Vancouver Firemen May Strike Over a Question of Wages but Counsel Declares It Illegal

VANCOUVER, July 26.—The firemen of this city may strike in an endeavor to force the city council to join them in an application to the federal authorities for a wage arbitration board, it was announced last night by Charles Watson, secretary of the Fire Fighters' Union. The decision in favor of this course was made Thursday and ballots for a formal vote were distributed this week, it is stated.

The firemen cannot understand the attitude of the council in refusing to grant increases twice recommended by a conciliation board and also in refusing to accede to repeated requests of that body for an arbitration board, Watson declared.

"The Royal York"—Empire's Largest Hotel

Architects' drawing of the New Hotel

The first architects' drawings released by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in connection with the construction of their proposed new hotel at Toronto, reveal a structure which through a series of varying roof levels, will rise to a height of 38 stories above the street level. Containing over 1000 rooms it will be the largest and finest hotel building in the British Empire, taking its place in the front rank with the world's best.

"The Royal York", as the new hotel will be known, is a name chosen for it by President E. W. Beatty, believing it to be most fitting in that it associates the new structure with the history of Toronto and conforms with the dignity and importance of the building and its splendid appointments.

MAIL SERVICE IS REFUSED

Cost Would be Too Great States Deputy Postmaster General to Council

A communication was read from the Deputy Postmaster General at the city council meeting last evening stating that it would be impossible to give a daily mail service by Canadian National Railway trains during the period when daily trains were in operation. The letter pointed out that such a service from Edmonton would involve an additional expenditure of over $40,000 for a period of six months.

The establishment of a tri-weekly baggage car mail would be followed by requests from other points on the line and this would make the service too cumbersome.

The present service shows a deficit of approximately $40,000 in revenue, which would be increased by a further expenditure of $40,000 and therefore it would be impossible to comply with the request.

CENT A POUND MEANS MUCH

Possibly the people of Prince Rupert do not just realize what it means to the fishermen if the price of halibut goes up. On a four man boat with a catch of ten thousand pounds an addition of a cent a pound means $100 more for the catch or $25 for each fisherman or thereabouts. Is it any wonder that the fishermen scan so eagerly the halibut sales list as published in this paper and that merchants and others also take a keen interest in the prices paid.

It might be well to ponder over the fact that doctors take very little medicine.

NEW PARKING BYLAW

Doubtless the police will use reasonable discretion in enforcing the parking bylaw. The object seems to have been to prevent people on a sixteen foot road using it for permanent parking instead of building a garage or making a parking platform on their own premises. The general purpose is a laudable one but it may be enforced in such a manner as to prove objectionable. If a visitor calls at a house and happens to stay half an hour after midnight, it would be an unreasonable thing to fine him for so doing. If it is right for a visitor to leave a car standing outside a home at half past eleven it is just as right for it to be left there half an hour after midnight except for an arbitrary bylaw. However, it is supposed that this is not the purpose of the enactment but that it is to prevent permanent parking and to give the police the right to prevent it. We fancy it might be a good thing for the police or for the mayor to make an announcement as to just what is intended to be implied. If it is just one of those fussy bylaws made to annoy people, the quicker it is repealed the better, but we hardly think that is the intention.

Those who are always crying out against the methods at present adopted by denuding the country of its timber, might reflect that if the timber supply were less the Sunday newspapers would have to be smaller, and what an advantage that would be.

TEETH AND HEALTH
(Vancouver Sun)

Members of the Washington State Dental Association, meeting this week in Seattle, are handing out some advice to the public that can be received just as profitably in Vancouver as across the line.

These dentists say that the teeth are the most neglected part of the human body.

If we do not see well, we have our eyes looked after.

If we are easily tired and feel languid, we usually find out the trouble.

But until our teeth break out in open rebellion, we pay little or no attention to them.

Decaying teeth are hotbeds of disease. They generate poisons that pollute the entire body, resulting in protracted sickness or even death.

Periodical dental inspection is one of the big factors in keeping well.

It's not necessary to go to the Orient. All that is necessary is to visit Cow Bay and you can share horrid smells right at home. It might be a good thing to advertise this as an attraction to tourists.

JAP INLET SUCCESS

With a total of 403 marks Ruth Corbould of Jap Inlet school takes second place in Prince Rupert Centre in the recent High School entrance examinations. Her marks are only thirty below those scored by the leading pupil of the province.

Ruth's success brilliantly justifies the struggle of the Jap Inlet residents to obtain a teacher, and to erect by combined labor, a new school for their children. Ruth is the teacher's eldest daughter and her success is also an example of what sound teaching combined with loving home interest can do for a pupil. We must all take off our hats to the pupil, the teacher, and the unselfish labor of the fishermen of Jap Inlet.

The chief objection to the movies is that you can't throw a brick at the innocent creature who ought to have been badly beaten up by the villain.

COMPLIMENT PAID TO LOCAL STOREKEEPER

Among the many tourists visiting the city these last few days was a certain manufacturer from Chicago. While sauntering along Third Avenue, his eye passed idly over the windows of The Louvre and distinctly brightened as he glimpsed the interior of the store from the street. After an inspection of the show windows, he and his party entered the store and he continued his inspection, both of the fittings and of the goods displayed. A manufacturer himself, his verdict was that he considered it to be the nicest store he had seen since he had crossed the Canadian border and that whoever had fitted it up had showed good taste.

This compliment from an absolute stranger to The Louvre was appreciated. The same good taste shown in the store fittings is also applied to purchases for the Louvre where ladies may depend upon seeing hats, dresses and gowns the most chic and up-to-date in style. Ladies of the city are invited to inspect the stock and to judge for themselves.

Man in the Moon

TO be perfectly satisfied is fatal. Then begins deterioration.

IF we don't get a better mail service pretty soon, Jake suggests putting on an excoat as soon as the road is through to Terrace. That would bring in letters quicker than they arrive today.

THE other day I was asked why was a flapper like a plumber and the only answer I could think of was that costly fixtures accounted for much of her prosperity.

THE rail birds on Second Avenue have been enjoying the fine weather of late. There is talk of the formation of a railbird's club with a worthy chief splitter as presiding officer.

OH, I long to be a rail bird
Just sitting in the sun
And spinning yarns to all my friends

DR. H. R. GRANT VISITING HERE

Sky Pilot Welcomed by Friends and Members of Former Congregation

"My heart gave a twinge as I travelled down the beautiful Skeena River and then at the station last night when I met the large number of people I knew so well," said Dr. H. R. Grant this morning. "It is great to be here and to meet the people I knew so well. I am having a wonderful holiday."

Dr. Grant arrived yesterday afternoon on the train from Terrace and was met by a large number of old friends and members of the Presbyterian congregation. He is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Johnston, Fourth Ave. East, and expects to remain until Monday. On Thursday he will be the guest of honor at the Rotary Club luncheon and if he is able to remain that long he may preach on Sunday.

Then she boarded an aeroplane bound for London. Upon reaching London she spoke to her husband in New York for six minutes and then took the next passenger aeroplane back to Paris.

FLY-TOX KILLS MOSQUITOES

Mosquitoes Thin Your Blood

Normal blood is too thick to be drawn through the mosquitoes' small piercing tube. They must first inject a thinning fluid. In that way disease germs are set afloat in the blood stream—bacteria of burning fever and crippling disease. There is also the danger of stropooccoc infection (blood poisoning) from scratching the bite. Mosquitoes must be killed. Health authorities advocate Fly-Tox. Simple instructions on each bottle (blue label) for killing ALL household insects. Insist on Fly-Tox. Fly-Tox is easy to use. Safe, stainless, easy, sure. Advt.

The Board of Works recommended at the city council meeting last evening that a one-and-a-half inch extension be made of the water main on Park Avenue as far as Dr. Eyoil's residence at an approximate cost of $250. The recommendation was agreed to.

At the council meeting last evening a letter was received from the International Association of Fire Chiefs in regard to a convention to be held next month. As the council has already voted a sum of money towards the expenses of Fire Chief MacDonald to enable him to attend the convention, the letter was filed.

BOBBED HAIR MEMBER OBJECTS TO THATCH AS MOST UNSANITARY

Miss Ellen Wilkinson Leads Campaign Against Old Picturesque Cottages of England

YEOVIL, Somerset, England, July 26—Miss Ellen Wilkinson, the first woman member of parliament to bob her hair, has started a charter movement against saving the thatched roofed cottages of England, chiefly in Somerset and Suffolk.

Admitting the picturesqueness of the ancient houses, she contends they are dreary, uncomfortable and insanitary.

ROMANCE AND BUGS

"The rose covered cottages, with their attached roofs, are full of romance so far as the eye is concerned," declared Miss Wilkinson, "but beneath the surface and in the garret there are a lot of other things alive—bats, rats, mice, and insects—and also the danger of fire."

"It is true the old fashioned cottages are rather cool in summer, but that's about all that may be said of them. There are too many dark corners to suit me. Women of these times must have plenty of light, air and space."

One of the champions of the proposal to save the cottages from the housewreckers is Stanley Baldwin, the prime minister. Mr. Baldwin has agreed to aid the Royal Society of Arts in its aim to preserve the countryside from further inroads by builders.

The society for the Preservation of Rural England has also taken up cudgels against town planning schemes which would mar beauty spots of the country. Sussex Downs, it has been pointed out, one of the large open spaces within automobile distance of London, has already been scarred by the erection of a string of bungalows. In the trail of the motorist there are filling stations at every cross roads, and the old time villages are being cluttered up with garages, tea shops and hotels for summer travellers.

Special appeals to architects and to lovers of country life have been issued by various organizations supporting the preservation movement.

Canadian railways carried 41 million people in 1925 or more than four times our population.

WATCH YOUR GARTERS TO TELL THE WEATHER

(Ketchikan Chronicle)

A Nebraska meteorologist—which is the highbrow term for weather man—says to watch your garters. By which he means that their tightening indicates relatively high humidity, a condition which ordinarily results in rain.

Th peculiar means which this weather man adopted to bring home his point is interesting. To the thousands who read that item no doubt but few before realized that there was any connection between relative humidity and rain—or between garters and humidity.
