SIBERIAN WALRUS HUNTERS LANDED ON ST. LAWRENCE ISLAND AFTER TERRIFIC FIFTEEN DAY PASSAGE IN ICY WATERS

SEVOONGA, St. Lawrence Island, Alaska, February 18.—Eight men in an open skin canoe for three hundred miles across Behring Strait from Siberia to this island under the lash of Arctic storms, six walrus hunters recounted an almost unparalleled story of hardship, peril, suffering and tragic disaster. Their arms and legs were frozen, eyes distended and their scanty clothing in tatters when the six men finally reached the Eskimo village of Gambell on the northern part of the island from where the story of their ill-fated battle with the elements reached here by radio.

Royalty Scathed by Laborites as Appropriation for Trip to Australia Passed by Commons

LONDON, England, February 18.—Lively scenes were renewed in the House of Commons last night when the vote for the expenses of the Duke and Duchess of York's present tour to Australia was discussed. It was eventually approved without division.

The vote was challenged by many Laborites as a waste of money. John Scurr, Steyneby Labor member, thought the voyage could have been made on an ordinary liner by Their Highnesses instead of being virtually "wrapped in cotton wool with naval officers around them."

Liberals Are Divided on Measure; Vancouver Member in Opposition

MANSON PROTESTS AT MACKENZIE'S REMARKS—VARYING VIEWS ARE TAKEN TO DECLINE BILL—DECLARED TOTALLY OUT OF ORDER

VICTORIA, February 18.—The government's marketing control bill was subjected to an attack in the Legislature on Thursday when the whole question of the constitutionality of the measure was brought to the fore in the House by Ian Mackenzie, Liberal member for Vancouver, who launched an attack against the measure over the protests of Attorney General Manson. Mackenzie contended that the bill was totally out of order and could not be proceeded with further by the Legislature.

Manson declared that the government had consulted eminent legal counsel and had been assured that the measure was absolutely ultra vires. In any case, the attorney general asserted, relief to the agriculturalists was a matter of such pressing importance that the Legislature would be warranted in passing the bill and allowing the courts to decide its constitutionality.

Premier Oliver, urging careful consideration, revealed the opinion that grave doubt existed as to the Legislature's power to put such a law on the statute books.

Speaker Buckham reserved ruling on the objections raised by Mackenzie and held the measure ultra vires inasmuch as it interfered with the regulation of trade and commerce which rested with the Dominion government.

TWO MUDDLED AND TROUBLED LEADERS.

British Columbia Conservatism is confronted with a strange situation today, says the North Vancouver Review. The federal parliament re-convened at Ottawa Tuesday with the leader of the British Columbia Conservative party as one of its members. At the same time the provincial legislature has reached what will probably be the most important stage in its nineteen twenty-seven deliberations.

The situation, as it exists, is contained of some strange combinations of circumstances.

Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, chosen leader of provincial Conservatives, selected at that much-ballyhooed Kamloops convention which was to foreshadow the early downfall of John Oliver and his followers, has not seen fit to seek a seat alongside those who were to have been his colleagues at Victoria.

Instead, after delivering a few platitudinous, back-slapping speeches and asserting that he would not have touched the provincial Conservative leadership with a ten-foot pole if he had been allowed to refuse it, the doctor has gone haughtily back to Ottawa and to his safe seat with the Conservative minority there.

And once there, what has he done?

MOST PLEASING TO JOHN OLIVER.

The good doctor is carrying on in a manner most pleasing to Premier John Oliver who he should be facing now, but isn't.

The premier has introduced a motion favoring better terms for British Columbia from the Dominion in the Victoria House. Hon. Dr. Tolmie has taken the hint and will move at Ottawa for a royal commission to investigate British Columbia's grievances just as has recently been done for the Maritimes, resulting in the much-debated Duncan report presented at Ottawa before the last adjournment was taken there.

Dr. Tolmie, unwittingly perhaps, has effectively tied the hands of his "followers" at Victoria. Under ordinary circumstances they, of course, would find it necessary to severely criticize the premier's move for better terms.

But how can a man criticize the proposals of the government to which he is opposed, when his leader is proposing similar action at Ottawa? Mr. Pooley deserves sympathy. His position is trying. He is little more than chairman of the Conservative delegation in the House.

ARE CONSERVATIVES REALLY SINCERE.

If Conservatives are really sincere in believing that a general election is imminent in this province, are they playing fair with the people of this province in selecting and supporting (though they are not all doing this last) a leader who feels obliged to retain his seat at Ottawa where he knows he will not have to face the electorate for another five years?

The situation is likely to be stranger still before this session at Victoria is over. As is generally known a select committee of the Legislature is now sifting evidence adduced before the royal commission investigating customs affairs, supposedly in preparation for the sitting of a royal commission to investigate British Columbia campaign funds.

Now, before Dr. Tolmie was forced to acknowledge himself leader of the British Columbia Conservative party, he was organizer for that same party in this province.

DOCTOR MUST HAVE KNOWN ABOUT IT.

As such the doctor must have known something about campaign funds; in fact, he must surely have handled a considerable amount of campaign funds.

And if Dr. Tolmie did not know that a certain portion of Conservative campaign funds were supplied by the brewery interests, then it is quite certain that no political party in British Columbia ever had any campaign funds.

All of which makes it appear as difficult and annoying to be a leader of the British Columbia Conservative party as it is to be a leader of the Conservative delegation at Victoria. What with one leader playing Premier Oliver's game at Ottawa and the other at Victoria daring the government, until to his surprise the dare was accepted, to investigate affairs connected with the past of the Conservative leader at Ottawa as Conservative organizer in British Columbia, the minds of both "leaders" are almost as muddled and troubled as this last sentence threatens to be.

RED CROSS IS STILL ACTIVE

SIX MILLION DOLLARS EXPENDED IN ALL PARTS OF CANADA IN FURTHERANCE OF NATIONAL PEACE TIME PROGRAM

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18.—(By Canadian Press.)—That in round figures the Canadian Red Cross Society has disbursed since the war $6,000,000 in furthering its national peace-time program; that about one-half the revenues of this Society, available at the end of the war with the revenues accruing since, has been spent for the benefit of disabled members of the Canadian Forces; that the other half has gone largely into the public health and health education activities of the organization; and that last year $650,000 was spent on Red Cross work in all parts of Canada, will be the gist of a statement to be issued at an early date from Red Cross Headquarters in Toronto.

This statement, which has been prepared by Dr. James W. Robertson, chairman of the Central Council of the Red Cross in Canada, and Lieut. Colonel J. L. Biggar, M.B.E., chief commissioner, will deal in detail with the causes which made it imperative at the close of the war that Red Cross work should go on without pause; will outline the peace-time constitution of the world League of Red Cross Societies and the Canadian Red Cross will show that Red Cross health education as furthered by the Red Cross and other health agencies in Canada has been largely responsible for the fact that since the war many thousands of Canadian school children have been medically examined; will refer to the fact that the Junior Red Cross which originated in Canada in 1914 has now over 100,000 members in the Dominion and has spread into many other lands where it today numbers ten millions will state that in the past three years 11,000 women have taken the Red Cross Nursing courses, will announce that 5,873,745 pieces of health literature have been distributed by the Red Cross, will describe the invaluable services afforded settlers in the interlands of the Dominion through the thirty-nine Red Cross Outpost Hospitals now in operation in many provinces, will make known the very definite contributions made to safe and satisfactory settlement of immigrants through the Seaport Nurse series of the Red Cross and the follow-up records kept in these unique institutions, will enter into details regarding what has been done by way of Disaster Relief in the past seven years and will outline the tasks for the future if all such urgently necessary work is to be carried forward.

It is understood that this statement will precede a nation-wide campaign for support of the Red Cross and that this campaign will be launched on Empire Day in all parts of the Dominion and will continue until Dominion Day 1927.

SYD CHAPLIN IN "O, WHAT A NURSE"

Film is Succession of Thrills With Which Adventure and Comedy Nicely Balanced

Those fans who screamed with laughter over the antics of Syd Chaplin in "Charley's Aunt," will look forward to the appearance of that versatile comedian as the lead in "O, What a Nurse," scheduled as the main screen attraction at the Westholme Theatre this week-end.

Syd Chaplin scores another tremendous hit in this picture as a cub reporter who first poses as an expert love adviser in the writing line, then as a nurse, and is whirled through a succession of adventures, with thrills and comic interludes equally balanced. It's a picture brimful of laughs.

Patsy Ruth Miller is the heroine supported by a brilliant cast.

The picture shows Syd Chaplin in one of the greatest comic roles of his career, a laughing triumph, a riot of slapstick action!

MORE RED TAPE CUT AWAY EUROPE REGARDING MOTORING

PARIS, Feb. 18.—During the first few years that followed the great war, the fate of the motorist who wanted to tour among the new countries was indeed a nightmare. At every border there was a deposit to be made, often of considerable value, to the customs authorities, and there was endless trouble and formality when this money was to be returned on leaving.

Thanks to the various touring clubs of Europe, this nuisance has now been brought pretty well to an end, and motorists can now have the same facilities as before the war in the shape of triptyques and international certificates which eliminate trouble at the frontiers and make individual deposits unnecessary.

Most of the motors association in Europe and the Automobile Club in New York can supply motorists with the necessary papers.

A noteworthy improvement is the innovation that the French Touring Club has made, and which is applicable to all its members that reside in France, triptyques and "cartes de passage en douane" as the book of triptyques for many different countries is called, can now be obtained on deposit of a non-

INSANE PEOPLE ARE CLASSIFIED

NUMBER IN PROVINCE GRADUALLY INCREASING ACCORDING TO GOVERNMENT REPORT

The number gradually increasing year by year, there were 2,434 patients treated at the mental hospitals of British Columbia during the fiscal year of 1926, a government report shows. Of these, 1,682 were men and 752 women, the former being treated almost exclusively at Essondale and the latter at New Westminister asylum. The great majority of all the patients, 1,995, were still remaining in the hospitals at the end of the year, while fifty-seven recovered and 142 died. The increase of patients in the mental hospitals for 1926 over 1925 was 111.

The report makes a number of interesting classifications of the patients. In religious belief, of the 475 patients admitted during the year, 306 were Protestants, 76 Catholics, 39 Lutherans, fifteen Confucians and smaller numbers of other beliefs and none.

More of the insane had common educations than had good and poor.

In nationality, 163 of the patients were of Canadian birth, 128 English, 26 Scotch, 32 United States, 15 Chinese, 12 Swedes and smaller numbers of other nationalities.

Vancouver contributed the largest number of patients—189; Victoria, 42; New Westminister, 17; Kamloops, 11; North Vancouver, 9; Okalla Prison, 6; Prince Rupert, 7; Saanich, 5.

Laborers seemed, from the year's records, to have been the most prone to go insane as they numbered 93; housewives came next with 74; those giving no occupations, 60; farmers, 31; loggers, 21; miners, 18; carpenters, 14; clerks, 11; smeltermen, 11; and housekeepers, 10. One newspaperman could not stand the overwork and went insane.

Between 35 and forty years seemed to be the favorite age to go insane. The most of the causes were classed as constitutional, 128, while heredity accounted for 89.

The most of those admitted were in good health.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

THE PACIFIC ERA, destined to be greatest in the history of world commerce, is dawning... and British Columbia is Canada's gateway to the Pacific.

This most westerly of the Provinces occupies an important place on the New World trade routes and a strategic position within the Empire.

It has an area of three hundred and fifty-five thousand, eight hundred and fifty-five square miles, with seven thousand miles of coast line. The tremendous natural wealth, minerals, forests, water power, fisheries and the agricultural and industrial potentialities awaiting further development fire the imagination.

Today, British Columbia has a population of approximately six hundred thousand, yet, it is capable of sustaining fifty million people. Nowhere in the world are there greater opportunities to satisfy young Canada's desires for adventure, for achievement, for sport.

These opportunities for men of mettle are limited only by the capacity of the individual to do and to possess.

It has been truly said that the wealth of any country lies, not in the possession of natural resources, but in the careful exploitation of them. How successfully British Columbia is developing her natural resources for Canada and Canadian prestige is evidenced by the briefest glance at her progress.

The Northern Electric Company is proud of its share in this development and the tremendous growth of the Province.

Forest - British Columbia's forests compose half of the softwood resources of the British Empire, and give employment to one quarter of the male population of the Province. Exports increased from two hundred and eighty-four million in 1910 to five hundred and seventy-seven million board feet in 1925. Yet, the Province has used up less of its timber capacity than any other Province or State in North America. The estimated value of the commercial timber stand is one billion dollars.

Mining - Minerals to the total value of almost one billion dollars have been produced since 1852. British Columbia is the most highly mineralized area on the North American Continent. Gold, silver, lead, copper, zinc and coal are there in abundance.

Fishing - Half of the entire fishery production of Canada comes from British Columbia. In 1921 the value of the total production was fourteen million dollars. This was increased to twenty-two and a half million dollars in 1925.

Agriculture - The investment in land, live stock, etc., is approximately two hundred and twenty million dollars. The soil and equable climate make the Province ideal for mixed farming.

Industrial Growth - The number of manufacturing industries conducted in the Province increased within the last eight years from 1,202 to 1,401 with an annual payroll of almost forty-two million dollars.

Water Power - The hydro-electric resources of British Columbia have been developed to an extraordinary degree. All the power that industry will need for generations will be ready as and when it is needed.

This announcement appears in the press throughout Canada this month. An outline of Alberta's contribution to the national wealth and resources will be published during March.

RAILWAY DIVISION HAS FIRST WHEAT MISHAP

Three Cars and Caboose Leave Rails Near Hubert—Cars Slightly Damaged

The first and only mishap since the inauguration of what shipment over this end of the C.N.R. railway occurred on Monday near Hubert, when three rear cars and the caboose on a wheat train left the track through a broken rail, apparently caused by frost, says the Interior News of Smithers. The mishap was handled in excellent shape the front end being run on into Smithers and the big crane sent out had the cars back on the track in thirty minutes after their arrival at the scene. The ice and frost protected the roadbed and little damage was done to the cars or their contents.

Something like four million bushels of wheat have been handled over the Smithers division since the opening of the shipping season and all predictions of dire calamities have been rudely upset in the excellent manner in which the traffic has been handled.

CARNIVAL AT JASPER PARK

SAM ROSSUM WINS THIRTY MILE SKI RACE WITH TIME OF 5 HOURS, 8 MINUTES AND 45 SECONDS

JASPER, Feb. 17.—Jasper National Park inaugurating what promises to be the greatest cross-country ski race in North America, seven expert ski-runners faced the starter here yesterday morning for a 30 mile non-stop run in the heart of the Canadian Rocky mountains. Slightly more than five hours later, Sam Rossom sped across the finishing tape, the winner in five hours, eight minutes and forty-five seconds.

The race, which marked the opening of the third annual carnival in Jasper Park, was run over a course which began at the famous Maligne Canyon to Medicine Lake and return to Jasper Village. With the exception of about three miles, the entire route lay over a mountain trail that clings precariously to the slopes of the Cochin range of mountains. Endeavors had been made to beat a trail for the runners but high winds funneling down the Maligne River Valley built up huge drifts of fluffy snow into which the skiers often sank to their knees.

An additional obstacle was formed by weather conditions. At the start of the race the temperature was about 10 below zero but it moderated so rapidly that, during the return trip, the "slide" was almost absent from the snow and the contestants had to force their way the whole of the distance. The winner was closely pressed by F. Bustram who finished second in 5, 13, 36. P. Withers was third in 5, 40, 30.

CARNIVAL IS ON
The carnival proceedings got off to a scintillating start in the evening with the coronation of the Queen of the Carnival, Miss Margaret Buckham, by Col. Maynard Rogers, superintendent of the park. Miss Buckham, who is 17 years of age, has been a resident of Jasper since she was one year old and her election as Queen was distinctly popular.

Following the coronation ceremonies there was a fancy dress carnival on the open air rink and exhibitions of speed skating by Marion McCarthy, junior champion of Alberta.
Today a large number of skating and skating events are programmed together with a senior and junior dog race. The carnival will conclude tonight with a ball.

BETTER FEELING BALKAN STATES

MOVE TOWARD RAPPROCHEMENT GROWING BETWEEN SERBS AND BULGARIANS

SOPIA, Feb. 18.—The last few months have brought about a remarkable improvement in the relations among the various Balkan peoples. This movement toward good will and co-operation began last October when several Bulgarian merchants participated in an International Fair, held at Saloniki, to which a group of Bulgarian journalists were invited as guests of Greece. The greatest consideration was shown to the Bulgarian visitors.

Not very long after that a Bulgarian artist, Nikola Tanef, exhibited a large collection of his paintings in the Rumanian capital. Many of his pictures were bought by Rumanian admirers and the press of Bucharest gave him several very cordial and very favorable reviews.

More striking and moving than either of these indications of international good will was the recent participation of Kenea Rogovska Hristich, the Serbian prima donna, in several operas given by the Bulgarian National Opera in Sofia. Since the operas of both Belgrade and Sofia are supported and controlled by the state, Mrs. Hristich's visit was a manifestation, not only of cultural co-operation, but of official good will. The Sofia press and public received the Serbian prima donna very cordially and all were deeply impressed by the masterly presentation of several classic operas in which the hero sang in Bulgarian and the heroine in Serbian.

At the last performance the Sofia opera singers gathered on the stage and read their Serbian colleague a speech of appreciation and gratitude which was presented to her on a beautifully decorated tablet.

EXCHANGE OF ARTICLES
This ever-growing movement toward a rapprochement between these two Slavic nations, the Serbs and the Bulgarians, was strengthened by an exchange of articles at Prague. Kyril Christoff, one of Bulgaria's most prominent poets of the older generation, who for some time has been living in Czechoslovakia, recently wrote a long article in which he expressed his deep regret that two brother nations had quarrelled and his own special grief that he himself had written some very lurid war poems during the Balkan wars. He declared that he disavowed most of his poems written between 1912 and 1918, and expressed the hope that Serbian and Bulgarian literary circles might forget past wrongs and come to a cordial understanding.

This was answered by a prominent Serbian poet in the same journal and in much the same spirit, and was commented on favorably in Belgrade and Sofia.

William Turner, 84, of Barnstable, England, has drawn an army pension for 50 years, a post-office pension for 30 years and an old age pension for 18 years.

HOSPITAL AFFAIRS.

Editor, Daily News.
As a taxpayer for a good many years I was surprised to see the report of the Hospital Board in last night's paper. Is it really necessary for a Matron to receive $150 per month with two rooms, board and laundry and maybe more privileges?

It is my opinion this is the first time that this large salary has been granted and, as the hospital is always crying for assistance from the public who, as a rule pay their bills to that institution as they pass out of the door, (sometimes sooner), is it not time to come to a halt and cut out a few of the charges at the hospital whereby the poor patients may receive more privileges?

As a suggestion, re building covering from hospital to Nurses' Home, would it not be advisable for the hospital board, in conjunction with the mayor and school trustees, to give a tender for umbrellas for the gross as that would help the little tots who have to walk half a mile and maybe more to school and stay in wet clothing until they arrive home, which means half a mile or more?

In regard to the Matron leaving for three months' leave, I wonder if the relieving matron will receive the same salary as the present (more or less). I have always understood that the hospital is not a charitable institution and, as I have been a patient there, I am thoroughly convinced of same.

RE-FISHERY REGULATIONS

Editor, Daily News.
In regard to the meeting of the Board of Trade on Monday, we the committee of the Dundas Trollers' Association, would like to know their reasons and authority for protesting to the Minister of Fisheries, the Premier and local representative against the enforcement, of what is probably the best regulation in the Fisheries Act. Certainly the only regulation that protects the bona fide Canadian Fisherman against the unfair competition of the type, of no fixed nationality, who fish in B.C. waters in summer and retire to Seattle and elsewhere in winter.

Why is the Board of Trade dissatisfied with this regulation?
On whose behalf is it appealing?

Why did the Board of Trade not consult a responsible body of fishermen before framing those protests?
Canadian citizens and no others should be permitted to fish in Canadian waters.

The Dundas Trollers Association is certainly in favor of the strict enforcement of the regulation in question.

BASKETBALLERS HAD FINE TRIP

LOST TO PORT SIMPSON 14 TO 10 IN RETURN GAME—HOSPITALITY PRAISED

In their home hall, the Port Simpson basketball team took the measure of the Prince Rupert Intermediates last night by a score of 14 to 10. The game was fast and, at times rough, with the Rups boys leading at half time with the score standing 9 to 8. Mr. Kelly and Mr. Booth acted as referees for the game and Geo Woods and Mr. Eby as timekeepers.

The locals who returned to the city at 8 o'clock this morning, are very loud in their praise of the hospitality of the Port Simpson people who did everything possible to make the occasion one long to be remembered. When it was ascertained that the weather was not suitable for their small launches to make the trip to town for the local team, they immediately phoned in to Capt. Gosnell of the Towens to take the party out. Leaving here at about three in the afternoon, they arrived at Simpson at six and were entertained at supper in the home of Guy Wesley.

After the game a dance was held which was much enjoyed by the visitors and, after the dance, all repaired to the home of Guy Wesley again and sat down to a sumptuous banquet. At four this morning, Captain Gosnell left Simpson so that the locals might be home early.

Before the intertown match, an exhibition game was staged between two local teams called the Tigers and the Wildcats and resulted in a win for the former by a score of 36 to 24.

Those making the trip from Rupert included J. McNulty, W. Wrathall, D. Gurvich, S. Gurvich, D. Frizzell, P. Howard, C. Thompson, V. Meagher and W. Bacon.

SPORT CHAT

The match tonight between the Gyros and the Grand Terminals in the billiard league will bring the leaders and the tail enders of the league together. Last time these teams met the Gyros won and should they be able to repeat this time it will mean a tightening up of the series. If, however, the Terminals are successful over their rivals it will strengthen their position in first place. The race is so close that each fixture adds interest to the series.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Bad indigestion and poverty to the point of starvation were recognized as equal evils as far back as the time of Rabbinic Burns. Of what use is money or food, if the stomach fails in its duty?

The healthy person does not and should not even realize that he has a stomach. Digestion of wholesome, normal food should be automatic. But this cannot be if the stomach is receiving less than its full supply of vital energy.

When the stomach fails in its functions, two courses of relief are available—you can reduce the quantity and variety of your food to fit its subnormal capacity—or, you can have the cause removed by spinal adjustments which restore the flow of vital energy to full capacity. Which is best?

"I EAT MOST ANYTHING."

"I have suffered from a bad form of stomach trouble for as long as I can remember—at least ten years. I have vomited my food even when a school-boy and have also been suffering a great deal from bladder and kidney trouble. I commenced to take adjustments taking 36 adjustments in all. Now, three months later my stomach is in good condition, and I can eat most anything I like without it hurting me. My severe bladder and kidney symptoms have also disappeared, and I feel fine." — Archie Preston, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2077-N.

ARTHUR HITCH HAS SPECIMEN WITH WINGS SPREAD OF MORE THAN FIVE FEET

HATZIC, Feb. 18.—(By C.P.)—An owl with a wing spread of more than five feet is mounted in the home of Arthur Hitch, who lives on a farm near here. The owl is a perfect specimen except for two claws that are missing, and Mr. Hitch, with a reminiscent smile, remarks that he, too, is a perfect specimen of manhood except for two gaping holes on his thumbs. The holes in his thumbs and the owl's missing claws are a sequel to Mr. Hitch's strange battle with the owl.

Owls have been troublesome marauders of chickens and when Hitch heard a noise in his henhouse one night recently he investigated with a shotgun. It was dark and Hitch let his ears direct the shot rather than his eyes. But he fired and he heard a flutter of wings and a fall to the ground.

HOW IT WAS CAPTURED

Picking up the body of a supposed dead owl, he found this was not the case, as he soon found both his hands clutched by the talons of the great bird and he was held prisoner, unable to release himself for a telling blow.

Mrs. Hitch, hearing the noise ran to her husband's aid but she was unable to drive off the owl and called to a neighbor for assistance.

Harold Henry, a nearby farmer, came upon the scene with a gun but found Hitch and the owl locked so close together that he was afraid to shoot. Instead, he went to a tool shed, secured a pair of wire clippers and severed two of the enraged owl's claws and then, as the bird plunged about on the ground, he struck it several blows.

Next morning, Hitch with his hands bandaged, went to the henhouse to secure his prize, but the bird had flown, apparently little the worse for the encounter.

Three days later Hitch noticed an owl perched in a treetop. It was the owl with the missing claws.

SMITHERS

J. M. Taylor of the Revenue Mining Co. of Detroit arrived in Smithers Wednesday night to make an inspection of the Mamie property near the Duthie mine. If the results of his examination are satisfactory, it is understood that the company will take the property over and start extensive work thereon.

Investigations have been under way with a view to extending the Government Telephone Service to residents on the Southerly side of the Bulkley River between Smithers and Moricetown. With greatly improved road connections in the district of Evelyn and Lake Kathlyn, many new settlers have been attracted to that district and these now form fairly well settled communities.

Arrangements have been made by the Omineca branch of the British Columbia Chamber of Mines for a series of lectures to be given in the district by Douglas Lay, resident mining engineer. The chamber has received a communication from Hon. William Sloan congratulating it on the splendid work it has done and exhorting to continue its efforts.

Mrs. W. H. Sharpe of Hazelton, mother of Mrs. Charles Reid of Smithers, died here early Sunday morning. The late Mrs. Sharpe was 81 years of age and was born in York, England. She had been married 55 years and came to this district in 1909 with her husband who predeceased her. She was stricken with paralysis ten years ago and has been an invalid ever since. Beside her daughter here, the late Mrs. Sharpe is survived by a son, H. W. Sharpe of Hazelton, and two other daughters, Mrs. Lancaster and Mrs. Hirst of Victoria.

A charge of theft laid against T. G. Diggins of Houston by A. Norberg of the same town was thrown out by Judge Robertson of Prince George in County Court here this week. S. W. Taylor of Prince Rupert, appeared for Diggins and L. S. McGill for the crown.

The Hanson Timber & Lumber Co. is now filling big orders for cedar logs to be used by the Canadian National Railways in the construction of new lodges at the Jasper (Albert) and Minaki (Ontario) summer resorts. James Craig, chief engineer in charge of such work at Jasper, has been here to inspect a large shipment of material going East.

There is general activity among farmers of the central interior district in getting out ties for the Canadian National Railway's requirements. As usual, this business means a great deal to the farmers of the district and is the means of making possible further improvements on their holdings. Harry Hanson of Rose Lake was in town this week and reported considerable activity in tie cutting in that vicinity.

After an illness of two months, Donald Macdonald, a farmer resident of the Sasary district, died in the Smithers' Hospital at the end of last week. He was a native of Invernesshire, Scotland, and came to Canada in 1907, having resided at Savory for seven years. He was unmarried and is survived by a sister in the Old Country.

Smithers experienced its coldest weather of the winter on Tuesday night when the thermometer reached 35 below with a bitter north wind prevailing.

Henry Smith, a former local resident, arrived from Vancouver this week and will be in charge of the construction of the new mill being built at the Duthie mine.

O. C. Thompson, who is in charge of work being carried on by the Porcupine Goldfields Co., near Topley, was a business visitor in Smithers this week.

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful.

Every manager of a household---every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare---should make a habit of reading the ads.

THIRD TERMS PROVE FATAL

NOTED PROFESSOR AND EDUCATOR ASSERTS THAT COMMON SENSE WILL KEEP COOLIDGE FROM BECOMING CANDIDATE

NEW YORK CITY, Feb. 18.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia College, declared that when the proper time comes President Coolidge will announce that he is not willing to run for re-nomination of president. "One of the president's strongest characteristics," said Dr. Butler, "is common sense, and common sense dictates this course. "It simply is looking for unnecessary and fatal trouble to raise the third term issue. The Republican party is going to have hard enough time without inviting certain defeat by asking Coolidge to run again." Dr. Butler frankly admitted that he had received no word or intimation from Coolidge, but has taken his refusal to run for granted as a Republican who "is both a personal friend and supporter of the President." Dr. Butler said the successful candidate must be an anti-prohibitionist, and declared that the chief supporters of prohibition are bootleggers.

EDINBURGH'S WHITE HORSE CLOSE INN TO BE PRESERVED

EDINBURGH, Feb. 18.—The White Horse Close, one of the historic features of Edinburgh, is to be placed under the care of trustees with a view to its maintenance and preservation in the future. Much of the fame of the White Horse Close which makes it so attractive to numerous visitors is due to the interest of Scott, who in "Waverley" makes it the lodging of Fergus McIvor and his tartan comrades. But apart from that it was far famed as a place of call on what was then the London road. According to tradition, the Close received its name from that of a white palfrey which belonged to Queen Mary, but authorities express doubt if the inn of the name is later than 1623, a date cut on a window in its South front. The hostelry was a house popular with the cavaliers of Prince Charles's court and it still preserves many of its ancient characteristics.

DOOR WAY TO COMMIT SUICIDE

German Railway Authorities Publish Interesting Statistics. BERLIN, Feb. 18.—Moved by the anxiety occasioned by the criminal derailing of a train on the Berlin-Cologne route some weeks ago, the German railway authorities have prepared some interesting statistics regarding the safety of travel in Germany. An amusing detail is the calculation that if one person should hit on the idea of committing suicide by being killed in a railway accident, he would have to travel continuously 80 years, day and night, in order to have a fair mathematical certainty of achieving his purpose. German trains cover a total of roundly 899,000 miles daily, equivalent to nearly 37 times around the earth at the equator, or two round trips to the moon. In 1925, 30 passengers were killed through no fault of their own. By way of comparison it can be pointed out that in the same year 143 persons were killed in traffic accidents in Berlin alone, and 3,100 were drowned in Prussia.
