FISHERIES SEASON

This is expected to be a big fishery season. Both in the Skeena and Naas Rivers there were good catches four years ago and in the natural order of things they should be heavy both this year and next.

There are a number of changes made this year by the canneries. No advances are being made to fishermen to induce them to fish, as had been the custom in the past. The advances started the men in debt and sometimes at the close of the season they ended the same way. This year at the close of the season the men should have more money to spend than formerly.

Cannerymen say is every indication that the run will be a big one this year.

VILLAGE OF OSLAND

Very few Prince Rupert people have visited the village of Osland at the east side of Smith Island. It is about eighteen miles from this city and the inhabitants are mostly of Icelandic origin, all fishermen. The homes are built facing the water, each with its own garden and with a school in the centre and a board walk leading to it from all the homes.

As with all Icelandic people they are thrifty and industrious and of a degree of intelligence far above the average. A few of them have married English wives and all enjoy the comforts of life. They raise flowers and vegetables and berries and enjoy themselves in a quiet way. There is trout in the lake at the back of the village, salmon in the river, and deer in the woods and the gardens are much earlier than in Prince Rupert, some of the potatoes there being now nearly twelve inches high.

It is a pity the settlement cannot be extended as the more thickly inhabited the place is, the more of the refinements of life can be obtained by the residents.

CONSERVATIVE PROGRAM

The Conservative program is an extensive one, including pretty much everything that has already been taken in hand by the Liberal government. Judging by the platform there is absolutely no difference between the parties. It would almost seem as if they stood for the same thing. The only manner in which any difference can be ascertained is by looking back twelve years and seeing what the other party was doing then.

But, as a matter of fact, the campaign now before us is largely one of personality. Which group of men are the best fitted to carry on the executive work of the province? The present government has been in for twelve years, and in that time it is not uncommon for a government to deteriorate, being a prey to hangers on and grafters that sap the lifeblood of the country. Curiously enough this has not happened in connection with the present administration. Efforts have been made to try to implicate them but without result. They seem to have carried on the affairs of the province in a businesslike manner and have secured results. The members of the cabinet are men of outstanding ability and the probability is they will be returned to carry on for another four or five years.

NOTHING DISTINCTIVE

It seems a pity that Dr. Tolmie could not have thought up at least one outstanding feature for his platform. He might almost as well have saved the three columns of platitudes which were issued and said to the people. We are Liberals but we call ourselves Conservatives. We have to do that in order to have an excuse to come to you and ask for your votes. We agree with every Liberal principle and we also agree with the proposal to sell the P.G.E. to the C.N.R. or complete the road ourselves.

Dr. Tolmie is a capable man. When he was first chosen as member for Victoria to support the Union government both parties claimed him as one of them. He had never been in politics before. The difficulty is that he is almost alone. He has no backers who are fitted to administer such a business as that of the government of British Columbia.

News of the Mines

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT

Highest Production Yet at Premier Mine: High Values in Marmot Mines; Drilling at the Independence

Following the fire last winter, the Premier mine now has an even more complete, permanent and comfortable camp equipment than formerly. The mill is running over 400 tons per day and the mine, in addition, is shipping over five hundred tons which is to date, date, the high point of Premier's production. While it is generally admitted that the resources of Premier mine itself are now in sight of exhaustion, the company is taking active steps with a view to ensuring continuation of production when Premier's ore bodies become exhausted with the acquisition of such properties as the Silverado, Porter Island and Prosperity in 500 workmen. By October the company expects to have a continuous flow of high grade ore coming over its tramline to the Prosperity group which is now under construction.

Aggressive work is being carried on by G. R. Bancroft, engineer in charge of the Northern Light mine at Stewart to prove that property. He reports having already stripped 100 feet of one outcrop over 3 1/2 feet wide from which samples running as high as $64 per ton have been taken. This is on the north-east portion of the property. On the western portion, adjoining the Woodbine, two large veins are being stripped which seem to confirm the extension of the Woodbine ore body into the Northern Light. Surface samples from these outcrops have been running over twenty-one ounces in silver.

Assays of samples taken from the property of the Marmot River Gold Mines Ltd. are reported to show high values, placed samples going as high as $88 per ton. The ore was taken at different points on the vein system and over an average width of at least twelve inches. This indicates that a considerable amount of shipping ore should be developed. The directors of the company has expressed their intention of shipping down ore during the coming summer.

After an experience of thirty-five years of lode mining in British Columbia, it may be accepted as an axiom that gold in the free state is not to be expected here as it occurs in California, South Africa and other countries writes E. A. Hagen of Vancouver. There may be an exception in the auriferous blanket of Omineca concerning which very little authentic information is yet available. What free gold as has been found has come almost entirely from surface oxidation. The lode gold industry of British Columbia must depend on the development of the complex auriferous sulphide deposits as at Rossland, Surf Inlet, Premier and Hedley.

The Independence Mine at Stewart is inaugurating a diamond drilling program with a crew of some fifteen men. The first hole will be drilled 500 to 600 feet to try and intercept No. 2 vein at a depth of 400 feet.

Favorable reports continue to come from the Duthie mine at Smithers. Shipments of lead and zinc concentrates are going forward to the Trail smelter at the rate of two carloads per week and mine developments continue to be of a most encouraging nature. Recent disclosures indicate that the ore bodies are increasing in size as depth is obtained and that tonnage possibilities are much greater than has been heretofore anticipated. A diamond drill is to be placed on the mine in order that the fullest possible information regarding these new discoveries may be obtained at the earliest possible moment.

As previously announced a new company incorporated under the laws of British Columbia—the Los Angeles-Vancouver Mines Ltd., with two Los Angeles men as active principals, is now working the old Drum Lummon mine in Douglas Channel, down the coast from Prince Rupert. The new organization, capitalized at $1,000,000, has bought the property from the Paisley Point Mining Co., Ltd. and Dr. T. H. Agnew of Vancouver, president of the Paisley Point Mining Co., is president of the new incorporation. Samuel E. Chaney of Los Angeles, has direct charge of mining operations and Homer Mills, Los Angeles attorney, is attending to the administration of the company's affairs. J. B. Vernon, formerly of Vancouver and now of Los Angeles, negotiated the deal. The mine, upon which about 2,000 feet of tunneling has been done, as a railway running from the 100 foot wharf up to the lower terminal of the aerial tramway, a distance of 4,000 feet while the tram extends 2,000 feet to the upper ore bins. There is a 500 cubic foot compressor and a 120 h.p. diesel oil plant at the mine. Though experts, including the government mines engineer, have expressed the opinion that further exploratory work should show conclusive results, the property has been only intermittently operated and has been idle for the past two years. The new company plans to sink at least two winzes on the ore and will explore with drifts, the object of the new holders being to block out enough ore to justify erection of a mill. The original Drum Lummon Mines Ltd. stopped work in 1923 and went into bankruptcy in 1924, financial supporters in New York have closed down on the company after large sums had been spent on surface equipment and comparatively little underground. "Though the vein has been drilled on for about four hundred feet," says the report of the government engineer "encountering more or less ore in two areas, there has been little exploratory work done above or below this drift, except in stopping from which about 1,000 tons of ore was mined where 100 tons, judiciously stopped, would have produced the same amount of values. The property is therefore at a stage where all the preliminary dead-work has been done, all necessary equipment installed and consequently at a point where subsequent well-advised exploratory work should show conclusive results. From the results of underground work so far and the nature of the vein and mineralization I think extensive development is fully warranted." The holdings consist of thirteen crown-granted mineral claims on Orum Lummon Bay on the north side of Douglas Channel, about 26 miles from Hartley Bay.

There is considerable activity in mining circles in the Owen Lake territory south of Houston. Recently Kenneth Warner, road foreman for the western portion of Omineca district, made a trip in the instance of the provincial government to make preparations for building roads to the new mining camps. On the way out in company with the resident engineer, Douglas Lay of Hazelton, Mr. Warner noticed some mineralized rock and, upon breaking off a piece, discovered a lead of rich galena ore. The vein was so rich and mineral indications in the vicinity so good that a number of claims have already been staked. The location is approximately eight miles from the "Cole property."

Man in the Moon

What is the use of perfect English to a man if he has nothing to use it for.

The worm turns. Mostly it is the man holding the wheel in the front seat when the woman behind is driving.

There are always some annoyances. The fleas are annoyed because the dogs insist on scratching them.

Rest is not always healthy. An egg gets rotten by just doing nothing.

A Scotchman was seen wandering around Acropolis Hill as if looking for flowers to pick. On being accosted, he said he wanted a game of tennis but the year before last balls did not play very well.

Now that Jube Pivius has gone on a holiday, Prince Rupert is enjoying itself.

Last week I went swimming
A swimming in the lake
But now I am inclined to think
The championship I'll take.

For there will be a gala
For water sports there soon
And something seems to tell me
I shall have good fortune.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

Father P. J. McGrath officiated at a very interesting wedding this morning at 6:30 when Miss Louie Astori was united in marriage to Charles P. Balsano. The bride, who was gowned in white satin with veil, was attended by her sisters, Miss Palmira Astori and Miss Mary Astori, who wore pink crepe-de-chine. Richard Moore supported the groom. The couple will take up residence in the Sweet Apartment on Fifth Avenue West.

Lieut. Commander B. L. Johnson, D.S.O., formerly skipper of the steamer Prince Rupert, is visiting the coast, being on leave from his naval duties overseas where he has acquired himself with much distinction.

E. S. H. Winn and Parker Williams of the Workmen's Compensation Board are visiting the district and are expected in Prince Rupert this week.

STEPPE HAD TO WORK IN KETCHIKAN OFFICE ON ARRIVAL THERE

The Ketchikan Chronicle of recent date says:

M. L. Steppe, United States custom agent for the past few years at Prince Rupert, did not "watch his step" when he arrived on official business with the Prince George and "stepped" right into an unsolicited job.

Mr. Steppe in the natural course of his duty dropped into the United States customs office here. M. S. Dobbs, one of the local custom officials, left on the Alameda for a short vacation trip to the states to get his thirty-third Masonic degree, and George Woodruff was working in the office all alone when Mr. Steppe stepped in.

Mr. Woodruff welcomed the Prince Rupert official like a long-lost brother. Clearances and entries of boats were coming in right and left and Woodruff was making the ink fly.

"Help a fellow out?" asked Mr. Woodruff pausing for breath and giving the SOS official sign.

Mr. Steppe started in for what he thought would be a few minutes' work and will have been steadily at the grind until closing time this afternoon. He says he will take the first boat from Ketchikan to Prince Rupert.

ROTARY AIMS ARE DISCUSSED

BIG WORLD CONVENTION OPENED TODAY AT MINNEAPOLIS WITH 41 COUNTRIES REPRESENTED

MINNEAPOLIS, June 19.—The emphasis by Rotary upon service through vocation has had a distinct effect upon present day civilization, declared Arthur H. Sapp, of Huntington, Ind., Rotary International president, in opening the business sessions of the nineteenth annual convention today. Constant emphasis upon higher standards of business practice is the greatest service Rotarians can render the world at large, he told the thousands of delegates representing clubs in all parts of the world. Discussion of this and other aims of Rotary in an open forum, where nearly three thousand communities in 44 different countries were represented, occupied the convention program all afternoon.

From this immense gathering, which packed the new municipal auditorium to the rafters, the discussion of ways and means by which Rotarians can be of greater service is to be split up in the other afternoon sessions into many smaller groups. These groups, composed of members from far and near around the world, exchanged experiences in community problems, boys work programs and vocational service projects, for the development of an outline of activities to be carried back to their widely scattered home cities for the coming year's work. "We have that inspiration today," said President Sapp, "which comes when men gather together from the ends of the earth for a common purpose. Our conventions, unique in scope and purposes, have grown to enormous proportions, and we are now giving supreme thought to definite plans to carry out the aims and objects of Rotary with a forward looking view to a world vision of usefulness."

ALASKAN GIRLS ARE JUST AS HUNGRY AS THOSE ON THIS SIDE

(Ketchikan Chronicle)

What is the appetite of 200 Ketchikan girls?

The Ketchikan Commercial Club which gave the girls picnic to Bugge Beach yesterday are convinced that Alaska girls carry their appetite right along with them all the time.

For instance, here is the bulk of what was consumed yesterday: Fifteen gallons of lemonade, fifteen gallons of ice cream, eighty pounds of wafers, eight hundred rolls and cookies, four hundred oranges.

And there was nothing left to be returned. It was a wonderful day, the water was fine for bathing and everything went through without a hitch.

Master Jack Gillatt, who has been attending High School in the city, sailed last night by the Prince John for Sandspit to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Gillatt.

NEURASTHENIA

Neurasthenia is a condition in which the nervous system becomes exhausted as a result of overwork; it is a functional neurosis marked by intense nervous irritability and weakness.

Some of the symptoms are: headache, feelings of constrictions about the neck, pain in the back, exhaustion after slight mental or physical exertion, excessive sensibility to noise, irregular heart action, disorders of vision, loss of memory, etc. The patient becomes mentally depressed, occasionally trying to do away with himself, in fact many inmates of our insane asylums are neurasthenics. In such cases pressure on spinal nerves becomes more or less general, thus disturbing the functions of the digestive and eliminative organs, and numerous glands of internal and external secretions.

Spinal adjustments are absolutely necessary for a permanent cure in such conditions, occasionally giving almost instant relief.

PLAN BOXING TOURNEY HERE

MEETING WITH LOCAL TALENT DEBATED BY MEN OF H.M.S. DURBAN

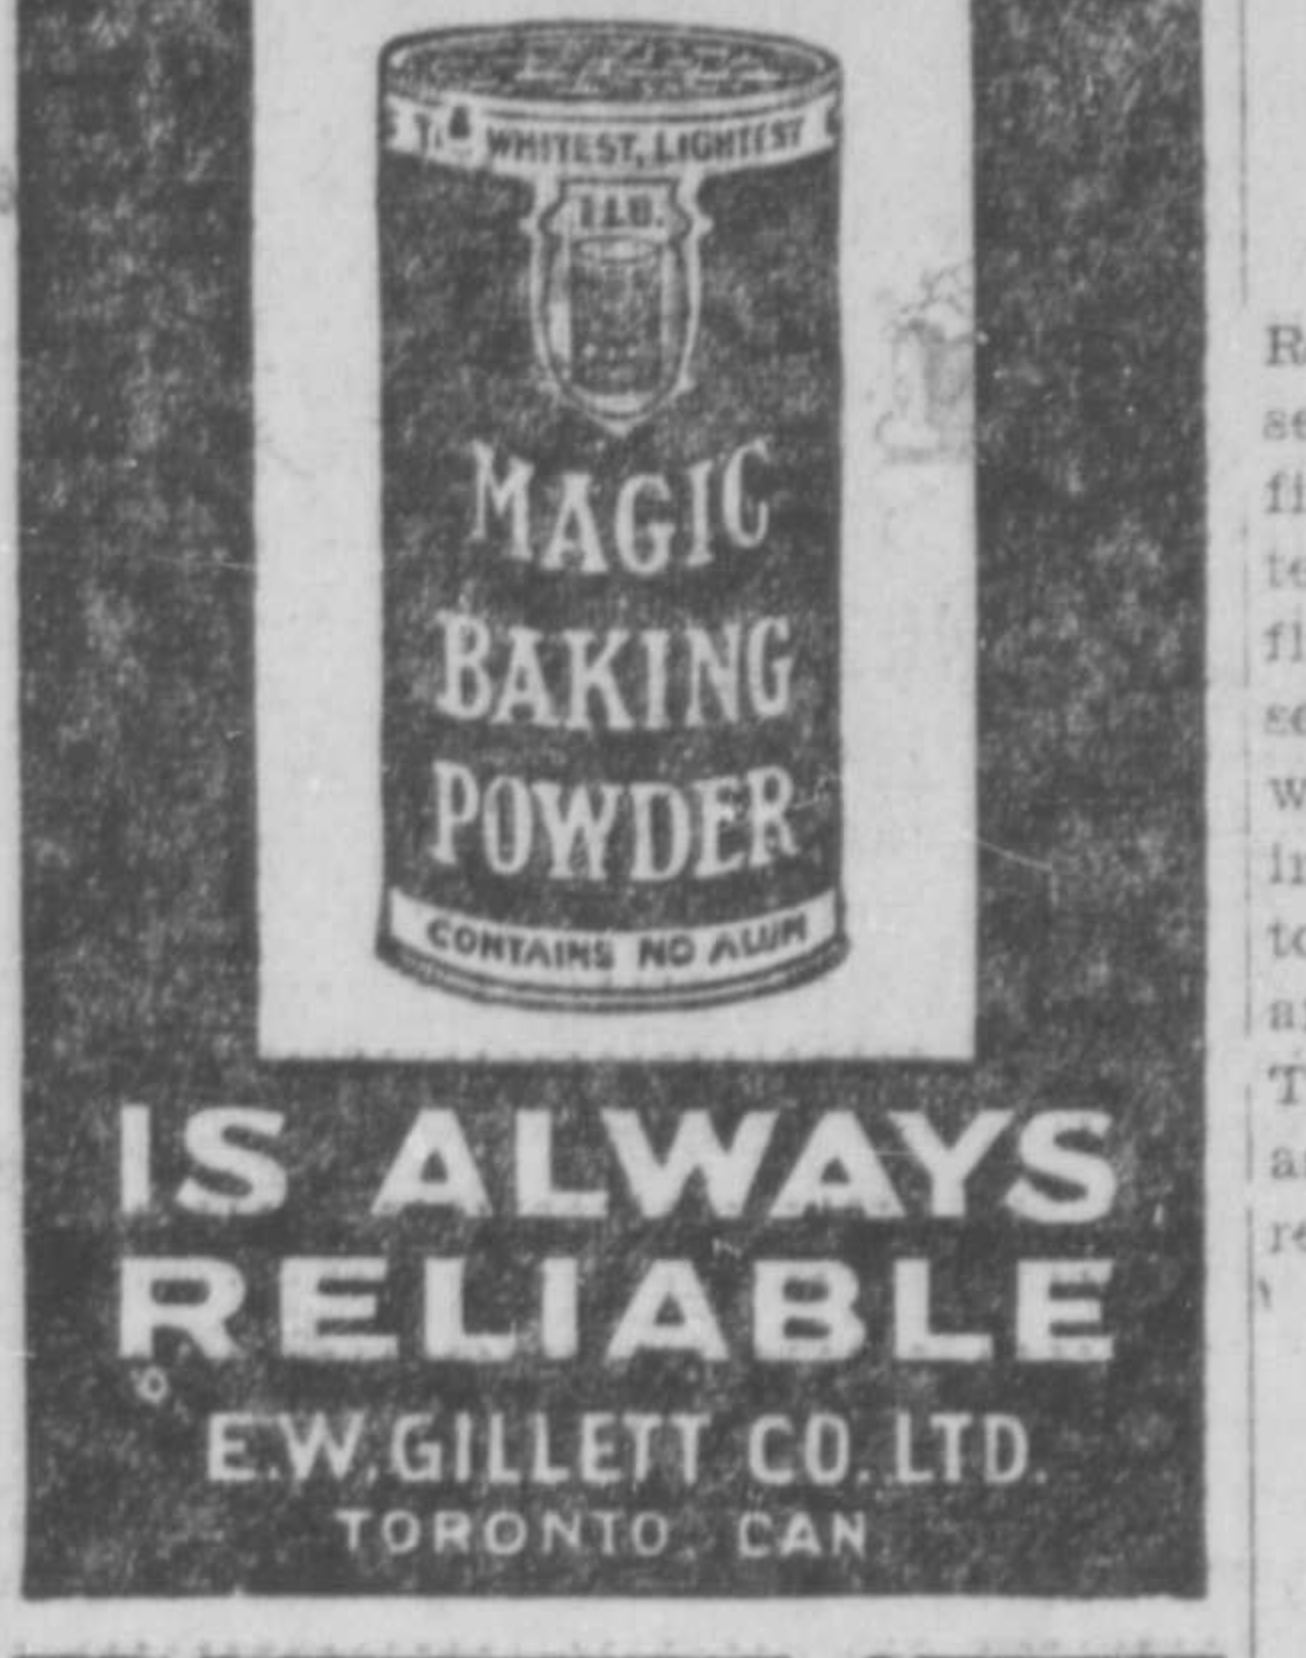

H.M.S. Durban, which is coming here next month, has on board Percy Lake, champion lightweight boxer of the China station, and quite a number of others who are keenly interested in boxing. They have been in communication with the local unit of the E.C.N.V.R. and intimate that they would like to stage a tournament while visiting this port. Arrangements are being made, and if suitable opponents can be obtained either in the city or elsewhere, a tournament will take place on Monday, July 16, at the Exhibition Hall.

Percy Lake has fought and defeated Jack Brown, one of the best in London, England; Andy Tullous, bantam weight champion of Italy; Kid Socks, who fought the champion of Europe and lost; Kid Kelly, west of England champion, and Ben Holman, champion of English ports. This year he fought Nixon, champion of India, for the belt in Hong Kong, and won the championship of China from Young Ruddy Benson, U.S. Marine. In all he has fought fifty fights in which he has lost but three.

Arrangements are now under way to match him with the lightweight champion of Canada. This will probably take place during H.M.S. Durban visit to Vancouver.

Any of the local talent, weighing about 135 pounds, wishing to take part in the tournament on July 16 should get in touch with Petty Officer Instructor Young at E.C.N.V.R. headquarters.

Harold Macdonald won the junior city tennis championship last evening by winning over Miss Margaret Gilchrist in the final by a score of 6-2, 6-3, 6-2. It was a very well played game which caused considerable interest.

Macdonald was the winner of the boys' division and Miss Gilchrist the girls' division and the games having started last fall. There were three cups for the tournament presented by Douglas Frizzell—the one for the girl winner, one for the boy, and the third for the junior city winner.

MS. HURRY ON IN PORT HERE

CHARTERED C.N.S.S. COAST FREIGHTER LOADING LOGS FOR NEW WESTMINSTER

The German built and Glasgow registered motorship, Hurry On, under charter to the Canadian National Steamships for coast freight service this summer, is making her first call in the port of Prince Rupert. The vessel arrived yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Lagoon Bay, where she discharged a cargo of canner supplies for the Canadian Fishing Co. and tied up at the Canadian National docks overnight, moving down this morning to the dry dock to load Terrace cottonwood logs for delivery to the Laminated Materials veneer mill at New Westminster.

A substantial and commodious chunk of a freight carrier, the Hurry On is somewhat larger than the motorship Lillehorn which the C.N.S.S. had chartered for a similar purpose two years ago. She has a capacity for 1,000 tons of cargo with two large holds, the officers' and crew's quarters are comfortable and well arranged and the vessel, as far as freight carriers go, is of good appearance. She has German diesel engines. The company has her on a time charter from her Old Country owners.

Capt. Dan McKinnon, former chief officer of the steamer Prince George, is in command of the Hurry On and James Watt is first mate. The chief engineer is the same as brought her out from Scotland and Archie Lochhead, of the C.S.S., is second engineer. Gerry Foote, formerly of the Prince George, is purser and wireless operator.

Around The World With Sport Fans

(By The Tramp)

It'll pretty soon be time to begin to plan for the annual water gala. Usually these events have been held rather late in the season and the participants were kept shivering on the floats and the weather none too warm for the on-lookers. It might be made a profitable day for the swimming club, if well organized.

The mention of a local cricket team seems to have had the effect of stirring up some of the Prince Rupert enthusiasts and it is possible a pretty good eleven may be secured to give the visiting Durban team a game. If anyone would like to join the team and would send his name to this office, it will be passed on to those who are talking of organizing.

Steve Rocco's decisive victory over Frenchy Belanger, which gave him the right to be called flyweight champion of Canada, should furnish Rocco the opportunity of making his way through the line of various other contenders for a crack at Frank Genaro's title. Joe Ross, aggressive, twohanded puncher, Italian-American, issues a special challenge directed at Rocco for an immediate match. Immediately after Ross had beaten Frenchy Belanger at Detroit, Ross was matched with Rocco at the Olympia Arena of Detroit, but Steve thought that discretion was the better part of valor, and decided not to rush along too fast. Rocco is young and can afford to take his time. Ross, a legitimate fly-weight, has been forced to travel in the bantamweight division frequently in order to secure engagements. A Rocco-Ross match would prove attractive at this time, due to the fact that both Rocco and Ross have beaten Belanger, and the victor would have a good claim to push forward a challenge at Genaro for the fly-weight title.

Babe Ruth is hitting harder and better than ever this year. Last year Gehrig was running him rather close for prominence in that regard but this year Ruth stands out front, a long, long way from any other competitor.

The third race between Major Goodsell of Australia and Bert Barry of England for the world's professional sculling championship honors and a certain amount of financial remuneration, may take place on a mountain lake in California. The Australian proposed to Barry that the race be staged

On Lake Tahoe, a place, where wealthy people gather all the year round, and the champion replied that he would defend his title for a guarantee of $5,000 expenses. This sum, Goodsell says, patrons of the resort are ready to put up, so that final arrangements for the race may be concluded at any time. Goodsell has cabled A. E. Cook of Sydney, his backer, asking that George Towns be sent over to train him, and that he bring a new shell along. It was the veteran sculler Towns who trained Goodsell for the race in which he won the world's title, and he wants his old mentor on hand to help him regain his lost laurels.

SPORT CHAT

Football enthusiasts have a good fare to enjoy this week. Tonight Thistles and Regiment meet in the Dominion Cup and Terminalis and Regiment meet on Friday evening. But the tit-bit of the week's games will undoubtedly be the meeting of High School and Booth School in the play-off for the Junior Football championship. In all their games this season honors have been even. Wednesday evening's game is a "sudden death" one and will be more interesting than previous games. Those of the seniors who are watchful in regard to the quality of football put up by the youngsters. They play their positions and their combination is effective and clever. The future of football in Prince Rupert is assured of success when these boys get weight and height added to their present ability and knowledge. The game is called for 6:45 on Wednesday and both schools will field their strongest teams.

Thistles will seek tonight to avenge

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH MEETS

TRIBUTE PAID TO J. L. CHRISTIE, DEPARTING TREASURER, AND PRESENTATION IS MADE

A meeting of the congregation of First Presbyterian Church was held in the church last evening.

The board of managers of the church was increased by the appointment of the following new managers: L. W. Palmer, J. W. McKinley, J. Greer and Duncan McKenzie.

The meeting unanimously decided that the board of session should also be increased and the present members were asked to select the new members and submit their names to the congregation at a future meeting.

The appointment of a treasurer to succeed J. L. Christie was left to the board of managers.

Members took this occasion to pay special tribute to Rev. J. R. Frizell for his faithful and earnest work as minister of the church and the spirit of the meeting showed that the church could look forward to great accomplishments in every department of church work.

Mr. McClymont spoke of the splendid work of Mr. Christie in the church for many years, and expressed the deep regret of the congregation at the approaching departure of Mr. and Mrs. Christie. Mr. Christie's work as member of session, chairman of board of managers, and church treasurer was mentioned and a special vote of thanks was accorded him.

Mr. McClymont, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. and Mrs. Christie with a beautiful pair of silver candlesticks as a token of esteem. Mr. Christie thanked the congregation for its kind words and for the beautiful gift.

The meeting closed with prayer.

CHILD NEGLECT AT SIDNEY, B.C.

FIVE YEAR OLD DIES AS RESULT OF INJURIES AND IS UNDER-NOURISHED

VICTORIA, June 19.—The coroner's jury which investigated the death on June 14 of Ronald Booth, aged 5, of Sidney, gave the opinion that the child had been seriously neglected, that he died as a result of injuries but was unable to decide if there had been wilful neglect or neglect through ignorance.

Dr. Frederick Manning of Sidney testified that he had found the boy mentally dull. Dr. John Moore, who performed the autopsy, said the child was undernourished and there were a number of scars on its head, some of which were healed. There was a rupture of the stomach caused by force which had caused death.

John Booth, father of the boy, said he had been given the best of care and the best of food. At times he would hide food under his bed. On June 14 the boy had fallen from the bed to the floor and was lying face downwards when discovered.
