Not only has the city effected a reduction on the mill rate year from 50 to 46 mills but the assessment has been cut some fifteen per cent, thus making a substantial reduction of taxes on the whole, it was shown at last night's council meeting when the 1928 rate bylaw was presented by the finance committee and duly adopted. It will be necessary this year for the city to obtain by taxation a total sum of $166,449.38 of which $86,413.13 is required to take care of bonded indebtedness, the balance being ordinary expenditures, including schools. Body Brought Here This Afternoon and Handed Over to Police: Gun Fell and Discharged Accidentally Natives Say

Huddled over the amidships seat of a rod boat in which, while engaged in hunting hair seal for the bounty outside of Tugwell Island, he was shot dead, apparently accidentally, about 10 o'clock this morning, the body of Phillip McKay, aged 23, well known young Metlakatla Indian, was brought to the city shortly after noon today by the seineboat Dickie Boy, Peter Leighton. The death boat was towed into town by the Dickie Boy and tied up at the fisheries float on the waterfront. Subsequent examination showed a gaping wound in the back at the kidenys.

LIVING OUR OWN LIVES

While men and women live in communities and to a certain extent conform to similar customs, manners and laws, each has his own individuality and must live his own life. There is no reason why one person should live like any other person or do or say the things some other group of persons do or say. We live our own lives Coste Island, in Devastation Channel, an and no one can live them for us. If we make mistakes we pay the penalty. What a man sows that shall he also reap.

But there are people who think other persons should live like with it Roscoe Wheeler, who was enthey do, think as they do and act as they do. These people are a gineer. nuisance in the community and they hold back the advancement of the race.

The reason Prince Rupert is inhabited is because some people wreckage for his brother. There was were unwilling to conform to the life of other places and came here to live. There is no reason why the city should be like others. We do not want it to have ugly rows of trees on the streets or other in- two survivors rowed ashore in the artistic features of the great outside world. Let us have a distinc- | dinghy. tive city, a city that dares to be different. Just as the people here are a people who live and behave somewhat differently from the rest of the world, so should the expression of the people in city building be unique.

COMING OF SPRING

The milder weather makes people think of spring. The call of the great outdoors is ours and we naturally turn to the water, the game grounds, the fishing streams and the gardens. The normal person has enough self-respect to clean up the yard and make w everything look respectable.

To many the spring means baseball games, football or tennis. Why did you come so soon? To others it means going out and getting in tune with nature. You're driving snow from the hills. Sport when it occupies the whole thought of young men or women has a narrowing influence, cramps the life and shuts out much that should be learned or enjoyed. On the other hand when it is used as a means of keeping fit and providing occasional enjoyment it is most valuable.

So, too, is watching games or sports. It is difficult to understand healthy people willing to spend every public holiday watching someone else play instead of going out and playing themselves. It much money we have a lot of fun and is an enjoyable recreation watching a good game well played, but the less cash we have the more it is to waste every holiday in that way is a great mistake. One good possible to get. game of marbles or duck on the rock has more value than watching a dozen games played by someone else.

SEEING NATURE WORK

But to many, spring means an opportunity to watch the ways of nature as illustrated by other than human beings. They like to see the birds return, the trees break into leaf, the flowers grow, to like to hear it sing as it sends a fast hear the song of the brook or the soughing of the wind in the tree one to the outfield, tops. Possibly to them spring means more than to any others. They spend their spare time away from the haunts of men and delight in baseball this year. finding a new flower or exploring a new haunt of the wild things.

Around Prince Rupert there are all sorts of opportunities for an norses are nearly all gone from exploring. A Natural History of Kaien Island would prove a most the cities, remember we still have the enthralling subject for a natural history writer. He might describe bull. and photograph the flowers and trees, tell of the birds that visit here, the deer and other animals that come to the island, the insects that are found including the spiders in the gardens and the smaller not advocate the same unreasonable creatures and this might be rounded out by a study of the fishes and other water creatures seen in the coves and on the beaches.

FORGET MAKING A LIVING

We all have to think a great deal about making a living for if we do not, we fail to make sufficient money to enable us to buy leisure and the means of study. Let it be granted then that the first thing in life is to provide for our physical needs. After that may into the boating game, I suggest he get well come the study of some phase of outdoor life and spring is the time to begin.

STRUCK IN ST. PATRICK'S DAY ENTERTAINMENT THIS YEAR UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

QUALITY, NOT QUANTITY

PLENTY OF GOOD IRISH FUN, MUSIC AND DANCES AT ANNUAL EVENT

The annual St. Patrick's Day concert Church arranged by M. J. Dougherty with Bishop Bunez as patron and J. Muldoon as business manager was different from anything that had gone before. Instead of the large number of ongs and dances, these were confined to but a few numbers and the remainder clever local artists. The whole affair was well arranged and well executed and reflected much credit on the management choir, Rev. J. T. Smeeton, Mrs. Mc- is superintendent of the company, and on those who took part.

Promptly at the appointed time the terson. Westholme Orchestra struck up the medley of Irish airs without any ancouncement and the concert was on. It also closed at the appointed time giving slightly over two hours of real enjoy-and Evelyn March. D. B. Finn in "The Kerry Dance" sang well and his work was appreciated. He gave for an encore "Oh the Time is was H. N. Brocklesby.

Miss Mollie Jackson in the Irish Love song "Would God I Were the Tender Apple Blossom," upheld her previous good reputation as a vocalist. Her stage presence and entrancing gown added to the enjoyment of her singing. Her en-1 core number also went well. Miss Lorna Tite accompanied.

One of the most spectacular and pleasing numbers on the program was the Irish dance by Misses MacLaren. Thomson, Grieve, Palmer, McCaffery and Riel. They kept good time and the dance went with a swing.

The dialogue "Just Norsense," between Alex. Connon and J. Dougherty was a side-splitting little sketch with Dougherty as the comedian. It contained some local references and was witty and bright throughout.

Mrs. J. J. Muldoon was better than ever in her song, "Believe Me if all Those Endearing Young Charms," accompanied by Miss Virginia Riel and her encore number "When First I Saw Sweet Peggy" was equally well sung. The one-act play, "Yes, George," proved to be a winner and the end must have been eminently satisfactory to George. It was the story of a young man who found it difficult to propose to his pretty sweetheart, a very difficult thing to simulate but well acted. The difficulty George found was that his young lady friend Anna (Miss Mollie Jackson) was too popular and her many friends almost entirely obliterated him. The ruse adopted to get rid of the friends while retaining Anna was effective and in the end all turned out well. Louis Smith took the part of the lover to perfection and Anna used all the wiles of a charming girl to lead him on. The obtruding friends who flocked in at an unfortunate moment were Misses Lillian Cross, Winnie Thomson, Jean

Fairbanks-Morse Ball Bearing Pumps

Five years' wear on a ball bearing pump is less than the manufacturing tolerances in sleeve bearings. Sealing rings therefore maintain their original clearances and the pumps do not lose their efficiency.

Ball bearings require greasing but once a year and are dirt and water proof. Thus the pump is easier kept clean and the cost of lubricant and lubricating gangs is reduced.

Other reasons for the high efficiency and unusual economy of these pumps are contained in our bulletins.

LETTER SETS FORTH GURVICH SIDE OF CONTROVERSY OVER

In connection with difference over the proposed meeting of Gurvich and McDonald John Gurvich, manager for Dido, in a letter received this morning, sets forth his side of the controversy as Editor, Daily News. Charley Brown, acting manager of Jimmy McDonald recently issued a challenge through the paper for a reurn bout with Dido Gurvich. This challenge was accepted by John Gurvich, manager for Dido Gurvich, but was refused by Charley Brown. Also, the weight money for Gurvich to make 1521/2 lbs. was raised from $50 to $100. What was the reason for this? Gurvich is willing to put up $50, but not $100. John Gurvich also offered Charley Brown a flat guarantee of $200 for his boy to fight but was refused. Dido is willing to fight McDonald at any place and at any time with sultable arrangements.

Thanking, you, I am JOHN GURVICH.
