KING GEORGE SLIGHTLY BETTER; CONDITION PRECARIOUS

King George Slightly Improved But Condition Is Still Precarious Owing to Weak State of Heart

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The King's physicians issued the following bulletin at 8:30 tonight: "The rise in temperature noted in the afternoon report persists, and, as a result, the King is rather less comfortable. Otherwise conditions remain unchanged."

LONDON, Dec. 5.—King George today continued in that precarious condition which for many days has held his subjects in a state of grave suspense. Everything would appear to centre now on the question as to whether the King's heavily-taxed heart will stand the strain imposed by a fortnight's grievous illness. It is understood that his present condition may continue for some time without material change.

Queen Mary took her usual afternoon motor drive today, accompanied by Princess Mary.

The cruiser Enterprise, with the Prince of Wales on board rushing homeward from a trip to Africa, is travelling so speedily that the Admiralty expects she will reach Suez Friday night. It is estimated that the vessel is travelling at a speed of twenty-nine knots per hour.

Premier Baldwin announced in the House of Commons today that the King-in-council had this morning nominated Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Chancellor and Premier Baldwin to be councillors of state for the summoning and holding of the Privy Council and the transaction of business on behalf of His Majesty. Introducing his remarks, Premier Baldwin said: "I am glad to be able to inform the House that the King was well enough this morning to enable a meeting of the Privy Council." The Premier stated that the King had signed the order-in-council regarding the councillors of state.

Earlier Bulletin
LONDON, Dec. 4.—The King's physicians in the official bulletin today announced that although anxiety concerning his heart continued the improvement that was noted has been satisfactorily maintained. The bulletin stated: "The King passed a quieter night. Though anxiety concerning his heart must continue, improvement noted last evening was so

GIVE UP HOPE HALIBUT BOATS

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Dec. 4.—Virtually the last vestige of hope for the safety of the halibut boats Imperial and Brunvol with twelve men aboard faded yesterday with word from the searching parties that no trace of missing ships had been found.

INCREASE CAPITAL BANK OF MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Bank of Montreal yesterday they authorized the directors to increase the authorized capital from $31,175,000 to $50,000,000.

far satisfactorily maintained. The Archbishop of Canterbury before beginning his sermon at the enthronement ceremonies today said: "you will be thankful to know that last night the King had six hours sleep and though anxiety is not removed we have good cause to be hopeful."

The privy council had a meeting at Buckingham Palace this morning. It is presumed the council was called in connection with the appointment of a commission which it is understood has been decided upon to name and act for the King in the State Affairs.

The King's physicians at 3:30 yesterday afternoon issued the following bulletin: "His Majesty passed a quiet morning though his temperature is now 100.2 the slight improvement in his general condition noted in the last bulletin is still maintained."

SAVED BABY FROM DEATH

Ten Year Old Lad Given Bronze Medal For Brave Act

SUDBURY, Ont., Dec. 4.—When Stanley Conron, ten years of age, was presented here with the bronze medal for heroism by the Royal Canadian Humane Society, he had the distinction of being the very first child of his age to be so recognized by the Humane Society for bravery. A few months ago he saved a baby from death beneath the wheels of a train, snatching the child from the engine's path in the nick of time. A second later he would have lost his life.

The father is Sergeant George Conron of the Sudbury police force and the boy is a native of Barrie.

Major L. Bullock Webster formerly of Prince Rupert but now of Victoria is directing the activities of the little theatre group in that city. They are preparing to put on "The Chester Mysteries" during the Yuletide festival at the Empress Hotel. The play was written by an ancient Chester monk and this will be the first time it has been put on in any of the coast cities. It will present some of the old Christmas customs as seen many years ago in England.

WARNING FROM HEAD OF BANK

Rampant Stock Speculation Is Matter of Concern to Bankers

MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—"The rampant speculation of the stock exchange which has persisted over a considerable period with wide ramifications is a matter of concern to bankers," said President Sir Charles Gordon at the Annual meeting of the Bank of Montreal yesterday. "I need not tell you that the rise in prices cannot go on forever and that there is a defined limit to bank loans on stocks. My hope is that the reaction may not be sudden or severe."

SARNIA, Dec. 4.—W. T. Goodison, Liberal member of the House of Commons for West Lambton, died last night.

President Coolidge in Message to Congress Today Urges Building of 15 More Cruisers for the U.S. Navy

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 4.—In what was probably his valedictory address to Congress, President Coolidge today emphasized anew his desire for increased naval strength for the United States by urging the passage of a construction bill for fifteen cruisers and one aircraft carrier. "With the elimination of the time clause," he said, referring to a section providing that the ships must be laid down within three years, "I wish to repeat again, for the benefit of the timid and suspicious, that this country is neither militaristic or imperialistic."

MAY DONATE GROCERIES TO XMAS DINNER

The Salvation Army announces that they can use groceries or other goods for their Christmas dinner which they are giving as usual this year. These will be acknowledged along with the money which is donated.

It is hoped to commence the list of donors tomorrow and those wishing to contribute are asked to leave the money at The Daily News office, or hand it to one of the members of the Salvation Army staff.

All want to have a merry Christmas and doubtless they will wish that those not able to provide for themselves shall also have a merry time.

KILLED GIRL AND HIMSELF

Lighted Dynamite as He Held His Former Sweetheart in His Arms

ANEROID, Sask., Dec. 4.—Maddened with jealousy because Beatrice Baragar, 26 years of age, refused his offer of marriage, William Laqua, 30 years of age, yesterday lighted a stick of dynamite with his cigarette while he held his former sweetheart in his arms and killed himself, the girl and her mother in the explosion which followed.

The triple tragedy occurred in a rooming house in a portion of the Gordon Neil Cafe.

WEST IS STILL IN FROST GRIP

Edmonton Coldest Place on Prairies With Thermometer Reading of Thirty Below

WINNIPEG, Dec. 5.—Western Canada remained today in the grip of the winter's first real cold spell. Thermometers on the prairies registered as low as thirty below in Edmonton and hovering between 18 and 26 below in many localities. Winnipeg recorded three below. Rising temperature is forecast.

NEW PRIMATE IS ENTHRONED

Beautiful Ceremonies Marked Seating of Dr. Cosmo Lang at Canterbury

CANTERBURY, England, Dec. 5.—Dr. Cosmo Gordon Lang, the ninety-seventh archbishop of Canterbury and primate of the established Church of England, today was enthroned in the marble chair of St. Augustine. The enthronement of the former archbishop of York was carried out with beautiful, medieval and ecclesiastical ceremony and pageantry in venerable cathedral here.

NAVY FLIERS ESCAPE IN CRASH
Skillful maneuvering saved the lives of pilot and four of the crew of this huge navy plane when it burst into flames three hundred feet above the Potomac River, near Giesboro Point, Md. The photo shows the smouldering wreckage on the shore where the pilot taxied his flaming craft only a few seconds before the explosion.

DOMINION IS PROSPEROUS

(Edmonton Bulletin)
Building permits issued in Canada during October call for a larger expenditure than the permits taken out in any previous October since Ottawa began to keep an official record, totalling more than $21,000,000. October is the time of year when in all parts of Canada except on the Pacific coast building operations for the season are being wound up and very few new projects launched. A new October record in permits testifies to a generally favorable fall, and good financial conditions the country over. Alberta is not peculiar in having good times, and an active building campaign under way. The conditions are general in the Dominion.

THREE RELIGIONS OF EAST ARE DISCUSSED

United Church Young People Meet at Home of Misses Rogers, Grassie and Garnett

The Young People's Society of First United Church met last evening at the apartments on Third Avenue of Miss E. P. Grassie, Miss B. Rogers and Miss A. Garnett where the interesting subject was three great Eastern religions—Buddhism, Taoism and Confucianism. G. H. Stocks gave a paper on Buddhism; Rev. A. Wilson on Taoism, and Miss Rogers on Confucianism. After the reading of the papers, a general discussion was engaged in by the members. Playing of games followed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The society plans to hold meetings occasionally at the homes of members.

Organization of the Ku Klux Klan is reported to be under way locally with about thirty citizens interesting themselves in the movement. The fiery cross is said to have been displayed at a meeting an evening or so ago on Acropolis Hill.

Northcott Hints That His Father Implicated in Number of Murders

Taken to Scene and Signs Written Confession Saying He Slew Only Five Out of Nine Who Are Missing

RIVERSIDE, Cal., Dec. 4.—Gordon Stewart Northcott last night wrote and signed a confession to the killing of one youth, Alvin Gothea, so-called headless Mexican, at his chicken ranch, and it was quoted by the officers that he admitted to the killing of five of the nine youths murdered at the ranch.

"I killed Walter Collins," said Northcott, it was quoted by the officers who accompanied him on searches for the remains of his victims, "Lewis Winslow, Gothea, Richard, and another boy whose name I never knew." He refused to say who killed the additional four boys.

The confessions of Northcott were made on the Mojave desert last night, where Northcott was taken when he said he would try to locate Gothea's buried head. The hunt was unsuccessful. The youth's aged father, Cyrus Northcott, was referred to in hints by him as being involved in some of the other murders and named directly as an accomplice in murders at the ranch, which he described as a regular butcher shop. "I've always been a misfit," Northcott said, "and once a misfit always a misfit, and I might say that my father is greatly responsible for my degeneracy. I was only eleven years old when my downfall began. What can a fellow expect when his father gets him off on the wrong foot at eleven years of age?"

In a wild rambling unloading of his mind to avoid going mad, Northcott is reported as confessing the killing of Walter Collins, Lewis Winslow, a boy named only as Richard, and another whose name he never knew. Northcott said that both he and Sanford Clark mistreated the boys before they were killed. He said that he killed the Collins boy because he loved him and could not stand the idea that he might go away.

ODDS FAVOR DR. M'LEAN

Fierce Battle in Victoria This Week in Victoria By-Election

VICTORIA, Dec. 4.—The battle of ballots here this week promises to be such as Victoria has seldom seen. Dr. MacLean has been supported by a number of federal ministers, and Plunkett, the Conservative, has had the leader of the opposition and others prominent on that side to speak for him and the outcome is uncertain, although the odds seem slightly in favor of the former premier.

LOVAT SCHEME NOT ACCEPTED

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Canadian government has not accepted the scheme of immigration of Lord Lovat, chairman of overseas settlement board, but alternative suggestions are under discussion, stated the secretary for the dominions, Hon. Amery, in reply to the questions in the house of commons yesterday.

TOD MORGAN BEAT INDIAN

Successfully Defended His Junior Lightweight Title at San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. Dec. 4.—Tod Morgan, Seattle, successfully defended his junior lightweight title for the fourth time this year when he fought to a draw Santiago Zorilla, a San Blas Indian in a ten round bout. The champions long left and clever boxing stood him in good stead against the whirlwind rushes of the challenger.

SPORT CHAT

Now that the Native Sons of Canada have won a game over Port Simpson which thus sustained its first defeat of the season, it would be quite in order for the Players' Club to take Kincolth into camp in tonight's Senior basketball fixture and thus even up the standing in this division. Maybe, the natives are not so impregnable as it was at first believed. Interesting Intermediate games are also looked for tonight. If the Eagles can win from the Naval Reserve there will be a group of teams in third place behind the High School and Big Four. Supporters of Toc H. are boosting for that aggregation to inflict the first defeat of the season upon the High School.

The left hook of Ray Miller of Chicago proved too much for Jimmy McLarnin, the pride of Vancouver, in Detroit last Friday night and the B. C. boy has suffered a severe setback in what up to that fatal night gave promise of being a very bright career in the ring. This, however, may not be the end of the young Irishman although it has come as the culmination of long knock-out reign. Jimmy is altogether too good a boy to be completely floored by anything like that. His powerful right, which has stopped

Around The World With Sport Fans

Alberta has asked for the Canadian track and field championships next year, and without any serious opposition from any of the other provinces, says Reg Hammond in the Edmonton Bulletin. It is quite likely that the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union at the forthcoming annual meeting at Port Arthur, will grant the request. A move is now on foot to stage the games at Banff on the assurance by the Canadian Pacific Railway that a proper track will be installed there.

If this request is granted the Alberta Union, it will prove a big boost for amateur athletics in this province, and should be one of the greatest athletic drawing cards the west has ever had.

The fastest sprinters, longest and highest jumpers and crack weight throwers of Canada, will be in attendance at these games, and fans will be given a real treat in all branches of track and field athletics.

Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen confirms the statement made by her father some days ago to the effect that she will play no more tennis unless it be in private and for the recreation it affords. She realizes that at the age of 29 years, and with amateur sport barred to her for three years more under the ruling of the French Tennis Federation, she has nothing to gain by re-entering the sport. Mlle. Lenglen thinks she might suffer defeat by younger players, and with the gradual decline of the years rank as a second-rater upon her retirement. The French girl has been playing tournament tennis since the age of 11 years, when she won a children's title at Chantilly. Perhaps her greatest match was that in which she defeated Helen Wills at Cannes, 6-3, 8-6.

BROKE HEARTS OF ESKIMOS

Percy Jackson of the Vancouver Lions, Aided by Team Mates Scored Twice

VANCOUVER, Dec. 4.—Percy Jackson, star goalie of the Vancouver Lions, aided by a fighting band of team mates, broke the hearts of the Seattle Eskimos in last night's Coast Hockey League fixture and emerged on top by a two to nil score. It was the fastest exhibition of hockey here this season and it was also Seattle's first defeat.

For two periods the game was scoreless, but in less than five minutes of the final session the Lions scored twice and then settled back on defense and defied all efforts of the igloo dwellers to score.

Grand Terminals Hold Lead in First Division by Narrow Margin Over Grotto

As a result of the Grand Terminals' heavy loss to the Canadian Legion in the fixture for the week before last which was only completed this week, first division billiard teams are now bunched close together. The Terminals still hold the lead by the scant margin of one point over the Grotto, which is, in turn, but eight points ahead of the Canadian Legion.

THINGS MOVING ALONG QUIETLY AT ELEVATOR

No Boats Loading and Grain Not Coming Overly Fast These Days

With no ships loading and cars moving easily in, the elevator is not so busy just now and the employees are taking a half holiday this afternoon. During the past twenty-four hours, 23 carloads of grain arrived from the prairies.

Today there are about 300 cars west of Jasper and 150 cars east-bound here. Elevator offices had no advice this morning as to what the fourth ship of the season would be and when it might be expected.

IS CANADIAN CONSTITUTION OUTWORN?

Only a few days ago the Minimum Wage Act was practically declared unconstitutional. Other British Columbia bills too numerous to mention have suffered a similar fate. Dealing with this question the Winnipeg Free Press in an editorial article says:

"Common sense dictates that a nation that bases itself on democracy must have a workable constitution. This is one of the fundamentals of a people who hope to develop and expand in unity and harmony. Canadians are such a people.

"Articles have recently appeared on this page which make it quite clear that the present Canadian constitution, which centres in the British North America Act, is not working smoothly. Drawn up over sixty years ago to provide for a new state in which the authority of government was to be divided between a federal government and a number of provincial governments, the British North America Act in many of its phases is now out of date. New conditions have arisen, largely on account of man's new mastery over the forces of nature, that are making Canada's written constitution obsolete or unworkable in many of its most important aspects. The result is that appeals are continually being made to the courts in an effort to find out what was in the minds of the Fathers of Confederation when they framed the act that created the Canadian Confederation sixty years ago. In many cases it has been shown that it is impossible to ascertain what the framers of the act had in mind, because they had no cognizance of conditions that have come into being. The Fathers of Confederation had no conception of water-power as applied today in terms of electrical energy, they knew nothing about aviation, they had nothing to guide them as to the development of modern business, of the magnitude of the grain trade that was to be developed in Canada, of a score of other important phases of national and commercial life that exist today, but which were hardly dreamed of in 1867. In view of these facts it is not at all surprising that the British North America Act is working today in a manner that is leading from one complication to another.

"The main trouble emerges from the lack of definite authority as to the jurisdiction and powers of the federal government as compared with those of the provincial governments. It has been necessary to go to the courts to find out who owns the water-powers on navigable rivers, it has been necessary to go to the courts to find out who controls the air, it has been necessary to go to the courts to find out if British Columbia has a right to pass an act about the marketing of fruit, it has been necessary to go to the courts to find out whether the provinces have any control over companies incorporated by Dominion charter, it has been necessary to go to the courts to find out where the authority rests with respect to the grain trade, the insurance field, the question of taxation, and a score of other matters. New problems growing out of the conflict of authority between the Dominion and the provinces are emerging almost every week. Millions of dollars have been spent in legal fees in attempts to get at the meaning of the British North America Act. The majority of these cases have had nothing to do with race, religion or minority rights. They have had to do with the business and commerce of the country. The millions of dollars spent in litigation over the British North America Act have come out of the pockets of the Canadian people. They have to foot the bills. Signs are appearing in the offing that the day may be approaching when the people will demand a Canadian constitution that will work at less cost than the present one. The approach of this day will be hastened when the people realize that the idea that the constitution is sacred and inviolate is mere fetish. Constitutions are supposed to exist for the benefit and welfare of a people and not for their enthrallment."

News of the Mines

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT
 Woodbine Development to Proceed; Important Strike on Fish Creek Mines; Much High Grade at Esperanza

Directors and shareholders of the Woodbine Gold Mining Co. Ltd., have decided to proceed along the development lines planned by H. L. Batten, consulting engineer, who recently reported fully on the property. There is a strong possibility, Mr. Batten reported, that an excellent ore body may be revealed in the near future on the property, but he was not in a position to state positively the nature of the ores nor to state, without further work, what ultimate results would be.

Directors felt that development along the lines of the $50,000 program outlined by Mr. Batten was fully justified and would adhere to the original plans. It is hoped that it may yet be proved to be a good commercial property. A vote of confidence was passed in the directorate.

A strike of marked importance was made recently on the Fish Creek group of the Atlantic Mines Ltd. when the fine vein of high-grade ore located last year was encountered in the new tunnel in which work has been in progress since last spring. According to Thomas Robertson, mine superintendent, the vein was encountered at a depth of 275 feet below the point where it was located in the upper tunnel and about 175 feet from the portal of the new cross-cut. The point of contact with the vein was within five feet of where it was expected to be. The tunnel shows a full face of ore with a high-grade vein along the wall close to two feet wide and identical with the high-grade found last fall in a winze in the upper tunnel from which a test smelter shipment gave returns close to $100 per ton. The remainder of the vein matter, the full width of which has not yet been determined, shows considerable mineralization in the shape of stringers and blens of galena and is apparently of milling grade.

Eight men will be employed throughout the coming winter on the Esperanza mine at Alice Arm. Development work is now being carried on in three tunnels and no ore will be shipped this winter, but work will be concentrated, instead, in blocking out ore for spring shipments. Of the seven tunnels on the property, high-grade ore is now showing in five, and it is expected that ore will also be located in the remaining two within a short time. A new tunnel, started some time ago to strike the ore at lower depth, has been driven a distance of 93 feet and two high-grade stringers have been cross-cut, although the main vein has not yet been encountered. There is at present more high-grade developed at the mine than at any other time in its history. With the completion of the winter's work, there should be a large tonnage of high-grade ready for shipment.

STATES USES MUCH SNUFF

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Tobacco experts at the department of agriculture are trying to figure out what becomes of the snuff manufactured in this country.

They find it hard to credit their own estimates that 10 per cent of the American people sniff or chew about four pounds of the pungent powder each year.

Since 1850, when a little less than 4,000,000 pounds was manufactured, production of snuff has mounted steadily. For the year ending June 30, the production was 41,451,577 pounds, and the department's records show that exports are negligible.

LARGEST BUILDING IN THE WORLD TO HOUSE NEW ZEPPELIN

AKRON, Ohio, Dec. 4. — The largest building in the world without structural supports must be built before the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation can proceed with construction work on the two giant navy dirigibles for which contracts have been awarded.

While the new navy dirigibles will be 785 feet long, 15 feet longer than the Graf Zeppelin, Germany's air Leviathan, the hangar in which they will be constructed must be 1200 feet long, 360 feet wide, 200 feet high, and be free of pillars or other structural supports.

Goodyear officials have selected the site of the hangar in Akron. Five years are expected to be required in the construction of the first of the two ships provided in the $8,000,000 contract awarded to the Goodyear-Zeppelin Company. A minimum of 600 men will be employed in the construction of the huge ships, with the possibility that many more will be used to speed the work.

NEW HYMNAL FOR UNITED CHURCH IS BEING PREPARED

TORONTO, Dec. 4.—The United Church Ministerial Association recently considered copies of the proposed United Church Hymnal, comprising selections from the present Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational hymnals. Of the 645 hymns, more than 200 have been in use in the three existing hymnals. Selections from the Presbyterian book number 120, Methodist 344, and Congregational 334. Fifty-two Psalms have been added. The various Presbyteries will be asked to approve the book, which, it is understood, will finally contain 606 hymns. Such favorites as "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds," "Come Ye Disconsolate," and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus," are not included in the new book.

AIRPORTS ARE BEING MADE

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 4.—Rushing work on their airports to obtain a high ranking when the department of commerce makes its first rating survey early in 1929, 118 widely scattered cities in the United States have dedicated municipal landing fields since January 1.

Many of the larger cities with airports already established are adding to their equipment and putting their fields into condition to meet the requirements laid down by the department of commerce for an "A I A" rating, which will designate the nation's best airports.

Marked increases in the number of commercial, army, navy and marine fields during the last three months have raised the total number of airports from 1047 on January 1 to 1387 on October 10. Eight hundred ninety additional airports have been proposed and work on many of them already is under way.

RADIO EYES FOR AIRMEN

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 4.—The most extensive use of radio "eyes" for the airman flying in fog or darkness has just been inaugurated.

Affording instantaneous communication between pilots, radio stations, landing fields and the weather bureau, experimental operation of a new system of weather service has been started between New York and Chicago on the transcontinental airway.

The control centre of the system is located at Cleveland, the weather bureau, the Air Transport Company and the airways division of the Department managing the operation of the service from here. By means of an automatic telegraph typewriter system, a message written on a typewriter at any point in the circuit between Newark, N.J., and Cleveland is transmitted instantaneously and written on a tape at all other points in the circuit. The operators at the Department of Commerce radio stations along the airway broadcast the messages by radio telephone to the pilots.

The service includes regular weather reports gathered throughout the United States each morning and evening, a secondary set of weather reports gathered at intervals of three hours from critical points in the vicinity of the airway and hourly reports of weather and landing field conditions from intermediate landing fields located 50 miles apart along the airway.

Local Fan Tells Why He Likes the Radio and What It Does For Him

"Why should I buy a radio receiving set?" inquired a listener who happened to be disappointed at not being able to tune in any day at any time of day and tap the world's best music. After full inquiry he found there were days when he could get little or no reception.

A radio fan, who was standing by, replied: "I have a radio set and I get more enjoyment out of it than of anything else in this world except my wife and family. While it's true I can't get through every evening, it is also true that I can usually get something worth while. This week I got splendid results, tuning in to any station of reasonable power on the Pacific coast, and also getting many of the distant stations at intervals."

"Why do I use a radio?" the fan continued. "I use it because it brings me in touch with the outside world and keeps me from getting rusty. I have the power to select what I want, and all my family think more of the radio than of anything else we have in the house."

Man in the Moon

When Adam in bliss,
Asked Eve for a kiss,
She puckered her lips, with a coo;

You may have heard about the woman who when asked said she was not a friend of the groom, she was the bride's mother.

She—Did I ever show you the place where I hurt my hip?
He—N-no.
She—All right, we'll drive over there.

The loose leaf system is very ancient. They say it was used in the Garden of Eden.

What is wrong with all the candidates for office this year? It's about time we heard from some of the perennials.

There's a rumor to the effect that Lloyd George sat on his false teeth and bit himself:

There was an old man from Creecieth,
Who sat on his set of false teeth.
He jumped up with a start,
And said, "Bless my heart,
I have bitten myself from beneath."

Talking of civic elections, I have a notion of putting up myself one of these days and then the old town'll see some fun.

Just pause and shed a tear
For Joshua Neglected,
Who was a candidate every year,
But never elected.

'BEN-HUR' CELEBRATES A BRILLIANT PREMIERE

CAPACITY. AUDIENCE THRILLS AT CHARIOT RACE AND SEA BATTLE

Probably the most distinguished audience that ever looked at an exemplar of the newer art in this city saw 'Ben-Hur' at the Capitol Theatre at last night's premiere. The audience certainly agreed with the dictum of A. L. Erlanger (the veteran showman, whose efforts realized the Lew Wallace classic on stage and screen), that Ramon Novarro in the title part is the finest of all the Ben-Hurs, and Francis X. Bushman a most handsome and baleful Messala.

With Novarro and Bushman, May McAvoy and Carmel Myers shared the honors of the love story, while Claire McDowell sounded depths of tenderness as the widowed Princess of Hur. The opening pictures of the nativity elicit gasps of awe and admiration, so reverently and yet in such lovely scenes did the Star of Bethlehem, the visit of the Wise Men, and the adoration of the Shepherds, come upon the spectator. Here Betty Bronson revealed herself as a Madonna rivaling a masterpiece of Raphael or Rubens.

The chariot race stirred wild applause and vocal bravos, yet the grand sea fight earlier in the story was little inferior in its dramatic power and ability to thrill. The final scene of the healing of the mother and sister of Hur by the passing Saviour was as reverently and beautifully handled as in the stage play.

The great picture took three years work in Italy and California at an expense estimated at $4,000,000, and certainly reflects glory on the wonderfully skilled Fred Niblo, who directed it.

NO DECISION ON POWER TENDERS

City Council Has Lengthy Discussion and Will Meet Again on Saturday

The city council met in committee last night to discuss the tenders for the municipal hydro-electric plant and a twenty-five year franchise. There was a lengthy discussion, but no decision was reached and another meeting is to be held on the same subject on Saturday afternoon.

It is the intention to have a recommendation on the subject for next Monday night's regular council meeting.

WRONG MAN SERVED IN MONTREAL JAIL

Quebec Man Substituted Deliberately For Another, Receiving Money Reward

MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—'Bon jour, Lucien,' said a prisoner in the jail here to an acquaintance who was serving a month for a breach of the Quebec liquor law. The salutation was so hearty that it attracted the attention of the guards, especially as the 'Lucien' thus hailed in a friendly manner was not known to the jail authorities as Lucien at all, but as 'Edmond Perusse.' The guards at once became suspicious and an investigation was begun which led to the discovery that the prisoner in question was Lucien Desromier and that he was serving the month as a paid substitute for Edmond Perusse.

Under the name of Perusse the substitute had been convicted of selling gin and whiskey illegally and had been duly lodged in the provincial jail at Bordeaux, where he had put in part of the term when his old acquaintance gave the clue to his identity.

The real Perusse was brought before Judge Enright, charged with 'frustrating and defeating the ends of justice' and reluctantly admitted he was Edmond Perusse. He pleaded not guilty but on being remanded for preliminary hearing changed his plea and said he was ready to take his punishment. This did not let out Desromier, however, who was charged similarly. Both friends thus found themselves in a bad fix.

BIG HIT AT WESTHOLME

Carefully selected, with a view to providing something to suit all tastes, the big double bill at the Westholme last night proved itself to be another popular success and was greatly enjoyed by a full house. There was romance, comedy, melodrama and thrills aplenty. Tom Mix, in a slashing western, was A. L. and Gustav Seyffertitz played the leading role in 'The Red Mark,' a powerful gripping story of a penal settlement, to perfection. Chapter 5 of 'Racing Blood,' the popular serial, was first-class and the Van Bibber comedy 'The Kiss Doctor,' chock full of laughs, pretty girls and costumes. An up-to-date news reel contained all the latest views.

The program will be shown again tonight and visitors are assured of a good evening's entertainment.

JOHNNY'S CHOICE
"Now, Johnny," said the Sunday school teacher after the lesson had been read, "which would you rather be, the wheat or the tares?"
"The tares," answered Johnny promptly.
"Why," said the teacher, in surprise, "how can you say that, when you know the wheat represents good and the tares the bad?"

"Oh, that's all right," replied the precocious youngster, "but the wheat gets thrashed and the tares don't."—Los Angeles Times.
