South African Also Wins Important Event at Amsterdam—Governor General Cables His Congratulations to Canada's Team

AMSTERDAM, Holland, Aug. 1.—Outstripping the highest hopes of the Canadian team, Percy Williams won the 200 metre dash against the field today capturing the second most important sprint of the Olympiad.

Williams' time was 21 4-5 seconds, which was a quarter of a second slower than the record. The second and third places were tied and Jack Fitzpatrick of Hamilton came in fifth.

Williams again trailed in the first half and then made a tremendous burst of speed at the end showing unbeatable form and finishing a good yard ahead of the German, Koenig.

The Canadian runner was bowled over by his admirers, wrapped in a Union Jack and photographed.

Canada's protest against the victory of Elizabeth Robinson of America, in the women's 100 metre event yesterday was not upheld by the judges. It was claimed that the Canadian girl won.

The British Empire also won the second major event of the day when Atkinson of South Africa won the 110 metre hurdles in 144-5 seconds, tying the world's record established by Thompson of Canada in 1920.

Lord Willingdon, governor-general of Canada, cabled to Cornelius, the chief Canadian coach, congratulating him on Canada's showing in the big event.

EVERYONE INTERESTED IN CAMPAIGN IS REQUESTED TO REPORT ON THURSDAY

"Banner Day" on Thursday Is to Give Each Person Interested an Opportunity For Personal Talk With Campaign Manager

In an effort to determine just "who is who" among those who have been nominated in the Prince Rupert Daily News $4,000 gift distribution, the management has found it expedient to request every entrant to report at the News Campaign Headquarters on Thursday. There are some who have not been heard from since their entries were received. Others took out receipt books and have candidates as their prizes. It is to ascertain just who is at work and who are candidates as their prizes. In the event that it is impracticable for any one to report in person then the report should be made by telephone or letter. We want to know of your progress in the Campaign, and by talking with you, we may be able to make helpful suggestions to you.

There are two districts and two sets of prizes. Each district constitutes a separate campaign with a car and full set of prizes assured each. One of the two prize cars must go in each district. Candidates may secure subscriptions and votes anywhere. There are no restrictions as to where you can get subscriptions. The districts merely assure an equitable distribution of gifts and cut down the number you compete with.

Nominations are not closed. The fact of the matter is, there are more gifts provided than there are active candidates to receive them. If you have been contemplating entering the distribution and will become active and make an effort to help yourself, there is a wonderful opportunity awaiting you in this campaign. If you have entered and have not started your campaign in earnest there is no better time than today to make the start.

With subscribers calling and paying their subscriptions over the counter in the business office of The News, there is every reason to believe candidates have not yet got down to work. It is evident that if candidates were busy, calling on subscribers and prospects, there would be no need for the subscribers to come to the office. As it is, unless the subscribers specifically asks that votes on the subscription be credited to some particular candidate, no candidate benefits. Those who intend to bring their subscription to the office for some one entered should ask for the Campaign Manager and turn the subscription in for their favorite in order that votes may be credited.

Readers are urged to look over the names of those nominated and pick out a favorite.

The News Campaign is being conducted on a decreasing vote schedule basis. Instead of increasing as the campaign progresses, votes steadily grow less. There are four periods in the campaign. The candidates receive less votes per subscription in the second period than in the first, still less in the third period, and the final period schedule is the least of all. Those who get active now, when the biggest schedule of the campaign is effective and when subscriptions are here by the hundreds simply waiting to be called for, will profit greatest. The biggest vote period ends August 20. Office open each evening until 9 o'clock. Phone 548.

Spokane Men Here in Regard to Securing Site for New Sawmill to Cut Ecstall River Timber

Today the people are up the Ecstall looking over the work at the limits and it is expected that before leaving the city they will have come to some definite decision in regard to the site for the mill.

TEN YEARS IN PRINCE RUPERT

It is just ten years ago today that the present management took over the Daily News. It has been ten years of ups and downs with steady progress on the whole.

Since August, 1918, the paper has been changed in appearance and improved in many respects. At that time there was in the shop only one linotype. Now there are two. Ten years ago the paper was printed on a little job press and folded separately. Today it is printed on a flat-bed Duplex that does all the work at one operation and at twice the speed. Ten years ago the entire news service cost the sum of $25 a month. Today it costs about $300 a month. At that time the paper had six columns of reading matter with large type. Today it has seven-column pages with small type.

At the time the paper was taken over, the entire circulation was approximately 600 a day and at least one hundred of those were distributed free. Today there is a total average circulation of over 1800 practically all of which are paid for.

AIM CONTINUES THE SAME

At the time the present management took over the paper, it was announced that the aim was to make a newspaper that would serve Northern British Columbia and advance every cause which would benefit the community. Today the aim remains the same. We still aim to serve the best interest of Prince Rupert and all the surrounding districts. We are not in opposition to the weekly papers of the north but complementary to them.

I was so that the paper might go into practically every home in Northwestern British Columbia that the price was reduced recently. It is for the same purpose that today a circulation campaign is being carried on.

While it is true that the owners and all the staff have to make a living from the paper, it is also true that service to the community is the first aim. We are anxious to make the paper as large and complete as possible and just as soon as the advertising support is sufficient we shall enlarge it and add other interesting features. We hoped to have done this years ago but the condition of business in the city and surroundings would not allow of such a move. Every day we have this in mind.

There have been lean days during the past ten years, very lean. Now the outlook for progress is splendid and we expect to grow as the community grows.

ASSET TO COMMUNITY

A live newspaper is a great asset to any community. Citizens do not always appreciate this. However if there should be only a weekly paper here as in eastern cities of the same size, the loss would be seriously felt. It is the enterprising spirit of the north that keeps a daily going. We do not wish to be boastful but we are inclined to think there are not many papers of the size and quality of the Daily News in a town this size, especially where there is opposition as there is here. In fact we feel sure that, considering the population of the district served, we have them all outdistanced a mile.

Just now we are asking the people of the district to help us in this work. We want to be a credit to the province and a pride to the citizens. We know there are a good many people who appreciate this, but united effort is what counts. If we all work together with the same end in view we shall accomplish something really worth while.

THANKS TO SUPPORTERS

This is also a good time to extend thanks to all our readers and advertisers and others who have in any way contributed to our success. We have often received congratulations and occasionally a few knocks. We are pleased to receive both for without them it would be difficult to continue to improve. When things are very smooth, we wonder what is wrong.

Again we thank the people of Prince Rupert and all northern and central British Columbia and expect to earn more support in the future than in the past.

Man in the Moon

"For ten long years,"
The editor said,
"I've pounded them hard
Until they saw red
For ten long years—
That time to a day—
I've sat in this chair
And pounded away."

And during that time
The editor tried
To cut him a swath
Both long and wide;
But the days were lean
And the winters long
Yet he sang as he wrote
And this was his song:

"Oh, cash, it is scarce
But we have lots of fun
We know everybody
And like everyone.
And as long as we have
Enough credit to live,
The news we shall publish
And free advice give."

Very few people these days seem to brag about the size of the jail.

It's a great thing to have a porcelain bath with hot and cold water laid on, but the greatest of all is to use it wisely and well.

The funniest people I know are men who work comfortably in their short sleeve and then dress up with heavy dark coats and vests when they wish to enjoy themselves.

They tell me there is no hell but there must be else what becomes of the dear friends who tell you the hateful things others say about you.

Did you ever hear any swearing that was just as expressive as some of the honks one hears from an auto driver.

Custom is, what makes it improper for a man to go around with his suspenders showing but perfectly proper for his wife's garters to be plainly visible.

If you hear a howl coming from the east, it's only prairie farmers howling over the possibility of a hail storm hitting them before the wheat is cut.

In these days of equality of sexes girls are getting men's wages. But Jake says that's old stuff. They got his twenty years ago.

The worst of these vacations, it takes so long to rest after you get back to work.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

The retreat of the German forces continues and the enemy is experiencing heavy losses in material owing to the rapid advance of the Allies.

A deputation of W. E. Thompson and S. D. MacDonald appeared before the City Council and stated the position of the Trades and Labor Council in connection with the strike at the Seal Cove sawmill. Electrical workers may refuse to supply current to the mill.

So much ice is required for freezing the fish as it comes in that the Cold Storage Company cannot supply all the fishing boats with ice and some have been tied up for twelve days.

Mayor McClymont reported at the council meeting that conditions at the hydro-electric plant at Shawatlan were such as to create complete confidence for the first time in three years.

The fishing boat Haysport No. 2 arrived in port with a smashed rudder and other serious damage received when she ran aground during a heavy fog in Hudson's Bay passage.

AN EASTERN IDEA OF B. C. ELECTION RESULTS

(Victoria Colonist)
The Conservative press of Eastern Canada is naturally very much elated over the result of the recent provincial election in British Columbia. The Montreal Gazette ascribes the victory to a number of reasons, among which one is the fact that British Columbia is a Conservative province and in provincial politics the dissensions within the Conservative Party have been healed. It also says that the party has now an local leader in Dr. G. F. Tolmie—a gentleman of wide popularity, an experienced parliamentarian and administrator. The Gazette says that the Liberal administration was on the defensive during the campaign and that the provincial railway muddle and the rate of taxation in the province were two of the major issues with which the Government had to contend.

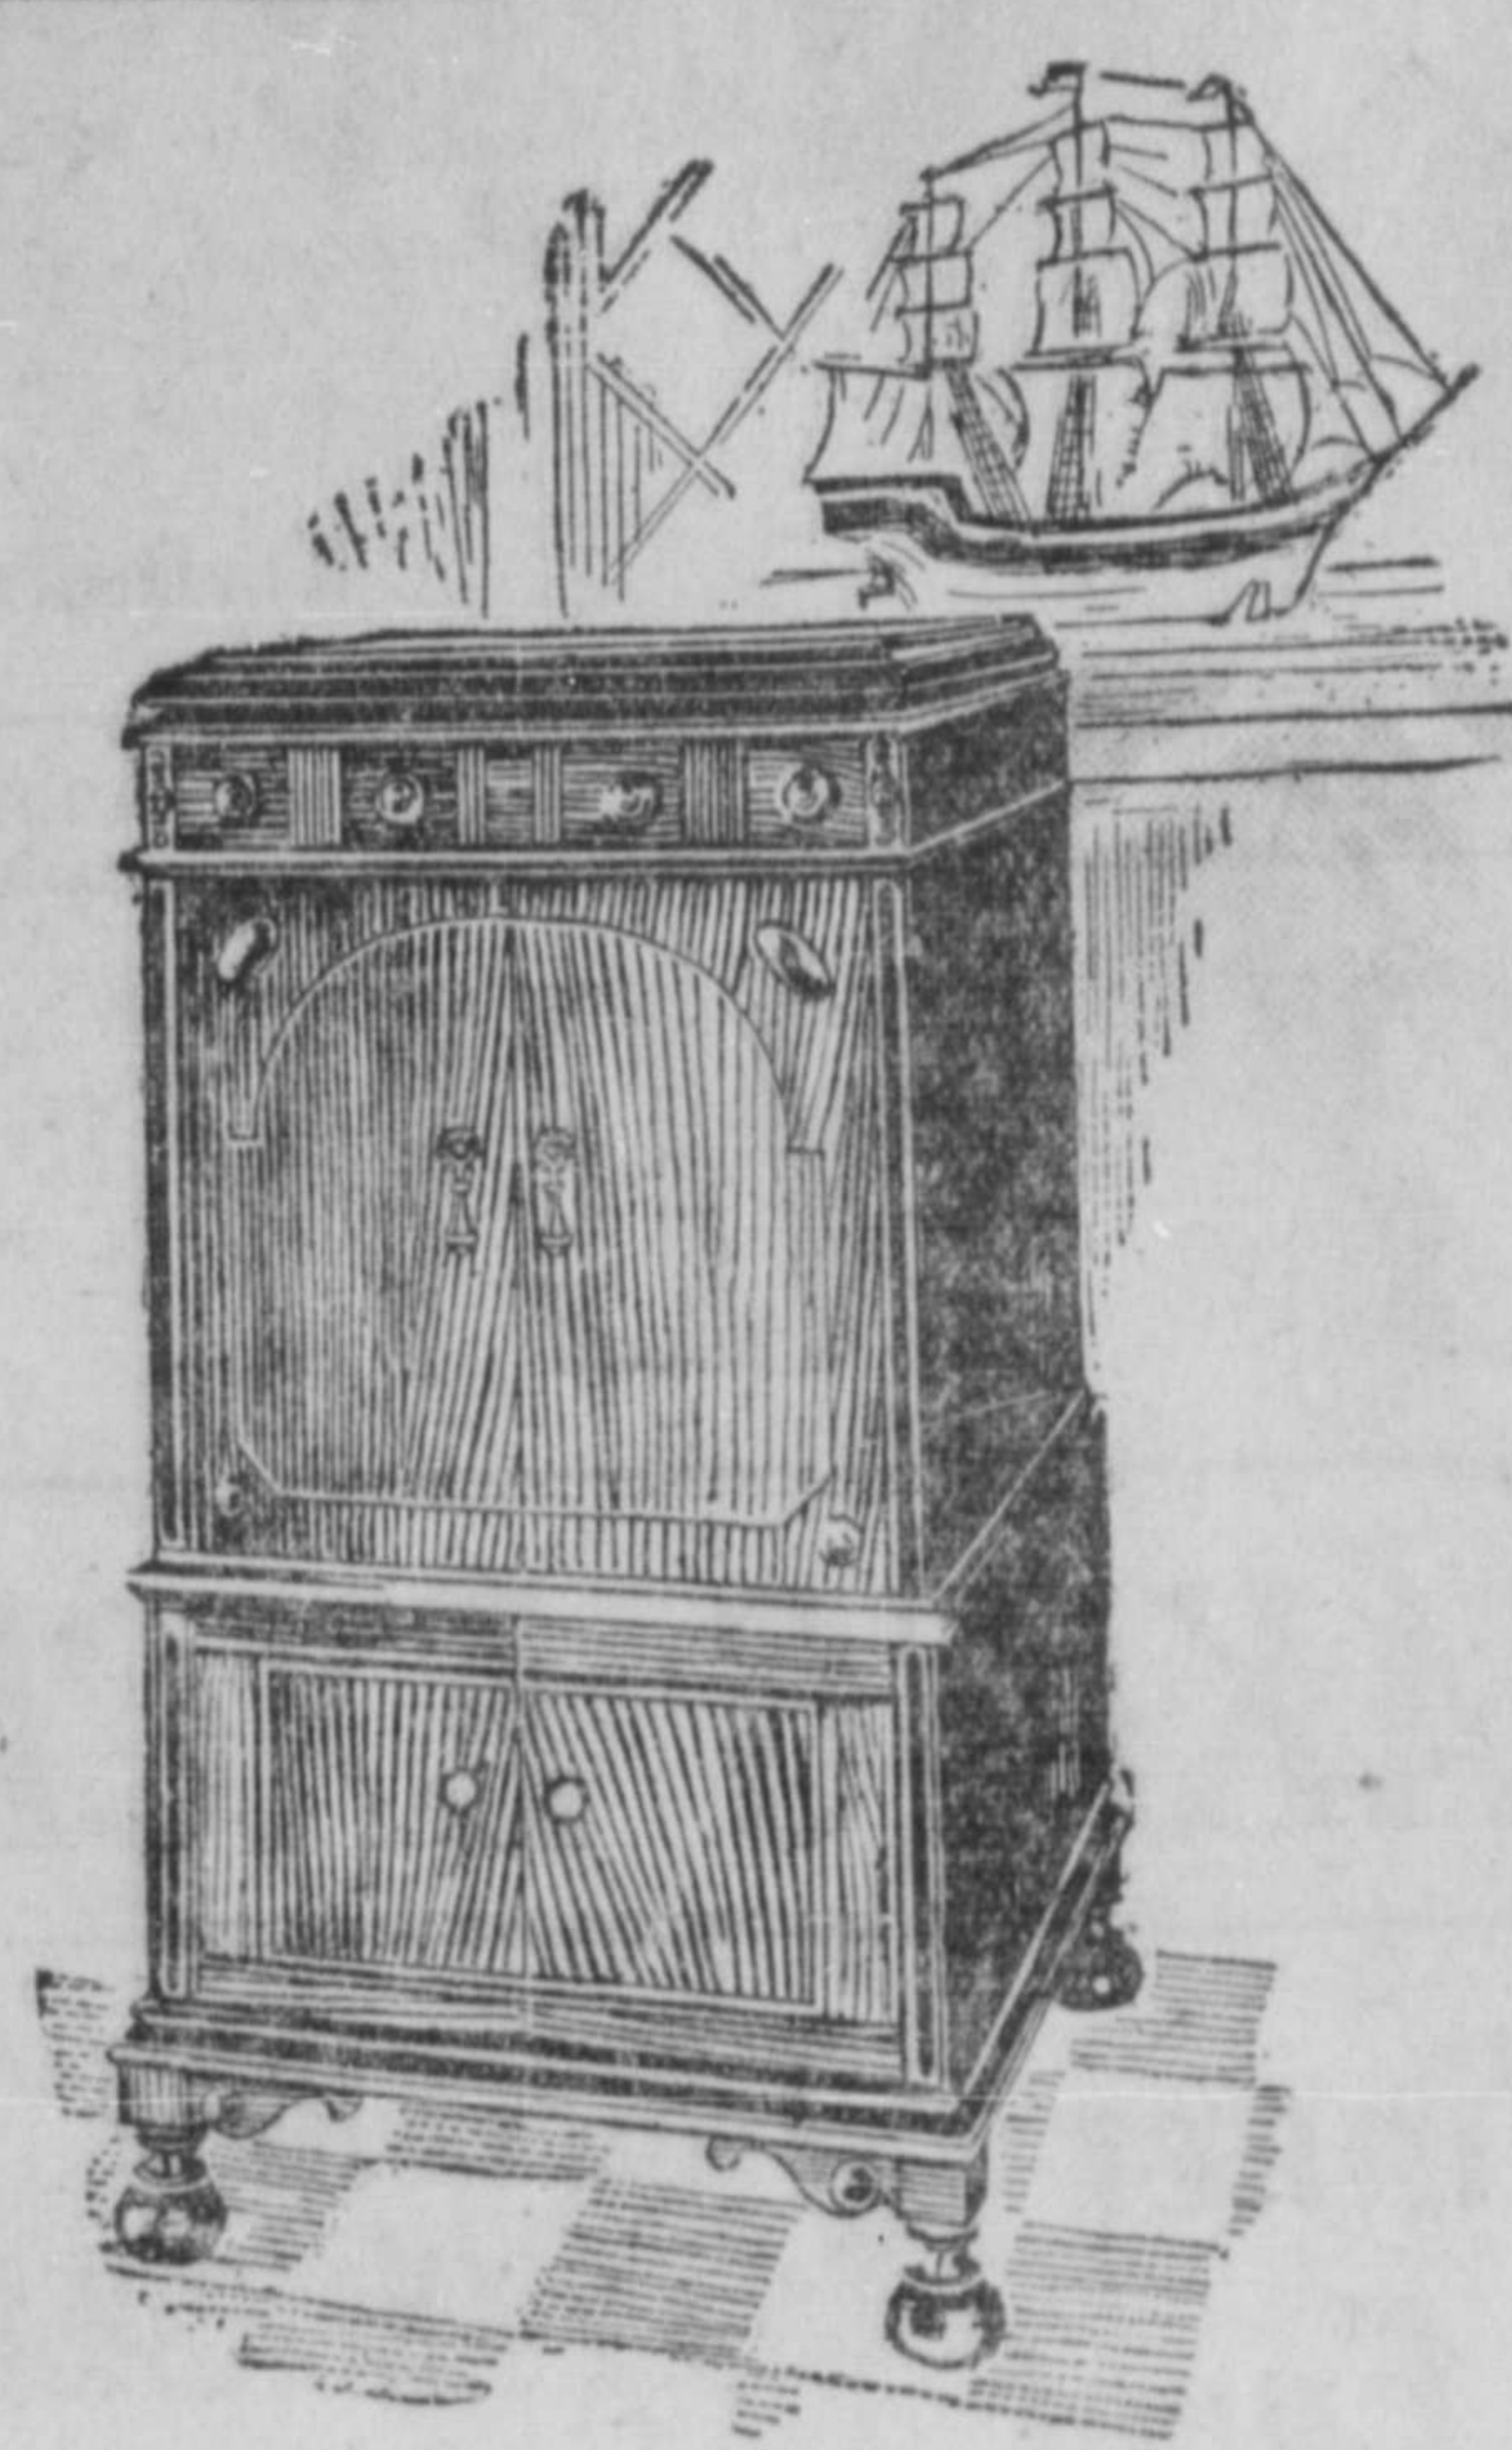

The Gazette remarks on how Dr. Tolmie, in his campaign, gave most of his attention to the broad question of provincial development through the encouragement of industry and inter-provincial trade. "He saw," says The Gazette, "as others have seen, the vision of a splendid commercial and industrial future for British Columbia, and he urged that practical politics should be adopted and applied in order to realize that future." The strength of the appeal which he made to the people is attested by the results.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McMann

Stewart is Today an Important Mining Centre and May Possibly Become an Active Shipping Port

(by H. F. Pullen.) Stewart has had many ups and downs since it was first plotted as a townsite. There was the big boom a few years before the war followed by a decline which almost swept the place out of existence. Then came the flurry of 1922. Since that time there has been a steady improvement in the general condition of affairs until today the prospects are brighter than they have ever been.

The outstanding feature of the present situation is the fact that the mining prospects are being steadily developed, assessment work is being faithfully carried out and more prospectors than ever before are in the hills the number of them being more than double those of the same period in 1927. This will surely bring results in future years and will have a good effect in stimulating business right from the beginning.

The taking over by the Premier Gold Mining Co. of the Porter-Idaho, the Silverado and Prosperity groups with the installation of new aerial tram connecting the mines with tidewater, the building of the dock and the laying out of the new townsite at Marmot River, all are steps of development which mean much to the district. Work is proceeding steadily on a good many excellent prospects, some of which will almost undoubtedly become big producing mines. This is what will make Stewart an important centre.

THE RAILWAY SITUATION
But Stewart people have other aspirations. They hope and expect to see the port develop and the town become the terminus of a railway connecting with the Peace River and intermediate points shipping grain from the Peace, coal from the Groundhog and ore from the metalliferous mines which will develop along its route as well as carrying lumber to the farmers of the interior. This of course would make of the town a city in the immediate future. It would increase its stability and add one more support to the outlets on the Pacific Coast.

It is thought that the C.P.R. is the most likely railway to build through the Peace country to the coast with a Stewart outlet. Possibly the present claimants of the charter would sell out to the C.P.R. Others fancy the C.N.R. might duplicate their present terminals and ship to a new port on Portland Canal either at Stewart or Marmot River. This is being much discussed at the present time. In fact it almost overshadows mining as a topic of conversation. So far as can be gathered no one has any real information on the subject. The syndicate recently acquired the Sir Donald Mann interests in the valley, rebuilt a bridge over the Bear River and put in a little mill for the purpose of cutting lumber for the use of the railway. This done, the work was shut down but there is said to be a possibility of it opening up again if concessions can be obtained from the new Government. That is the present railway situation.

MINING ENCOURAGING
The mining situation is much more encouraging. Not only is the Premier Mine holding out even better than was expected but reserves of ore are being added to continually from new discoveries as the work proceeds and today there are still almost a million tons of ore in sight besides the possibilities of greater discoveries in the future.

By the time the present mine is worked out, it is quite possible an arrangement will be made with the B. C. Silver to operate their mine, the workings of which open into the Premier already at two different points.

The next most interesting and most promising properties in the district are the three, control of which was recently secured by the Premier Company. They are the Porter-Idaho, Prosperity and Silverado. Not only is work proceeding at each of the properties but the aerial tramline is well under way toward completion, a townsite is being cleared at the mouth of the Marmot River, the wagon road has been rebuilt from tidewater to the forks of the Marmot River at the foot of the mountain and there is every indication that ore will be coming down the mountain in the very near future and these properties will be added to the list of shipping mines in the Portland Canal district.

It is not my intention to speak of the mining properties in detail. I was simply at Stewart holidaying recently and while there is not the payroll such as that at the Dunwell before it shut down, there is an even more encouraging condition. The prospectors are all in the hills, working hard to bring their prospects to a condition where mining men will look at them, or else

TERMINALS WIN FOOTBALL GAME

BEAT THISTLES FOUR GOALS, TO TWO IN HARD FOUGHT STRUGGLE FOR SUPREMACY

As anticipated the meeting of the Terminals and Thistle Football teams in City League last evening resulted in a hard fought battle with Terminals running out winners four goals to two.

Thistles were without Haig, Erskine and John Murray. Terminals played Vic Menzies for the first time this year.

Starting with ten men the Terminals played downhill but from a free kick well taken by Woods Alex. Mitchell early gave Thistles the lead. Play was fast and Campbell saved after Warren and Dickens attacked. Chenoski and S. Currie combined nicely. Skinner cleared and Hill missed a great chance when he kicked the ball over. W. Mitchell defended well. Hadden cleared with a very neat bit of play. Dickens headed close, and Warren hit the upright. Sam Currie gave his forwards many chances and then narrowly missed with a header from Hill's corner kick. A Mitchell was in the limelight with a persistent display of aggression but was checked. Then Dickens headed in an equalizer after Campbell saved Strachan's attempt to convert Chenoski's corner. Farquhar centered. A Mitchell was nearly through again.

After changing ends Strachan missed a good opening. George Mitchell fouled Dickens and from the resulting free Dickens put his team ahead. J. Currie everybody but went outside the upright. Campbell cleared S. Currie's shot. Menzies saved from Alex. Mitchell. Woods stopped Dickens and in a raid Alex. Mitchell drove wide. Chenoski gave Dickens a long pass and the latter went ahead to make it three goals for his team. Woods miskicked and Lunde "beat Campbell to the punch" to make it make it four for Terminals. Thistles played up hard. Farquhar slipped Skinner but his centre went a-begging. Campbell saved at point-blank range from Dickens and shortly after from Warren. Hadden was clever. J. Currie hit the underside of the crossbar and Hadden converted to score the second for the Scots. Full time found Terminals winners 4-2.

Thistles—Campbell; W. Murray, R. Woods; G. Mitchell, T. Hadden, Unwin; W. Strachan, J. Currie, A. Mitchell, W. Smith, J. Farquhar.
Terminals—Menzies; Donald, Skinner, Hill, S. Currie, Howe, Lunde, Strachan, Dickens, Warren, Chenoski.
Geo. Russell refereed; S. D. MacDonald and A. Clapperton, linesmen.

SPORT CHAT

The success of the lacrosse games in the city is a very pleasing feature of the sporting activities. The boys are making much progress in the stick-handling game and the promoters are to be congratulated on the success attending their efforts to revive Canada's national game.

The meeting to be held this evening in the city hall to decide on the steps necessary to make the visit of the Ocean Falls football team possible is sure to be largely attended. Everyone wants this outside attraction and it is the question of arrangements to raise the funds to cover the expense of the trip that will be taken up at the meeting.

When the representatives of the two cities met three years ago here Ocean Falls won the cup. Two years ago a team from Prince Rupert went south and lost the first game 6-0. In the second game Prince Rupert won 5-0 and had there been a few more minutes left to play Rupert would assuredly have won. As it was by the margin of a goal the papermen retained the championship.

Prince Rupert representatives this year can turn out a team that will be a credit to the town and that will give the visitors from the south a good game. That was shown especially in the second game with the Durban. There is every justification therefore for trying to arrange the series.

There are several plans by which the necessary funds may be raised and it is up to the sport loving people in town to attend the meeting in the city hall this evening and by their support and presence to make the visit possible and to relieve the executive of much of the worry of raising the money to defray the costs of the visit.

With so much interest in tennis these days consequent on the Davis Cup series it is interesting to note that at Wimbledon in England there is seating room in the covered stand for 12,000 people. There are in addition 800 uncovered seats around the court and standing room for another 3,000 or 4,000 people.

The All-England Club which handles the tennis championships at Wimbledon returned the huge amount of $140,000 to unsuccessful applicants for season tickets sold at $6 each.

The appointments of the dressing rooms at Wimbledon are the last word in comfort. The player finds his clothes laid out for him on time, his shoes whitened and when he returns a hot bath awaits him. His suit is now nicely folded and his street shoes cleaned. The dressing room resembles a hairdresser's and chemist with its supplies of brushes, combs, hair lotions, iodine, lint tablets and bandages.

Over the entrance to the centre court are these words by Kipling—"If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster, treat those two imposters just the same." After all it is a game and success or a failure is of minor importance.

At the dinner given in London to the officials, winners and athletes who were taking part in the Amateur Athletic Championships the secretary said that the A.A.A. was the only body that threw its championships open to the world. Dr. Von Holt the German team manager said that in Germany, they considered Douglas Lowe the best athlete in the world.

The suggestion that the British Empire Games be revived and that they take place every four years on the year previous to the Olympic Games in the in the Dominion country nearest to the staging of the Olympic games was made by J. Duff the Australian manager.

Soccer Comment

In last night's football game in which Terminals beat the Thistles four goals to two Campbell saved some hard drives and was rather nonplussed with Lunde's manipulation of the ball when the latter scored Terminals' fourth goal. W. Mitchell played a strong back game and Woods was a keen tackler. Hadden played a consistently good game at back. The new player Unwin is a man of weight and made his presence felt. George Mitchell tackled well but was inclined to wander. W. Strachan did well at outside right and J. Currie turned in his best game of the season. He nearly broke his record for the most goals scored. Alex Mitchell was always dangerous. W. Smith came from his retirement to play a fair game. All the old time players Thistles have called on this year have risen to the occasion. The newly wed Farquhar showed his usual speed and centered dangerously.

Terminals had the safer defence. Menzies had no chance with the shot that scored. Skinner and Donald were both safe. Donald is improving. Hill was very reliable and dribbled well. Currie was always prominent. One play, when he beat four players in succession at close quarters, was particularly neat. Howe was fast and strong in his kicking. Lunde tried hard. Strachan played well while Dickens was very good, and then not so good at times. He ought to stop questioning the referee's decisions. It did not help his play nor his team. Chenoski was apparently slow but got all his centres across and with a fast centre forward like Dickens the long passes ahead were always a source of danger to the opposing defence.

It was an interesting game to watch and Thistles put up a big fight though handicapped by the absence of their best players.

COMMISSION TO HAVE CONTROL OF UTILITIES

THAT IS DEMAND MADE BY BOARDS OF TRADE OF VANCOUVER ISLAND

VICTORIA, Aug. 1.—A public Utilities Commission for the province will be urged by the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island upon the Government of the province. This request is to be made as a result of the passing of a resolution at the convention of the Associated Boards held in Qualicum. The request is for the reappointment of such a body and it is set out that it should function along the line of providing reduced rates on power from time to time if revision should be held to be proper, based upon the investment of the power companies.

The resolution regarding the Public Utilities Commission was one that provoked a great deal of discussion at the meeting.

From the Spanish and Sidney Boards of Trade came resolutions along this line. As first introduced the resolution was to the effect that in view of the increase in the capitalization of the B.C. Electric Railway Company from $25,000,000 to $80,000,000, and the statement that the rates were not to be raised for light, that in the opinion of the convention the reappointment of the Public Utilities Commission should

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

In the Matter of the "Administration Act"; and In the Matter of the Estate of George Edwards, Deceased.

TAKE NOTICE that by order of His Honor, P. McB. subject of many interviews after this performance. He is one of the most interesting personalities in cricket in England and a fine future in the game is predicted for him, says Reuters Limited.

Mr. Parsons enlisted as a trooper during the war, won his commission, and was decorated with the military cross.

He served with the Worcestershire yeomanry. When peace was declared he was gazetted a captain in the 7th Hussars then in India. He left the army to take up religious work and now is nearing the completion of his studies at a theological college.

Parsons is one of the few cricketers who have changed their status. He played first as a professional for Warwickshire, then as amateur and returned to the professional ranks. He is expected to be ordained into the Church of England priesthood next year and it is pretty definitely settled his first curacy will be somewhere in Warwickshire, when, it is presumed he will become an amateur again.

He is popular as a cricketer because he hits out. He made his records against the West Indian bowler, Scott. His scoring in the over was: 2-2-6-6-6-28. One of his smashes went into the dining room and another clean out of the Birmingham grounds. Another notable performance of Mr. Parsons was the scoring of 225 runs out of 315 in 3 1/2 hours against Glamorgan some years ago. He played for the Players against the Gentlemen in 1925 and headed the Warwickshire batting averages since 1919.

IN PROBATE

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

In the Matter of the "Administration Act"; and In the Matter of the Estate of George Edwards, Deceased.

TAKE NOTICE that by order of His Honor, P. McB. Young, the 29th day of June, A.D. 1928, I was appointed Administrator of the estate of George Edwards, deceased, and all parties having claims against the said estate are hereby required to furnish same properly verified, to me on or before the 6th day of August, A.D. 1928, and all parties indebted to the estate are required to pay the amount of their indebtedness to me forthwith.

NORMAN A. WATT, Official Administrator, Prince Rupert, B.C.

Dated the 6th day of July, A.D. 1928.

subject of many interviews after this performance. He is one of the most interesting personalities in cricket in England and a fine future in the game is predicted for him, says Reuters Limited.

Mr. Parsons enlisted as a trooper during the war, won his commission, and was decorated with the military cross.

He served with the Worcestershire yeomanry. When peace was declared he was gazetted a captain in the 7th Hussars then in India. He left the army to take up religious work and now is nearing the completion of his studies at a theological college.

Parsons is one of the few cricketers who have changed their status. He played first as a professional for Warwickshire, then as amateur and returned to the professional ranks. He is expected to be ordained into the Church of England priesthood next year and it is pretty definitely settled his first curacy will be somewhere in Warwickshire, when, it is presumed he will become an amateur again.

He is popular as a cricketer because he hits out. He made his records against the West Indian bowler, Scott. His scoring in the over was: 2-2-6-6-6-28. One of his smashes went into the dining room and another clean out of the Birmingham grounds. Another notable performance of Mr. Parsons was the scoring of 225 runs out of 315 in 3 1/2 hours against Glamorgan some years ago. He played for the Players against the Gentlemen in 1925 and headed the Warwickshire batting averages since 1919.
