ANCIENT GREEK CITY IS DESTROYED

BRITISH CHANCELLOR TELLS ECONOMIES THAT COUNTRY

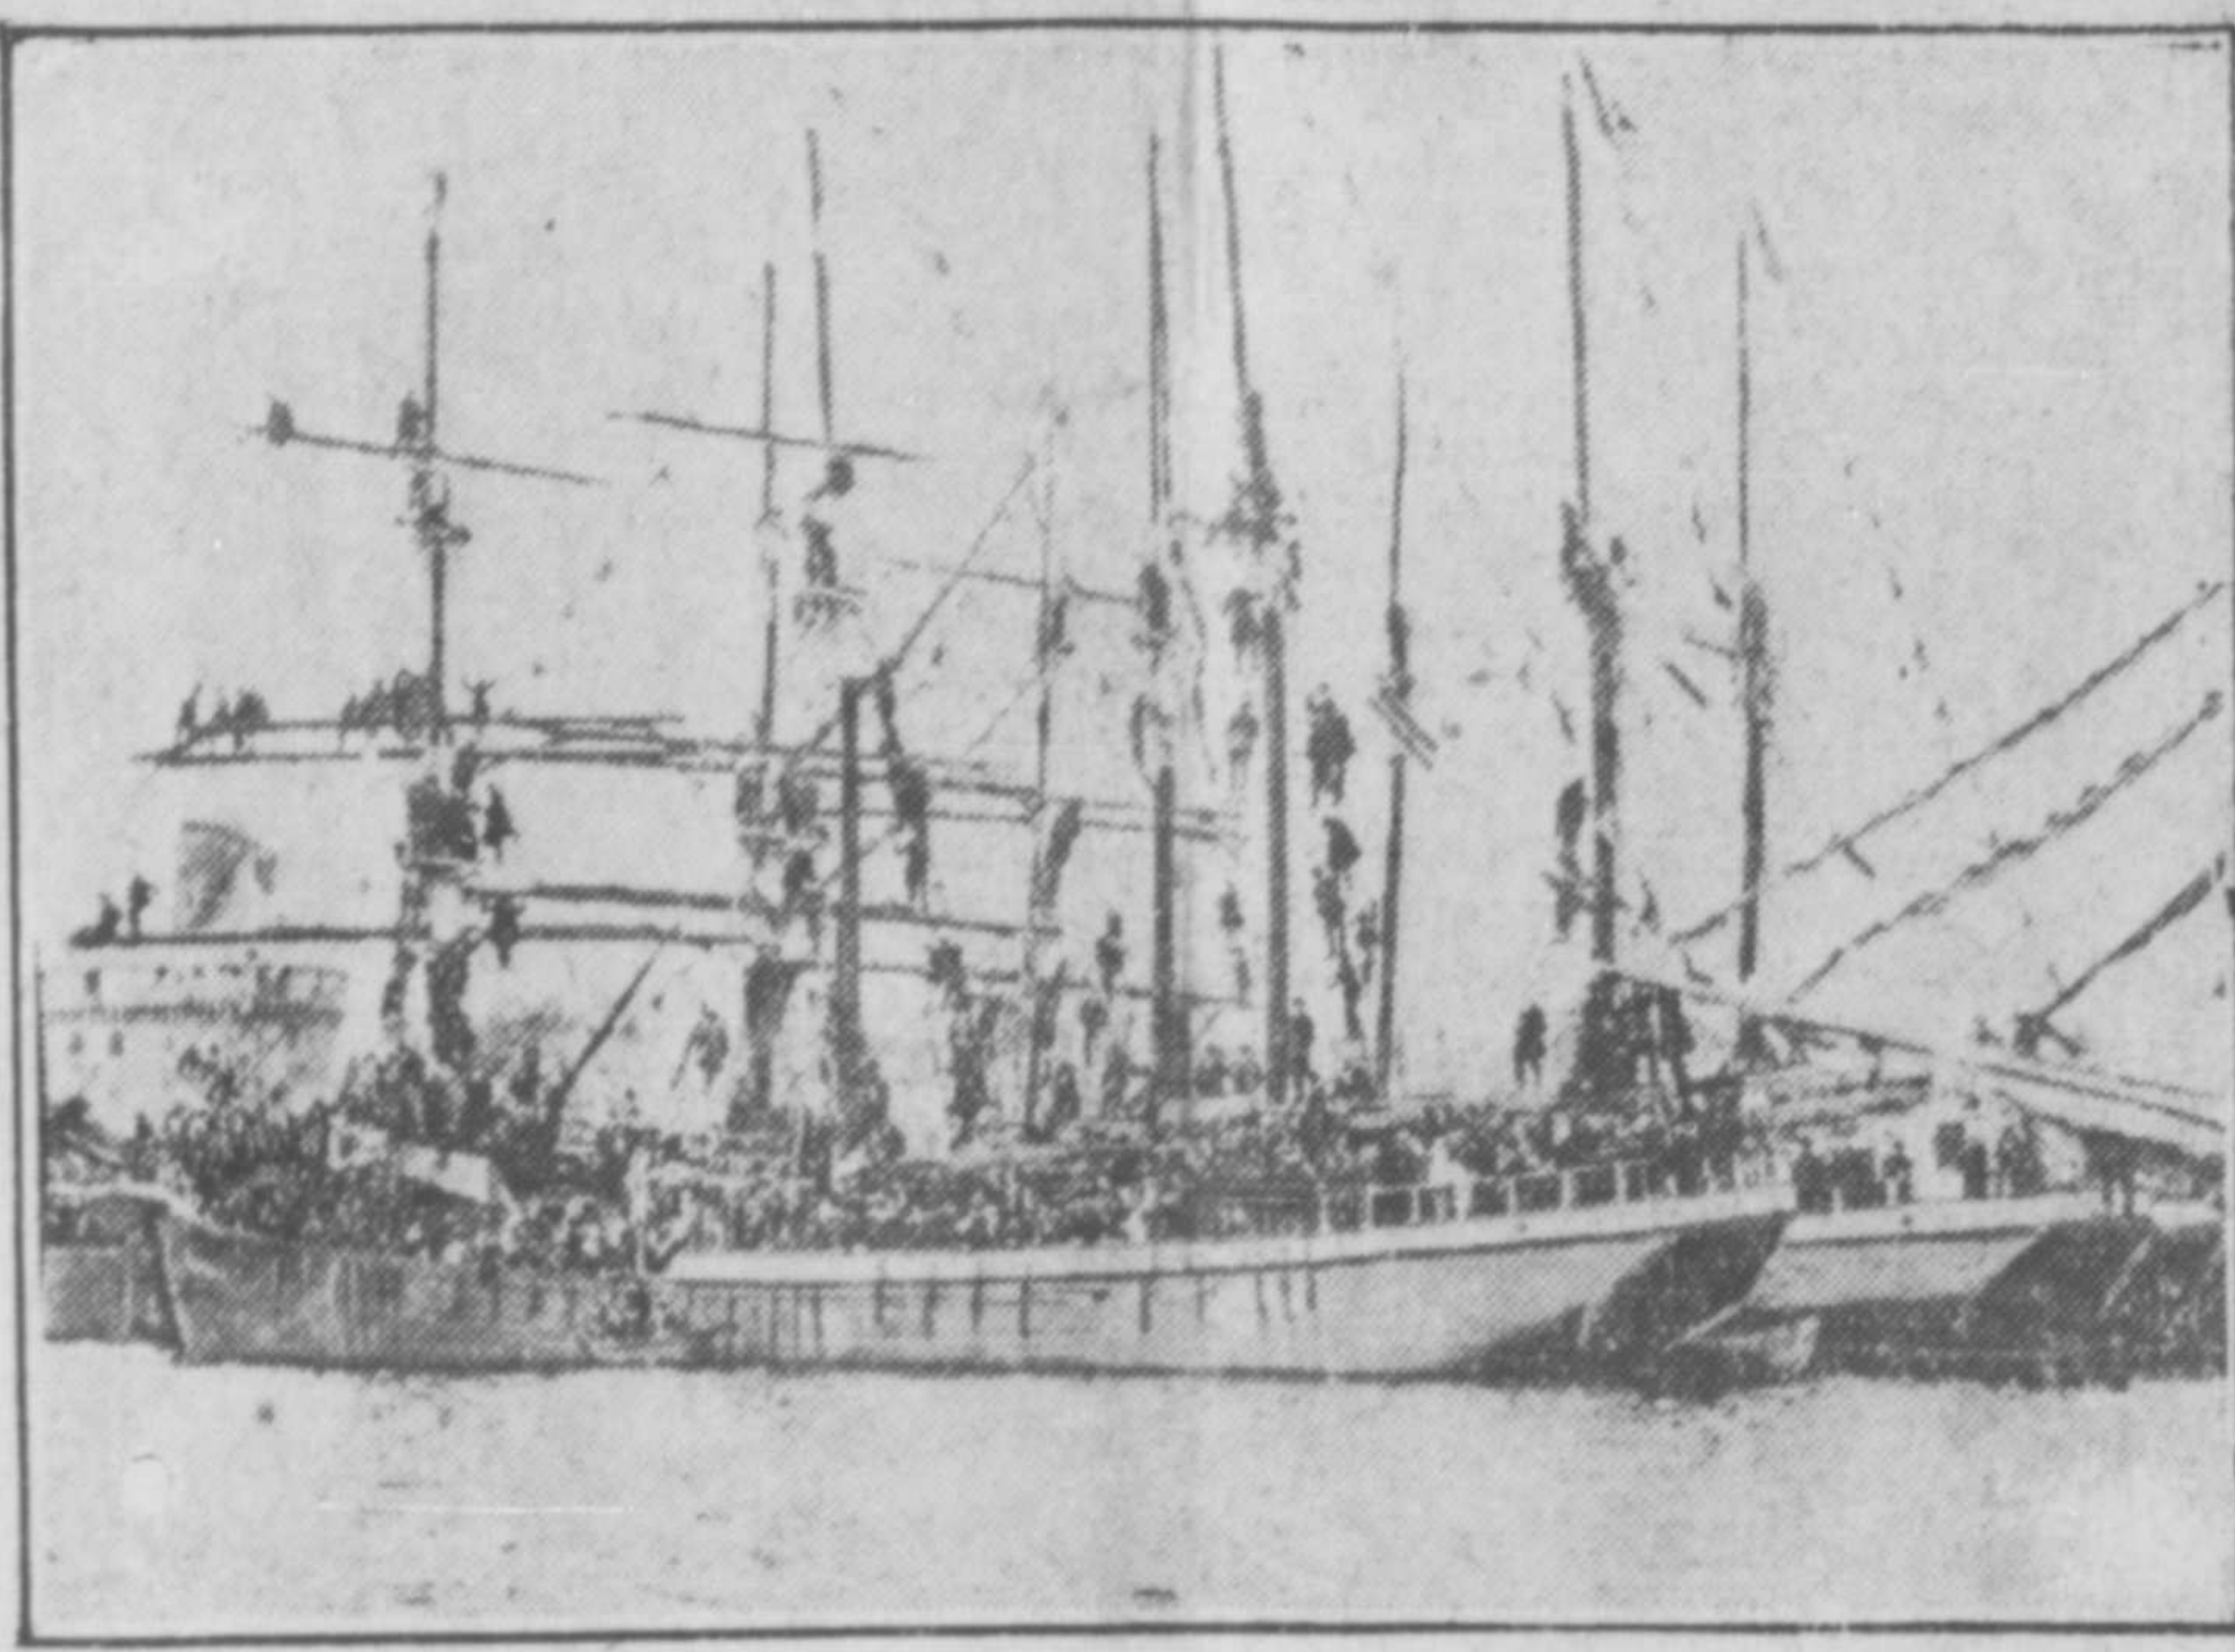

Greek Towns in Ruins and 16,000 Homeless Result of Earthquake

ATHENS, Greece, April 24.—Sixteen thousand people are homeless and destitute on the Isthmus of Corinth as the result of an earthquake which killed at least thirteen persons. Four-fifths of the houses of Corinth were destroyed and others are unsafe for habitation.

Two thousand people lost their homes at Lutrakia. A crevice 200 feet long opened in the earth.

At Kalamaki, Poseonia and elsewhere, three thousand are homeless.

Corinth is said by a minister in the Greek government to be beyond repair. Two more shocks shook the city this morning and the inhabitants must move elsewhere.

Net Closing In On Criminal Who Committed Dastardly Murder Last Week on Comox Avenue Is Thought

WITH exactly a week elapsed since the commission of the foul crime, there were strong indications this morning that developments toward the discovery of the killer last week on Comox Avenue of Mrs. Esther Killas, were pending. Around the police station where chief officers were in conference with subordinates standing by to act upon their call, there was obviously an air of tense expectation. Judging from what little information there was for the press and public to obtain, the net was drawing in toward a solution of an affair which has stirred this city to its depths during the past seven days.

During the past twenty-four hours a number of steps have been taken by the police to bring the matter to a head.

Enquiry made from Inspector William Spiller elicited little definite information. He stated that a process of elimination was being followed and admitted that the trail was narrowing down.

"Meantime," he said, "we have no intention of saying anything that might prejudice our case or, on the other hand, might point the finger of suspicion unfairly to any one person. The investigation has reached a point where it is hardly safe for us to deny or confirm any reports. Perhaps, we should not be even saying this. But you may rest assured that, whenever it is safe to publish anything, you shall have it."

One of the new steps that has been taken was the draining today of the city reservoir on Acropolis Hill, evidently to ascertain if anything such as a weapon might have been dropped there.

The belief of the police seems to be that the murderer, after leaving the unfortunate woman's house in the early hours of last Tuesday morning, went west along Comox Avenue for a way and then took to the hillside toward the sports ground and the reservoir nearby. Such a weapon as a knife, which it might be difficult to dispose, may possibly have been hurled in the reservoir. It may be a faint hope but the police are leaving no stone unturned to find any clues which, to date, have evidently been scarce enough though the police, no doubt, have, by this time, more information than they are desirous of publishing.

Last night the search led the police to various boarding and lodging houses in the city.

OTTAWA, April 24.—The Supreme Court today decided that women were not entitled to appointments to the Senate under the present terms of the B.N.A. Act. The case was argued six weeks ago on the application of five Alberta women.

The question turned on the interpretation of the word "person" in section 24 of the British North America Act. The case was brought before the court on reference from the Governor General in council as to whether "persons included female persons." The court answered "If it is understood to mean, are women eligible for appointment to the Senate of Canada? The question is answered in the negative." The court was unanimous.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

This fire prevention week throughout Canada, the idea being to try to educate the people, especially through the schools, to the necessity of guarding the forests against fire. Carelessness is the cause of most of the trouble.

While Prince Rupert is not often troubled with forest fires the interior country, which is neighbor to this, suffers considerable losses therefrom and Prince Rupert people often visit these more arid sections. The lesson is obvious. It pays to be careful.

EMPIRE SHOPPING WEEK

This is Empire Shopping Week when an effort is being made to push forward the trade within the Empire movement. Prince Rupert did not form any committee, as in other places, to forward this cause, with the result that we hear little of it here. In other places great activity is being shown and even at Terrace they have made an effort in that direction.

PAY INCOME TAXES

This is the last week for paying income tax to the Dominion Government in order to avoid any of the penalties provided by the statute. The tax is paid by all who receive two thousand dollars or more and the amount is graduated so that the richer people pay a higher rate until the person with an annual income of half a million dollars pays half of it to the government as tax.

Married people pay only if they have $3,000 so that there is a bonus for those who undertake household duties. The thing to remember is that the taxes are due this week and should be paid.

VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

There are various other matters in progress. The Cenotaph committee is getting busy on collections for that fund with a view to cleaning up and getting the work under way. The Salvation Army is canvassing for their annual self-denial fund, and all the time business is rather quiet because of the low price of fish. However, all these things will change and the payments will be made and people will carry on as usual.

WISH TO OPPOSE SOMETHING

Most of the circulars and open letters that reach a newspaper office are not requests for assistance, although large numbers are along that line. Most of them are requests for us to oppose something. We are a race of objectors. We set ourselves up as watchdogs who are ready to pounce on any activity, no matter how beneficial.

Large numbers of people either inherit or have developed an opposition complex. They would much rather oppose something than help something along. The aim of their lives is to stop anyone else doing anything. They hate activity.

While it is true that some activities are malevolent and need scotching, it is also true that most activities are beneficial and should be encouraged. Those who are active in some cause seldom have time to cast stones at any other cause, with the exception of religious and political movements. The busy person is the one who has not time to worry over what the neighbors are doing. Constructive activity is worth a great deal more than destructive activity. We need more of it.

TERRACE WILL SPEND MORE IN PRIZES AT FAIR

MEETING DECIDES ON VARIOUS AFFAIRS TO BENEFIT ORGANIZATION

TERRACE, April 24.—The Fall Fair Board held a meeting in the municipal hall on Friday evening which was presided over by President H. A. Swain and at which eight members of the executive were present.

The secretary reported that the revised prize lists had been turned in and the total amount of prize-money asked for was $397.95, an increase of $111.20 over last year's lists. J. K. Gordon moved that the lists be accepted as prepared and a special effort be made to raise the money to meet the increase. This motion was carried.

A motion that horse or pony racing be instituted as an attraction for fair day was passed.

Representatives of the Boys' and Girls' Club of the Women's Institute reported that twelve children had joined the pig club, three the chicken club and six the garden club, and lists of prizes were made out for these, a big percentage of the prize money being paid by the agricultural department through the institute.

The finance committee reported having met, but no definite action had been taken in the matter of financing. It was suggested that a dance be held sometime soon and the meeting set the date for Friday night, May 11, in G.W.V.A. hall. The chairman and secretary were delegated to arrange for hall and music while the catering will be in the hands of the Women's Institute.

It was also suggested that it might be possible and profitable to get up an amateur play in aid of fair funds and it was decided to try to do so sometime in June.

The secretary was asked to submit samples of the prize-lists to different printing firms for quotations on printing.

The next meeting was set for Friday, May 18.

The proceeds of the collection taken at the door amounted to $12.25.

FORMER RESIDENT OF INDIA ADDRESSES TERRACE AUDIENCE

TERRACE, April 23.—Following the business meeting of the Parent-Teachers, Mrs. A. W. Robinson gave a most interesting and very instructive talk on "India in Contrast." Having resided for eleven and one half years in that country, Mrs. Robinson gave much first-hand knowledge of conditions and customs in India. Contrasts within the country were pictured with regard to physical features, climate, languages, dress, appearance, actions, disposition, cleanliness, modesty, religious devotion, living conditions, mannerism, etc., as well as contrasts in buildings, streets, cities, etc.

The speaker showed the style of dress worn by the women and illustrated the method of dressing by using one of her audience as a model. She explained marriage rules and forms, and the deplorable condition and unhappy lives of the girl widows of India and brought out the contrast in the living conditions and happiness of the people before and after becoming Christians. Mr. Robinson treated the audience to some weird Indian music during the evening. Following the talk a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Robinson for providing one of the most interesting evenings entertainments in the history of the P.T.A.

Diabetes Mellitus

Diabetes is not a kidney disease as many people think, but a condition in which the kidneys become involved, and ultimately break down as a result of their strenuous efforts to eliminate sugar from the blood stream.

The presence of sugar in the blood has a double significance. It points out that the cells of the body are not assimilating the much-needed carbohydrates so necessary to its physical economy, besides the irritating effect it has on the kidneys in the discharge of their duties.

Up to date all so-called cures for diabetes mellitus have proved a complete failure.

By my natural methods I do not combat the disease, but aid the natural tendencies of the system to right itself in a crisis.

If you are suffering from diabetes I will be glad to have you call in and allow me to go into your case in detail. This consultation service I will gladly render free of charge.

NOT fire—but the CARELESSNESS which fails to quench it when its useful purpose has been served, is the ENEMY to mankind. He who by neglect causes fire in the forest may well expect the same treatment as would be accorded to one who tosses a match into a neighbour's haystack.

FIRESIDE CLUB HEARS MRS. J. C. BRADY ON FRANCIS THOMPSON

The regular meeting of the Baptist Fireside Club was held last evening in the Church parlors; there was a large attendance of members and friends and an evening of unusual pleasure and profit was enjoyed. The principal feature of the program was a very delightful talk by Mrs. J. C. Brady on the life and work of Francis Thompson, the English poet.

The speaker first gave a most interesting sketch of the poet's strange and eventful career, following this with very effective readings of a number of his poems.

S. A. MacPherson delighted the audience with several songs rendered in his usual artistic style. Mrs. Ralph Walker was the efficient accompanist. Pleasing pianoforte solos were contributed by Miss Owen Brady. V. Housman acted as chairman.

The Rev. W. F. Price voiced the thanks of the meeting to the performers for their very effective services. At the close dainty refreshments were served, the hostesses being Mrs. Larkin and Mrs. Green.

VALUE OF FOREST PRODUCTS

The value of the annual harvest of Canada's forests is not far short of $500,000,000 even with the present somewhat wasteful methods of exploitation. It has been estimated that by proper protection and management the accessible forest land of Canada can be made to produce at least three times the present annual cut in perpetuity.

Laundry Washed Clothes Are Not Rubbed

YOU know how you douse your dainty lingerie up and down in a bowl of sudsy water . . . that's the way your clothes are washed in a modern laundry. They are not rubbed or scrubbed but are gently swished back and forth in warm filtered rainsoft water until the pure soap actually foams. Every particle of dirt is loosened without unduly lessening the tensile strength of the fabric. Then come many rinses of rainsoft water so that your laundry washed clothes not only look and feel clean but are scientifically clean.

SPORT CHAT

At the suggestion of Lionel Holtby, arrangements are being made for a tennis tournament in the near future among members of the Prince Rupert GYRO Club and their wives or other lady partners. The members are responding well and about twenty teams have already been entered. Mixed doubles only will be played and some keen if not expert contests are expected. The venue and time of the tournament will be announced after the present rainy spell is over.

The all absorbing topic of discussion as far as Big League Baseball so far this season is concerned is the phenomenal winning streak of the Cleveland Indians who are now well in the lead in the American League. It is so long since Cleveland has figured in a pennant race that it now comes as a distinct novelty and the present leaders of the junior league are very popular in that capacity. With Babe Ruth slowing up and the team suffering look that the New York Yankees may not prove to be so formidable as was at first supposed.

Soccer opens in Winnipeg tomorrow if there is no snow on the ground.
What's the matter with Prince Rupert taking up cricket. True there is not much of a ground for the willow welders but a real Englishman is willing to put up with anything rather than not have a game. The Sons of St. George would flourish if there was a live cricket team in town.
Gene Tunney has an enviable record. He has scored 32 knockouts, won 15 decisions, fought 14 no-decision contests and lost once to Harry Greb in 1923.
Six Edmonton schools are putting cricket teams in a shield contest this summer.
It is said that the first game between Edmonton Grads and Toronto Lakesides almost gave the Edmonton backers the shivers and they prayed hard and yelled loud that the winning streak of the visitors stop before they pass the home team. As it was they were only two behind.

WINTER READING IS DISCUSSED BY YOUNG PEOPLE OF CHURCH

The Young People's Society of First United Church had an interesting open discussion last evening on the subject "The Best Thing I Read Last Winter." Members of the society engaged freely in the discussion and various books, authors and publications were mentioned. Reference also being made to the two best editorials which had appeared in the Daily News during the period. Miss Gurnett mentioned as her choice "Adventures in Friendship," by David Grayson; Miss Grassie, "The Man Nobody Knows," by Bruce Barton; George Stocks, Harry Emerson Fosdick's "Christianity and Progress," and Miss Kolo-soff, Philip Gibbs' "Quest." Dicken's "Oliver Twist" was also mentioned as well as other books.
During the business period, May 11 was set as the date upon which the society shall put on the play in the church. The chair was occupied at the meeting by George H. Stocks, vice-president.
