On board are Mrs. Clark, wife of the owner, Rex B. Clark of Los Angeles, her two children and seven guests. They plan to visit the Salt Lakes and the Cold Storage plant this afternoon.

Their trip from Seattle north was very rough and when in Prince Rupert it was very cold. Since then on their voyage to Skagway they have had rainy full weather. Today's hot clear weather appeals to them very strongly. They have had fair fishing but have caught no salmon.

The journey south will be continued as soon as the repairs to the pump have been completed.

Boys Accused of Murder at Vancouver for Killing Lad Who Was Riding Train Rods

VANCOUVER, July 28.—That Otto Bosch met his death as the result of a blow on the head struck by George Burgess, eighteen years of age, on the C.P.R. eastbound freight near Ruby Creek Friday, was the verdict of the coroner's jury returned last night.

Otto Reilbergen, who appeared with his head swathed in bandages, testified that he and Bosch were beating their way east in search of work when they were attacked by Burgess and John McKenzie, 17, who were also riding the rods.

Reilbergen asserted that the assault believed that he and Bosch were in possession of $70, which they intended to take but he himself had less than our dollars while Bosch also had a small sum.

Burgess and McKenzie were both charged with murder in connection with the death of Bosch. They appeared at the inquest but did not testify.

He was born in Nova Scotia and went to Winnipeg in 1882. Two years later he proceeded to Victoria. Later he returned to Vancouver and became well known in Liberal circles where he was highly respected.

POLICE TO ENFORCE WHOOPING COUGH RULES AFTER THIS

On instructions from the medical health officer the city police are taking steps to enforce the law against those parents who are not strictly observing the regulations regarding the notification of whooping cough and the observance of the rules of quarantine.

There has been considerable laxity among many of the parents. Their children are allowed to run round and mix with other peoples' children. It is even reported that some with whooping cough have been to the picture show. There is much of it heard in the parks and there is no doubt that many parents are not realizing their responsibility towards other people.

It is to put a stop to this slackness that the services of the police have been requisitioned and all parents are warned that they must strictly obey the letter and the spirit of the regulations.

BOXING AS A SPORT

Every time that a pugilistic contest is held, the interest that it arouses serves as a reminder of how deeply rooted is man's primitive fighting instinct, says the Edmonton Journal.

There has been severe comment from many quarters in recent years of the disproportionately large sums earned by the participants in great boxing bouts for the short time in which they are engaged.

Cranks often start things. Even motorboats are started that way.

NOTHING PERMANENT ABOUT TREATIES

The British foreign secretary suggests that a temporary arrangement be made with United States and Japan in regard to the building of warships. That is quite in order because treaties are merely temporary makeshifts anyway.

It's hard enough to park a car or a wife in most cities. How can one expect to park an airplane.

AGAIN NATIONAL ANTHEMS

A gentleman at Ottawa is becoming violent because in Canada there appears to be a tendency to regard the song "O Canada" as a kind of Canadian national anthem.

Out here in the west we think we are rather fortunate in having no Mr. Shippans running at large. This is due to the fact, we think, that the people of the west have the correct understanding and a proper appreciation of Canada's national position and her position as a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

For these reasons it is expected that the people of Canada will continue to look upon "O Canada" as Canada's national song, and will continue to stand up and uncover their heads when it is sung.

While some of the people in the east are still worrying over whether or not a man descended from a monkey, the really sensible people are thinking of what he descended to.

When you come to know some people it is hard to imagine that they ever had any part in evolution.

To Obtain Relief From Neuritis

The nervous system must be thoroughly restored. Here is a case which illustrates this point.

The twitching of nerves and muscles warned Mrs. Mapletoft of the exhausted condition of her nervous system. She also had frequent nervous headaches and persistent neuritis in her right side.

PRESIDENT OF GERMANY EIGHTY

Birthday Will be Celebrated on October 2 it is Announced

WISHES TO RETIRE

BERLIN, July 28.—(Canadian Press).—Considerable stir has been caused in Germany by the announcement of preparations for President Hindenburg's 80th birthday. The date is October 2, but it is not too early in view of the holiday season to start the collection for the Hindenburg Fund, which is to be used for the benefit of war victims.

The whole point of Hindenburg's 80th birthday is that it sees him remaining in office till the end of his presidential term. It was his dearest wish that he should be permitted to retire this 2nd of October, six months before the term of office expires.

Hindenburg's household, more elaborate than that of Germany's first president only in so far as the traditions of an officer's family life differ from those of a working man's, consists of his son, Major Oscar Von Hindenburg, and his son's wife, a woman not yet 30 years of age, with two little children.

Hindenburg's daughter-in-law occupies a curious position in Berlin's social life. In the President's palace she receives the guests, takes the head of the table opposite Hindenburg himself, and performs the very onerous duties of mistress of an important establishment.

EXHIBITION OF WORLD POULTRY

Prince of Wales, Prince George, and Premier Baldwin to Visit Congress Opening Today

OTTAWA, July 28.—(Canadian Press).—The exhibits of fowl representative of all standard breeds are an important feature of the World's Poultry Congress here opening today. The 16 buildings and annexes which house the exhibition at Lansdowne Park have been a hive of activity for weeks.

The greatest exhibit is the Canadian National exhibit. That of Great Britain includes exhibits of racing homer pigeons by His Majesty the King and of fowls from the Prince of Wales' farm at Cornwall.

IMPORTANT VISITORS The revised program of the congress sessions shows that 150 papers will be presented during the meetings of the congress. Other international organizations are to hold separate sessions.

His Excellency, Viscount Willingdon, Governor-General, will greet the visitors on behalf of the British Empire and Right Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, premier of Canada, will speak for the Dominion.

TENNIS DANCE PORT CLEMENTS

PORT CLEMENTS, July 28.—A most enjoyable program flannel dance was given by the Port Clements Tennis Club at Hastie's Hall on Saturday evening last. The hall was beautifully decorated with honeysuckle, roses and foxgloves. Tennis racquets were hung about the walls giving a very pleasing effect.

A feature of the evening was the moonlight waltzes. Very dainty refreshments were served by the ladies. A large crowd was in attendance, including ladies from Vancouver. The district forester, Robert Allen and his staff from the launch Lillian D. were present and added to the pleasure of the occasion. All appeared to enjoy themselves.

Great praise and credit is due the committee, particularly Mrs. Cicconi, Mrs. Dyson and Mrs. Srigley for their efforts in making the dance one of the most enjoyable held this season in the district.

The proceeds of the dance are to be devoted to improvement of the tennis court where the young people put in many pleasant hours.

There is talk of an old-timers' football match to be run in connection with the Acropolis Hill Improvement League's drive for funds. These veterans would include George Abbott, who won the football kicking competition at the St. Andrew's Society sports recently and who seems to be in training, Fred Hardy, Sid MacDonald, William Murray, James Currie, Jimmie Kelly and other erstwhile lights of the football world.

We understand that they have picked their own referee, too.

There is talk of some boxing bouts in one of which Battling Gurvich will appear. While none of these are definitely arranged they will be discussed at a meeting of the Acropolis Hill Improvement League and definite plans will be drawn up.

In the football match it is not known whether there will be an allowance for weight or age. There will certainly be a change in weight of some of them during the match. Two periods of ten or fifteen minutes or even longer may be played.

Temporary agreements will be entered into by the delegates, to remain in force until the recommendations agreed upon are submitted to and acted upon by the next congress of the Universal Postal Union, which is to meet in London in 1929.

Twenty-five or more countries have signified their intention of sending delegates. Representatives of the leading aircraft companies of the world are expected to attend.

STEWART TELLS ABOUT DUNWELL

General Meeting of Company to be Held About August 10 it is Announced

VICTORIA, July 28.—Results of diamond-drilling and other exploratory work at the Dunwell mine indicating the extent of ore bodies already known will be presented to shareholders at the general meeting of the company to be called for about August 10, it was announced by R. M. Stewart, president of the Dunwell, on his return to Victoria from the mine at Stewart, B.C.

Mr. Stewart did not make public details, but he indicated results by saying:

"We have never yet drilled or diamond-drilled for a lead on the Dunwell and failed to get it. We are just getting started on finding out what the property holds and I may say that for the next twenty years we will be finding new ledges on the Dunwell property."

Mr. Stewart said that the mill is now running through about 150 tons a day, which is fifty tons a day more than the mill was designed for. The power plant is handling this extra load as easily as it was handling 100 tons a day, now that the mill has been broken in. All the engineering parties which have visited the mill since it got into operation have commented favorably on the efficiency of the installation.

"The mill is now producing thirty tons of concentrates a day," Mr. Stewart declared. "Of this production, twenty tons are zinc concentrates, and ten tons lead, carrying the gold and silver values. The gold values alone equal the combined values of the lead and silver."

Of the new Ben All strike, Mr. Stewart declared it to be one of the finest showings he had ever seen.

"We have now got this strike open cut for 300 feet vertical depth and 500 feet horizontal length," he said. "We hope to get it down at the foot of the hill, which is 500 feet below the last open cut and three-quarters of a mile from the mill. We are starting to drive a tunnel, drifting in the ore. The ore comes out on the face of the mountain and no cross-cutting has to be done to get it, as we drift in the ore from the start. The vein throughout carries a good grade of ore with very high-grade gold values."

"The diamond drilling programme has been started and will be carried on all summer, running twenty-four hours a day.

"The auxiliary hydro-electric plant is completed and is now operating. This effects a considerable saving in power costs."

LATE SEASON FOR PILCHARD

Fishing on Vancouver Island Coast Not Good This Season so far TROLLING IS POOR Supposed That Fish Late in Arriving Just as on North Coast

VICTORIA, July 28.—The pilchard harvest of the West Coast has been surprisingly small so far this year many reduction plants are virtually idle, waiting for the fish to run, John P. Babcock, fishery administrator of the Provincial Government, reported on his return from a trip to the Island fishing waters. While operators are confident that the fish will run shortly, so far signs of their approach in large numbers are lacking, Mr. Babcock stated. Summarizing the fishing situation along the West Coast, Mr. Babcock said:

"The salmon trollers have not had a very successful season this year. Weather conditions have not been at all favorable for the trolling operations of the hardy men who seek the salmon in the open sea. The catch of the sockeye in the limited waters frequented by that species on the West Coast has so far been small. The coho, pink and chum salmon, which constitute the main catch on the coast, are not due. FEW FISH YET

"So far the pilchard fishing has been unsatisfactory. Very few have entered the inlets this year. No catches were made in June. Several schools entered Barkley Sound in the second week of July and the plants there made catches for a few days. It is estimated that upwards of 1,000 tons were taken in Barkley Sound and the inland sea just north of the entrance. There have been no catches there this week. Very few catches have been made this year in any of the inlets north of Barkley Sound. Not a plant north of that Sound has handled over 100 tons this year. The season has been cold, the temperature of the estuary waters much lower than in June and July last year. When the waters of the inlets get warmer and the food that the pilchards seek there is fully developed, it is confidently believed that the fish will come in as they have always done so far back as the Indians can remember.

"Many operators and fishermen have been awaiting the fish since June 1. Naturally the operators and fishermen are somewhat disheartened, but none of them are really downhearted. Most of them in fact are confident. They base their confidence on the fact that weather has been unusually cold, and on the statements of fishermen who have observed the movements of pilchards for a considerable period. "They have always come in to inside waters every year and they will this year when it gets warmer," they say. At the present time all the big operators have their scout boat out in the open sea looking for fish and a chance to net them there. The reports from these scouts from Barkley Sound to Quatsino Sound are not over-encouraging. Some state that there are but few fish outside. One or two catches have been made in the open sea but they were small.

ATTACKED BY SHARKS

"One captain told me that he had no difficulty in pursuing his net around a large school of pilchards in the open sea this last week and that he would have filled his accompanying scows with fish but for the fact that after his net was pursed and he had begun to haul out the fish, the net was attacked by large mud sharks which tore the net in several places and let the fish escape. As he put it, 'the yellow-bodied, yellow-eyed monsters cut the net open and we lost a hundred tons catch. The brutes appeared to like their pilchards flavored by netting, corks and lead lines.

As stated, the pilchard fishery is in its infancy. No one has sufficient experience to pass judgment at this time of the season. The fact that the fish have not come in as early as last year may or may not be significant. The peak was reached last year in July, but the fish continued to enter the inlets until November. Very little is known of the life of the pilchards. It is not

RUPERT SHARES IN TRIUMPH OF GIRL IN MATRIC EXAMINATIONS

Prince Rupert can take some small share at least in the honors going to Matriculation students for the University of B.C. Barbara L. Dawson of the King George High School, Vancouver, who tied for first place with Lawrence B. Jack of Vancouver, was for some months a student of the Prince Rupert High School. She was a clever girl and Principal Brady at that time prophesied that she would have a brilliant future. Her father, Harold Dawson, was here representing the firm of Carter Halls in building the elevator.

The family came to the coast from Regina and before that from Hull, England.

CONSTABLE SCROG IS OFF TO THE YUKON

Constable Scrog of the R.C.M.P., formerly of the local detachment, was a through passenger yesterday on the Prince Rupert for the north where he has been attached to the Yukon detachment. One of his many accomplishments is his talent for music and his piano playing has often given much pleasure to his friends. It will surely be appreciated in the north and it is easy to visualize many an enjoyable time in the lonely spaces wherever a piano is found, simply because Scrog is there at the instrument.

CONSOLIDATION OF TWO GROUPS PORTLAND CANAL

Rufus and Argenta Companies Join Forces and are in Strong Position

Reorganization and consolidation of the Rufus and Argenta mining companies have resulted to the advantage of both. In that the "Rufus-Argenta Consolidated," as the new company is known, now has a property which is most attractive for consideration of the large operating companies, several of whom have signified their intention of examining it this season, says the Portland Canal News.

This is the statement of B. O. Erickson, one of the original locators of the ground, who returned this week from Seattle and Victoria. The two groups, which comprise 39 claims, 1,600 acres, adjoin each other and practically adjoin the George Copper, which is under bond to the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co., who are obligated to spend $250,000 in development work. This will necessitate a great improvement of transportation facilities, which will equally benefit all properties of the upper Bear River section.

The Rufus and Argenta were each capitalized at $1,000,000 in shares of $1.00 par value and under the consolidation agreement the capitalization has been increased to $3,000,000, the added million being placed in the treasury. The company is in good financial condition, having no indebtedness, and the claims are now being crown granted.

Here is a new and very economical dish to serve for lunch or supper. Fill a pie-dish or mould with pieces of cold-cooked meat. ## HOME FROM CHINA BY WAY OF CANADA SUGGESTION MADE

Matter Taken up With Premier Brownlee of Alberta who is in England

EDMONTON, July 28.—Crack British regiments en route home after being on service in China may be seen marching through the streets of Edmonton shortly. Some of the famous Guards may be seen, while hopes are held out for other well-known regulars making a brief stop-off while passing through the city.

Acting upon a suggestion from Col. C. Y. Weaver, Mayor Bury has sent a cable to Premier Brownlee, in which it is asked that the proposal be taken up with the British war office. The mayor has suggested that possibly one-half of the troops could be taken over the C.P.R. by way of Calgary, while the remainder would be brought through Edmonton over the C.N.R. Any definite plans would of course have to depend upon the time of arrival in this city, but it has been proposed that a two-hour stay would enable the soldiers to have a short march to offset the effects of the long train journey. They might be taken to the municipal golf links where some arrangements could be made to give them light refreshments.

The mayor is also wiring Hon. Mr. Ralston, minister of militia, to enlist his aid in having the troops return home through Canada. It is felt that this would give these soldiers an excellent opportunity to see something of the opportunities in this Dominion and probably assist largely in promoting desirable immigration to this country.

SAVAGE MOSQUITOES IN HUGE NUMBERS ON PRAIRIES THIS YEAR

EDMONTON, July 28.—The present mosquito plague which is making life miserable round and about the city, at the various golf links, and at some of the beaches, is an entirely different attack from the annual one staged" by this pest, according to local entomologists.

The usual spring attack by the ordinary type of mosquito had practically passed away, when continued wet weather brought into being, a smaller, more active, and more virulent type of the pest.

It will perhaps have been noted that the present variety of mosquito is smaller, lighter in color, practically noiseless in operation, and extremely rapid in its action, so that even to set foot in one's garden, may mean a dozen or more bites in a minute or two.

This is the species which is making out-door life highly unpleasant just now, and the only hope is for a continued spell of the present dry, hot weather, which will thin out the ranks of the pest considerably.

The mosquito is a hardy insect, however, and when not engaged in exploring tender and exposed portions of the human anatomy, is reasonably content with the juices of plants until such time as a tempting silk-clad human leg passes along, when the mosquito, with a yelp of joy, plunges at once into a wild orgie of blood.

SWITCHBOARD OPERATOR HEROINE OF PICTURE

Love laughs at locksmiths—it also smiles at such barriers as poverty, position and, in fact, all obstacles. Thus a humble little switchboard operator in a big hotel may attract the attention of a wealthy and handsome young man and—if she be as good as she is charming—ultimately win his love and a wedding ring.

That is the story, in a nutshell, of "Orchids and Emine," in which Colleen Moore stars for First National, and which will be the attraction at the Westholme tomorrow.

It is romance with a capital "R." It is love in springtime, with the lilt of laughter and the pathos of heart pangs that at last are healed. In all her brilliant career, Colleen Moore has never done finer or more sincere acting than in this picture with its arresting portrait of life in a great hotel where wealth and luxury mingle with hopes and fears and laughter and love in one grand melange of romance.

TREATS BREAD WITH ULTRA-VIOLET RAYS

CARDIFF, Wales, July 28.—Sunshine bread, made by a local baker, is being fed with favorable results to children suffering with rickets. The baker, J. H. Merrett, treats his bread with ultra-violet rays during its manufacture.

"I am confident bread so treated is more nutritious, richer and purer, and contains more vitamins," he said. "The ultra-violet rays I am using are generated electrically. Ultra-violet rays have already been used with marked success on milk."

URGES FOREIGNERS SHOULD NATURALIZE

Member of University of Montreal Party Would Have Them Become Canadians or Leave

EDMONTON, July 28.—That foreigners settling in Canada should be declared undesirable if they do not take out naturalization papers within the five years allowed, was the opinion expressed by Hon. Athanase David, minister of education in the Quebec government, in the course of an interview. He is a member of the University of Montreal party returning homeward after a tour of the west.

If Canada is a country good enough to live in, it is good enough to die in, affirmed Hon. Mr. David. He felt that the way to promote development was to increase the population and encourage immigration in the right way. This could not be achieved by any system under which Canadian money was passed through to some far-off point but rather by having people who would make Canada their own country.
