CONSERVATIVE WINS AT VICTORIA VANCOUVER CLERGYMAN IS CONVICTED FOR ASSAULT

Illness of King Still Is Causing Anxiety to Physicians Attending

His Majesty Had a Good Night and Powers of Resistance Stand Him in Good Stead, but Infection of Lung Continues

LONDON, Dec. 7.—A bulletin issued here tonight by the King's physicians states that His Majesty has not had a restful day.

A radiological examination was carried out this afternoon, but neither this nor the exploration by needle previously carried out has disclosed any appreciable amount of pleural effusion. His general condition remains unchanged.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—King George's powers of resistance today were serving him well in his battle with a severe and persistent illness which attacked him more than a fortnight ago. His illness, however, is still causing anxiety, as it appeared obvious from today's bulletin that physicians are much concerned with with the question of how the infective process around the lung region of the King's right side was developing. It was stated on good authority that radiographs of the King were again taken this afternoon.

LOWER RATE IMMIGRANTS FROM BRITAIN

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—A $50 rate for all British migrants to Canada from the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland is agreed upon between the British Government and the steamship companies, according to a statement of Hon. Robt. Forke, minister of immigration, yesterday.

The new rate does not affect the ten dollar rate under the empire settlement scheme which continues in force. The agreement rounds off several conferences held in recent weeks in London. Effective in January the first next, the difference between $50 and the old rate of $94 is to be absorbed by the British Government and steamship lines on the agreed basis.

STOCKS TAKE BIG TUMBLE

Erratic Condition of Market at New York as Inflation Bubble Bursts

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The stock market, which was shaken to its foundations yesterday when a heavy selling movement carried more than a hundred issues down from five to twenty two dollars a share broke sharply at the opening today and then rallied early. Declines of from three to fifteen dollars a share were cut down or wiped out and by midday more than a score of issues were lifted from two to five dollars above yesterday's close.

After a short lived rally prices again collapsed a number of issues dropping from four to twenty dollars under the low prices of yesterday and several reaching low prices for the year. Radio characteristic of others declined $14, shot up $22 to $403 and then dived nearly $30.

American Railroads Say They Cannot Compete in Matter of Grain Rates with the Canadian

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The United States railroads cannot compete with the Canadian railroads in transportation of grain on the basis of the present Canadian rates from the wheat belt to the seaboard. This is the conclusion of the interstate commerce commission in a report to the senate on the propriety of rates similar to Canadian rates on grain, livestock and other agricultural products in the northwest.

The report refers to the concessions granted the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific by the Canadian government and relates facts concerning the establishment and enforcement of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement on grain rates in the western Canadian provinces. The advantage to Canadian producers in rail rate is 5.33 cents a bushel, the report says.

Rev. S. Robertson Orr is Found Guilty of Assault and Improper Conduct Connection with Divorce

Costs on Highest Scale Awarded by Court Against Clergyman and Also Fine of $100 or Two Months in Jail

VANCOUVER, Dec. 7. — Rev. S. Robertson Orr was found guilty today of an assault upon H. B. Robertson, K. C., in a judgment handed down by Magistrate Findlay in the police court today. A fine of $100, or, in default, two months in jail, was ordered. An appeal was entered.

In the supreme court costs on the highest scale were awarded against Rev. Robertson Orr, co-respondent in the divorce case in which an absolute decree was granted to John Gordon Fleck of Vancouver from Margaret Winifred Fleck. Maintenance and education of the 12-year-old daughter is entrusted to Mr. Fleck.

His Lordship told Dugald Donaghy, K. C., for Mr. Orr, that he had found that improper conduct occurred between the co-respondent and the respondent on evidence outside of Mrs. Fleck's confession.

There is no appeal from Mr. Justice Morrison's judgment unless the judicial committee of the privy council in London grants special leave to hear the case.

D. B. Plunkett Elected For City of Victoria Over Dr. MacLean

VICTORIA, Dec. 6.—D. B. Plunkett, Conservative was elected to represent Victoria for the balance of the term following the recent resignation of Dr. S. F. Tolmie, now premier of British Columbia. Unofficially, his majority over Dr. J. D. MacLean, former premier of B. C., is declared to be 85. The count last night gave Plunkett 5641, and MacLean 5556.

The election aroused more interest than did the last general election here, judging from the number of votes cast, which was greater by 350 than the total vote of 1926.

A feature of the poll was the narrow margin to which the Liberals reduced the Conservative majority as Tolmie defeated Martin in 1926 by 2,781.

After the count Dr. MacLean expressed regret that the electorate did not endorse his policy but said he felt considerable gratification to be able to reduce the majority from nearly 2800 to 85 in a constituency which had been a Conservative stronghold since 1875.

Plunkett had an enthusiastic reception at his committee rooms. The vote by polls was as follows:

1. Plunkett 631, MacLean 711.
2. Plunkett 923, MacLean 1068.
3. Plunkett 1332, MacLean 1379.
4. Plunkett 1139, MacLean 879.
5. Plunkett 1614, MacLean 1419.

Mr. Plunkett is of Irish parentage born and educated in Ontario and his early life was spent in Ontario, Ottawa and Montreal, coming to Victoria in 1910 where he opened a sheet metal works which he at present operates. He served in munition board work and in the air service during the war.

TORONTO, Dec. 7.—Saved from the noose by a scant half hour John Brewski, who was condemned to die in the early hours of this morning for the murder of Thomas Jackson, was granted by order of Mr. Justice McEvoy a stay of execution for two weeks so that new evidence may be submitted to the minister of justice. The execution was to have taken place at Parry sound. The hangman and witnesses had assembled in the jail in preparation for the hanging and the condemned man was engaged in a last talk with his spiritual adviser when the telegraphic notice of reprieve came.

AMERICANS BUY ROY WORTERS

Sale Sanctioned by President Frank Calder of National Hockey League

MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—The sale of Roy Worters by Pittsburgh to the New York Americans has been sanctioned by the president, Frank Calder, of the National Hockey League, after the board of governors upheld him in the principle that players under suspension may not be transferred from one club to another. Worters was recently signed by Pittsburgh after a holdout over salary and was then sold to the Americans. Calder at first refused to sanction the transfer. The board of governors increased Calder's term as president from one to five years as a mark of confidence.

A. R. Holtby, superintendent of the C.N.R. bridges and building department, returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train from a trip to the interior on official duties.

GURVICH WAS EASY WINNER

Knocked Out Eddie McGooty in Fourth Round of Bout Last Evening

GOOD PRELIMS.

Battling Dido Gurchich of Prince Rupert had easy pickings over Eddie McGooty of St. Paul in last night's bout at the Moose Hall, and, if he had tried very hard, could just as easily have put the big boy from Minnesota out in the first as in the fourth round. Dido allowed the visitor to lead off in the first three rounds, but McGooty was wild and spent most of his energy missing. Dido did not have much trouble getting out of his way and did the most of what little hitting was actually done. The local boy outclassed his opponent in all departments of the game. About all McGooty seemed to have was willingness and ability to get into the way. He sat down once in the second round and in the fourth his solar plexus connected with Dido's left hook, as a result of which he went to the canvas and nearly rolled out of the ring as he writhed around while the referee was counting him out. Dido did not have to extend himself very hard and it was about the softest battle he ever had.

The bout was a tame affair to say the best of it and did not go over very strong with the audience. The gallery was well-filled but there were a lot of empty ring-side seats.

Pete Laporte was referee and Roi Barnes and Kenny McQuaig were announced as judges. Announcer Joe Downey introduced Alf Harding to the crowd and announced that he challenged the winner. This, at least, gave the fans something better to look forward to. Max Heilbronner was timekeeper.

The semi-final between Ned Byrne and Dan McMillan of Kiti-maat was a better fight than the main event. Byrne did most of the hitting, though he did not faze the native. McMillan was willing to mix but did not know as much about boxing as Byrne. He failed to avail himself of openings. Had he known more about how to use his hands he would have been able to give better opposition to Byrne, who, as it was, earned a fair decision on points. The native was rocked several times but apparently it did not hurt him.

Nina Gurchich had it all over Tommy De Marco in a special event and should have been given the decision. That is not saying, however, that De Marco did not figure in the fighting. They took the lead in turn and covered up and clinched in the first two rounds. There was some fast slugging, of which Nina had the most, though he tripped and went to his knees in the second round. Nina did all the leading and fighting and De Marco devoted most of the time in the third round to covering up and was all but out when the final bell rang.

Young Batt and Kennedy put up a lively duce-spot. In the first round, Batt slugged him so hard that Kennedy was reeling from the floor to the ropes. Kennedy put on a better front in the second but hurt his hand as Batt continued to swing on him. Kennedy was game though his hand was still hurting him in the third. It was a no-decision exhibition.

Tod Morgan and Howard Keefe provided the opener. Morgan was heavier and had the best of things in the first round. Keefe was a better sparrer and made Morgan lay off him in the second. Keefe carried a punch but could not get it across effectively. This was also a three-round no-decision.

Eddie McGooty, who boxed Dido Gurchich here last night, sailed by the Prince Rupert this morning on his return south.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Royal, Capt. Albert Rippon, arrived in port at 11.30 this morning from the south and will sail at 10 o'clock tonight on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

LIONS BLANKED THE BUCKAROOS

Beat Portland on Their Own Ice in Hockey Last Night

PORTLAND, Dec. 7.—The Vancouver Lions making their first appearance of the season here last night established a local reputation when they blanked the Portland Buckaroos in a fast and hard fought Pacific Coast Hockey League game three to nothing. There was never a moment when the result was in doubt as the Lions stepped out and scored a goal in the first period, then added two more for good measure.

In the second period the Bucks started to cut loose and in the third outplayed their rivals although they failed to break into the scoring column.

SPORT CHAT

Heartened by reason of the fact that both during the past week have won over the native teams who at first seemed pretty invincible, Native Sons of Canada and Players' Club meet tonight to decide which is to become the runner-up to Port Simpson in the Senior Basketball League. As things stand at present, Kincolith, Native Sons and Players' Club are all tied for second place with two wins and three losses each. The aCnucks last Friday night gave Port Simpson its first defeat of the season and the Dramatists were victorious on Tuesday over Kincolith. That tonight's game between the two local teams will be a very keen one is assured. In the Intermediate League, the Canadian National team will seek its first win of the season from the Naval Reserve. Junior and Ladies' League matches will round off the program.

"Sunny Jim" Bottomley, St. Louis first baseman, has been adjudged the most valuable National League baseball player for 1928. He received 76 votes, six more than his only serious rival, Fred Lindstrom of the New York Giants. "Sunny Jim" will receive a diploma and $1000 in gold. Although Bottomley's bat proved to be full of holes in the last two months of the season, and during the world series, he was chosen because of his great playing in the first four months of the campaign. His ability to drive in runs in the first half of the season practically won the pennant for the Cards. Each of the eight sports writers making selections represented a National League city. Bottomley was first choice of four and second choice of the others. Lindstrom received three first choices, three seconds one third and one sixth. Harding at any time.

ALBIE DAVIES IS EMERGING

Fought Ten Slashing Rounds at Victoria and Won in His Best Style

VICTORIA, Dec. 6.—A new star shines in the pugilistic heavens of the Pacific Coast in the person of Albie Davies, youthful Victoria bantamweight. Davies' climb into prominence has been like a dream. Only a week ago he was fighting preliminary bouts on Vancouver Island, but last night at the Tillicum gymnasium, in his first main event, he gave Harvey Holliday, of Vancouver, an artistic trimming after ten slashing rounds. The Victoria flash took eight rounds; Holliday one, while one was even.

Davie fought the best fight of his career. He outboxed, outfought and outgeneraled a lad with many more hard fights under his belt. To tell the story in as few words as possible, the local battler had it over his opponent like a tent. When Holliday tried to slug he found a ready and willing opponent, and even in the infighting, where the Vancouver boxer had the slightest of an edge, Davies was willing to mix. It was not the same Davies of a few months, or even a few weeks ago, who seldom showed a willingness to mix, but in his place was a clever, shifty battler, one who proved able to take and give with no less than the crafty Mr. Holliday, of Vancouver.

MAKING PLANS FOR BASEBALL BIG LEAGUES

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Early opening of the Pacific Coast Baseball League probably will not interfere with the plans of three major league clubs to go for training. The Pacific Coast will open its 1929 season, March 26, one week earlier than in 1928, and as a result a number of exhibition games scheduled with visiting major league outfits will have to be cancelled.

The Chicago Cubs, however, will remain at Catalina Island and the Pittsburgh Pirates at Paso Robles. The western movement for spring baseball conditioning has gained a recruit in the Detroit Tigers, although the American Leagues will not continue on to California, stopping at Phoenix, Ariz.

The Tigers under George Moriarity use San Antonio as a camp and John J. McGraw with his New York Giants will pick up in Texas where Detroit leaves off.

William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Cubs, also owns the island where his club trains and he will not permit changes in the Pacific Coast schedule to cause him to move. The White Sox, the other Chicago entry, is also moving its training camp west but not far enough to be concerned over the Pacific Coast schedule. The Sox will train at Dallas, Texas, instead of Shreveport, La.

The Pirates may not be able to get in their series with the Los Angeles Club but will play San Francisco and then move on to Phoenix, Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio and Memphis.

It is understood that Detroit will play both the Cubs and Pirates as they move east and follow with games in Texas and other states of the once "Solid South."

WARNING FROM RUSSIA

(Victoria Times)
 Soviet Russia today seems to be nearer to that long-predicted smashup than at any time since Nicholas Lenin was laid to rest in chilly grandeur in the Kremlin.

Every year has brought its scare story from Russia; but this one, which tells of revolting peasants, hostile neighbors and a restless army, seems to be based on fact. Its chief details, for instance, are broadcast by the special correspondent of a New York paper that has always been scrupulously fair to the Soviet regime. The grand Communistic experiment is evidently approaching a crisis.

Probably "experiment" is not quite the word, at that. It is the word we have been using for a decade, and the Russian nation has surely lent itself to a great venture into an untried field; yet, on the whole, what has happened over there has been a great deal more than an experiment. It has been, primarily, an object lesson, a colossal, smoking warning, trailing across the eastern sky a banner of blood and fire and smoke, by which all the rest of us can profitably be guided.

Suppose, for the sake of argument, that the present stories should be correct and that the Soviet state should presently come down with a crash. Suppose that Stalin, as some predict, should seize absolute power and make himself a kind of northern Napoleon, riding the Russian people with a spur as sharp as the czar's. What then? Would it be in order for us to lean back and smile and say that we "knew all along" that this wild Communistic struggle could not possibly stand for more than a few years?

It would not. All along most of us have missed the point of the Russian revolution. We have deplored its wild excesses, shuddered at its bloodshed, piously shaken our heads at its cruelties—and have been, all the while, supremely blind to the real meaning of the whole business.

The Russian revolution has been a demonstration that ought to last the human race forever, of what repression and autocracy inevitably bring in their train. The rulers of that great country sowed the wind for centuries and as always happens, they finally had to reap the whirlwind. Many innocent people were killed and much money was wasted, but it was inevitable. As Carlyle pointed out, if people are deprived of their rights long enough they will eventually assert their rights—tragically and cruelly.

The Russian revolution was Russia's by-product of the World War. We are beginning to realize that to avoid a repetition of the war we must steer a different course from that which was charted up to 1914. We might let the Russian revolution tell us that the race must discard autocracy, repression and Bourbonism if it is to avoid another Communistic experiment on a grand scale.

News of the Mines
 AROUND PRINCE RUPERT
 Consolidated Enters New Field at Stewart; Independence May Ship Next Year; Heavy Expenditures at Khutze Inlet

A great step has been taken in broadening out the Portland Canal mineral area through the acquisition by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. from Charles Knipple and Thomas Williams of a large zone on the Naas slope north of Bowser Lake. Fifty-seven claims in all have been staked to cover the showing. The zone has an average width of 700 to 800 feet and is some four and one-half miles long. Chipped samples taken from the surface have given returns of $3.50 per ton in gold and silver, in addition to a large arsenic content. Located on the Naas slope of the divide between Twenty-Mile Creek and the Unak River, the development of this immense showing will be of much importance, demanding transportation facilities which will open up another large territory. It is understood that Consolidated next year will establish a camp and prospect the area thoroughly. It will be necessary first to extend and improve the present inadequate trail system. With satisfactory development of the Big Missouri, George Copper, as well as this new property, it is possible that such a large tonnage may be produced as to warrant the establishment of a smelter by the Consolidated at or near Stewart.

Splendid progress is being made under the direction of S. P. Fitzgerald with the driving of the tunnel on the Independence mine at Stewart. Two shifts are being worked and each is making four feet on the 600 feet objective. All winter supplies have now been landed at the camp. The work was started at the face of No. 2 tunnel, which was 300 feet from the portal. In 225 feet the first ore is expected and in 500 feet the downward extension of the shoot carrying native silver that was opened up in the tunnel above should be reached. It is hoped to get into a body of shipping ore which may be sent out next season.

Another interesting ore body has been encountered in a cross-cut from the main drift in the silicified porphyry zone that extends into the Sebakwe from the Premier and B. C. Silver. In extending the drift southwest toward the B. C. Silver, a blind vein, 20 feet wide with an average value of $20 in gold and silver, was encountered. Further tonnage is thus developed for both the B. C. Silver and Sebakwe.

The White River Placer Syndicate has been formed at Stewart by Fitzgerald brothers and associates for the purpose of securing funds to prospect placer claims on White River, a tributary of the Naas River, which were staked last spring. Trustees are S. P. Fitzgerald, Frank Fisher and E. D. Haddon. As a result of considerable prospecting, the owners have been convinced that further development, which would cost a good deal of money, is warranted. The ground is undoubtedly a dredging proposition, so it is proposed to thoroughly prospect it with a keystone drill. It is the plan to raise the money this winter and move the outfit in early next spring.

Pete Swenberg and associates are now engaged in the contract to drive 300 feet of tunnel on the Rufus Argenta property, this tunnel being part of a plan to open up the Erickson lead, which is one of the main showings of the property. Though diamond drilling has been discontinued for the cent visit of eastern directors to the property, further development has been outlined to cost $115,000 more. The syndicate is virtually pouring money into mine development here and is meeting with very encouraging results. It is also planned to spend $50,000 in development of a property in Theodosia Arm. A shaft will be sunk and the vein cut at three levels. The ore is from 3 to 27 per cent copper, about $2.40 in gold and seven ounces in silver.

James Gibbons, Bangor, Maine, railwayman, is expected to arrive in the city next Tuesday from the east. His visit here will be in connection with the affairs of his brother, E. C. Gibbons, who is presumed to have lost his life last week in a drowning accident while hunting at Hartley Bay. He and M. P. McCaffery of this city are the administrators of Mr. Gibbons' estate.

SO MANY HUSBANDS DEPEND ON ME

A fable for British Columbia Housewives

She saw them in her kitchen—a host of elf-like men. A miller, a soap maker, a travelling salesman. A band of Lilliputians, each representing some one local industry in which her fellow men and women are employed.

Back of each local product she saw ambitious families just like her own. That is why she enjoyed a sense of pride and loyalty every time she purchased the products of her fellow men. In every room in her house she saw the vision of the elfine workmen, for the articles of her home from attic to basement were the products of her home land.

There's a moral to this story
Every time a housewife purchases a B.C. Product, B.C. husbands benefit. B.C. industries are kept active replacing the products purchased by local housewives. Every woman who knows the prosperity of British Columbia husbands depends on their wives asks first: "Is it made in 'B.C.'?"

SPEAKS HIGHLY OF LOST MEN

Interior Papers Have Something to Say Especially in Regard to Gibbons

Interior papers have appreciative words to say of the men who are supposed to have been drowned on a recent hunting trip, E. C. Gibbons and Thor Johnson. The Omineca Herald says:

"It is many years since the city was so deeply moved as it was when news of the drowning of Thor Johnson and E. C. Gibbons at Hartley Bay was given out. Gibbons—good-humored, optimistic and friendly—and in and out of season a strong booster for the north, can ill be spared. Johnson was another excellent type of citizen, but more retiring."

The Interior News, knowing only one of them says:

"Should it prove—as each hour helps to establish the regrettable fact—that E. C. Gibbons of Prince Rupert has lost his life in the coast waters near Hartley Bay, then the personal and public loss will extend much beyond the incorporated limits of his own home city, in which he has pioneered from the first. That blow will reverberate throughout the interior, where Mr. Gibbons had hundreds of friends, some made in the early days, others developed from time to time by his personal magnetism and strengthened by his frankness and depth of god fellowship. "Gib" was a regular summer visitor to our town and our valley; he will be greatly missed at our annual celebrations he helped to make so lively. Truly, the first big shock must be felt in his own city, but "Gib" had demonstrated an interest and cultivated friendships that transcended all localisms, and his tragic end will cause deep regret throughout that long thin line of men and women extending across the country who once called Rupert their home."

TERRACE ASKS A ROAD BUILT KITIMAAT ARM

Urges Government That This Is Nearest Route to the Coast and Easiest to Build

TERRACE, Dec. 7.—The following resolution was placed before the board and after considerable discussion was unanimously passed:

"Whereas the development of the Copper River and Telkwa coal-fields is now being organized by strong capital, and other large projects are being considered which will result in a great expansion of industry in central British Columbia, particularly in the Bulkley and Skeena Valleys, said development requiring a railroad via the Copper, Lakelse and Kitimaat Valleys to Kitimaat Arm, thus insuring the creation of an ocean port with regular steam boat connections to other B. C. ports; and, whereas, the continuation of the Terrace-Lakelse Lake road to Kitimaat Arm will provide a short and inexpensive connection between the road system of the interior and a coast port, and will also open up an area rich in timber, agricultural land, mineral and hot springs, therefore, the Terrace Board of Trade recommend to the minister of public works that the said road be continued from the north end of Lakelse Lake to Kitimaat Arm, that construction be commenced at an early date and continued to completion."

Considerable important data had been obtained in connection with the scheme. This showed that the straight line distance from Terrace to Kitimaat Arm was 33 miles; probable length of road required 45 miles, road already built 18 miles. Additional road already located four miles, length of road construction required 27 miles, elevation of Terrace 225 feet above sea level, elevation of height of land 600 feet above sea level, elevation between Terrace and Lakelse 600 feet above sea level, elevation of Lakelse Lake 250 feet above sea level, elevation of height of land between Lakelse and Kitimaat 690 feet above sea level.

The construction of this road has never been pressed for until now owing to there being no steamboat connection at Kitimaat but with this assured as soon as the products of the mines are moved for shipment this road would undoubtedly give the people of the interior an outlet to the coast many years before it would be possible with the Terrace to Prince Rupert road at a fraction of the cost.

It was decided to send copies of the resolution to the Boards of Trade in all centres between Terrace and Prince George for their consideration and endorsement.

Richmond Mortimer, who transferred from here to Vancouver in the service of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, sailed this morning on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver.

December 7, 1918
News has been received by Postmaster R. L. McIntosh of the death in action in East Persia of Lieut. James E. Stephen, formerly an employee of the local Post Office, who was on service with the Imperial forces.

Large quantities of supplies are going through to Stewart in anticipation of the Bush mine shortly commencing shipments of ore, some of which average around $200 per ton. The ore will be hauled from the mine to tide-water. (The Bush mine is now famous as the Premier.)

The Southeastern Mining Co. of Calgary is opening up a gold mine at Skidegate which it is expected will soon be shipping. A. S. Holmes is the manager.

Inevitable, Black Velvet Dinner Dress Assumes a New Importance

The molded hip line and uneven hem—both popular features of the winter mode—are here exemplified in a charming dinner dress of black transparent effect. The frock depends for its trimming on a real lace collar and scarf that accentuate the one-sided effect of the draped girdle. It belongs in the wardrobe of the tall, slim woman—one who can afford a slightly bloused waist and wide girdle.

"The Fighting Eagle" is Story of Napoleonic Days Shown in Double Feature at Westholme

In every respect a great picture, Rod La Rocque's latest De Mille star vehicle, "The Fighting Eagle," a story of Napoleonic times in France, will be shown at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow. Here is a story that will thrill the average picture fan. It has beauty, charm, drama and real thrill. The scene is laid in France during Napoleon's brief but glorious reign. Etienne Gerard, a country boy from the Pyrenees becomes an officer in Napoleon's army and proves himself a hero. His daring gets him into serious trouble and he almost loses his life as a result of his love for Countess de Launay, one of Napoleon's secret agents whom he protects against Talleyrand, the famous Napoleonic minister, whose intrigues were the talk of Europe for a decade. Gerard is a boaster, but he backs up his talk by deeds and La Rocque adds one of his best and most virile impersonations to his list of screen portrayals. The picture is delightful in every respect and well worth seeing.

HERSHOLT STAR OF 'JAZZ MAD'

Jean Hersholt, famous Universal star, will be seen in the greatest character portrayal of his long career when "Jazz Mad," Universal's highly dramatic story of a music composer, opens at the Capitol Theatre tonight.

Mr. Hersholt has been credited with numerous characterizations that have elicited the praise of critics. His role of Frans Hausmann, in "Jazz Mad," however, exceeds anything he has done before, either in this country or Denmark, where he first achieved fame on the screen.

Svend Gade, also from Denmark, wrote the original screen story. Its dramatic intensity is unmarked by blood-curdling situations of degradations and ugliness.

When Carl Laemmle, president of Universal Pictures, Inc., first saw "Jazz Mad" in the projection rooms of the studio he said: "Never, during my long years of connection with motion pictures, have I witnessed a picture that has the fineness, the dignity, and the dramatic pitch of "Jazz Mad." If the public receives it with approval I will know that a new era of picture making is at hand."

Box-office records in many places throughout the country indicate that the public has accepted "Jazz Mad" with the strongest enthusiasm. Large audiences are witnessing it at every theatre where it has been booked.

Marion Nixon and George Lewis provide the love element of "Jazz Mad."

Officials of the famous Hollywood Bowl, after learning the theme of "Jazz Mad," permitted the use of the famous amphitheater and the orchestra in making the picture. Scenes in the Hollywood Bowl play an important part in the film.

'ACE' OF ACTION STARS IN ROMANCE OF ROYAL MOUNTED

A thrilling melodrama of the Canadian Northwoods, with more action, speed, dare-devil riding and thrills than ever before, is "Code of the Scarlet." Ken Maynard's latest, western feature playing tonight and Saturday at the Capitol Theatre.

Ken has been called the "ace of action stars," and "Code of

A Sinking Fund of $3,000 per year will be paid to the Trustee who may invest same in these bonds if procurable at 105 or less, but if not, then it shall be invested in Trustee Securities.

The Prince Rupert Amusement Company was organized for the purpose of operating a moving picture theatre in the City of Prince Rupert. Up to the present the Company has operated in a rented building but has now completed construction of a very fine building on the main street of the City at a cost of approximately (including value of land) $109,000. This building has been leased to B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited for 15 years on the following terms: Rental $8,000 per year, together with one-half the net profits remaining after payment of such rental and other operating expenses. The Lessor also gives to the Lessee an option for three years to purchase the said property for $150,000. If this option is not exercised then the Lessee will, during the balance of the term pay $12,000 per year rental in lieu of $8,000 and one-half the net profits.

According to official records, five-sixths of the issued capital of B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited is issued in the name of Famous Players Canadian Company Ltd.

Interest and Sinking Fund on these bonds will amount to $6,850 per year.

This amount is fully taken care of by the rental to be received from the Lessee without taking into consideration any revenue to be derived from profits.

In addition to the above, the Prince Rupert Amusement Company will have a rental of about $2,500 per year from three stores in the new building. This will be more than ample to take care of all real estate taxes and incidental expenses.

BIG BARRAGE OF LAUGHTER

Satire on Mountaineer Life in "The Big Killing" at the Westholme

Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton have taken their second step into the new motion picture realm of melodramatic comedies. This type of picture merited much success when introduced with "Partners in Crime." The new picture, "The Big Killing," is a clever satire, bristling with humor, on another section of American life, the backwoods mountaineers.

The new Beery-Hatton melodramatic comedy, "The Big Killing," which will show at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow goes a long way from the larger cities and even from the front pages of the newspapers. It deals with a family feud war among the moonshine-making mountaineers in the backwoods. This type of individual still exists in the United States in large numbers but, being remote and his activities being largely confined to his own virgin territory, little is heard or known of him.

When the two moving picture comedy men enter this environment, there is a complete barrier of laughter thrown up around the serious aspects of this little known life but all the unusual customs and the peculiar activities of the characters are utilized, without distortion, to provide exquisite moments of fun.

"The Big Killing" is another step in the serious business of making good, intelligent comedy.

"Code of the Scarlet," story of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, bears out this appellation, for he has never performed more stunts, or appeared to better advantage in situations provided by the story, than in this picture. It will not only satisfy his present followers, but gain him an increased number of fans.

While "Code of the Scarlet" is a typical northwest mountie story, with all the thrills and dramatic situations, the plot is said to have a new and novel treatment. It provides Ken with plenty of opportunity to display his daring horsemanship, and for Tarzan, the wonder horse, to show some new tricks which Ken has taught him. All in all, "Code of the Scarlet," has almost everything in the way of screen entertainment. A most beautiful background is provided by the gorgeous scenic effects. Maynard fans will be delighted with Ken's latest. Those who have yet to discover him have a pleasant surprise awaiting them.

M. Y. Aivazoff is expected to arrive in the city next Wednesday from Vancouver on a brief business visit.
