The Dominion census showed Calgar to have a population of 65,513, so the capital city has now forged well ahead of its southern rival.

Details of the count which was carried out last month by fifty enumerators show 19,426 males and 19,136 females over 21 years of age. Those who are under 21 years number 13,812 males an. 14,659 females. The total for the nort. de is given as 52,238 while that of the outh side is placed at 14,845, making grand total of 67,083.

"It will be recalled." says the assesor, "that the civic census in 1926 was bout 1,200 in excess of the governnent figures, due to the fact that we cluded university and college stuents and other transient not counted in the dominion census. These persons had been in the city for a period of six months and were taken into our figures but the practice followed in the government census was to count them at their permanent homes. In order that there may not be any similar discrepancies shown in future counts of the population. I have this year proceeded strictly along the lines followed by the governmen enumerators. The census returns may therefore be taken as showing a bonafide increase in the population within the last year."

She Began

"My baby was born prematurely, by the Cæsarian operation. She lost steadily for five weeks, and was nothing but a little skeleton. She cried continually and would not sleep for more than half an hour at a time. I was unable to nurse her, and the food we gave her disagreed altogether with her. At last the doctor said we might try Eagle Brand and we made a very weak solution, feeding her each hour. This was at four o'clock in the afternoon, and after the nine o'clock feeding, she went to sleep and slept peacefully for nine hours. Since then, she has gained rapidly and is so happy and contented that everybody stops to notice her. People who saw her when she was five weeks old, think she's nothing short of a miracle, and indeed we all think so, for her life was just hanging by a thread, and it seemed as if she could not live.

She is one of the best testimonials you could possibly have, and after seeing her, any mother would try Eagle Brand. She is nine months old today, has seven teeth and is trying to walk,

Throughout the country the adherents of the new sport must amount to hundreds of thousands, for there is a great vogue in such centres as Man chester, Liverpool and Birmingham. BETTING ON ODDS

It is often said that talk is cheap, but the player who talks at the wrong time is likely to find that his talk will be an expensive item. In one of the recent football games played in Prince Rupert one of the players persisted in finding fault with the referee's decisions. Finally the referee sent the offender to the pavilion and his team was left shorthanded as a result. Not only was the player penalized but his team lost the match and the absence of one man doubtless made a big difference. The player has since been suspended for two weeks.

A referee's duties at the best are onerous and difficult. Good referees are not found every day and few people so ready to criticise would be ready to try their hand at the job. It is un to the players to realize that referee only there to help the game along and give decisions as he sees fit. He is not there to try to please everybody.
