Power Supply Is Essential To Development Of City Declares Mayor McMordie In Address

Tells Board of Trade at Dinner Last Night of Proposed Deal to Sell Hydro Electric Plant and get Power Developed for City

"One of the first essentials in the development of Prince Rupert is an abundance of power," declared Col. S. P. McMordie, D.S.O., mayor of Prince Rupert, in an address at the board of trade dinner last night, Col. J. W. Nicholls presiding. The city might raise money and undertake the development of a further supply but it would interfere with the carrying out of other works. To prevent that the mayor said the city was making an effort to dispose of the hydro-electric plant at a reasonable price, giving a company a franchise for 25 years, the company to develop 20,000 horsepower immediately and of this 5,000 was to be available within two years.

If the sale should prove successful it would justify the city in having elected the present council to office. A strong financial organization developing power would help bring in other industries. With the halibut fishing business on the wane, the city must secure industries and one of the first essentials was power. In regard to the water supply, there was one sufficient for a city (continued on page 8)

PROSPERITY JUST AHEAD

Mayor McMordie Quotes Figures to Show Progress Being Made

PESSIMISM NOT JUSTIFIED
New Buildings Show Faith of People in City; Prospects Good

That no one was justified in being pessimistic in regard to Prince Rupert but that a period of prosperity was not far in the future was a striking remark made by Mayor McMordie in his address at the board of trade quarterly dinner last night. The mayor said that figures showed they were making progress. The city had never defaulted a payment and today five per cent city bonds were selling nearly at par. New buildings showed the faith people had in the place. There was a prospect of much grain being shipped this fall. There had been no unemployment and the future looked as bright as ever. Success depended on their own efforts. He believed their hope and confidence in the city was justified.

The mayor then made some comparisons between the years 1917 and 1927 as follows:

Assessments	$11,595,000	$3,648,000
General Taxes	125,570	250,000
Debt	1,724,573	2,088,110
Mil. Rate	10	50
This showed the assessment had been reduced 70 per cent and the levy increased 100 per cent.
The mayor also showed how this increase was being spent, giving the following comparisons:
1917	1927
Schools	$32,507	$73,142
Fire Department	12,479	15,285
Health	11,395	16,680
Police	12,100	14,220
Hospital	4,925	10,407
Public Works	11,398	35,932
Administration	31,203	23,602
Total assets	$2,782,281	$3,727,379

Supposed Suicide Pact In Which Youth Kills Himself and Married Woman He Was In Love With

PETERBORO, Oct. 6.—Returning home to lunch yesterday Thomas Pacey, engineer, found the lifeless body of his wife, Lottie, 35 years of age, and George Knox, 19, lying on a bed each with a bullet wound in the head. A 22 calibre revolver was lying close to Knox's left hand.

A note left by the youth for his father led the police to believe the two died in a suicide pact. Knox was a high school student and for a year had been a boarder in the Pacey home. In the note to his father Knox declared he had been in love with Mrs. Pacey almost from the time he first met her and that he "could not leave her to Tom."

Evidence given by the chief janitor and other witnesses supports the growing belief here that there is a pyromaniac in Edmonton.

BOBBY KERR ON THE OLYMPICS

Captain of Team Says Canadians Well Treated at Amsterdam During Games

EXPLAINS INCIDENT

Americans Not Favored, He Thinks in Being Allowed Use of New Track

Bobby Kerr, captain of the Canadian men's Olympic track and field team and also one of the judges of the events, in an article in McLean's minimizes the stories of differences and of the reported ill-treatment of Canadians at Amsterdam. Dealing with the reported favoritism of Americans he says:

As a matter of fact, the truth of the matter is very simple if a little difficult of relation. The Dutch had built a magnificent stadium—the finest I have ever seen—but they had found that the job of building a perfect surface was one quite beyond their power. About a week, I think before the opening day of the games, they wired to a Swedish engineer—he had been assistant to Perry, who had built all the Marathon tracks since the famous games were revived—to come to Amsterdam and perform this very delicate operation. Needless to say, the Swedish engineer didn't have much time on his hands.

Naturally, everyone wanted to see what the stadium was like and the number of curious athletes in town were by a large margin, Americans. A few of these wandered out to the stadium one day and begged the Swedish engineer to let them have a brief glance around any of the tracks on which the surfacing was completed. Being a good-natured soul he consented.

Rumor Grows

What was the result? Some of the Americans noised it abroad in the training stadium that the new stadium was a peach, implying that they had tried it out. Rumor at once, its voice growing angrier at every repetition, roared out the news that the American track team had, unfairly and secretly, been training at the main stadium. I don't think that any of the officials of the forty-two nations represented at the Olympic games really believed this report but it was an ugly rumor. For my part, I went out to the stadium and asked the engineer in charge if it was true that the Americans had been training on the track. He told me the situation as I have outlined it and said we could bring our boys along and give them the same chance. At the same time, he pointed out that if we came on the track, forty other nations would have a perfectly good right to follow, in which case the date of the opening of the Olympic games might be a very indefinite date, indeed. I saw his point. The Americans had gained no advantage from their trot around the track. So that's the story of the Yankee atrocities at Amsterdam.

SPORT CHAT

In spite of ailments, the New York Yankees batting staff looks good to win the 1928 series in jig time. The St. Louis Cardinals are putting up a disappointing showing and will have to do a better from now in if the honor of the National League is to be maintained. Yank hitting may be held attributable for what happened at least on Thursday and Friday though Waite Hoyt, with his high airtight hurling, was as much a hero as any of his teammates on Thursday. The Cardinals, heralded by many at the start of the series as being almost certain winners, will have to do something almost unprecedented now to pull their fat out of the fire. Two games down at the start is a handicap that few if any World Series contenders of the past have ever overcome.

Prospects are bright for at least Senior and Intermediate basketball activities this winter and it is also probable that arrangements may yet be made for good Ladies' and Junior League competition though teams are a little slow in coming forward in these divisions. Whereas there were three Senior teams last winter—Native Sons of Canada Grand Terminals and Elks—the prospects are there will be four this year—Native Sons again, Eagles, Port Simpson Natives and a team being formed by George Mitchell. High school and Big Four will again be in the Intermediate with Toc H. taking the place of the Elevator of last winter. It is to be hoped that efforts to form Ladies' and Junior Leagues again may meet with success. Games in either of these divisions always round out nicely the basketball programs.

The St. Andrew's Society will open a winter carpet bowling tournament among members before the end of the month. The various teams are now being lined up and entries are to be in by October 15 after which the schedule will be drawn up. Last winter the Society had a successful tournament with twelve teams. This indoor sport proved so popular with St. Andrew's players last winter that the Canadian Legion is said to be considering introducing it in its club rooms this season. This would permit of inter-club tournaments later on.

BLACK BASS BEING STUDIED IN ONTARIO VIEW TO RESTOCKING

TORONTO, Oct. 5.—The question of artificial propagation of black bass—a problem which until this year, has had the Ontario Department of Games and Fisheries practically baffled—has taken the special Fish Inquiry Committee, headed by Hon. Finlay Macdormid, to several States of the Union to further their investigations.

Ontario has had little luck raising bass artificially and as late as last fall resorted to closing a number of the Northern lakes in the hope that bass would breed there under natural conditions in sufficient numbers to permit replenishing of many fished out waters in other parts of Ontario.

Special study is now being made by the special committee of hatcheries in New Jersey and Missouri, where, it is claimed no difficulty has been experienced in propagating artificially.

The Cathedral baseball club is to hold its annual meeting early in the week, it is understood.

Percy Williams, of Vancouver Canada's sprinter, who startled the sporting world recently by capturing the 100-metre and 200-metre races at Amsterdam, will visit Victoria on Wednesday, October 10, under the auspices of the Victoria Kinsmen Club. The Junior Chamber of Commerce is co-operating with the Kinsmen Club in planning an extensive program of entertainment for Mr. Williams during his one-day visit.

Montreal Star says: "It looks as though this National Hockey League play-off system is becoming more of a burden on the public than ever. Last season six of the ten teams, after playing a long schedule, got in the play-offs and started all over again to decide the championship. Now, according to the decision reached at the National League meeting and which it seems was misunderstood, six of the ten teams will again enter the playoffs, but will play a possible 15 games in place of a possible 13 in last season's arrangement. All the play-off next spring will be inter-sectional with the possible exception of the final series.

Johnny Risko's prestige and rating as a candidate for the heavyweight crown recently vacated by J. J. "Gene" Tunney should not be reduced because he lost on a foul to Roberto Roberti, the Italian heavyweight. Risko is not a foul fighter. He is a swinging puncher and he lets them go in the Jack Dempsey fashion when he is boring in, without being to sure of his aim. Tunney recently predicted that within the next two years Risko would develop into one of the brightest prospects for the heavyweight title.

PRODUCTION OF PAPER

Canada dominates the world in the production of newsprint. At present the output is almost double that of the United States and most of it is exported. On the other hand Canada uses only about one-seventeenth the amount consumed in the United States. Canada exports most of her product and U.S. imports nearly two million tons in a year. In 1927 Canada produced only about fifty per cent more than U.S. but the increase is so rapid it is difficult to keep pace with it in statistics.

PLENTY OF VISITORS

Canada is every year attracting more attention from other parts of the empire and from foreign countries. Just now it is France that is looking this way. This year it has been Great Britain. Numbers of visitors prominent in various walks of life have visited Canada and seen for themselves some of the opportunities presented here for men and women to make good or for the investment of money. We are glad to see them all come. The more publicity we get the more progress we shall make.

DR. MACLEAN FOR VICTORIA

Immediately following the last election the Prince Rupert Daily News suggested that Dr. MacLean should be chosen as federal candidate to fill the seat vacated by Dr. Tolmie at Ottawa. Nothing was heard of it, the efforts of party managers being apparently devoted to getting the doctor into the legislature. However, more mature consideration seems likely to prove that it would be best to have the former premier represent the province at Ottawa. He might even replace Dr. King in the Liberal cabinet. We believe Victoria would elect him if given a chance.

IS FRUIT TOO CHEAP?

(Edmonton Bulletin)

British Columbia fruit growers complain that they are having a dull season; that while crops were generally good the profits are small; and there is a growing demand for the exclusion of United States fruit from the prairie market, based of course on the usual claim that the United States grower is "dumping" his fruit in Canada.

With grain prices tumbling and no way of stopping the slump, the prairie farmer will feel a good deal of sympathy with the B.C. fruit growers who finds that he has little profit left after paying freight and the expenses of picking and packing. But his sympathy will hardly move him to join in the clamor for the exclusion of United States fruit.

For one reason; because to exclude United States fruit would mean that the prairie people must go without fruit. To illustrate, last year the prairie market absorbed 400,000 cases of peaches. British Columbia produced 90,000 cases, of which half were consumed at home. A prohibitive tariff in that case would have meant no peaches in the prairie cellars last winter. Or, in the alternative, it would have meant that prairie consumers must pay high tariff charges on 360,000 cases of United States peaches in order that they might pay higher prices than they did pay for 40,000 cases of British Columbia peaches.

For a second reason; British Columbia has a law-made marketing agency which controls fruit prices. There is no limit to the height to which this government combine may raise prices save the limit of what the consumer can be coaxed or coerced into paying. With United States fruit off the prairie market, nothing is much more certain than that the price of British Columbia fruit would go up until only the wealthy could eat fruit.

With all sympathy for the B.C. fruit-grower, the people on the prairies can hardly be expected to want to deliver themselves over to the tender mercies of a B.C. fruit monopoly, controlling a supply altogether inadequate to the prairie requirements, and operating under the shelter of a tariff which excluded all competitors from the prairie market.

BRADY TALKS TO TEACHERS

Gave Inspiring Address Last Night on Teaching and National Development

The Prince Rupert Teachers' Association, with J. S. Wilson in the chair held its monthly meeting last evening in the Booth Memorial School when J. C. Brady, M. P. gave an address on the "Importance of the Teacher in our National Development." After prefacing his remarks with congratulations to the executive on its successful record of the past year, Mr. Brady went on to stress the value of the Federation. In his travels throughout Canada he was struck with this thought. The professors of the universities and the teachers in the lonely log school house were one in their activities and interests and as long as they were members of the teaching body none of them felt that he had a lone part.

The teacher had in the past been too prone to be timid and, while deprecating any attempt to cheaply advertise the profession, the speaker asked why the teacher should not insist on credit for the work he did. Every teacher was a participant in the life of the community and ultimately in the building of the nation. Mr. Brady mentioned the names of Lord Birkenhead, Sir John Simon, Francis Hearst of the London School of Economics and C. B. Fry, England's famous cricketer and teacher, as men who admitted they owed the early desire to study to the sympathetic interests and encouragement of an understanding teacher.

The study of education from the early days was a record of what had been done in all ages and in all countries for the young and familiarity with this history was necessary for the teacher. Modern ideas were not only modern discoveries or thoughts; Egypt, China, Persia, Greece all had sound ideas on the education of the young. "To bring up a child and not to educate him is a crime. If children do not learn in youth when will they learn?" were old Chinese sayings and were as true today as they were when first spoken.

Basis of Character

The basis of national character was education. This was true of every realm of activity and God could call on no man to a greater work than to be an educator. The complexity of modern life had its complexity of problems for the teacher. School was but a part of the education. The home influence was the first influence, where native language, habits and general science were acquired. This circle should not be overlooked by the teacher. The social environment also had great influence on the boy's development and should also be taken note of by the teacher.

The case of Frank Hodges, the English miners' famous leader, was used to illustrate the influence a teacher might have on a boy. The spirit of the boy who immersed and saturated himself in Shakespeare's works while working in a Welsh coal mine was able to raise him to the honored position he held today. Who knows what possibilities were in the minds of the pupils the teacher tried to help from day to day?

The modern cry for efficiency was enough to cause a revolution in education methods. Who could judge the results of efficiency? Who had made a study of the career of boys who were adjudged failures at school? The successes were noted world wide but the successes of the "school failures" was a matter calling for careful consideration. Is our education complete? What was needed in the schools was loyalty, for that begat efficiency and results far beyond the limited and warped results of artificial "efficiency."

Public opinion needed to be educated to the point that only a reasonable assurance of security of tenure for the teacher could bring the best results. This was true of other professions, for permanency brought courage.

When one considered that over 2,000,000 pupils were attending the public and high schools of Canada one realized the importance of the teachers and schools to the nation. Education should aim at enabling the youth to earn a livelihood, to know and do his duty to his fellowman, to defend principles of government and, greatest of all, to build character.

Fit Needs of Country

Modern education should also fit in with the needs of the country and of the city. Any lack of opportunity for the children was a menace and deserved a public reprimand. Industrial life demanded that the pupils have every opportunity to learn the principals and rules of practical living such as were provided in the Home Economics and Manual Training classes.

Mr. Brady closed his address with an appeal for the cultivation of a love of good literature in the minds of the children. England had a most glorious heritage from its very many illustrious authors. As Ruskin said, "The courts are open wide and multitudinous as the days" and we should glory in the opportunity to be "comrades of the young over chosen paths."

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the speaker for his inspiring talk. Refreshments were then served and Mr. and Mrs. Brady renewed acquaintanceships with old colleagues and met new members of the staff.

Those present included Miss Martin, Miss McGuire, Miss Leitch, Miss Mercer, Miss Mills, Miss Mitchell, Miss Pierce, Miss Rivett, Miss Rothwell, Miss Vickers, Mrs. Walker, Mr. Halleran, Mr. O'Neill, and Mr. Stocks.

Our greatest asset

THE material progress of our Province is known the world over. We speak with pride . . . and rightly . . . of its vast natural resources awaiting conversion into merchandise and wealth. We take the figures of ten years ago and compare them with those of today . . . and the world agrees that our progress . . . considering our population . . . has been the brightest feature in the recovery of the British Empire from the war.

And if this progress, of which we are so justly proud, is to continue, does not the most vital force of this country lie in our children? Some day, they will take the helm. Events will follow their judgment, skill and decision. THEY ARE OUR GREATEST ASSET!

The Boy of today is the Man of to-morrow . . . the Girl, the future Mother of our citizens.

On us rests the responsibility of shaping their formative years so that when we hand over the reins, they may carry on the Torch of Progress, undimmed.

How have we met our responsibility? Can we look Young British Columbia in the eye with the feeling that all will be well with the future of the province for which we have planned so carefully and labored so faithfully?

SURELY!

In the last ten years our school population has grown from 64,570 to 101,688 . . . 58%. We have 1,065 schools manned by 3,39% thoroughly trained, competent teachers . . . an increase of 31.7% and 71% respectively!

Recently we have established special vocational schools for our girls and boys, where they may be fitted for those occupations for which they have a natural bent.

Higher education is amply provided for at our University of British Columbia, where two thousand students are now enrolled, the majority studying for their degree in Science and Agriculture.

And to the school training of our children we add the powerful influence of Home, the religious and other organizations, each of which is contributing its full measure of the physical, mental and character upbuilding of our dearest, most treasured asset . . . OUR CHILDREN!

With confidence and faith we will hand over our beloved Province's future when the time comes!

[Read these announcements and understand your province's progress . . . clip them out and send them to friends. If you desire extra copies of these announcements a note to this newspaper will bring them. Advertise your Province!]

Prince Rupert

Northern Pacific Terminus of the Canadian National Railways

Prince Rupert has three of the greatest things in the world

The Largest Fish Cold Storage Plant The Largest Fresh Halibut Market The Largest Undeveloped Hinterland

The City of Prince Rupert has a payroll of considerable importance, derived from:

- RAILWAY SHOPS
- RAILWAY OFFICES
- DRYDOCK AND SHIPYARDS
- GRAIN ELEVATOR
- PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFFICES
- COLD STORAGE
- FISH PACKING HOUSES
- FISH MARKET
- SALMON AND HALIBUT FISHERMEN
- SALMON CANNERIES
- LUMBER MILLS
- MINING
- TRAPPING AND FURS

The grain export business of Prince Rupert is steadily developing. Last year about eight million bushels of grain was shipped through the terminal elevator and this year promises to greatly exceed that mark.

The City owns its Power, Light, Water Supply and Telephones.

The schools are excellent.

Roads are paved and concrete sidewalks are being laid.

Prince Rupert is one of the Coming Commercial Centres of the Pacific Coast, the probable outlet of the Great Peace River Country, and surrounded by a rapidly developing territory.

Prince Rupert is the logical site of a customs smelter which would serve the mines of Portland Canal, the Bulkley and Skeena Valleys and coast points.

Mrs. George Black Gives Interesting Address Before Women's Canadian Club Today

Mrs. George Black, wife of Capt. George Black, M.P. for Yukon, gave an interesting address before the Women's Canadian Club at luncheon today. Taking "Dawson" as her subject, she related many interesting anecdotes and descriptions, illustrating her address with pictures.

Mrs. J. C. McLennan, president of the Women's Canadian Club, occupied the chair and, at the close of Mrs. Black's address, which was of about an hour's duration, a vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. R. F. McNaughton and passed with enthusiasm.

The luncheon was opened with the singing of "O Canada" and closed with "God Save the King." Mrs. Morris Blott presided at the piano.

BIBLE SUNDAY IS THIS WEEK

The local branch of the society has secured the services of Rev. Dr. Ogden who is returning to Winnipeg via Prince Rupert and will preach here tomorrow morning at the Anglican Cathedral and in the evening at the Baptist church. Dr. Ogden is an eminent preacher of outstanding ability.

The Dorothy, whose owner and skipper is Capt. Ole Hvatum, has again been chartered by the International Fisheries Commission for its research work. Capt. Ritchie, who is planning a trip to the Old Country this winter, will return to Prince Rupert before Christmas.

CHANGE MADE CONSTITUTION BOARD TRADE

Wings of Council of Board Clipped, Giving all Power to General Meetings

The Board of Trade at its quarterly dinner meeting last night changed the bylaws of the Board in such a manner as to prevent the Council of the Board passing resolutions and doing business in the name of the Board, all matters in future having to be brought before the full board. This was to prevent any feeling that the Board was being run by a clique.

Another change made it necessary that notice should be given of any resolution which would be first sent to the proper committee before coming before the Board. If the committee turned it down, six members of the Board could bring it before the general meeting. This was to prevent having resolutions sprung on the Board and passed without proper consideration being given.

The changes were proposed by President J. W. Nicholls who vacated the chair in order to explain them. They were accepted by the board after discussion with only one dissentient.

Reports were given by Phillip Ray in regard to the evidence given by him on behalf of the Board of Trade on pilotage matters and J. H. Pillsbury reported following up requests for aids to navigation for ships entering Prince Rupert harbor.

Theo. Collart urged more activity in regard to agitation for the Peace River outlet and S. E. Parker thought more publicity should be given to the report on the matter prepared by the Board of Trade.

EXCAVATION OF VIMY TRENCHES

Premier Mackenzie King Would Have Work Completed There

PARIS, Oct. 6.—Premier Mackenzie King yesterday inspected Vimy monument and the trenches occupied by the Canadians along Vimy Ridge, the scene of some of the most bitter encounters of the Great War. The Premier expressed the opinion that all the unexcavated trenches on the lines the Canadians held should be opened up so that visitors might be able to inspect the whole position occupied by the Canadian troops. Up to the present only the main arteries of the trenches were excavated owing to the expense involved.

The Premier stated he believed Parliament would be willing to vote the necessary money to complete the work.

Boatbuilding Prospects for Winter — B.C. Packers Breaking Into Halibut Business—Good Coho Run in Skidegate Inlet

While it is not expected that it will reach the volume of some previous years and orders to date are rather slow with very few plans definitely decided upon as yet, prospects are that there may again be considerable fish boat building activity around Prince Rupert during the coming winter. The halibut men are still busy fishing and, while certain of them are reported to have more or less definite projects in mind, none, if any, of them have finally decided yet what they shall do in the way of new craft.

It is likely, however, that some orders for new salmon vessels, such as seineboats, packers, trolling boats and gill netters, may be forthcoming in the near future. Of course, consolidation and retrenchment on the part of the canneries may tend to minimize activity along this line. On the other hand, the halibut season has been a fairly prosperous one and some of the earnings will likely go into new boats.

Out at Seal Cove, N. M. McLean, whose establishment has been kept quite busy of late with repairing and minor overhaul work, is looking forward to getting orders for new boats this winter and is said to have good prospects for at least three or four halibut vessel contracts.

The Japanese yards in Cow Bay continue to build stock models during spare time and are usually able to dispose of them. None of these shops, however, has yet received definite contracts.

At Port Essington, it is reported, there will be more than the usual boat building activity this winter. Some reports go as far as to say that as high as forty boats will be built there including gill netters, trollers and halibut boats up to forty-five feet in length. In any case, the prospect seems fairly certain that the Japanese boat building establishments there will be very busy during the next few months.

Disdainful Don

Don Finn, director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, finds time so precious and walking so tough that he has now regaled himself with the splendor of a Ford Tudor Sedan and henceforth the board walks will know him no more.

H. Enockson has had the 4 h.p. Regal engine of his trolling boat Black Fox in the Star Welding Works this week for general overhaul. A 9 h.p. Regal from a Japanese workboat at Port Essington has also been in for similar work.

The Star Welding was this week fitting out eleven live rollers which will be installed in the new sawmill of the Billmor Spruce Mills along the railroad track from the city.

Nels Rund, local salmon fisherman, has purchased a 30x8 boat which is being built by Y. Suehiro, Cow Bay Japanese boat-builder. The boat, which will be finished in about two weeks' time, will be fitted with a new 12 h.p. Palmer engine. On completion of this vessel, Suehiro will immediately proceed with the construction of a 36 foot trolling boat as a stock model.

Vessels going on the Ward Ways this week for painting and minor hull work have included the halibut boats Ringleader, Capt. Merrill Sollows, and Atli, Capt. William Bussey, and the Fujimoto workboat Vasa.

Tug Imbrecaria arrived in port on Thursday afternoon, having in tow two scows laden with coal for Albert & McCaffery. The master of the Imbrecaria is Capt. J. S. Cunningham, a brother-in-law of Mrs. E. S. Tait of this city.

Union freighter Chilkoat, Capt. Jock Muir, unloaded a small parcel of 20,000 feet of lumber on Thursday morning for Albert & McCaffery.

The deal for the purchase by Albert & McCaffery of the Big Bay Lumber Co.'s lumber yard and retail business is reported to have fallen through for the time being at least.

Northbound from Vancouver with a party of commercial travellers on board, the power cruiser Mac and Mac called in port during the week, tying up at the floats of the Prince Rupert Salvage and Towing Co.

New Power Cruiser

Kenny Rood during the week brought down to the floats of the Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co. the snappy little 28x7 foot V-bottom power cruiser Ragnhild which he has had under construction during the past few months at the old Shockley woodworking factory on Market Place. It is a neat and well appointed little vessel which will be a real acquisition to the pleasure fleet of the harbor. The Chevrolet engine has not yet been installed.

The fish packer Provincial, which has been working out of Provincial Cannery in Rivers Inlet during the past season, was brought from Inverness during the week and is being laid up in the dry dock for the winter.

Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.'s steam trawler G. E. Foster, with Capt. Sanderson in command, is still meeting with good success flat fishing in Hecate Straits and, after landing her fifth catch last Sunday of 60,000 pounds, left again on Tuesday and is due back by the end of this week.

Packer W. R. Lord, Capt. Marshall, left on Thursday morning for Canoe Pass and is due back today with the camp scow which has been operated there during the summer by the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. and which will be tied up here for the winter.

Halibut boats Morris H., Capt. John Hanson; Alkin, Capt. Andy Hanson; Johanna, Capt. John Wick, and Margalce, Capt. Jack Christiansen, have all been up on the McLean Ways at Seal Cove this week for cleaning and painting.

In Halibut Business

The B.C. Packers are breaking into the halibut business and, while nothing definite on this is known, it is reported they may be shipping fresh fish from Prince Rupert by next season. In any case, the company has established a cold storage plant at its South Bay cannery in Skidegate Inlet and has made it known that it is open to buy fish there and supply bait and ice. A representative of the company was in Prince Rupert recently endeavoring to drum up the fishermen to take their halibut there. It is reported that some of the boats fishing in Hecate Straits and on the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands have agreed to sell them.

A good run of cohoes has been reported recently in Skidegate Inlet and some of the trollers are said to have been getting as high as fifty fish per day. The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. has put two of its packers—the Chief Legaic, Capt. Svendsen, and W. R. Lord, Capt. Marshall, on that run to deliver the fish to its plant at Prince Rupert for freezing and fresh shipment. The Legaic had no trouble in getting a full load this week.

The Chief Zibassa, Capt. Fred Walters, and Brief Starrett, Capt. Dahl, are both packing from Alert Bay to Prince Rupert, a distance of nearly four hundred miles, for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. The Fredella, Capt. William Wilson, is still on the Skeena River run.

Halibut Landings

Heavy arrivals during the past week have brought halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the season to date to nearly 700,000 pounds in excess of the 1927 total at a similar date. The total now stands at 22,256,700 pounds as compared with 21,585, 650 pounds at the corresponding time last year. This season is not far behind the record year of 1926 when the total at a similar date was 22,620,900 pounds. American landings this season are still lagging behind those for 1927, the total to date being 15,482,000 pounds as compared with 15,787,850 pounds, while the Canadian total is up from 5,827,800 pounds to 6,774,700 pounds. The Canadian catch for the present season is also far ahead of the 5,988,500 pounds in the bumper year of 1926. If the American total can catch up during the next five or six weeks before the season closes the year's landings will be the heaviest on record at Prince Rupert.

Prices during the week settled down to a more normal level after two weeks of exceptionally high bids. The high American price of the week was 18.2c and 8c paid the Lansing for 5,000 pounds and the lowest was 13.1c and 7c which the North received for 17,000 pounds. Canadian prices ranged from 16.3c and 7c, was paid the Southend for 4,000 pounds, down to 12.5c and 6c which the Nuba got for 4,500 pounds.

In accordance with the negotiations completed on May 5 last, B.C. Packers Ltd. formally became the operating company for the B.C. Fishing & Packing Co. and Millard Packing Co. this week, it is announced this is the culmination of the deal conducted by Wood, Gundy & Co. Ltd. of Toronto, when they organized B.C. Packers Ltd., placing $1,000,000 in the treasury of the new company and exchanging B.C. Packers common stock for the common stock of the three companies constituting B.C. Packers Ltd. While the new company has been operating for some time, it will now become formally recognized under the terms of the agreement.

Suga boatbuilding yard reports the sale to A. Benson, local fisherman, of a recently completed thirty-three foot model trolling boat. The vessel will be fitted with a 10 h.p. Knox two-cycle engine. The Suga yard is understood to have about closed contracts for the building of two large seineboats during the next couple of months.

Dr. H. L. Alexander's speed cruiser Marjorie was on the Suga ways this week to receive a new gumwood shoe and stern post. George Bryant had the Harla on the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club's grid for hull painting while Dr. J. P. Cade's Edna has been on the Ward Ways for Caulking.

YOUNG MAN IS LAID TO REST

Obsequies for Late George Osborne This Afternoon, Followed by Interment in Fair Cemetery

With friends of the deceased and his mourning family in attendance, funeral service for the late George Osborne, who lost his life last week in the Canadian General Electric Co.'s plant at Peterboro, Ontario, where he was employed as an electrical engineer, was held at 2.30 this afternoon at the chapel of the B.C. Undertakers. Appropriate words of respect to the deceased and comfort to his heavily stricken relatives were spoken by Canon W. F. Rushbrook of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral who officiated. Hymns were "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." W. Vaughan Davies presided at the organ.

After the service, interment took place in Fairview Cemetery. Pallbearers were W. M. Cruthers, David McKenzie, Alex. McDonald, J. C. Brady, M.P., W. Bailey and R. G. Macaulay.

The remains of the unfortunate young man were brought to the city from the East yesterday by W. M. Cruthers, an official of the Canadian General Electric Co., who will proceed to Vancouver tomorrow.

Among those who sent flowers were:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and family, Miss Wilma Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Goodsell, Mr. and Mrs. David Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Love and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. McD. Hunter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey, Mr. W. Tattersall and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rod McLeod and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Halcrow, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Love, Mr. and Mrs. I. Mussallem and family, Mr. and Mrs. Publicover, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bailey and family, Victoria, B.C., J. D. McVicker, Anyox, B.C.

POWER SUPPLY IS ESSENTIAL TO DEVELOPMENT OF CITY DECLARES MAYOR McMORDIE IN AN ADDRESS.

of 50,000 people and the intention was to keep it.

Sewer System Problem

Speaking of the health of the city, Mayor McMordie said one of the greatest problems at present was the building of sewers. There were two small systems in Section 1 and property owners had put in many connections themselves while others had built septic tanks. This was not altogether satisfactory. A city could not be built without adequate sewerage. They had now built a trunk sewer and laterals were to be built in Section 5. It was planned to provide others in the more densely populated parts of the city as time and money permitted.

In opening his address the Colonel complimented the board of trade on its quarter luncheon, which had proved such a success. He did not plan to speak about the possibilities and resources of the city. All knew them. The city was being built in a permanent manner. When incorporated the population was small and there was nothing but a few plank roads, small sewers, a telephone system which had been rescued through the public spiritedness of a few citizens and a minor water supply. The difficulties had been great but they had the spirit of the west. He believed no city had as great difficulties to contend with in the building as Prince Rupert but the people faced the difficulties and progress was made.

Roads and Sidewalks

One of the first jobs for the first council was the building of plank roads. At one time there was said to be 25 miles of these in the city. As they began to need repairs it became an unbearable burden and the present semi-permanent road system was initiated with the result that today almost all the planks had been replaced. Now the problem with which they had to deal was the replacing of the wooden sidewalks, which were breaking down. The city council was of opinion that concrete should replace wood in the business sections and 19 blocks were being paved. In doing this only one protest had been received. In the outside sections sand or cinder paths were planned.

Speaking of utilities, the mayor said the telephone system had proved very successful and was being operated at a profit. The service was most creditable. The one in Vancouver was nothing like as prompt. The power plant had been successful to this point but the demand had exceeded the supply and the drydock plant was being utilized. While its operation was expensive there was no overhead to provide for. The demand for electric power had doubled within the past three years and was growing every month. A new source of supply was now becoming imperative.

What a Joy Is Good Health

Mother and baby are healthy and happy. But they were not always so. There were many months of run-down health, of sleepless nights, excited nerves, worry and discouragement. Baby reflected mother's weakness and was cross and fretful.

But a friend recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and by the regular use of this great restorative treatment the richness of the blood was restored, nervous vigor was increased, sleep came naturally, digestion improved, and mother was herself again. This is just what is happening in many thousands of homes.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The Greatest of Nerve Restoratives

It is a fine idea to keep Dr. Chase's Ointment with baby's bath soap so that it can be used after the bath to relieve chafing and skin irritations.
