DECISION OF GOVERNMENT TO KEEP RAILWAYS SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION AT EDMONTON

EDMONTON, May 30.—The decision of the Alberta Government to reject the offers of the Railway Companies to purchase their northern roads is one of the subjects of discussion here just now. Public opinion was in favor of selling to the C.N.R. if a satisfactory deal could be made but the offer of the company for the Great Waterways line was not considered good enough and to sell one line without the other meant the continuation of the department of railways. What the Government would like to do would be to get rid of all the provincial government lines and close out the department.

Canada's Reasons for Not Taking Part in Treaty with Egypt When Suggested by British Government

OTTAWA, May 30.—"We could not contemplate recommending to parliament that the treaty should be made applicable to Canada or undertake to participate in its ratification and signature. It is observed in this connection that it is His Majesty's government in Great Britain which has directed the policy in the past as to its relations with Egypt, which has negotiated the present draft agreement and which is to administer its provisions and annexes as set forth in the treaty. We consider that were an issue to be raised as to the assumption by Canada of military obligations in Europe or the near East as would be inevitable were the Canadian government to recommend entering into a military alliance with Egypt that it would be prejudicial to the relations between Canada and other parts of the British Empire as well as to the interests of Canada itself."

INSPECTOR JACKSON SAYS BRIBE MONEY WAS PUT IN POLICE CHARITABLE FUND

Policy Was Inaugurated During Incumbency of Mayor Gale and Georgie Chow and Chow Wing Contributions Went That Way

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Emphatic denials that he had ever accepted money for protection or to reduce or withdraw charges were made by Inspector John Jackson of the morality department of the Vancouver police at the afternoon session of the police inquiry yesterday.

Jackson told of his 30 years' service on the city force. He was looking forward to superannuation, he said. Whether he came out of the inquiry clear or not "he was through with the force." He was, he said, ashamed of some of the members of the force.

The Inspector declared he had often been offered bribes and money had been left in his office. This money was turned over to the chief's secretary and was used as charitable funds. This policy was inaugurated during the incumbency of Mayor R. H. Gale, he said, specifically for such surreptitious contributions. He personally had deposited about a thousand dollars in it.

Georgie Chow and Chow Wing had each left him money, witness said, and it had been turned over to the fund. It had been found impossible he said, to prosecute successfully in attempted cases.

Inspector Jackson was examined at some length on the evidence of Detectives Furna and McDonald to the effect that the charge of drugs in possession against Wing, a Chinese, had been reduced following a telephone call received by Sergeant George McLaughlin, allegedly for Jackson.

Jackson denied absolutely that he made this call and said he was in the "general hospital" on the day the call was said to have been made. He thought someone impersonated him on the telephone. "You are throwing this right up to me," remarked G. O. McGeer, counsel for Police Commissioner Fletcher. "I am not throwing it up to anyone," replied Jackson. "I don't know what happened."

STUDY POLITICAL SITUATION

An election is approaching and our advice to the people of Prince Rupert and the country around is that they study carefully the situation. To lie back and take no part in the campaign is to allow others to control the situation.

While the nominations have not all been made so far, it is pretty reasonable to assume that Hon. T. D. Pattullo will be again chosen by the Liberals, although they have the privilege of choosing any person they wish.

Assuming for the moment that James Thompson, S. M. Newton and Hon. T. D. Pattullo are in the field, it will be the reasonable thing to consider who is behind each of these candidates, what will they do if they go to Victoria? What position will they hold? Who will they represent? What standing and influence will they have? Let it be granted that they are all excellent men. The next thing to consider is how will the interests of northern British Columbia be best served. There will be nothing personal in that.

We are just drawing attention to this because the time may be rather short in which to consider the situation and if we are to have good government we must have an active electorate. It is better that the people of the district should choose wrongly than they should not trouble to do any choosing. To be like dumb, driven cattle is a mistake. We want the best possible representation. If Mr. Pattullo has represented us well, let us choose him, but, if it is considered that one of the others can do it better, by all means he should be the choice. Now we suggest that all get busy and study the records of the men and then make the wisest possible choice. The candidates themselves will ask the same thing.

MILK AS A FOOD

In connection with the recent remarkable "milk trial" carried out at a colony of boys by Dr. Corry Mann at the request of the Ministry of Health in England a brochure has been issued by the Empire Marketing Board setting forth the results of the test and the value of milk as a food. A London paper says with reference to the pamphlet that "even the Medical Research Council were startled by the results." Following is a summary of the report:

The boys live a busy, cheerful, open-air life. None are weaklings and illness is rare among them. The experiment was made to discover the value of milk, not as an article of diet for invalids, but as part of the regular food of healthy, hardy, growing boys. That is why the results of the tests were so surprising.

It was a strictly scientific experiment. Having taken elaborate pains to satisfy himself that the normal diet was adequate, even for the voracious appetites of growing boys, the doctor divided off several groups of boys, and arranged that each group, except one, should be given regularly some small addition to its meals.

The first group got nothing beyond the ordinary diet. Each of the 30 boys in the second got one pint of fresh cow's milk daily—half a pint in the morning and half a pint in the afternoon—and this addition was continued for over three years. In the same way other groups received extra rations of castor sugar, or butter, or casein, or watercress, or margarine, all of which were chosen because they contain special nourishing qualities.

WHAT WERE THE RESULTS?

1. The boys who received the ordinary diet gained an average of 3.85 pounds each, and grew an average of 1.84 inches in a year.
2. The boys who received the extra pint of milk a day gained an average of 6.98 pounds each, and grew an average of 2.63 inches in a year.
3. In one of the other five groups was the average increase in weight for height as much as that recorded in the milk group.

Even these results demonstrate the extraordinary value of the milk consumed, but the human boy is something more than an individual to be weighed and measured. How did the experiment affect the lads in other ways? Here is the doctor's weighty report:

"A casual visitor entering the dining hall where the boys of 19 houses sit at table would never fail to recognize the table of that house which was alone receiving the extra ration of milk, the boys of that house being obviously more fit than those of any other house. In addition, they became far more high-spirited and irrepressible, being often in trouble on that account.

"A further important fact was observed. During one winter, while in other houses the sickness rate was somewhat higher than usual owing to influenza and a limited outbreak of measles, there was a complete absence of illness among the boys with the milk ration."

After such an investigation, the enormous value of milk as a food must be considered as beyond dispute, says the Empire Marketing Board. Yet in England and Wales the total average consumption of milk is barely one-third of a pint a day.

BOSTON, May 30.—Stories of heart-breaking struggles with wind and wave during the recently northeasterly gales are being brought ashore by members of the crews of several vessels who felt their force. Among the vessels to suffer severe damage was the two-masted Nova Scotia schooner Bon Homme. Members of her crew, brought ashore by the coast guard, gave a thrilling account of their struggle with bad weather, which began shortly after the Bon Homme cleared from Gloucester for Weymouth, N.S. The schooner was in ballast when the gale struck her and difficult to manage. Soon the head sails were blown to ribbons and the schooner was hoisted in the hope of riding out the gale.

The Bon Homme sprung a leak and she began to make water so rapidly that the gasoline pumps could not keep it down and the whole crew turned to bailing. They worked night and day while the light vessel tossed about like a chip on the waves.

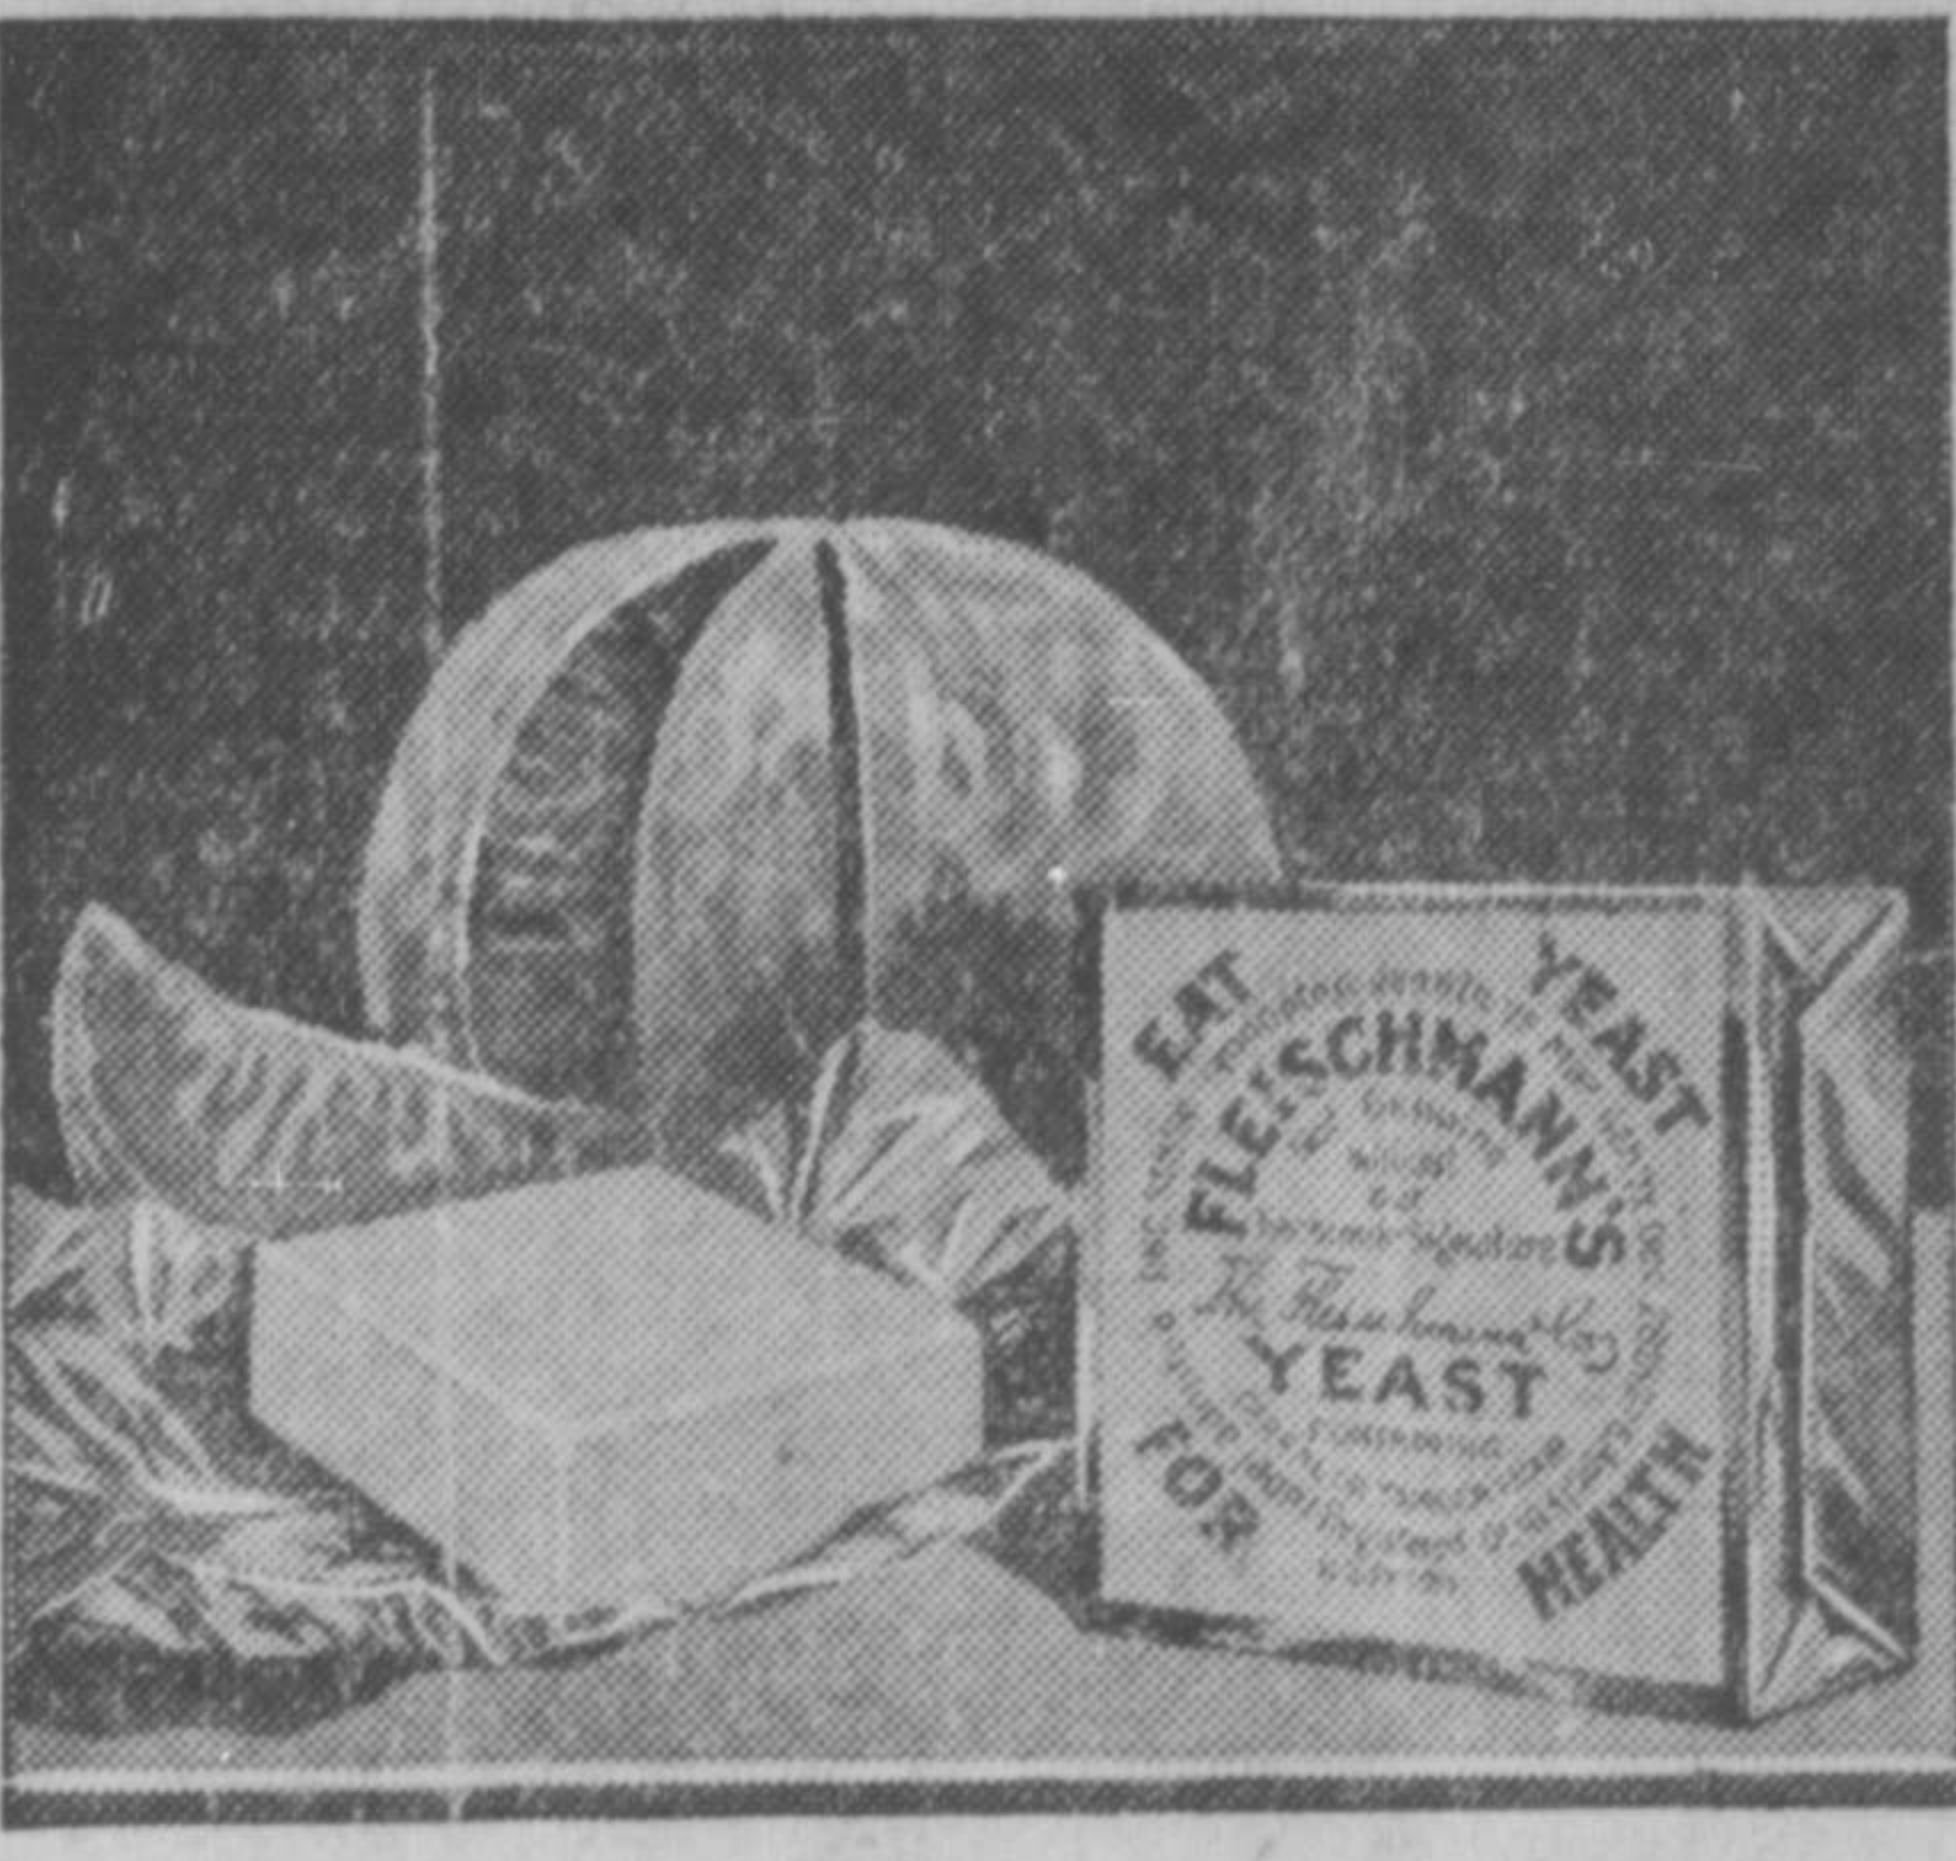

Finally Captain I. Harpell concluded that the only way to save the lives of his crew and his own was to take to the ships boat and abandon the schooner.

LAUNCHING THE BOAT WAS A difficult and dangerous task, but it was at last accomplished. Once cast off from the schooner, the open boat was driven like a leaf before the gale.

However, in less than an hour the schooner was picked up by the shipwrecked men. Bound for Norfolk, the schooner was released to the coast guard to meet them at Vineyard Sound to take off the rescued men. This was done and then the coast guard turned its attention to efforts to locate and salvage if possible the Bon Homme.

The schooner represents the entire savings of W. J. Foley and his son, Irving G. Foley of Salmon River, N.S. The elder Foley was aboard when the schooner ran into the gale. Other members of the crew included Charles Comeau, cook; and Fred Thibodeau and Frank Doty, seamen.

The Bon Homme was formerly the American schooner Alaska, built at Machias, Me., in 1900. The vessel was purchased by the Felcys in 1927 and placed under the British flag.

LOST DECK LOAD
 Another vessel hailing from the Maritime Provinces which ran into difficulties during the gales was the two-masted schooner Charlotte S. She was bound from Belliveau Cove, N.S. to Boston with a cargo of lumber when she encountered a storm off Briar Island and was tossed about for three days. Captain George Erb said he drifted to Mattinicus Rock, where he anchored his vessel and got a jury rig on her which brought him to Rockland, Me. The vessel was found to require only minor repairs, although she lost some of her deck load in the storm.

Every-day Magic

Chairs that flop into beds... bags that suck up dirt... tiny ticking things that count all day long for you. Daylight any night just by pushing a button. A stream that never stops till you turn off a faucet. Any voice you want, talking to you from a cage on your desk or wall. Actions of yesterday, of people miles away, going on on a curtain before you. Stilled throats singing to you from discs; distant throats singing to you from nothing!

Uncanny, daily magic—this, due to national advertising. Advertisements have given you flashlights, telephones, typewriters, automobiles, cold creams, motion pictures. They have given you new eyes, new ears, new hands, new feet, new faces, new emotions. They have urged such wide use, so lowered prices, that almost wishes are autos, almost beggars can ride. Through advertisements you've laid down the shovel and the hoe. You can buy a whole harvest ready-to-eat in cans. You've hung up the fiddle and the bow, for a radio. There's little old-time work left in this age of amazing short-cuts.

Ball-Bearing Motors

The life of a motor is the life of its insulation. Hard brittle insulation, especially if oil soaked, sends motors to the repair shop or to the scrap pile. Fairbanks-Morse motors have insulation that will not harden and crack.

Fairbanks-Morse ball bearing motors require greasing only once a year and eliminate oil soaked windings, oil spotted products, oil slop on the floor and the cost of oil and oiling.

Fairbanks-Morse motors have a liberal overload capacity and are now made in "fully enclosed" and "ventilated" types, which can operate safely in the foulest acid fumes and in extremely damp and dirty places.

CONFERENCE OF WHEAT POOLS

MANY PROMINENT ORGANIZERS AND PEOPLE INTERESTED IN CO-OPERATION TO BE PRESENT

REGINA, May 30. — The big wheat pool conference is to meet here Tuesday next for a three day convention of prominent men interested in co-operative marketing.

The United States will have forty delegates from various pools formed and forming in attendance. Six representatives from the great English co-operative wholesale society and the Scottish co-operative wholesale society, and delegates from Russia, Australia, New Zealand, Argentina, Italy, France, Germany and Norway and Sweden, will attend. Premiers of six provinces will be present and delegates from the federal government of Canada as well as representatives of the Washington federal government.

"Co-operation under the Southern Cross" is the romantic title of the address to be given by Chas. Judd, of the Victoria Wheat Pool.

U.K. DELEGATES

Sir Thomas Allen, of the British Empire Marketing board; Henry J. May, secretary of the International Co-operative Alliance; and Robert Metcalf, assistant secretary of Horace Plunkett Foundation, will be among the United Kingdom's delegates, while the Scottish Co-operative Wholesale Society is sending John Cairns and Peter Malcolm, directors, and William Smith, commercial manager. The English Co-operative Wholesale Society is sending A. W. Groggity and John Oliver, directors, and A. H. Hobbey, the central wheat buyer.

That the conference is taking a wide view of producers entering the merchandising field, is evidenced by the address to be delivered by C. O. Moser, president of the American Cotton Growers' Marketing Association. The Washington government is sending Dr. J. P. Booth, United States agricultural department economist, who will talk on the co-operative movement in the United States.

NOTABLES TO SPEAK

Marketing policies and practices will be the subject of an address by John Vesceky of Kansas City, representing the Southwest Wheat Producers' Association. Dr. Alva Benton of the marketing department of North Dakota State Agricultural College, will talk on marketing problems, and E. R. Down, manager of the Kansas wheat pool, will speak on field services. Henry J. May, secretary of the United Kingdom International Co-operative Alliance, will deliver an address on organization for co-operation. One of the outstanding features will be a discussion on governments requiring all producers of wheat to market their crop through pools. This is government interference in favor of compulsory pooling which has provoked so much discussion among Canadian pool promoters and those of other countries.

WILL WELCOME DELEGATES

The program for the three-day meeting was announced by C. H. Purnell, chairman of the international conference committee, last night. Following a morning of routine business, registration, etc., the delegates will be welcomed to the province of Saskatchewan and the city of Regina, by Hon. C. M. Hamilton, minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan, and Col. James McAra, mayor of Regina, on Tuesday afternoon, June 5.

Then will follow a series of discussions and addresses covering the whole field of international and national co-operative grain and product selling, which will conclude with a wheat pool banquet on Thursday evening.

Among the outstanding Canadian representatives will be Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture for Canada, who will address the conference on "Co-operation in Canada."

At a banquet to be extended the delegates by the government of Saskatchewan on Wednesday evening, June 6, the premiers of the western provinces will be the principal speakers. Hon. J. G. Gardiner, of Saskatchewan, will discuss "A Co-operative Province," Hon. J. E. Brownlee, of Alberta, "Government and the Co-operative Movement," and Hon. Jack Bracken, of Manitoba, "Co-operation Between Town and Country."

REPORT TELLS RED ACTIVITY

(Financial Post)

A most amazing document has just come out of Ottawa. It is the ordinary prosaic annual report of the Department of Labor on labor organization in Canada. Contained in its pages is a record of revolutionary and communistic activity in Canada that should prick into disquietude the mind of every good Canadian citizen. Without enlarging upon the facts, without comment, the publication details a record of disintegrating propaganda and teaching that is a dark blot upon the escutcheon of Canada's social and political life. There is little new and nothing previously unrecorded in the story. But gathered together, the evidence of Moscow's continuous effort to sow seeds of disunity and to inflame discontented Canadians to resentment and anger.

The chief revolutionary body in Canada is the Communist Party of Canada, which is the Canadian representative of the Third (Communist) International of Moscow, the latter being the heart of the world communist movement. It was organized in 1919 for the avowed purpose of "organizing the working class for the overthrow of capitalism, the destruction of the bourgeois state and the establishment of the dictatorship of the proletariat." To such an organization the Communist Party of Canada reports directly.

WIN YESTERDAY FOR REGIMENT

FOOTBALL MATCH LAST NIGHT WAS WELL ATTENDED AND ENDED 2 GOALS TO 1

TEAMS NOW ARE TIED

TERMINALS AT FOOT OF LEAGUE SO FAR WITHOUT WIN TO CREDIT

The second meeting of the Thistle and Regiment resulted in a win for the soldiers by two goals to one. The second half especially was very keenly contested with play ranging from one end to the other and all goals were recorded in this period.

Regiment elected to play downhill but had only eight men on the field at the start. Dick Lambe, Stan. George and J. Underwood soon made up the eleven. The Thistle turned out as advertised. Regiment were playing more effective football and forced several corners. Woods sent his wing off but Appleyard and Ross cleared. Baptie and Russell were dangerous raiders but Erskine and Haig were safe. Wilson narrowly missed with a screw shot that just cleared the bar. Then from Alex Mitchell's centre Corbett fisted clearly away. Hands against Harris gave the Thistle a penalty but Haig drove wide. Wilson crossed to Baptie whose shot went straight to Campbell who cleared. Murray was very clever but George stopped him. Harris was playing a fine forcing game for the Regiment. Half-time found the score sheet clean.

Regiment forwards were first to attack. Regiment forwards were first to their forwards off. Woods and Murray had tries but the Thistle were not in shooting form and Regiment backs were very safe. Baptie was persistent and at last a penalty was given against Haig for handling and Wilson gave Campbell no chance with the shot from the spot. Thistle played more keenly. Murry was clever but ineffective. Mitchell crossed a ball but it was cleared. Baptie was worrying the opposing backs and Russell and Wilson were working well. Then Baptie's centre just missed but Russell shortly after hit the inside of the upright and the ball was through to put Regiment two goals up. Currie, Woods and Campbell combined nicely but weak shooting spoilt a good chance. From a corner kick Farquhar put Thistle on the score sheet with a fine dropping shot. With only a goal between the teams play became keener. Appleyard was a strong defender. Corbett fisted away and Campbell saved from Wilson. Full time found Regiment worthy winners 2-1.

For the Thistle Campbell had no chance with either of the shots that scored. Haig and Erskine kicked well but found the Regiment forwards hard to hold. The half-backs defended well and gave their forwards many chances but there were no sharpshooters on the line. The forwards played neat football at times but there was little punch in their play. They found the opposition wasted no time in clearing.

Corbett was safe in goal for the Regiment. Ross and Lambe played a sterling game at back. Lambe for his first game was very sure. Harris and Appleyard tackled hard and kicked well. George showed up well and reproduced some of his old form. Baptie, Russell and Wilson were the pick of the forwards. The centre was a thorn in the side of the Thistle all through the game and kept his wings well supplied with useful passes. Russell turned in another fine game. Wilson took many corner kicks well and was well in the running.

CHICAGO CUBS DEFEAT REDS

DISTANCE BETWEEN NATIONAL LEAGUE LEADERS AND RUNNERS-UP IS NOW BUT ONE FULL GAME

(Special to Daily News)

NEW YORK, May 30.—The gap between the leading Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago Cubs for the supremacy of the National League narrowed down to a single game yesterday when the former were shut out 4 to nil by the latter. But one game also separates the Cubs from third place New York Giants who beat Brooklyn 12 to 5 in a loose game. The St. Louis Cardinals took fourth place from the Robins with a 7 to 1 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates. Boston defeated Philadelphia 9 to 3 in the cellar contest.

New York Yankees and Washington Senators shared honors in a double-header and the latter advanced from the cellar, leaving the Detroit Tigers in that position. Philadelphia Athletics took a game from Boston. No

SPORT CHAT

Practically every town in Northern and Central British Columbia is now playing baseball with the exception of the biggest of them all, Prince Rupert, where the game, after many years of success, has fallen of organization. Certainly it does not speak very well for the sporting instinct and interest of this city of eight thousand people, where healthy sports are needed badly enough, that 1928 should go without baseball which has ever proven to be the biggest drawing card as far as local summer sporting endeavor is concerned. And perhaps the sporting public of Prince Rupert may be as much to blame as anybody else. In recent seasons this town has been too critical about its baseball. The players and the teams have been generally found fault with and little has been done to support them and help them along. The only good that can be seen in a condition where there will be no baseball in Prince Rupert in 1928 is that in future seasons the need of it may be more fully realized and that there will be a general rally to its support and a rejuvenation of the game and the interest in it. Meanwhile, we get along with soccer and may consider ourselves lucky that we have that.

A regular old bush league affair proved to be the opening baseball game of the season in Burns Lake recently when the locals lost to Rose Lake by a score of 24 to 22. The game evidently made up to some degree in excitement what it might have lacked in quality of play. Everybody worked hard including the scorekeeper.

Burns Lake went to bat first with Joe Kerr up, he wangled the pill for a one-base counter, stole second and third while Earl Bennett played with the pitcher's offerings and got home when Ken Warner was at the bat. Warner got to first and was followed through by Jensen, they stole home while Steele fanned. Donaldson made a safe hit and got around while Ken Kerr fanned. With Ken Kerr pitching for Burns Lake Rose Lake sent Jack Mould to bat, followed by Ted Allport, both of whom walked to first and subsequently came home. In the second innings every member on the Burns Lake team registered at least one run, and Kerr, Warner and Jensen made two each, totalling 12 runs in the first half of the second. Every man on the Rose Lake team also made a score except Chas. Cramer who was caught stealing third. Joe Kerr pitched for Burns in this innings. For the other five innings Kenneth Warner occupied the mound for Burns, and after getting warmed up in the third, when he allowed four runs (with the help of the fielders), he signalled the batters in one-two-three order in the fifth and sixth; but his arm gave way in the seventh and Rose Lake scored eight runs.

Archie Edwards, of Battleford, Sask., all-round athlete, who has made a name for himself as an amateur baseball pitcher, has signed a contract with the Boston Braves of the National League, which team he will join for a try-out in July. He recently pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Saskatoon Normal against Nutana collegiate.

When the Grads line up against the Dalhousie University girls, of Halifax at Edmonton tomorrow night it will be the first time in history that any maritime team has ever played in the west, and the first time that these two teams have ever met. Oddly enough, neither team has ever played against a team that the other has met, so that there is very little "dope" on which to base a comparison of the two finalists. The Dalhousie girls are all graduates of the university of that name, and have been playing together for the last three years. During their first year's effort, they finished as runners-up to the maritime champions, but last year and this year they have gone a step further and have topped off the championship on each occasion.

Around The World With Sport Fans

(By The Tramp)

It is said that Philadelphia has definitely been given a hockey franchise and will take the place of Pittsburgh in the National Hockey League next winter.

Revised figures show that 20,410 fans paid to see the bout between Mandell and McLarin. Gross receipts were $152,564, far short of the $250,000 the promoter expected. After deducting federal and state taxes, the receipts amounted to $130,964. Mandell received $49,111 or 37 1/2 per cent and McLarin $16,270, or 12 1/2 per cent. Other ex-

FIRST TOURISTS COMING MONDAY

C.P.R. STEAMERS WILL INSTITUTE ALASKA SEASON WITH PRINCESS LOUISE, ALICE AND CHARLOTTE FOLLOWING

With the arrival from the south early next Monday morning on her first voyage of the season of the steamer Princess Louise, with Capt. Arthur Slater in command, the summer tourist service of the British Columbia Coast Steamship Services of the Canadian Pacific Railway will be opened. Providing practically two sailings a week north and south from Alaska, the schedule calls for twenty-four tourist sailings during the months of June, July and August by the steamers Princess Louise, Princess Charlotte and Princess Alice.

Following the Louise on Monday, the next tourist boat will be the Princess Alice coming north on June 11. The Princess Louise will follow on June 15 and the Princess Charlotte will go into service on the route with her arrival here from the south on June 18. The three vessels will then alternate in a fast service from Victoria and Vancouver to Prince Rupert and Alaska.

The next C.P.R. Alaska boat will be the Princess Alice due tomorrow morning with possibly a few tourists on board. Southbound, calling here next Monday afternoon, the Alice will be carrying many school teachers from Alaska points bound for the United States to spend the summer.

The steamer Princess Royal will continue on the local run between here and Vancouver as at present scheduled.

FLAG DAY ON MONDAY NEXT

ELKS SPARING NO EFFORT TO MAKE ATTRACTIVE PROCEEDINGS

The Elks' Annual Flag Day that will be a "chuck-ful" of enjoyment for the children of the city, finally culminating with the crowning of their May Queen will take place on Monday.

The program of the day will follow along similar lines to last year. At 1 p.m. from Second Avenue the parade to the grounds will commence, where a full list of sports will take place, including the annual relay races of public schools.

In the evening the crowning of Queen Peggy Smith with due ceremony will take place and the Maypole dance. This will be followed by the kids for a day dance, thus rounding out a day of real fun with the children.

The Brother Bills are sparing no effort to make this day a success and are being assisted by the members of the Fair Board and Ladies of the Royal Purple.

BALDWIN HAS MANY OFFERS

PREMIER'S JOKE ABOUT NEVER WRITING FOR PRESS TAKEN SERIOUSLY

LONDON, May 30.—The "complaint" made by Premier Baldwin at a luncheon of the Institute of Journalists that he had never had a single offer of any kind to make any contribution on any subject to the press has added yet another burden to his already heavy post bag. Offers have arrived at No. 10 Downing Street from various quarters. This fact is revealed in a letter sent by Mr. Baldwin's secretary to a firm of architectural publishers, who wrote to Mr. Baldwin asking him to contribute a preface to a book they are shortly publishing on architecture in Great Britain at the present day.

The reply is as follows:—"The Prime Minister has asked me to thank you for your letter, and to express his regret that the stress of his preoccupations does not allow him to fall in with the suggestion which it contains. In regard to what you say about his recent speech at the Institute of Journalists I must confess to you that from the correspondence which has reached him since from several quarters he will at all events never again be able to complain that if he made no contribution to journalism it is through lack of offers."

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e. carrying over 3,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mills, factories, or industrial sites on timberland, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 30 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 400 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free or partly free permits are available for settlers, squatters and travellers, up to ten head.
