean Pond, less than 100 miles east of the bay, that a plane, apparently experiencing motor trouble, passed over that town last Monday and this led the authorities to ask the French at St. Pierre and Miguelon to go to the bay and make a thorough search. A cruise among the small fishing villages of the south coast will accorrdingly be made.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the sale was declared open by the president, Mrs. T. J. Marsh, who, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Robinson, welcomed the visitors. The different booths, very attractively arranged and decorated with potted plants, fernery and crepe paper festoons, were laden with plain sewing and fancy work, delicious home-made candy and appetizing home cooking. The white elephant booth, attention to which was drawn by a miniature white elephant, disposed of a goodly number of articles of a very varied nature.
