OPERATION OF ALBERTA WHEAT POOL'S PRINCE RUPERT TERMINAL ELEVATOR

The Alberta Wheat Pool has loaded twenty-two ships with wheat from the 1926 crop at Prince Rupert and expects to bring the total up to twenty-four before the crop movement is ended this spring.

The Alberta Pool terminal at Rupert has already handled 5.188,000 bushels and the total will reach 5,788,000 bushels within a few weeks. This is a larger total than was anticipated last fall.

The Prince Rupert house was built and is owned by the Canadian Government, has a capacity of 1,250,000 bushels and is probably the fastest handling terminal on the coast. It is under lease to the Alberta Pool for a term of two years. Joseph Bennett is superintendent of this elevator.

Through the Pool's extensive operation, the ocean freight differential has disappeared and grain is shipped to Europe from Prince Rupert at the same rate as from Vancouver. Of the twenty-four ships already loaded or committed, six carried grain to the Orient and eighteen to Europe. Previous to the Pool leasing the Rupert terminal, no wheat had been shipped from this port.

United States Fishermen Are Warned to Comply with Rules Under International Treaty

SEATTLE, April 20 .- Fishermen from the United States were warned on Tuesday by the Bureau of Fisheries to comply strictly with the provision of the treaty between Canada and the United States relating to the fisheries which provides that American fishermen shall not visit Canadian ports unless to seek shelter from severe weather or urgent necessity and that no supplies shall be purchased there other than food and water. The Canadian government alleges that United States fishermen visit ports of Vancouver Island when not compelled to do so by unfavorable weather or necessary repairs and, by doing so, render themselves liable to preventative measures such as the seizure of their boats.

MOST VALUABLE INDUSTRY HERE.

The opening last week by His Excellency, the Governor-General, of the new electrical power equipment which has been installed during the winter at the plant of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. at a cost of some $100,000, brought this important industry once against into the limelight. Built some eighteen years ago at the inception of this city, the big establishment at Seal Cove has apparently justified itself and the visions of the Old Country capitalists boats have gone the way of all material that have altered the locality almost who backed the undertaking have been to some extent, at least, real-things. So far, the plant of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage can glimpse the silent hills above the Co., unlike many local projects and undertakings, has operated in parallel of fifty-five, an empire that is night Fishing People, situated on the season and out. Many other big undertakings have been heralded to be with much acclaim and hopefulness but the Cold Storage, which has run along so quietly yet steadily for many years, has probably been of more benefit to the port than any of them. Without it, intervening space of a mile and Prince Rupert might have been in sore straits on more than one occasion.

THE ESSENCE OF GENIUS.

Two hundred years ago this year Sir Isaac Newton, a genius since fallen. He beneath mouldering if there ever was one, died. One mark of his genius or uniqueness heaps of turf, half hidden in the wildwas that he seemed never to have suspected himself of being in the erness of poplar and wild flowers. Rest- son for the apex on the Great North least different from the general run of mankind.

Honors came to Sir Isaac in ample measure, even in his lifetime. He called them symbols of good luck or mere rewards of industry and patience. Modestly, he compared himself to a boy gathering pebbles on the shore of the vast, unknown ocean of truth.

But mere patient industry, that familiar infinitude of pains, does not adequately label the springs of this man's genius. As distinguished British mathematician put it:

"We must surely add in extreme measure the much rarer "Cataline," and renowned in the Cari- lakes at its foot. Its crest is serrated. capacity for not taking pains or wasting time over lines of thought boo's pack train days; James May, a Jagged points of rock on the divide that lead nowhere, the capacity of choosing the right course by a giant. Forty-niner, who later came to rising high and sharp above fields of clear vision emanating from sound knowledge."

Few human beings fail to suspect themselves at some period of their lives of being geniuses. Although the idea languishes with time, as so many genial illusions are likely to do, enough of it survives to make one curious about what this thing called genius really is and about why it happens. Until the genius of the discoverer of the law of gravity was diagnosed, this thing called genius was defined as an infinite capacity for taking pains.

The difference between the genius on one side and the poor note. bungler and ordinary plodder on the other seems, therefore, to be that the one has, and others lack, the gift of knowing just what to cemetery, standing where the bench- cent, these massive fragments left a take infinite pains in doing or seeking after.

SOMETHING BREWING IN TORY POT.

British Columbia politicians, among whom may be numbered some prominent Conservatives, are at a loss to understand just what is happening in the inner councils of the Conservative party.

Curiosity has been aroused by a number of incidents which have arrested their attention lately. In commenting upon the pecudiar condition of affairs the Victoria Times reminds the public that Stikeen and the Naas; and his memory ston it is a mountain of dark mystery. there are two versions of the "Kamloops spirit." The general impression seems to be that the petition recently distributed and liberally signed by Conservatives-asking Mr. Bowser to re-enter the political arena and contest a Victoria seatis the beginning of a serious split between the two factions of the Tory Party.

In any event, it is clear to the most casual observer that something is brewing in the Conservative pot-and there is a strong suspicion that dissatisfaction over long-distance leadership is at the bottom of it.

Hazelton, Pivotal Point of Central Interior, Has Rich Associations of Early Days

(By A. D. Darlington, in C.N.R. Magazine)

"Teembo-oat!" A breathless and excited Indian, coming at full speed from his station at the point, shouted his momentous news: signifying that the long expected river boat was in sight, forging its way against the powerful current of the Skeena's flood, and carrying passengers, mail and a cargo of freight from the coast, with the important extra of news from the outside world. "Steamboat!" It was a magic word whose utterance caused the bank to close, the stores to suspend business; that drew everyone, men, women and children, natives and whites, towards the river's bank. And much the same thing happened on each of the red letter days that marked such duties, scornful of the threat of danger.

FORGOTTEN INCIDENT

An incident scarce remembered and reveals him as a rock in a flood tide of obdurate strength where contrivance for security seemed at the moment reasonable; though as it transpired might have had far reaching and disastrous consequences to himself and many others: It occurred in the late eighties, during a period of imminent danger from a native uprising that threatened to cover many miles of the river. Word had gone down the stream and out to Victoria for help: but meanwhile the Hudson's Bay Company's store was fortified with sandbags, and in this small fortress the few white people gathered in trepidation and uncertainty, while the natives, more numerous and virile then than now, remained sullenly aloof and maintained an ominous silence. But John Field and his wife, deaf to kindly persuasion, stayed outside in their own dwelling. "Ye shall not be afraid!" The World's Favorite Milk

ARNATION Milk could not be the largest selling brand of evaporated milk in the world did it not appeal to more people than any other brand. And it does. It appeals because of its wonderful smoothness and richness, its purity and uniformity. Carnation quality is tested and protected right from the cow to your pantry shelf.

Carnation is the most completely useful milk you can buy. Use it undiluted in place of cream at one-third the cost of cream. Diluted, Carnation adds richness to all cooking and is superior for other milk uses. Carnation is pure, fresh milk - evaporated to double richness and kept safe by sterilization. Order several tins or a case of 48 tins from your grocer.

Send for a free copy of Mary Blake's Cook Book. Address Carnation Milk Products Company, Limited, Aylmer, Ont.

CARNATION COCOA FUDGE-Three cups granulated sugar, 2 tablespoons cocoa, 1 pinch salt, 34 cup Carnation Milk, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup nut meats. Mix dry ingredients with Carnation Milk. Boil without stirring until candy makes a soft ball when tested in cold water. Add vanilla and butter. Set aside until cold. Then beat nuts in candy. Knead fudge like bread dough. Press down in buttered tins and mark in squares. The chilling and kneading of the fudge make it deliciously creamy. It never is grainy or too hard.

MEMBER FOR SKEENA STOUTLY DE-FENDS GOVERNMENT'S VOTE FOR CADET TRAINING WHICH LADY MEMBER DENOUN-

Hansard to hand reports more fully recent debate in the House of Commons at Ottawa wherein Miss Agnes McPhail, Progressive member for Grey Southeast, Ontario, J. C. Brady, M.P. Winnipeg Labor member, had differscathingly denounced such a vote and lemanded that it be cut to $1. The debate ensuing was in part as follows: Mr. Brady: "This is the first time that I find myself in utter opposition to any hon, member in the presentation of matters to this House. On the question of cadet training. I can present to the hon, member for Southeast Grey an experience of twenty-eight years in cadet work, not merely in Canada, but in Australia, New Zealand and South pose of cadet training. "Furthermore it is wrong, it is, to say the least, improper, that a viewpoint is given out to our people and to this House that our youth are made biased by the training which they receive in those schools. I would like the hon, member for Southeast Grey to visit the schools in British Columbia and see the actual conditions and the teachers who have charge of those boys. I would challenge her to see even a semblance, even a very shadow, of that military dragon which she has lifted up and presented to many people who are ignorant of the facts that lie behind this cadet training."

MR. WOODSWORTH

Mr. Woodsworth: "Perhaps the hon. gentleman has not read the report to which the hon, member for Southeast Grey has referred, namely, an inquiry into conditions in the schools in British Columbia, in which report the commissioners spoke very strongly against the eadet training."

Mr. Brady: "I had a part in the report of that commission. I likewise assisted in a small way in the work of the commission. Whether that report was adverse or not, you will always have opinions adverse to every scheme that has as its foundation the purpose of ennobling our youth and making them law-abiding citizens."

Mr. Woodsworth: "I hope the hon. member does not suggest that Doctor Putman and the other commissioner were opposed."

Mr. Brady: "I am quite pleased when I hear the hon, member for Winnipeg North Centre refer to Doctor Putman. I know him personally. Of course, in lany scheme, no matter what it is, there are imperfections, and he may have instanced a few things that perhaps he would like to see improved, but I say unhesitatingly that if there is one thing that has been for the good of Canada. it is the cadet training that is carried on in the high schools of the Dominion, and I say that that training one boy in the length and breadth of Canada who will not know how to stand up straight and control his body as well as his mind. That is the purposes by any means. I wish that those who are antagonistic to cadet training would only do the intelligent thing and go and visit the schools where this training is being carried on before they oppose it. I am speaking from experience, and I am very sorry indeed that I strongly against what I consider the exaggerated picture of cadet training that has been presented by the hon, member for Southeast Grey. I say that youth into proper channels."
