ATTACK MADE ON GOVERNMENT

Charge That They Levy Too High an Interest Rate on Farmers' Loans

VICTORIA, Jan. 27.—Declaring that the Government was acting in an illegal manner by collecting from the farmers of British Columbia interest rates on loans at the rate of more than one and a half per cent above the rate at which the Government is able to obtain money, the opposition members of the Legislature Thursday afternoon opened the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Colonel Fred Lister of Creston and R. W. Bruhn of Salmon Arm spoke on the subject and both criticized what they charged was the practice of the Government in collecting what they said was something like three per cent above the cost of obtaining money by the Government while the statutes placed at the instance of the present administration allowed but one and half per cent.

The debate on the address was adjourned on motion of Harry Perry of Prince George.

NO ACTION YET ON KERGIN MOVE

Government Will Have to Take Action if the Resolution Passes the House

VICTORIA, Jan. 27.—Action of the Government on the Kergin resolution to acquire Alaska Pan Handle will be governed by the fate of the resolution now before the House. Premier McLean states that the matter is one for the Dominion to deal with. If the resolution now on the order paper carries, it will become the duty of the Government to forward the same to Ottawa with the recommendation that account be taken of it looking to securing the territory from the United States Government. At present the Government is not taking action.

DEADLOCK IN HOCKEY BROKEN

Montreal Maroons Beat Toronto Last Night; Big Scoring at Ottawa

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—Montreal broke the second place deadlock, defeating Toronto while Ottawa tied Toronto for third place defeating Chicago. The New York Rangers passed Boston which were able by defeating Detroit to regain the leadership in the American section.

The game at Ottawa in which the home team defeated Chicago nine to six was wide open and the fans enjoyed the free scoring. The following were the day's results:

Toronto 6, Montreal 1.
Chicago 6, Ottawa 9.
Detroit 0, New York Rangers 3.

HOCKEY PLAYER DIES

MOOSEJAW, Jan. 27.—Stanley Marples, veteran hockey player, prominent Winnipeg sportsman, died today following a lingering illness.

Fred Stork received telegram this morning from general manager of Pool giving him the news

WILL BENEFIT PRINCE RUPERT

Action of Government in giving low rate for two years justified in renewal now announced

The Alberta wheat pool has again leased the Prince Rupert elevator from the Dominion government, this time for a period of five years. Notification to this effect was received this morning by Fred Stork in a telegram which follows:

"Am pleased to advise you that the Alberta Pool Elevators, of which I am general manager, have completed arrangements with the department of trade and commerce whereby the Prince Rupert terminal has been leased for a period of five years from August 1, 1928."

"C. M. HALL"

Naturally Mr. Stork was much elated at the receipt of the news for he was one of the active agents in getting the lease to the Wheat Pool consummated. Two years ago he went to Calgary and largely through his influence the deal was consummated for two years. The terms of the lease were freely criticized all over the Dominion, especially by opponents of the government. Mr. Stork now sees in a renewal of the agreement that the government was wise in making the original lease although the financial return was small.

From a Prince Rupert point of view it is pointed out that now the Wheat Pool is established here permanently, it will take a greater interest in the port and doubtless will ship a great deal more grain this way than otherwise would have been handled. For the next five and a half years, at least, the Pool will be here, which is about as much of a permanency as anyone could suggest.

It is expected that the people of Prince Rupert will be pleased at receipt of the news, for there had been some fear that as the Pool was building at Vancouver it would not be interested here. While the terms of the lease are not announced, it is understood that the Pool is paying a good figure for the lease. Mr. Stork has been active in urging the government that it would be wise to make a deal with the Pool and his advice has been followed with the definite announcement today.

SWAINBY IS NEXT WHEAT VESSEL HERE

Prince Rupert's thirteenth grain ship of the season will be the British freighter Swainby which is due tomorrow from the Old Country and will take out a full cargo of grain from the Alberta Wheat Pool's Prince Rupert elevator for the United Kingdom or Continent. The vessel is already lined but may have to be fumigated. At noon today she was 150 miles distant.

The Swainby is of the usual type of grain boat. Her gross tonnage is 4938 and she is 396 feet long. She was built in 1917 at Stockton-on-Tees and is owned by the Roper Shipping Co. which has had several grain boats in Prince Rupert this season.

It is reported, though definite information is not available, that some of the Wheat Pool boats coming to the coast for Vancouver loading soon may be diverted to Prince Rupert owing to the congestion at the southern port.

KING GIVES WELCOME TO R. B. BENNETT

Premier Pays Tribute to Qualifications of New Leader of Opposition

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—A felicitous atmosphere pervaded the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. Premier Mackenzie King embracing the occasion to welcome Hon. R. B. Bennett as leader of the opposition. In doing so he paid a warm tribute to Mr. Bennett's qualifications for the post. He said that he would at all times have his best wishes. He felt sure that Mr. Bennett would co-operate in upholding those ancient traditions of Parliament, which meant so much to its proceedings.

MAUDE ROYDON THE PREACHER

Engagements Cancelled Because She Smokes Cigarettes and Other Reasons

LONDON, Jan. 27.—Miss Maude Royden, who left England recently on a tour of the world, is to spend three months on a lecturing tour in the United States, and among her engagements were a lecture to the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Boston, and another to the Chicago branch of the same society on February 12.

Messages received in London announced that both these meetings had been cancelled, the former because the Boston women believed that Miss Royden had advocated "companionate marriage," the second because the Chicago society, according to the New York Times, objected to Miss Royden's reported habit of smoking cigarettes. A later message says that the Chicago meeting was dropped because no suitable date could be found for it. This sounds rather unlikely with an important guest.

COMPANIONATE MARRIAGE
The Boston women who have cancelled their lecture in the belief that Miss Royden advocates "companionate marriage" have, of course, been misinformed. Last July Miss Royden preached a sermon at the Guildhouse on "Companionate Marriage," and evidently an inaccurate report of her statement was published, for before she left England she received a letter from the Archbishop of Canterbury asking whether she believed in companionate marriage, and she said that she did not.

Those who know Miss Royden know that she considers very seriously the problems of sex that trouble the minds of young people. Her sermon was based on a book published in America entitled "The Revolt of Modern Youth," by Judge Lindsey, the judge of the first Children's Court ever established, and she discussed the suggestion made in that book that one of the remedies for unhappy marriage should be a "trial" or "companionate" marriage. She explained quite fairly what the idea was, and that it contemplated finally a permanent marriage, but she said: "It is a delusion to think that you can really try an experiment of which the very essence is, finally, without finality. It is grasping at a shadow and losing the substance. It is not marriage."

That seems sufficiently definite, and the Boston women, with fuller information, may well regret their action, especially as there are so many other organizations eager to seize any chance to hear Miss Royden. Her lecture agent had to refuse 350 applications.

MISS MAUDE ROYDON, the English evangelist, who has roused a storm of controversy in the United States because she frankly admits that she smokes cigarettes. Her engagements in a number of cities were cancelled because of her views on this matter.

Customs Commission Makes Its Report and Score Recommendations

OTTAWA, January 27.—The final report of the customs commission tabled in the House of Commons this afternoon contains a score of recommendations but no specific cases of firms or individuals which figured in the investigation are mentioned. The recommendations include:

- Appointment of a national revenue board of three members headed by a chairman with all the qualifications of a judge of the superior courts, the board to sit in the different provinces of the Dominion.
- Reduction of the number of points at which goods may be entered and revenue collected.
- Prompt and efficient enforcement of laws relating to national revenue.
- Amendment of the Customs Act providing alternative punishment to imprisonment and more expeditious disposition of seizures.

The commission also proposes legislation to provide for seizure outside of territorial waters of any vessel registered in Canada engaged in or suspected of being engaged in smuggling operations in Canada.

Prohibition of the issuance of clearance papers to vessels or vehicles of all kinds carrying liquor cargoes to the United States contrary to the laws of that country.

The report also recommends the abolition of monetary payments to department officers and offers suggestions whereby the personnel of departmental employees be maintained in a high states of efficiency. The commission recommends the prohibition of the export of liquor from provinces having liquor control by anyone other than the provincial governments or manufacturers.

LIQUOR BOARD QUITE REGULAR

Nothing Found by Investigation Commission That Would Involve Employees

VICTORIA, Jan. 27.—Investigation of irregularities among liquor board employees failed to adduce any satisfactory evidence showing that anyone in the service of the board or the attorney-general's department had been corrupted by liquor interests or anyone else. This is the gist of an inquiry conducted by Mr. Justice Murphy under the Departmental Inquiries Act as stated in his report filed in the Legislature Thursday by Hon. A. M. Manson. The inquiry followed production at the federal federal customs inquiry at Vancouver of certain vouchers. "No light has been thrown by any evidence adduced at the hearings on the documents issued by the Dominion government to investigate customs matters," it was stated in the report.

ALASKA DELEGATE SUGGESTS THAT U.S. SHOULD BUY BRITISH COLUMBIA RATHER THAN SELL

TORONTO, January 27.—A special despatch from Washington to the Star with respect to the proposal to secure for Canada the Alaska Pan Handle says in part: "Dan Sutherland, delegate in Congress for Alaska, said the United States should buy British Columbia rather than sell any part of Alaska. He said that Congress would never consent to the sale of any part of Alaska to Canada or anyone else. The Pan Handle in southwestern Alaska is particularly valuable to United States because of its sea coast and fishing grounds. Ordinarily, the United States produces more fish in this section than British Columbia. Our deep sea fisheries are centred in the Pan Handle just the same as the B.C. Fisheries are centred at Prince Rupert. My idea would be for us to buy British Columbia."

STEWART PROSPECTS BRIGHT AND MANY PORTLAND CANAL MINERS HAVE MADE MONEY RECENT STOCK FLURRY

Prospects are that the coming season will be the most active and successful in the history of the Portland Canal mining district states James McAleenan of Stewart who reached the city from the north on the Prince Rupert this morning and will return there on the Camosun Sunday night.

The recent acquisition by the Premier Gold Mining Co. of the Silverado mine has been a very gratifying development, says Mr. McAleenan, and one that may mean a great deal to the town as the property lies so nearby to Stewart. An energetic campaign of development is expected under the new owners and it is suggested that a tunnel may be driven through from the Silverado to the Prosperity, another property about a mile distant which Premier acquired during the past year. The eventual consolidation and operation on a large scale of several properties on the Marmot River by Premier is envisioned by many Stewart people.

The recent flurry in mining stock at Vancouver had a beneficial effect for many Stewart people who have been more or less heavy investors states Mr. McAleenan. Men working in the hills had fortunes piled up for them by their brokers. Profits of seven and eight thousand dollars were quite common while one man is reported to have been surprised when he found that a parcel of stock he held netted him $78,000 almost overnight.

VICTORY FOR MACLEAN

The announcement made in the speech from the throne that the railway lands including the Peace River Block may be returned to British Columbia is a decided victory for Premier MacLean who has been pressing the government hard in regard to the right of the province to receive the lands and the need there is for them. It is a good beginning and shows the advantage of having at Ottawa and Victoria governments that are sympathetic to each other.

In mentioning this it must also be recorded that the late Premier Oliver began the agitation and dug up the evidence which showed the moral rights of the province to the lands and that at a time when many people sneered at his action.

It is to be expected now that parliament will be asked to approve the transfer.

RAILWAY DEVELOPMENT

All eyes are turned to the Peace River and the northern section of the Province of British Columbia. Those who read the advertisements will notice that this paper is advertising an application for a charter to build a railway from Lethbridge by way of Edmonton and the Peace River to join the Canadian National and also with a branch line to Stewart. Other railway proposals are being made at Ottawa and then there is General Sutton, the Canadian National and the C.P.R., all of whom are interested in the country. From some of these there is sure to be some result and Prince Rupert will stand to benefit.

We suggest to the people of Prince Rupert that we are on the eve of great development. Before long we are likely to see such a movement here as has surpassed anything since the days before the war. Just now it may be a little quiet but all eyes are turned in this direction and we shall surely feel the impetus pretty soon.

PRESIDENT BEATTY SEES IMPROVEMENT

President Beatty of the C.P.R., who is in a much better position than any of the rest of us to forecast what is coming is very buoyant in his attitude toward Canadian affairs generally. He sees a lot of railway building within the next few years and that always makes for prosperity. Much of that building is sure to take place in the development of the Peace River country. Possibly there may be two lines into the country for it is very large. At any rate we are justified in feeling that things will not remain long as they are today.

CANADA HAS BEST RAILWAYS

The item published yesterday indicating that Canada has the best railways in the world will be encouraging to people here. We have known that our roads were good but have not realized just how good. Only those who have travelled a great deal can properly compare them. It is one more feather in Canada's cap.

EXPECTING ELECTION SOON

Doubtless we shall have a provincial election soon. We have to have these unpleasant things sometimes. It is one of the evils of a democracy. However, we do not need to let that bother us. We can carry on as usual and think more about what we are going to do to forward the interests of Prince Rupert than how we are going to win an election. When the present provincial Legislature rises it will be time to sum up the situation and trim our course accordingly. Once we start an election campaign all our actions will be looked at in the light of the political situation, which is bad for everyone. Let us forget, as far as possible the approach of the inevitable contest.

BRITISH POLITICAL SITUATION

Every now and then there is an election in Great Britain and it is noticed that Labor is getting a good share of the support. However, it must not be thought from the results that the country is being turned over to men of the uneducated red type which is the opinion some have of a Labor politician. Army officers have been elected recently as representatives of Labor. Yesterday Major Dudley A. Mann was the Labor candidate who gave the Conservative a close run in Faversham. The joint vote of Labor and Liberal there would have won the election easily.

An attempt is being made by Liberal and Labor leaders in that country to get together and if it succeeds it is possible the outcome may be a victory for the Liberal-Labor group. At any rate it will be a hot contest.

VARIOUS KINDS OF GOVERNMENT

Correspondent Tells How it is Done at Ottawa Just at Present

DELEGATIONS GALORE

Everyone Wants Something Even to Player of the Jubilee Carillon

(By R. J. Deachman)

These are the dog days at Ottawa—not climatically speaking, but from a political viewpoint. Not much drifts to the surface, but there must be a tremendous amount of political thinking. Many people are under the impression that democratic government is government by parliament. No doubt parliament has some influence, but it is impossible for the cynic to dodge the observation that we have several kinds of government—and the men at the head never lack advice. During the past week, there was a rush for it. Delegations of all kinds and messages galore swept down upon the government. The judges want their salaries increased—some of them need it, too. Every town on the St. Lawrence wants to be the terminal when the Welland Canal is finished. It is lucky that Port Nelson had no municipal existence or the terminal of the Hudson Bay Railway could never have been changed to Churchill. Manufacturers want more tariff—creamery men ask for a tariff on butter, but not on cream separators or pumps—and Mr. Bird of Manitoba wants the tariff board abolished. So take it altogether, the government has a busy life.

The members of parliament deserve sympathy. Last year the government advertised for a man to play the new Carillon. There are very few Carillon players in America. One day a western member told me he had a letter from a man in his constituency asking for the job. "He is the one-armed janitor and bellringer in our local church," said the M.P., and he walked away sorrowing.

VENIOT ON JOB

A striking statement was made last week by Hon. P. J. Veniot. He stated that he expected, if he remained on the job of Postmaster General, to see mails moved from Montreal to Vancouver in one day. The suggestion brings up a noteworthy fact and yet, one generally overlooked. The post office in Canada, now and in the past, has been well administered. Handling mail over a tremendously widely scattered territory is done with a maximum of efficiency. Complaints are rare. When they are made they are looked after with a sharpness that is a splendid tribute to the men on the job. Only a short time ago there was a cut of 1-3 in the postage rate. But the post office department seems to have bridged over the resulting loss. Postage on a letter cost you two cents in 1914—it's the same in 1928. Name a few other things which have not advanced in price since 1914.

CONFERENCES VALUELESS

Sir John Aird, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, suggested a few days ago that the minister of immigration should call a conference on the question of securing more settlers for Canada. Everyone is delighted with the friendly interest taken by the bankers in public affairs, though the value of such conferences may be doubted.

Some years ago, Lloyd George said: "There are conferences of all kinds, for peace and war, for churches and for encouragement of aviation, for this and for that; but nothing is ever done at them. They generate a friendly feeling—they fill certain people with the idea of their own importance, but aside from that they are useless." There is a measure of truth in this stricture. Busy men have little time to think of the nation's troubles—there is more chance of hopeful suggestions from a live clerk in the department—than from a man who in the midst of a thousand worries, wakes up at the invitation of a minister and exclaims "Yes, I must give this matter a few moments' thought for my country's sake!"

"BEAU GESTE" IS MYSTERY STORY OF FRENCH ARMY

The French Foreign Legion, the endless, gorgeous, giant sand dunes of the Sahara, a famous missing sapphire, hundreds of desert warriors sweeping on horseback to attack a lonely fort manned by 40 men, practically all in mutiny are among the romance and thrills contained in "Beau Geste" which comes to the Westholme Theatre this week end.

No greater effort was ever put into the making of a motion picture. This romantic, thrilling screen mystery story, adapted from one of the most popular novels in years, represents a larger undertaking than even "The Ten Commandments," which was also produced by Paramount.

Ronald Colman, Alice Joyce, Noel Deery, Mary Brian, Neil Hamilton, William Powell, Norman Trevor, Victor McLaglan and Ralph Forbes are featured, but there are scores of others nearly as prominent.

"Beau Geste" is a mystery story of the Foreign Legion on the deserts of Africa that will tighten your very skin with excitement. It tells of three young Englishmen who disappeared from home after a famous sapphire, "The Blue Water," belonging to their aunt, is stolen. All this leads to a remote fort on the Sahara and the ever feared-attack of an Arab host.

In the morning the fort remains uncaptured. Every man is at his post—dead! The commanding officer with a French bayonet through his heart, and an amazing confession concerning the theft of "The Blue Water" clutched in the hand of a dead soldier, both lie on the roof!

Herbert Brenon, who directed the picture, and the 2,000 men who appear in it, lived on the sun-scorched Arizona Desert for three months making exterior scenes.

Perival Christopher Wren is the author of "Beau Geste." John Russell and Herbert Brenon prepared the adaptation and Paul Schofield the script. Julian Johnson, supervising editor, working under the direction of Associate Paramount Producer William Le Baron, followed every step of the filming.

AFTERNOON TEA WAS INTERESTING EVENT AT HOME OF MRS. LEPINE

The afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. LePine, Fifth Avenue, yesterday proved a very attractive event and as a result the Anglican Church funds benefited to the extent of fifty dollars. Mrs. Andrew and Mrs. A. T. Parkin received with Mrs. LePine. Mrs. G. A. Rix and Mrs. George Woodland poured, while assisting in the tea room were Mrs. Rorie, Mrs. A. Mackie, Mrs. Homer, Mrs. W. A. McLean and Mrs. Pyle.

The home cooking was in charge of Mrs. Dibb and Mrs. Kemp. The cashier was Mrs. Russell Smith. Cups were read by Mrs. Bremner.

FATAL REVELATION

"The prisoner was asked why he beat the victim.

"Well, Judge, he called me a rhinoceros."

"Umph! Rhinoceros, eh? When did this happen?"

"Jees about three years ago, Judge."

"Three years ago? Why did you wait until today to get even then?"

"Well, Judge, de facts am dat I never seed no rhinoceros until dis mawnin'."

LIBERALISM IN ENGLAND

Probability of Coalition With Labor Suggested at Dinner in Manchester
PARTY INDESTRUCTIBLE
Suggested That Only Way to Oust Present Government is by Co-operation

MANCHESTER, Jan. 27.—E. D. Simon, recently entertained to dinner at the Manchester Reform Club the delegates attending the eighth annual conference of the Union of University Liberal Societies. Among the guests were C. P. Scott, Ramsay Muir, and P. M. Oliver.
E. D. Simon, proposing the toast of the Union of University Liberal Societies, said that for some time he had been largely engaged on the work of the Liberal committee which had been inquiring into industrial conditions. That committee had now finished its work. Its report had been written—a very long and stodgy report he feared (laughter)—and it was to be published on February 3. The committee of Industrial Inquiry met recently for the last time, and dissolved itself. It was a very able committee, and it had had the assistance of some extremely able people from outside. The members had been able to come to agreement on many questions in an astonishing way, probably because they were Liberals who accepted the same fundamental things. The committee had worked very hard indeed.
It was a report that contained many recommendations, for they had no single slogan like nationalization. They had got to deal with the problems concerned by advancing along many paths. Therefore it would be a considerable task to get the report into the heads of the Liberal party, and then into the heads of the public. This was where University Liberals could greatly assist. He hoped they would form themselves into a band of missionaries and go forth to explain the report to the Liberal party and the members of the public.

TOAST OF PARTY
Ramsay Muir, proposing the toast of the Liberal party, said that at the present time it was good to be a young Liberal because the young Liberal could look forward to seeing the achievement of new Liberal ideals in the new world into which we had drifted. The more they thought about the problems of the new era, the more convinced he was sure they would be that it was only along Liberal lines that solutions would be found. In the new era that began after the war they had come to realize that the old relationships of master and servant which had hitherto sufficed for the organization of industry and productive relationships would suffice no longer, and that new and Liberal ideas had got to be worked out and applied.
At the present time the Liberal party seemed weak and disorganized. The reason, he thought, was this. Liberal ideals were so immense and so difficult to grasp that they could not be put into one program sufficient for all time. Liberals, therefore, had in each generation to work out a program comprising the next steps forward. When the war came the Liberal program for the time being seemed to be almost worked out. Consequently Liberals had now to work out a new program for the new generation.

C. P. Scott, who supported the toast, said he believed that the spirit of Liberalism was indestructible, and that therefore Liberalism was indestructible. He believed it was true, as Ramsay Muir had said, that the Liberal party was doing the great constructive thinking and the really formative work of politics today. People spoke sometimes of the Liberal party as if it were decadent and almost moribund. The wish was probably father to the thought. No one could be present at such a gathering as that without realizing that Liberalism was alive to the fullest sense in the minds and hearts of young people.
It had been said by one speaker that the Liberal party should stand alone. In a sense that was good advice. Liberals had to develop their own program and their own ideals apart from any other party. Moreover, the Liberal party was able to stand by itself and seek the national interest as no other party could. At the same time they had got to contemplate the possibility of not succeeding in their hope of placing the Liberal party in power, with an

ANNUAL BALL OF GYRO CLUB

Function in Moose Hall Last Night Proved Most Enjoyable to Those Present
Though the attendance might not have been quite as large as expected, the annual ball of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club in Moose Hall last night proved a highly enjoyable affair, members of the service club once again sustaining their high reputation as hosts and entertainers.
Music was furnished by Charlie Balagno and the augmented Westholme Theatre Orchestra and merriment reigned supreme from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. At midnight, delicious refreshments were served in the balconies, paper caps being distributed at that time to the gay dancers.
The decorations of the fine enlarged hall comprised one of the features of the occasion. From the chandeliers were strung festoons of paper in the blue and gold colors of the organization while the subordinate lights were delicately shaded in soft colors. On either

HIS MASTER'S VOICE
The decision of the executive of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association to resume the league schedule tonight, after a week's cessation owing to cold weather, should be generally gratifying. Now it is manifestly up to the basketball fans and sport supporters in the city as a whole, as a matter of fact, to get out and give the game the support of which it is deserving owing to splendid quality but which, for some reason or other, it has not been receiving. The players themselves have been doing the best that the city has known in the way of basketball. The sporting public should be giving their correspondingly increased support. As a break in the regular league doings will come the series with Kinloch next week which should prove quite interesting. The game or games with Port Simpson planned later are also being looked forward to with considerable interest.
The chances of the Stanley Cup, emblematic of the world's professional hockey championship, coming to the United States this season, are not very bright. To judge from statistics on games played between the Canadian and United States teams in the National Hockey League for the first half of the season, United States and Canadian teams have clashed in fifty-three games, the four teams from the Dominion showing an overwhelming superiority both in games and goals. In thirty-four international games, the six American teams, sixteen, and three have been tied. In scoring the Canadian have an aggregate superiority of fifty-six goals, having netted 144 shots as compared with eighty-eight for the American clubs.

KNOX CHURCH IS PROSPEROUS

Terrace Congregation Hears Reports and Elects Officers For Year

TERRACE, Jan. 27.—The annual congregational meeting of Knox United Church, Terrace, was held on the evening of Tuesday. There was a good attendance of both members and adherents. The treasurer, A. H. Barker, presented the annual financial report, showing a substantial credit balance on hand after all expenses had been fully met. A tribute was paid by E. T. Kenney to the memory of the late James Richmond, who, until his decease, had acted as chairman of the official board of the church. Special reference was made to that courtesy and Christian charity which characterized all his dealing with his fellowmen both in church and community affairs.

A most encouraging report was presented from the ladies' guild which showed a balance in hand after meeting the considerable costs entailed in re-lining and decorating the church, in installing the electric lights, and in making extensive repairs to church and parsonage properties.

A report was also received in connection with the Sunday School, C.S.E.T. and C.G.I.T., all of which gave evidence that great success was attending the work in each department. CONGRATULATED BY PASTOR Rev. Wm. Allan, after giving a survey of the ministerial work on the field, expressed his gratitude to the members of the church for their continued support and sympathetic co-operation throughout the past year. He referred also to the faithful manner in which the services had been attended, especially in cases where members were obliged to travel considerable distances. In concluding his remarks, Mr. Allan pointed out that, seldom in the history of the church, had there been a greater need of Protestant adherents laying primary emphasis, not so much upon ecclesiastical organization and aggrandisement, as upon the great fact of the priesthood of all believers in Jesus Christ.

The unanimous thanks of the congregation were extended to Mrs. S. Kirkcaldy and to Mrs. D. Munro for their faithful services as organists for the past year. The following committee of stewards was elected: T. Brooks, A. H. Barker, E. T. Kenney, Jas. McConnell, R. W. Riley, and James Swan. E. Brooks and E. Houghland were elected as ushers. At the conclusion of the business, refreshments were served by the members of the ladies' guild, while delightful orthophonic musical selections were provided through the kindness of R. W. Riley.

NEW HAZELTON

St. Paul's Anglican Church congregation at Kitwanga has elected James Ryan as lay delegate, with James Proctor as alternate, to the next meeting of the Synod.

NOTICE

TAKE NOTICE that an application will be made to the Parliament of Canada at the next session thereof for an act. For the incorporation of a company to be known as The Alberta, Peace River and Pacific Railway Company, or such other name as may be given, to construct and operate a railway as follows: (a) Commencing at a point at or near the City of Lethbridge; thence in a westerly direction to a point at or near the Town of McLeod; thence westerly and northerly in a direction generally parallel to the Calgary and McLeod Branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway to a point at or near the Town of McLeod; thence northerly and westerly to a point at or near Lacombe; thence northerly to a point at or near the City of Edmonton.

TERRACE

Miss Katherine Robbins, a missionary from China, came on here from Prince Rupert and spoke to the morning and evening congregations at the Anglican Church, addressed the Sunday school and Tuesday met the women's auxiliary at the home of Mrs. W. C. Sparks. She left on Wednesday for Smithers.

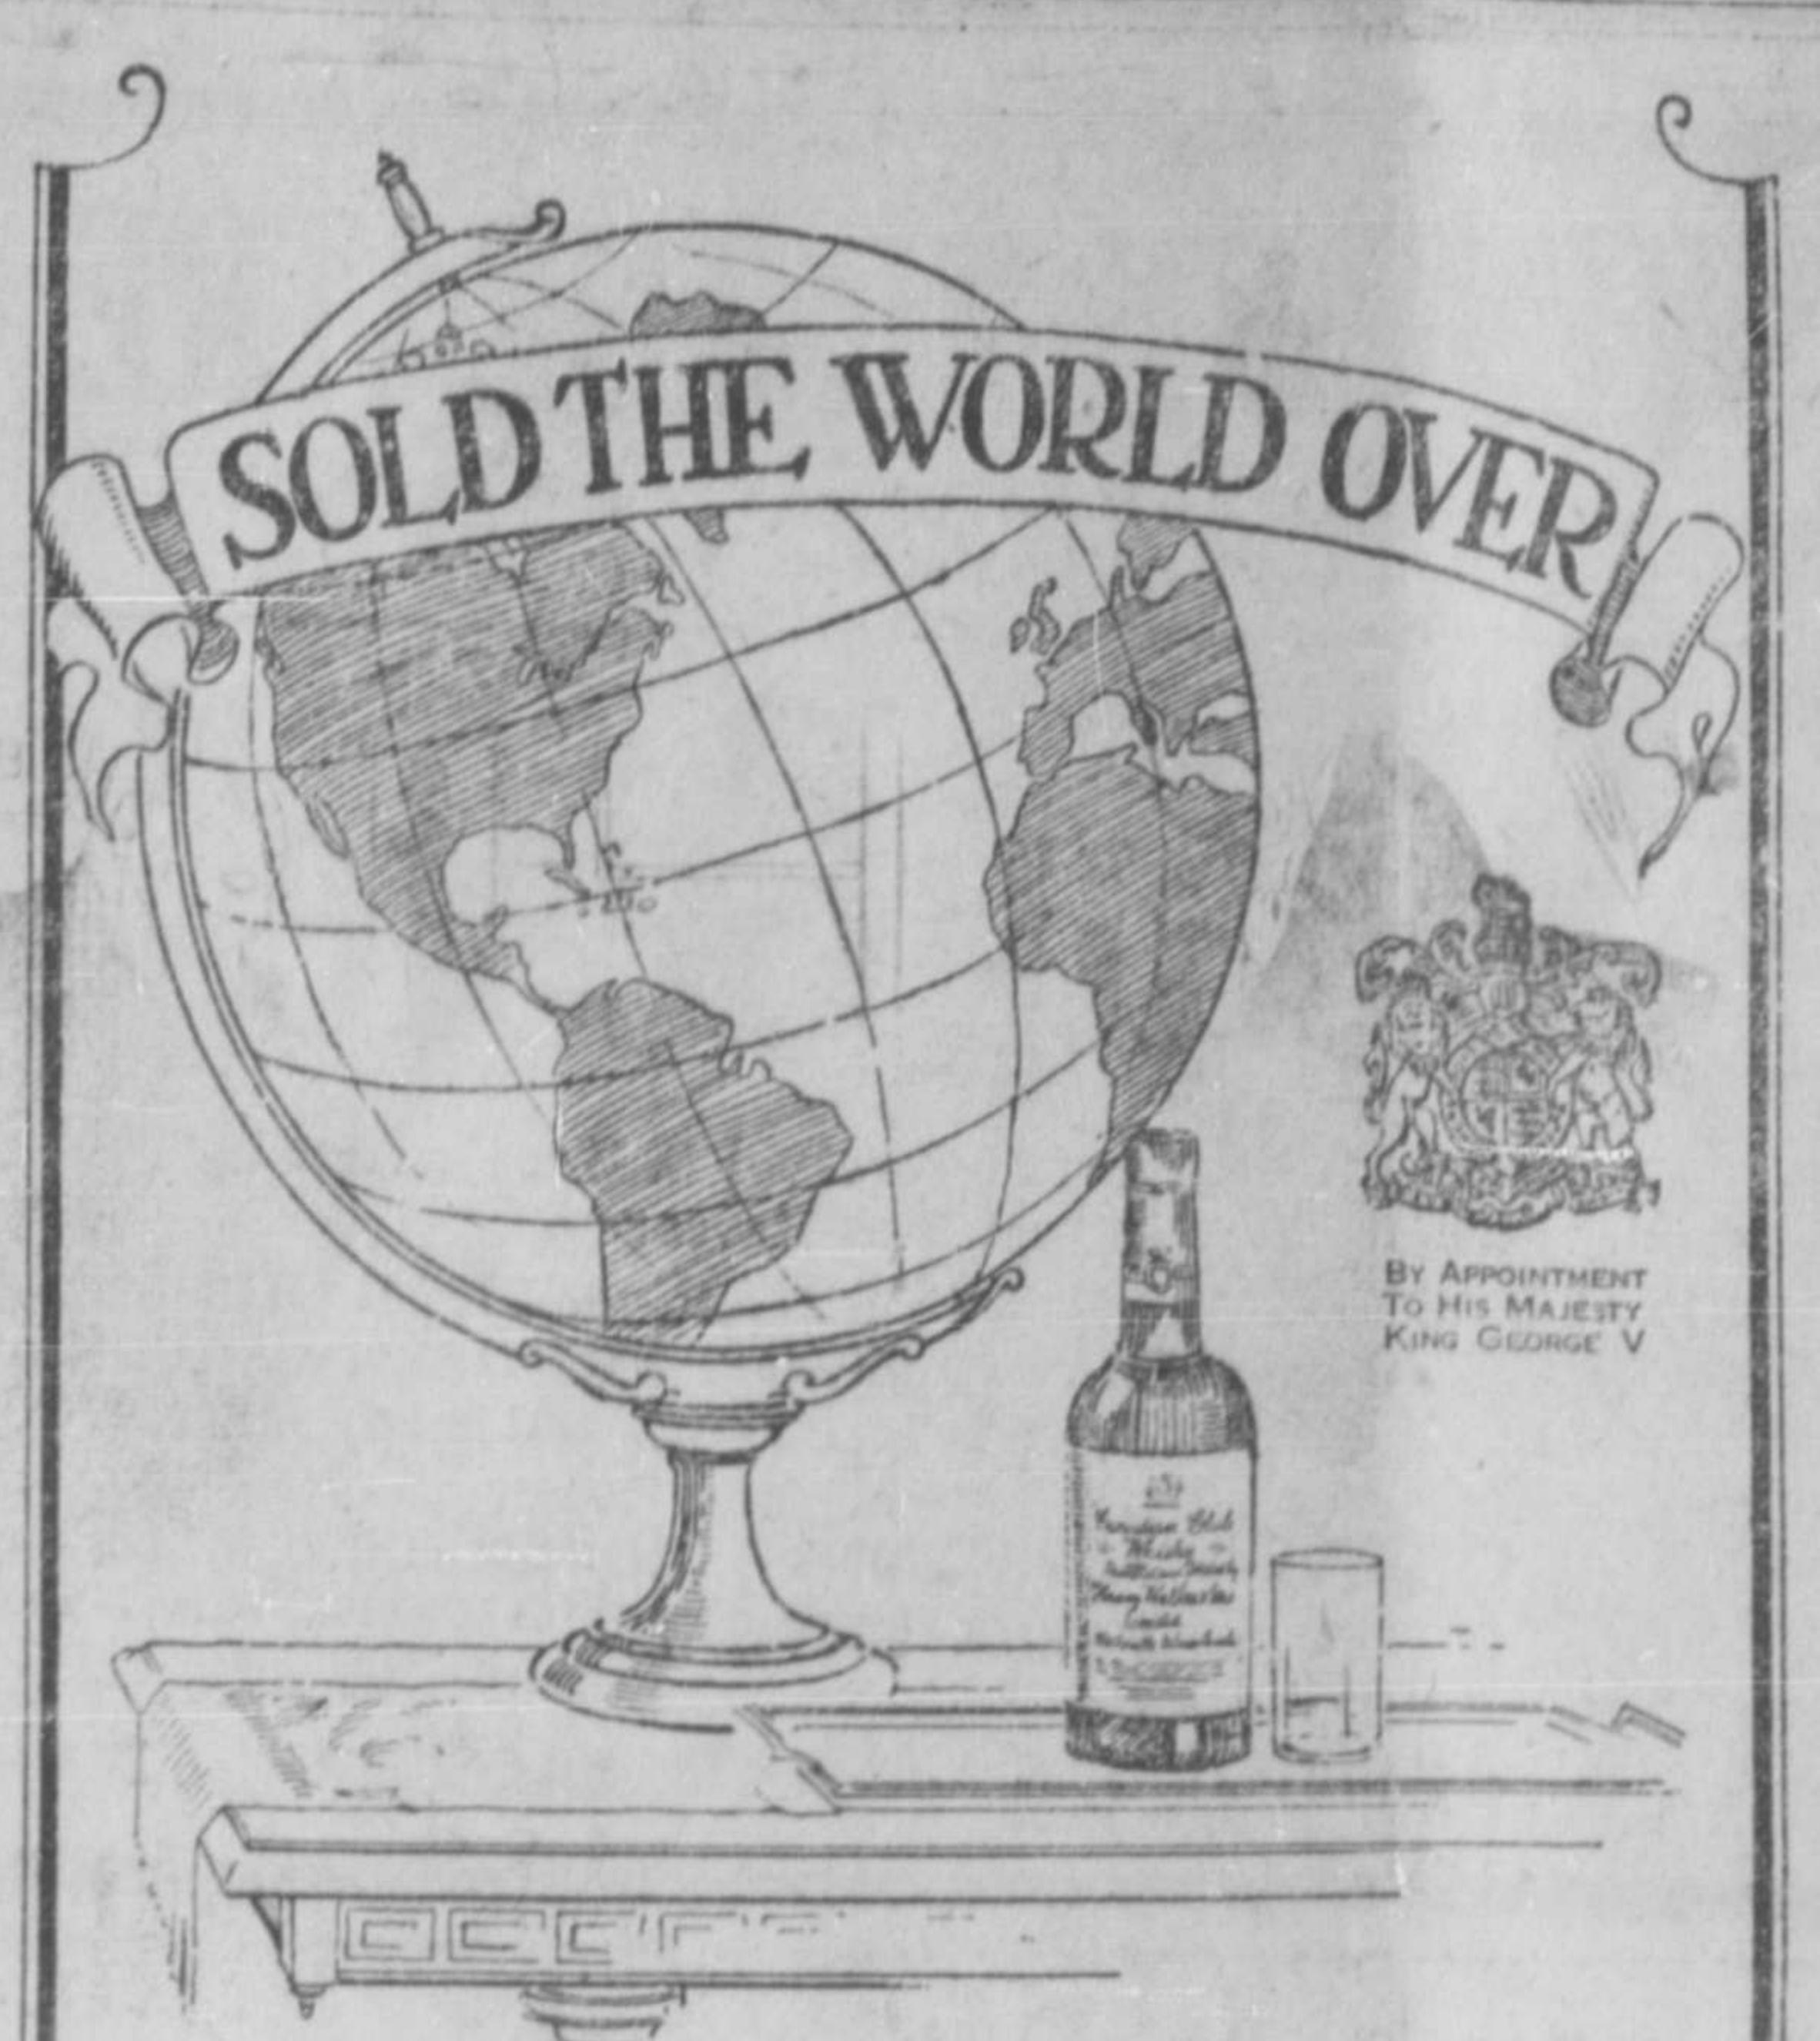

Mrs. H. Halliwell left on Tuesday to spend a few weeks with her daughter in Prince Rupert.

Rev. T. J. Marsh returned on Wednesday from Prince Rupert where he attended a meeting of the Diocesan Advisory Council.

R. Brealey of the Laminated Materials Ltd., New Westminster, left for the coast on Thursday after spending several days in town on company business.

Mrs. Wm. West returned on Wednesday from the Prince Rupert hospital where she has been a patient since before Christmas.

G. A. Woodland of the Imperial Oil Co., Prince Rupert was a business visitor in town during the week. A coincidence in connection with the visit of Miss Robbins, missionary, was the renewal of a school-mate friendship with Mrs. O. T. Sundal. Not having

PRINCE GEORGE

The preliminary financial statement of the city covering the year 1927 shows an excess of revenue over expenditure of $1,006. During the year the percentage of tax collections reached the highest point since incorporation. On the whole, the city's financial position is much better than it has been for several years. The coldest weather here during the past week was sixteen below zero on Monday. A small fire which took place recently in the basement of John Assmat's store may result in heavy loss of goods which were stored there.

DEMAND

The Fraser Timber Syndicate, which for some years has contemplated the establishment of a paper mill in this vicinity, will offer all its assets for sale at public auction in Montreal on February 10. It is understood that reorganization of the company is planned.

HOMER CITY IS NOW ON WAY

Master of Vessel Highly Pleased at Rapidity With Which he got Away

Prince Rupert's twelfth grain ship of the season, the British freighter "Homer" City, sailed at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Rotterdam, Holland, with a full cargo of some 275,000 bushels of wheat loaded at the local elevator. Piloted by Capt. McNeill of the Federal Pilots of British Columbia, the "Homer" City will proceed to Comox for bunkers and then continue to her destination via the Panama Canal.

A real record was set up by the elevator in loading the "Homer" City in little more than forty-eight hours. The vessel completed loading on Tuesday night and could have sailed then had it not been decided to delay departure in order to effect some engine repairs. Capt. Burn, master of the vessel, was highly pleased at the despatch with which the vessel was handled and expressed his gratification that he was sent here instead of to Vancouver where he is taking anywhere from eighteen days to a month to load every vessel, due to the glut of shipping there. The only regret that Capt. Burn had was that he was rushed away before he had a chance to look the town over.

Here's Speedy Relief From Bunion Pains and Soft Corns

Emerald Oil Must Give Complete Satisfaction or Money Cheerfully Refunded

Get a two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) today. Every well stocked drug store has this, with the distinct understanding that your money will be cheerfully returned if it does not reduce the inflammation, soreness, and pain much quicker than any remedy you ever used.

Two or three applications of Moone's Emerald Oil and in fifteen minutes the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the inflammation is gone.

And as for Soft Corns a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off.

No matter how discouraged you have been with pads, shields, or other applications, if you have not tried Emerald Oil then you have something to learn.

It's a wonderful formula—the combination of essential oils with camphor and other antiseptics so marvelous that thousands of bottles are sold annually for reducing varicose or swollen veins.

Every good druggist guarantees the first bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil to end your foot troubles or money back.

Scientific Inspection

With the Latest Instruments of Precision

That's the kind of eye service you can get here now. We give you a conscientious and careful test. Jack Bulger two years ago passed the B.C. government exams. for Optometrists and during the last six months along with most of the leading optometrists in Vancouver attended a course of post graduate lectures.

We do not supply or advise glasses if not of benefit.

Our tests are not uncomfortable and our prices are fair and reasonable.
