Conservatives at North Vancouver Campaign for Liberals Election; H. H. Stevens Scheme is Exploded

Pooley Refused to Co-operate in Settling P.G.E. Problem When Overtures Were Made to Him in Legislature

VANCOUVER, July 6.—"Hon. H. H. Stevens is a competitor of the people of British Columbia in the railway business," said Hon. Ian Mackenzie, addressing a meeting at North Vancouver last night. "Mr. Stevens is not in this fight as a public man," he said. "He is out to kill the P.G.E. Railway in which the people of this province have so much invested and in the remote event of his political friends getting into office he hopes to get a charter for his northern railway in return for his services."

Three former Conservatives, Alderman E. H. Bridgeman, Reeve V. V. Vinson, and Colonel R. D. Davies, were on the platform in association with Mr. Mackenzie.

Alderman Bridgeman said Premier MacLean had personally assured him that the four million dollars voted for completion of the P.G.E. never would be required, as he was confident a deal with the C.N.R. would be concluded. Mr. Bridgeman continued:

"Conservatives have given you no undertaking. I went to Victoria to try to persuade the opposition to join the government in such a policy. I was unsuccessful.

"General Odium authorized me today to tell his audience that in 1927 he crossed the House to ask Mr. Pooley to bury the political hatchet with a view to getting united action on the P.G.E., and Mr. Pooley told him he was not in a position to help the government try to find a solution. That is why some of us have placed our province and this constituency above party politics and will not vote the same way as usual on July 18."

Chris. McRae said it was absurd for Conservatives to suggest that men who had been engaged in political warfare with the Dominion government were as capable of sitting around a table with the federal cabinet and settling the P.G.E. problem.

Mayor Wells Gray asked why Dr. Tolmie and Mr. Stevens did not do something for the province about the P.G.E. when they were members of a Conservative cabinet at Ottawa. "The same applies," he said, "to Asiatic exclusion issue which our Conservative members never raise except when in opposition at Ottawa."

Spectacular Independent Lady Using Radio and Airplane in Her Election Campaign Columbia

VANCOUVER, July 6.—Mrs. Gladys Elspeth Cross, a wealthy woman from Golden and the independent candidate for Columbia riding, was reported last night to be flying to Golden in an airplane she is said to have purchased for use in the campaign.

Mrs. Cross opened the campaign Wednesday night when she gave half an hour's address over the Vancouver station. Special receiving sets were installed at Golden and other cities in the riding and the reception was perfect, according to telegraphic reports.

After the radio Mrs. Cross left for a secret destination, planning to fly to Golden through the Kicking Horse Pass. The starting point of the flight is believed to be Seattle as no machines were available either at Vancouver or Victoria.

LAWYERS TALK AT POLICE PROBE

MACNEILL ASKS FOR ADVERSE REPORT ON MAYOR, CHIEF OF POLICE, AND OTHERS

VANCOUVER, July 6.—"There appears to be evidence, Mr. Commissioner, against certain people which would warrant your reporting adversely on them. They are the Mayor, Chief Long, Inspector Jackson and Detective Sergeant McLaughlin," remarked A. H. MacNeill, K.C., counsel to Commissioner Lennie, in commencing the argument at the police inquiry yesterday.

MacNeill also informed the commissioner he would have something to say about the sale of mining stock to police officers by Police Commissioner Fletcher.

G. G. McGeer, counsel for Commissioner Fletcher, in the course of his argument, criticized the Attorney General for not taking part in the inquiry when invited to do so by himself.

MAYOR'S FAULT Demoralization of the Vancouver police force is directly traceable to the denunciation by Mayor Taylor of an "open town policy," A. H. MacNeill, K.C., commissioner counsel, declared before the police enquiry this morning.

The underworld, MacNeill declared, was not slow to take advantage of the situation created by the mayor's attitude "Shue Moy, the alleged king of gamblers—that clever diplomat—did not hesitate to take advantage," counsel said, "for he introduced himself to the mayor and visited him frequently at Grandville Mansions where the mayor resided."

A long news despatch of several thousand words from the Stoll-McCracken Arctic Expedition to the New York Times was relayed through the local amateur radio station 5GT on Wednesday night. It was received over the air by the operators of this station and then relayed by Canadian National Telegraphs to its destination in New York. The despatch in turn came back in part to Vancouver and on to this city. The local station is in communication with the expedition, now north of Siberia, almost every day and each night messages from the exploration party to the outside world are handled.

SEMI-FINALS TODAY INDICATE CANADIAN LIKELY TO WIN DIAMOND SCULLS

HENLEY, July 6.—Joe Wright of the Toronto Argonauts defeated his club-mate Jack Guest in the semi-finals race with diamond sculls today. R. T. Lee of Oxford won the other semi-final from D. Guye of London, and these two will row in the finals. Wright won by half a length in comparatively fast time of 9 minutes 35 seconds.

Mindful of his plight last year when Lee passed him to win the trophy while his oars were entangled in a punt rope Wright this afternoon waited for Guest to recover his position when Guest hit the piles at the side of the course on the ninth stroke.

Lee's time today was 9 minutes 19 seconds and he finished in distress.

Harold McCracken Finds Mummies of Stone Age Men at Aleutian Islands Enclosed Wooden Two-chambered Vault

NEW YORK, July 6.—Harold McCracken, head of the expedition of the American museum of natural history to the Aleutian Islands, in a special radio and telegraph message to New York Times, says the expedition believes it has found the mummified remains of stone age men.

Four mummified bodies, three adults and one infant, were found on the summit of an almost inaccessible island along with their clothing, domestic articles, hunting weapons.

The tomb bore evidence of Mongolian influence but there was nothing to indicate contact with ancient or modern civilization. The vault in which the bodies were found, was well shaped and mortised, drift logs held together by bone nails and had been wedged into a rock crevice on an almost unscalable peak.

The vault was divided into two parts, in one of which was a man evidently of high standing, and in the other the bodies of the adults and a child. The body of the ancient ice king was clothed in otter skins surmounting a shirt of bird skins, both elaborately decorated.

Wrapped around the body was a cloth of skins of northern animals surmounted by a layer of woven grass. The whole was enclosed in parchment like a layer of sea lion intestine.

PLAN TO UNITE ALL CABLE AND RADIO ROUTES

RECOMMENDATION TO THAT EFFECT WILL BE MADE TO GOVERNMENT OF BRITAIN

LONDON, July 6.—The decision to recommend a combination of all cable and wireless communications of the British Empire has been reached by the conference on Empire communications, according to an announcement in the Daily Mail. The plan will need the approval of the cabinet and parliament. The Mail says the scheme contemplates that a single corporation will operate all wire and radio traffic. The government would be represented on the board and would hold the balance of power between cable and wireless interests.

LOEWENSTEIN DEATH PUZZLE

PARIS, July 6.—Investigation into the death of Alfred Loewenstein, the rich Belgian banker, has been without result so far. The directors of his various financial firms assert that all his financial concerns are in good shape and they repudiate the suggestion of suicide. He was drowned when he fell from an airplane as he was crossing the English Channel.

ECKOFF NOW IS ARRESTED

TAKEN INTO CUSTODY AS HE LEFT HOSPITAL FOLLOWING SHOOTING

BERLIN, July 6.—The mysterious wounding of a British citizen named Eckoff by two men who fired at him with revolvers at Maeseritz some days ago, has been followed by the arrest of the wounded man. The German police took him into custody on his discharge from the hospital yesterday following a thorough investigation into the affair.

Eckoff is said to have formerly conducted a hotel and physical culture establishment at Prince Rupert.

Eckoff, it will be remembered here, was a photographer and keeper of the Regent Rooms, over McCutcheon's Drug Store. He was an erratic person and was constantly watched by the police. One of his latest escapades, before leaving here for New York was being out fur buying with a launch and reporting the loss of all his money overboard. After leaving here he was reported to be teaching physical culture in the eastern states.

This afternoon's train, due from the east at 3.30, was reported this morning to be on time.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo Much Pleased with His Visit to Queen Charlottes

Minister Will Make the Principal Speech of His Campaign at Meeting Tonight at Moose Hall

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, who returned from a tour of the Queen Charlotte Islands yesterday, says he had a good reception and he is confident from the support he received, often from unexpected quarters, that he will get a much larger vote there than ever before. A number of people who formerly were opposing him have expressed appreciation of his work and intimated that they will give him their support on this occasion.

Mr. Pattullo held meetings at Massett and Port Clements on Massett Inlet and then crossed to Tlell and went down the East road to Skidegate where another meeting was held. The largest and final meeting was at Queen Charlotte City where he was much pleased to meet people from Sandspit and all the points around the Inlet.

Mr. Pattullo says the road from Port Clements to Tlell will be completed within a couple of months and then it will be possible to drive all the way from Queen Charlotte City to Port Clements. Construction of this has been difficult but is now almost an accomplished fact. The section between Skidegate and Queen Charlotte City is an especially fine piece of work and people of that district appreciate its advantages.

Tonight is the first occasion on which Mr. Pattullo has had an opportunity to make a real speech to the electors. He will be at the Moose Hall this evening at eight and will have some interesting things to say, following the recent visit of Hon. Dr. Tolmie, and in view of the general situation that has developed.

Swedish Airmen Rescued and Provisions Dropped for Men Marooned from Airship Italia

STOCKHOLM, July 6.—Lieut. Lundberg, the Swedish airman, has been rescued from the ice near Foyn Island where he was marooned when the plane overturned in an attempt to take off the Italia survivors after he had rescued General Nobile. The rescue was effected by the Swedish flyer Shyberg. No mention is made of the Italia survivors.

KINGS' BAY, July 6.—Five marooned members of the Italia on the Arctic ice had provisions and medical supplies and radio batteries dropped to them by Swedish flyers. Meantime there seems very little likelihood that the Russian aboard.

Another Swedish plane searched the icebreaker Krassin could effect a rescue soon. The ship is still fifty miles distant. That the five marooned men and General Nobile will be the only survivors of the Italia seemed virtually certain today. Since May 25 when the balloon part of the airship drifted eastward and apparently caught fire, nothing has been heard of the six men.

WHY MAKE POOR PAY?

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, leader of the Conservatives, declares that if he should form a government at Victoria, he will do away with the succession duty tax. Today when a rich man dies the province takes a percentage of the estate, before it is passed on to the heirs. The same is done in most countries, especially in Great Britain. In the latter country the tax rate on inheritance is very high. Small estates pay little but large ones pay high.

But Dr. Tolmie seems to object to this collection of succession duties from rich people because it tends to keep rich people from coming here.

In reply to this we would suggest that if rich people do not want to come they can stay where they are. We believe in treating them well but they must pay their share of the taxes.

The succession duties are taxes on rich people's estates and are among the most just of all taxes. The higher they are the better. If all the countries of the world could agree to do the same, the state should take a very large percentage of the estate of all people who die, thus doing away with much of the privilege of wealth. As it is at present impossible for the nations to agree on such joint action, the tax has to be kept reasonably low in order not to keep people out of the country. That seems to be the policy of the B.C. government. It is to be hoped that they will not be influenced by Dr. Tolmie and abolish it altogether. Probably the most just of all taxes are the income tax and the inheritance tax. They are taxes on the people who are best able to pay and those with small incomes are not affected.

HEAR PATTULLO TONIGHT

When Hon. Dr. Tolmie was here we urged people of this city to get out and hear him. They went in large numbers. Now we suggest that they hear Mr. Pattullo's reply. It is understood that the minister of lands has a few rather incisive things to say and he has a habit of saying them rather well when a campaign is on. We have been told that he will be practically the only speaker and that the meeting will not be unduly protracted.

THEATRE PICTURES

Attention has been drawn to the fact that portions of pictures are sometimes missing when they are shown here. Any such missing parts are those deleted by the censor for various reasons. Every picture exhibited in this province is first run through for one of the censors and if there is anything considered flagrantly objectionable it is cut out. Every province of the Dominion does the same but naturally there is a difference of opinion as to what shall be deleted.

We are told that the management of the local theatre never deletes anything, the picture being shown just as it comes to them. It is understood that when a film is torn in running it, as often occurs, the torn portion of the film has to be eliminated. As a film may be torn at any time, there is possibility of something not appearing for that reason.

Advance notices of pictures are written when the film leaves the producers and may contain references to parts which the censor has eliminated. This occurs in all picture houses alike throughout the province. The theatre notices are intended as a guide to readers of the paper but are not guaranteed in any way owing to the difficulties here mentioned.

LUNCHEON TO ROBERT WATSON

ROTARY CLUB AND WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB HONOR

VISITOR: MRS. WATSON

It was a large gathering, especially of Prince Rupert women, who gathered yesterday in the Commodore Cafe at a joint luncheon of the Rotary Club and the Women's Canadian Club to hear Robert Watson, the Canadian author, given an address on the tribulations and humors of authorship. The tables were filled to capacity and George Rorie, president of the Rotary Club presided, ably supported by Mrs. J. C. McLennan, president of the Women's Canadian Club. Two vocal solos were given, one by Mrs. Brocklesby and the other by Mrs. Cruickshank and at the close the speaker was thanked by Mrs. McLennan. Mrs. Watson also was present at the head table.

Story after story was told by Mr. Watson, most of them illustrating some feature of the work of writing or marketing literary wares. Thirteen stories Mr. Watson said, he had buried, so that he began to wonder whether he were an author or undertaker, but he was not so wealthy as the latter. In the art of marketing, Mr. Watson told of selling his first book three and a half years after it was written and that to a firm that had turned it down at first. One article he had offered forty times, rewritten and sold for a respectable sum after fifteen years of waiting.

One book this author had written he wanted to call "Be Sure Your Sins Will Find You Out," but the publisher explained it would be published just before Christmas and they could picture a person receiving a book with such a title as a Christmas present.

Dealing with the matter of critics, Mr. Watson said his lad Hughie had brought him a report from his teacher which was not a very good one. He had expressed surprise and sorrow, but the boy quickly came back: "Say, dad, did you read that review of your book in the Free Press yesterday?"

Then he further remarked, "Never mind school teachers and editors don't know it all."

Mr. Watson deplored the fact that only three or four authors earned their living that way. In the Argentine Republic a sum of $30,000 was voted annually for the encouragement of literary works by local authors dealing with their own country. Canada gave nothing. Until Canada had a literature she could not become a nation.

One thing Canada had to do was to get rid of the inferiority complex. She must learn that Canada can do things as well as other countries.

Mr. Watson closed his talk by reference to the work of Stevenson and other authors and of the difficulty of competing with them. However it was a chase that was enjoyable thing. When the prize was won the game was over.

Man in the Moon

These are days when candidates have to be careful. Every word they utter may be used against them.

It is difficult for a man to feel superior when he can't sleep at night.

Present fashions prevent joksters from speaking of the baseball moustache—nine a side or three out all out.

A crank is often a nuisance and yet most things are turned by it.

Some people have too much sense to worry and others have not enough.

Jake says he knows it's wrong to swear but it relieves him a lot to curse the Grits. Then he feels more like voting for them.

The world is divided into two classes, those who work and those who dodge work.

"Very glad to mate you," as the Irish parson said to the bride when introduced by the groom.

"It takes very little to please me," as the prisoner remarked when asked if he had anything to say before sentence was passed.

When a man says he will be true to the last, it all depends upon which one is the last.

To watch some of the pedestrians you would imagine they owned the streets and Jake says some of the motorists drive as if they owned the car.

There is a new way to lift a mortgage. The other day a train struck a car—hit it right between the second and the third payments.

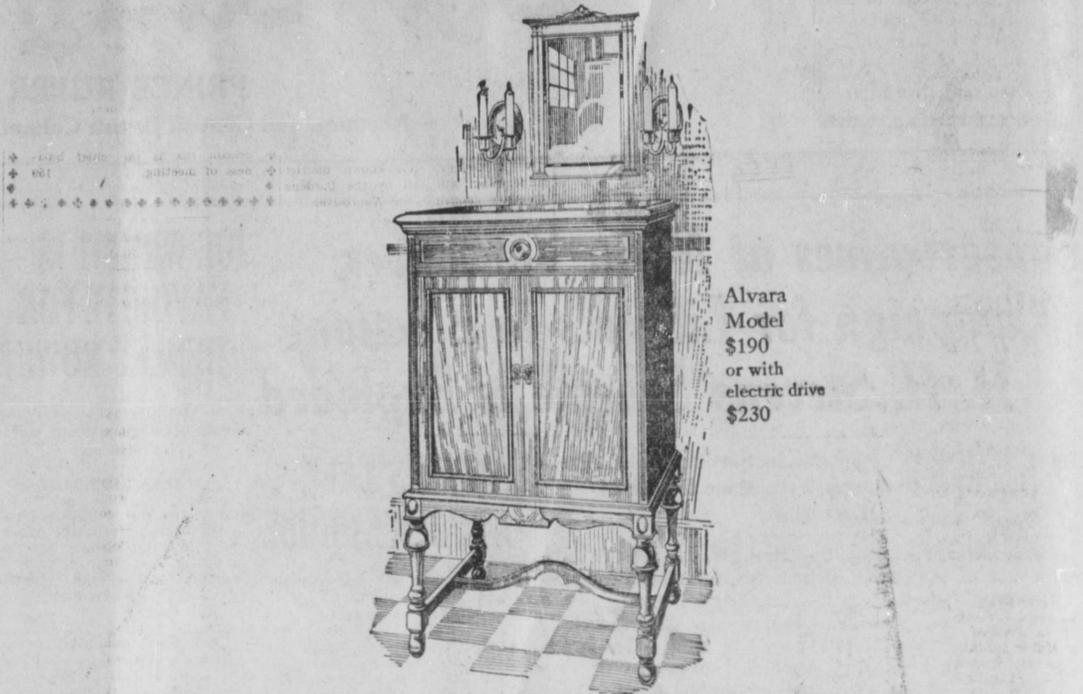

A negro preacher had posted, his bishop so much with appeals for help that the bishop finally told him with a tone of finality that he didn't want any more appeals from him.

The next week came another letter from the preacher:

"Dear Bishop: I assure you this is not an appeal. It is a report. I have no pants."

Mrs. F.—I just heard an awful story about your husband.

Mrs. C.—Do tell me. I need a new dress.

ROCKED WITH LAUGHTER AT "WHAT PRICE GLORY"

New York rocked with laughter for more than a season at the comedy scenes in "What Price Glory," the William Fox screen version of the celebrated stage success by Laurence Stallings and Maxwell Anderson, which will open here tonight.

The critics of the metropolitan dailies were unanimous in their commendation of this supreme motion picture achievement. Following is a brief reproduction of their views: Quinlan Martin of the World, says: "What Price Glory" becomes a film play of vast and inseparable entertainment qualities. It is terrifically funny, vitally hard-boiled and triumphantly free, for the most part, from the sticky slabs of sentiment which heretofore have featured and marred the efforts of those makers of the cinema who have striven to prepare for us in celluloid something of what once happened in the fields of France.

I can only bend low in acknowledging to a fine and gifted crew my appreciation for one of the grandest evenings which I have ever spent before a motion picture screen.

LARGE CROWD FOR MOONLIGHT VOYAGE Cruise Aboard Princess Royal Under Elks' Auspices Promises to be Popular

The vessel will leave the government wharf at 8 o'clock and return at midnight, sailing immediately thereafter on regular schedule to Vancouver.

Mrs. Jack Crawford of Vancouver is a passenger aboard the Princess George bound for Premier where she will be the guest of Mrs. Joseph Prout, who is also going north today.

In The Letter Box

THE FOG BELL

Editor, Daily News:—An item appeared in yesterday's "Empire" and I would appreciate your publishing my reply which I have sent to that paper, as follows: Editor, The Empire: Kindly allow me space to reply to an item in your paper re Fog Bell and signed by "Thompson's Campaign Committee."

It is well known that the policy of the Liberal Government has been to appoint returned soldiers to Civil Service and Government positions wherever possible.

Mr. Crewe, a returned soldier, held the position of keeper of the Bell at Pillsbury Point for a number of years. On leaving Prince Rupert, he turned the duties over to the juvenile sons of J. C. Brady, M.P. pending the appointment of a permanent keeper.

I made application for the position, and secured the appointment, my duties commencing on February 3.

I was not at this time the President of either the Prince Rupert or the District Liberal Association.

On the application form, among a number of questions were: Are you a returned soldier? What unit? Whether in France? If wounded or disabled? Length of service (which was four years and four days). You are very careful to state the salary is 120 per. I will finish your sentence by saying it is $120.00 per annum.

In the event of fogs or snowstorms during the night the keeper is notified by phone from Digby to start the Bell, so that it is necessary for a responsible person nearby to hold the position. My house is 6 minutes walk from the bell.

In your reference to this appointment you failed to state that Mr. Brady's boys of public school age also made application for the position—yet it is a fact.

I had hoped that this campaign would be fought without personalities, and on provincial issues. I fail to see where an appointment made under the Federal Government has any connection with an election of a member for Prince Rupert to the Provincial Legislature.

Thanking you, W. M. BROWN.

C. P. Ashmore, manager of the Grand by store at Anyox, will be a passenger aboard the Princess George tomorrow night going through to Vancouver.

THISTLES WON OPENING GAME SOCCER LEAGUE

TWO GOALS TO NIL WAS RECORD AGAINST REGIMENT LAST NIGHT

In the opening fixture of the City League Thistle won over the Regiment last evening by two goals to nil.

Both teams had changes from their regular line-up. Williscroft was at outside left and J. Currie at outside right for Thistle. The Regiment were without Baptie, Lamb, Tinker and Bye and introduced Redpath, a youth of sixteen, who made a good showing.

The first half was fairly even though Thistle were the more dangerous. W. Mitchell opened the score with a shot that gave Corbett no chance. Both forward lines played good football and Campbell saved from Wilson when the latter should have scored. Corbett brought off a fine save at full length, one of the best pieces of goal tending seen in the city. Haig was safe at back and Ross and Kelsey defended well for the Regiment.

With the advantage of the hill Thistle did more of the pressing but Regiment defence was solid. Hedden, Wood and Mitchell were feeding their forwards but Norrington, Kelsey and Ross were breaking up most of the attacks. Williscroft crossed a couple of dangerous centres from the left and Currie went close. Kelsey shot just over and Regiment pressed but offside spoiled an opening. Campbell saved a couple of shots but Regiment could not score. From a corner taken by Williscroft, Hunter was unlucky enough to head past his own goal to put the Thistle two goals up. Regiment were attacking when full time was called, with the Thistle deservedly winner two goals to nil.

Teams:
Thistles—Campbell; Haig, Erskine, G. Mitchell, Hadden, Woods, J. Currie Jr., Murray, A. Mitchell, W. Mitchell, Williscroft.
Regiment—Corbett; Ross, Hunter, George, Kelsey, Norrington; F. Hodgkinson, Redpath, Wilson, Doherty, A. Hodgkinson.

Geo. Russell refereed and A. Clapper-ton and C. Baptie were linesmen.

Regiment were well served by Corbett in goal. One save full length was a masterpiece. Ross tackled surely at back and Hunter improved on his last game. Kelsey did well at centre half though he hung on to the ball too much at times. Norrington played strongly at left half and was a source of trouble to the Thistle all through the game. Redpath turned in a good game and is a promising player. The rearranged forwards were not a dangerous attacking combination though all tried hard.

Campbell did well to save Wilson's shot but was not severely tested. Haig was the safer back. Hadden and Woods were the better halves. Mitchell still gives too many fouls away. The forwards played pretty football at times and W. Mitchell's goal was a beauty. Williscroft did not over exert himself though he centred well and showed that there is still lots of football in him. Currie lost no time in getting in his centres. A. Mitchell ran around a lot but both he and Murray missed many chances.

SPORT CHAT

July 15, a week from Sunday, has been selected as the date for the an-

Annual swimming gala at the Salt Lakes under the auspices of the Prince Rupert Swimming Club. An ambitious program of events is being arranged and much more interest, it is expected, will attach itself to the occasion by reason of the fact that the warships H.M.S. Durban and H.M.C.S. Vancouver will be here at that time. Men from both ships will be invited to participate in the event and, as all swimmers are supposed to swim and be very agile in various water sports, it is anticipated that they will lend much to making a real success of the occasion.

In the American League it is to be seen the spectacle of a team that should by all the laws of averages and everything else be a championship outfit, without a shadow of doubt, being simply murdered at its own game. Connie Mack's 1928 Athletics are a greater bunch of ball tossers than many a team that has won the world series, and yet it hasn't got a chance to make the grade because the Yanks are super ball players. Probably it would be much better for the game if Ruth and a few more of them went to the weaker teams.

Following a sweeping investigation into the practice of paying amateur soccer players a flat sum for expenses, the English Football Association has professionalized and suspended 350 athletes. A number of clubs were fined sums ranging from $50 to $200 and many officials of the clubs were blacklisted. The report of an investigating committee to the association disclosed that several clubs in Durham paid amateurs a flat rate for games considerably in excess of actual expenses. Most of the amateurs suspended will be unable to compete as professionals until December 31, 1928, while all officials concerned were placed under ban until June 30, 1929.

Among the clubs affected were Durham City, South Shields, Hartlepool United and Darlington, all members of the Durham League.
New York Giants have been showing renewed strength in the National League of late and, possibly, the World Series garden party this year may again be an exclusively Gotham affair. Certainly, the New York Yankees appear to be even more unbeatable than they have been the previous few years and there are many who seem to think that John McGraw will soon be getting his men in pennant winning form. At that the Giants have been playing steadier ball this season than possibly any of the other National leaguers and a little winning streak about now would put them on easy street. St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Brooklyn Robins, however, all have their backers and it is a long way yet from being any way definitely decided which of this quintette it is to be. All that any of them need is a good winning streak.

George Stallings, manager of the Montreal Royals, of the International League, for many years one of the most prominent figures in big league baseball, has left in charge of his son, for the home of the manager in Madock, Ga., there to go into temporary, if not permanent retirement from the game.

At Toronto Manager Stallings collapsed in a hotel on June 7, while the Royals were engaged in a series with the Toronto Maple Leafs. His illness was diagnosed as a heart attack and he has been confined to hospital since that time. Physicians have advised him that he must remain in a state of absolute quiet.

Around The World With Sport Fans (By The Tramp)

Grattan Bars "went" the Mansfield, Ohio, course in 1:07 1/2, and is still favorite for the New England Derby and the Kalamazoo Derby. He was clocked in the second heat at Mansfield, and he did the time with much in reserve. The victory was his second straight in the States, as he opened with a triumph at Sandusky, Ohio. Out at Deloraine, Man., the 12-year-old Canadian pacer Battle Axe, 2:01 1/4, travelled the fastest mile either in a race, work-out or against time seen this season. The veteran did 2:03 over a half-mile oval, driven by James M. Kealey.

There are all sorts of fool sport stories told these days. Here is one: "I played golf yesterday for the first time."

"How did you make out?"
"Fine! Made a home run right at the start. I batted the ball into the tall grass in left field and ran around the entire course before they could hit it."

How fast does a cricket ball travel when sent down by a speedy bowler? The question arose in the match between the touring West Indians, who were beaten by England in the first test match yesterday, when the Indians were playing Cambridge. The crowd was watching the wonderful bowling of Constantine as he topped one after another of the university batsmen when the question started. An appeal was made to the most renowned

FATHER Did The Washing Just Once

IF Father would take his turn at the tub just one time, old fashioned wash-day would vanish from your home forever. We can do the work more quickly and economically than you can. And you may doubt this, but it's a fact that we'll do it better, too. ## LABOR LEADER AND DAUGHTERS

FOUR WILL VISIT CANADA TOGETHER AS PART OF THEIR EDUCATION

(By Dorothy Russell, Associated Press)
 LONDON, July 5.—On July 28, Rt. Hon. James Ramsay Macdonald, former labor prime minister, sails with his three daughters for a five weeks' visit to the Dominion of Canada. The three girls, Isabel, Joan and Sheila, are particularly enthusiastic over the journey. They intend to cover as much ground as possible in the time at their disposal, and Montreal, Quebec and Winnipeg will be visited, although most of the time will be spent holidaying at Lake of the Woods, on the Ontario-Manitoba boundary. Miss Isabel explained that the Macdonalds were a busy family. "Joan Land, which lies south of Cape Horn, has also stated there will be no spirit of competition with Wilkins and Byrd. On the contrary he would compliment those South Pole expeditions.

The Wilkins and Byrd flights will coordinate each other. Dr. Bowman said, the two flyers covering separate sections of the huge unexplored region. On one side of the great mountain range known to extend into the Antarctic will be flying Commander Byrd, on the other side Sir George Wilkins, each gathering data to make a complete record of the country.

The plans of Commander Byrd, he said, call for a flight from the ice barrier to the South Pole and beyond so as to explore a part of the high Antarctic plateau. Sir George is to fly from a point in the Ross Sea near the ice barrier along the ice where the coast is believed to lie toward Graham Land. His plane is to be equipped with pontoons so that at the completion of his flight he can land alongside one of the many whalers which cruise in that part of the ocean and be picked up.

Sir George, said Dr. Bowman, will leave Panama on a Norwegian whaler about November 1, and will begin his flight about January 1, just as Commander Byrd begins his work on base stations at the ice barrier.

PLAN FLIGHTS TO ANTARCTIC

PRICE TOO HIGH SO BOAT WAS TAKEN AND BONUS OF LIQUOR, TOO

OTTAWA, July 5.—If you can't get anything any other way, take it. That seems to be the plan of the Dominion government. They had been negotiating for a speed boat on the East coast but the price, $30,000, was said to be too high. However, the liquor shippers could better afford to pay than the people of Canada so she was used for liquor running.

Caught when on one of her midnight excursions, the boat was confiscated and now will be used in the anti-smuggling business and in addition the government gets a bonus of about six hundred cases of liquor.
