The best available estimate was that the tiny plane could remain in the air no longer than twenty-four hours. This period elapsed at 11.51 a.m. eastern standard time today.

HICKMAN TAKEN DEATH CHAMBER

Weird Scene as Man is Led to Last Sleeping Place at Night.

PRISONERS ALL MOAN Murderer Disappointed Because His Mother Did Not Say Good By to Him

SAN QUENTIN, Oct. 18.—Apparently ready to die but disappointed because his mother had failed to arrive as expected to bid him farewell William Edward Hickman today awaited his fate in the death cell of San Quentin prison for the murder of Mariar Parker.

The preliminary death march last night to the death cell was a weird one. A bright autumn moon illumined the quadrangle containing tiers of cells in which the "condemned row" is located. Although it was time for taps every prisoner was on his feet pressing against the bars.

"Good by Ed" said Russell Beitsel, another convicted slayer who was Hickman's cell mate, as the latter stepped out. As though this was a signal the hundreds of prisoners in the tiers set up a chorus of moaning, the traditional chant for this occasion in San Quentin.

Erect and apparent composed in spite of the moaning, Hickman walked with his guards to the steps leading to the execution chamber, climbed them and went in.

Assize Court Hears Story Of A Fight In Which Knife Is Used

Jury Returns Verdict of Assault Against Nick Priza, Who is Alleged to Have Stabbed Louis Rawka in Drunken Brawl

Assault of Louis Rawka occasioning grievous bodily harm was the verdict returned in the case of Rex vs. Nick Priza at the Supreme Court of Assizes last night after 55 minutes' deliberation by the jury. Hearing of the case before Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald occupied the court all afternoon. The jury consisted of J. J. Judge (foreman), Fred G. Pyle, John Currie, Anthony M. Budinich, James Brown, H. M. Daggett, H. F. Glassey, James S. Black, Frank Morris, D. C. Stuart, Sam Wood and Geo. Johnston. W. E. Fisher acted as crown prosecutor with W. O. Fulton appearing for the defence. When the jury was being selected, H. B. Rochester was challenged by the defence and Max Heilbronner was stood aside by the crown.

During the taking of the testimony, the accused, a Serbian in his late thirties or early forties, with trimmed moustache and thinning hair, dressed in brown coat and grey trousers with dark shirt, collar and tie, manifested considerable interest in the proceedings and at certain times seemed even amused. John Gurvich was used as an interpreter

Dean Channel Murder Case Is Proceeding At Assizes Today, All Crown Evidence Finished

The most important case on the docket—that in which Fritz Turner, fisherman, is charged with the murder of Thomas Stang Kristiansen, another fisherman, at Raphoe Point in Dean Channel on July 6—is proceeding in the Supreme Court Assizes today. The case for the crown had been completed at 12.30 noon when the court adjourned until 1.45. The jury hearing the case consists of S. E. Parker (foreman), G. W. Johnstone, W. J. Nelson, Anthony M. Budinich, James McNulty, Frank Dobb, Frank W. Allen, J. S. Irvine, G. A. Bryant, Hubert Ward, H. R. Love, and D. C. Stuart. A. M. Johnson, K.C., assisted by W. E. Fisher, is acting as crown counsel while Milton Gonzales, assisted by John V. Clyne, is conducting the defence.

The accused, a thin and middle-aged man, dressed in a neat navy blue serge suit with stiff collar and white shirt, followed the proceedings with close attention and, from the seriousness of his face, apparently realized the seriousness of his position.

The first witness was Dr. L. G. Easum, who told of a post-mortem examination made on the body of the deceased. He was shot through the liver and stomach on the left side of the body and the doctor ascribed death to shock and hemorrhage resulting from the wound.

Thomas B. Hanson, chief witness for the crown, told of hearing

Better Tariff Treatment Asked For Canadian Lumber In Market Of Australia By B.C. Mill Men

Hon. J. A. Robb Points out Difficulty When B.C. Votes Against Treaty With That Country in Parliament

OTTAWA, October 18.—Canada was asked yesterday to approach Australia with a view to obtaining better tariff agreement for Canadian lumber. The request came from a delegation representing the B.C. Lumber Manufacturers which waited upon Hon. J. A. Robb and Hon. James Malcolm.

"We would like," said A. Flavelle of Port Moody, B.C., who headed the delegation, "an application made to Australia concerning the tariff on rough and dressed lumber and lumber products that wherever there is a British preferential rate Canada should be accorded the same treatment. Canada should get one shilling a hundred superficial feet preference."

Reduction of the Australian tariff on B.C. red cedar was also suggested. California redwood was subjected to a tariff rate by Australia of five shillings a hundred superficial feet. Improved steamship service between the Pacific coast and Australia was also suggested.

"We are anxious to extend Canada's trade everywhere and particularly within the empire. That is the policy of the government," Mr. Robb said. Continuing, he said: "As far as Canada is concerned we are prepared to give the full British preference to Australia if Australia will do the same thing for us." It would not hurt this country in any way if full British preference were enjoyed both ways.

Mr. Robb took exception to any possible suggestion that the lumber industry had been neglected under the treaty. Instancing the consideration given to newsprint, he said the agreement had been negotiated after negotiations by other governments had failed. "No province has profited more under the Australian treaty than B.C. and no province has opposed it more strongly in parliament."

It was, Mr. Robb said, as a result of some of the votes in parliament that a representative of the Australian government over a year ago had intimated that he was going back to have the trade agreement cancelled. The trade agreement with Australia might be enlarged if all worked together but "we will never get it by lambasting the trade agreement and keeping their products out." Recently Australia had asked for certain concessions. We said "we are willing to meet you and widen the treaty in return for reciprocal treatment." In the widening of the agreement, the interests of the lumber industry would be considered.

Mr. Robb quoted figures in support of the statement of the increase of exports to that country. Mr. Malcolm said the matter of better steamship services would be given "serious thought."

John Dybhavn arrived in the city this morning on the cannery tender Jedway from the Masset Cannerns' cannery at Old Massett where packing operations for the season have been concluded.

C. N. R. steamer Prince Charles Capt. Neil McLean, is expected to arrive in port tonight from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands.

SPORT CHAT

In connection with next season's mooted changes in the Big Leagues it looks now as if Jim Bottomley would be the only man filling his present place in the St. Louis infield. Frisch may be moved to third, with Selph, of Houston, taking his place at second and Gilbert of Buffalo, playing at short. The men likely to start in the outfield are Hafey Orsatti and Roettger, unless Hafey's eyes continue to bother him. Still, it seems strange that no place should be found for an outfielder as fast as Douthitt, Gilbert is considered a great find. Frisch doesn't like to play third, but with the Giants. High is a pretty useful man to have around and if Selph doesn't live up to advance notices, may stay at third, leaving Frisch free to move back to second.

Rumor has placed new managers in Boston, Detroit, Washington and St. Louis. This in spite of the fact that McKechnie led the Cards to a pennant and personally did not groove a single ball to Ruth or Gehrig. Harris is the favorite for the Detroit job and George Moriarty may go back to umpiring. It is easier for an umpire to handle ball players than it is for a manager, and he gets stiffer backing from a league president than from a club owner. This doesn't go for Miller Huggins. No one ever backed a man more stoutly than Colonel Rupert has backed Huggins. Rupert never has interfered, and has given Miller 100 per cent support. Why not? Huggins is a great manager. Boston likes Hornsby, but can't stand the size of his contract. Rogers is the Little Joe of baseball. He's always moving on and may next be found at the helm of the Chicago Cubs.

GROTTO WINS AT BILLIARDS

Took First Division Opener From Grand Terminals Last Night by 1192 to 1169

Grotto and Grand Terminals played a close game last night in the opening tournament of the first division billiard league, the aggregate score being 1192 to 1169 in favor of the tobacconists. Jimmy Hamilton, playing for the Terminals, made the high break of the evening—46—but, in spite of this, lost his game to Andy Donald by the decisive score of 250 to 218. The next high break was 36 which Charlie Balagno of the Terminals turned in in defeating Fred Stephens 250 to 211. The individual scores were as follows: A. A. Easson (Grotto), 250; W. H. Long (Grand Terminals), 221; Fred Stephens, 211; C. P. Balagno, 250; Don Brown, 231; W. J. Nelson, 250; Andy Donald, 250; James Hamilton, 218; M. M. McLachlan, 250; William Mitchell, 230. Grotto and Grand Terminals will also meet tonight on the opening game of the second division, the teams being: Grotto—J. Beasley, M. M. McLachlan, Sid Macdonald, Geo. Howe, and Bert Morgan. Grand Terminals—Mitchell, Ben Self, C. Youngman, Jno. Bulger and G. Woodland.

AMATEUR MEETING MAY BE LIVELY AT PORT ARTHUR DEC.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—It is believed here that the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union meeting to be held at Port Arthur December 6-7-8 is likely to be a stormy one. Many of the old and vexed question of easing the amateur rules are bound to come up again and in addition it is expected that certain delegates have already a list of questions prepared in connection with the Olympic games expedition. These, if permitted to be brought before the assembly, are almost sure to cause some acrimonious debates. There is a possibility, however, that all references to the Amsterdam trip may be referred to a special committee for adjustment.

GEORGE MORIARTY RESIGNED MANAGER DETROIT BASEBALL

DETROIT, Oct. 18.—George Moriarty, manager of the Detroit baseball team, resigned yesterday at the expiration of a two year contract.

Around The World With Sport Fans

(By The Tramp)

At a dinner given at Winnipeg in honor of Jimmy Ball and Brant Little, of the Canadian Olympic team E. C. Ransby, vice-president of the Winnipeg Athletic Association said of Jimmy Ball, that in his own mind he was absolutely convinced that this quarter-mile was the fastest in the world today despite the fact that he had been beaten by a matter of inches. Out of twenty races run while in Europe and the British Isles he had won nineteen, an achievement, Mr. Ransby claimed, bespoken for itself. He then presented Ball with a beautiful life membership certificate, suitably inscribed, and also a separate award from the club members besides.

Brant Little, who made a most creditable showing in the 800 metres event, was the next to receive a similar presentation. Mr. Ransby prophesied a great future for Brant and expressed the hope that he would long be with the club.

In a modest reply the dark-haired 1 1/2 miler thanked the gathering for the honor they had done him, at the same time paying tribute to the marvellous work of Ball. He also extended his thanks to Walter Robertson for his part in making his trip overseas possible.

For drunkenness, David Burns was fined $25, with option of thirty days' imprisonment, by Magistrate McClymont in the city police court this morning.

URGES CONTROL BY PROVINCE

W. E. Williams Would Hand Over Fisheries for B.C. Government to Administer

Control of the fishing industry on the Pacific coast ought to be handed over by the dominion to the provincial government in the opinion of W. E. Williams, barrister, who has had wide experience in Prince Rupert, B.C., and who is in Vancouver as solicitor for fishing interests, says the Canadian Fisherman.

"It would pay the province of British Columbia, which gets the direct and indirect benefits of a prosperous fishing industry," he said, "to spend the money required to rebuild our coast fisheries. If proper steps are taken we can double our output in 16 years."

Mr. Williams' proposal arises from the changed interpretation of the dominion's jurisdiction arising out of the recent decision of the various courts in the now famous Somerville cannery case that the dominion government had no right to regulate or license the operations of canneries, as it had been doing up to that time. Once the fish were landed the courts held that they came under provincial jurisdiction.

Case to be Decided Soon

This case was fought for the Somerville cannery company by Mr. Williams, and who later contested the case as representative of the provincial government, states that although a further appeal has been taken by the dominion government to the privy council, he is confident that the outcome will be the same as in the courts that have already dealt with the issue.

The privy council case will be heard in October and decision should be given in time for the legislature to set up a measure of control of the canning industry at its next session, he said.

Inasmuch as this decision deprives the dominion government of control of that portion of the fishing industry from which the principal revenue is derived, Mr. Williams expressed the belief that the interests of the fishing industry as a whole would be best served by giving the province complete control.

"It will not pay the dominion to undertake the expenditures necessary to rehabilitate the industry when it loses the major portion of the revenue" he said. Any way the fishing industry on the Pacific coast is a matter that affects British Columbia exclusively.

Dominion Should Help

"The dominion should pay the province a fixed annuity to carry out its responsibilities for the protection of the fisheries and then it would pay the province to spend about $2,000,000 within the next four or five years in re-seeding some of the streams and inlets, in clearing away obstructions and otherwise encouraging the salmon to return to British Columbia waters.

There are inlets where the fish come only every two years. Seeding would make them come every year. There are streams blocked by removal obstructions, such as log jams. These could be opened up with comparatively little expense.

THROUGH SLEEPERS TO THE SHIP'S SIDE

The Canadian National Railways have made arrangements to operate special trains and through sleeping cars from the Pacific Coast to the ship's side at Montreal and Halifax in connection with sailings for the Old Country during November and December. GOOD NEWS FROM C.N.R.

Many people have wondered that the C.N.R. should allow their big dock to lie idle here when the salmon from this district was allowed to be all taken south. Efforts were probably made to secure this business but they were not effective efforts and those are the only ones that count.

Possibly the industrial agent may be able to do something to better conditions. At any rate an effort would be worth something.

ANOTHER NEWSPAPER CHAIN

Another Canadian newspaper chain has been started. When Charles Campbell sold out his interest in the Star at Vancouver he went to Edmonton and bought the Bulletin and made a success of it. Then he reached out and joined hands with another newspaperman, getting control of the Calgary Albertan, a paper which has a large sale at Edmonton in the morning. The next step was to start a new paper in Regina, the Star, for which a Canadian Press franchise has been secured. Further east, the same publishers took advantage of the northern Manitoba movement to institute a daily paper at The Pas. That chain of four newspapers may be only the beginning of things. It is possible that they may again step back into Vancouver.

MORE BRITISH NEWS

The Canadian Press meeting at Toronto, in which the Prince Rupert Daily News is a shareholder, has decided to extend its direct British cable service to give Canadian people more first hand British news. This will to some extent nullify the advantage gained by the special representatives in Europe. It is in keeping with the trend of the times. The only difficulty is that we expect to learn next of an additional assessment against members each month to pay for the increased service. Already the Canadian Press charges are high.

LIBERALS TO CHOOSE CANDIDATE

Choosing a candidate for an election which is not likely to take place for the next two years seems rather an unwise proceeding. It is possible that before the election some man not now in the public eye may become outstanding in the affairs of the north and it would be more desirable to choose him. However, there are possibly circumstances which justify the action of the executive in calling the convention. One justification may be that the constituency is a very large one and it would take a couple of years to get properly acquainted with its people and their needs.

Why— Children need BOVRIL

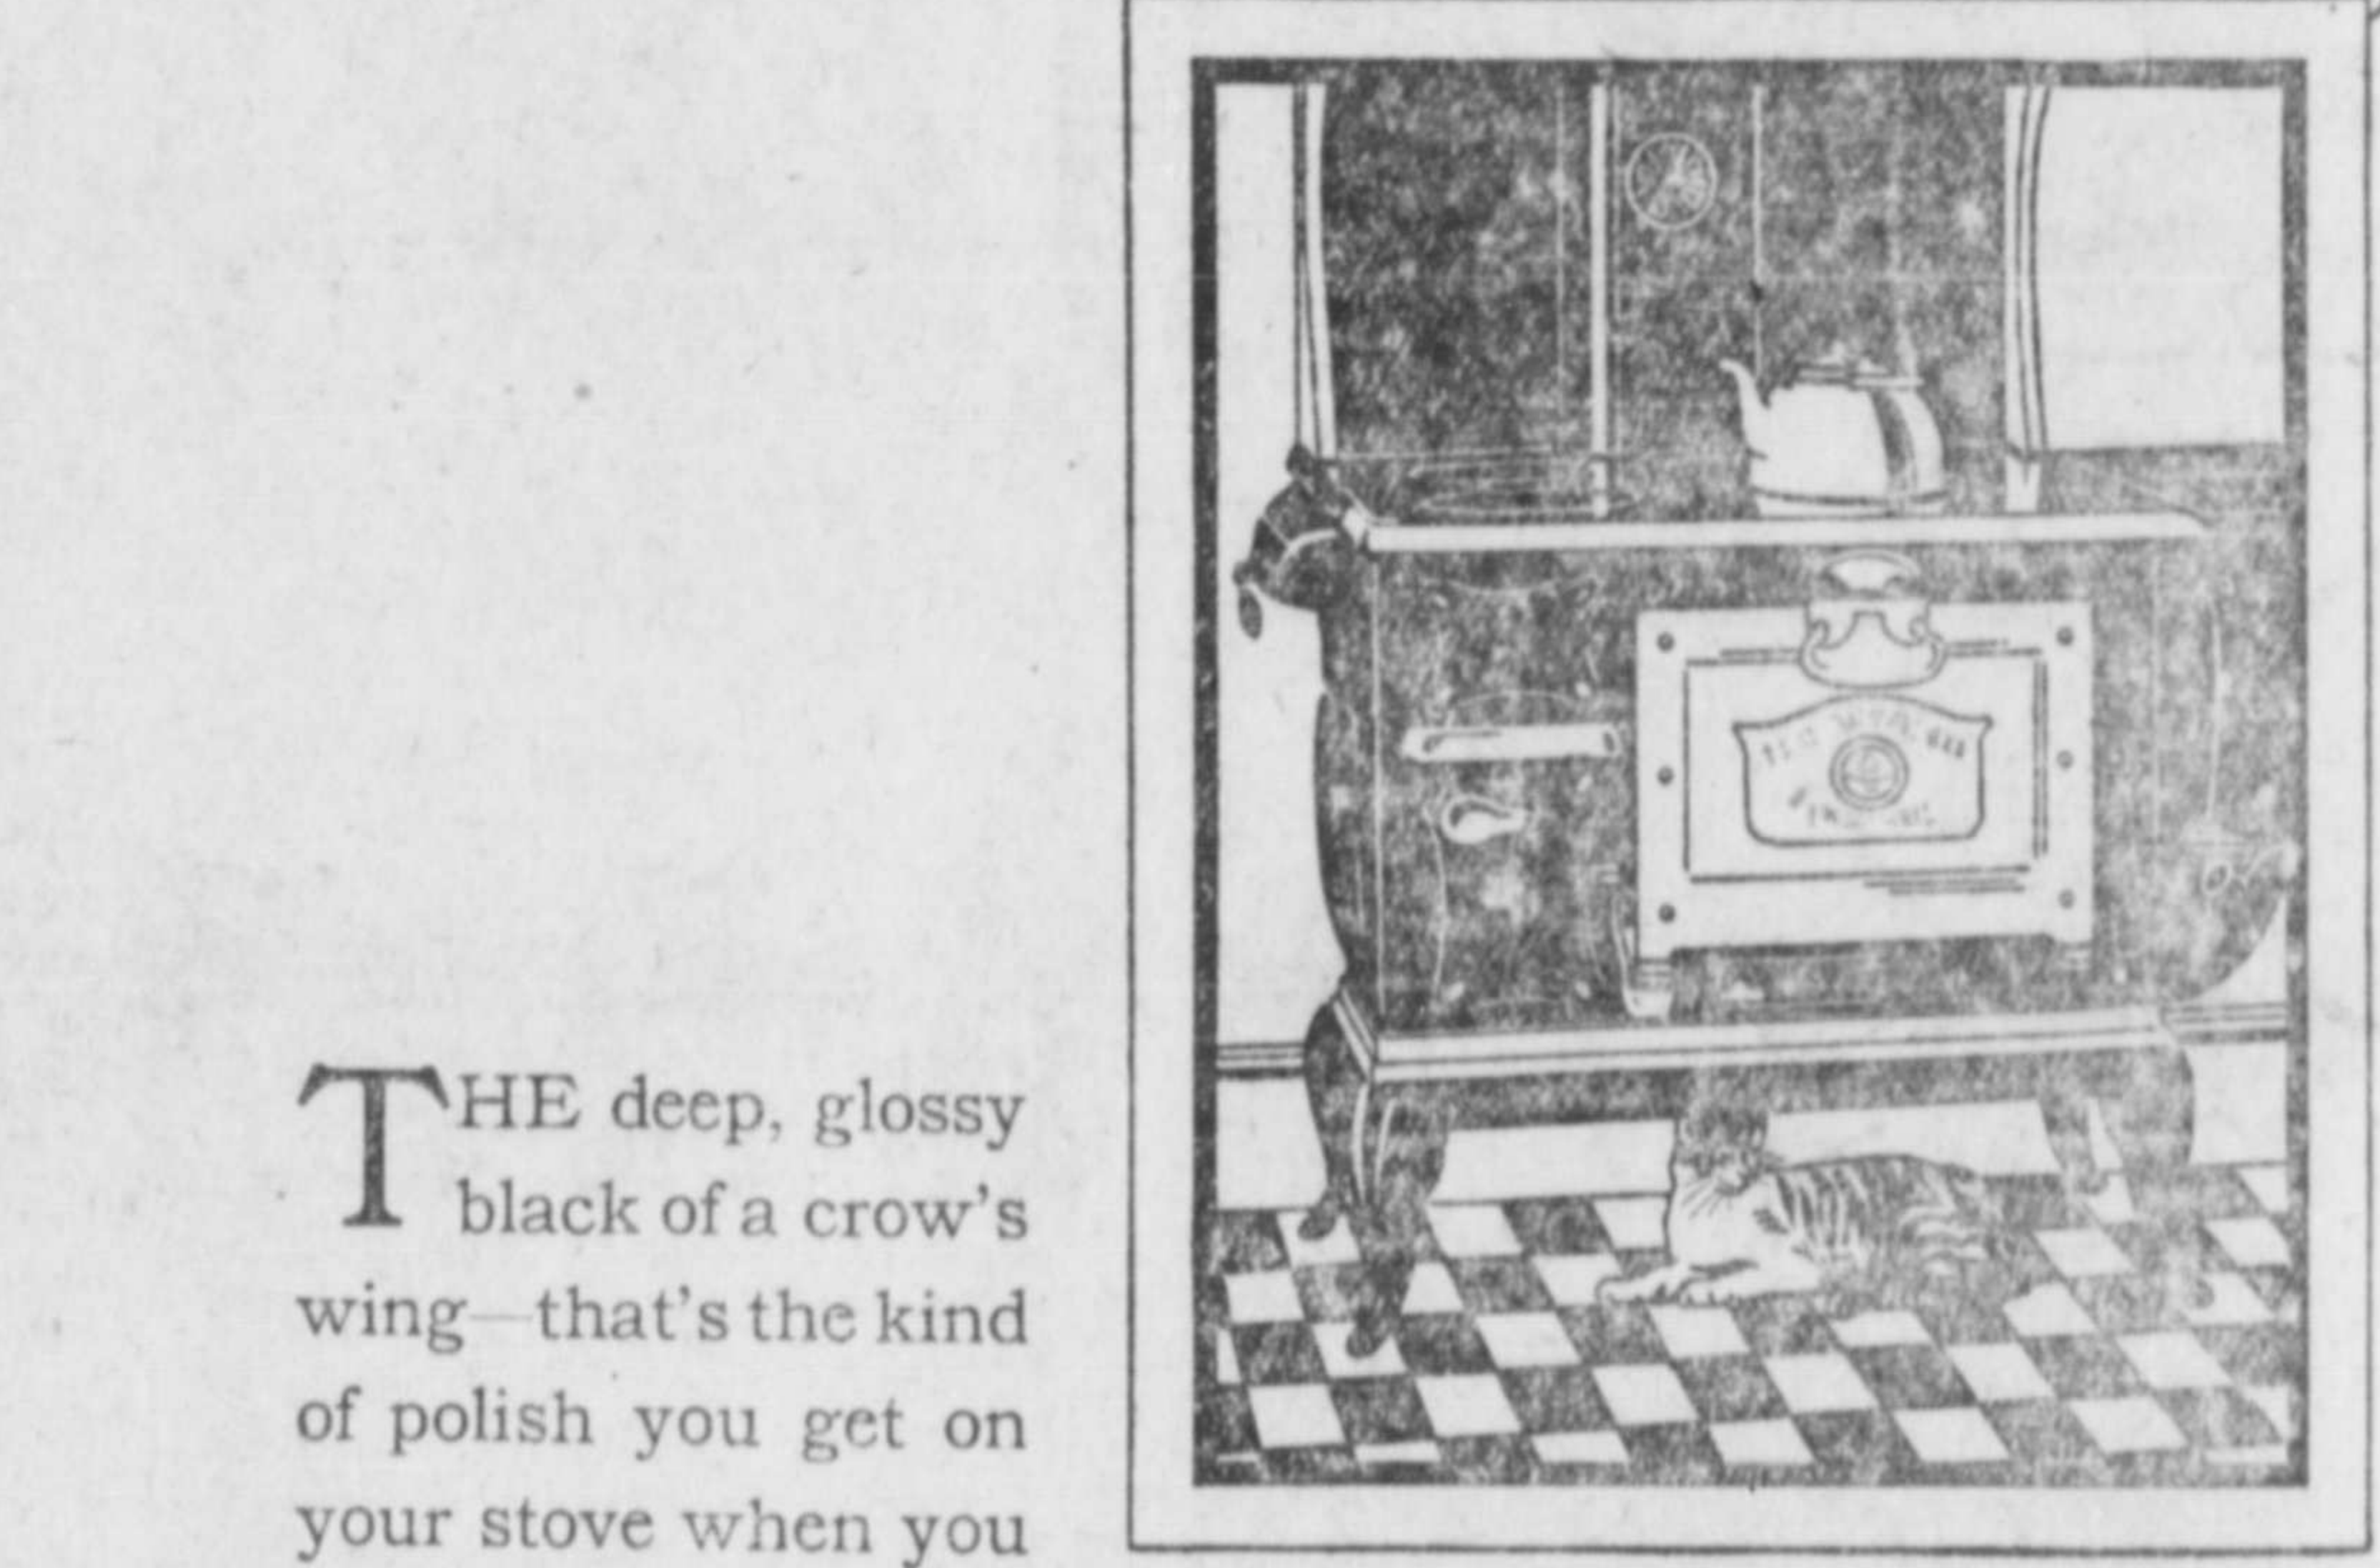

Children need Bovril to fortify them against cold and illness. Bovril is the best of the beef in its most concentrated and digestible form.

The special body-building powers of Bovril are due, partly to the actual nourishment in Bovril itself, and partly to its unique power of enabling the human system to derive far greater nourishment from the ordinary diet. It assists development and increases stamina. Give the children Bovril every day for a month and note the difference.

The Body-building powers of Bovril have been proved by independent investigation to be from 10 to 20 times the amount taken.

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT
Development at D. W. Hines Ltd.—Coal Seam Near Cedarvale Reported—Electrical Prospecting on Dunwell

Marked success continues to attend the development of the D. W. Mines Ltd. high upon Seven Sisters Mountains across the Skeena River from Cedarvale railway station and the property is fast approaching the status of an important producer. Open cutting on the surface has established the vein to be almost 8,000 feet long, it is reported, and three tunnels are being driven at different levels. From these tunnels the shipping ore will be taken. There is much high grade gold, silver, lead and zinc ore as well as milling ore. Sixteen men are still employed at the property and it is said that there may be a larger staff this winter. It is reported that the concern may next year proceed with the construction of a tram line which will bring the ore down the steep mountain incline to Cedarvale station. Ground at the latter point is said to have been secured for the erection of a mill. D. W. Davis, ex-governor of Idaho, head of the D. W. Mines Ltd., has been for the past several weeks in the northwestern states participating in the presidential election campaign on behalf of the Republican cause.

Samples have been exhibited in the city recently of what is said to be first class anthracite coal, discovery of same having been made by a well known local prospector across the Skeena River and about two miles distant from Cedarvale station. The seam is said to be eight feet in thickness and of various widths, traceable by outcrops on the surface for a mile. The average depth is said to be little below the tree roots. Samples available have apparently been affected by contact with air and are quite powdery and brittle.

Electrical or geophysical prospecting which is being practised on mines in this district will be watched with interest. Prominent among the properties receiving such attention are the recently acquired Hanna claims of the Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. at Hidden Creek near Anyox and the famous Dunwell mine in the Portland Canal district. Should this test, supplemented by diamond drilling and tunnelling, result in the location of sufficient ore reserves, the Dunwell mill may possibly be reopened and the outlook for that property would become much brighter.

Diamond drills brought in from Mexico have just been put on the Premier Border property at Stewart by the Mitchell Co. of Cobalt, a contract having been let for 5,000 feet of drilling and an additional 5,000 feet providing results from the first drilling are favorable.

able. The Premier Border has already done 1500 feet of underground work and a considerable amount of surface work on porphyry zones which are characteristic of the Salmon River ore deposits. It is the intention to continue work on the property throughout the winter. Ernest S. Parker, president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, is the president of Premier Border and directors include Mr. Tobias, M.P., three directors of Canadian banks, Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., and other capitalists. F. J. Crossland is managing engineer.

About six-and-a-half tons of ore have been sacked and a shipment will be made soon from the Big Mike property, just south of the Marmot River, which is being developed by Davidson & Davidson of Vancouver. A tunnel which was started on the vein at high water mark on barren quartz is now in 145 feet and in the face shows two feet of solid ore, consisting of galena, iron pyrites and pyrolyte. Outcroppings, besides galena and quartz, showed some very noticeable specimens of free gold.

Winter supplies are now being packed in from Stewart to the Mavou property on Bitter Creek and the horses, coming out, will bring a smelter sample of 1,000 tons. A new camp has just been finished for the accommodation of men working all winter on the property. When snow conditions are right, ore will be rawhided down and the manager, William Tompkins, expects that the cost of development should be taken care of by ore shipments in the meantime, at least.

MEETING OF P.T. ASS'N.

Address by J. P. Brady, M.P. and Presentation of Prizes Features of Gathering

In spite of the inclement weather there was a very large attendance at the Booth Memorial School last evening at the regular meeting of the Prince Rupert Parent - Teacher Association. Mrs. J. E. Boddie presided.

A communication was received from the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council relative to the cost of education due to the changes of text books and also to the cost of books themselves. The matter was referred to the executive which is to furnish particulars to enable the question to be taken up thoroughly at the next meeting.

The association then voted to each of the three larger schools a sum of $20 each and to the two smaller schools a sum of $10 each to be spent as the principals of the schools decide.

Nominating committees were then appointed by the president so that at the next meeting the election of officers for the forthcoming year may be proceeded with.

The speaker of the evening was J. C. Brady, M.P. who addressed at length parents and pupils. He congratulated the association on its fine record and the practical interest it was taking in the life of the school children of the city. Referring to the matter of the cost of books Mr. Brady mentioned the system that was adopted in New Zealand some years ago and suggested that such an arrangement here might be of benefit in solving the problem of the apparently unduly high cost of books for school curricula.

Success of Education
In his address, Mr. Brady referred to the four factors contributing to the success of education the taxpayer, the educational department, the parent and the teacher. In these days, with so much attention paid to commercial successes, agricultural advances and other phases of national life, there was the tendency to underestimate the supreme value of the education of the child. He made a plea for a better understanding and knowledge of the teacher by the parent. Outside the influence of the home, the greatest single factor contributing to the development of the child was the teacher. Teaching was the Cinderella of the professions but he looked forward to the not far distant day when it would get the reward, respect, support and encouragement to which it was entitled.

Education was two-fold, it must prepare for life and it must enable the child to obtain a living. But of greatest importance was the development of character. He closed with a reminder of the value of education, in the three fields of opportunity in Canada—forestry, engineering and commerce. The openings in these were available to the educated boy. The head of a large engineering firm in Ontario was able to show that out of three hundred High School pupils who had passed through the firm's plant not one had been a failure.

The entrance pupils were on the threshold of great opportunities. They had opened the door. He hoped that they would make the fullest possible use of their chances.

Prizes Presented

The Governor-General's medal was then presented to James Winslow and entrance certificates to the successful pupils.

As regent of Queen Mary Chapter of the I.O.D.E., Mrs. D. C. Stuart presented the prizes donated by the chapter to the boy and girl making the highest marks in Canadian History, both of whom were in attendance at Borden St. School. Rupert Ross and Eveleen White were the winners.

On behalf of Adair Carss chapter, Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod presented the prize to the pupil of the Booth School who made the highest marks in Canadian History. This was James Winslow.

Contributing to the program also were Miss E. Davies, who sang delightfully "Hey Ho For the Morning" and "A Little Prayer for Me" Miss Lucy O'Brien accompanying. The Misses Mary and Nellie Lawrence were heard to advantage in two instrumental duets.

Votes of thanks to all those who contributed to the program were passed on motion of R. M. Winslow and W. W. C. O'Neill and, after the singing of the National Anthem, the meeting adjourned for refreshments which were served in the Home Economics room.

When walking up Third Avenue I met an ancient man, he seemed all bent and groken up and wore a coat of tan.

I asked him why he wandered thus

And why so old he grew? And then to me he did unfold A tale both strange and true.

Said he, I've waited many a day That post office to see, Until I now am bent and old, You'd hardly know 'twas me.

I pass the old site in my walks And note the excavation And think some day they'll build right there.

Or give an explanation. I'd like to see that Federal block Go up before I die, And then my hair grows greyer yet

And as I pass I sigh.

Local and Personal

The usual grant of $50 to pay for Christmas comforts among the patients was made to Miss Jean Harrison, R.N., the lady superintendent by the hospital board last night.

The house committee was instructed at last night's meeting of the hospital board to see to the putting up of storm windows for the winter at once. A ladder will be secured to facilitate the work.

Miss Helen Randal, R. N., registrar of the Graduate Nurses' Association of British Columbia and inspector of training schools for the province, has left for Hazelton after a two day visit to the local institution.

Pursuant to an order of the board at its meeting a month ago, Ald. W. M. Brown, chairman of the house committee, reported to the hospital board last night that arrangements had been made to instal an exit light in the Fifth Avenue entrance of the building.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was held last night in the hospital. Those present were M. M. Stephens, who presided in the absence of the chairman, J. H. Thompson, who was indisposed; Ald. W. M. Brown, H. D. Rochester, L. W. Waugh and Ald. W. J. Greer, directors, Miss Jean Harrison, R.N., lady superintendent, and H. W. Birch, managing secretary.

After considerable discussion, the hospital board last night decided to order through the city at the wholesale price of $67.50 an electric vacuum cleaner and floor polisher. L. W. Waugh voted against ordering in this manner, expressing the belief that for the difference involved the purchase should be made through local dealers. Ald. Brown also coincided with this view while H. B. Rochester, M. M. Stephens and Miss Jean Harrison, the lady superintendent, were strongly in favor of buying in the cheapest possible market.

Third Avenue Prince Rupert, B.C.

Mrs. W. H. Smeeton was seized with a sudden indisposition yesterday morning but friends will be pleased to learn that she is now feeling much better.

In her monthly report to the board at its regular meeting last night, Miss Jean Harrison, R.N., lady superintendent of the Prince Rupert Hospital reported that everything was going well in the institution and there were no events out of the ordinary record.

Mr. Justice D. A. McDouald, who has been presiding at the session of the Supreme Court Assizes here this week, expects to sail by the Prince Rupert tonight on his return to Vancouver, accompanied by Mrs. McDouald. A. M. Johnson, K.C., crown prosecutor, is also hoping to leave for the south on the same vessel aboard which witnesses from Ocean Falls and Bella Coola in the Turner murder trial are as well expecting to return home. Whether or not they get away will depend upon whether the trial can be completed today. It opened at 10 o'clock this morning.

Railway offices this morning reported only 25 carloads of grain on the division west of Jasper Park bound for the local elevator.

C. A. Thompson of the insurance department of the Canadian National Railways with headquarters in Montreal arrived in the city from Vancouver yesterday and proceeded east on this morning's train.

The hospital board decided last night to take up with the city engineering department an account that was received in connection with the making of improvements on Green Street abutting the institution. Overcharge is claimed and adjustment will be sought.
