IRREGULAR CONDUCT OF DEFENSE IN CURRIE LIBEL OBJECTED TO BY JUDGE ROSE

COBOURG, April 26.—"If you will continue to make these irregular and unauthorized speeches instead of scolding me I shall have to ask one or other counsel on your side to put up your case." This rebuke was delivered by Mr. Justice Rose to Frank Regan, defense counsel, in the $50,000 libel suit of Sir Arthur Currie yesterday when Regan was protesting against the examination of a witness by R. O. Parmentier, K.C. Regan had previously made several references to the hotel at which Currie and several war veterans were staying as the war college. He objected to witnesses being put through their lecture at Dunham House and then coming into court to repeat it. Yesterday's evidence was largely taken up with the operations of the Princess Patricia light infantry, who were relieved by the 42nd Battalion on November 10, south of Mons.

Ice on Lake Heavy at Time Reports Bureau of Fisheries Assistant Agent

JUNEAU, April 26.—A run of red salmon in the Chilkat river that lasted five weeks and during which thousands of fish ascended that stream was reported Captain M. J. O'Connor, assistant agent of the U.S. bureau of fisheries.

It is the first time in the history of the stream that there has been a winter run of reds, he declared, and authentic reports received by the bureau indicate it was unusually heavy for a first run.

The run was first noticed on February 17 and fish were present from that time until March 24. After March 1 the movement was heavy and continued so until March 18 when it began to slack off, said Captain O'Connor. The fish were in good shape and were taken in considerable numbers for food by the Indians of Klukwan.

From various sources of information as to the size of the run, Captain O'Connor estimates that not less than 12,000 fish ascended the river, and it possibly exceeded that number. Whether they were able to get into the lake to spawn was not known. The ice on the lake was heavy and observations therefore were impossible.

The bureau was unable to account for the run at that season of the year. It was many weeks ahead of the previously reported runs which usually occur about mid-spring.

Logging Methods Not Responsible for Waste of Forests but Fire is Great Menace That Needs Checking

NOT the so-called destructive methods of logging and not the natural enemies of trees, but human carelessness, in many cases wilful and deliberate, is the great menace of Canada's great timber stands today. So stated R. H. Leighton, fire inspector of the Forest Branch, in a "Save-the-Forest-Week" address before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club yesterday afternoon. It was the third time that Mr. Leighton had addressed the club in this connection and once again he brought an emphatic and earnest message on behalf of forest protection. Mr. Leighton suggested three effective methods of dealing with the situation—first, education of the children and the public as a whole; second, public opinion in the matter of encouraging prevention of fire rather than extinguishing the same; and, third, a better and more complete enforcement of the laws relating to the protection of the forests from fire.

After speaking of the great part that wood played in human life not only in the present modern day and age but in the stone and brass ages, Mr. Leighton declared that, during the past seven years, there had been over 13,000 forest fires in the province of British Columbia. Of these less than twenty percent were attributable to lightning, the sole preventable cause. Over eighty per cent had been caused by the human hand either in carelessness or wilfulness.

TIMBER NATURE

Over seventy percent of Canada's timber was now contained in British Columbia. There was much talk of modern wasteful logging methods which Mr. Leighton was inclined to deny. As a matter of fact a great amount of British Columbia's timber was mature and should be cut. He had failed to find a single case of where there was deliberate waste of the forest by the loggers. Such talk might be dismissed from the public mind. Nor were the natural enemies such as insects responsible for the great mortality of the timber. Fire was the great menace which required much thought and considered action to prevent. If fire could be prevented, natural reforestation would retain the original balance from logging and natural enemies.

This was the fifth year that a "Save the Forest, Week" campaign had been conducted in British Columbia. Mr. Leighton questioned the wisdom in some phases of such campaigns. It was essential that it should not be a campaign of one week each year but one of forty-two weeks and 365 days each year—first, education of the children and the public as a whole; second, public opinion in the matter of encouraging prevention of fire rather than extinguishing the same; and, third, a better and more complete enforcement of the laws relating to the protection of the forests from fire.

Mr. Leighton gave many interesting instances designed to show the national value of Canada's timber and the urgent necessity of preserving it from fire. He urged that the gospel of save the forests be instilled into the minds of the children especially and the public as a whole through educational methods. He also suggested that a public opinion be developed whereby the object would be to prevent fires before they started rather than to fight them after they had broken out. Grants for fire prevention at present were meagre while there were apparently unlimited means for the extinguishing of fires after they had broken out and done immense damage. Public opinion, Mr. Leighton urged, should also be developed so that it would be behind stringent enforcement of the regulations. The setting of a forest fire, he said, was almost as heinous a crime as theft.

In conclusion, Mr. Leighton referred to the Canadian Forestry Association educational car that would be here next week. A visit there would be well repaid by what was to be seen. This car would start from Prince Rupert on a tour of the Canadian National Railway line through to Jasper Park.

Mr. Leighton was thanked for his interesting address by L. W. Waugh, president of the Gyro Club, who urged that all members of the organization should do their bit toward forest protection.

BILLY WILLIAMS' CASE

Smithers, B.C.
Editor, Daily News.
I would ask that you kindly give space to this letter in your paper, as it is written with a view to putting before your readers the correct facts concerning the case of Billy Williams, the Kispiox Indian, sentenced to forty days in jail for witchcraft.

In the Province of April 16, the letter signed "Native Son of B.C." states that the Indian, Williams, was jailed "because three years ago he practised the old-aged remedial rites of his people." What Billy Williams has been practising is witchcraft, and although it may be an old-age rite, it is something that cannot be allowed free sway among any class of people, much less Indians who have not had the advantage of an education to help them overcome their superstitions.

Let me quote a few of his doings which are authentic, and which I think can be proven, if our friend will make a few inquiries in the right quarters. Williams practices his craft by claiming to blow into a person or blow out of them, bad or good devils, or spirits. Last fall, an Indian whom the white doctors were treating for heart trouble offended Williams and because of this had blown into him a bad devil that would cause him to die before the snow went this spring, and he was not to die in bed. Sure enough the Indian was found dead on his trap line early this spring; his end hastened, maybe by fear of what he was told would overtake him.

Another offender was told that he would die in the Kispiox Valley sometime this summer, and his fear of this has caused him to move his family and belongings to another section of Central B.C., some two hundred miles from Kispiox. Other cases could be cited but these two will illustrate what Williams has been doing, and if it is not witchcraft, I do not know what you would call it.

I think if our friend "Native Son of B.C." will make inquiries he will find the Indians were very much afraid of this doctor and are perhaps very well pleased that he is in jail.

The letter referred to gives the inference that Williams practised medical ceremonies only, but this is not so, as the cases just mentioned and others will prove. Where this Indian witchcraft doctor is on a par with Dr. Coue, or the orange-juice doctors, is hard to see, but I trust the readers of the letter published will read this also, and, after weighing the evidence, come to the conclusion that witchcraft, particularly among the natives of our province should be dealt with in a firm hand.

HENRY S. WINDT.

WITCHCRAFT CASES.

Editor, Daily News.

I have carefully read Mr. Patmore's letter on this subject, and remain entirely unconvinced. It is a lawyer's clever special pleading and fails to meet the essential facts. An Indian has been sent to jail for doing what white people constantly do openly and without restraint. That is the cold, hard fact on which Mr. Patmore's legal argument goes to pieces. Witchcraft, fortune telling, crystal gazing and the like are extensively practiced among the white people of this province and nobody is arrested or jailed for it. But the Indian is. White people practice religious rites for physical healing. So did Billy Williams, the Indian, and—after three years—found himself in jail for it. So that civil and religious liberty are both denied to the aborigines in this free Christian country. That is the plain ugly fact.

Mr. Patmore urges that the court was justified in sending Williams to jail for an offence committed three years before, and out of which admittedly no harm had come—because there was some reason to believe he had committed a similar offence more recently. That is to say, the man was punished for the offence because it was thought he had been guilty of another. Not being a lawyer, I don't know whether that is law, but I am quite sure it isn't justice.

Let it be understood I am not justifying the practice of witchcraft, but pleading for justice and fair play for the Indian. I recall Russell Lowell's great words:

"He is slave most base
Whose love of right is for himself and not for all the race—"

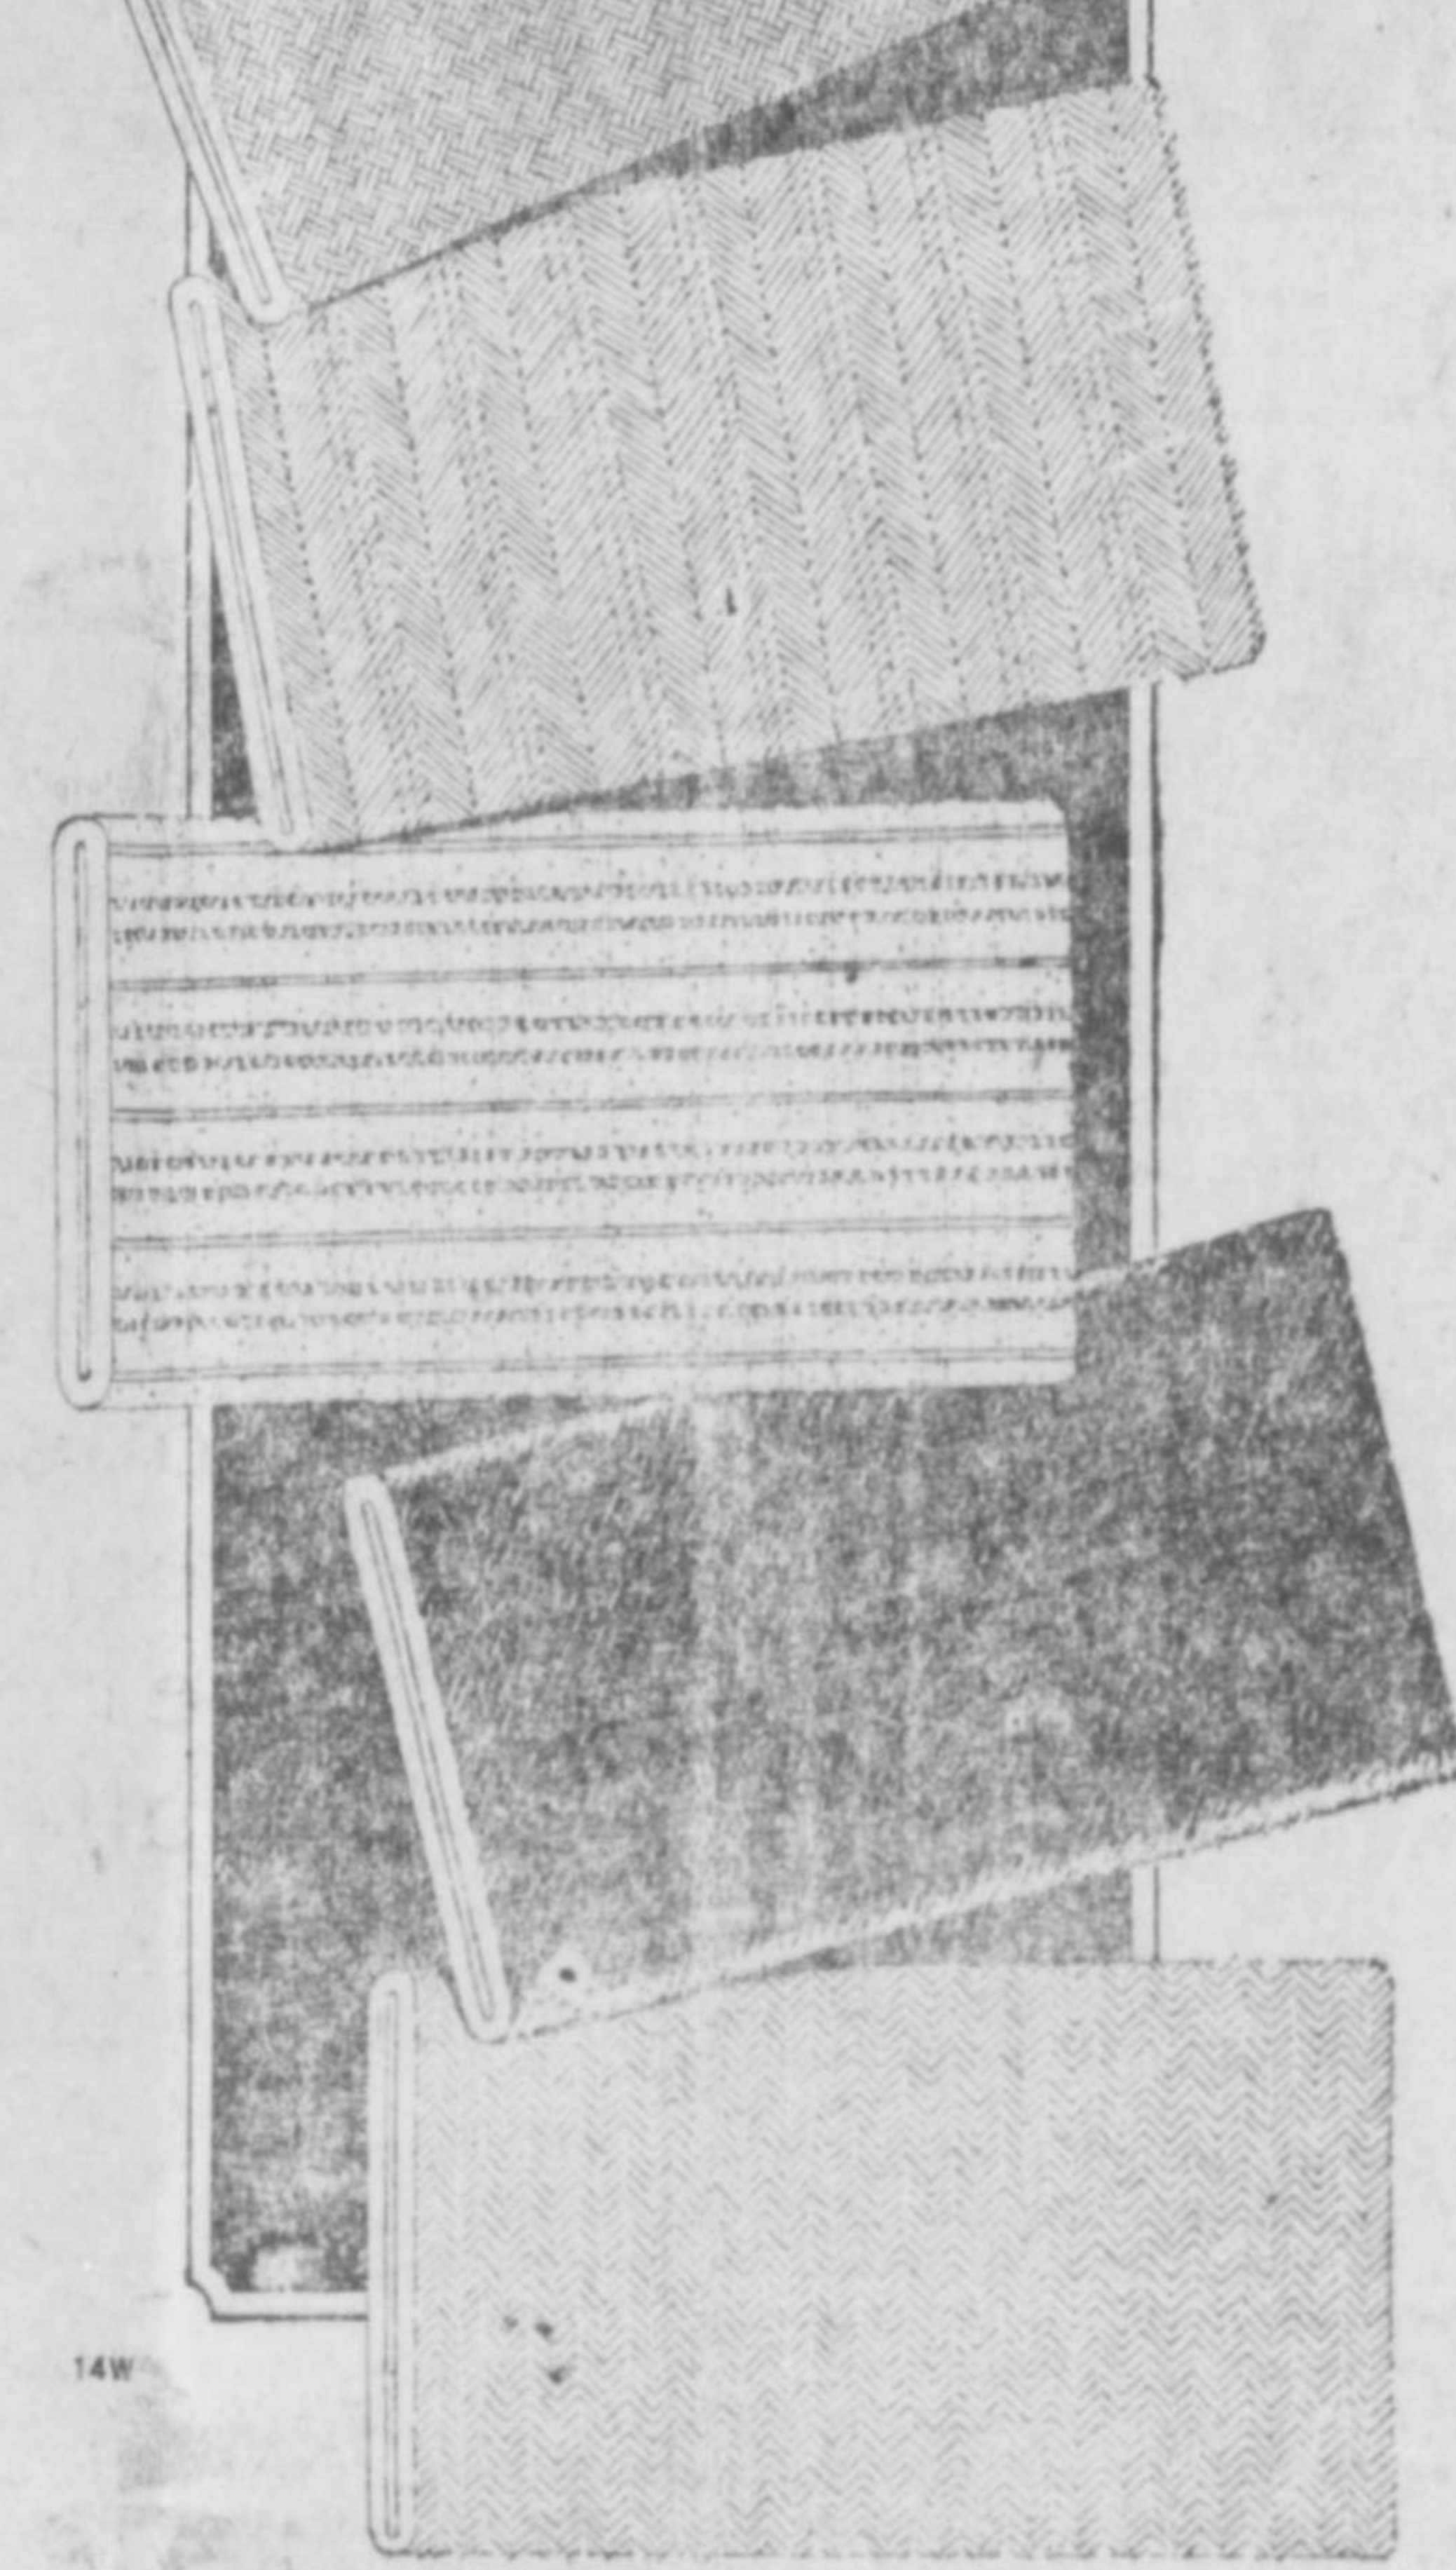

The liberties we claim for ourselves are as much the right of the Indians as they are ours. And in the long run tyranny and injustice do more harm to those who practice them than to those who suffer.

With regard to the plea that "there is usually sound judgment and common sense behind . . . the Criminal Code." That may be so, yet laws become obsolete and have to be repealed, and a law that was just and desirable when enacted, under the conditions then prevailing, with the passing of years may become unjust and need to be abolished.

My only plea is give the Indian a square deal.

Diabetes Mellitus

Diabetes is not a kidney disease as many people think, but a condition in which the kidneys become involved, and ultimately break down as a result of their strenuous efforts to eliminate sugar from the blood stream.

The presence of sugar in the blood has double significance. It points out that the cells of the body are not assimilating the much-needed carbohydrates so necessary to its physical economy, besides the irritating effect it has on the kidneys in the discharge of their duties.

Up to date all so-called cures for diabetes mellitus have proved a complete failure.

By my natural methods I do not combat the disease, but aid the natural tendencies of the system to fight itself in a crisis.

If you are suffering from diabetes I will be glad to have you call in and allow me to go into your case in detail. This consultation service I will gladly render free of charge.

SIERRA CLUB TO VISIT RUPERT

WILL CLIMB MOUNT ROBSON AND OTHER PEAKS BEFORE COMING TO THIS CITY

WINNIPEG, April 26.—The Sierra Club of California, the most important Alpha organization west of the Mississippi River in the United States plan an ascent on some of the highest and most difficult peaks in the Canadian Rockies this summer and will then return by way of Prince Rupert. It will be the first visit of the club to Canada, though some of its members have made individual climbs in the past. The peak which skirt the Tonquin Valley in Jasper National Park, Alberta, will have attention before camp is moved to Ber Lake behind Mount Robson, B.C., the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies.

The Tonquin Valley group is known as the Ramparts and it features Mount Geikie, Turret, Bastion, Redoubt, Dungeon, Fraser, Erebus and Eremita. The rear lie Postern and Casemite, two great peaks which have not been climbed. The Alpine Club of Canada held its 1926 camp in this area.

Three hundred members of the club from Los Angeles and San Francisco will make the trip. Leaving San Francisco on July 7 they will proceed to Vancouver and from there by special train over the Canadian National Railways to Jasper where a full day will be spent at Jasper Park Lodge. They will then return west as far as Geikie, the first station west of Jasper, and from there follow the Meadow Creek trail to the Tonquin Valley, a distance of 14 miles. They will remain in the Tonquin from July 11 to July 18 when they continue west to Mount Robson station. From there they will follow the Grand Fork trail, Kinney Lake and the Valley of a Thousand Falls to Berg Lake where camp will be established. They remain in this district until August 3 when they entrain for Prince Rupert, B.C. from where they return to Vancouver by Canadian National Steamships.

APRIL 30

the last day for Income Tax Returns

The law states that penalties must be imposed after that date

THE Department of National Revenue urges all Dominion Income Tax-payers to file returns without delay.

The official forms may be obtained at any Post Office or by writing the Inspector of Income Tax for your district. Two copies, properly filled in, together with an accepted cheque or express or money order for the full amount of the tax, or the first installment as you desire, must be mailed to the Inspector of Income Tax, for your district, not later than April 30. Cheques must be made payable to The Receiver General of Canada.

Even though you may believe you are not liable to tax, you are advised to file a return before April 30 if your income in 1927 was more than $1,500.

For your convenience a few of the outstanding provisions of The Income Tax Law are explained in this advertisement.

Three Kinds of Forms

There are three kinds of Dominion Income Tax Forms, one of which will apply to any tax payer. The different forms are:

Form T 1 —For all individuals, other than farmers or ranchers.

Form T 1A—For farmers and ranchers.

Form T 2 —For corporations and joint stock companies.

If you so desire, the Inspector of Income Tax for your district will send you upon written request a revised copy of The Income War Tax Act, Consolidated, Chapter 97 (R.S.C. 1927).

Income from All Sources Must be Declared

The public is especially reminded to report all income from bearer bonds—whether Dominion, Provincial, Municipal or Industrial. The 1928 legislation enlarges the powers of the department which is now enabled to trace the ownership of all bearer bonds.

Personal Exemptions

Personal exemptions should be noted carefully. They may be summarized as follows: (a) $3,000 in the case of a married person or householder, or any other person who has dependent upon him any of the following persons:

1. A parent or grand-parent.
2. A daughter or sister.
3. A son or brother under 21 years of age; or incapable of self-support on account of mental or physical infirmity—except where the husband and wife each have a separate income in excess of $1,500, then each shall receive not $3,000 exemption, but $1,500 exemption.

(b) $1,500 in the case of unmarried persons.

(c) $500 for each child under 21 years of age who is dependent upon the tax payer for support, or if 21 years of age or over is incapable of self-support on account of mental or physical infirmity.

Send Cheque with the Return

Income tax may be paid either in a lump sum or in four installments, plus interest. An accepted cheque or express or money order for either the full amount or the amount of the first installment must accompany the official forms. Do not send cash. April 30 is the last day.

The return and the cheque are to be mailed to the Inspector of Dominion Income Tax for your district.

Cheques are to be made payable to "The Receiver General of Canada." Cheques must be marked "accepted" by the bank on which drawn.

FILE YOUR RETURN ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30.

If you delay making Income Tax returns the penalties provided by the Act must be imposed.

THISTLE TEAM IS WELCOMED

EXECUTIVE OF REGIMENT EXPRESS PLEASURE AT MOST RECENT ADDITION TO SOCCER

The executive of the Regiment football team met last evening at the Armoury, J. S. Wilson presiding. Other members present were C. J. Norrington, secretary, C. Youngman, F. Hardy, F. Hunter.

C. J. Norrington and F. Hardy were appointed delegates to the annual meeting of the Football Association. Satisfaction was expressed at the formation of the Thistle football team as it was felt that a three-team league was necessary that football might be kept alive and interesting.

Delegates were instructed to support the formation of an Intermediate Football League if at all feasible, so that the players who graduate from the Junior Football League might get the experience necessary before they reach the age and weight necessary for senior football.

anybody in the house—or fight."

Comment on the game played several weeks ago between England and Scotland is very interesting. Here is what the Observer says of it:

As the score suggests, there was no common ground of comparison between the elevens of Scotland and England at the Wembley Stadium yesterday. The Scots were such masters of their craft that the Saxons appeared as if they were as helpless as small boys chasing a butterfly. It may be that there was a contest in the first half. Possibly the two goals by which Scotland led at the interval exaggerated their superiority, but fortified with such an advantage the Scots proceeded to play a winning game with such self-possession, such combination and such ease that the Englishmen were almost lookers-on.

The Scots did just as they liked with the ball, every member of their team showing that command of the almighty thing for which they are justly famous. It is difficult to recall a match in which England have been so completely subdued. One will say that the English back play was punctured with blunders, that Jones of Blackburn Rovers had no idea of checkmating Jackson of Huddersfield, the Scottish outside right, that the half backs of the home land were ordinary toilers and defenders, seldom prompting attacks, and that there was but one forward in the English vanguard. So it appeared, but the root of the matter is that, take the match as a whole, the English eleven were outclassed by the entire team work of the Scots.

Once were counted fifteen consecutive passes from Scot to Scot, without an opponent ever getting a chance of playing the ball. That was perfect manoeuvre, and the spectators simply shorted to see such things. This united action and the intelligent and superb raiding of Jackson and Alan Morton were beyond any conception of the game that the Englishmen showed. Looking at this exhibition, it is not astonishing that England has not won a match and not saved a point during this season.

SPORT CHAT

Battling Dido Gúrvich seems to be doing better on his training campaign in the south than even some of his warmest local supporters could have expected. With one decision and one knockout (of Johnny Marks on Thursday night in Vancouver) added to his record during the brief two weeks or so he has been south, the local boy would seem to be making good. He was fortunate in getting on a Vic Foley preliminary card for his first engagement in the south. This caused considerable attention evidently for Dido just this week figured on an Elks' Lodge card. Tomorrow night he journeys to Britannia Beach to engage in a boxing show there. He should be rapidly gaining the experience which he needs in his business. Local fans are interested and gratified in his showing. Possibly, he may be able to retrieve lost fortune when he returns home.

Unwise publicity served to make the Montreal Maroons unpopular in the National Hockey League during the past season. In nearly every city they visited they were "greeted" with exaggerated newspaper accounts telling about this crashing, bruising, rough-house team. Maroons undoubtedly were a heavy-hitting aggregation, but no more so than were the New York Rangers or the Boston Bruins, who in one game at Madison Square Garden engaged in the fiercest and most relentless body-checking sixty-minute duel ever seen in the professional league. Maroons deserve credit, not censure. They asked no quarter, and they gave none, and they came as close as runners-up can possibly come to winning the championship. Only in accurate shooting cost them the final game.

Laundry Washed Clothes Are Not Rubbed

YOU know how you douse your dainty lingerie up and down in a bowl of sudsy water... that's the way your clothes are washed in a modern laundry. They are not rubbed or scrubbed but are gently swished back and forth in warm filtered rainsoft water until the pure soap actually foams. Every particle of dirt is loosened without unduly lessening the tensile strength of the fabric. Then come many rinses of rainsoft water so that your laundry washed clothes not only look and feel clean but are scientifically clean.

SCRANTON MALE CHORUS CHARTER A SHIP FOR NATIONAL EISTEDDFOD

Scythia Will Fly Welsh Flag as She Steams Out of New York

SCRANTON, Pa., April 26. — The steamship Scythia has been chartered by the Anthracite Male Chorus of Scranton to take it to Cardiff, Wales, where it is entered in the National Eisteddfod, to be held at Treorchy. The Scythia will sail from New York, July 21, and the chorus will participate in the competition of August 8. More than 1000 friends of the singers will accompany them to Wales.

It is the first time that a chorus from this region has entered this musical classic and the community is united in the hope that the songsters from the coal regions will return home with their share of honors. When the Scythia sets sail from New York on that July morning, atop her mast will be the flag of Wales—a banner made in this city by girls representative of eleven nationalities.

Attention of owners and operators of metalliferous mines is directed to the requirements of the Metalliferous Mines Regulation Act of British Columbia which provide that all underground blasting operations must be performed by competent men who hold a certificate of competency for this work, as follows:

RULE 24 "Permanent blasting certificates shall be obtained from an Inspector of Mines. Provisional blasting certificates valid for a period not exceeding ninety days, or until the first visit of the Inspector of Mines, may be granted by the mine superintendent, or a qualified person authorized by the mine superintendent. No more than one provisional certificate shall be granted to one and the same person. Such certificates may be obtained in blank form from the office of the Chief Inspector of Mines. A duplicate of each provisional blasting certificate issued must be forwarded to the office of the Chief Inspector of Mines, Victoria, B.C." Notification regarding the opening of a new mine or the re-opening of an old mine should be made to the Chief Inspector of Mines, Victoria, or to the Inspector of Mines for the district before work is commenced.
