ITALIA CREW TRYING TO MAKE LAND

PREMIER MACLEAN ARRIVED YESTERDAY NORTHBOUND

Two Members of Dirigible Italia Injured When Airship Came Down on Ice and Now Drifting About

General Nobile and seven others thrown to the ice when gondola snapped from its beam. Situation critical

KING'S BAY, June 11.—Bearing two of their number who were injured when the Italia came down on the ice of the Arctic Ocean, the crew of the dirigible is making a perilous progress toward land. The eighteen men have been divided into two parties to open water leads among the ice floes, making progress slow and dangerous. At times the men are borne out of their course as the wind and sea currents drift the floes south or east. When the drift is toward the west there is that much more gain for the refugees.

Boats to get the refugees from their predicament constitute the need of the moment. The crew is provisioned for six weeks. This was revealed in radio conversation. Speed is urged.

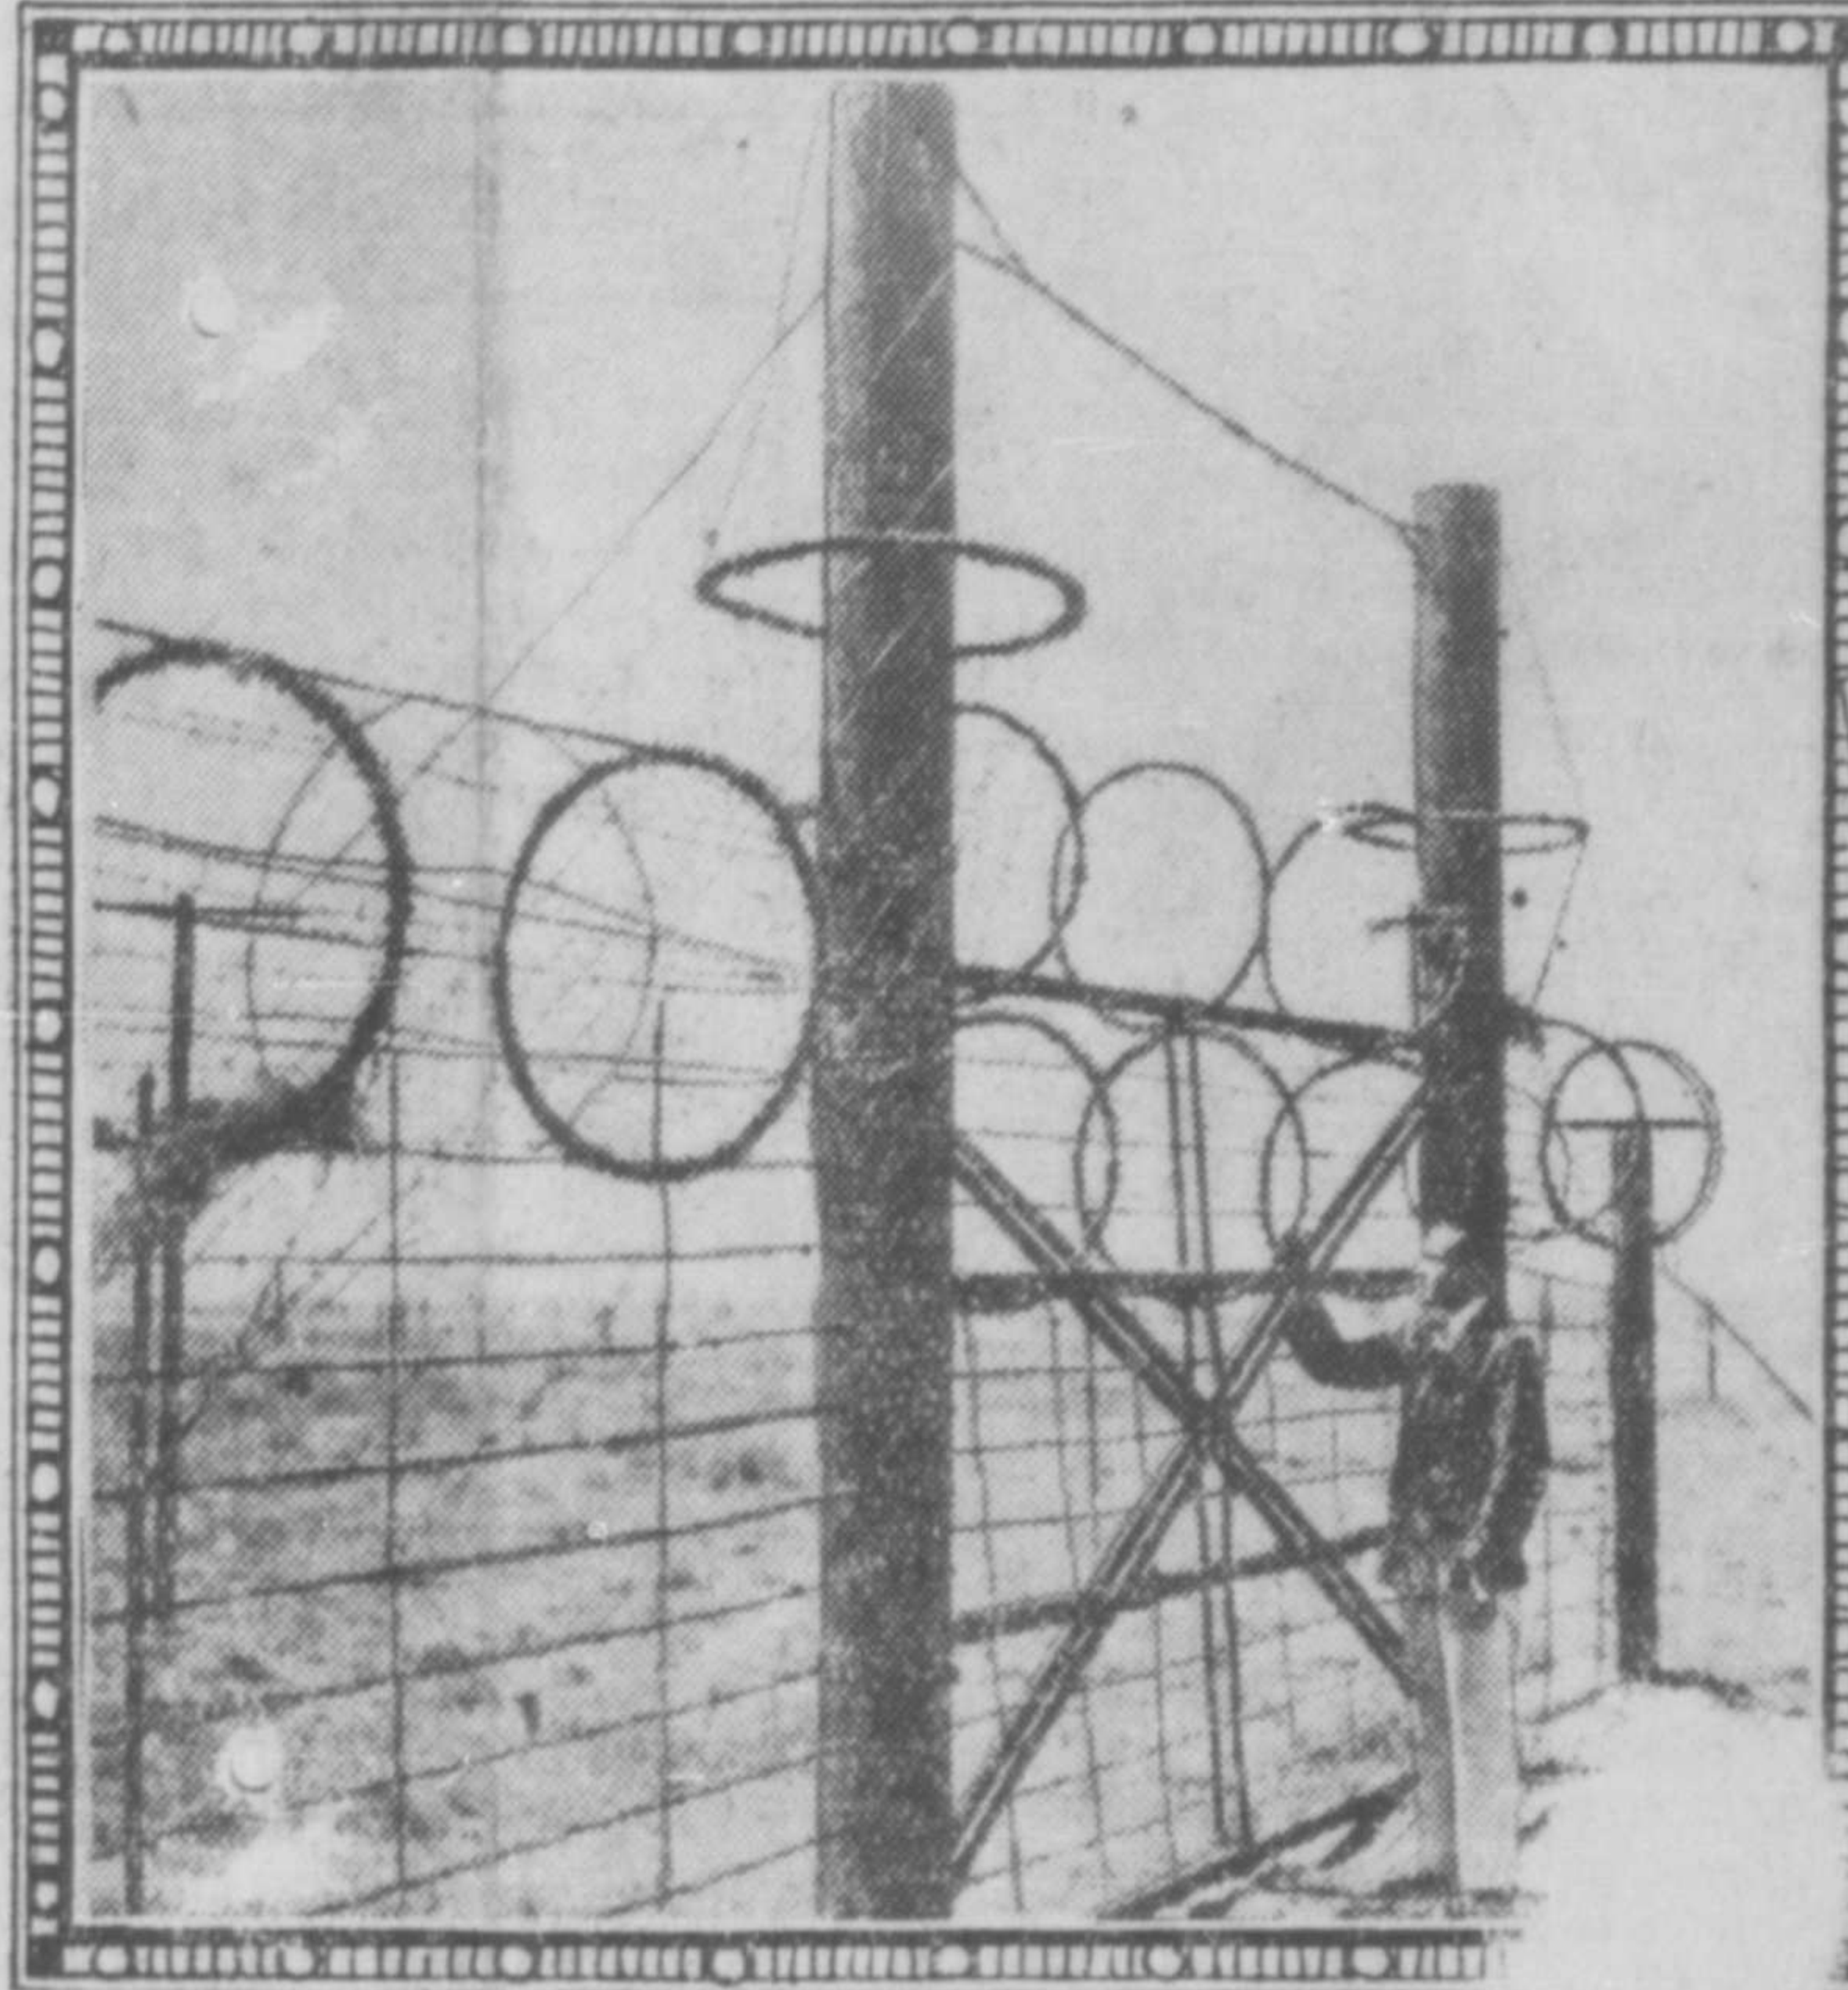

LONDON, June 11.—A Rome despatch says two members of the crew of the Italia were injured when the gondola snapped from its beam. General Nobile and seven others were thrown to the ice. Others were inside the bag or in the engine cabin at the time. Both groups are apparently not far from Northeast Land. One party has radio communication. The other party has no means of communication and sometimes drifts out of sight of the other and it is feared their situation is critical.

Premier MacLean Says Government Will Secure Substantial Majority

Arrived Yesterday Aboard Catala and Drove Out on New Highway Last Evening: Is Modest Man

THE Canadian National steamship dock was crowded Sunday evening with people out to greet Premier J. D. MacLean on his arrival here on the steamer Catala, making his first visit to the north since his elevation to the premiership. On being asked what the crowd was there for he seemed surprised and explained that he did not see why as he was only an ordinary citizen trying to do the country's business in the best way he knew how. However, he said he was glad to meet them all.

Dr. MacLean was taken in hand by members of the local Liberal association headed by William Brown, the president, and was taken for a drive around the city and a few miles out on the new Skeena River highway which now extends across Kassen Island to Galloway Rapids. He then met a number of people at the dock and sailed for Alice Arm where he will be met by H. F. Kergin, the Liberal candidate in Atlin and will address meetings at Alice Arm, Anxox and Stewart, returning here for the nominating convention Wednesday and the public meeting that evening and then proceeding to the interior.

The Premier expressed himself as very confident that the Government would be returned by a substantial majority.

Accompanied by members of his family Joseph Sankey, recently acquitted of a charge of murdering Miss Loretta Chisholm at Port Essington, returned yesterday aboard the steamer Catala. When the steamer arrived in port Sankey went down to dinner and continued aboard the boat to Port Simpson. He was thinner than when he left but otherwise appeared quite normal.

CHAOS REIGNS CHINA TODAY

ARMY OFFICER FROM THERE TELLS OF CONDITIONS WHICH PREVAIL IN COUNTRY

VICTORIA, June 11.—According to Captain G. L. Coleridge of the British Navy, who has just recently arrived from China, an iron hand is necessary in order to bring China back and secure unity. Most of the people in that country are uneducated and they speak a number of different languages. Since 1912 there have been eight presidents and 42 cabinets.

There is very little patriotism in that country, according to the Captain. Trade was ruined and industry was badly injured as a result of internal dissension. He told of what happened to Hankow when Britain renounced her concession there. The famous bund now reeked with filth, banks were closed and credit was gone.

Captain Coleridge prophesied the coming of a strong ruler who would bring the country back to a better situation.

CANNERY SAVED, ALASKAN FIRE

NATIVES HOUSED TEMPORARILY AND FOOD SUPPLIES BEING RUSHED TO THEM

JUNEAU, June 11.—With virtually the entire native settlement of Killisnoo wiped out by fire, most of the town of 225 inhabitants is being cared for at Warm Spring Cannery.

The blaze which started Friday from a bonfire was brought under control Saturday after 30 houses were destroyed.

After a hard battle a water bucket brigade saved the cannery and enough food for two days was saved from the store. Emergency supplies have been rushed from here.

Four other persons were rescued by Indians in their canoes. The craft was a rowboat with outboard motor and it was swamped by a heavy swell.

BRIDGE ACROSS RIVER AND TRAIL TO MARMOT IS ASKED BY STEWART

Board of Trade Will Lay Matter Before Premier MacLean and H. F. Kergin

STEWART, June 11.—A foot bridge across the mouth of Bear River and a trail down the east side of the canal to the Marmot River, which would give Stewart access not only to the mining operations on the mountain traversed by the trail, such as the Silverado, Silverbell and Red Reef properties, but also the town that is coming into being as a result of the Premier operations at the mouth of the Marmot River, was possibly the most interesting bit of business discussed at the well attended board of trade meeting on Tuesday evening.

A committee consisting of W. R. Toth, Dr. Whillans, H. P. Gibson, P. S. Jack, and the president, H. W. M. Rolston, was designated for the purpose of getting into touch with Public Works Engineer Talbot for the purpose of investigating the situation, with a view to preparing an estimate of cost in order to enable the project to be submitted to Premier MacLean and H. F. Kergin at the time of their arrival in Stewart next Tuesday.

ONE MAN LOST ON GENERAL NOBILE'S PARTY

The booklet, "British Columbia's Progress" sent out last week to persons on the voters' list, "contains nothing but political propaganda of the most pronounced type," Mr. Lyons said.

Hon. Ian Mackenzie Nominated Amid Great Enthusiasm at North Vancouver Convention Saturday

Gives Pledge That if P.G.E. is not Sold it Will be Completed From North Vancouver to Prince George

NORTH VANCOUVER, June 11.—Hon. Ian Mackenzie, provincial secretary in the MacLean government, pledged the government to complete the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to North Vancouver and also to Prince George in the event of the present negotiations for sale not being concluded, at the Liberal convention Saturday night, which nominated him for the riding. He gave a further pledge that if the promise was not carried out he would no longer be a member of the government.

Mr. MacKenzie said: "I am here as a guarantee that the government is sincere in its promise and pledge to complete the P.G.E. There has been some criticism that the Premier did not go far enough in his manifesto in regard to railways but I would remind you that negotiations in such matters are delicate. Speaking with authority of my leader I am here to tell you that if through unforeseen circumstances negotiations for the road should not be concluded, then after a reasonable lapse of time, not more than a few months, tenders will be called for the completion of the road from North Vancouver to Prince George.

"I give you this pledge tonight that if the government should not arrange for the sale of the railway and should not proceed to complete it within a reasonable time after negotiations lapse I shall no longer be a member of the government." The declaration was received with tremendous applause and minutes elapsed before the chairman could make himself heard.

DAILY EDITION Monday, June 11, 1928

HEAR PREMIER MACLEAN

All who can possibly do so should hear Premier MacLean this week, the first time he has spoken here since being appointed to the highest office in the province. He is not an orator but a pleasant talker and one who is apt to say exactly what he means. The difficulty will be to find accommodation for the crowd who are likely to wish to hear him.

With Dr. MacLean on the platform will probably be Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, who, if he is chosen as candidate here, will make his first appearance after his nomination.

It is altogether probable that the Premier will have something important to say to the people of this district which will have a strong bearing on the future development of the north country.

THE PREMIER'S VISIT

What struck most people forcibly yesterday about Premier MacLean on his visit here was his characteristic modesty. He is British Columbia's first citizen and in appearance and bearing he is certainly an outstanding man but he shows no sign of trying to show people that he realizes that he holds such a high office. He is a modest man, ready to meet every person as an equal. Yesterday he greeted the representatives of labor with just as much heartiness and evident pleasure as when speaking to those who represent the business section of the community. We take it that he is the kind of man British Columbia wants. He is very different from the late John Oliver. He has all the poise of a man who feels confident of his position. After meeting him Sunday many people are looking forward to hearing him speak here on Wednesday evening.

SPLENDID PROGRESS

The Edmonton Bulletin under the general management of Charles Campbell, formerly owner of the Vancouver World, has at last got into its stride and after languishing for years is an excellent newspaper. It has just issued an eighty-four page anniversary number which is a credit to the newspaper and to the city. While part of its success has been due to the growth and prosperity of Edmonton, yet the opposite is true, that the growth and prosperity of Edmonton is due very largely to the excellent service given it by its two newspapers. No city can be great without a good newspaper.

POLICED BY THE MOUNTIES

The provincial police of Saskatchewan are no more, the work done by them hitherto having been passed over to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police under arrangement between the Provincial and Dominion authorities.

There have been movements at various times with a view to having the Mounties disbanded or at any rate their scope curtailed. The recent move is in the opposite direction, their scope and work being extended. It is a tribute to the work they are doing that they are being given more to do. It is the reward most people get for faithful service.

CROP REPORT IS GOOD ONE

PROSPECTS ARE VERY BRIGHT FOR PRESENT SEASON AS RESULT OF RAINS

WINNIPEG, June 11.—Rain was general over western Canada all last week and as a result crop prospects are brighter than they have been for years. Areas which did not benefit from the heavy rains ten days ago were visited by showers during the past week and generally speaking there is now sufficient moisture in the ground to last from ten days to two weeks, according to the sixth weekly crop report of the Canadian National Railways.

Only two points report lack of moisture. One of these is Meacham, Sask., where there has been little rain all this spring and the other is from Taplow to Wardlaw, Alta., where further rains would benefit. Central and northern Alberta which produced excellent crops last year are again looking forward to a banner season. These areas together with Manitoba enjoyed ideal conditions and reserve of moisture calculated to carry the crops through for at least three weeks in the ground.

While a number of points in southern Saskatchewan and southern Manitoba report some trouble with wild oats and thistles, nowhere has any real damage been done to the growing grain. Wheat ranges from seven to ten inches above ground, is strongly rooted and vigorous.

With the exception of the area from Regina to central Butte, where it was winter killed and has been resown to oats, fall rye is thriving vigorously. Between Brandon and Kiplin, fall rye is heading out. Outworn and light frost are reported at several points but have caused no damage and the general feeling is that conditions at the moment point to one of the greatest crops on record.

In order to clear up all doubt about the matter, I wish to announce that I shall be a candidate at the forthcoming election in support of myself and what I can get out of it. I hereby solicit the vote and influence of all who are otherwise unattached.

Principles of Chiropractic

THE EFFECT OF PRESSURE UPON A NERVE

The effect of pressure to lessen the conduction power of nerves is one which every one may demonstrate upon himself. For example, if pressure be brought to bear on the ulnar nerve, where it crosses the elbow, the region supplied by that nerve becomes numb, "goes to sleep," as it were.

In like manner, mechanical applications to nerves first increase and later destroy their irritability. Thus pressure gradually applied first increases and later reduces the power to respond to irritants.

As stated last week, sufficient pressure may be applied to a nerve to destroy its irritability and conductivity without injuring the nerve itself structurally. Such pressure is exercised upon the nerves passing through the intervertebral openings by the misplaced margins of the foramen when a vertebrae is subluxated. The pressure does not crush or otherwise injure the nerve, but is sufficient to block the impulses which pass along that nerve. As a result, the organs which are deprived of these impulses undergo functional or organic aberrations, and disease results in the part supplied. The nature of the disease depends upon other contributing factors which may be present at the time of the subluxation, or may appear later. In any event the subluxation, by promoting conditions in the organ which make disease possible in that organ, are the primary cause of that disease.

For example, a subluxation is produced in the lower dorsal or upper lumbar region of the vertebral column; no untoward effects may follow at once. But years later, perhaps, the individual develops typhoid fever. The reason that this occurs is simply that the intestines which are the atrium of infection in this disease are in such a state of diminished resistance that they form a favorable culture-medium for the multiplication of the typhoid bacilli and the elaboration of their toxins. It is for this reason that the fever subsides so rapidly when these subluxations are corrected—because the elaboration of the toxins, which are cause of the fever, is arrested, favorable conditions for the activity of the bacilli having been eliminated.

Report of Minister of Mines Shows Considerable Progress in One of the Basic Industries

VICTORIA, June 11.—The report just issued by the Minister of Mines shows that quantity increases were made during 1927 by lead, zinc and coal, while gold, silver and copper decreased. Coal was the only item to show an increase in value. This improved showing made by coal is considered satisfactory especially in view of the strong competition from fuel oil which last year sold at a lower price than ever before.

The total mineral production of British Columbia since the inception of the mining industry in 1852 is valued at $1,048,837,828, of which amount more than fifty per cent, or to be exact $532,667,876, is accounted for in the past twelve years. The aggregate production for all years up to and including 1927, was as follows:

Gold, placer	$ 78,174,795
Gold, lode	130,651,919
Silver	86,689,046
Copper	221,492,079
Lead	121,850,734
Zinc	59,508,692
Coal and Coke	296,968,268
Structural materials	51,115,811
Miscellaneous	2,368,494
Total	$1,048,837,828

British Columbia is leading the other provinces of Canada in the production of silver, lead, zinc and copper. Due to the steady expansion of the famous Sullivan mine of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Canada, Limited, at Kimberley, lead has easily maintained first place in value of mineral products produced in the province in the last four years, the output now being about ten per cent of world production.

In 1926 copper reached second place with a value of nearly $700,000 greater than coal, but last year coal resumed second place with an output valued at $12,269,135 compared with $11,525,011 for copper.

DECLINE IN PRICE
The decline in the price of silver, Hon. Dr. Sutherland's report states, had some effect in retarding production in the Slokan district wherein many of

STEAMERS ON SUMMER RUNS

C.N.S.S. WILL GIVE THREE SAILINGS A WEEK BETWEEN HERE AND VANCOUVER STARTING MONDAY

The summer schedule of Canadian National Coast Steamships will be effective on Monday as far as Prince Rupert is concerned. The service calls for three boats a week between here and Vancouver with the Prince John sailing north and south direct once every two weeks.

Steamer Prince Charles, Capt. Neil McLean, will arrive from Vancouver on Monday mornings at 10:30, sail at 4 p.m. that day for Anyox, Stewart and Massett Inlet ports, returning here at 10:30 Thursday morning and sailing for Vancouver at 4 p.m. the same day. Steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. D. Donald, or Prince George, Capt. Harry Neden, will arrive at 10:30 Wednesday morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and sail at 4 p.m. for Ketchikan, Juneau, Skagway and Wrangell, returning here at 10:30 a.m. Mondays and sailing for Ocean Falls, Powell River and Vancouver at 4 p.m.

The Prince George or Prince Rupert will arrive at 10:30 a.m. Fridays from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and sail at 4 p.m. for Stewart and Anyox, returning here at 5 p.m. Saturdays and sailing at 6 p.m. for Ocean Falls and Powell River.

There will be a deviation from this schedule this week when the Prince Rupert, arriving from the south Friday morning, instead of going through to Stewart and Anyox, turns back that afternoon at 4 to take the New England delegation south to the International Kiwanis Club convention at Seattle, getting back to regular schedule the next week.

The Prince John, Capt. E. Mabbs, will serve between here and Vancouver via the south Queen Charlotte Islands on a fortnightly basis.

The motorship Hurryon, chartered by the C.N.S.S. and with Capt. Dan McKinnon in command, will perform a general freight service for the company in the coast this summer.

ARTICLE ON PRINCE RUPERT AT BOSTON

An article in a recent number of the Christian Science Monitor of Boston by J. C. Brady tells of the industries and attractions of Prince Rupert and the country around with two illustrations of fishing scenes. It is given a good display and is a good advertisement of the city as well as of the scenic attractions of the whole north country.

"LOVE" COMING AT WEEK-END

PICTURE IS FILM VERSION OF TOLSTOY'S FAMOUS "ANNA KARENINA"

John Gilbert and Greta Garbo, who as a team scored one of the sensational successes of the year in "Flesh and the Devil," and whose real-life romance immediately following furnished gossip for film fans the world over, appear again before the camera, for the first time since, in "Love," the spectacular filmization of "Anna Karenina," Tolstoy's classic of Russia, which comes at the week-end.

The new picture, one of the most gorgeous and spectacular film romances of the season, presents both in roles that perhaps fit them better than any other that could be imagined, Gilbert, splendidly unfulfilled, as seen as the debonair and romantic Count Vronsky, a role that recalls his great hit in "The Merry Widow," with Miss Garbo in the role of the tragic Anna, who sacrifices all for love, only to be tormented by a strange and sinister doom.

RICHARD DIX STARS IN "SPORTING GOODS"

In "Sporting Goods" Richard Dix Keeps the Audience in Almost Continuous Laughter. For this picture is funny. There are funny situations and funny situations, and funny "gags" all per-

RINTY'S BEST SHOW SAY PICTURE FANS

Rin-Tin-Tin never disappoints his audience. He is always there with the zest, the intelligence and the vigor which sends the crowd into roars of approval. In "Rinty of the Desert" here tomorrow, he is shown as an out-cast dog, who gets himself adopted by old man Marlowe and his granddaughter Mary, keepers of a dime museum. On his own, Rinty adopts a family of pups, and all goes well until an enemy of Marlowe lures him away from home. Pat Casey of the police, Mary's beau, goes in search of the lost showman, with "Rinty." The two are captured! A ferocious dog attacks Casey! Rinty is blamed and sentenced to be shot! These are but a few of the thrilling adventures which make up "Rinty of the Desert!"

CORINNE GRIFFITH WEARS ROYAL ROBES AGAIN IN NEW FILM

Corinne Griffith, popularly acclaimed as the screen's most beautiful actress, appears again in the dazzling raiment of European court life in "The Lady in Ermine" which will be featured here tonight. The background of the swiftly moving story is the Austrian-Italian war of 1810, against which is set a romance between a man and woman of noble birth, enmeshed in the intrigues of Napoleonic campaigns. Broadway critics declare it is destined to be one of the outstanding dramatic sensations of the star's career.
